

Widow 526

Chapter 526

Luke said, "According to Mr. Reynes's information, it can be confirmed that Bed is the one behind it. But we still don't know what the connection between Bud is with Young Madam."

Harold was not surprised.

Larry and Bud had seen each other from a distance, but he had fought with Bud.

Bud became famous at a young age and became a world-renowned killer. Naturally, he was not just an ordinary killer. Harold rarely appreciated anyone, but Bud was one of them.

After most of the cigarette was burnt, Harold casually shook the cigarette. Luke continued, "According to our intelligence network, Bud's attack disappeared from the public's sight about five years ago. He kept a low profile, and there were a lot of people following him, but it could be confirmed that it was an imitation crime made by Bud's fanatical admirers. He himself has not appeared for a long time."

"How's the investigation of Sunshine Village going?" Harold changed the topic.

no progress for the time being." Luke said, "Our people did their best to investigate, but it is just an wasn't anything special, Chloe wouldn't have chosen to nourish her fetus here." Harold spat out a smoke ring, narrowed his eyes, and far away from Fairby. It's to the public that when Madam Kyla was pregnant, her fetus was unstable and she would have an abortion anytime. The doctor suggested finding a small village with beautiful scenery to recuperate. As for how the Sunshine Village was selected, no one knew." Luke frowned and said, "Now that I think about it, it's really strange. Although Young Madam was born prematurely, the medical skills of Sunshine Village were so poor. How could the Evans family rest assured that she Harold laughed.

the eaves, put out the

have some unexpected gains on this during the summer, especially the rain in the countryside, came one after it was because there were drops of water hanging on the plant, reflecting the sunlight, which made the her from behind