

Wild Fire 2201

Chapter 2201: Star Breaker for Tier 3 Weapon

On the other side, the battle in the Council Chamber also started. Zhuojiu and Xia Yuwei led members of the Archer Group to shoot long arrows made of star steel arrows at the demon in a state of vertigo. The arrows were all fed with nine heads. Snake Emperor's poisonous, all the demons that were shot fell to the ground and died.

"Clean up the battlefield quickly, cover up all the * smells, and don't show your feet." Lu Yang commanded loudly.

"Yes." Zhou Tianming, Bai Shi and others replied in excitement.

No one thought that it would be so easy to ambush the devil. The fierce battle that they thought was so easy now makes them a little bit unbelievable.

Lu Yang looked at Augustus and said, "Thanks to you."

Augustus knelt down in front of Lu Yang humbly, and said, "This is what your servant should do, my great master, I dedicate this broken star blade to you. This is a Tier 3 weapon in our world. , Very sharp."

Lu Yang looked at the huge sword that Augustus had handed over two meters in length, with a handle and a large blade. He frowned and said, "It doesn't look suitable for us. Give it to you."

Augustus shook his head, and said with some excitement: "This Star Smashing Blade can grow a circle or shrink a circle with the user's thoughts. It is specially prepared for the third-order powerhouse."

The Blazing Demon God prompts: "The Star Smashing Blade is a good weapon. Users with Tier 3 peak strength can gain the ability to transform or be rage, and their body will grow sharply. The Star Smashing Blade is specifically designed to deal with it. Manufactured by this ability of the third-order powerhouse.

This weapon is made of broken star ore. It is a unique mineral in our world. Give the weapon to me. I will wipe out Bandy's power for you. Who do you want to give, let him drop a drop of blood on the weapon. The handle is fine. "

Only then did Lu Yang realize the importance of this weapon, and smiled and took the weapon. In an instant, the Blazing Demon used his terrifying mind to erase the power of Bandis's mind on this weapon. For a while, the weapon became Nothing.

"Zoom out"

Lu Yang used his mind to launch it. Without acknowledging the master, anyone could control this weapon. Following Lu Yang's command, the star-breaking blade, which was nearly three meters long, instantly turned into a one about 1.6 meters long. Long knife.

He looked at the sharp blade, slashed at the dagger in his hand, and with a click, the dagger was chopped out of a big gap.

"It can become bigger and smaller, and still so sharp!?" Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming and others showed excitement in their eyes.

Zhuojiu, Xia Yuwei and the others just came back, and they all showed interest when they saw this weapon. What the warrior values most is the weapon. The so-called sword gift to heroes, Lu Yang looked at them with a smile, and said:" Old rules, throw the dice."

Everyone laughed. This was when they were still in the game world. After the equipment appeared, they couldn't decide who they belonged to and the distribution method they chose.

"No dice." Said with a smile for a long time.

Lu Yang turned on the phone on his arm and said, "It's in the emoticon pack of the chat channel."

Everyone reacted and quickly opened the emoticon pack of the phone and chose to throw the dice.

“12 o’clock!” Zhuojiu said.

“17 o’clock!” said bitter love for half a lifetime.

“18 o’clock!” White Lion said excitedly. He threw out three sixes, which were higher than everyone’s points.

Lu Yang threw the Star Breaking Blade to the white lion and said, “It’s yours. It just so happens that you also dominate with swordsmanship.”

White Lion is not accustomed to using swordsmanship. Because of his character, he still likes the indomitable long sword, which can better reflect his will.

“Don’t worry, maybe there will be more in the future, we will continue to prepare for an ambush.” Lu Yang said.

Numerous soldiers from the Jagged Brotherhood have moved the demon corpses in the dining room and the council hall. The ground has also been cleaned up with a strong stain remover. A strong wind blows through the wind master, and the ground is as clean as new.

Augustus sniffed it and made sure that he couldn’t smell the blood, and said, “It’s okay.”

A red carpet was spread on the ground, the dining table was rearranged, and the grilled meat was placed on the dining table.

The same is true of the Assembly Hall, which has become brand new, and at this time, the black light in the teleportation hall has become stronger again, and the next batch of demons is coming.

Augustus hurriedly ran over. Finally, the next group of demons were from the people of Augustus. He led the demons to the restaurant. After they ate and fell asleep, they were relieved by the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood. All of his equipment was sent to the basement and imprisoned.

Immediately after the fifth and sixth batches of demons came over, there were no people from Augustus. In the end, all these demons were killed cleanly. Fortunately, when the last batch of demons came, there were 10 demons. They were also carrying the Star Smashing Blade weapon, and they were not unexpectedly beheaded on the spot.

Lu Yang kept a handful for himself, and gave the rest to Zhuo Jiu and the others. In this way, every commander has a broken star blade in his hand. It can be large or small according to their habits. Among them, Zhuo Jiu and Xia Yuwei and several others were good at using swords, and Augustus also agreed to go back and help them re-forged, turning the broken star blade into a long sword.

late at night.

The elites of the Jagged Brotherhood fell asleep in the palace after a tiring day. Lu Yang followed Augustus to complete the slave contract with the 500 demons in the prison and walked outside.

“When will the devil arrive next time?” Lu Yang asked as he walked.

Augustus said: “The Demon God should send someone over again in a month. I will stay here to monitor the actions of the Demon God. Once there is a situation, I will contact you immediately.”

Lu Yang said: “All of your people are sent to the dungeon to make scrolls. Be loyal to me. In the future, I will leave you and your people a fertile living area.”

“Thank you, great master.” Augustus was reverent with excitement. They are demons, not elemental creatures, and cannot live in a single environment. The most suitable place is this kind of place on earth.

Lu Yang laughed, walked into the parliament hall next to him. Commanders such as Zhuojiu and White Lion were roasting the fire. Seeing Lu Yang coming, they all stood up to greet him.

“Boss,” everyone said respectfully.

“Where is the orc army?” Lu Yang asked.

The wheels of the war have already turned, and there is no extra rest time. After ambushing the devil, when you turn around, you have to find a way to deal with the upcoming orc army.

Zhuojiu rushed back from the front line of surveillance to join the battle. The task of surveillance was left to his brothers. He clicked on the intercom and projected the map into the air, pointed at a location 600 kilometers outside Feng City, and said, “Pass back. According to the news, the enemy has reached Ironstone Mountain. This area is the last barrier. The mountain road is winding and they need to walk for five days.”

Lu Yang frowned. He didn’t expect that the enemy would also speed up his advancement. It should have been eight days away, but it took three days to get out.

“All staff will return to Feng City tomorrow. We will speed up the evacuation of the personnel. At the same time, we will capture the fire crow mounts of another 2,000 shooters.” Lu Yang said.

“Yes.” The crowd responded in a solemn voice.

Chapter 2202: Last dignity

That night, everyone rested and waited until the next morning, when Lu Yang was about to return to Feng City with his elite troops and continue to transfer humans, Zhang Zibo brought a team from the East China Sea to the foot of Riyue Mountain.

“Boss, I finally caught up. I brought the team over overnight. This is the scroll that Grant asked me to hand over to you.” Zhang Zibo handed the black scroll in his hand to Lu Yang.

“Dididi!”

Lu Yang's phone rang at the same time, and it was Grant who called. He took the scroll and pressed the call button and said, "What is this?"

Grant laughed in the video and said: "Worship me, Boss, it only took me three days to work out how to use the corpse of the Space-Time Zerg. The scroll in your hand is made by me from the corpse of the Space-Time Zerg. Come out, don't look at that there is only one scroll, but there are 500 scrolls inside.

There is an infinite space inside the scroll. Of course, the space inside is not very stable, and things may be destroyed by the sudden space-time cracks when they are put in. However, if you install something insignificant, you can also install it. "

Lu Yang smiled speechlessly and said, "Then what can this thing hold?"

Grant's eyes were already bloodshot, and he roared: "How do I know that this thing can be made in three days is already my limit, what do you think about it, don't bother me, I will continue the study."

The phone was hung up.

Lu Yang was speechless. In the entire Jagged Brothers League, only Grant dared to hang up his phone like this, but he did nothing. Grant had fallen into madness, completely becoming a scroll research lunatic of another world civilization.

"Let's go together." Lu Yang threw the scroll into the Demon Temple.

Zhang Zibo nodded. On the way, Zhang Zibo gritted his teeth and asked: "Boss, can you help me answer a few perceptual questions when I have time? I found that I seem to be able to learn perceptual ability."

Lu Yang's eyes lit up, and he smiled and said, "That's good, show me it."

Zhang Zibo nodded, urging the magic in his body, and a ripple that was invisible to the naked eye spread instantly, including the area within 10 meters of the surrounding area.

The Blazing Demon God woke up and said, “Yes, this kid does have the ability to perceive, so I can focus on training it.”

Lu Yang smiled at Zhang Zibo, slapped him on the back, and said, “Okay, brother, you actually have a gift for perception.”

Zhang Zibo smiled and scratched his head. Since entering another world, his abilities have always been ordinary. Although he has been promoted to the second-tier peak by relying on the red spirit fruit given by Lu Yang, he is still the one who is not good at fighting and only good at defense. warrior.

Now with this ability, Zhang Zibo said: “So I can share more for Yuwei.”

Lu Yang laughed and said, “If you don’t understand anything, just ask me, I will try my best to help you learn the ability to perceive.”

Zhang Zibo nodded, and along the way asked all the things he couldn’t figure out in terms of learning perception abilities in the past few days.

Lu Yang also learned the perception ability bit by bit, helping Zhang Zibo answer no questions. When he returned to Fengshi in the morning, all the things that Zhang Zibo didn’t understand in the first stage were answered by Lu Yang. Up.

“Thank you, boss, I’m busy.” Zhang Zibo wants to transport the next batch of humans back to the East China Sea by rail, and there is no more time to ask.

Lu Yang looked at the back of Zhang Zibo leading the team and sighed in his heart. Everyone was working hard. He believed that the world would become hopeful again because of them.

“Chairman Lu Yang, you are back.” Zhao Hua ran over with someone from a distance. It was only a few tens of meters. Zhao Hua’s thin body couldn’t bear it. He stood firmly and took a few breaths.

Lu Yang looked at the bloodshot eyes of Zhao Hua and the others, and knew that these people hadn’t slept for tens of thousands, and asked, “How is it going here?”

Zhao Hua said: "As soon as tomorrow afternoon, everyone can move away."

Lu Yang's eyes lit up and said, "It's great, so we can have three days to rest, and then we can fight this group of orcs in the East China Sea."

Zhuo Jiu, White Lion and others all felt Lu Yang's murderous air, and the power in their bodies unconsciously emerged. Obviously, everyone knew that they were going to kill themselves.

Zhao Hua was an ordinary person. Some could not bear the pressure of Lu Yang and the others. He took two steps back and said with some flickering words: "There is another problem. Some people don't want to leave. I can't persuade them."

"Don't want to go?" Lu Yang frowned.

Zhao Hua nodded and said: "Hundreds of old people, they either have physical disabilities, or are seriously ill at the late stage, and they are older. Even if they go to the East China Sea, they may not be able to survive this winter. Therefore, they want to commit suicide. , I don't have any extra power in my hands to control them. I can only let their children comfort them. It's almost time for the last group to evacuate. I don't know what to do."

"Take me to see." Lu Yang said.

Zhao Hua nodded, and just about to leave, Lu Yang said, "You stay and sleep, there is turbid wine here to replace you, and you may face a fierce battle afterwards. People in Fengshi will need to go to the East China Sea in all aspects. You come to help, you can't fall down."

Zhao Hua wanted to hold on, but found that he really couldn't hold it. He sighed and said, "Lao Li, go with you."

After speaking, Zhao Hua fell asleep in the chair.

Lu Yang said, "Come on to warm up Zhao Hua, don't freeze him to death."

In this situation, Lu Yang couldn't even find an extra quilt, so he could only temporarily protect Zhao Hua with Huo Crow's body.

Zhuojiu let his fire crow spread its wings and protect Zhao Hua. The man named Lao Li next to Zhao Hua came up and saluted Lu Yang, saying, "I am Zhao Hua's deputy, Li Zhigang."

"Take me to see." Lu Yang said.

Li Zhigang nodded and led Lu Yang to the Dongcheng area, where there was a fairly complete building. The glass outside of the building was broken, the windows were nailed with wooden boards, and there was a layer of plastic sheeting to prevent wind.

Today is a sunny day. There is no heating everywhere in the city. In the courtyard in front of the building, many elderly people are wearing cotton-padded clothes, basking in the sun to keep warm.

There are a lot of young people nearby, who are trying to persuade them with all their heart, but the old people don't listen at all. Once someone wants to get closer, the old man shows a sharp expression and his hands are constantly swinging.

Look carefully, will find that every old man is holding a fruit knife in his hand, obviously threatening his children, dare to approach, they will die immediately!

Lu Yang's eyes were wet, he shook his head, and forcibly suppressed the touch, walked into the yard, looked at the group of old people and said, "I'm Lu Yang. I believe you all recognize me. Come with me. I Take you to the East China Sea, I will not let you die here."

Hundreds of elders looked at the door one after another, a little dizzy, and they were still wearing dazzling glasses, but when they saw that it was really Lu Yang, their eyes showed relief.

The old man closest to the door turned his wheelchair over, looked at Lu Yang, and said, "My child, don't bother for us. We are determined to die. Going to the East China Sea will also cause trouble for you and the children. We With that self-knowledge, your few resources will not be wasted."

An old man walked over with a cane and stared at Lu Yang and said, "I know there is still a lot of gasoline and diesel in the pipeline. When the orcs come, we will light the place and die with the enemy. Let's go. This is us. The last thing we can do for Fengshi will let us live out our last dignity."

Lu Yang's tears couldn't stop a little, looking at these old people speechless.

Chapter 2203: The Orc Legion arrived early

Obviously, these old people are ready to die. They don't want to be a burden anymore. They would rather die with the enemy than live without dignity.

It is conceivable that since the energy and creatures of another world came to the earth, human beings have fallen into the most critical moment.

