

Widow 528

Chapter 528

Crystal turned her head and saw Bella against the light.

She thought that her relationship with Bella was not good, but Bella's voice was too enthusiastic when she called her, as if she had seen a long-lost sister.

Seeing that Crystal knew Bella, several men in black got out of the way. When Bella saw Crystal's face, she suddenly felt that it was not Crystal.

This should not be Crystal.

When Crystal was young, she was incredibly adorable. When people saw her, they could not help praising her. No one believed that Mia could give birth to such a child. The more beautiful a child was when she was young, the uglier she would be when she grew up. Since junior high school, Crystal had become ordinary and had no sense of existence, so Bella almost forgot that she had once been jealous of Crystal's appearance. Bella?" Crystal hesitated and called out, "Are you looking for me for something?"

Bella secretly pinched her palm, pursed her lips, and showed a smile. "It's really you. You've changed so much that I almost failed to recognize you."

Crystal had left for less than two months, but she looked totally different from the village girl in was obviously made tied her hair into two braids, she still a country girl who could only look up to her

Crystal smiled and said, looked at the man standing next to Crystal, but she was so scared that she didn't dare to look at his face. She only dared to Crystal nodded.

village. Can I go with you?" Bella said nervously, "Someone borrowed my father's tricycle anxious. Although he was also very surprised by Crystal's transformation, he knew that Crystal was no longer the girl of the Hays family who could be at the mercy of others. He was afraid of offending others. "Bella, don't bother

What nonsense was this glared at Gale and signaled him to shut up. Gale subconsciously that all right?" Bella said, "It was Sacha who asked me to give Fiona an English tutor in the village. You know