Chapter 131 - Scattered Wrath

However, these people do not know the power of the demon soul. Maybe the devil soul did not kill, they died first.

Lu Yang mixed with the crowd and ran to Beicheng District. It took half an hour from Central Street to Beicheng District, and players continued to gather from the streets on both sides along the way.

“Second World” has made the map very large. The main road can accommodate 100 players side by side. However, even then, Lu Yang only ran for 10 minutes and the traffic was paralyzed.

Right in front of the road is a bridge that can only run in parallel with 50 people, and the main road that can run in parallel with 50 people on both sides of the bridge is also full of countless players. The three parties gathered and everyone was blocked here.

“What the * is going ahead.”

“Get out, don’t delay Lao Tzu to grab the equipment.”

...

Many guild players gather together and want to charge forward in a group. Unfortunately, the game does not have a “penetration” setting. When they can’t move, unless they decide to kill in the main city, they can only wait.

Ordinary players are also scolded. If it is outside the city, scattered players cannot gather strength, but in a place where this person is crowded, a crowded player turns around and glares at the guild player behind him, yelling. "Why are you crowding, can't you move without looking ahead?"

The members of this guild are pushing forward with all the guilds behind them. When they see the players in front daring to shout at him, they immediately sneered and said, "You * dying, Lao Tzu is the elite of the soul tremor guild. Don't believe me I'll kill you now and get away from me. "

"People in front leave me away."

Dozens of soul tremor guilds screamed and scolded together based on many people. This is their past habit. If it was in the wild, casual players would have been scared and stunned to escape, but they forgot that it is now tens of thousands Crowded together on the avenue.

Sanshou players who have been fed up with guild bullying for a long time almost point their eyes at dozens of members of the soul tremor.

The scattered players who were scolded before shouted, "The Grand Guild has bullied people, and the Grand Guild has bullied people."

As a result, this look attracted the attention of thousands of players, and all the casual players around the soul tremor glared at dozens of them.

"I know this guild, the most * thing is nothing, it's no different from black blood."

"It's great that you rely on the guild, right? Bully, right?"

...

When the first person was in their early days, the second person followed. When countless bullied players became angry, they recalled the tragic situation of being bullied by major guilds in the period from the opening to the present, and they all lost their minds.

Dozens of members of the Soul Trembling Guild thought that relying on a large number of people could make way for other players who were scared as usual, but they did not expect to cause anger this time.

Faced with the accusations of thousands of players around, the deputy head of the elite group of soul tremors, Lang Diyu, was stimulated and roared with red eyes: "Who shouted, who shouted, I remember you, Do n't let me see it later, or I'll kill you."

Although out of the safe area, killing people in the city is to be attacked by the guards of St. Gall's city. The Emperor Lang fights that ordinary players are afraid to kill people at will.

The surrounding players are ordinary casual people. They also know the rules inside the city of St. Gall. There have been thousands of examples of killings and being attacked by the guards during this period of time. They also know the power of the city guards. When they did, they ignored it.

"Brothers, Lao Tzu would rather let the city guards chase him down, and have the courage to come up with me and kill the * with soul tremors."

The former scolded player was so angry that he would not hesitate to take it anymore, took the long sword in his hand, and chopped it in accordance with the soul tremor of Vice President Lang Diyu.

Seeing this situation, Lang Diyi sneered at the corner of his mouth. According to the rules of the game, if he was attacked first by the opponent, even in the city, he could fight back, and the city guard who killed the opponent would not attack him.

"You're looking for death." Lang Diyi was attacked, but he was equipped with the best equipment. Even if he was attacked, he lost less than 20 points of blood. Watching the other person's name turned brown, Lang Diyi pulled out two on his waist. With a dagger, a sneer appeared in the corner of his mouth.

However, just as Lang Diyi was about to attack that player, suddenly, thousands of players around him drew their weapons at the same time and launched an attack on Lang Diyi.

Countless bows, arrows, flying swords, long swords, and fireballs landed on Lang Diyu. Lang Diyi was instantly killed on the ground. At the same time, even when people were crowded, players around him let them out. After a circle, the remaining dozens of players who trembled in the soul were trapped inside the circle.

Players with soul tremors are dumbfounded. They did not expect that scattered players really dared to attack them, and thousands of people attacked at the same time, which made them afraid.

The players around this time were fighting, and the former shouting player continued to shout: "Brothers, we are uprising today, killing one is killing, killing a hundred is killing, we killed this group of soul-trembling bastards."

He rushed into the tremor of the soul first ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ and hit one of the other players.

The equipment of this shouting casual player is just an ordinary whiteboard, and the level is only level 3. However, his courage rendered the players around him, and he was furious, and he couldn't help other people shaking his soul. Take a shot, venting their anger madly.

Dozens of players with soul tremor did not even have the chance to run. In less than 2 seconds, dozens of people were killed in place. Looking at the equipment that burst out, the players around them swarmed up.

"Cool."

"There was nothing terrible about the Grand Guild."

"Brothers, today is the time for our revenge. The major guilds are too bullying. We go for revenge today. Anyone who sees the guild name on their body kills me. We disperse and rebel today." Level 3 players raised their swords with excited expressions on their faces.

This sentence was uttered by this player on the World Channel, and can be seen by tens of millions of people in the entire service. His sentence is extremely powerful, and the congestion occurs on all main roads in the city, and the Grand Guild also Relying on many people to bully others, players in various parts of the city have long endured to the limit and can no longer bear it.

“We are bullied enough.”

“Let them charter and level up, let them have more bullies and less people, let them randomly kill people and grab equipment, and fight with them today.”

Chapter 132 - Tens of thousands of deaths

Countless players shouted together on the World Channel. As a result, this time it was really messed up. There were thousands of guilds in the game, and many were watched. However, the number of guilds combined was not enough. .

The other tens of millions of players are still scattered. These players have low levels and poor equipment, but they are many!

According to the rules of the game, after joining the guild, players can reveal their name. If it is revealed, there will be a suffix of the guild name after the name. This was a name brand that can be used to bully people. Now, it has become everyone’s name. Mouse crossing the street.

Starting from the top, under the first attack of this level 3 player, all players with the guild name were attacked.

“Scattered teams of 100 people.”

There are many good players and organized people among casual players. When they see such an attack, it is easy to accidentally hurt them. They start to organize players to launch attacks in the form of teams.

The players of the major guilds were originally a majority. As a result, they became a minority. However, the players of the major guilds were bullied and scattered, and suddenly they were bullied. How can they tolerate this situation and rely on themselves? Well-equipped, and immediately fight against casual players.

In the local battle, the guild player was killed by scattered casual players. Lu Yang didn't want to join the scuffle. His target was the demon soul in the distance. At this time, the blood of the demon soul was left. 70%.

“Kill him.” Several guild players found Lu Yang and rushed towards him frantically.

Lu Yang saw that the other party was from the Jianwu Cangqiang Guild. Last time Han Ying and Han Yu suffered losses under their hands.

“Fortunately for you, next time you have a chance to clean up.” Lu Yang found a place to escape the battle, looked at the top of the house 14 yards high on the left, and escaped with a dagger in his hand.

The dagger spun at a high speed in the air and inserted a beautiful arc into the yellow house roof.

At this point, members of the five or six Jianwu Cangqiang Guilds had rushed to Lu Yang. Suddenly, a blue light bloomed from Lu Yang, and Lu Yang disappeared in front of them.

“What about people.”

“Who saw where he went.”

“I didn’t see it. There wasn’t anything around.”

Members of the Jianwu Cangqiang Guild looked around but did not see Lu Yang. Then, they changed their targets and rushed towards another group of scattered people.

Lu Yang stood on the top of the house and looked around. He found that the entire city of St. Gall was in riots, and even war broke out near the safe area in the city. As long as there were no guards, players were fighting together.