It is not easy for ordinary people to protect themselves, let alone to ensure the safety of their families, and the elderly have become a drag for everyone.

Fengshi experienced the invasion of creatures from another world and the attack of demonized creatures for two years. There are still these old people left. They are already the last batch. They must have suffered from the war and have had enough of their families drag.

The characteristic of most parents in China is that they would rather suffer themselves than drag their children. These old people have dragged on for two years, and they have also been tired.

Maybe they were afraid of other world creatures and death before, but after two years, they have had enough. Now they would rather die than have a safe living environment for their children.

“Dad, you can’t be like this. You are not filial to a child like this.” An old man’s son knelt down on the spot, crying in tears.

“Dad, your age is old. This is no longer a world that needs you to fight. It’s our young people’s business. We have the ability to honor you.”

...

The few people headed by the children knelt on the ground and wept bitterly, but the old man opposite them was determined. One of them glared at them and said: “Hold away your tears. What this world needs is hope and your fighting spirit. We On the one hand, his death is to die with the enemy and inflict heavy losses on the enemy; on the other hand, it is also to make you ignite a higher fighting spirit and fight the enemy to the end.

Human beings will never become slaves to races in other worlds, let alone their sacrifice animals. We are human beings, proud Chinese. ”

Lu Yang said with tears in his eyes: “I don’t need you like this, we cultivators and fighters exist, and you don’t need to die.”

An old man shook his head and said: “I’ve heard about the orcs. You can’t stay here. Only if we stay can help. We have made up our minds on this matter. Don’t let us die in the East China Sea regretfully. That is the greatest insult to us, let us stay here and complete our final task.”

Another old man opened his clothes, with a circle of homemade weapons entangled in it, and said with a smile: “Either we die now, or we die when the enemy comes. There is no third way. Now, please bring gasoline and diesel over. We are here waiting for the orc army to come over.”

When things are here, no one can persuade one more word. Lu Yang looked at these old people solemnly, and said firmly in his eyes: “I will do as you ask. Please say goodbye to your children. Tomorrow afternoon, I will send diesel and petrol and say goodbye.”

After speaking, Lu Yang turned and left. He could no longer look at the eyes of these old people. He was afraid that he couldn’t help crying. Now he is not qualified to cry. Tens of thousands of brothers in the Jagged Brotherhood are waiting for him. One-step instructions, the enemy is right in front of him, what he needs is toughness and wisdom.

“Go to the oil depot.” Lu Yang led his men towards the nearby oil depot.

There are a total of 16 oil depots storing gasoline and diesel in Feng City, which are located in 16 areas of the city. At present, there are 12 of these 16 areas and 2 of them can operate normally.

Li Zhigang is very familiar with these things and led Luyang to a nearby oil depot. At this time, there are no more vehicles here. All the spare vehicles are used to give people away, and the tank trucks are also used to transport gasoline and diesel to the East China Sea. .

“There is no container.” Li Zhigang frowned and said.

Lu Yang also discovered this problem. Suddenly, he remembered the space storage scroll that Zhang Zibo had sent this morning. He took it out of the Demon Temple, transferred the magic power into it, and opened the scroll instantly.

The 500 scrolls popped out one by one, as fast as rain. Li Zhigang was surprised to see, and asked, “What, what is this?”

Lu Yang said: “The storage scroll can be used to hold gasoline and diesel. When the time comes, the seal rune on the scroll can be activated to control the scroll to spray out the oil.”

Li Zhigang’s eyes lit up and said, “This is a good thing.”

Lu Yang taught Li Zhigang and the others to use the method. Open the scroll and draw dense runes on it. At the middle of the runes, there is a circle with a diameter of 20 centimeters.

Transfer the magic power to a rune on the left side of the circular pattern, and then point the oil gun at the circle and press the switch. All the diesel fuel sprayed from the oil gun enters the reel and leaves.

The Jagged Brothers soldiers who came with Lu Yang filled the reels with diesel fuel one after another according to Lu Yang's method. What people did not expect was that a reel could be filled with half a ton.

Here let the oil filling task be handed over to his subordinates. Lu Yang changed into Red Night and flew into the air. He found the Harpy Corps and a shooter regiment under Xia Yuwei, went to the forest on the north side of Feng City, and continued to capture Fire Crow and Fire Crow King are gone.

By the next morning, all 500 reels were filled with gasoline and diesel. There were only the last group of millions of people in Fengshi, and they were ready to leave before noon.

At this time, most of the city has become an empty city, except for the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood, only the elderly in the nursing home.

"Tell my brothers to return to Feng City quickly after sending the people away and be ready for battle." Lu Yang said to Zhou Tianming, Bai Shi and others.

If the orc army does not stay in Fengshi, it is possible to continue heading south towards the East China Sea. Lu Yang must stop them on the road and allow Fei Yang more time to perfect the defensive position.

Zhuojiu suddenly ran over and said: "Boss, bad news, the enemy suddenly speeded up, as if they found a shortcut to Fengshi, they might arrive here this afternoon."

Lu Yang was shocked and asked, "Why is it so fast?"

The enemy was still three days away last night, and today he was able to speed up his march. This is simply not normal.

Zhuojiu said: "The brothers in front reported that the enemy was looking on a mountain and saw the location of Fengshi. Therefore, in the early morning, they speeded up, and 50,000 people ran over the mountains and ridges with great speed."

“Certainly.” Lu Yang scolded himself secretly. He forgot that all the enemies were second-tier peak-level fighters. As long as he found the position of Fengshi from a height and ran here at full speed, the time could be shortened by three or four times.

“Let’s go to the nursing home.” Lu Yang quickly ran towards the nursing home with the dirty wine.

Chapter 2204: Huoshaofengshi

The other side.

In the nursing home, the children of the elderly still did not leave. They were saying their final farewell to their parents. The last train that left was just waiting for them. Everyone gave them plenty of time, because everyone They all know what their parents did for Fengshi.

“Don’t be afraid, your fear won’t be exchanged for the mercy of the enemy, it will only make them crazier.”

“Hold on, I believe you can change the world.”

...

Dozens of elders have already seen through the world, each saying goodbye to their children, and when they saw Lu Yang bringing people over, they all smiled.

“Did you bring things?” an old man said to Lu Yang.

Lu Yang took out the scroll and handed it to the old man, and said, “After opening the scroll, there are magic runes on it. As long as you press the rune, the scroll will spray out gasoline and diesel.”

The old man frowned and said, “I’ll give it a try.”

The other old people also came over curiously. After learning how to use the scroll, Lu Yang asked Zhuojiu and others to give each old person a scroll.

“After the scroll is opened, it can’t be stopped. You only have one chance to learn. I’m optimistic.” Lu Yang took out a scroll and led them to the clearing area to show them.

The method of opening is easy to learn, just press a magic rune, and there is no difficulty, so the old people quickly learn it.

“This thing is good, children come on, learn these things early, and have the ability to protect themselves.” An old man has no teeth and said cheerfully.

Lu Yang nodded. Just as he was about to speak, a deep horn suddenly sounded in the distance.

“Woo~~~~!”

“Woo~~~~!”

“Woo~~~~!”

Lu Yang's phone rang violently. He pressed the connect button and asked, "What's the matter?"

The person who called was the brother who was in charge of monitoring the march of the orc army, and said to Lu Yang: "Boss, the orc army has already ran to the outskirts of the northwestern area of Fengshi, and is undergoing rest and recuperation. The horn was ordered by the commander of the orc army. The noise seems to be deliberately provoking and arousing the fighting spirit of his men."

In the farmland of a village in the northwestern suburbs, on the snow-covered ground, there are 100 orc warriors standing side by side. Seen from a high altitude, they are densely lined up in 50 rows.

These orcs are fully armed, armed with star steel swords, and wearing half a piece of star steel armor. The cold weather has no effect on them, and the expressions of each orc are ferocious and angry.

At the forefront of all the orcs, the commander of Tier 3 orcs, General Gabriels, was holding a huge war knife and roaring at something.

"My soldiers, the enemy is in the steel forest ahead."

“Everyone rests quickly, you only have half an hour.”

“I have already used the horn to tell the enemy that our orc army is coming.”

“Be prepared, I want you to tear them apart.”

Lu Yang looked solemn and looked at the elderly and their children, and said: “The turbid wine took the old people to ambush in various locations. The other fire crow shooters quickly prepared to set fire in the surrounding area, and the children of the old people immediately went to the train station. Following the last train to leave, all the fighters of the Jagged Brotherhood are ready to fight. The flame may not burn the enemy to death. It is time to show our courage and prepare to fight.”

“Kill~!” Zhuojiu and others shouted in unison, and the murderous aura instantly spread.

Dozens of old people saw this scene, and their faces showed relief expressions. The children of the old people stopped staying any more. Finally, they glanced at their parents and ran towards the train station.

After half an hour, the commander of the orc legion Gabriels finally couldn't help it, and the orc warriors under him couldn't help it either.

Starting from leaving the grassland and rushing towards Fengshi, they have encountered various problems along the way. The members of the temple lost contact in the middle of the journey. They could not find the water source on the road, and had to slow down, and various terrain restrictions. Speed of their travel.

These series of events have caused Gabriels and his orc warriors to suffocate their anger, so now they have to retaliate and vent.

The best object is the humans in Feng City. Although he has not entered the city, he can feel the breath of life in the distant city, and there must be a lot of humans there.

As for humans, will they cause harm to them? Gabriels hadn't thought about it at all. In his opinion, humans are a group of weak low-level creatures, vulnerable to their power, even without weapons, they can crush the human body.

“Orc Legion, prepare to attack.” Gabriels roared.

“Woo~~~~~!”

“Woo~~~~~!”

“Woo~~~~~!”

...

A sharp and piercing horn sounded, and all the orc warriors instantly turned red eyes like crazy. Their bodies trembled violently as they panted, and the arms holding the purple two-handed sword showed blue veins.

Gabriels turned around and inspected the orc warriors under his hands. He walked from the middle to the left and then from the left to the right. After confirming that the eyes of each warrior were full of bloodthirsty and fighting spirit, Gabriels returned to the middle. Pointing forward with his two-handed swords, he roared, "Orc Army, attack~!"

"Roar~!"

50,000 orcs roared at the same time, holding two-handed swords in their formation, and launched a charge towards the distant city.

Under their full-speed running, it took only 10 minutes to rush to the streets of the northwestern suburbs. saw the fortress in front of him, just when Gabriels thought there was someone inside, he jumped to the back of the fort and swept around, only to find that there was no one in the fortress, not even weapons and equipment.

Not only is there no in the street fortress, but also in the surrounding buildings, there is also news from the orcs in other areas.

"There are no humans~!"

Gabriels was extremely angry, and roared: "Continue to attack, find humans, and kill humans~!"

“Roar~!”

Fifty thousand orc warriors continued to charge towards the city, but they rushed from the northwest area to the central city area, and there was still no one, which made Gabriels confused.

“Where are the people? Are they gone?” Gabriel thought angrily. He felt humiliated.

At this moment, an old man tremblingly walked over from a distance with a cane, and when he saw the orc, he turned and left.

Gabriels finally found a human being. How could he leave him and jumped in front of the human, and roared, “Human, where are the others?”

The old man looked at Gabriel in horror and said, “You, can you speak human words?”

“Presumptuous~!” Gabriels was furious and grabbed the old man in the air, asking with cold eyes, “Where are the other humans?”

“I, I will take you there.” The old man said fearfully.

Chapter 2205: Arrogant Legion of Orcs

Gabriel put down the old man and asked, “Why is the city so empty, humans?”

The old man showed a helpless expression and said: “The young and middle-aged people have all gone, and we are the only old people left. They think it is a cumbersome thing to abandon us and leave us here to fend for themselves.”

“Run?” Gabriels frowned and asked, “How did you get out? Where are the harpies and temple people around here?”

“The harpy and the people in the temple were ambushed by the Iron-Blooded Brotherhood, and they were all killed. After that, they took the people from Fengshi for a major evacuation. All the young people were evacuated, and only us old people were left. “The old man’s voice was horrified.

“Trash.” Gabriels furiously threw the old man to the ground. The reason he ran from the grassland at full speed was because he was afraid that the harpy and the temple would not be able to beat Lu Yang, but he did not expect that Lu Yang would still be one step ahead.

“How long have you been walking?” Gabriel asked, staring at the old man on the ground.

“It’s been more than ten days.” The old man sighed and said, “As if he was afraid of something, the Jagged Brotherhood asked everyone to pack their packages and walk to the East China Sea on the same day. Now I know, it turns out that Lu Yang is afraid of you.”

Gabriels showed an arrogant expression. He had heard before that how powerful the Iron-Blood Brotherhood was and how much damage it caused to the subordinates of the Nature Protoss. Now it seems that it is just that.

“Timid humans don’t even dare to fight head-on.” Gabriels’ face was arrogant and contemptuous.

The orc warriors around him roared with excitement.

“Your Excellency, Legion Commander, we should go directly to the East China Sea, kill everyone in the Jagged Brotherhood and the East China Sea, and sacrifice to our god.” Adjutant Karloz roared.

“Very correct, but now my soldiers need blood to vent.” Gabriel said in orc language, and then said to the old man in Chinese: “How many humans are left, and where.”

“There are only hundreds of thousands of our elderly people left, in the building not far away,” the old man said.

“Lead the way.” Gabriels’ voice was full of murder.

The old man was able to resume his actions at this time. He got up from the ground tremblingly, and looked at Gabriels and the orcs in horror, which made the orcs even more excited.

What the beasts didn’t notice was that the moment the old man turned around and got up from the ground, his eyes became extremely cold. The next second, his eyes returned to cowardice, and he walked towards the nursing home step by step.

Gabriel waved his hand, and the orc warriors passed the order back one by one. All the orc warriors surrounded the surrounding streets in an umbrella shape, advancing arrogantly.

Obviously, Gabriels believed the old man's words. Since entering this world, humans, such weak creatures, can only hide behind heavy weapons and fight them. Whenever they rush in front of humans, humans will be defeated.

Now they have entered the human city. Under this kind of terrain, even if humans want to stop them, they can't do it at all. What's more, the human imperial capital claims to have the strongest army of fighters. There are high-ranking fighters in the small border town here, and how dare to fight them.

