

Widow 67

Chapter 67

Tim became impatient. After all, that big client had a bad temper. He had been here for nearly ten minutes, but there was still no escort. It was really outrageous.

“Look.” Sonia pulled Crystal and said, “Walter really has sharp eyes.”

Tim looked sideways and was stunned.

Then he patted his thigh and said, “Walter... Walter is really reliable!”

As expected of Walter, for him to be able to produce such a stunning beauty!

Crystal was shocked by Tim’s behavior and she stepped back.

Tim quickly said, “I’m just too excited... I think you’re definitely qualified for this job!

He said to Sonia, “Ask the other girls to come over.”

girls came one after another. Tim said, “Now you the opportunity to climb up, you’ll be in luck. If you dare to mess it faces in front of him and of front of a private room and knocked on the door. After hearing someone’s reply, he said with a smile, “I brought a few girls a smile, “Okay, I

to go in, and dimly lit. She looked up and saw about five well-dressed men sitting inside. The rest. were all middle-aged bald men, which made the man sitting in the innermost room a black suit. Even in the dim light, the outline of his facial features could be seen. He looked like a marble man had no expression on his face. It was obvious that he was not easy to deal and said, “These girls are really one. When he saw Crystal, he couldn’t move an inch. His eyes were shining.

young man, nodded and bowed, and said, “... I picked this girl out of thousands of choices.

hand, which was out of tune with the atmosphere in the private said, “I know that you have never been involved in these things, but this one... I