Chapter 791

"Hmm, it really looks a bit too busy."

"Are there any more special ornaments?" Gloria asked the service staff.

"Yes, there's anew Mona-style necklace, simple and generous. Let me show you."

"Okay."

"Is this lady wearing it?"

"Yeah."

"Can I help you put it on?"

Nicole looked at the necklace in the service staff's hands and then at Gloria.

"Absolutely."

The service staff helped her put it on neatly.

"This necklace matches your beautiful neck perfectly."

"Let me see."

Gloria looked at Nicole, who was wearing the necklace.

"Well, not bad. Do you like it?" Gloria asked for her opinion.

"It's fine. I will take this."

"I will buy this necklace."

Gloria turned to the service staff.

"Wait a minute. I will pay for it."

Nicole handed out his bank card to the service staff.

Gloria stopped her.

"How can I make you pay? This is a gift from me. Keep your card away."

"Mom, I'm happy that you came out with me. I can't make you spend money again."

Nicole knew the necklace was expensive.

As a homemaker, Gloria had been bullied over the years and had not much money in her hands.

"Mom?" a sweet voice came from a direction.

Gloria looked over her shoulder.

"Norah?"

Norah and her friends had come up to them.

"Nicole is here. What are you two doing here? Norah glanced at the necklace in the service staff's hands.

"Wow, what a beautiful necklace!"

Norah could not take her eyes off the Mona-style necklace.

"Can I try it?"

Norah looked at the service staff.

"I'm sorry, Miss. This lady has bought the necklace."

"How much is it? I will get the same one, too."

"Sorry, this is one of its kind."

"Only one?"

"Mom, I want this necklace, too."

"Norah, this necklace is my gift for Nicole's engagement. Why don't you take a look at something else? I will buy it for you."

Gloria smiled.

"Mom, I think this necklace must be expensive. Can I choose a gift of the same price?"

Norah blinked her big, lustrous eyes at Gloria.

Gloria was in a predicament, not knowing what to do.

"Norah, Mom might have bought this necklace as a gift for me, but I did not make her pay for it. If you have something you like, you can buy it with your own money."

Nicole did not want Norah to get her way because she could tell that Norah was just looking for trouble.
