Chapter 1071

After along while, Mr.Johnston Sr”s finger moved again.This time, Nicole saw it, and she excitedly called out to Jared.

“Your grandpa’s finger moved.”

Jared immediately looked at his hands.

“Where is it?”

“It just moved.”

Jared stared at his hands with unblinking eyes, and suddenly his finger moved again.

This time, both of them saw it.

“Grandpa, can you hear me? Open your eyes and look at me if you can.”

Nicole saw this and said to Jared, “Your grandpa seems to hear you.Talk to him more.”

Jared glanced at Nicole and continued to talk to Mr.Johnston Sr.about his childhood.The clock was ticking, and Jared held his grandfather’s hand and kept talking to him, while Nicole watched nervously.

Suddenly, Mr.Johnston Sr.opened his eyes and looked at the ceiling with confusion. Jared and Nicole saw this and immediately went up and asked, “Grandpa, are you awake?”

Mr.Johnston Sr.heard the voice and turned to look at Jared and Nicole with a smile at the corner of his lips.Jared immediately called out, “Somebody, go get the doctor.”

A moment later, there was a rush of footsteps outside the door, and then the doctor and nurses hurried in.

“Let me examine him.”

Jared and Nicole stood by and watched as the doctor and nurses did a series of tests on Mr.Johnston Sr.The doctor then looked at Jared with a smile on his face.

“Everything is fine with the patient.We will take another blood test later.Meanwhile, we will keep observing him.Don’t let the patient talk too much.”

“Okay.”

The doctor and nurses took the blood sample and left.

Inside the ward, Jared and Nicole looked at Mr. Johnston Sr., and Nicole said, "Grandpa, how are you feeling after waking up?"

Mr. Johnston Sr. nodded slowly, meaning he was fine. Nicole looked at Jared.

"Grandpa is in good shape. Don't worry."

Mr. Johnston Sr. felt happy to see the two of them the moment he woke up. Jared looked at him and said, "Grandpa, don't worry about the company. Everything is fine. All you need to do is rest and get well."

"Mr. Johnston, you and Miss Riddle haven't had breakfast yet. Do you want me to make arrangements?" Claus asked.

"Don't bother. Just buy takeout and bring it here," Jared said.

Since Mr. Johnston Sr. was awake, they would have breakfast in the ward.

"Okay, I will go get it right now." Claus left.

Mr. Johnston Sr. was not well enough to talk, but he was not deaf. He looked at Jared and Nicole as if to say, "Go get your breakfast. I'm fine here."

"Grandpa, you don't have to worry about us. We would like to stay here with you."

Nicole guessed what was on Mr. Johnston Sr.'s mind and looked at him with a smile. Mr. Johnston Sr. smiled and nodded gently. Henry had just sat down in his office when he received a report from his spy.

"Mr. Johnston Sr. has woken up."

"What? When I went there this morning, he was still... Okay, I know. You guys continue to keep an eye on it. Alert me if there is something."

Henry sat down in his chair with a blue face. The waking of Mr. Johnston Sr. was bad news for him. His mind was racing. He did not expect that Mr. Johnston Sr. would wake up, and he did not know what to do now and if his father remembered anything.

Henry wondered if it was in his best interest to go see Mr. Johnston Sr. now.

A lot of things went through his mind.

Just then, there was a knock on the office door.

“Dad, I got word that Grandpa has woken up.”

Castor and Murphy hurried in.

“I already know.”

Henry was trying to figure out a solution with one hand on his forehead.

Chapter 1072

“What do we do now? Will Grandpa still remember the perpetrator’s vehicle?” Castor asked, looking at Henry.

“How should I know? Where did the man Jared freed go?” Henry looked at Castor.

“He is probably on a train to another state by now.”

“What is the point of going to another state? Send him and his family out of the country the same way you did last time.” Henry ordered in a stern voice.

“Send out of the country? It is too late now that the train has left.”

“Immediately send two teams of people, one picking up his wife and children, and one picking him up at the next station, and then book the next flight to send him away immediately.”

