Chapter 591

Harold didn't take her words seriously.

Old Madam Grecic slowly lay back and said, "If you keep Crystal, you won't have a good ending "You don't believe in karma, but there will always be a time when you seek the gods for help Harold said regretfully, "You probably won't be able to see it."

Old Madam Grecic stared at Harold's face for a while and said, "Didn't you always want to know what happened to Leilani? I can tell you now."

Harold looked at her quietly. "If it weren't for this, do you think I would have kept you alive until now?"

As for Leilani, many people only knew that her marriage with Halden was not blessed. Old Madam Grecic hated this daughter-in-law very much and suppressed her from time to time. In the end, she drove a normal person crazy. Later, Leilani committed suicide in the ancestral temple of the Grecic family. Her blood splashed on the memorial tablet of the ancestors of the Grecic family, which was shocking.

Old Madam Grecic sneered weakly. Then she smiled oddly and said, "It was said that I was the one who drove Leilani crazy and I was the one who forced Leilani to death. I have nothing to say after so many years."

His love was deformed and sick, but he would not allow Leilani to die.

Old Madam Grecic clenched the sheet with trembling fingers and said in a hoarse voice, "Why, are you holding expectations toward your so-called father?"

"Holding expectations?" Harold smiled. "Looks like you're really dying soon. You're not even clear-headed now."

"If there is anything else you want to say before you die, say it as soon as possible." Harold raised his wrist, looked at the time, and calmly said, "I have something else to do."

Madam Grecic closed her eyes, took a deep breath, and said, "I didn't like Leilani, but I

You!" Old Madam Grecic said angrily, "You are so indifferent even to your own mother!"

Harold said, "She didn't fulfill her duty as a mother, so I naturally don't need to fulfill my filial duty."

Old Madam Grecic's face was livid and she seemed to be out of breath, but she still stared at Harold. "I have told you everything I know! You can't... can't..."

She couldn't catch her breath. After a long while, she continued, "You have to keep Clint's life. You can't let Mark lose his son!"

"Don't worry." Harold stood up and said, "As long as they don't provoke me, I'm too lazy to be bothered."

After that, he walked out. He had already stepped out of the threshold. Suddenly, he turned back and looked at the old woman on the bed under the soft light. He said, "In your next life, remember not to have anything to do with the Grecic family."

Crystal didn't like Halden and instinctively didn't want to have anything to do with him. But when she heard him mention Chloe, she couldn't help but ask, "Have you known each other for a long time?"

"Yes," Halden said, "when I saw her for the first time, she was only six years old. Later, I was a senior of hers for three years. Back then, many people teased us and said that it would be a pity if we didn't get married."

Crystal opened her mouth.

Was the relationship between Chloe and Halden so good?

"Don't get me wrong." Halden smiled. "I was a very close friend of your mother. We didn't love each other. After graduation, our friendship remained normal."

“Chloe...” He narrowed his eyes and said with a smile, “She seemed to be very kind to everyone. At that time, she was very famous in school. Those who wanted to give her a love letter would have to line up to pass it to her.”

Crystal pursed her lips and asked, “Do you know how my parents got together?”

After thinking about it for a while, Halden said, “Daxton was the president of the student union. They were colleagues. When he chased after Chloe, he made a big fuss. Chloe never agreed. I thought that they wouldn’t be together. But suddenly, they got married.”

Speaking of this, Halden glanced at Crystal. “They should have quite a good relationship after marriage.”

Sadie heard from Nigel that Danny would get off work on time tonight, so she specially cooked a big table of dishes.

Danny closed the door and looked at Sadie quietly. “Your birthday?”

“No,” Sadie said in a gentle voice, “I just feel bad to trouble you all the time during my stay.” Danny had been wandering in the business world for many years. Of course, he knew that one wouldn’t curry favor for no reason. But looking at the table full of home-cooked dishes, he was silent for a moment. Then he went to wash his hands and sat down to eat with Sadie face to face. When they were about to finish eating, Danny finally said, “Do you... have anything that you want?” His question was rather tactful. Sadie smiled and said, “Well, it’s nothing major...”

She looked at Danny with a smile and said, "The Old Madam of the Grecic family has passed. You will go to attend the funeral, won't you?"

"Yes."

"Then..." Sadie said softly, "Can you take me there?"

She always felt that the name Crystal should be very important in her memory in the past. Danny cleaned his hands slowly and did not ask Sadie why she wanted to go. He said calmly, "Okay."

Harold's words last night meant that he would be very busy.

Crystal was basically just a vase. She would be dragged out for a walk at times. She didn't need to attend the wake, nor did she need to deal with miscellaneous affairs. She became the idlest person in the Grecic family.