As for the Jagged Brotherhood and Lu Yang, Gabriels didn't care at all. He had already massacred more than 100,000 humans in the nursing home. Tomorrow, he would take the team to the East China Sea, kill the Jagged Brotherhood, and sacrifice to the East China Sea. Ten thousand people opened the space to welcome the gods to come to the world in advance.

With such thoughts, Gabriels didn't bother to let his subordinates investigate the situation in advance, and directly led 50,000 people into a neat line from the three streets from the left, middle and right, while advancing toward the nursing home.

A few minutes later, the old man came to the gate of the nursing home, without the old man speaking, Gabriel's three-meter-high body had already crossed the wall and saw the situation inside.

A dozen old people sat together, closed their eyes and said nothing, as if thinking about something, Gabriels frowned and asked, "Why are there only so many people?"

The old man smiled deliberately "to please" and said, "The other old people are hiding in the nearby building. Do you need me to call them all out for you?"

Gabriels looked around and saw the old man in many nearby buildings. His face showed a grinning expression. Suddenly he lifted a knife and cut the old man diagonally into two sections. He sneered and said: "This is the end of your role. ."

Then, Gabriels raised the blood-stained butcher knife and shouted: "Humans are in the surrounding buildings, rushing in and killing everyone."

"Roar~!"

50,000 orc warriors were waiting for this order, and they roared into the surrounding residential buildings, and Gabriels also broke into the nursing home with someone.

The old people in the nursing home were not afraid, but sneered on their faces. The hands hidden in the sleeves pressed the opening runes on the scrolls. For a time, countless gasoline and diesel were removed from the sleeves of these old people. Gushing out.

The speed of this spewing is like a pipe opening a flood gate. There is a layer in the yard in a blink of an eye, and these dozens of old people, after destroying the stop rune, just stared at Gabriels and looked calm.

Gabriels was shocked by the abnormal behaviors and expressions of these old people. For a while, he couldn't figure out what these old people were doing, let alone what the pungent odor liquid was pouring out of the scroll.

Similarly, the old people in the surrounding buildings also opened the time-space scroll, a large amount of gasoline and diesel flowed into the corridor, and the whole body of the orc rushing up the stairs was also covered.

"Damn it, die for me~!" An old man was hacked to death.

"Die~!" Another old man was hacked to death.

“Death is your ultimate destination.” The third old man was hacked to death.

At first, the orcs thought it was a human weapon, but when they didn't find any harm from this liquid, they slaughtered it unscrupulously.

Dozens of old people in the surrounding buildings were hacked to death. In the courtyard of the nursing home, Gabriels did not act immediately. Instead, he stared at an old man in a wheelchair and asked, “What is this liquid?”

The old man looked at Gabriels with a smile, and said sarcastically: “You deserve to die here. This is the best gift this planet has given you creatures in other worlds.”

“呱呱~!”

As soon as 's words fell, thousands of fire crows suddenly appeared in the sky. At the same time, hundreds of time-space scrolls were thrown down from the air. When they were in mid-air, gasoline and diesel began to be sprayed from the scrolls.

With the nursing home as the center, within three kilometers, it is as if it is raining, and everything is covered with gasoline and diesel.

Gabriels suddenly felt something was wrong. Just as he looked at the black crow in the air, a lighter appeared in the hand of the old man in the wheelchair. He smiled at Gabriels and said, "Don't look down on humans, the will is immortal. , Mankind will live forever, enjoy this flame."

“噦”

The lighter ignited sparks. At that moment, the gasoline and diesel that had already volatilized into the air was instantly ignited, followed by the gasoline and diesel on the ground.

Chapter 2206: Dance of Fire Spirits

Gabriels and his orc warriors reacted extremely fast, jumping out of the yard one after another, but the flames were everywhere from the air to the ground. No matter how fast the orc warriors reacted, they couldn't be faster than the transmission speed of the flames.

As soon as they jumped outside, the place where gasoline and diesel were stained under their feet was ignited. Suddenly, the orcs who had been injured by the flame roared.

The second-order orc warriors have not yet reached the point where their bodies are not afraid of flames. Therefore, they will still be burned by the flames. Even the third-order Gabriels can't use the power in the body to smash the flames, but can only emit from the body. A layer of pale white protective layer insulates Huoyu from his body, but only a Tier 3 fighter can do this. His subordinates are still Tier 2, and he can't learn this ability.

Seeing the screams of his men around him, Gabriels was extremely angry. He smashed the wall of the nursing home with a sword and returned to the yard again. He wanted to kill the dozen or so old people, but when he entered, ten Several old people are already full of flames.

Gabriel also wanted to stop the time-space scroll and continue to spray oil, but the scroll had been burnt down, leaving a time-space crack in the air, and the oil was still spraying out.

"Damn it!" Gabriels jumped to the second floor of the house and looked around from here. At that moment, he was stunned.

His army of fifty thousand orcs were all in the middle of the sea of fire. Countless orc warriors were wailing and screaming by the flames, running around, but within a few kilometers, there were flames everywhere, and flames in the air. There was nowhere to go. escape.

"Roar!"

Suddenly there was a dragon roar in the air. Gabriels looked up and saw a red dragon flying above him. Behind the dragon, countless black fire crows followed the red like a black cloud. Behind the dragon, the sky above his head was covered.

If Gabriels didn't know at this time that the fire crow in the air was the enemy, then he was too stupid. At this time, he also wanted to understand that these people are likely to be members of the Jagged Brotherhood and were killed by him before. The old man who said that the Harpy was ambushed is simply a lie.

Beside the crows, there are obviously a large number of harpies assisting. Obviously, these harpies were turned into slaves by the Jagged Brothers, and he was foolishly deceived by the Jagged Brothers, leading to his five Ten thousand soldiers are at stake.

“Lu Yang, you despicable and timid sneak attacker, you are not worthy of the glory of a soldier!” Gabriels pointed at the red dragon and roared.

In the sky.

Lu Yang was about to launch an attack. Hearing this, he sneered and looked at Gabriels below and said loudly: “Since you admire honor so much, why don’t you slaughter creatures higher than you in another world? Instead, you ran to us. The world robs us of our right to survive?”

It’s not that you can’t beat them, you group only knows to bully the weak and dirty race, what honor do you still shout?

What qualifications do you have to say the word honor? In my opinion, you are a group of lowly races who are bullying and afraid of hard work. Feel the gifts given to you by the people of the East China Sea, the Fire Crow Legion, attack.”

“Crack!”

More than 4,000 shooters had Fire Crows. They received orders and controlled the Fire Crows to issue an attack command. For a time, the entire sky turned into a dazzling white sun.

All the fire crows released a blazing white light, and countless white fireballs formed in front of them, blasting towards the orc warriors on the ground.

A large number of orc warriors are in a state of disorderly escape. Their feet and bodies are covered with burning gasoline and diesel. The flames cause them severe pain and cannot be extinguished.

The water has no effect. They want to roll on the ground, but the ground is full of burning oil, so they can only run out in disorder.

In this case, few of them would notice the fireballs flying in the air. In an instant, a large number of soldiers were hit by the white fireballs, and their bodies burned more violently.

Fire crows, a terrifying creature, had extremely strong offensive power when they were not controlled by humans. Now they are attacking together under the command of humans. Under the command of more than 4,000 fire crows, the fire crow swarms at a rate of one per second. Launch 4000 white fireballs at a time.

After ten salvos, more than one-fifth of the orcs fell to the ground and never got up again, and the salvo continued.

Gabriel desperately avoided the flames above his head. At the same time, he was constantly looking for opportunities to attack the fire crows in the air, but the fire crows did not fall at an altitude of several hundred meters.

Gabriel's air knife can only hit enemies within 100 meters. The throwing axe is far away, but at a height of several hundred meters, even if it hits, it will not cause much damage.

"Lu Yang, you coward, you coward, have the courage to come down and fight with me one-on-one! I will challenge you to the honor of an orc." Gabriels roared.

Lu Yang had also heard of this honor challenge. He sneered and said, "Why don't you challenge the Lord God for honor? Have the courage to challenge a * who is stronger than you, and challenge a mage with melee ability such as weak? It's honorable. sense?"

Gabriels was speechless.

Lu Yang's attack did not stop. He patted Longjiao and said, "Man, how are you preparing?"

Hong Ye and Lu Yang had a heart-to-heart communication, and conveyed to Lu Yang the news of preparation in his consciousness, and said, "You can attack at any time."

Lu Yang said: "Attack. "

"Roar!"

The howl of the dragon stunned the sky, and the red night that hadn't launched an attack since flying into the air, at this time, a blazing red light appeared all over his body.

“Dance of Forbidden Curse Fire Spirit”

With the red night as the center, the sky and the ground within 10 kilometers around turned red at the same time. Countless red elves broke through the space. They danced happily in the air and on the ground, following their beating. , Flames spurted out from around them.

One of the red elves was beside Gabriels, and a ball of flame sprayed on Gabriels' body, making the white protective layer formed on Gabriels' body disappear instantly, and the flame burned his skin black. .

“Roar!”

Gabriels was furious, the energy in his body circulated wildly, and a white protective layer was re-formed. At the same time, he smashed the red elf with a sword, but the two-handed sword rushed through the body of the fire. At the same time, it did not cause any damage. Also burnt red.

Gabriels showed a look of horror. He did not expect that the red dragon in the sky could release such a terrifying skill.

Lu Yang did not expect that, of course, Hong Ye himself did not expect that this skill could be released. It was completely taught by the Blazing Demon God. Therefore, the current Hong Ye is very proud. As an ordinary dragon, he unexpectedly released it. The high-level fire elf spells that only the sacred dragon can release are worth all his life.

Lu Yang could feel Hong Ye's arrogant mentality, and couldn't help but shook his head, looking at Gabriels, who could only run away from behind, and said to the dirty wine beside him: “Prepare for the second wave of volleys.”

“Yes.” Zhuojiu raised his long sword high.

More than 4,000 fire crow archers were ready again, and at the same time, bows and arrows appeared in their hands, all of which were made of star steel!

Chapter 2207: Ambush

The orcs on the ground burned by the flames discarded a lot of their armor, because the star steel had a good thermal conductivity. They were worn on their bodies, and in the flames everywhere, it was like a hot iron pot sticking to them. Just as painful.

There is only one leather shorts left on the countless orcs, running around naked, trying to find an area without flames to settle down.

In the sky, Lu Yang had a panoramic view of all the sights below. His expression was so indifferent and cold, and he said, "Fall arrows~!"

"Wow~!"

"Wow~!"

“Wow~!”

...

Countless purple arrows shoot toward the orcs on the ground like rain, the purple star steel arrows easily penetrate the skin of the orcs warriors, and the venom of the hydra king is on the arrow of each arrow. .

Gabriel’s body has a white battle spirit to defend against flames, so he did not take off his battle armor. Most of the arrows were shot on his armor. The penetrating power could only shoot through the armor, but on his white battle spirit. Be blocked.

But his subordinates did not have such good luck. Adjutant Carlos was shot as a hedgehog in the blink of an eye, but Gabriels didn’t take it seriously. He knew how terrifying the life force of an orc warrior was, as long as it didn’t penetrate the heart. Cause fatal injuries.

“Karloz, I have found a way out, quickly help me gather the orcs, we ran into the steel forest in front, they are not capable of destroying all the steel forest.” Gabriels roared.

“Yes, Lord General.” Karloz roared, and rushed towards the scattered orcs on the east side. But just two steps later, he suddenly fell to the ground with his legs weakened, followed by another one. The wave of arrows rained, and Karloz’s chest was also like a hedgehog.

Gabriels looked at this scene in surprise. He knew that Karloz’s strength had already entered the third rank in half a step. This level of damage would not hurt him badly. He shouted: “Karloz, what are you doing, Stand up.”

Karloz turned his head and looked at Gabriels. When the two looked at each other, Gabriels saw that Karloz’s face had turned black and the blood he vomited was extremely poisonous.

“Damn humans, you dare to use poison.” Gabriel roared frantically.

Unfortunately, no matter how angry Gabriels was, Karloz no longer had any hope of survival. He fell to the ground and convulsed constantly. That was the instinctive reaction of his body being corroded by the poison.

Gabriels only had time to take a furious look at Lu Yang in the sky, and he reacted. Even Karloz has become like this. What will happen to his other men when they are shot by the rain of arrows.

When he looked over, he was stunned, because more than half of the orc warriors had fallen to the ground in the rain of arrows, and only a small half of them had escaped from hiding in the building.

These orc warriors entered the building without humans from the beginning, and then they were able to escape the disaster. At this time, these orcs were all hidden in the building, and there was no way for what happened in front of them.

Gabriels knew that he had to find a way to escape. Otherwise, they would stay here. They could only be beaten passively. Just as Gabriels was about to rush to a building to rescue the orc warriors inside, the building in front of him suddenly released A violent white light.

“Boom”

There was a loud noise, and the whole building was shattered by the explosion. All the orcs inside were crushed into the building. The building next to it also exploded, and within a few seconds, the other nearby also exploded.

“Boom”

“Boom”

“Boom”

Nearly a hundred buildings around were all blown up. The sky was full of smoke and dust, the sky was full of fires, and the raging fire spirits. The sharp rain of arrows in the sky and the white fireballs released by countless flaming crows completely turned the area around the nursing home into a few kilometers. Hell on earth.

By the time the smoke and dust dissipated, there were no living orc warriors on the ground. They were either burned to death by flames or poisoned by venom, or they were crushed under the collapsed building, unable to break free.

Lu Yang stood on the faucet of Red Night overlooking the situation below, and said to the Zhuojiu and others around him: “Prepare for a ground assault.”

His intercom device has always been in the video state. At a distance of 10 kilometers away from the nursing home, the melee army led by Baishi, Zhou Tianming, Kuai Bansheng, Bao Buping and Zhao Cheng is ready.

“Brothers, the eldest air legion has wiped out most of the orc fighters. It is time for us to clean the battlefield. Please follow me to attack. Be cautious. The captains of each legion should contact the air force in time to ensure their own safety. The training was mainly used for the second time, and fighting was a supplement.” He said in a loud voice for half a lifetime.

