

Widow 507

Chapter 507

This bomb was completely different from the inferior explosives on Kimberly's body. It was a very precise time bomb. The ones tied up were all wearing the clothes of the White family's servants. Many people even recognized one of them.

It was none other than Kimberly's trusted subordinate, Sister Delia!

Even Crystal had an impression of her. When she first came to the White family, Sister Delia was very high and mighty. She didn't take Crystal seriously at all and even wanted to attack Crystal. But at this time, her mouth was wrapped with tape, and the thin and tough hemp rope hung her and the other two servants on the tree. From a distance, she looked like a lantern, which was very strange.

Seeing this scene, Crystal felt a little uncomfortable.

She felt... a little familiar.

The children felt curious and continued to circle around these people. Their parents were going crazy. They hurriedly called their children to come over and retreated back far away.

non-stop, and Luke's face was Kimberly to run out, but now someone had tied up the White family's servants under his nose and hung them on a tree, and he didn't looked at Crystal thoughtfully and happened to meet

said, "I'll call someone narrowed his eyes slightly and snorted. "The people who are watching the

Then he heard the sound of the time bomb, which was like a drum beating on the hearts of all the people. It was the countdown of the lives of three people. "What's going on... there's actually someone who dares to come to the White family. "Are they crazy?

to explode! I don't go back.

of noises. Crystal looked at Sister Delia's twisted and painful expression in a daze. In addition to the obvious pain and fear, Crystal felt that... she also saw regret in her the bomb had been found, the bomb exploded with a loud bang. Crystal only saw a flash of light, and her eyes of her face. Crystal asked in a low voice, "Was it like in the amusement park, where

It should be.