

Widow 72

Chapter 72

Sonia looked at Crystal as if she were looking at an alien.

Crystal suddenly understood why Danny's attitude was so strange.

He thought that she came to the club to sell her body, so he advised her not to work here. She retorted righteously that this was not an improper place.

Crystal was speechless.

In fact, this kind of embarrassment was just to make Crystal pray that she would never meet Danny again in this life.

She walked out of the club with a blank face. She found a wall and squatted for a long time before she recovered. When she looked up, she saw a woman with a face full of concern. Seeing her look up, woman sighed and said, "Little girl, what are you sad about? I saw you crying here didn't cry. I was just too

you

Danny in the future, she could just commit suicide. It was not a big deal. She

"If you

shop. It's newly opened, and I can't that it was a real dessert shop. Then she said, it's okay." The woman seemed to be afraid that she would commit suicide, so she pulled her up and said, "When you are leaving, I will find someone else.

woman took her into the dessert shop. The shop was not big, but the decoration was the transparent cabinet and placed it in front of Crystal. "When you're sad, eat something sweet and you'll was flattered. "There's no need.

it." The woman smiled and said, "I made it myself.

Alissa. You can just call me Sister Alissa. I went out to dump garbage and saw you recall what she had done. "...I was