The white lion shouted: “If you can catch it alive, don’t kill it as much as possible, save it for later practice.”

Zhou Tianming shouted: “Get ready for the big net. When you see the orc warrior trapped with the big net first, break your limbs and grab it, don’t be afraid to kill them, they carry it alive.”

“The whole army is attacking!”

6000 soldiers of the Fire Lion Legion rode forward slowly on the Fire Lion. Behind the Fire Lion, there are 80,000 first-level and first-order cultivators from Feng City.

Their task is to observe and see clearly the strength of the orcs, so that when they fight with the orcs in the later stage, they have a psychological preparation in advance.

Among the 6000 Fire Lion Army fighters, 5 out of 100 people have a mobile phone. They communicate with the Fire Raven shooter in the air. Almost 4,000 Fire Raven shooters have a mobile phone.

In the air, they are like a large net, covering the area where the orcs are located, lowering the flight altitude to about 50 meters, allowing them to clearly see the situation on the ground, and with the special perception ability of the fire crow, let them Can know where the orcs are being crushed.

Soon, the white lion who was walking in the front found an orc warrior with half of his arms among the rubble, and asked the intercom: "Han Yu, how is the surrounding situation?"

Han Yu, standing on the fire crow, and the four fire crow shooters beside him carefully scanned one side of the surrounding area, and said: "There is only such an orc within 50 meters, safe."

The white lion breathed a sigh of relief, jumped off the mount, and brought the three brothers closer to the orc. When it was 10 meters away, the orc warrior still had no response, but the white lion intuitively thought that the orc had a problem.

“Where is the anesthetic? Shoot him with an arrow.” The white lion shouted into the intercom.

Han Yu on the top of his head, drew a bow and arrow from his backpack, opened a bag on his waist and stained it with the venom inside. After carefully pulling it out, he shot an arrow at the exposed arm of the orc warrior.

“Puff~!”

The arrow shot precisely into the orc warrior’s arm. The orc warrior who was still motionless suddenly roared out of the rubble and glared at the white lion. The other arm wielded a two-handed sword and charged towards the white lion.

“Qi Blade Cut”

“Qi Blade Cut”

The two slashed air blades at the same time. In the next second, the two air blades were staggered in the air, one air blade hit the orc warrior's body, and the other air blade hit the white lion's armor.

Half of the orc warrior's body was * and bloody. The white lion was protected by star steel armor, but this white lion was taken aback, because the armor of the demon that had just been captured hadn't all been smelted. The warriors behind him had a Most of the armors are made of Tier 3 animal skins, and that kind of thing can hardly stop Qi Blade Slash.

"I killed you." The White Lion was afraid that the orc warrior would hurt his subordinates, and rushed towards the orc warrior regardless of the blood surging inside.

"Roar~!"

The orc warrior was also caught in rage, with red eyes and launched a counter-charge towards the white lion. The two ran into each other in an instant, and the two handed swords fought hard. The moment they separated, the white lion was beaten back three times. Four meters, the orc warrior only leaned back slightly.

Chapter 2208: Annihilation Orc Army

Everyone was stunned by this scene, because the orc warrior was holding a sword in one hand, the white lion was holding a sword in both hands, and the orc warrior was seriously injured. The white lion did not even have any advantage and was forced back by the opponent.

“Tie his hands and feet.” Baihu threw out a rope made of the hide of the Tier 3 Buffalo King, and tightly bound the right hand of the orc warrior holding the sword.

Immediately after the white wolf threw out the rope and tied a leg of the orc warrior, the two pulled hard, and the orc warrior fell to the ground. No matter how hard he struggled, he couldn't break free. More importantly, the anesthetic The effect was finally triggered, and gradually, the orc warrior passed out.

“Don't move, I'll go and take a look.” The white lion had just calmed down the blood in his body at this time, and when he walked towards the orc warrior, he said to Han Yu in the air: “One more arrow, a large dose.”

“Okay~!” Han Yu laughed. He found that the white lion looked more and more like Lu Yang.

“Puff~!”

Han Yu hit the orc warrior with another arrow. This time the orc warrior didn't react at all, even if the white lion walked in front of him and removed all his bones and joints, he did not wake up.

“Tie them up and leave them dead and alive. They can come back to the base with us alive. Fortune-telling them will be fatal, and they deserve to be on the way.” The white lion cursed. Originally, he wanted to take them back and use these orcs to train their subordinates. He couldn't handle it anymore, and his subordinates were not suitable anymore, so his mind changed.

Like him, Zhou Tianming, Kuai Bansheng, and others. When they were advancing in various streets at the same time, they also encountered an ambush from orc warriors. The severely injured orc warriors were extraordinarily brave and even more terrifying than the lightly wounded ones. , This makes the bitter love half a lifetime and others a little afraid.

Anything that might pose a threat to them will be killed. Only in the safest circumstances will they choose to capture orc warriors.

While advancing here as a whole, on the other side, Lu Yang had already blocked Gabriels, the commander of the orc army, in a farmland in the suburbs.

Since the complete defeat of the Orc Army, Gabriels wanted to escape here, but he didn't know that Lu Yang had locked his position through perception skills. No matter how Gabriels escaped, he couldn't escape Lu Yang's lock.

Now the farmland is endless, without any obstruction. Gabriels has absolutely no ability to escape, facing Lu Yang, Hongye, the Three-eyed Magic Flower and the twenty-two three flying in the sky standing 50 meters away in front of him. Tier Firecrow King, only fear remained in Gabriel's eyes.

"Lu Yang, I want to fight you honorably." Gabriels stared at Lu Yang and roared angrily.

Lu Yang sneered, and said, "When you brought 50,000 people to kill me, why didn't you think about fighting me? Now you are at a disadvantage. If you say a duel, just fight. Am I free?"

Lu Yang is in a good mood now. Gabriels used to be in the sea of flames, and his internal fighting energy was greatly depleted. Now he is fleeing all the way and his physical strength is not as good as before. He has so many Tier 3 powerhouses here, killing Gabrous There is no problem.

"Stop talking nonsense, the glory you can choose now is to kill yourself here or become my slave. You have no other choice." Lu Yang said.

“Asshole, you dare to insult me.” Gabriels was furious, and raised his long sword with his right hand to point Lu Yang and roared: “The orcs have only war dead, not slaves.”

“Then you go to death, Hong Ye, spray him.” Lu Yang ordered.

Hong Ye could not wait a long time, opened his huge mouth, and the purple-red dragon’s breath, which was like magma, sprayed towards Gabriels.

The surrounding cold air heated up to seven thousand degrees in an instant. Gabriel was not afraid of the cold, but could not hold the dragon’s breath of this terrifying temperature, and hurriedly fled towards the distance.

The dragon’s breath was only 5 meters wide when it came out of Hongye’s mouth, but when it was 50 meters away, it was already 50 meters wide.

Hong Ye also knew that it was impossible to spray Gabriels in one shot, and flew into the air with a flap of wings, chasing Gabriels and sprayed.

Twenty-two Tier 3 Fire Crow Kings around followed flew into the air. Now these twenty-two Fire Crow Kings have become Hongye's little brothers. They are not the kind of little brothers that casually said, but they really recognized the big brother and bowed down. Kind.

The Tier 3 Fire Crow possesses extremely high wisdom. After seeing that Red Night can use the spell to release the Fire Elf, the Fire Crow Kings discovered that their proud talented fire ability seems to be worthless in front of the Fire Elf. .

In order to be able to learn high-level spells, the Fire Crow Kings really went to worship the big brother. It just so happened that Hong Ye never had a younger brother. I felt that these Fire Crows were all set on fire like him, so they accepted them.

"I cut his back, you cut their front." Hong Ye said to the twenty-two fire crow kings with consciousness.

"呱呱~!" The fire crow kings responded one after another, with blazing white light emerging from their bodies, and masses of white fireballs accurately hit Gabriels' escape path.

There was a dragon's breath in the back and a fireball in front. Gabriels tried his best to dodge, but he could only dodge half of it. The rest hit him. After bursts of intense white light, a large swath of Gabriels appeared on his body. burn.

If it weren't for the orc's super vitality, plus he was a Tier 3 powerhouse, he would have been burned to death, but now Gabriel's condition is not good. Seeing that it won't last long, he can only dodge left and right. Constantly looking for space to escape.

Lu Yang stood on the spot, protected by the three-eyed magic flower, watching Gabriels running from a straight line to a curve running, and then running back, his mouth was already sneered.

It is clear that Gabriels is going to play and capture the thieves first, but does this routine make sense for a Chinese person?

"It will act like a little bit for a while." Lu Yang said to the three-eyed magic flower through consciousness.

"I'm a movie king." The Three-Eyed Magic Flower was very proud.

Lu Yang laughed, taking advantage of the moment Gabriels turned around, his body plunged into the Demon God's space, leaving only the avatar transformed from the fire to stand in place.

Gabros did not expect that Lu Yang, who was hiding under the protection of the Three-Eyed Magic Flower, had changed people in such a short time.

Indeed, just as Lu Yang had guessed, Gabriels knew that he had no hope of escape when faced with so many Tier 3 powerhouses chasing and killing him. The only chance was to catch Lu Yang or kill Lu Yang before he could escape. opportunity.

He was deliberately hit by a small number of white fireballs just now, the purpose is to make Lu Yang careless, now it seems that Lu Yang has been fooled.

Just when the straight line distance between him and Lu Yang was only 50 meters, Gabriels' entire body suddenly turned into a blood-red light, which was several times faster than before, and instantly hit the big three-eyed magic flower. On the tree trunk, while smashing the trunk protecting Lu Yang, he grabbed Lu Yang's body and roared: "Stop everything, or I will kill him."

Hong Ye and the 22 Fire Crow Kings stopped in an instant, which made Gabriels a proud expression, but the next second, a large tree behind him suddenly grew a lot of vines, entangled him and Lu Yang together. , And Lu Yang who was in his arms, 's body quickly swelled.

"Boom"

Within a hundred meters of _____, a huge fireball floated up. Before the fire dissipated, the red night in the sky spewed out the breath of the dragon, and the twenty-two fire crow kings released blazing white fireballs.

After all the light was gone, Hong Ye looked at the ground and found that it had become a huge pit with a diameter of 100 meters and a depth of more than 20 meters.

Inside the pit, Gabriels, whose whole body was scorched, his legs and hands disappeared, lingered on the ground, his eyes were no longer visible, and his teeth were gone.

Lu Yang jumped out of the Demon God Temple and watched the dying Gabros sneer, and a sword pierced his heart. At this moment, Gabros said in a low voice: "My people will do it for you. I take revenge, he will make you die 10,000 times more painful than this!"

"Then you have to wait for your people to come." The long sword in Lu Yang's hand was twisted, and Gabriels's heart was shattered. At this time, Gabriels finally died completely.

"Finally, I won." Lu Yang took a sigh of relief, and sat down on the ground with infinite emotion.

The consciousness of the Blazing Demon God appeared in Lu Yang's mind, and he applauded and said, "Good job. I thought you would definitely die this time. I wanted to take you to escape here alone. I didn't expect you to do it. With such a weak strength, an orc army that was so much stronger than you was eliminated."

"A fluke, a fluke." Lu Yang said happily.

Chapter 2210: Hidden enemy

The battlefield was a grassy area with a flat ground around him. Opposite him was a Tier 3 Lion King, whose mouths were trapped by more than a dozen Jagged Brothers soldiers with chains, and he couldn't use his strength.

The host not far away was already in excitement at this time, screaming at the camera and said: "The battle is about to begin. This is the first battle in the arena. The party who appears is Orc Warrior Bolz, Tier 2 Peak strength, a race that believes in God of War, and knows how to release the high-level swordsmanship of Qi Blade Slash.

On the other side is the Tier 3 Fire Lion King, a wild male Fire Lion King, who does not accept human beings, and can emit 4000 degrees of flame from his mouth. The bite force is unknown. At present, everything he bites is broken, including the orcs. His bones, with 3 tons of attacking power, the ones he threw were broken arms, or broken bones. Let's see who can win~!"

Donghai Underground City, the new city where the people of Fengshi are located, as well as the imperial capital and all other preserved cities, are all broadcasting this grand occasion at this time.

Both men and women, young and old, are excitedly watching both sides in the arena in front of the screen. From alien creatures into the human world, until today, human beings have finally gained the upper hand and can enjoy the fun of being played and tortured by their enemies.

“Go on, Fire Lion King, kill that orc.”

“He was blown to death with a mouthful of fire.”

“This orc is just a bluff, and his strength is average. The fire lion killed him.”

Countless people yelled at the screens all over the world. What they didn't notice at this time was that when they looked at these alien creatures, the fear was not so deep anymore, but gradually became fun.

On the podium not far from the arena, Lu Yang was making a video call with Fu Yun.

"Congratulations, for such a big victory." Fu Yun said.

"A fluke." Lu Yang said emotionally: "Without the gasoline and diesel in the Fushi oil depot, and without the carelessness of the orcs, we would not be able to succeed, but this success cannot be replicated. The gasoline and diesel stocks in Fucheng are all used up."

Fu Yun smiled and said, "It's good if you have such a clear understanding. I'm also afraid that you will be arrogant and arrogant."

Lu Yang laughed and said helplessly, "I think, but the enemy is stronger than the wave, so how can we give us a chance."

Fu Yun also sighed for a while, the red moon night is coming, it is not certain whether they can survive at that time, and now they are just having fun in hardship.

“When are you planning to go to Dan City, I have asked several times over there.” Fu Yun said.

Lu Yang frowned and asked, “Isn’t it safe over there?”

Dan City is on the border, with extremely fierce firepower, and they are facing first-order creatures in another world. It is not a problem to resist another month, and they shouldn’t keep asking for help.

Fu Yun said, “I also want to tell you about this. There may be some problems there, but it is not clear where the problem lies. Whether it is the military or the government, I have asked many people and I have not found the problem, but it just feels. Something’s wrong.”

Lu Yang thought for a while and said, “In this way, if you release the news to the outside world, you say that I will go to Dan City again after two weeks of rest.”