However, she had only been idle for two days. Because on the third day, there were many guests who came over one after another. There were people from the Evans family too.

Crystal was embarrassed. "Thank you."

"The sound is so crisp." Sadie and Crystal went to the corridor together. This was the inner yard, and there were few people. The wind chimes hanging on the eaves of the corridor rang. Sadie reached out and shook it. With a "ding", she said, "Have you heard of that meditation Crystal thought for a moment and asked, "The one about wind chimes?" "Yes." Sadie nodded. "It hangs in the void, regardless of the east, west, north, or south, making the Ding Dong sound."

She sighed softly. "I can't understand the realm, but I always feel that I am like such a wind chime." "It's shaking and noisy, as if it has seen the most bustling scene in the world. But in fact, it just stayed where it was in the end."

Crystal was slightly stunned.

"I'm sorry." Sadie said, "I shouldn't have told you this, but..." She curved her lips and said, "I think I've seen you before."

"I used to be in the countryside." Crystal said, "We shouldn't have had a chance to meet. Did you meet someone similar to me before?"

Antony, who was riding a horse with others in the stable, sneezed for no reason.

Leroy came up with a horse rein and asked, "Which girl is thinking about our Third Young Master?"

"It should be my sister." Antony rubbed his nose and said, "Other than my sister, who else would think of me?"

He raised his chin high and spoke in an impatient tone, which made people want to punch his handsome face.

Leroy immediately became jealous. "D*mn it. Why did I even ask?"

Mason caught up and asked, "Isn't it Old Madam Grecic's funeral today? Crystal should be in the Grecic residence. Why don't you go and see her?"

Antony said unhappily, "I feel like going, but my dad said that we are not familiar with the Grecic family. There is no need for so many people to go over. He only asked my eldest brother to go alone."

"That's true." Mason nodded in agreement. "Uncle Evans is very thoughtful. If you're the one who goes there, you will only care about playing with your sister. Old Madam Grecic's funeral is a big deal. You can't be there to fool around."

"You!" Angelica was so angry that she stamped her feet. "You actually have the nerve to hate me? Sadie, don't think that you can erase all the things you have done in the past just because you have lost your memory. It is only because President Evans is a good person that he is willing to support you, someone who comes from such a poor family. Do you really think that he likes you?"

Sadie was silent for two seconds and asked, "Are you envious?"

Sadie said, "Don't be envious. When your parents die, maybe Danny will be willing to raise you for charity too."

"How dare you curse me?!" Angelica was obviously a brainless person. The little princess, who had been spoiled by her family, felt that the whole world had to revolve around her. She would be furious over the smallest thing. "Sadie, back then, when you got engaged, you still hooked up with Daniel. You even escaped from your wedding and ran away with Daniel. Don't tell me that Daniel was your true love. If that's the case, you should have canceled the engagement with the Evans family instead of relying on them! You want to be the Eldest Young Madam of the Evans family, but you're unwilling to let go of your little lover at the same time!"

These words made Sadie unable to refute for a while

Crystal looked at Sadie in shock. She didn't expect her gentle-looking sister-in-law to be so vigorous. Sadie was caught in the bed with her lover and still flaunting her lover... Danny was a cuckold

From this, it could be seen that Danny was really a good person. After all, Sadie had done so much, and he was willing to support her.

Sadie looked into Crystal's shocked eyes, hesitated for a moment, and said, "I know what you want to ask..."

“I just thought about it. There’s nothing wrong with it. I may really have done these things.”

Crystal was speechless.

She... she admitted it so simply.

Her sister-in-law was a real woman.

Angelica sneered. “Is it useful for you to deny what the whole City W knows? Sadie, let me tell you, you’d better leave Mr. Evans as soon as possible. Don’t be a disgusting vampire. It’s sickening.” Sadie said, “Gossipers are also very annoying, aren’t they? Don’t you know that people who love to gossip during their lifetime will go to hell where their tongues will be pulled out after they die?” Angelica was speechless.

Not to mention Angelica and Helena, even Sadie was amazed by Crystal. She sighed and said, “It’s so good to have someone to back you up.”

Helena smiled and said, “Miss Evans, in fact, this matter is not so serious...”

Crystal ignored her and only said to Sadie, "Look at them. They have bullied you a lot in the past. Today, my elder brother is also here. Why don't we let him make it clear whether he is interested in Miss Angelica or not?"

In fact, Crystal was just bragging. She didn't dare to go near Danny. But Sadie was still there. Crystal believed that Danny was willing to use Sadie as an excuse to get rid of Angelica.

Helena still wanted to persuade her, but Crystal was a man of action. She pulled Sadie to the mourning hall.