The same is true of the bridge in front. The most crowded place is the bridge, and the biggest reason for the bridge’s congestion is that more than 20 players of the Grand Guild and other scattered players in the region are being chased by the demon souls and fled.

Lu Yang sneered, the Knights of the Light did not have hate attacks, so as long as the player attacks the demon soul, the demon soul will immediately attack the player.

Players are generally at level 9 now, not to mention level 9, even non-fighters at level 50 can’t stop a common attack of the demon soul, let alone the devil soul unlimited use of “soul traction”, 5000 The injured soul’s traction will hit whoever, who will die. If you run, more people will die.

However, if the player is attacked, who will not run, especially the mage player, who flickers and flees immediately due to the traction of the soul by the flashing skill. As a result, all the people on the road of the mage player’s escape are traced by the traction of the soul Killed.

Some mage players are far away from themselves, and escaped the attack of the soul, and the skills have escaped, but it does not mean that he can escape the pursuit of the demon soul. As a result, the players along the way were either trampled by the demon soul or demons. The Soul of the Soul was killed by the machete.

The earliest batch of players reacted and no longer attacked, but later players did not know this. As soon as they saw the boss, they attacked desperately. As a result, the spirit of the demon kept chasing and killing. Was taken near the bridge.

At this time, only 50% of the blood of the demon soul is left, and the players on the bridge have stopped attacking each other, all targeting the demon soul, and they all want to * the equipment.

Seeing this, Lu Yang sneered at the corner of his mouth, counting down involuntarily.

“1”

The blood of the Demon Soul was killed to 49%. He suddenly stood still and stopped chasing the player. He raised his black machete in his right hand.

“Dark Force”

With the demon soul as the center, countless purple chains are flying out of the body of the demon soul. Because the demon soul is facing the bridge, tens of thousands of players on the bridge are simultaneously locked by the purple chain. Then, tens of thousands of players die at the same time. , And the blood of the demon soul recovered to 100%!

All previous efforts were in vain.

“This boss will * blood.”

“Everyone backs down, don’t go any further.”

“Run, this boss has no hatred.”

Looking at the tens of thousands of corpses on the bridge, all the players were dumbfounded, the surviving players under the bridge all involuntarily retreated backwards, and no one dared to go over to pick up anything.

The players across the bridge were dumbfounded to see this situation, and they did not expect that the dying Devil Soul had such a powerful skill ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Hurry to disperse and avoid, and dare not approach the Demon Soul within 100 yards distance.

Demon Soul no longer had a target after sucking blood, turned around and continued to fight with the Knights of the Holy Light.

The 50 knights of the Holy Light Knights have very high attack power, ranging from long range, melee, spells, and healing. The blood of the demon soul quickly drops down.

In less than 10 minutes, the blood of the demon soul fell to 30%, but at this time, the surrounding players couldn't hold it again.

At this time, whoever hits the boss first will be the boss's experience, and the equipment will be the one who can pick it up first. If you let others steal it, wouldn't it be too bad.

Holding this mentality, the players of the major guilds ran towards the bridge first, and the players around the city north bridge gradually gathered towards the demon soul.

I don't know who it was. Suddenly someone among the players under the bridge hit a demon soul with a fireball.

The Demon Soul turned back instantly, and the player was in a position with 2,000 people.

“Dark Force”

Thousands of purple chains were released from the Demon Soul. In a blink of an eye, these thousands of players were killed on the ground at the same time, and the blood of the Demon Soul was restored to 50%.

When this player launched his attack, all the players on the bridge were all red-eyed, and they rushed towards the bridge, all at the same time, they all aimed at the spirit of the demon to attack.

Chapter 133 - Power of battle

When they saw the blood of the Demon Soul recover, everyone was scared to run back, but at this time it was too late to try again.

The body of the demon soul turned to the bridge. He lifted his left hand with five fingers and opened it to point to the bridge surface. In his palm, a black light gradually formed.

“Ghost Road”

The black light burst out from his hand suddenly, and all players on the bridge were killed on the ground when they encountered the black light.

The corpses ran across the bridge again, and the players were dumbfounded to see the damage caused by the demon soul.

“So strong.”

“How do we fight.”

...

Although the players do not know how to attack, everyone knows one thing. The boss's experience and equipment cannot be taken away by others, and the bridge is full of players again.

However, this time no player foolishly rushed to put up skills, everyone was waiting for the moment the boss died.

The Knights of the Holy Light lost the player's trouble and surrounded the demon soul again. After 5 minutes, only 33% of the blood of the demon soul remained.

"Everyone pays attention, when the remaining 5% of the blood of the demon soul is left, we will go together, and the boss will be killed at that time."

"Let's grab the equipment together. We must not be cheaper than those of the Grand Guild. If we don't, we will kill the person who grabbed the equipment."

...

The surrounding players began to discuss in groups.

Lu Yang had already jumped into the river under the bridge and swam across the river. At this moment he was resting under the bridge.

The hardest part of the demon soul is not before the 70% of the previous blood, those skills have been found by the previous generation of players. The real difficulty of the demon soul is when his health is only 30% .

At this time, every 5% of the health of the demon soul will release the Elegy of the Soul. Centering on him, hundreds of thousands of undead rushed to him within 50 yards.

Any player who is attacked loses 12,000 points of blood instantly, and the number of players that can be resisted is very rare. Only the top players can resist his attacks.

It is precisely because this boss is too foody that he will be listed as one of the three most difficult bosses.

“An Elegy of the Soul”

Demon Soul’s health dropped to 30%. Suddenly, Demon Soul raised his hands.

After 0.5 seconds, the black light curtain immediately enveloped the players within 50 yards, and the players illuminated by the light curtain died instantly.

The player in the vicinity is unknown, but players standing in the distance can see that it is not a light curtain at all, but a black undead that is so dense that it is unimaginable.

The surrounding players saw that the boss’s health was getting less and less, and they all gathered to a distance of about 30 yards for the boss. They thought it was okay. As a result, this attack killed thousands of people, and even took the surrounding houses. Broken by the Elegy of the Soul.

“Run fast, be careful with the boss and use your skills again.” Without the need of others to shout, the players who have already been embarrassed are running away.

Some ran back to the bridge, some retreated to the sides of the bridge, and some hid behind the boss 60 yards away.

Lu Yang hid under the bridge and watched. Occasionally, he found that the bosses of major guilds such as Twilight, Dominion, and Bloodthirsty are taking their elite members to ambush about 60 yards around the boss, and he was closest. The late old man is only 20 yards away.

The old man and his spirits Qingfeng and other people have no time to take care of them. They are staring nervously at the boss, and obviously have the idea of robbing equipment.

“Be prepared, do not rush to grab the equipment when the boss is dead, kill anyone who approaches first.” The old man in the twilight said to the breeze Qingfeng behind him.

In a place where tens of thousands of people gather, once the boss drops the equipment, whoever dares to * it first will have the opportunity to * it.

“Boss, what if you can’t grab it.”

“Kill anyone who grabs it, especially the bloodthirsty bully, if we let them rob us, we will kill him.”

“Ok.”

Bloodthirsty Batian and Ye Guxing are also whispering, watching the bosses of other guilds around them saying, “Be careful, don’t be a leader. Everyone waits for my order to grab equipment.”

The members of the Knights of the Light have killed 3 people, but others are still in front of the boss, so that the Light Master and Holy Archer can continue to output.

The members of the Knights of the Light have a talent system. When the demon creature’s health is less than 30%, their output increases by 50%.

The blood speed of Demon Soul is accelerated instantly. In 3 minutes, the Demon Soul only has 5% HP left.

“The light will wash away the darkness”

The light sword Cassis, the head of the Knights of the Light, raised the holy sword in his hand, roared, turned into an archangel, and slashed with a sword in the air.