Fu Yun smiled and said, “Are you going to go ahead of time?”

Lu Yang said, "Go now."

"Okay." Fu Yun felt relieved.

Lu Yang hung up the phone, and then sent a message calling the two brothers Han Fei and Han Yu who were patrolling in the far field.

"Brother, what's the matter?" Han Fei asked curiously.

Lu Yang looked solemnly, staring into the eyes of the two of them and said, "Give you two a task."

Han Fei and Han Yu were excited to watch the orcs fight the beasts, and they both had solemn expressions when they heard the words. Han Yu asked, "Brother, what mission?"

Lu Yang said, "You two will fly to Dan City with 100 Fire Crow Archers each to check the situation there."

"Pan City?" Han Fei said with a smile: "What can be checked, the news that came back, isn't it that the enemy over there is very weak?"

Lu Yang smiled, and said, "Before Gabriels died, the news we got was that we were very weak."

Han Fei's body was as if being hit by an electric current, his pupils instantly enlarged, his face turned pale, and a drop of cold sweat followed, and said, "Brother, I know, I'm going now."

Han Yu also had brain swelling, and said vigilantly: "We will detect all the enemy's intelligence back."

"Be careful. When it's dangerous, I'd rather not investigate or die. There will be a lot of fighting behind."
Lu Yang patted the shoulders of the two of them.

"Yes." The two grinned, and each turned back to find his brother.

Lu Yang looked at the backs of the two of them, then took out the intercom and called the sea demons patriarch Garcia, and said, "You take the team to Dan City by sea, and secretly investigate the situation in Dan City."

Garcia is taking hundreds of warriors from the Sea Demon Race to clean up the monsters in the East China Sea port area. They have already killed them. There are no more Tier 2 marine monsters in the offshore area. They have been doing nothing.

"Good host, I will go now." Garcia said respectfully.

Lu Yang hung up the phone, and then returned to the rostrum of the arena. By his side, Zhuo Jiu, White Lion, Half a Life of Love, Zhou Tianming, Xia Yuwei, Bao Buping and all the main commanders were there, even Fei Yanghe Tao Yue and others were all there, and when the camera scanned Lu Yang's side, each of them could be clearly seen.

"Boss, the defensive formation has been completed, Zhao Cheng asked me to ask you if I can start." Xia Yuwei asked.

Lu Yang looked at the scene first, 200 ice mages had formed an ice defensive cover within 100 meters of the surrounding area. This third-tier defensive array composed of 200 people could not break even if the orcs and the third-tier fire lions attacked. .

“Let’s start,” Lu Yang said.

Xia Yuwei sent a message to Zhao Cheng.

In the field, Zhao Cheng immediately issued an order, and the Jagged Brothers fighters who were in charge of controlling the Fire Lion King released their chains one after another, releasing their control over the Fire Lion King.

Orc here, also had fighters from the Jagged Brotherhood who unchained them and gave the orc fighter a 10 cm thick wooden stick.

“The battle has officially begun.” Zhao Cheng said loudly.

“Roar~!”

The Fire Lion King has been controlled by humans for a long time, and has been in a state of rage. When it was released, he slammed into the Jagged Brothers fighter behind the ice shield.

With a beep, the fire lion bounced back, and his whole body was almost unconscious by the cold. If it was not of the fire type, this impact would be enough to freeze his limbs.

With such a lesson, the Fire Lion King stopped being reckless and started looking for loopholes, but after a round of inspections, he found the orc warrior in the arena, and saw that the orc was not protected by the ice shield, excited Fire Lion The dynasty rushed towards the orc warrior.

When the orc warrior had weapons, he dared to face the fire lion king of Tier 3, but now he has no weapons, just such a wooden stick is almost useless, and can only use escape to find the weakness of the fire lion king.

For a time, the battlefield turned into a chasing battle, and the orc warriors were chased around, which caused all those who watched the war to laugh.

What no one knows is that in a hidden corner of Dan City, there is a group of creatures from another world watching TV. When they saw this scene, their faces showed a hideous expression.

“East China Sea, Jagged Brotherhood, I must destroy you by myself.”

Chapter 2212: Dan City Annihilation

On the grasslands of the East China Sea, the battle in the arena continues. The first battle between the Orc Warrior and the Tier 3 Lion King has ended. At the last moment, the Tier 2 Orc Warrior erupted with terrifying power, and the Tier 3 Fire Lion Wang Tong died.

Now it's the second game. Another orc warrior is fighting three demonized wild wolves of the second-order peak. At this time, a wild wolf has been killed by the second-order orc warrior, but his arm is also dying. The wolf snapped.

The audience watching the game on the spot cheered frantically, and the audience in front of the TV made deafening shouts, even Lu Yang in the suburbs could hear them.

Behind the defensive array made by the Ice Mage, more than 20 Jagged Brothers warriors are quickly recording the various combat indicators of the orc warriors, including strength, speed, endurance, vindictive storage, etc.

“Roar~!”

After the orc warrior broke his arm, his combat power did not decrease, but he became more brutal. Facing the remaining two demonized wild wolves, he took the initiative to launch weapons, still using his bare hands.

Under the circumstances that both speed and strength have been greatly improved, the two demonized wild wolves of the second-order peak were completely suppressed by him.

Zhuojiu sighed secretly, and said to Lu Yang: “Boss, I understand now that the orc warriors are really a race that is naturally good at fighting. When they are severely injured, their combat effectiveness will not decrease, but will arouse the fierceness in their bodies. , The overall strength will be more than doubled.”

The white lion nodded, and said, “There is no tendency for physical strength to decline. The three wolves at the same level can’t beat an orc warrior.”

Zhou Tianming said: “If we give Tier 2 orc warriors a Tier 3 weapon, we may have to pay more than three Jagged Brothers soldiers to kill them. The Fengshi war, we are lucky to win.”

Everyone nodded.

Lu Yang also looked worried, and said: "We need to speed up the training of our opponents' fighters. It has now entered mid-March, and the enemy has run out of time for us."

"Dididi"

Han Yu called, Lu Yang pressed the video access button, and a picture appeared in front of him, showing Han Yu's face.

"Brother, we have arrived in the Dan city area. We just discovered that the different world races in Dan city are Gelang and Sigma." Han Yu pointed the camera down and turned on the telescope system so that Lu Yang and the others could see more clearly. .

Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and the others looked into the camera. When they saw the Sigma and Gelang warriors on the mountains on both sides of the Laohukou were digging for shelter, they were speechlessly stunned.

Zhou Tianming frowned and said, "This, what's the situation? How can the Sigo and Gelang tribe, such a weak first-order race, dare to ambush us?"

bitter love for half a lifetime scratching his head and said: "Is there a conspiracy?"

Lu Yang also frowned. He watched Han Yu fly over the enemy's position for a while before he remembered and said, "The enemy shouldn't know about the fact that more than 10,000 people have entered the second tier. Continue to observe the enemy's situation. , Don't contact Dan City for the time being, everything is subject to your investigation."

"Yes." Han Yu nodded.

After hanging up the phone, Han Yu only left two people to monitor the situation here, and flew the other 197 people towards the surrounding area of Dan City.

Lu Yang sat on the chair calmly. He would never bring the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood with him before he found out the specific situation of Dan City.

He looked at Zhuojiu, Baishi and others and said: "After three days of vacation, all members will return to the team and carry out another sweep in the area around the East China Sea. I want to make sure that there are no other world creatures around us, and there are no Tier 2 and above. Demonized creatures."

"Yes." Everyone stood up and responded.

...

No one thought that Lu Yang's words would cause all the demonized creatures around the East China Sea to suffer a catastrophe.

Three days later, the main force of the Jagged Brotherhood of more than 10,000, with more than 30,000 newcomers, began a raid on the entire East China Sea and surrounding county areas.

Centered on the foothills of the East China Sea New City, first sweep the southern area and then the northern area. Even Tier 1 enchanted creatures will be killed on the spot if they are caught.

Most of these kills are mainly based on the new members of Fengshi. Lu Yang uses the old way to bring the new. A second-order master brings three rookies. Once there is a chance for the newcomer to exercise, the newcomer will be charged. In the front, they are always ready to shoot on the side to prevent accidents.

The Sigmo and Gelang fighters in Dan City thought that Lu Yang would launch an attack quickly. As before, it was said that it would be two weeks later, but in fact it would be many days in advance. Therefore, they were in the tiger's mouth. There was an ambush.

They miscalculated this time. Lu Yang really took 30,000 rookies to train in the surrounding area for two weeks, and had no intention of attacking Dan City in a hurry. This made the Sigma and He hiding on both sides of the tiger's mouth. The Gelang warriors can't stand it anymore.

Although it is said that the weather has entered March, the temperature in early spring is still around minus 15 degrees, and at night it will be below minus 20 degrees. The severe cold makes them very painful. Waiting on the mountain every day makes them feel very helpless.

“呱呱~!”

The familiar call of the fire crow came from the sky again, and the patriarch of the Gelang clan looked at the sky and cursed, “Damn the crow, come every day and annoy me.”

The patriarch of the Sieg Demon Clan frowned and said, “I haven't seen these crows before. It's strange. It's strange that they appeared in the past two weeks.”

Both wanted to kill the crow, but the crow was thousands of meters high in the air, and they couldn't touch it at all, and the person sitting on the crow was Han Yu.

In the past two weeks, he will fly here twice a day to confirm the enemy's situation, and the situation around Dan City has also been found out. 200 people have explored both inside and outside Dan City, but they did not find anything. Other enemies.

“Brother, the Sigmo and the Gelang are going to be unable to hold it anymore.” Han Yu said to Lu Yang on the video call.

the other side.

Lu Yang took a team of 80,000 people and arrived at Mashan Reservoir. This is the border between the East China Sea and Dan City. It is only more than 100 kilometers away from Laohukou. If the Fire Lion Army runs at full capacity, it will take less than half an hour. arrival.

“It seems that the enemy is going to be unable to hold it. Monitor the enemy’s movements, and I will take my brothers to rush over.” Through Han Yu’s lens, Lu Yang saw the Sigmo and Gelang warriors on both sides of the tiger’s mouth. Case.

After hanging up the phone, Lu Yang looked at Zhuojiu, Baishi and others on the left and right, and said, “Tell my brothers that the battle is coming. Let everyone be prepared. This time the 30,000 new brothers who have joined will also Go to the battlefield.”

“Yes.” Zhuojiu, White Lion and others showed killing eyes, each shouting loudly: “Assemble, prepare to fight~!”

“Woo~!” The horn made of the horns of the third-order demonized Buffalo King was sounded by the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood.

This kind of horn has a special magical power. Once it is blown, the blood in the human body will become boiling, the whole person’s combat effectiveness has been strengthened a lot, and the fighting willpower is also much stronger.

In the backyard of the command post in Dan City, this is Ma Zicheng's home. He just announced the news of the Jagged Brotherhood's attack on Laohukou and ran back home.

"Baby, pack your things quickly, and be careful not to bring gold jewelry or anything, mainly daily utensils." Ma Zicheng shouted as soon as he entered the door.

A woman is lying lazily on the sofa at home, her face is extremely beautiful, it is a kind of coquettish beauty, the beauty that makes people want to stop at a glance, and gives people an infinite urge to get close.

The woman didn't pay attention to Ma Zicheng's words, she just stretched her waist and asked curiously: "Why do you want to pack things? Isn't the Jagged Brothers still training recruits in the East China Sea?"

Ma Zicheng laughed towards the woman and said, "Here, it has arrived. This Lu Yang is worthy of being a soldier. I pay attention to his movements all the time. One night, he appeared outside the tiger's mouth, Sige. The demons and the Gelang clan are over, and we will soon be able to live a safe life in the East China Sea. By the way, I can also take you to the imperial capital, so that we will be completely safe and can enjoy the rest of our lives."

The woman's eyes were shocked, and she immediately showed a happy expression, jumped off the sofa and hugged Ma Zicheng. The next second, a purple light appeared in her eyes, and Ma Zicheng stood there, her eyes sluggish.

"My queen, what do you want?" Ma Zicheng asked dully.

The woman's expression was cold, and she even asked ferociously, "How long will Lu Yang take to attack?"

"The fastest half an hour." Ma Zicheng said.

The woman's mouth suddenly showed her fangs, and her face glowed red, but in the next second, she suppressed it and returned to the human face.

This woman is the queen in the mouth of the patriarch of Sigo and the patriarch of the Gran clan. As the first banshee who came to this world with the first-order race-Sasha, she is much luckier than the cubs of many higher-order creatures .

When she was dropped in her early childhood, she was involved in the turbulence of time and space, and the location of her transmission was disordered. Instead of being transmitted to large cities such as Feng City and Donghai, she went to the small city of Dan City.

The banshee belongs to the necromancer family. The fastest way to improve her ability is to absorb the necromancers, and the most indispensable in this world is the necromancers. Countless human souls are swallowed by her, and the appearance of every dead woman is absorbed by her. Into the soul.

This face today is the most beautiful one I have found among the female undead who have completely absorbed it. Sure enough, in an encounter with Ma Zicheng, Ma Zicheng fell.

This is what she found after trying many times that Ma Zicheng liked the look, which greatly delayed the time, so that she only entered Ma Zicheng's villa three days ago.

It stands to reason that Sasha, as a being able to grow into a necromantic queen-level existence, is absolutely unwilling to use beauty and other indiscriminate methods to defeat Dan City. They are noble banshees, not the kind of succubus. Race, but she can't help it.

The orc army was killed, and Lu Yang would come here with the Jagged Brotherhood at any time. Sasha could only infiltrate Dan City in this way.

Because of her arrogance, it led to the current situation. Otherwise, she would have used this trick long ago, and there would be nothing for Lu Yang. The gods in another world don't need to send high-level creatures through the red moon night, relying on Sasha. The charm of the city can make Dan City fall.

3 million people, enough for Sasha to stabilize three distorted time and space, but unfortunately, that's all if.

A young man walked over in the next room and said with a gloomy face: "If Lu Yang comes, you will be exposed."

This young man is called Liu Yu, a doctoral student, and more importantly, he is a member of the temple. He didn't know the time when the alien gods descended, which caused him to go home temporarily to visit his parents, and was trapped when the world changed dramatically. In Dan City.

