

Widow 525

Chapter 525

In fact, Bella didn't have much evidence, but her grades were good. She was also a good student in school. Everyone would believe what she said, not to mention that Crystal's middle school grades were indeed a mess. Gradually, these words were spread, and many people believed them firmly.

When Debbie learned about it, she felt that Crystal had embarrassed her. When she went back, she locked Crystal up in the woodshed and beat her up. She didn't even give her dinner. When Bella heard about it, she went to watch a good show.

In Bella's eyes, Crystal was just a poor person who had been trampled on by her. The girl in the room could not be Crystal!

But...

It was so similar.

Crystal's voice was very easy to recognize, and she was born soft. Men liked this kind of tone. Bella had learned it in secret, but she couldn't learn it. She pretended to be very disdainful, but in fact, she was very envious.

wife and said, "Didn't you say that Crystal was taken away by her biological parents? Do you know know." Gale's wife put the pack of milk into the hot water and said, "But it seems that they are very rich. After all, why would they leave her here for four years? If I remember correctly, someone came and said, "That girl from the Hays family is also pitiful. I'm scared of that old woman from the Hays family, not to mention that Crystal and said, "What is she pitiful about? I am pitiful, okay? If you were not so was admitted to high school, such words were often mentioned. Gale's wife said, "There's no other way. You've indeed come out of my would rather I was taken her head. "You for a while and saw someone entering the kitchen. He asked in a gentle voice, yes." Gale's wife said nervously, "I'll take it out smiled and took out the milk from the water. Then he opened a yellow