“Beheaded”

The Demon Soul was hit in the heart, making a scream, and his body twisted and twisted.

“The boss is dead, everyone is going to grab the equipment.” I don’t know who shouted, all the players in all directions rushed towards the location of the boss.

In an instant, tens of thousands of players gathered around the Demon Soul. At this time, the body of the Demon Soul burst suddenly, and hundreds of thousands of undead were scattered, all within 50 yards of the Demon Soul. All players within were killed on the ground.

Three items fell from the demon soul to the ground. The players who were not rushed up for the first time around were still annoyed, but seeing this situation, everyone was thrilled again ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Ready, shoot. “The old man in the twilight pointed at the position where the demon soul died, and 300 archers behind him raised their bows uniformly, using scatter arrows at the same time.

“Ready, shoot.” The ruthless command was issued from Xiong Ba’s face, and more than 200 archers behind him fired scatter arrows.

“Ready, shoot.” Bloodthirsty Batian ordered more than 200 archers under his command to attack.

More than 20 consecutive top guilds have ordered their players to release long-range attack skills such as bow and arrow rain and fireball.

For a moment, with the boss drop gear as the center, all players within 30 yards were killed on the ground.

The players who rushed forward only knew the equipment in their eyes. Although they lost blood, they saw that the previous player was dead and continued to rush forward with a sense of luck. As a result, they died without accident.

Occasionally, a spell player wants to jump into the encirclement to grab equipment with a flash, but just after jumping in, the elite mages of major guilds also use flame impact.

Instant skills, under attack, all the mages who jumped in were killed in place without waiting for the pickup equipment.

“Ready, shoot.”

The first wave of attacks ended, and the presidents of more than 20 guilds seemed to have negotiated. They continued to pour arrow rain and fireball, and the surrounding players scattered and evaded.

Chapter 134 - 1 enemy

The scattered players around the group saw the practices of the major guilds angrily.

“Brothers of the scattered group, the major guilds will not let us snatch, we will not let them snatch, shoot me together, whoever goes in will die.”

“Set up a team, go back 30 yards and play together.”

“They won’t let us rob, we won’t let them rob.”

The tens of thousands of scattered players on the bridge and on both sides of the bridge use bows and arrows, darts with darts, and spell spells.

The bosses of the major guilds only intended to clean up the players around them, so that they could grab the equipment. As a result, the center point of this place was all attacking skills.

“What to do.” Liquor Qingfeng looked at the scene a bit dazed, and tens of thousands of people attacked a place at the same time. It was the first time he had grown so big, and arrow rain and fireball raged. There was no space to enter.

The old man in the twilight did not expect that this would happen, and frowned, saying, “Everyone stops.”

The bully and the old man at the twilight issued this order almost simultaneously.

People like Bloodthirsty and Black Blood are so annoyed that they can't wait to attack the scattered players on the opposite side, but they are suffering from too many people on the other side and they dare not act rashly.

“Why didn't the late and the hegemony attack?” Ye Guxing asked sharply.

The bloodthirsty bully stunned for a moment, and he quickly responded, saying, “Late, this is playing a conspiracy, let our people stop, and send thieves to sneak in.”

“I'll go in person.” Ye Guxing retreated to the crowd behind him, using stealth, a thief's unique skill.

The leaders of the black guilds and other major guilds have responded one after another and ordered their men to stop. Their purpose is very simple. As long as they show weakness to let out casual players, they will also stop attacking.

As long as there is such a vacancy, these lurking thieves can quickly pounce on the equipment and use the city roll to escape after picking up.

Sure enough, in less than 2 minutes, the scatter group saw that the major guilds did not use skills and gradually stopped. At this time, there was no player within 40 yards around the equipment dropped by the boss. .

Lu Yang had been hiding under the bridge. He couldn't see the equipment just because he had too many skills. At this time, all the skills stopped. Lu Yang climbed to the side of the bridge and looked into the field.

At the center of the boss, a dark golden round scimitar lay on the ground glitteringly. Lu Yang knew the name of the weapon, called Necrotic Blade, and it was one of the top two-level weapons of level 50.

There is also a gold-colored helmet next to the death machete. It is called a ghost face helmet, and it is also one of the top 50 helmets of level 50. It is a set component.

As Lu Yang continued to watch, unusual air ripples appeared next to the equipment. There were more than one such ripples, but there were twenty or thirty.

A big smile appeared on the corners of the bosses of the major guilds, as if the equipment had already entered their pockets.

"There is a thief." Lu Yanggang was about to shout, but before he shouted, his eyes suddenly widened. In front of a stealthy thief, a black cylinder was shining.

"Devil's Spar"

The blood in Lu Yang's body burst out suddenly, the heart beating violently and uncontrollably. The demon spar is a necessary thing for the heart of the demon to rise to level 2. It is one of the most difficult upgrade materials for the heart of the demon. I thought I had to wait until level 30 to get a chance.

He must grab it!

Looking at the countless players around him, Lu Yang's head turned quickly. He knew that if he jumped in like this, he would be recognized by the player first. Even if he luckily got the demon spar, he would be hit by all major players. The guild and the hunting of a large number of scattered players, and one more, even if he jumped in, he could not carry countless flame impact skills. Once he was hit, he would definitely die.

When Lu Yang was anxious, suddenly, Lu Yang found that the clothes he was wearing were camouflage coats.

This dress was bought by the future goblin king Bissell, and in his backpack, there is a bottle of anti-magic potion for 3 seconds.

“Fighting.” Lu Yang looked at the more than twenty thieves in the field who were moving towards the equipment, and immediately chose to use a camouflage coat. A flash of light flashed, and he instantly became a little green leather goblin.

After drinking the magic potion, Lu Yang threw the dagger in his hand suddenly, escaping the dagger with a trace of blue light and spinning at a high speed into the position of the demon spar.

The sneaking thieves were taken aback, and all the casual players and the bosses of the major guilds were also taken aback.

“dagger?”

“Where did it come from?”

...

When all players were curious, the dagger bloomed blue light, and Lu Yang, who turned into a small green goblin, appeared from the light instantly.

“Resistant Fire Ring”

Around 20 thieves were attacked by the ring of fire resistance at the same time, and all were invisible by Lu Yang.

“There is a thief.”

“The major guilds are a bunch of assholes.”

“How come a goblin?”

“Who is he?”

...

All the players were confused for a moment, and then they immediately reacted. It is impossible for a goblin to appear here in St. Gall, which is simply a player posing.

“Kill him, he’s the player.” Numerous people roared and pointed at Landing Yang.

Players from the Sanshou regiment and major guilds immediately aimed at Lu Yang to release their skills ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ in an instant, tens of thousands of bows and skills hit the landing Yang.

The bow and arrow were slow, and the flame impact fell on Lu Yang’s body instantly. However, Lu Yang had anti-magic potions and was magically immune within 3 seconds.

Lu Yang used the resistance ring to roll on the spot and picked up the demon spar, death machete, and ghost face helmet. He just stood up and disappeared in white light. When he appeared again, he was already standing on the previous bridge. Aside, he jumped into the river.

This is the beauty of escaping the dagger. When used in combination with flashing, the enemy cannot even touch his side.

“Where’s the man, where’s the flight?” Black blood’s face was black.

“Hurry up, don’t let him run away.” Bloodthirsty Domineering is full of angry eyes.

“Three pieces of equipment, everyone is looking for him.”

The players of various scatter groups and major guilds are crazy. They spent so much manpower and material resources before for the purpose of this piece of equipment. As a result, the equipment let a green leather goblin * away. The incident passed on, Same as a joke.

More than 100,000 eyes looked around, and suddenly, someone pointed at the river and shouted, "Someone in the river, he jumped into the river."

The hegemon was closest to the river, and he immediately led his men and chased after landing at Yangyang.

"You must not let him run away, kill me, and get back the equipment."