Sasha's unexpected arrival made him a liaison officer for the temple in Dan. Liu Yu's current identity is a clerk by Ma Zicheng's side. Therefore, he can help Sasha find Ma Zicheng's favorite woman appearance and many opportunities to meet each other. .

Sasha stared at Liu Yu and said, "I'm going to the command center and need your help."

After the orc army was completely destroyed, the two set up plans to deal with Lu Yang and the Iron-Blood Brotherhood. Once Lu Yang brought the main force of the Iron-Blood Brotherhood over, the Sigma and Gelang warriors pretending to be defensive quickly retreated and entered Dan. The coverage area of the city's artillery.

Sasha used Ma Zicheng to issue an order requesting Dan City's heavy fire regiment to target the Iron-Blood Brotherhood. In this way, the Iron-Blood Brotherhood would suffer great casualties. Even the Tier 3 Red Night would not be able to bear it. Living in such a intensive artillery attack, let alone the second-tier human fighters.

This plan is very precise. The only problem is that Sasha can't understand the instruments and coordinates. She needs someone to help her. It just so happened that Liu Yu learned this during this time.

“Let's go to the command post now. You call and tell Dogo and Barrados to let them flee to our predetermined location with their men.” Liu Yu said.

Sasha nodded and took Ma Zicheng and Liu Yu to the outside. At the same time, he dialed the phone of Duoge and said, “Go back to the designated place. Lu Yang is here. He will arrive in half an hour.”

Many grids are stunned, said: “I will retreat.”

After hanging up the phone, Doge quickly told Balados beside him. The two shouted loudly. More than 60,000 red and green skins jumped out of the trenches and ran quickly on the hillside.

Han Yu had been watching the tiger's mouth in the air, and seeing the mess below, realized that something was wrong, and quickly called Lu Yang and said, "Brother, Red and Green suddenly jumped out of the trench and escaped."

Lu Yang was still on the way at this time, and frowned upon hearing the words: "Sure enough, there are creatures of another world in the command post area of Dan City. Continue to monitor the enemy to see where they escape."

"Yes." Han Yu said in a solemn voice.

Lu Yang hung up the phone, staring at Dan City, where buildings can be seen from afar, and continued to let Red Night fly at full speed.

the other side.

Sasha has come to the door of the villa. Two guards are standing on both sides of the gate. But before the soldiers can ask questions, Sasha waved her left hand and a blue light flashed, and the two soldiers became as dull as Ma Zi.

Afterwards, Sasha walked into the villa's gate. Along the way, everyone who saw her was controlled by her charm spells. She reached the fourth floor where the command center was and controlled all the Dan City high-levels. Relieved.

“Now as long as Lu Yang and the Jagged Brothers chase Duoge to the designated place, we can turn defeat into victory.” Sasha said with a smirk.

Chapter 2215: Sneak attack and anti-sneak attack

An expression of excitement appeared on Liu Yu's face beside him, and he said to Sasha excitedly: “A single attack from Dan City's heavy fire can at least severely wound more than half of the Jagged Brothers fighters. We only need to give the enemy more than 10 times. If you let the Sigma and Gelang fighters rush forward, we will win.”

Sasha excitedly let out a weird shrill laugh that can only be made by her own clan, and stared at Ma Zicheng next to her and said: “Lu Yang would never have thought that there would be a race from another world hidden in Dan City, or in theirs. By the top commander.”

Liu Yu was also very excited. The temple's constant failures everywhere made the otherworld gods very disappointed in them. If they can severely inflict Lu Yang and the Jagged Brotherhood, or even kill Lu Yang, the otherworld gods will definitely reward him. , Give him stronger strength.

Just as the two were waiting for the news with expectation, a red figure appeared in the distant sky. Sasha and Ma Zicheng had extremely good eyesight. The two of them who looked towards the sky were stunned at the same time.

“Dragon?!” Ma Zicheng said in confusion.

“Red Night is Lu Yang's mount, Red Night.” Sasha reacted instantly and said in horror, “Why did Lu Yang come? Did he find us?”

Ma Zicheng's cold sweat came out, but then he calmed down, shook his head and said, “Impossible, Lu Yang never found us. You know how powerful your concealment and transformation capabilities are. Besides, Lu Yang should also be. First time.

If you found you before, you would not be able to make Ma Zicheng into this state unharmed, so Lu Yang must be unclear. He came to contact Ma Zicheng to make preparations in advance.”

Sasha looked at Ma Zicheng beside her, calmed down quickly, and said with a hint of fierceness: “No matter what reason he came here, he must not know my existence. I am a Tier 3 banshee, since Lu Yang dares to Come, then I will kill him right here.”

According to the news from the outside world, Lu Yang is only a second-tier peak fire mage, and has not reached the third-tier. However, the strength of the different world can be divided by the ranks. It can be said that the gap between the two ranks is extremely large. , Sasha had a very high probability of killing Lu Yang when she was close.

Ma Zicheng also felt that this matter was feasible. He said: “Kill him, and the Jagged Brotherhood will be completely messed up. It is feasible.”

Shasa nodded, and controlled Ma Zicheng to dial Lu Yang’s phone and asked, “Brother Lu Yang, why did you fly to Dan City?”

Lu Yang has locked Sasha’s location, and in the river in front of the villa, Garcia is there to locate Lu Yang.

Lu Yang originally wanted to kill the opponent directly, but when he saw this house and heard Ma Zicheng’s voice, he felt bad.

The Dan City Command Post has a special sign, which can be recognized at a glance. At this time, Lu Yang is still flying high in the sky. Ordinary people can't see it. Ma Zicheng is not a cultivator. He can actually see it. Being able to send a message to him proved that either Ma Zicheng was controlled by a monster such as a parasitic demon, or Ma Zicheng had rebelled.

In either case, it was the worst. With such thoughts, Lu Yang almost couldn't hold back his dragon's breath to kill the command post, but after thinking and thinking, he finally decided to try to rescue Ma Zicheng. .

"I saw Red Skin and Green Skin escaping from the tiger's mouth and approaching in the direction of Dan City. It is estimated that they are about to escape within the range of your artillery, so I will discuss with you how we can cooperate and kill them with heavy artillery." Lu Yang said with a smile.

Ma Zicheng laughed and said, "I thought of going with you. Come down quickly and I will come out to pick you up."

Lu Yang's eyes lit up. Originally, he was worried that the other party would hide in the building and not come out, or threaten him with a horse, but he didn't expect the other party to want to kill him.

“Flame Clone”

Lu Yang activated the fire in his body, turning all his energy into a flame clone. The moment he controlled Hong Ye to fall in front of the command post, he got into the Demon Temple, and the flame clone jumped from the dragon’s head instead of Lu Yang. Go down.

Sasha and Liu Yu led Ma Zicheng and a group of high-level officials who were standing at the door waiting. Seeing Lu Yang jumped off the dragon’s head, the two immediately led Ma Zicheng towards Lu Yang and walked over.

“Welcome, welcome.” Ma Zicheng stretched out his hand and said.

Sasha and Liu Yu followed closely behind Ma Zicheng, and only waited for Ma Zicheng to hold Lu Yang’s hand before launching an attack.

At this time, Lu Yang’s real body was hidden in the Demon God Temple. Through the perception of the clone, he said to the Blazing Demon God: “Can you see the problem with Ma Zicheng?”

The Blazing Demon said: "Ma Zicheng is okay. The problem is the woman and the man behind him, the female is a banshee, and the male is a person from the temple, what are you going to do? They are probably going to shake hands in your avatar. Time to launch a sneak attack."

Lu Yang looked at Ma Zicheng, and said with emotion, "I have nothing but to say sorry."

There is no undead in the war. It's impossible to do everything. Ma Zicheng is still greedy for beauty at this moment. Almost because of his Jagged Brotherhood and Dan City's two or three million people are in danger, it may even be because of him. The high-level existence of the world came, and by this alone, he was already damned.

Lu Yang's clone smiled and stretched out his hand while looking at the woman behind Ma Zicheng. At the same time, he stretched out the other hand and said, "This is the little sister-in-law. Blessed is your old Ma.

Sasha didn't expect Lu Yang to shake her hand. Seeing Lu Yang's embarrassed handshake with her hands folded, her first reaction was that Lu Yang was also a greedy woman. By shaking hands, she also shortened the attack range, even more. It's easy to kill Lu Yang, so Sasha stretched out her hand and smiled and said to Lu Yang, "Hello."

"Go to hell, idiot." Lu Yang controlled the avatar and grabbed Sasha's hand, and instantly hugged her with force. The next second, a flame of light rose into the sky, enveloping the surrounding 10 meters.

When the fire and smoke dissipated, the Danshi high-level officials who were blown out in the distance looked around in confusion, they still didn't know what had happened.

Lu Yang walked out of the deep pit in front of them, clutching an ugly blue monster in his left hand, and his right hand to Liu Yu, who was only half of his body, and said in a low voice, "Except for Ma Zicheng, Who is the manager of Dan City?"

"I~!" A middle-aged man stood up and said respectfully: "Boss Lu Yang, the former head of the 3rd Army of the Iron Brothers League, Ye Ziqiu."

Lu Yang was taken aback, smiled and said, "How come it is you."

Ye Ziqiu, one of the veterans who established a guild in the game with Lu Yang ten years ago, the name of the game is Coconut Ball.

It is a pity that the two have only been together for two years. After that, Ye Ziqiu quit the game because of his work. Lu Yang was still very sorry. He did not expect that Ye Ziqiu would be in a high position ten years later and become the second in command of Dan City. , And reunited with him here.

Chapter 2216: Soul gem

“Great, things will be easy if you are here.” Lu Yang was a little surprised and told the story of what had just happened, and then he threw the banshee’s body in front of everyone.

Before Ye Ziqiu and the others got closer to watch, a white-lighted soul flew out of the banshee’s corpse, screamed and ran away towards the distance.

Blazing Demon God said: “Unexpectedly, it is still a high-level banshee, grab him, to you, this is a treasure.”

“Fire Snake Bound”

Lu Yang’s biggest advantage is that he listened to persuasion, aimed at the high-level banshee, and chanted the spell. Nine fiery snakes appeared around the banshee. No matter how the banshee dodges, they were still trapped by the two fire snakes.

“come back.”

Lu Yang made a move with his right hand, and the nine fire snakes entangled Sasha’s white soul at the same time, and drew it to Lu Yang.

“Forgive me, forgive me~!” Sasha’s voice with a harsh bewitching sound, Ye Ziqiu and others standing not far away were instantly recruited. When they looked at Sasha, they seemed to see their favorite People are suffering, and everyone’s face is unbearable.

Lu Yang even saw Shen Mengyao being trapped by his fire snake, and kept crying for help. Unfortunately, when Lu Yang entered the second level from the first level, he had already withstood this test, and this attack method dealt with him. invalid.

“I don’t know it until I die.” Lu Yang muttered silently, and more than a dozen pink lotus petals fell in the air, centering on “Shen Mengyao”’s body.

In an instant, “Shen Mengyao” who begged for mercy let out a painful scream, the spell was interrupted, and Sasha revealed her original form, still the white-rayed soul.

Ye Ziqiu and others also woke up from the spell, looking at the white soul in front of them, expressions of horror appeared on their faces.

“Boss, I have heavy firepower, I will ask someone to take it over and break the soul of this monster.” Ye Ziqiu said, wiping cold sweat.

The people around nodded repeatedly, and they were shocked by the scene just now. They understood the fighting styles of red and green skins. They could also understand the fighting methods of orcs, fire demons and flower demons, but they couldn't understand the fighting methods of this monster. If it weren't for Lu Yang, they wouldn't even know how to die.

Lu Yang smiled at their expressions and said, “It doesn't have to be that way, he is already dead.”

The red lotus he just released fell on Sasha's soul, completely burning out the light of Sasha's soul, leaving only a white stone wrapped in white light.

Blazing Demon God said: “This stone is called the Soul Gem. It is of the same grade as the Dragon Demon Core in Hong Ye's head. Only the banshee who can evolve to the level of the Necromancer can have it.”

“What’s the use?” Lu Yang asked.

Blazing Demon God said: “You can put it in the soul of an undead and store it in this soul gem, so that the undead can continue to practice and grow into an existence of the undead king level.”

“This is a good thing.” Lu Yang received the magic core in his backpack, looked at Ye Ziqiu and the others who were not far away, and said, “I don’t need to explain more, order the heavy artillery troops to prepare. I will give you the coordinates and attack the designated location.”

“Yes.” Ye Ziqiu said in a solemn voice.

Lu Yang turned around and jumped on Hong Ye’s head, controlling Hong Ye to fly into the air, and flew in the direction of Red Skin and Green Skin outside the city.

Ye Ziqiu and others on the ground quickly ran back to the command post. Various orders were issued in turn. The residents of the city entered the Tibetan soldiers’ cave to escape. The soldiers guarding in eight directions in the suburbs prepared for defense. If he is defeated, he may rush to Dan City in a panic.

...

In the sky.

Hongye quickly took Lu Yang to the plain outside Dan City, where 50,000 or 60,000 Sigmo and Gelang warriors were forming a charge formation.

Their purpose is very clear, to prevent heavy artillery bombardment of the Jagged Brothers formation, to prevent the Jagged Brothers from escaping.

Lu Yang sat on the faucet of Red Night and dialed the phone on his arm to Zhuojiu and Baishi. In the next second, everyone connected to the video at the same time.

Zhuojiu said first: "Boss, we have run out of the tiger's mouth and are gathering on the plain. The enemy is gathering in front of us, and we have the intention to actively attack us."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Be prepared, they are going to be bombarded by heavy artillery."

“Why are they so stupid?” asked for half a lifetime.

Lu Yang said, “I will tell you the specifics later. You only need to prepare for a full-scale offensive now. Don’t let these red and green skins escape into the mountains.”

This plain area is very large. It belongs to a grain-growing area between the Laohukou Mountain Range and Dan City. As long as the front and back directions are guarded, the left and right are still large plains. No matter how hard the red and green skins run, they can’t get out of iron and blood. The pursuit of the brotherhood.

