

Widow 529

Chapter 529

Although it was sunny now, because of the heavy rain last night, the dirt road was still wet and muddy. Harold carried Crystal to the car as he did just now when they came. Crystal was quite embarrassed and said, "... I can walk by myself."

It had been raining heavily last night, so no one noticed it. However, there were so many pairs of eyes staring at them now. She blushed and buried herself in Harold's arms. Her voice was soft and weak as she said, "It's not like I've injured my leg."

Harold said, "You'll dirty your shoes."

He was very calm. He put Crystal in the car. Bella wanted to sit in the same car with them, but Luke said politely, "Miss Olin, please come with me."

Bella looked at the closed door and said unwillingly, "Can't I sit with Crystal in the same car?"

Luke was still polite. "I'm sorry, Miss Olin. My boss doesn't like to sit in the same car with strangers." ... Okay then." Bella took a few steps and asked, "What's the relationship between Crystal and your boss?"

smiled and said, "She is the fiancée

If one could sit comfortably in his seat, he was considered to be lucky. The car she was in now was totally different. The seat was made of real leather, and there was premium perfume in the car. It was very stable on the muddy road, unlike the van she usually took. As soon as Crystal got in the car, she felt dizzy and soon fell asleep again. When they arrived, it