"Brothers, chase."

Chapter 135 - Show operation

The bosses of the major guilds, such as Late Twilight and Bloodthirsty Domineering, followed him.

Greenskin Goblin's legs were too short. Lu Yang was exhausted to swim in the water at a very slow speed, while players on the shore chased after him, Lu Yang was soon caught up.

Xiongba shouted as he ran along the river bank: "Friends in the river, as long as you are willing to join my Xiongba guild, I will purchase your equipment at the original price."

Bloodthirsty Batian shouted furiously in the back: "Male, you should learn less about the old fox of late."

Followed him to Lu Yang in the river and shouted, "Boy, you are dead this time. Honestly, handing over your equipment ashore is your only choice. You have provoked public outrage, and the hegemon can not protect you. . "

Lu Yang heard a sneer at the corners of the conversation between the two. This is all about dog biting the dog. The male domineering itself is not a good thing. He does n't do much in the practice of chartering. This man talked a little bit about the morals of the rivers and lakes. Bloodthirsty and black blood are two bastards. I don't know how to write the words morality.

Now, no matter who he falls into, it doesn't end well.

“撲通 ~ 撲通 ~”

The sound of falling water kept coming from behind him. Lu Yang looked back. The men under the twilight and the black blood had jumped into the water and were chasing towards the landing sun.

“Friend, you have no way to run, make your choice immediately, otherwise don't blame me for the bully shot.” The bully waved his hand, and more than 200 archers running next to him aimed at Lu Yang's location at the same time.

If they use split arrows, Lu Yang is bound to die in this river.

Bloodthirsty Batian raised his arm, and the 200 archers behind him also aimed at Lu Yang.

There are players from the Sanctuary following along the river bank. Among dozens of Sanctuary players, there are hunter cheetah auras.

“Give up your gear, or we'll kill you.”

“Hurry up and hand over the equipment.”

Countless players shouted.

On the other side of the river, countless players chased after Landing Yang. Of all the people, they saw it most clearly, but the river was too wide. Lu Yang was 40 yards away from the other side of the river, and they could not reach it.

Seeing this situation, everyone showed a proud expression, they knew that Lu Yang had nowhere to run.

Lu Yang sneered and continued to swim forward with all his strength.

Xiong Ba and Chi Mu and others were somewhat surprised to see Lu Yang's performance. They thought that Lu Yang would at least say two sentences as a means of slowing down soldiers, but did not expect Lu Yang to say nothing.

In fact, they have opened the video function. As soon as Lu Yang speaks, they can record the sound. Even if Lu Yang runs away, they will have a way to catch people in the future.

Another thing is that the major guilds have some special equipment in their hands. For example, after the death, they are resurrected in situ. As long as they are used on Lu Yang, they can kill these three things without worrying about how many times.

"This kid must be a master," said Xiongba, and his 10 fighters and 10 hunters jumped into the water.

"Regardless of what he is, even a fairy, I will kill him today." Bloodthirsty Batian heard the words of Xiong Ba and roared angrily.

Night Lone Star jumped into the water with three hunters, and quickly moved towards the sun with the aid of a cheetah halo.

The bosses of more than 20 guilds, such as the Jianwu sky and soul tremor that followed, also sent their men to jump into the river. Numerous people across the river also jumped into the water and chased the landing sun.

Because the other side has a cheetah halo, not long after, a semi-circular encirclement composed of hundreds of people gradually formed, only 30 yards away from Lu Yang's closest lieutenant.

“Boy, you are dead.” Shouted the black blood on the bank with a sneer.

Lu Yang saw the encirclement, but he was not afraid and continued to swim forward.

He knows that the major guilds must want to catch him. After being killed by the player, the explosion rate is too random. It may explode all three and may not explode. The major guilds dare not make this bet. Not only that. The major guilds will also help him kill those casual players who want to kill him.

Sure enough, when the scattered players on the right side of the river bank attacked the landing sun, the men in the evening and the black blood immediately aimed at them and launched an attack.

In a blink of an eye, most of the players who chased on the right side were killed and injured, but Lu Yang had only a trace of qi and blood. At this time, even the bloodthirsty domineering became a jeopardy, but Lu Yang was not afraid to swim across the river .

Not far from the other side of the river, there is a 6-yard-high wall, which is the outer wall of the Royal Palace of St. Gall.

Lu Yang looked at the distance. After he was certain, he turned to look at the people who followed him, such as the twilight and the black blood, and then looked at the heroic and bloodthirsty tyrants on the shore, and said with a big laugh, “Thank you all for sending me , Leave now. “

The goblin's voice-changer made his voice sharp and sharp, and the bully and bloodthirsty bully suddenly stunned. At this moment, Lu Yang watched the late old man who had chased him less than 10 yards before throwing it backwards. Out a dagger.

The escape dagger spun through an arc in the air at high speed and quickly flew towards the outer wall of the palace.

The blue light flashed on Lu Yang's body, disappeared in the river, and then he appeared in the air.

“No, he’s going to run away and kill him.” Chi Mu and Hei Xue yelled at the same time, ordering his men to attack Lu Yang in midair.

Lu Yang had only one drop of blood, but he was not afraid. At this time, he was more than 20 yards away from the outer wall of the palace. His body flashed white light and appeared on the outer wall of the palace using flashing skills.

In an instant, Lu Yang opened a distance of 60 yards with all the pursuers. He stood on the outer wall and took out a bottle of instant life-recovering potion from his backpack. After filling his blood, he flipped back to the ground.

The 6-yard high wall jumped down ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ and dropped Lu Yang’s 30 health, and the guard of Wang Cheng found Lu Yang.

“Alert, a goblin has invaded the palace to steal secrets.” A 30-level, palace guard wearing bright silver heavy armor raised his epee and charged towards Landing Yang.

Lu Yang hurried to dodge while taking off his camouflage coat and shouted, “I’m a human, I’m here to invest.”

The defensive task of the palace guard is only against aliens, but it is not defense for humans. When he saw that the goblin was Lu Yang, the guard took back the scabbard with a sword that was only 3 cm away from Lu Yang’s head, and frowned, “Do n’t change it in the future. Body, causing us trouble. “

Lu Yang hurriedly said respectfully: “It must be, Lord Guard, walk slowly.”

The NPC anthropomorphism of “Second World” is very high. If the player is not respectful, the palace guard has the right to dispose of the player.

The guard of the palace left this way, obviously, it was very uncomfortable to Lu Yang without punishment.

Among the big rivers, the bosses of the major guilds, such as Xiongba, Old Man, Bloodthirsty Domineering, and Black Blood, were all dumbfounded by Lu Yang's operation.

"It's okay, second paragraph flashes, it's too strong."

The old man in the twilight first responded, pointing at the palace and shouting, "Everyone chases me. Whoever catches this person first, I reward him with 10,000 yuan."

Under the reward, there must be brave men. Players on the shore heard the twilight and rushed towards the palace.

Chapter 136 - Multilateral guess

The bosses of the major guilds, such as Bloodthirsty Bully and Xiongba, also all reacted, showing angry expressions. If Lu Yang ran away, they would be shameful.

"Follow me." Xiongba said angrily, on the other side of the river bank, the guildmen who had already rushed over rushed to the palace.

Bloodthirsty Batian raised the knife in his hand and shouted, "Surround the entire palace and kill him."

Black blood pointed at his men who came across the river and shouted, "He has just been attacked and he cannot return to the city within 2 minutes."

...

At a time, the bosses of the major guilds issued orders, and all the men who came over the south bank of the river rushed towards the palace.

The main entrance of the palace can accommodate 50 heavy cavalry side by side at the same time, replaced by players without horses, and the number of people in parallel is more than 80. However, there were tens of thousands of players who rushed in this time, and the gate became congested instantly. Unbearable.