“Dad, there is no need to be in such a hurry.”

“Your grandpa is awake now. The sooner these people are taken care of, the better. Just do as I say. Also, have you dealt with the car and the driver?”

Henry could not wait any longer; one more day of delay and Jared might find out.

“It has been taken care of. Jared will never find out in his lifetime. Dad, are you still going to the hospital?”

“I’m thinking about it, too. Jared was suspicious when I went there this morning. If I go there again, it would be like I have got a spy there. So, let’s pretend we don’t know about it.”

There was a cunning look in Henry’s eyes.

“Okay, we will then go do our job.”

“Well, go on.”

Claus returned to the ward with the takeout he had bought.

“Mr. Johnston, breakfast is here.”

“Okay. Just put it on the table.”

“Grandpa, we will eat something first and come over later to keep you company.” Jared looked at Mr. Johnston Sr. Mr. Johnston Sr. blinked, looking a little sleepy.

Nicole could see that he was sleepy, and she gave Jared a gentle wave. As they came to the table and sat down to eat, Nicole looked at Jared.

“Your grandpa is awake, but he needs more sleep and rest. So we shouldn’t disturb him again.” Jared heard what Nicole said, and he thought for a moment.

“Grandpa just woke up and can’t be left alone. After breakfast, you go back first, while I will stay here with him. I’m worried about someone causing trouble at this time.”

Nicole understood what Jared meant and nodded.

“Okay, I will bring you dinner tonight.”

“Thank you. I really appreciate your help all this while.”

“Don’t mention it.”

After breakfast, Nicole wanted to tell Mr. Johnston Sr. that she was leaving. As she came to the hospital bed and saw that he had his eyes closed and was still resting, she decided not to disturb him.

“Jared, I will go then.” Nicole said her goodbye to Jared.

“Let Claus drive you home.”

“It is okay. I will just take a taxi myself. Claus should stay here and help you.”

Nicole’s understanding and thoughtfulness made her attractive.

“Okay, take care then.”

Jared walked Nicole to the elevator, waited with her for the elevator. He watched her step into the elevator and disappear before his eyes before he came back outside the ward, where Claus whispered to him, “The car has been found, but it’s burned beyond recognition. But we can still barely make out the chassis number.”

“Where is the car from?”

“It is from another state. The owner has been found and brought back.”

“Where is the owner?”

“I have settled him in a hotel, and our people are watching him.”

“Good. I will go to check on him tomorrow. Don’t mention this in front of Mr. Johnston Sr.”
Jared instructed.

“Aye.”

Jared pushed open the door and walked into the ward, where Mr. Johnston Sr. was still resting. He was a little exhausted, so he came to the couch, lay down, and quickly fell asleep..

MY WIFE IS A HACKER CHAPTER 1073

Chapter 1073

Nicole returned to the villa and rested for an entire afternoon.

When she got up again, she got a call from Kelly. “Nicole, I have moved into the new house you found for me, and I have been staying idly for a few days. Do you have any work for me?”

Nicole thought for a second and found that she had no work for Kelly to do now. she figured that if she let Kelly stay idly for too long, Kelly might think too much. “Kelly, I will send you an address in a minute, and you go and help out there tomorrow.”

“Okay. I promise to finish the job.” At last, there was something to do. Kelly thought Nicole had forgotten about her at first.

After hanging up the phone, Nicole called Martin. “There is a girl named Kelly coming to see you tomorrow, she is my assistant.

Could you please give her something to do?”

“What is your assistant doing here if she is not working for you?” Martin asked, puzzled.

“I have nothing for her to do on my side for now, so let her work at your place first.”

“I have nothing for girls to do here, either.” Martin pondered, finding nothing for Nicole’s assistant to do.

“You can arrange what Charles usually does for Kelly, she is very diligent in her work.”

“Okay, then I will see what I can do. But don’t blame me for giving her too much work later.” Martin wanted to pre-empt the blame he might get from Nicole later on.

“You are so kind, Mr. Wyance. You won’t drive her too hard.” Nicole deliberately gratified him.

