

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 1110

Feng Qing remembered very clearly that until now, many of the missions and businesses of the Blue Stocks Capital and the Xie Corporation overseas had to be reported to the Ziwei Star so that they could safely and smoothly sail on the sea. Just as Feng Qing was secretly shocked, a familiar voice suddenly entered her ears. Feng Qing raised her eyebrows and instantly knew that it was Mr. Qing Er's voice.

"Hehe, I didn't expect Qingqing to really be here. It looks like we've come to the right place," Mr. Qing Er said in a very low voice.

Mr. Qing Er, Xia Qianxue, and Di Minghao, who was wearing an Ultraman mask, sat in the left audience not far from Feng Qing. Seeing that Feng Qing was fine and was not injured, Mr. Qing Er heaved a sigh of relief.

However, he still said with a worried expression, "Did you guys see that? Qingqing should be controlled by Ziwei Star. I wonder how she will deal with Ziwei Star next and whether she can find a chance to escape."

Di Minghao's voice sounded from behind the mask. "If I'm not wrong, Feng Qing won't choose to escape at this time because this is the open sea. It's useless even if she can hide for a while. Only when the cruise ship is about to approach the dock port will it be the best time for her to prepare to escape."

With that, a pair of small eyes behind Di Minghao's mask couldn't help but size Feng Qing up. Through her performance at the auction just now, Feng Qing had successfully attracted his attention. He felt that Feng Qing was quite capable. Not only could she escape from so many fully armed security personnel, but she could also sit here and watch the competition safely after being caught again. She was really something. Feng Qing was the first woman who could do this.

Mr. Qing Er looked in Feng Qing's direction worriedly. Xia Qianxue held Mr. Qing Er's hand and mumbled to herself, "We have to believe in Qingqing. She definitely has her own methods. It's fine as long as we confirm that she's not in danger now. The three of us shouldn't act rashly. We'll just return to Room 118 in District B on the ninth floor and wait for her later. It doesn't matter if she really doesn't come. I just calculated that this cruise ship will dock in Port Malu in seven days to replenish its supplies. When the time comes, we'll cooperate with Qingqing and escape."

With that, Xia Qianxue specially turned to look in Feng Qing's direction. Her gaze met Feng Qing's from afar. She knew that Feng Qing had a super hearing ability and could hear their words just now, so her words were both for Mr. Qing Er and Di Minghao, and for Feng Qing to hear.

As expected, although Feng Qing's face was expressionless, she took in Xia Qianxue's words word for word. Her thoughts coincided with Xia Qianxue. Seven days later, when the Divine's Light docked in Port Malu, it would be the best time for her to escape from the Divine's Light. However, at the thought of this, Feng Qing frowned. If she had to endure until seven days later before taking action, wouldn't the PG19 virus hidden in Xie Jiuhan's body completely explode? At that time, if she wasn't by Xie Jiuhan's side, the result...

Feng Qing looked at Di Qianmo beside her without a trace. Although she wanted to escape Di Qianmo's control, this was the Divine's Light after all. She wasn't sure if she had the ability to escape. Just as she was thinking about various plans, the competition started at the request of a host. This colosseum was imitating the architectural style of Cuba. According to the tradition of the Divine's Light, after every auction, there would be a beast competition on the second floor of the basement. The so-called beast competition was to let people fight with wild beasts. In the eyes of these people from the Seven Stars Continent, all the people who weren't from the Seven Stars Continent couldn't be considered humans, or they weren't qualified to be called humans. Therefore, they usually caught some second and third-class people to participate in the beast competition and took pleasure in watching it.

The competition started. The first to appear was a thin young man. This young man was a typical Westerner. He had deep concave eyes and a sharp hooked nose, as well as long golden hair and a pair of light blue eyes. Moreover, his lower jawbone was very wide. The young man was very tall and was estimated to be at least 1.85 meters tall. The young man was only wearing a short-sleeved shirt and a pair of black sweatpants. Other than that, he did not have any other protective tools. However, he was holding a baseball bat tightly in both hands. The young man's opponent in this match was an adult lion from the grassland. When the iron cage door opened, the lion roared angrily and jumped out of the cage. The lion stared at the young man with bloodshot eyes and looked very excited.