“Get out, don’t block Lao Tzu’s way.”

“I am from the Dark Sword Guild, and I have given way to Lao Tzu.”

...

Lu Yang heard the noise at the gate of the palace, and a sneer appeared at the corner of his mouth. According to the rules of the game, the city roll cannot be used within 2 minutes of the attack. This is the reason why all players do not give up hunting him, but they do not know themselves There is also a spell that returns to the demon temple is not restricted by this rule.

His current position is the Palace Garden, which is more than 200 yards from the main entrance. This distance is enough for him to use spells. However, this place is not safe. Lu Yang looked around. He ran into the tower on the side of the palace and rotated along. The stairs Lu Yang ran quickly towards the top, and when the time to escape the dagger was up, Lu Yang threw the dagger vigorously towards the top.

Lu Yang watched the dagger rise to a height of 30 yards. A flash of blue light on his body appeared at the position of the dagger, followed by flashing, jumping up to a height of 30 yards again, and stopping on the handrail of the spiral staircase.

“The Great God of Fire ...”

Lu Yang read the spell to return to the demon temple. When he said it for 2 seconds, a large number of players ran into the gate of the palace.

When he read 4 seconds, players rushing into the palace were staring blankly.

After 5 seconds, Lu Yang flashed red and appeared in the main hall of the Demon Temple, but the players did not even see Lu Yang's shadow.

"What about people."

"Where did you go?"

The scattered players who rushed in did not organize, and when the players of the major guilds ran in, the head of the three regiments of the Dark Sword shouted, "Searching for the palace, we are running out of time, that person may have become a human Form, to see whoever the player is, let alone kill. "

"Okay." Numerous players responded and rushed towards the palace main hall, and tens of thousands of people collectively searched the palace.

Not long after, the bosses of the major guilds, such as Xiongba, Late, Bloodthirsty, and Black Blood, came to the palace gate side by side.

"It's been more than 2 minutes, this person must have run away." Xiong Ba said ugly.

"Well, shame, we have so many guilds working together, and tens of thousands of scattered players, have not caught such a goblin." Chi Mu said with a sigh.

"Don't let me know who he is, otherwise I must kill him." The bloodthirsty bully was extremely upset.

"However, this is a good thing," Chi Mu said.

"Good thing?" The bosses of the major guilds looked at the twilight.

Chi Mu laughed and said, "Although this player snatched the equipment in front of us, you also saw his body, whether he ran away with that special dagger, or his degree of grasp of the timing, and his slightest Two bad flashes fell on the outer wall of the palace. This kind of operation requires us to study carefully. "

Xiongba nodded and said, "Yes, if our elites can also have this ability, we will make it much easier to make copies."

"Let's go." Late Twilight finished, turned around and left with his men.

Xiongba followed and left.

People like Bloodlust and Black Blood were unwilling, but they also knew that it would not make sense to continue the search, and each took someone away.

The casual players also gradually dispersed, and within a short time, the palace restored his former neglect.

On the way back.

Bloodthirsty Batian looked at Ye Guxing, who had been frowning, and asked, "Is there anything wrong?"

Ye Guxing frowned and thought, and said, "Boss, I feel like this goblin is dressed up by Lu Yang."

"What?" The bloodthirsty bully was irritated and asked, "How are you sure?"

Ye Guxing said: "It's a feeling, when I sneaked past, the goblin was ejected with a fire ring of resistance. The goblin ejected me almost the same distance as the last time Lu Yang ejected me."

The bloodthirsty Batian was extremely angry and said, "Okay, okay, okay, a casual player dares to confront me like this openly, and I will make you pay the worst price."

Ye Guxing said excitedly: "Boss, do you want to make an announcement around the world? In this way, players in the full service will hunt him down and he will be dead."

The bloodthirsty bully was angry: "Do you want our guild to be a joke?"

"Why?" Ye Guxing asked without understanding.

"First, you didn't see that goblin is the evidence that Lu Yang played. Second, based on our relationship with Lu Yang, even if I said your guess, what would players in the whole service think, they would only think that I The boss of the Great Guild had no way to take Lu Yang, but thought of using this method to harm him, I tell you, even if it is him ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~, I will only be ashamed. "Bloodthirsty Batian said.

Ye Guxing is speechless.

Bloodthirsty Batian went on to say: "I will put more eyeliner in the city, I do n't believe that Lu Yang will not return to St. Gall for a time. In the past few days, you bring your players to quickly upgrade and try your best to catch up with Lu Yang Level, you will bring a group of people to hone your combat skills. You are not required to immediately surpass Lu Yang. You must have Lu Yang's strength of at least seven or eight points. "

Ye Guxing nodded and said, "Relax, boss, Lu Yang's strength exposed today has given me great inspiration, and I will do my best."

On the other side.

The old man at the twilight was walking slowly with his men. When he arrived at the door of the auction house, the old man at the twilight couldn't help laughing.

Liquor Qingfeng and other late laughers asked, "Boss, what are you laughing at?"

He was still laughing, and even some leaned forward and back together. After a minute, he stopped and patted the shoulder of the strong liquor and said, "Fuck, I know who that green-skinned goblin is."

“Who.”

He didn't speak, and sent a message to the spirits breeze, saying, “Lu Yang.”

“Ah ?!” Liquor Qingfeng couldn't help but widen his eyes, and said, “Boss, I can't help but say what you said, it really looks like him.”

“I report him.” Yin Dao said angrily.

Chapter 137 - Cooperation

He hurriedly grabbed the Hidden Knife and said, “Do n't, it 's shameful enough for the major guilds. We recognize him physically, but do you have any actual evidence? The letter also added a lot of prestige to Lu Yang, and his family is not ugly. Why? “

Yin Dao snorted and said, “This guy who doesn't know how to do anything, what do we do now?”

The Hidden Sword refers to what Lu Yang didn't want when he was given Lu Yang's annual salary of 500,000.

Chi Mu said: “This thing naturally can't be done like this. If he doesn't spit out some equipment, he must give me a statement.”

Inside the demon temple.

Lu Yang looked at the demon spar in his hands and angrily waited for the sky to scream. The boss at level 50 had a chance to drop the demon spar, which is not necessarily explosive.

In the last life, Lu Yang killed almost 60 demon lords and got a demon spar, which shows how rare this thing is.

Lu Yangyuan thought that when he was at level 50, he would hand out a hundred people group and follow him to kill the boss. The fastest time is to reach the demon spar within six months, but he did n't get it now. This is only 10 days after serving.

There are only two items needed for the Demon Heart to reach Level 2. One is the Demon Spar, and the other is a Fire Elf Shard that was only produced by the boss of the last Lord Level boss in the epic black iron furnace of level 30.

The copy of the Black Iron Furnace has been released by players in the past, and the requirements for the copy of the single pass have now reached.

Lu Yang shook his fist vigorously, he knew that he would soon be able to raise the heart of the demon to level 2.

Level 2 Demon Heart not only brings a huge increase in attributes, but also allows Lu Yang to transform into a fire demon. Within 30 minutes, there is no cooling time for the skills!

At that time, he can quickly improve the equipment of his players and form a guild.

Just as he was so excited, the old man from the twilight sent a message.

“Brother, today you are turning around the bosses of our major guilds.”

Lu Yang hesitated and immediately relieved. He could use the goblin to conceal others, but his unique stature could not conceal the old man who had a copy with him. However, the old man who had guessed what was happening and did not see himself. .

Lu Yangzhuang said stupidly, "Brother, what do you mean by that?"

"It's not interesting, I just want to say something to you, and we will see if there is any possibility of cooperation in the future. My grand guild must have the opportunity to cooperate with you, right," said the words in the late twilight.

Lu Yang understood the meaning of twilight, threatening very strong, but Lu Yang was not afraid, just as Lu Yang was about to decline, suddenly, Lu Yang thought of a problem.