“That won’t work on me. I have got to work now.” Martin hung up the phone.

Nicole looked at the time and saw that it was about time to prepare lunch, so she went to the kitchen and got busy.

The next day, Claus drove Jared to the hotel where the owner of the vehicle was staying.

“Is he still inside?” Claus asked a bodyguard.

“Yes.”

“Open the door.”

As Jared walked in, the vehicle owner looked at them with a confused look, “who are you people? what are you doing holding me up here?”

“Relax. I just want to ask you something.” Jared looked at the shivering vehicle owner.

“Is the car in the video yours?” Jared asked Claus to show the man the video.

The man looked at the video and nodded. “It looks like the car I lost, but without the chassis number, I can’t be sure.”

“Show him the chassis number.” Jared instructed.

“The chassis number is that of the car I lost,” the owner said, looking at Jared.

“This car was stolen?”

“Yeah. I didn’t know my car was stolen until they found me.”

“You are so careless. You didn’t even know your car was missing.” Jared looked at him and had no words. He found that this man did not look like he was lying, and by the looks of things, he would not find any clues from him because someone else must have stolen his car to hit his grandfather.

The vehicle owner helplessly lowered his head before he looked up abruptly at Jared. "Do you know who stole my car? I have to make him pay for it."

"Make him pay for it? Unless you can find the guy who stole your car, then not only will you be compensated but you will also receive an additional reward." Jared scanned him with icy eyes.

The vehicle owner was confused, wondering what Jared meant by he could receive a reward even after losing his car.

"Let him go." Jared looked at Claus and left.

Just as he got into his car, a phone call came in, and he answered it. "Speak."

"Mr. Johnston, someone is trying to send Conrad and his family away. What should we do?"

"Don't let him leave. Grab him and bring him back, along with whoever sent him away." Jared commanded in an icy voice.

"Aye."

MY WIFE IS A HACKER CHAPTER 1074

Chapter 1074

'He wants to escape after doing something bad? No way,' Jared said in his mind. "Go to the hospital."

In the hospital, Henry was sitting at the bedside looking panickily at Mr. Johnston Sr, who had woken up.

"Dad, you finally woke up. I have been waiting for you to wake up all this while." Henry looked at him with an excited face and some tears in his eyes.

Mr. Johnston Sr. just nodded his head when he saw tears in Henry's eyes.

"Dad, do you feel uncomfortable anywhere? I will have the doctor come over to take a look at you right away."

Mr. Johnston Sr. shook his head.

"Dad, can't you talk now?" Henry looked at him timidly. He would be relieved if Mr. Johnston Sr. woke up without talking. "Dad, do you remember what happened before you were injured?" Henry finally asked what he wanted to ask.

Mr. Johnston Sr. shook his head again. Henry was instantly relieved and looked into his father's eyes. "Dad, it hurt me to see you like this. I will find the vehicle that caused the accident and will not let the bad guys get away with it."

"How is Mr. Johnston Sr. today?" Jared asked the doctor as he walked in the hallway.

"He is better today than yesterday. He has the strength to talk," the doctor said.

Pushing open the door to the ward, Jared saw someone he did not want to see.

"Hello, Jared." Henry greeted when he saw the door open and Jared came through the door.

Jared glanced at him once, and then walked over to Mr. Johnston Sr. "How are you feeling today, Grandpa?"

"Fine." Mr. Johnston Sr. said with little strength, but he was better than yesterday. At least he could talk now.

Henry looked at Mr. Johnston Sr. in shock, as he did not know that his father could actually talk. "Dad, is there anything you would like to eat? I will have someone bring it over to you." Henry pulled a smile, as if he was happier than everyone else after Mr. Johnston Sr. finally woke up.

"No." Mr. Johnston Sr. could barely utter a word.

Henry was about to continue when Jared cut him off. "Grandpa has just woken up and can't talk too much. Let him rest for a while."

Henry gave Jared a disgruntled look and then looked at Mr.

Johnston Sr. with a smile. "Dad, have a good rest. I will go back to work and come back to see you another day." With that, Henry got up, glanced at Jared again, and left the ward.

