

Widow 48

Chapter 48

“What?” Corey sneered. “Through formal procedure? Don’t say these decent-sounding words. Don’t f*cking think that I don’t know about Mark’s immoral deeds. He’s such a horrible dad. He even sent his illegitimate daughter to the land developers as a plaything.”

Harold looked at Luke. “Is he telling the truth?”

“That piece of land was handled by Mr. White. I’ve inquired about it. It was true that he sent his illegitimate daughter to those land developing officials using your name...”

Not to mention Corey, Luke also felt that Mark White was wicked. He didn’t care about his blood daughter, and he could blame this bad reputation on Master White.

“That piece of land in the outskirts of the city,” Harold’s gaze fell on Crystal. The girl’s eyes were swollen from crying. His tone suddenly became light. “The White family doesn’t want it anymore.” “Master White...” Luke was surprised. “Please think twice...”

This was a big deal. If he broke the contract, he would have to pay millions of dollars. Mark White valued this project very much and wanted to make a lot of money from it. Harold’s move was undoubtedly a slap in the face.

“The White family doesn’t lack these things.” Harold’s voice was cold. “Mark is a good-for-nothing. He never uses his brain when he does things and always uses the evil ways.

It came to Harold’s decision, Luke didn’t dare to say anything else. “Yes sir, I’ll

Harold looked girl was so coward. He pushed her out, “All right, here she goes. Is she such a treasure? She’s just a crying baby! Once the business is done, of course, I won’t bully side, suddenly had a feeling of a child being bullied

and going home to complain

a tough man. He couldn’t be like this. It must be Harold’s voice was low. Those who were familiar with him all knew that this wasn’t a his arms, “He said he would bury me in

are not a

her face, “He even pinched my cheeks so believe it. “When “You did!” Crystal accused.