The primary Daguai maps occupied by the twilight are the main sources of vetiver, silver leaf grass, and dead leaf. These three herbs are the raw materials of anti-toxic drugs. However, the twilight does not make anti-toxic drugs, and other primary herbal formulas. Demand for these three herbs is low.

He remembers that there are more than 500 collection workers under Chi Wu, so there must be a lot of these three herbs in the warehouse of Chi Wu Guild.

Previously, he wrote the names of several great gods of refining medicine from the previous life so that Jin did not exchange for recruitment. If these people came to refining anti-drugs together, the herbs at the auction house were not enough, and he could just trade with Twilight.

Furthermore, if he raises the demon heart to level 2 to establish a guild in the near future, he will need a lot of money to support it, not only the salary of the studio, but also the war funds that are fighting the bloodthirsty front.

This money is not a small number. A few thousand people are just an expense on medicines, or hundreds of thousands of gold coins. Therefore, he urgently needs a stable source of antiviral raw materials. He can earn enough war funding.

Lu Yang said, "Brother, right now I really have a project to work with you."

Late in the evening, he said, "What project."

“Is there a lot of primary herbs in your guild? I have a friend who is going to open a pharmacy, but he doesn’t have a stable herbal supplier. If you want, he will buy 10 copper coins for each group of primary herbs.”

Chi Mu thought that Lu Yang was soft and wanted to sell him the 50-level equipment. But he did not expect that Lu Yang said these things. He had to say that Chi Mu wanted to get angry but wanted this business more. There is no place for herbs.

“Are you sure that it was a group of 10 copper coins, and how much is his acquisition volume?” Chi dusk asked.

Lu Yang said: “No matter what kind of primary herbal medicine, he needs at least 2,000 groups each day. In this way, I will let this person add you. You can temporarily open a friend application. His name is Jin Buhuan.”

He was a little surprised. He had 6 kinds of primary herbs in his hand. If he needs 2000 groups a day, he can sell 12 gold coins. In one month, he can get 360 gold coins. This money can greatly relieve the pressure of his guild operation, which is more than 50. Level gold equipment is much more valuable.

“Yes,” said the old man.

“Wait for me, I’ll contact him.” Lu Yang closed the conversation bar, dialed Jin Buhua’s intercom, and talked about this with Jin Buhuan.

Jin Buhuan said in surprise: “Boss ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ I’m going to report to you. I have recruited the eight people you asked me to sign. The contract has been signed with them, and now there are stable suppliers. Then we will wait for a large number of players to reach the wasteland of the Serpent Canyon at level 8 to make money. “

Lu Yang said: “Very good, let’s get in touch with Twilight, remember, you will be the boss in the future, you have nothing to do with me.”

“Good boss, you can rest assured, I know how to do it.” Jin Buhua nodded and kept talking to the old man. The content of the negotiations between the two sides made Jin Yang clear.

Lu Yang also deliberately looked at Jin Buhuan's negotiating ability. Jin Buhuan added Late Friend, and after Late Twilight passed, Late Twilight took the lead to say, "Excuse me, do you want herbal medicine?"

Jin Buhuan said, "Yes, I need 6000 groups of herbs every day to supply me with pharmaceuticals."

"Friends are generous, you are burning money." Chi Mu said, training pharmacists is a very expensive matter, a society such as Chi Wu only trained 36 pharmacists, and they are all juniors.

Jin Buhuan knew that Twilight wanted to hear the news, saying that the more things the other person guessed, the more he said, "What kind of potion do you have?"

The old man said, "I mainly have three kinds of sedge grass, silver leaf grass and dead leaf grass here, as well as sun flower, clover and poisonous orchid, but the output of the latter three is not high, and the supply is not very stable."

Chapter 138 - battle of wits

Jin Buchang pretended to think, and groaned for a while, and said, "Then I will set you three kinds of herbs such as peperomia, silver leaf grass and dead leaf grass for long-term supply, and you will send me 500 groups of other three herbs before sending me goods."

The old man said, "That's great. Let's sign the contract."

The contract is a virtual paper, but he has legal effects. The two agreed on a contract period of 3 months. Within these three months, the late evening must be handed over to Jin each day for three groups of 2,000 groups of three herbs. The unit price is 10 copper coins. Pay every day according to the quantity.

After Jin Buhuan and Twilight signed, the virtual contract was sent to the officially set AI legal robot with high IQ for review. After 5 seconds, the review passed.

Late twilight was very happy, and said with a big laugh: "Brother, in order to show my sincerity, I will send you a batch of raw materials now. You don't need to worry about giving me the money, just give me the money with the raw materials I give tomorrow."

Jin Buhuan said in surprise: "That's great."

He suddenly asked, "Brother, can I ask, what do you want these three herbs for?"

Lu Yang laughed, and he knew that the twilight would be harmless to humans and animals at this time, and sent a message to Jin Buhuan, saying, "In my words, sedge grass and sun flower can make slow magic recovery potions, silver leaf grass and dead leaf grass. Can make primary strength potions, withered grass and lisianthus can make primary intelligence potions, but unfortunately, you don't have all the goods here, and I have to buy them elsewhere. "

Jin Buchang was worried and didn't know how to say it. When he saw Lu Yang's words, he immediately learned everything.

The stern eyes hidden in the old man's smile faded gradually. He saw someone buying herbs in such large quantities. The first reaction was that this person was looking for a stable source of anti-drugs. Sell.

However, the other person, Jin Buhuan, gave the names of these three potions. The old man Chi Du could not find it but he could find it. Obviously, the other person would not lie to him with such a botched lie. Then, this person is really possible. I want to invest in the pharmacist industry in this game.

"Oh, then we need to communicate more. If I can, I'd like to have a potion here with you," the old man said.

"If you have the opportunity to cooperate, that's the best. The potion of strength can add 5 additional power to the player, as well as the potion of wisdom. However, it is only me who can make formulas such as primary potion and intelligence potion, and my price. It might be a bit high, "Jin Buhuan said.

"Haha, it should, it should, if I need it, I must look for you as soon as possible." The old man said.

Regarding the potion that is not exchanged for gold, Late Twilight does not need it at all, and it only adds 5 points of power. This boost to the player is almost zero. Even if it is the next copy, no one will miss the 5 points of power. He will never buy it. He Some said in amusement.

“Brother, I’ll send someone to give you medicine. I can’t talk to you any more. I wish you business.”

“Take your word.” Jin Buhuan said. He knew that the twilight was about to hang up and ended the conversation.

Lu Yang heard Jin Buhuan hang up, nodded with satisfaction, and said, “The negotiations are good.”

Jin Buchang took a long breath and said, “I’m still a long way off. I just missed it.”

The explanation of the herbal use he came up with was flawed, but Lu Yang’s explanation was impeccable.

Lu Yang said: “I just know more about herbs, and you will soon surpass me.”

Kim doesn’t change his shame.

“I will send you the last 8 anti-toxic agent formulas through the mailbox. After a while, the herbs are here, and you take them to make them. Be sure to make 1,000 bottles of anti-toxic agents tonight.” Lu Yang said.

Players who have reached level 8 on the ranking list have exceeded 10,000 people. With the number base, as long as the promotion is strong enough, anti-drugs will be sought after by numerous players.

“Good boss, rest assured, I will complete the task.” Jin Buhuan said.

Lu Yang believed that Jin Buhuan’s strength turned off the intercom, and Lu Yang dialed into Xiao Liang’s intercom.

“Boss, we are on the first floor of the secret passage. Are you coming back?” Xiao Liang asked impatiently after pressing the connection button.

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Go back here, but I’m leaving soon, boss, you are waiting for me at the entrance of the cave.”

“Oh, all right.” Xiao Liang relayed Lu Yang’s words to his sister Han Ying.