Jared looked at his grandfather and said, "You rest. I will stay here with you."

Mr. Johnston Sr. nodded and fell asleep.

Henry got into the car and slapped the seat hard next to him. "I didn't expect the worst to happen—Father can now talk. The good thing is that he doesn't remember what happened before the accident. But I still need to make some preparations, just in case."

"Drive." Henry instructed his assistant.

Carl followed the information and coordinates Nicole gave him and found the doctor whose license had been revoked. In the restaurant, the unlicensed doctor was leisurely dining with a hot woman when Carl, in his suit, came in and sat at the table diagonally across from him.

“Sir, here is the menu.” A waitstaff came over and handed a menu to Carl.

“I would like a steak, thank you.” Carl’s eyes were fixed on the unlicensed doctor.

“It is a beautiful day. I’m happy to have lunch with you.” The unlicensed doctor looked at the hot woman and sweet-talked her.

MY WIFE IS A HACKER CHAPTER 1075

Chapter 1075

“Me too. It is so relaxing to sit here. I’m happy.” The hot woman smiled and glanced out the window.

“What do you usually do in your free time?” The unlicensed doctor asked.

“Travel.”

“I enjoy traveling too. We can go together sometime.”

Carl scoffed as he listened in to their conversation. “So he is picking up the girl.” He took out his phone and sent a message.

[I have got my eyes on the unlicensed doctor.]

[Don’t let him discover you.] Nicole replied.

[He doesn’t have time for me. He is chatting up a hot chick right in front of my eyes.] Carl surreptitiously took a picture of the unlicensed doctor and the hot woman and sent it to Nicole.

[He really knows how to enjoy his life, but he doesn’t have much of a chance. Find a chance to grab him.]

[No problem.]

“I don’t know your name yet.” The unlicensed doctor looked at the blonde beauty.

“Elsa.”

“Elsa. Nice name. My name is Jack.” The unlicensed doctor just gave himself a foreign name.

“If you want, I can drive you to a beautiful spot for a photo shoot later. Would you like to be my model?” The unlicensed doctor invited her.

“A photo shoot? Nice. I’d like that very much.”

The two hit it off immediately. After the meal, the unlicensed Dr. Jack drove the hot woman to the countryside, and Carl was not far behind. Suddenly, Carl thought of a brilliant plan and stepped on the gas pedal to overtake.

The unlicensed Dr. Jack was chatting and laughing with the beauty in the car, when suddenly the beauty exclaimed, “There is a man who seems to be injured up ahead, should we stop and take a look?”

The unlicensed doctor glanced at Carl lying on the ground and then looked at the hot woman. “We are not doctors. We can’t help much. Let’s leave him to someone who can.” He just did not want to get into any trouble, let alone have anything to spoil his date with this hot woman.

Looking at the unlicensed doctor’s car driving past with no intention of stopping, Carl cursed, “Goddamn it. what kind of doctor doesn’t stop when seeing an injured person? oh, I forgot, he lost his practicing license.” starting the car, Carl chased after the unlicensed doctor’s car.

The unlicensed Dr. Jack drove all the way to a beautiful riverside in the suburbs and stopped the car. He then took the hot woman for a photo shoot. Carl stopped his car at a hidden place in the distance, got out, and gradually approached Jack’s position.

On the riverside, Jack helped the woman pose, taking the opportunity to get up close and personal with her. As the camera shuttle clicked away, one after another, photos of the woman were taken. Feeling that the time was almost right, Jack sat down close to the woman, pointing to the distant scenery with his finger. Just then, the two looked at each in close range, the tips of their noses touching together, and then Jack kissed her.

Carl saw it was the right moment and quietly approached. He then rushed over to subdue Jack, who thought it was some bad guy, and put up a fight. The hot woman was terrified and kept screaming.

Carl had to calm her down and told her to relax, and that Jack was a fugitive. Jack stopped struggling and turned to look at Carl when he heard that. “What gives you the right to arrest me, and who sent you?”