Muddy Wine, White Lion and others are very clear about the impact of letting Red Skin and Green Skin escape. Several people quickly issued orders, and 40,000 members of the Jagged Brotherhood formed a formation and prepared to launch a counterattack against the enemy.

the other side.

On the battlefield of the Sigur and the Gran clan, Barados, the patriarch of the Sigur clan, saw the formation laid by the Jagged Brotherhood and screamed with excitement. He said, “It’s really stupid human beings. They don’t know Dan. The city’s command system has been controlled by us, and we still want to launch a counterattack against us.”

The patriarch of the Gelang tribe, Doge took out the satellite phone and dialed out. After a few calls, the phone was connected. Doge said triumphantly: "Queen Sasha, please quickly order the Dan City Heavy Artillery Corps to attack the predetermined location. The enemy has all entered the designated area. ."

There was no news on the other side of the phone. dumbfounded and said again: "Your Royal Highness, have you heard me?"

Unfortunately, no one spoke. Just when Doge felt something was wrong, there was a sudden violent shelling from the city of Dan in the distance.

A volley of eight hundred heavy artillery fired, and the sound was like a thunder explosion, which could be heard clearly in an area ten kilometers away.

There was a relaxed expression on Doge's face. Since the heavy artillery shot out, it means that there is no problem there. He feels at ease that it is the queen who is busy with other things and does not care to talk to him, but after a few seconds, it will be ear-piercing. When the empty sound rang, Doge was dumbfounded.

"Boom"

“Boom”

“Boom”

...

The battlefield formed by the Sigma and the Gelang tribe warriors is like a purgatory, with smoke and fire intertwined. Even the dazzling sunlight in the afternoon cannot cover the dazzling fire.

More than 40,000 soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood were looking at the red and green leather positions from a kilometer away. They could only hear the sound of cannons. As for the screams inside, they couldn't hear them at all.

bitter love for half a lifetime and said, “It's really miserable.”

Zhuojiu said: “The white lion led the team to the left, Zhou Tianming went to the right, the enemy may be routing, everyone is ready.”

“Yes.” The two returned to the team separately, spreading towards the wings with the main force.

Chapter 2217: Won

The red skins and green skins in the middle of the artillery fire are already stunned. Most of the first-order red slopes and green skins cannot withstand the attack of the heavy artillery. Even if the fragments hit their bodies, they will be destroyed. Body breakdown.

More importantly, they did not dig trenches in this area, that is to say, they were just a group of targets standing on the plain, and they were attacked by heavy artillery in turn.

The attack speed of the heavy artillery is very fast, almost every 6 to 8 seconds, 800 heavy artillery, more than 6,000 in just one minute.

Dogger and Balados were in the core range in the first wave of heavy artillery attacks. Because they were both second-tier, they did not die in the first wave of attacks, but were seriously injured.

But the two of them could no longer give orders at this time. They couldn't even see the surrounding situation. They could only see countless smoke and fire. They couldn't even hear the sound in their ears, all of them were gunfire.

Occasionally, red and green skins ran past them, but they couldn't ask for help, because all the red and green skins could not hear anything at this time.

Faced with the sudden attack, the completely frightened red and green skins fled in all directions, unable to see the way through the smoke and dust, a small part of them rushed to Dan City, and was killed by the soldiers guarding them with heavy firepower.

A part of them rushed towards the headquarters where the Jagged Brotherhood is located, but they faced the first row of big shields like city walls, and countless shooters behind.

Muddy wine shouted: "Fall arrows~!"

Thousands of archers fired bows and arrows with the Hydra Emperor's poison, countless red and green skins were shot, and they fell to the ground and vomited black blood to death.

A part of the red and green skins ran to the two wings. As soon as they came out of the smoke, the white lion and Zhou Tianming each ordered their rookies to kill the enemy close-knit with a knife under the leadership of the second-tier master.

“Kill~!”

“Kill~!”

Red and green skins were hacked to the ground, none of them could break through the defensive positions.

Occasionally, some of them drilled out of the gaps in the defense positions, and the fire crow archers in the air quickly overtook them. They were either engulfed by the white flames of the fire crows or were shot by the archers' bows and arrows.

The battle lasted for two hours. Lu Yang didn't intervene from start to finish, and just sat on the dragon's head and watched the battle below.

"It's too easy to win, it's not a good thing." Lu Yang sighed helplessly.

Blazing Demon God laughed and cursed: "If you get a bargain, you can still be a good one. In this war, I am afraid that none of your men will die, and only a few of you will be injured. You are still not satisfied."

Lu Yang shook his head and said, "The arrogant soldier will be defeated. After saving Dan City, there will be no decent enemies around. When the red moon night arrives, I am afraid these boys will despise the enemy."

The Blazing Demon God hummed, and said, "I really should teach them a lesson. The enemy in the next wave is at least the third-order peak, and maybe even the fourth-order."

Lu Yang looked at his hands. With his current state at the second-tier peak, he can release a super fire-type forbidden spell with a radius of several kilometers. At the third-tier, he can even provoke ground fire at his peak. Forming a volcanic eruption, destroying a city is easy.

“Tier 4?” Lu Yang exclaimed, “How terrifying would it be?”

The Blazing Demon God said: “Fourth Tier is a spirit level, and a single gesture can destroy a city. However, according to my speculation, Red Moon Night will not allow them to open the channel for spirit level teleportation. Even if it is teleported, it is forcibly teleported. , Will be seriously injured, you still have a chance.”

Lu Yang smiled and said, “Fortunately, I have you.”

Blazing Demon God said: “I’m still waiting for you to help me fight back to the God Realm, boy, get ready. After this battle is over, you can be promoted to Tier 3.

When I was at your stage, I never insisted on not being promoted for so long. When you reach the third stage, you will feel a different world.”

Lu Yang’s eyes lit up. He had suppressed the power in his body for too long. The agitation of the flame element made him endure the torment all the time, and now he can finally be freed.

“Red Night, take part in the offensive, get rid of these red and green skins as soon as possible.” Lu Yang said.

“Roar~!”

Hong Ye made a long roar, and he, who had been prepared for a long time, uttered the dragon language magic, the dragon language magic that only the sacred dragon understands, so it was used by the red night.

The terrifying flame elements madly condensed around the red night. When it reached a peak, the red night roared again.

The whole world turned into a red night in an instant. From Laohukou to the outskirts of Dan City, the sky and ground within a full five kilometers of surrounding area were completely surrounded by red fire elements.

Muddy Wine, White Lion and others are at war with Red Skin and Green Skin. Seeing this scene, everyone looked towards the sky. They knew that this is a forbidden curse that can only be released by Red Night.

In dragon language, the name of this forbidden curse is Demon Flame Burned Out, and countless red elves turned into crimson red like real magma and fell from the sky.

Even if there is ice and snow on the ground, it melts instantly, and the red and green skins that they encounter are also melted, as if they don't have that area on their bodies.

“This is the power of the Tier 3 flame dragon, it's terrifying.” Pan Yuhang said.

Zhuojiu, Xia Yuwei and others nodded. Facing this terrifying power, they could only sigh that the dragon race in another world is too terrifying.

“Fortunately, there is no second dragon around the East China Sea,” said bitter love for half a lifetime.

Everyone was silent, and continued to look at the scene in front of them.

The Forbidden Curse lasted for 5 minutes. The red between the earth and the sky faded. When I looked at the five kilometers area where the red and green skins were, there was nothing left except the charred ground.

“All the red and green skins have been burned to death.” Said bitterly, speechlessly for half a lifetime.

Lu Yang turned on the phone and said, “Sweep the battlefield quickly.”

“Yes.” Zhuojiu, White Lion and others led the team into the battlefield, looking in the burnt area all over the ground, but occasionally I could see one or two red and green skins hiding in the soil and surviving. Parts are dead.

the other side.

Lu Yang issued an order to Ye Ziqiu, saying: “Everyone in Dan City will go to the East China Sea in the order previously determined.”

“Yes.” Ye Ziqiu said.

Lu Yang sent another order to Fei Yang, saying: "All the trains drove to Dan City quickly. The battle here is over and Dan City's enemies are resolved."

"Yes, the train will go to Dan City immediately to welcome Dan City people into the East China Sea." Fei Yang said excitedly in a solemn voice.

After being busy for nearly two years, humans in all areas around the East China Sea were finally rescued. On the one hand, they preserved the future of mankind. On the other hand, it greatly damaged the morale of races in other worlds and made the enemy unable to do so. Bring the gods of another world into this world in advance.

Chapter 2218: Manding and Wang Shijie who appeared again

Lu Yang and the Jagged Brothers League can be said to have made great contributions~!

at dusk.

A train drove to Dan City. Nearly 3 million people boarded the train in the order of the previous lottery and started to rebuild their homes in the East China Sea.

During this period, there are restless people who want to make trouble, and they are all suppressed by the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood. Those who dare to resist will be severely punished according to the soldiers' regulations.

On a high mountain in the distance of Dan City.

Wang Shijie, Dark Demon Patriarch Manding, and Juli Flower Demon Kenny are hiding in the pine forest, watching the people of Dan City who are constantly evacuating in the distance gnashing their teeth.

It has been four months since the Maple Leaf Valley ambush. During this period, Wang Shijie and others hid in the old forest in the mountains for two months.

After , they once ran to Fengshi, wanting to reunite with the members of the temple there, but because they were a dark race, they did not accept them, and even the flower demon did not accept them. They could only accept Tao Ran and other people who believed in the natural gods.

Both Wang Shijie and Manding were arrogant people. They could not bear the cynicism of the natural race and the temple. They took the initiative to leave, and continued to lead the team to the north. They wanted to meet with the orc army, but they went off the road and didn't run into it. .

Waiting for Wang Shijie to find the trace of the orc, and when he returned to Fengshi along the way, all he saw was the fire in Fengshi and the charred orc corpse.

Faced with this situation, Wang Shijie had nothing to do with him, so he had to go to Dan City to try his luck, but at that time the Fire Crow Legion of the Jagged Brotherhood was patrolling around, and the Fire Lion Legion was killing all monsters around Dan City.

Manding and Wang Shijie couldn't get close, they could only keep hiding. Today, they finally found a chance to run over. What you can see is the destruction of the Sigo and the Gelang tribe, and the heavy weapons and the nearby Jagged Brothers. 3 million humans.

"Damn it, one step slower." Wang Shijie scolded angrily.

Manding asked grimly: "Damn Jagged Brotherhood, I'm not reconciled?"

50,000 men were annihilated by the Iron-Blood Brotherhood, and Manding ran out with only a small number of dark demons. The hatred in his heart grew deeper and deeper with the passage of time, and there were already signs of madness.

Wang Shijie looked at Manding with cold eyes, and said, "Put away your killing intent, Lu Yang has the ability to perceive. If he finds out, we will all die."

Manding was furious, but took the killing intent back. The giant flower demon Kenny next to him asked in a loss: "What should we do now? Our * won't forgive us."

Wang Shijie said with a sneer: "Don't worry, our God will not punish us, but will reuse us even more."

"Why?" Manding asked.

Wang Shijie said: "All the different world races in Liao Province are dead. We are the only people familiar with this surrounding area. The Protoss warriors after the Red Moon Night need us to lead the way, and we also need us to help them contact. Protoss warriors in other regions, we are very useful!"

Manding recognized Wang Shijie's words and asked: "But how can we contact other protoss?"

Wang Shijie looked at the city of Dan City in the distance and said: "There is a secret stronghold of the temple in Dan City. There are satellite phones there. We can contact the members of the temple in other areas. When the next red moon night comes, we can coordinate with the old. Humans launch an offensive."

Mandin, Kenny and others showed hideous smiles. They seemed to have seen the destruction of the East China Sea after the red moon night, and countless Protoss warriors rushed in and slaughtered them.

Xue Renyi also showed a smile beside him, but he was a little worried in his heart. Red Moon Night was also one of his heart problems. If Wang Shijie could really coordinate the attack, it would not be good for Donghai.

Now what Xue Renyi wants most is to enter Dan City. He knows that Lu Yang will leave him a secret signal in the city. As long as he can contact Lu Yang, he can completely kill Wang Shijie and the others.

"Congratulations to the two masters, we are finally ready to counterattack." Xue Renyi said.

Both Manding and Wang Shijie looked at Xue Renyi at the same time. During this period of time, Xue Renyi had been busy with them and had treated them extremely attentively. This made them more satisfied and had the idea of promoting Xue Renyi, but Both of them are now polished commanders, unable to give too many promises, but they all recognize Xue Renyi in their hearts.

...

Evening.

Just when most Dan City people gathered near the train station, Wang Shijie and Manding sneaked into Dan City with the Flower Demon and Dark Demon.

In a remote and dilapidated bungalow alley, Wang Shijie found Liu Yu's secret stronghold according to the house number. At this time, Liu Yu was dead, but the secret stronghold was established when the temple supported Liu Yu.

"Come in with me." Wang Shijie climbed the wall and entered the courtyard, cautiously came to the door, broke the lock, and entered the bungalow.

At the warehouse in the back room, Wang Shijie lifted a stone slab, revealing a large iron door with a code lock on it.

There are a total of six passwords. After Wang Shijie entered it, the iron door opened automatically with a beep, and Wang Shijie led everyone into the basement.

Xue Renyi was surprised to watch Wang Shijie turn on the diesel generator, and the whole room became brighter. It was not only a secret room, but many rooms.

Wang Shijie sat on the sofa triumphantly, opened his arms in enjoyment, and said: "There are a total of 8 rooms and 3 living rooms here, as well as a lot of food reserves. We can cultivate for a while with peace of mind."

Manding said in surprise: "It's really good that you can get a place like this."

Wang Shijie said: "It's easy. Liu Yu has a very high status here. He sent someone to build this place, and then found an excuse to use the Sigma to kill all the people who built it. So, it's very safe here."

Xue Renyi said: "Should I send someone to watch outside? How about I go? My goal is the smallest."

Wang Shijie and Manding looked at each other, and Wang Shijie said: "Yes, you go, pay attention to safety, and press the alarm button as soon as you have something to do."