When Lu Yang teleported below the secret passage in Sarros, Xiao Liang and three sisters Han Ying were waiting for him on the platform at the entrance.

“Brother Lu Yang, you are here,” said Han Ying’s three siblings.

Lu Yang jumped to the high platform and touched three small heads, and said, “I’m going out to do one thing, I’m afraid I won’t be able to come back for a while, some of you should upgrade here, and don’t come out before level 19. “

“Oh.” Han Ying put the devil’s heart and the magic fire staff in front of Lu Yang and said, “Lu Yang, here you are.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “What’s the use?”

“I feel this equipment makes me particularly powerful.” Han Ying said.

“Brother, I’ll get one for you, don’t worry.” Lu Yang rubbed Han Ying’s hair again, making the little girl very shy.

“Really?” Han Ying asked with surprise.

“That is of course.” Lu Yang replaced the demon heart and magic fire staff, and the attributes returned to the previous top state.

Although he does not know the source of the necromancy skull belonging to the warlock, he can help Han Ying to get another one, as long as the bone tyrant is refreshed.

After saying goodbye to the three siblings, Lu Yang returned to the city of St. Gall. He looked at the medicine in his backpack. The golden electric eel was gone, but fortunately it was gone, otherwise he would not be able to bear it. .mtlnovel.com ~ Now all the medicines he used are the medicines that burst out when he hit the boss. Among them, there are 22 life-recovering potions (vials) and 21 magic-recovering potions (vials).

These quantities are enough for him to get a copy of the Serpent Canyon. As long as he gets through the expert level, and then publishes the way and the output equipment, his anti-drug will be in short supply, because a bottle of anti-drug can make a lot of People wear 8-level black iron or silver suits, which is what many people are willing to pay.

“What are you doing?” Lu Yang simulated a group in the newsletter, adding five people, Sun Yu and Zhuoji. .

“Boss, I’m watching a video, you know, a master just teased the bosses of the major guilds, that person is really strong.” Sun Yu said.

“The bosses of the major guilds are all green, which is ridiculous.” Mao Qiu said with a laugh.

“We are talking about the goblin’s body and skills, the more we discuss, the more we find out that this person’s strength is unfathomable,” said Zhuojiu.

“And everyone doesn’t even know how he disappeared. What he did is so secretive. I really want to worship that master as a teacher.” Yeyue listened to the wind.

“I’m embarrassed if you praise me so much, let me tell you the truth, that goblin is me.” Lu Yang sent the pictures of the two outfits he got to the simulation group.

Deathblade and Grimface Helm

Chapter 139 - Viper Canyon

“Boss, I kneel down and worship.” Sun Yu issued an expression bun kneeling in court.

“I’ll just say, the only one who can do this technique is your master brother.” Zhuo Jiu said with a smile, he was very grateful that Lu Yang did not hide them.

Mao Qiu said silently: “Master, I served, you a mage is better than a thief and a hunter.”

Yeyue listen to the wind, outside the wild knife and Vulcan M16 three face agreed.

Lu Yang said with a smile: “You want to learn from me and teach you, are you free now?”

“We’re resting, what’s the matter?” Zhuzhuo Qingfeng asked.

“Come with me to the Serpent Canyon, and I’ll take you out to equip.” Lu Yang said.

“Just six of us?” Yeyue asked after listening to the wind.

Lu Yang said: “Of course, I got the strategy from other guilds. It happens that I have a few bottles of anti-toxic drugs here. Let’s get through together.”

“There are only 7 people in you, that’s a copy of level 20.” Mao Qiu just turned around and patted his mouth, and said, “I forgot, you output 1 top 10.”

Everyone laughed, they all knew about the character of Mao Qiu, this person is quick-mouthed, and said to the brother that he was not angered enough.

Lu Yang said: "The meeting point is right in front of the copy of the Serpent Canyon. I'll wait for you there."

"Let's go right away." Zhuo Jiu looked at Sun Yu and the other four brothers and said, "Now just what Lu Yang told us, no one is allowed to say anything. Lu Yang told us that we really take us as brothers. When someone sees the picture he sent us, he will be hunted down in full service. "

Mao Qiu said, "Relax, brother, we will never say anything."

Yeyue listen to the wind, outside the knife and Vulcan M16 also expressed their positions.

Sun Yu said, "I won't betray my Master."

"All right, let's go to the Serpent Canyon." The muddy wine breeze led the team towards the Serpent Canyon.

The Serpent Canyon is not far from the city of St. Gall. Lu Yang first came to the entrance of the Serpent Canyon. At this time, it was already night.

The night of the Viper Canyon is very beautiful. A bright moon hangs in the sky, and the snoring sounds of venomous snakes from the strange rocks around from time to time come from the distance. In order to prevent meeting with bloodthirsty or black blood people, Lu Yang watched Looking around, there was a 15-yard-high boulder beside him.

Lu Yang jumped off the dagger and jumped to the boulder, lay down with his head in his head and looked at the starry sky.

This is his favorite thing to do in the last life. The starry sky in the game is a video transmitted in real time from the periphery of the distant galaxy according to the Curiosity V3 satellite jointly launched by the nine countries, without any trace of virtual components.

In the future, if you want, you can spend credits or gold coins in the game to observe space using the telescope on the Curiosity V3 satellite, and at that time, "Second World" is almost inseparable from the real world.

While Lu Yang was thinking, a team of players approached from a distance.

"I tell you, the moment the boss died, when the major guilds racked their brains to grab equipment, a strange dagger flew to the middle of the field, and then a goblin suddenly appeared beside the dagger. He First, all the thieves that lurked were blown off with a ring of fire resistance, and then the equipment was robbed and fled into the sea. "Among the crowd, Zhang Zibo was talking about what just happened.

This group of people are members of the Hanbing Studio. Yesterday they played too late. Xia Yuwei and Lan Yu went online. Zhang Zibo was earlier than them. They told Lan Yu and Xia Yuwei about the equipment battle that took place in Beicheng District today. .

"And then." Lan Yu asked.

"Then when the goblin swims in the water, the major guilds and casual players are chasing after him. The speed of the goblin legs is short, and the players in the major guilds and scattered groups are driving cheetah auras in the water. Chasing, just as they were about to catch up, the goblin turned back and said, "Thank you so much for sending me out, and leave."

Immediately afterwards, he threw the dagger and flickered into the sky, and then flickered again and jumped to the high wall of the palace. Did you know that when he flickered, there was only 1 drop of blood, and the blinking distance of 60 yards, it would drop if he did n't master it well. Blood died, but what he knew was so accurate that he could not drop any blood on the wall, and then turned over the wall and entered the palace. Zhang Zibo said excitedly.

Zheng Yuan said unpleasantly: "I think he was lucky. I searched the entire palace with someone and didn't even see the personal image."

Zhang Zibo said: "This person must be a top master, but also a person without a guild, if only he could be recruited."

Zheng Yuan agreed: "That is, such a talent is a master, much better than the one named Lu."

Lan Yu was too lazy to talk to Zheng Yuan and asked Zhang Zibo: "Is there a video?"

"Yes." Zhang Zibo sent a link to Lan Yu and Xia Yuwei.

"We'll wait for the other people here now, when the people are full, we will enter the copy." Xia Yuwei said.

Lan Yu walked to the side of the stone where Lu Yang was, and watched the video quietly, but Lan Yu just saw the goblin's skill in the video. Based on the woman's instinct, Lan Yu couldn't help saying, "This person is not Lu Yang Well."

Lu Yang knew that the woman's instincts were terrifying. He lay down on the stone and lost a stone.

"Who hit my head." Lan Yu covered her head with anger and looked up. As a result, she saw Lu Yang with a smirk on her face ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ Well, it's you. "Lan Yu said with one finger, landing with one finger.

With a flash of white light, Lu Yang appeared next to Lan Yu and said, "It's me, girl."