“You have hurt someone. You know it yourself.”

Jack paused for a few seconds, then continued to argue. Carl ignored him. He tied Jack up and shoved him into his car. Before he left, he told the hot woman, saying, "That car is yours now. Drive yourself back, and you have never seen what happened."

The hot woman nodded, then drove off at once.

Carl drove Jack to the plane that he had prepared in advance. He tied Jack's hands and feet and secured him in a position where he could not interfere with him piloting the plane. He then started the plane and flew toward Nicole's location.

MY WIFE IS A HACKER CHAPTER 1076

Chapter 1076

[The plane will land in an hour. I have brought the guy back.]

[Copy that.]

Nicole told Jared the news, and they drove to the agreed location to wait for Carl to fly in.

Shortly after, a plane flew in Nicole's direction. Carl saw Nicole and a bunch of cars on the tarmac. He found a suitable spot and landed the plane safely.

After turning off the engines, Carl walked off the plane with the unlicensed Dr. Jack.

Nicole walked up to Carl and said, "It has been a long day. Take a rest here."

Carl looked at Nicole. "Okay."

"Take the guy away." Jared glanced at Carl, then ordered.

As Claus waved his hand, several bodyguards stepped forward to grab Jack, escort him to the car, and drive him to the hotel for custody.

"Let's go." Jared said to Nicole.

Nicole looked back at Jared and nodded, then looked at Carl. "Let's go."

Nicole and Jared arrived in a car and stopped in front of the hotel, while Carl arrived in the car behind them. Getting out of the car, Nicole wanted to wait for Carl to go in with her. Jared had no choice but to follow her. When they got into the private lounge, the three of them were seated. Nicole first took a glass of wine and toasted to Carl. "I didn't have a chance to thank you for helping me so much last time, so I will make up for it this time.

Tonight is just for you. I will take you to a fun place tomorrow," Nicole said, and even winked at Carl.

Jared toasted Carl with a glass of wine, too. "Thank you for helping us out so much. Everything here is on me."

Jared's wealth was enviable, but Carl had no desire for money. He just looked at Jared and accepted his tribute with a smile.

At the dinner table, Nicole and Carl were chatting and laughing, completely ignoring Jared, who was sitting beside Nicole.

After much brouhaha with all the food and drink, Nicole and Carl became high and started to stand up and sing. Jared had no words for it, as this was the first time he had seen Nicole completely let herself loose. The singing in the room was so loud that Jared could not take it anymore. He dragged Nicole over, flipped her on his shoulder, and walked out.

"What are you doing, Jared? We are not done yet." Nicole struggled on his shoulder.

"Nicole, Nicole..." Carl staggered as he tried to reach for Nicole.

"Bring this gentleman to the hotel for rest." Jared instructed his bodyguards. He continued to carry Nicole to the car, with Nicole dancing on his shoulder.

Back at the villa, Jared carried her to the bedroom, gently put her to bed, and looked at her, whose face flushed. He wiped her face with a hot towel, and then covered her with a quilt, and hugged her to sleep.

The next day, Nicole woke up with a terrible hangover, when she did not see Jared beside her, she crawled out of bed and put on her shoes before staggering toward the stairs.

Jared was having breakfast in the dining room when he saw Nicole wobbling down the stairs. He immediately put down the cutlery and rushed up to her. "Why didn't you get more sleep?" He helped Nicole to sit down in the dining room.

"I'm thirsty. Is there any water?" Nicole's eyes were half-closed, her eyes dull.

Jared quickly poured her a glass of water and handed it to her. "Here you go."

Nicole took the water and gulped down at once.

"Drink it slowly," Jared said with concern.

In no time at all, Nicole had finished a large glass of water. "More."

MY WIFE IS A HACKER CHAPTER 1077

Chapter 1077

“A glass of water early in the morning is enough.I have made you some porridge.”

Jared put a bowl of porridge in front of Nicole.

After having a glass of water, Nicole was more awake, and she looked up at Jared.

“How did I get back yesterday?” Jared looked at her with a frown.

“You don’t remember?” Nicole shook her head.

