

Widow 495

Chapter 495

But how could she accept it?

Everything was going well, and Harold was supposed to be dead. How could he come back? Why did he come back?

She was about to become the matriarch of the White family, but now she was reduced to a laughing stock in Fairby. She didn't dare to go out or meet anyone. Even those who used to flatter her dared to step on her. It seemed that they couldn't wait to prove that they were on bad terms with each other.

Mark might be sentenced to long-term imprisonment, and Cyril would be sentenced to death... For a moment, Kimberly only felt that she was alone, and there seemed to be no hope for the rest of her life.

However, Harold was about to step on her as well!

She was now in dire straits, but Harold had invited all the powerful and influential people in order to give Crystal a name in front of everyone. Crystal was such a despicable person. She was just a country bumpkin and did not even deserve to carry her shoes. However, Harold was going to admit today that she was the future Young Madam of the White family and the future matriarch of the White family!