Wang Shijie took out an electronic watch from under the table in front of the sofa and threw it to Xue Renyi. Manding said, "Be careful, don't be found."

Xue Renyi put the watch on his wrist, nodded to the two of them, and walked out cautiously. He wanted to find the secret code Lu Yang left him, but this watch made him feel suspicious. He didn't know what the watch had. Without the monitoring and recording function, if there is, he will be exposed, and it is possible that Wang Shijie and Manding may run away.

With this thought, after Xue Renyi left the room, he did not dare to look for the secret sign immediately, but pretended to observe around the house to see if there were other human beings.

Inside the room.

Manding looked at Wang Shijie and asked with a smile: "Do you believe in Xue Renyi that way?"

Wang Shijie sneered and said, "If he can pass this test, I will completely trust him."

Manding said: "Agree, I left a dark demon seed on him. If he has any unfaithful behavior, the seed will quickly eat his brain."

The two smiled at each other, and quickly prepare

Chapter 2219: Strong wall clearing the field plan

After getting the necessary things, Wang Shijie and Manding quickly withdrew from the secret stronghold, leaving only one flower demon clone in place, waiting for Xue Renyi's return.

It is a pity that Wang Shijie and Manding's thoughts are in vain. In front of top spies like Xue Renyi, their thoughts have no meaning at all.

The cautious Xue Renyi only searched the surrounding neighborhoods. After finding the code on a street lamp pole, he didn't follow the code to contact Lu Yang and then returned to the secret stronghold, only to find that there was a flower demon inside.

"Where is the person?" Xue Renyi asked curiously.

The Juli Flower Demon Warrior said with satisfaction to Xue Renyi: "Wang Shijie and Manding left early. They want to test your loyalty. Now it seems that you are indeed a new human who has taken refuge in us. I accept you."

Xue Renyi thought in his heart: "As expected to be the Juli Flower Demon, it is true, this kind of thing has been told to him so generously, although he can analyze it, but the other party can tell it directly, which makes people more happy."

Xue Renyi asked: "How can I find them?"

The Juli Flower Demon Warrior said, "Give me the watch."

Xue Renyi handed the watch to the Juli Flower Demon Warrior. Then, the other party pressed the button on the side of the watch, and a chip popped out inside.

Next to is the projector. The Juli Flower Demon Warrior inserts the chip into the projector, presses the switch, and a beam hits the wall. The projector checks the area that Xue Renyi has just walked through.

In a mountain far outside the city, Wang Shijie and Manding are standing beside Kenny. At this moment, they are watching the screen shot through the camera in the corner.

Xue Renyi's route is entirely a sentinel's route, checking whether there are other humans around, and then expanding the scope of exploration, there is no irregularity at all.

After watching them all, Wang Shijie and Manding relaxed, and they relaxed and led people back to the basement.

Wang Shijie patted Xue Renyi on the shoulder and said: "You really are my good brother. After the red moon night, I will definitely let the otherworld gods help you upgrade to Tier 3 strength, and then give you an elf."

“Thank you.” Xue Renyi said with a smile.

Manding also took back the Dark Demon Seed, and said: “I will let you lead an army. You are worthy of our trust.”

Xue Renyi became more and more happy. He didn’t expect that his caution would actually earn the absolute trust of the two.

“The two bosses don’t worry, I will definitely live up to your trust.” Xue Renyi said loyally.

Wang Shijie said: “In the future, you will leave the matter of going out on patrols. Only you can do this. We are in danger of being discovered when we go out.”

The Iron-Blooded Brotherhood has not withdrawn from Dan City, but Wang Shijie no longer wants to live in the mountains and forests. Even though his appearance is ugly now, he still wants to live a human life.

“Okay.” Xue Renyi nodded. During this period of time, he had already figured out Wang Shijie’s weakness, which was his desire for pleasure.

Now that everyone trusts him, he can finally use the patrol to contact Lu Yang blatantly.

At the moment, Xue Renyi found a room and fell asleep, and waited until noon the next day, while Wang Shijie used the satellite phone to contact the people in the temple on the grassland, he went out to be alert.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, he quickly walked through more than a dozen streets and came to a building where there was a group of Jagged Brothers soldiers led by Han Fei.

Seeing Xue Renyi, Han Fei immediately pulled him into the next room with excitement. After a while, Lu Yang controlled Hong Ye to fly over.

Meeting again, Lu Yang excitedly grabbed Xue Renyi's arms and said, "Great, you are still alive."

Xue Renyi was also very excited, and said: "Boss, Wang Shijie and Manding are hiding in a nearby secret base. There are only 20 flower demons, 50 dark demons and 6 human traitors."

Lu Yang smiled and asked, "Why did they come to Dan City?"

Xue Renyi explained Wang Shijie's plan to use the Red Moon Night and said: "Boss, you can't let Wang Shijie do this. It's too dangerous."

Lu Yang thought about it. After thinking about it for a long time, he still shook his head and said, "Compared to killing them, you stay inside them and help us even more after the red moon night. You can go back with peace of mind."

After the next batch of enemies came, Lu Yang needed to know what races the enemy had, how strong it was, the time of attack, and the distribution of troops.

Only Xue Renyi can do these things. The rest of the people have no such ability. Compared to Wang Shijie's coordination, these things are more important. He would rather let Wang Shijie jump for a while than let them face the coming enemy. Know nothing.

Xue Renyi realized that he was thinking a little short-sighted, and nodded clearly, and said: "Boss rest assured, after the red moon night arrives, I will deliver the news in time."

Lu Yang said, "If you report something urgent to me these days, you can come here at any time. When you leave Dan City, you remember to leave a mark, and I will always pay attention."

"Yes." Xue Renyi looked at the time and said, "I have to go back, otherwise it will cause suspicion."

Lu Yang patted him on the shoulder, and said, "Protect yourself. All the news depends on you."

Xue Renyi gave a hum, turned around and ran out quickly.

Lu Yang walked out the door, looked at Han Fei who was approaching him, and said, "Remember, this incident must never be exposed, otherwise, Xue Renyi will definitely die."

Han Fei said, "Brother, don't worry, they are all my closest brothers, and none of them are talkative."

"Boss, don't worry, we won't talk too much." Several guards said together.

Lu Yang looked at them, and said in a solemn voice: "Even your parents and wives can't say. Whoever asks about you, immediately grab him and * him to Han Fei. If the other party wants to run, he will be killed on the spot."

"Yes." Several sentinels said in shock.

Lu Yang summoned Hong Ye with his mind. In the distant sky, Hong Ye quickly flew back. When he approached Lu Yang, Lu Yang jumped onto the dragon's head and controlled Hong Ye to fly towards the East China Sea.

At this time, along the railway from Dan City to the East China Sea, the 30,000 new members of the Jagged Brotherhood have cleaned up twice. In the short term, there will be no more monsters here.

What Lu Yang has to do now is to prepare for the upcoming red moon night. Compared with the arrival of the next batch of enemies, Lu Yang is not too worried, because he already has a way to deal with it.

The more the next batch of different world races arrives, the more food will be needed. Thanks to the destruction of the orc army, when the red moon night arrives, the races from the different world can only find food by themselves.

Lu Yang now only needs to conduct a sweeping sweep of the area around the twisted time and space outside the East China Sea defensive position, and kill all the beasts, so that the creatures in the different world will not eat after they come, and dare not launch an attack.

Chapter 2220: Volcanoes

Early the next morning.

In front of the defensive positions on the periphery of the East China Sea, more than 20,000 Jagged Brothers soldiers had assembled. Lu Yang took Zhuo Jiu, White Lion, Zhou Tianming, and Kuai Bansheng and others to stand at the forefront of the team.

Lu Yang opened the three-dimensional map outside the position and projected it into the space in front of him. He said: "From here, in the four-hour journey to Area 8, there are a total of 200 large distorted space-times. We will clean up from today. These beasts around the warped time and space, no matter whether they are male or female, will not stay, and strive to complete the plan of solid walls and clear fields before the arrival of the red moon night."

"Yes." Zhuo Jiu said with Baishi and others.

Lu Yang said: "It just happens to be able to train troops one by one, let's set off, let the first-tier fighters reach the peak as soon as possible."

The red spirit fruit tree and the purple spirit fruit tree in his body have already produced fruit again. Using it carefully, it is completely possible for these 40,000 rookies to raise their strength to level 2.

Zhuo Jiu, Bai Shi and others also knew this. At the moment, they each clasped their fists at Lu Yang and led their team into the attack route set last night.

As soon as they encounter a beast along the way, the team immediately spreads out and slaughters all the beasts, even high-level insects.

Suddenly, outside the East China Sea defensive position Shekou, thick smoke billowed and the fire was overwhelming. In the early spring afternoon, the temperature had returned to zero. The melting of the snow made the trees wet, but this could not stop the spread of the fire.

The wizards of the Jagged Brothers set fire from mountain to mountain, and the flat ground also pulled their nets to advance. The monsters were like an apocalyptic encounter. Once they rushed out of the mountain, they were immediately attacked, and the killed monsters were killed by the soldiers of the Iron Brothers. We quickly took out the magic core.

Lu Yang watched this scene from a high altitude and did not participate. After making sure that his subordinates could cope with it, he controlled Hong Ye to fly back to the Donghai Underground City area.

On the back mountain, Tao Yue is in charge of breeding the offspring of demonized tigers and lions and other meat-eating monsters. At the current breeding speed of monsters, a Tier 3 wild demonized lion can breed 20 offspring at a time. They do not need to be born. You can eat meat directly by drinking milk.

There are now more than 10,000 demonized tigers and demonized lions here. At this rate, the number can double by five times in less than the first half of the year.

Most of the monsters killed by the Jagged Brothers this year have been transported here to serve as their rations.

When Lu Yang flew to the back mountain, Tao Yue was feeding a Tier 2 peak tiger. Seeing Lu Yang coming, he beckoned.

Hong Ye flapped its wings and slowly fell from the air, quite a kind of domineering return of the king, the surrounding demonized tigers and lions all crawled on the ground and did not dare to make a sound.

“Roar!” Hong Ye raised up to the sky and roared very proudly.

“Roar!” But at this moment, the tiger that Tao Yue was feeding forcibly stood up and roared at the red night, which meant to compete.

Tao Yue quickly controlled the tiger, Lu Yang also stopped the red night that was going to run away, and sent it back to the Demon Temple. After being so pacified, he said to Tao Yue: "This tiger is very courageous, dare to Xiang Hong Night challenge."

Tao Yue looked at the tiger walking back to the mountain alone, and said with emotion to Lu Yang: "After training for a year, I have produced a few alternative beasts here. They are not afraid of anything. Let's talk about how they are free today. Have you come to me?"

Lu Yang smiled and said, "Naturally, I am looking for your help. You have to be prepared. When the red moon night arrives, you must equip all combat members with mounts."

Tao Yue said solemnly: "No problem, I can do this, and at the same time, I apply to be transferred to the front-line combat force."

Tao Yue also got the red spirit fruit and was promoted to Tier 2, but Lu Yang couldn't let her go for the time being, and said, "Wait a while, after the enemy's reinforcements arrive, your chances of going on the battlefield are indispensable."

"Okay." Tao Yue said helplessly.

Lu Yang smiled. He left Houshan and returned to the dungeon. He first found Grant and asked about the scrolls. At this time, after half a year, not only had all the scrolls that had been consumed before recovered, but also created additional ones. 100,000 reels.

Including various spells such as bone spears, meteorites, ice thorns, and lightning flashes, they were all created by captured dark demons, demons, and flower demons.

After Lu Yang confirmed that there was no problem here, he came to Xiao Liang. At this time, Xiao Liang personally guarded the gate of the floor where the plane merchant was located. Six people followed him, all sitting on the ground cultivating.

Only Lu Yang and a small number of people have the right to go up on this floor, and the rest are not qualified, so when the elevator door opened, Xiao Liang knew it was Lu Yang.

“Boss.” Xiao Liang greeted.

Lu Yang sighed and said, “Thanks for your hard work, is there any movement?”

Xiao Liang shook his head and said, “There is no change.”

The time agreed upon by Luo Laide, a businessman from the Ten Thousand Realms, and Lu Yang was approaching. He was very anxious that Luo Laide would return, because even if the things Luo Laide sent were more basic, it would take time for Lu Yang to be familiar with them. Used on the battlefield.

“When he comes back, notify me immediately.” Lu Yang said.

Xiao bright spot head.

Lu Yang left this floor, and then he returned home, and spent three days together with his family. After that, he controlled Hongye and flew to Dan City.

At this time in Dan City, all personnel had been sent away, and only a small number of Jagged Brothers soldiers were doing the final finishing work.

Including all light and heavy weapons and ammunition, as well as various medical supplies, they were all taken away without fail.

Lu Yang deliberately went to the secret place agreed with Xue Renyi, and met again to make sure that Wang Shijie, who has been drinking alcohol every day, was drunk, and that other world creatures such as Mandin and Kenny were recuperating. He was relieved when he did not go out for activities , Continued to control Hongye and flew towards the north of Dan City.

There, there is a county seat called Kuandian. In the middle of the county seat, there is a huge park called Volcano Forest Park, because there is a cluster of volcanoes.

It had stabilized before and turned into an extinct volcano, but now it has become a sea of fire, and the energy from another world has poured in, causing dozens of active volcanoes to erupt.

Lu Yang came here because he was going to advance and had to find a suitable training place. The Blazing Demon God told him that it was best to have lava in the area.

At that time, Lu Yang found Fu Yun and looked for active volcanoes there. Fu Yun searched for information and took pictures with satellites to determine this area.

The Blazing Demon looked at the lava flowing out of the volcanoes in the distance, and said with satisfaction: "This place is very good, and a weak fire spirit should be born."

Lu Yang looked at the volcano crater in the distance, and sure enough, there were a lot of fire-bearing creatures moving in the magma. Their height was only about 2 meters, almost human.

"It should be them," Lu Yang said.

The Blazing Demon God hummed, and said, "After absorbing them, this is the purest flame. It is good for you and the fire in your soul sea."

Lu Yang nodded and controlled Hong Ye to rush towards the nearest crater.