“I don’t remember.”

“I carried you back yesterday, and you were fighting back.It took me a lot of effort to get you back.My shoulder is still sore.”

Jared wanted to laugh at the memory of last night.

“What are you laughing at?”

Nicole could tell Jared was holding back his laughter.

“I’m not laughing.” Jared denied it.

“I saw you laugh.Stop denying.”

“Where is Carl? Is he still sleeping?” Nicole asked Jared as she looked around and saw no sign of Carl.

“I arranged for Carl to stay in the presidential suite.He stayed there last night.”

The scene of Carl holding Nicole’s hand and singing together last night came to mind at the mention of Carl.

“Oh, thank you.”

‘Is she saying thank you on behalf of Carl? Is it possible that in her mind, Carl is closer to her than I am?’ Jared looked not too happy at the thought, but he still cared for her.

“Have some porridge and then go up to rest.I will go to the hospital first.”

“Okay, bye.”

Nicole glanced at him, then lowered her head again.

Jared sighed helplessly, got up, and put on his suit, then walked outside.

After Jared left, Nicole ate nothing. She just poured another glass of water and took it upstairs.

When Jared arrived at the hospital, Mr. Johnston Sr. had already woken up from his nap and greeted him when he saw Jared walk in.

“Grandpa, you are awake early today.”

Jared came to the bedside and sat down to talk to him.

“The nurse opened the window for me this morning. The air is very fresh.”

Mr. Johnston Sr. had a better spirit now, and he could finish a sentence without taking a breath.

“Your spirits are getting better every day. Do your wounds still hurt?” Jared asked.

“It doesn’t hurt as long as I don’t move. It is better than the first day I woke up.”

Mr. Johnston Sr. started to have a smile on his face.

“Where is Nicole?” he asked.

“She is not feeling well today, so I asked her not to come.”

Jared found a random excuse, not wanting to mention what happened last night.

“Let her rest at home if she is not feeling well. She doesn’t need to come here every day. You too; the company has so many things waiting for you to take care of. I’m fine here. Don’t worry about me.”

Mr. Johnston Sr. looked at Jared with kindness and understanding.

“Understood. It is not busy these days, so I don’t have to be at the office all the time.”

Jared did not dare to tell him that Henry was the acting chairman now, so that he would not get angry, lest it affected his recovery.

“Oh.”

Mr. Johnston Sr. nodded his head.

At this time, the doctor was doing his rounds.

“Doctor, did you get the results of the last lab test?”

Jared looked at the doctor.

“It is out. Some of the patient’s health indicators are slightly low, but there are signs of recovery, and they are rising every day. So there is no need to worry.”

“That is good. How long will it take for my grandfather to return to normal and be discharged from the hospital?”

“It is still hard to tell. There is no way to deduce it based on the current situation.”

“Jared, there is no hurry. I can rest anywhere anyway.”

Mr. Johnston Sr. was expansive.

MY WIFE IS A HACKER CHAPTER 1078

Chapter 1078

“Grandpa, I have some things to take care of. You take more rest. I will be back soon.”

“You go and do your things. No need to come back. Go and get busy.”

“Okay, I’m off then. If you need anything, press this button.” Jared pointed it out for him.

Mr. Johnston Sr. looked at him and nodded.

Arriving at the hotel, Jared sat in his chair, scanning the unlicensed doctor with an air of authority.

“Who are you people? How dare you abduct me! Do you know that this is illegal?”

The unlicensed doctor shouted at Jared.

Jared did not care what he said and asked the question he wanted to ask, “Is that you in this video?”

The unlicensed doctor took a look at the video of him giving an elderly person an injection and denied it.

“No.”

Seeing his denial, Jared showed him the video of him entering the men's room with a backpack.

"Does this ring a bell?"

The unlicensed doctor looked at it and swallowed unconsciously.

Jared was taking all his expressions in.

"Who sent you to kill my grandfather?"

Jared looked at him expressionlessly, his air of intimidation filling the room.

The unlicensed doctor felt suffocating.

