

Widow 523

Chapter 523

Looking at her mother's cowardly look, Bella was annoyed. "What are you afraid of? Will the people in the master room eat you?"

Gale's wife had no dignity in front of her daughter. She put her hands together and said, "Bella, please go. If your father knows that I haven't been there when he comes back, he will definitely beat me again."

As an expectant college student, Bella initially felt that it was wrong for her father to always hit his wife. But slowly, she felt that it was also right for her father to hit her mother because her mother was so cowardly.

"Okay, okay, I'll go." Bella picked up the hot kettle impatiently. She didn't feel sorry for her mother, but she felt that if Gale came back and beat her up, everyone would know about it and she would be surrounded by a big crowd. She was a college student and couldn't afford to lose face.

Bella walked out of the kitchen. It was still raining heavily outside. With the light in the hall, she could see three or four seemingly valuable cars parked on the roadside.

In fact, there was a lot of space in the car, so they didn't have to stay here. Bella heard from her mother that it was because there was a little girl in this group of people who couldn't bear the suffering, so she came to stay overnight.

Thinking of this, Bella couldn't help but pout.

that she couldn't even couldn't help but how could she be treated like this? Bella thought for a while and arrived at the door of the main room. Only then the door in silence, like two gatekeepers. Bella was so scared that she stepped back and almost is it?" One well-informed and pretended to be calm, but her voice

man looked at the big kettle in Bella's walked into the inner room, trembling with had slept in this room. It was the most spacious room. When she entered, she saw a half-long and short cloth curtain. Bella looked down and saw a man squatting on the ground with get there. The rain was heavy and Bella became envious again.

for being born in such a small village. If her parents were rich and she was also a daughter of pink feet. Her toes were round, her toenails were blood-red, and there were a few obvious blue veins on the back of