"Did you overhear what I said above?" Lan Yu said with a smile.

Lu Yang's favorite look at Lan Yu's smile made him always think of Shen Mengyao and said, "Yeah, I was guessed by you ghost girl, I can only come down and give in."

Lan Yu was so happy that she reached out her small hand and said, "If you see me, take it."

Lu Yang guessed that Lan Yu would be like this, and said, "Which one do you want, Necrotic Blood Blade and Ghost Face Helmet?"

“You really sent it.” Lan Yu said in surprise: “It’s expensive, I don’t want it.”

Lu Yang said, “What do you want?”

“I want you to take us to make a copy.” Lan Yu said with a small mouth.

Lu Yang sighed, why didn’t he want to bring a little blue feather more, but Xia Yuwei thought that this game could solve everything with money, and Zheng Yuan had an opinion on him, he couldn’t come at all.

“Lan Yu, we are all together, it’s time to go.” Xia Yuwei’s voice came.

“Oh, I’m here.” Lan Yu also knew that her request could not be fulfilled, looking at Lu Yang and said, “I’m gone, master.”

Lu Yang waved his hand and said, “The next time I meet you to give you a gift.”

Chapter 140 - Black python king

“Oh.” Lan Yu waved her hand and turned around, came out of the big rock, and came to Xia Yuwei.

Zheng Yuan ran to the blue feather with a charming look, and said, “This is an anti-toxic drug. What about 10 bottles of silver coins in the auction house? I took a lot of effort to grab the 10 bottles. Today I will do it for the guild Dedication, one of our 10 main force one bottle. “

...

Zheng Yuan's voice gradually disappeared, a sneer appeared at the corner of Lu Yang's mouth, and he was born again. Among the few people he wanted to repay, there was Lan Yu.

If Xia Yuwei listens to him, don't talk about the Serpent Canyon, the first pass of each copy of the epic difficulty is their ice studio.

In that case, the cold ice studio relies on the appeal of the first pass, and the union established can definitely be comparable to second-line guilds such as black blood and sword of darkness. Unfortunately, Xia Yuwei doesn't care about him at all.

"Boss, we are at the door." Sun Yu sent a message.

Lu Yang glanced towards the door, and found that Sun Yu and Zhuo Jiu poured out all their brothers and looked around.

"I'm here." Lu Yang waved at them.

Sun Yu's eyes brightened and he ran over first, saying, "Boss, I can now avoid the attacks of 4 trolls at the same time by myself."

"Yes, yes, great progress. At the end of this mission, I will take you to the next place to upgrade." Lu Yang found that after two days without seeing Sun Yu, he became more confident.

The five brothers of Zhuo Jiu Qing also came to Lu Yang.

"Master, see you in a few days, you're getting stronger and stronger," said Zhuoqi Qingping.

Mao Qiu could not help asking, "Master, what equipment did you use for that dagger, and how did you get it?"

Lu Yang sent the attributes of the escape dagger into the simulation group.

Escape Dagger (+10)

Level: 0

Description: Has the magical ability to break open space, and is said to be the personal weapon of the * of theft.

“This is the weapon I used when I ran. As for the method of obtaining it, I got it from the Pandora’s Box.”
Lu Yang said.

“Pandora’s Box?” Both Sun Yu and Zhuo Jiu Qing showed curious eyes, and they had not heard of the item.

Lu Yang explained to them the specific use of the Pandora’s Box, the method of obtaining it, and the upgrade of his weapons, which he did not finish until the entrance of the copy.

“I thought this thing was very simple. It turned out to be so complicated.” Mao Qiu was stupid.

“Generally speaking, this needs to gather all the power of a small guild, and there is a great chance of failure. Master, you are too strong.” Yeyue heard the wind.

Zhuoshu nodded in approval and said, “Now I have more and more confidence in your proposal to establish a small team.”

Lu Yang laughed. After choosing the copy difficulty, he led the team to the entrance of the serpentine rock.

System Tip: You have entered the copy of the Serpent Canyon, Difficulty: Expert

“I rub it, expert difficulty.” Mao Qiu looked at Lu Yang with a look of surprise, said: “Master, you have chosen the wrong difficulty, we 7 people play expert difficulty.”

Lu Yang took the anti-drug from his backpack and put it in front of the crowd, saying, “Of course, the 7 of us have an expert-level difficulty.”

The fur ball blinked and said, “Master, are you sure, we are only 7 of us.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “Do you know what a real master is?”

“What do you mean?” Mao Qiu didn’t understand.

Lu Yang said while standing on the ground, “Drink all the antidote first, and then you hide behind the big stone on the right.”

The passage at the entrance of the replica was 30 yards in length and 10 yards in width. It took Lumin one minute to set up 10 rows of fire walls in the passage, 5 in each row, which just filled the passage.

“Come on, I’ll tell you the correct way to play this copy.” A fiery flame appeared under Lu Yang’s feet.

“Blazing Blaze”

The blazing speed of level 2 gave Lu Yang a 150% movement speed bonus. Lu Yang rushed forward like a phantom.

Beyond 30 yards, more than 20 poisonous snakes were divided into three groups to block ahead.

Level: 12

Qi and blood: 8300/8300

Lu Yang came to the position of 10 yards of the poisonous snake, but the poisonous snake had not found him yet, and Lu Yang threw out the escape dagger.

The high-speed spinning dagger flew forward with a blue light, and Lu Yang continued to run forward for 5 yards. Just before the poisonous snake was about to find him, a flash of blue light on Lu Yang appeared behind the three groups of poisonous snakes.

As soon as it landed, three more poisonous snakes appeared in front of it, and a group of poisonous snakes were patrolling back and forth. The closest one was only 5 yards away.

With a flash of white light, Lu Yang disappeared from the spot again and appeared behind the second batch of poisonous snakes.

A high hillside appeared in front, and four groups of poisonous snakes patrolled left and right under the slope.

Lu Yang's level is 13 and the poisonous snake's level is both 12 levels. The lower-level copy is strange. He wants to find that he is only within 5 yards.

The hillside has a width of about 40 yards. When four groups of poisonous snakes patrol back and forth, there is exactly an open space with a distance of 5 yards from each group of poisonous snakes.

Lu Yangzhen came on time, rushed forward with a flame under his feet, came to the top of the hillside, and an empty flat land appeared.

The width of the flat ground is about 20 yards. Six groups of poisonous snakes are arranged in three rows, and each group has seven black poisonous snakes and a black piebald python.

Qi and blood: 10000/10000

The piebald python is an elite monster with a level higher than him. It is found that his distance is 10 yards, and the gap between the two detox snakes is exactly 10 yards.

Generally speaking, even in this case, even masters will be okay, but Lu Yang has a cracking method.

In the game ~ www.mtlnovel.com ~ there is a trick called half position!

Lu Yang rushed to the middle of the first row of poisonous snakes with a hot and rapid effect. When he was about 10 yards away from the variegated python on the left, the variegated python on the left looked in the direction of Lu Yang. .

Just before the piebald python was about to warn, Lu Yang cleverly stepped sideways. The parallel distance between the body's half-circle and the piebald python reached 10.05 yards at that instant. .

The variegated python on the right side staggered a parallel line with the variegated python on the left side. At this time, the variegated python on the right side looked at Lu Yang's position, and Lu Yang hurried to another half position. , Easily avoided the attention of the piebald python on the right.

For three consecutive walks, Lu Yang easily escaped the six groups of poisonous snakes. Along a narrow path on the right, Lu Yang once again avoided the two waves of variegated pythons in a half-position method. Later, he reached a cliff surrounded by cliffs. Circle venue.

In the center of the field, there are 12 groups of venomous snakes, each of which has a piebald python, and in the center of these 12 groups of venomous snakes, a black mono-headed python with a height of 10 yards is hovering on a boulder.