"Kill your grandfather? That is a crime I can't afford."

"You're not going to tell me, are you?"

Jared then glanced at Claus, who got the hint and slowly approached the unlicensed doctor with a syringe.

"What are you doing?"

The unlicensed doctor stepped back in fear.

"Grab him."

Claus instructed the bodyguards.

Two muscular hands clamped down on the unlicensed doctor so he could not move.

Claus then approached him and was about to give him an injection.

The unlicensed doctor cried out in fear.

"What is this drug?"

"Who sent you?" ιονελεβισκ.φσμ Jared asked again in an icy voice.

"It really wasn't me. You have the wrong person."

The unlicensed doctor was still sophomoric.

Claus jabbed the man in his arm at once.

The unlicensed doctor tensed as he watched the injection go all the way into his body, his legs going limp as the bodyguard let him go.

He shuddered and looked at Jared.

“What did you do to me?” Jared looked at the time and said bitterly, “Don’t worry. It is not going to kill you. But in ten minutes, I’m afraid you won’t be able to keep that arm.”

“This little trick isn’t going to fool me. You guys underestimate me.”

The unlicensed doctor leaned against the wall and gasped, but was terrified inside.

“Really? Then you had better hold on. I have plenty of time to play with you, but you only have two arms and two legs.”

Jared leaned back in his chair and looked at him with stern eyes.

Judging by Jared’s expression, he did not look like he was lying to him.

The unlicensed doctor started to feel a pain coming from his arm and it perturbed him.

As time went by, the spot where he was injected started to fester.

The unlicensed doctor took off his clothes and immediately saw the part with necrosis.

His lips trembled when he said, “What have you done to me? Give me the antidote.”

“The antidote is right here, but you have to tell me who sent you,” Jared said.

Just a while ago, the unlicensed doctor was still boasting. But now he was shaken.

“That person really isn’t me. Maybe it is just a body resemblance, but it is really not me.”

The unlicensed doctor was still defending himself sophomorically.

MY WIFE IS A HACKER CHAPTER 1079

Chapter 1079

“I didn’t expect you to be so loyal, but unfortunately, you followed the wrong person. Maybe you don’t even know if the people you protect with your life will want you dead even more when they know you have been captured.”

Jared’s words hit him where it mattered.

A flash of hesitation flashed in the eyes of the unlicensed doctor. He started to think that what this person said made some sense.

The pain was still eating away at his arm, and when he looked at it again, his arm had become festered and bloody. But he still gritted his teeth and held on while pondering what Jared had just said.

“You don’t have much time left. If you still wait a little longer, you will lose this arm of yours.” Jared kept playing a mind game with him.

“Do you want your arm and protect yourself, or do you want to lose your life for that irrelevant person? Which is worth more? And what are you doing all this for?”

The crushing pressure from Jared was knocking on his brain.

The pain in his arm was too much for him to ignore, but he was afraid of retribution from that person if he betrayed him. But now that he was hurt, the man did not show up to save him.

The unlicensed doctor lowered his head and kept thinking and weighing his options.

After thinking about it hard and long, the unlicensed doctor looked up at Jared.

“I will tell you, but you have to keep me safe. If that man knows that I have betrayed him, he will definitely send someone to kill me.”

“As long as your information is valuable, I can grant you the request.” Jared looked at him with serious eyes.

The unlicensed doctor hesitated.

“I didn’t see his face clearly, but that man has a pentagram tattoo on his hand.”

“A pentagram?”

Jared looked into his eyes, examining him to see if he was lying.

“Any other features?”

“When that man found me that day, he was wearing a suit. He was about five-foot-eight, wearing a baseball cap and a mask, slant- eyed.”

The unlicensed doctor had explained all that he knew.

“That is all I know. Give me the antidote,” he said anxiously.

“Have you not come in contact with anyone else besides this man?”

“No.”

“Do you know what his purpose is?”

“No. He just asked me to dispense some drugs to keep the old man in a coma.”

Jared looked the unlicensed doctor in the eye.

“Give him the antidote.”

