

Widow 478

Chapter 478

Although Ariel was locked up in the detention center, she was not in a panic.

She was different from Jared, who had no money and no power. She was the only daughter in her family. Her parents would definitely save her.

Because of this thought, she had been treating the policewoman arrogantly. When the policewoman opened the door, Ariel rolled her eyes and said, "What are you doing here? It's not lunchtime yet, is it? The steamed buns you brought this morning are too terrible. Give me some shredded chicken. shredded with cold sauce at noon. When I get out, you will benefit from it."

The policewoman remained unmoved and said, "Your mother is here to see you."

Ariel immediately smiled and said, "She must have thought of a way to save me-I will give you one last chance. If you apologize to me now, I will not find trouble with you after I'm released, otherwise..."

"Do you not want to go?" The policewoman frowned and said, "Okay."

As she said that, she was about to close the door. Ariel hurriedly said, "When did I say that I don't want to go?!"
