

The Wife I Picked Up Is Too Chapter Chapter 419

Chapter 419: Full Marks

Twenty minutes later, under the lead of the vice-principal, three authoritative mathematics experts walked over. Although they were the experts in Xia country's education and science world, they greeted Xie Jiuhan respectfully when they saw him.

The vice-principal reported, "Ninth Master, Principal Di, after the three experts' re-assessment of the examination papers, from the solution to the verification process to the overall conclusion, the three experts agreed that Student Feng Qing's examination paper should be given full marks, especially the answer to the big question, which had obtained the good reviews of the three experts."

With that, the vice principal turned to look at Shen Suying. "To be honest, I also looked at the examination paper with the three experts just now. I'm very puzzled as to which teacher is so irresponsible to actually give the scores of five and zero. It's simply baffling."

An old expert with white hair snorted coldly and said, "Forgive me for being blunt. After reviewing the papers just now, I found the three graders and asked them why they were grading like this as it was completely irresponsible. In the end, they told me that Chief Shen Suying ordered it. They said that Chief Shen felt that Student Feng Qing's answer did not suit her aesthetic standards."

"That's right. I also want to ask Chief Shen, when did the student's answer become related to your personal aesthetic?" The vice-principal continued.

Hearing this, Shen Suying's mind was blank. She mumbled for a long time and could not speak. "I, I..."

It was a large-scale social execution! In front of these three top experts, her thoughts and little tricks were simply laughable.

The truth was out. Di Zongzhi snorted coldly and said, "Chief Shen, you have really let the Capital University become honorable. It looks like it's a waste of your talent to be the chief. I'll definitely ask Old Chief Shen personally how high the aesthetic standards of the young lady of the Shen family are!"

Upon hearing the words 'Old Chief Shen', Shen Suying's expression changed drastically. She was even paler than the white on the wall. A layer of cold sweat appeared on her nose and palms.

"Principal Di and three specialists, you've really misunderstood. I didn't mean anything else. I was just joking at that time. I didn't expect that the three graders would really take it seriously." Shen Suying braced herself and said. However, even she didn't believe her own words. Her voice became softer and softer. She wished she could immediately become a mouse and find a hole to hide in.

Just as everyone was making things difficult for Shen Suying, Feng Qing finally opened her mouth. "In that case, does that mean that my final score for the S-level paper is full marks?"

The three experts looked at Feng Qing and nodded at her with a smile. The white-haired old man said, "You're right. Counting the results of this subject, all your exam results are full marks!"

"Hiss..." The surrounding students gasped. With full marks for all the subjects, was Feng Qing still human? Moreover, there was an S-level examination paper.

After getting an affirmative answer, Feng Qing's lips curled up. She looked at Shen Suying and said, "Chief Shen, I'm sorry. I won the bet this time. According to the content of the bet, you have to kowtow and apologize to me in public."

Her words stirred up a thousand waves. The students stretched their necks and pricked up their ears. Many people even took out their phones and changed it to recording mode. They all looked forward to Shen Suying kowtowing and apologizing. This kind of famous scene could only be seen once in a lifetime.

“Feng Qing, I’m warning you not to go overboard. I’m your teacher after all, the chief of the school. There’s something I want to tell you. It’s called don’t burn one’s bridges.” Shen Suying shouted angrily.

She couldn’t afford to offend others, but wouldn’t it be easy to deal with Feng Qing? Although she had lost the bet, she wanted to use her status to suppress this matter.

Principal Di raised his eyebrows. “Chief Shen, what bet are you talking about?”

Without waiting for Shen Suying to speak, Feng Qing explained first, “Principal Di, Chief Shen relied on her status as the chief and is usually very mean to us students, especially students with poor family conditions. She is kind to those students with good family conditions and rich and powerful backgrounds. She is not a qualified teacher at all. On the day of the midterm examination, she looked down on me, so she slandered me for cheating and refused to apologize to me. Therefore, I made a bet with Chief Shen. As long as I scored full marks for the S-level examination, she will kowtow and apologize in public..”
