Chapter 896

After a short while, Nicole came out in her dress. Jared was stunned at the moment he saw her as if he had seen a fairy.

Fairy, is it okay if I call you that from now on?" Jared joked with a smile on his face.

Fairy? Do you want me to call you a fairy boy? That's hilarious." Nicole rolled her happy eyes at him.

Jared still could not help but compliment her.

This gown matches you so well, light and delicate. It was the first time Nicole had been complimented by him like that in front of outsiders, and she felt shy. People are looking at us.

Jared turned around only to find the store manager and the staff members looking at them with smiling faces.

You guys go out first. Suddenly, he instructed them like a changed person.

After everyone else had left, Jared looked Nicole up and down and continued to compliment her.

If you descend from the air wearing this gown on the betrothal day, people will definitely mistake you as a fairy.

Have you eaten honey today? Why did you become a sweet talker all of a sudden?" Nicole teased him.

LL Not only did I eat honey today, but every day going forward, I'm going to eat it. Jared wrapped his arms around her and gave her a kiss.

Nicole hurriedly ducked out of the way and gave him a scornful look.

"This is a clothing store.

You are so daring. Jared looked at her steadily without uttering a word.

If that's okay, this is the one to go with? He asked her opinion.

Since you have complimented me like that, is there any other gown that can compare to it? Nicole stroked the gown and loved it.

She was happy that Jared had good taste in fashion.

"Manager." "Mr. Johnston, how may I help you? The store manager trotted in.

"We have decided on these two outfits.

Order them to be delivered to the hotel on the day of the betrothal." "Okay, Mr. Johnston. After changing back into their own clothes, Jared and Nicole left the clothing store.

In the car, Jared looked at Nicole and asked, Now do you have somewhere you want to go?" "No.

You may arrange the rest of the day. Nicole leaned back to get some shut-eye.

Jared shook his head, picked up the phone, and made a call.

“Max, get a helicopter ready for me.

I need it in twenty minutes. Jared, what are you doing preparing the helicopter?” Nicole was shocked to hear Jared’s telephone conversation and sat up straight away to ask him.

“Don’t be nervous.

You will know soon. Jared deliberately created suspense as he looked at the nervous Nicole.

Nicole was instantly alert and repeatedly studied Jared's intentions, but he looked cool, calm, and collected, not like something terrible had happened.

Nicole could not guess what he was up to.

By the looks of things, she knew she would not get an answer, even if she asked.

She took out her phone and searched for recent events.

After analyzing them, none of the events had anything to do with Jared.

So she wondered what his intention in preparing the helicopter was.

Jared did not tell her even after they had gotten out of the car.

She was baffled but had to follow Jared; if there was any danger, she could at least help him.

The nervousness during battles came to her once again.

She had not experienced this for a long time.

Her every cell involuntarily became on guard as she scanned the surroundings for danger.

LII TL Why did you bring me to the office? Aren't there any more meetings this afternoon? Don't you have to get ona helicopter? Nicole asked three questions in a row.

The helicopter is up there. This was all Jared said before he brought her to his exclusive elevator.

The elevator soon came to the rooftop, where Max was already waiting.

"Mr.
