

Widow 85

Chapter 85

Danny had a meeting early in the morning. The meeting did not go well, which made him in a bad mood. When he walked out of the meeting room, he saw the secretary waiting for him. He frowned and asked, "What's wrong?"

The secretary was also a little hesitant. Looking at Danny's increasingly ugly face, he took out the thing in his hand and said, "President Evans, I found this on my desk today. Please have a look."

Danny took it and saw that it was a check.

He had only issued a check of 1500 dollars once in his life, so he instantly remembered what was going on with the check.

The little girl in the club... returned the check to him? Why? Didn't she want money? Why did she return the check since she could work at that kind of place for money?

"Do

what?" Danny asked

with his boss and said, "She could put the
