

Widow 65

Chapter 65

Crystal followed Tim into the club. He said, "Go change your clothes and put on makeup first." Crystal asked hesitantly, "...Does a waitress need to put on makeup?"

Tim knew that Walter had lured her here, but he didn't care about it. He said, "It's very high-end here, and it's only necessary to put on makeup. Otherwise, the guests won't be in a good mood when they see you, right?"

Crystal replied with an "oh".

Tim took her to the third floor. He opened a door and said, "Go in. They will help you with your makeup."

When Crystal entered the room, she saw that there were many people, both men and women. Some of them were trying on their clothes and some were putting on make-up. Each of them was very beautiful. They were bright and beautiful. It was as if Crystal had gone to the wrong place when she appeared here.

"Sonia." Tim shouted, "You should take care of this girl."

A sexy woman with heavy makeup came out and said, "Yo, isn't this Tim?"

to chat with you today." Tim looked at the time and whispered, "You also know looks like a student." "Hurry up and change her clothes."

okay, okay." Sonia said, "You're the

at Crystal. "Follow

short dress and gave the short dress and asked,

"What's wrong?"

too short," Crystal whispered, "I don't want to her temper, but after thinking about it, she found that the little girl looked so pure. Wearing such a revealing dress would not look good on her. After looking for a long time in the wardrobe, she finally conservative, just an ordinary dress. Crystal nodded went into the fitting room to change her clothes, Sonia's eyes immediately lit up. Although she couldn't see how the girl looked clearly, it was not an exaggeration to say that her skin was put on makeup for you." Sonia pressed Crystal down and made her sit down in front

Crystal was speechless.

be a waitress. Why do I need to look beautiful? Does a rich man have such a high