Claus tossed him the antidote, which he immediately injected into his own arm.

“For your own safety, stay here for the time being. My men will protect you.”

Jared could not let him go just yet, as he still needed him to identify the mastermind.

The unlicensed doctor looked at Jared with fearful eyes and nodded.

Walking out of the room, Jared instructed Claus.

“Check this man out according to his description.”

“Okay.”

Nicole was resting when she was suddenly awakened by the ringing of the phone. She felt for the phone and answered, “Hello?”

“Are you still sleeping? It is already late morning.” Carl’s voice came over the phone.

“Why do you care? You are up?”

“I’m up. I’m going out to get something to eat. Have you eaten?” Nicole asked. Carl asked.

“No.”

Nicole suddenly remembered that someone had offered her a bowl of something while she was still in a trance this morning, but she had left without eating it.

She wondered who the person was, or if it was just a dream.

“Do you want me to pick you up and we go get something to eat together?”

“Yeah.I will send you the location,” Nicole said, closing her eyes again while Carl was still talking on the other end.

MY WIFE IS A HACKER CHAPTER 1080

Chapter 1080 “Nicole, the location you sent isn’t detailed enough.Can you send a more detailed one? Hello? Are you listening to me?”

Carl hung up the phone after no reply from Nicole.And he thought he might as well rely on himself.

After locating Nicole’s exact location on his cell phone, Carl hailed a cab and headed to Jared’s villa.

After getting out of the car, Carl rang the doorbell at the gate.

Nicole opened her groggy eyes and looked at the bedroom door, wondering who had come to disturb her sleep again.She went downstairs to the door, saw Carl’s face through the CCTV camera, and opened the gate to let Carl in.

Carl came to the door of the villa, where Nicole was standing there waiting for him.

Nicole asked, “How did you get here so fast?”

“It’s okay.Are you still sleeping?”

Carl looked at Nicole and knew she must have just woken up.

“Yeah.Come on in.”

Nicole led Carl in.

“Where do you want to go to eat later?” Nicole looked at Carl.

“I don’t know.I don’t know this place very well.Do you know where the food is good?” Nicole had asked her to come along because he expected her to take him to a good place to eat.

“Hmm...” Nicole thought for a moment.

“Take a seat while I get changed, and then I will take you to find something good to eat,” Nicole said and headed upstairs.

“Okay.”

Carl sat on the couch, waiting for Nicole, feeling bored.

Soon Nicole came back downstairs with a change of clothes, looked at Carl, and said, "Let's go."

"Have you thought about where we are going?"

Carl walked shoulder to shoulder with her.

"Yes, You drive."

Nicole tossed him the keys.

"You treat me as a driver again?" Carl complained.

"Cut the crap. There is no such thing as a free breakfast. Just drive."

Nicole gave him a look and got into the car.

Carl got in and complimented her.

"That's a nice car. Who gave it to you?"

"Couldn't I have bought it myself?"

"You? Come on, you wouldn't spend money on a car. Who is it?"

Carl looked over at her and raised his eyebrows.

"Jared."

"I knew it. No one but him would buy you a car that expensive."

"I don't see how that is a compliment. So drive."

Nicole hit Carl on the shoulder.

Carl started the car, floored the gas pedal to drive out of the villa.

Nicole looked at him and frowned.

"What are you doing, driving so fast?"

"I'm trying out the speed of this car."

Nicole shot him a look and had no words.

"This is the city. If you drive like this, the traffic police will come after you."

“Do you think I would be afraid?”

Carl was challenging Nicole’s patience.

“Are we here to race?”

“Ah...I forgot.”

Carl slowed down, having just been so completely absorbed by the car that he had forgotten what they were even out to do.

“Turn right up ahead.” Nicole told him with a darkened face.

“See that place? Go there.”

Nicole pointed to a splendid clubhouse.

Carl parked the car, and they got out and walked to the clubhouse.

Carl looked at the entrance.

“Come on, let’s go inside.”

Nicole stepped inside.

“Hello, do you have an appointment?”

The lobby attendant asked Nicole.
