Chapter 943

“How can I not be desperate? You know how important it is to get a head start, don’t you?”

“I know, but there are so many of you here. Who should I sell to? A watched pot never boils. But I promise to let you get the goods first. What do you say?” A director is a director, after all. He successfully placated the man.

“What else can I say when you have promised that? I’m happy to work with someone like you.” The man politely clinked glasses with him.

“My pleasure.”

Nicole re-planned the route and ran toward the main entrance when a knife suddenly appeared in front of her. She immediately bent her body and slid straight over to dodge the blade. But The Raven guys were quick. They attacked Nicole with the knife again.

Nicole immediately took out her weapon and fought back. She was alone, and with only one hand she could use, while there were several members of The Raven attacking her. She fought back hard, and after several rounds of fighting, she hurt a few of them. But members of The Raven still attacked Nicole incessantly, hellbent on taking the instrument from Nicole.

Just then, she saw the director's bodyguards run toward her. She shouted at them, "Over here! Come and help me.

Those bodyguards picked up their paces and rushed toward her. When The Raven members saw a group of bodyguards coming their way, they thought those bodyguards were here to help Nicole. So they attacked those bodyguards as well. Nicole took the opportunity to flee.

Carl drove his car and lured The Raven members to the suburb and looked in the rearview mirror. "Now is the time to get rid of you all."

The Raven members fired at Carl's car from behind, and Carl dodged left and right, trying to avoid getting hit by the bullets. But there were still some bullets that hit the rear windshield and broke it.

Carl took out his gun and returned fire. At this point, the pursuing cars had caught up with him. Three cars were now running side by side and colliding with each other while The Raven members kept firing at him. Carl floored the gas pedal and drove up the side of the hill to avoid getting hit by bullets. One of The Raven's cars was pursuing Carl on the tarmac while the other was on the hillside . Carl floored the gas pedal again at the right moment and drove straight down the hillside, smashing into The Raven's car and destroying it. But he did not dare to stop. He continued to drive. The Raven guy in the other car fired at Carl in front with a machine gun. Carl drove some distance, then braked and steered the car to make a one-eighty. The Raven guys in the other car were dumbfounded, wondering what this guy was doing. But he did not slow down the car, as if whatever Carl was going to do, they were still going to kill him. Carl slammed the gas pedal with a determined look in his eyes and then drove straight into the opposite car. Neither The Raven members were afraid of death. They also floored the gas pedal to collide with Carl's car. CRASH! BANG!

The two cars collided and exploded with a loud bang. Car body parts were sent flying all over the place. Carl had jumped out of the vehicle and rolled to the side of the road in the distance, now looking at the burning car but seeing no one.

Just then, a superbike was passing by, and Carl stopped and expropriated it, using it to return to the event venue to save Nicole.

Zane took his men to the rendezvous point and saw Brave, but not Nicole and Carl. “A few of you go back to the event venue to help Nicole and Carl.”

“Aye.”

Nicole ran to a hallway only to bump into a group of Raven men. She was about to take on them when four mercenaries appeared.

“You go first. We will stop them.” The mercenaries and The Raven men got into a fight.

Nicole nodded and ran in the other direction. The Raven men and the bodyguards in the back were also coming in her direction.

She glanced at the two groups of men behind her and looked up, then ran upstairs.

The Raven men and the bodyguards chased after Nicole to the lobby on the fifth floor. Nicole looked at The Raven men and the bodyguards and frowned. She knew that if they still kept chasing her, her energy level would drop even faster, and then she would be in trouble.
