Chapter 2421: Arrow of Time

Lu Yang pretended not to notice the substitution, and after recovering his body, he continued to run aimlessly in the fog, which made Misiteng, the patriarch of the Tallinn Ghost Mist Clan, show a relieved expression, turned and ran in the direction of Baishan City past.

Wangjie's Tallinn ghost fog powerhouse saw Lu Yang's miserable appearance, with a hideous smile on his face, and continued to torture Lu Yang with a dagger. Every few tens of seconds, Lu Yang's body would shatter.

Although this kind of injury could not cause substantial trauma to Lu Yang's body, the moment the body was stabbed by the dagger, there would still be a strong pain, and every knife was torturing Lu Yang's spirit.

"Poor human powerhouse, how long can you hold on? End this painful life, as long as you give up your resistance, I can give you a good time." Wangjie Tallinn ghost fog powerhouse said mockingly.

The expression on Lu Yang's face was full of determination, and he kept running in one direction, but in his consciousness, he said to the Blazing Demon God, "How far has that monarchy walked?"

The Blazing Demon God said, "It's almost two kilometers away. This king-level man is 50 meters behind you. Do you want to kill him?"

Lu Yang said with a smile, "It's time to do it."

"Go 50 meters to the left." Blazing Demon God said.

Lu Yang turned around and walked over. There was a huge deep pit on the ground, which was formed when a large amount of magma poured out during the eruption of the volcano. There's a crater, goodbye."

The king-rank powerhouse of the Tallinn Guiwu Clan was shocked. He kept staring at Lu Yang, especially the crater on the ground, but Lu Yang ran out of the position just now. He thought there were no volcanoes here, but he didn't expect Lu Yang to return Reserve one.

In a hurry, the Tallinn warrior of Wangjie jumped over, the dagger was about to stab Lu Yang's heart, but a long sword appeared in Lu Yang's hand, and the Tallinn Ghost and Mist warrior pierced his body. At the same time, his sword also pierced the chest of the Tallinn Ghost Mist warrior.

"You, where did you get the sword?" When the Tallinn warrior of Wangjie died, there was still confusion on his face.

Lu Yang sneered, his body turned into the shape of an undead bird, and flew towards Baishan City. In this fog, he could not only take out items from the Demon God's space, but also use spells normally, because his magic power It was supplied by Bandarsburg, and was not dead at all.

"The Tallinn Ghost Fog Clan has launched an attack on you, and quickly prepared for defense as planned." Lu Yang picked up the phone and said to Algaia.

"Don't worry, boss, we have arranged a pocket array for them according to your instructions, only your return, please come to the palace first, our queen is waiting for you." Algaia's voice was crying.

"I'll be there soon." Lu Yang flew into the clouds, flapping his wings with all his strength, his body burst into flames and accelerated, and in less than 10 minutes, he arrived in the city of Baishan City.

When he landed in the palace area, he saw Sarah and Rustafa kneeling respectfully in front of a female elf. The elf's body was already very weak, his eyes had disappeared, and his robe was extremely worn, as if Just been brutally tortured.

"Guardian of mankind, I sensed your arrival." The female elf looked in the direction of Lu Yang with her empty eyes. She was the queen of the elf family for tens of thousands of years.

Lu Yang bowed to the Elf Queen and asked, "What happened? Why is your body so weak?"

The Elf Queen said with a wry smile: "Our race can't be accepted by the New Moon God after all. This is what his subordinates did. I have not had much time. This time, my clansmen quietly rescued me. Now, all the people of our elves are here."

When the red moon night opened, not only the three divine races, but also all the remaining elves came, but this number was not much, only less than 500,000 people, that is to say, now the entire elves are added in Together, only 700,000 people.

"My condolences," Lu Yang said.

The elf queen was not too sad, but said excitedly: "I already know that the old **** was found by you, then my clan will have hope of living, this war, I hope you can make it happen. I, let me, the oldest member of the elf clan, dedicate one last time to our entire clan."

Lu Yang was a little surprised, he didn't know what the Elf Queen was going to do, Rustafa said: "Our elves have a spell called the Arrow of Time, if we are willing to use ten percent of our life, we can use 10% of our life to attack the king and the king. The monarchy inflicts mortal damage."

"You..." Lu Yang didn't know how to persuade him. This war was the war between the Tallinn Ghosts and the Hasturs against the elves and the Hasturs. Lu Yang was just a helper. The real war was between the elves and the Hasturs. clan their own.

The Elf Queen respectfully said to Lu Yang: "Let us kill the patriarch of the Tallinn Ghost Mist Clan. His mist is very strong, which can block our connection with the elements, but the mist cannot affect us to strip away our own lifespan and release time. arrow."

Lu Yang said: "But there are tens of thousands of Tallinn Guiwu people outside."

"And us." Thousands of old elves who looked like elf queens came out of the palace, and a male elf led by him raised his right fist to Lu Yang and hit his chest, saying: "The second elder of the elf clan, Bao Bao. Sihan looks at you in diameter."

When Lu Yang saw the thousands of old elves, he knew their intentions. He bowed down again respectfully and said to the elf queen, Bao Sihan and others, "You are all heroes of the elves, and your deeds will be passed down here forever. on the ground."

The Elf Queen said to Lu Yang: "In the future, the elves will wholeheartedly become subordinate to the human race I just ask you to be kind to our race, we are not a nation that likes to fight, as long as there is a place to live, we can be peaceful to live on."

Lu Yang said: "I swear by the ancient flame elves that the human race and the elves will always form an alliance. As long as the elves live up to the human race, the human race will never fight against the elves."

He spoke in the ancient elven language, and at the moment of singing, the ancient elf flashed a dazzling white light from the sky and heard the oath.

The elf queen said: "I can rest assured in this way, warriors of the elf race, listen to my order now, lift all the seals of your life, and use our last rays of light to light the way forward for all the elven children in the future. "

"I will use my blood as a sacrifice to lift the seal." Bao Sihan and other thousands of old elves shouted in unison, and the turquoise light of life surged out of them frantically. At this time, the breath of life was no longer gentle, but Furious, as if they were about to devour their enemies at any time.

Chapter 2422: life for life

Lu Yang didn't understand the Arrow of Time at all, and said to the Blazing Demon God: "What kind of spell is this? They are a group of lord-level powerhouses. Can they really kill monarch-level people?"

“Okay.” The Blazing Demon God said with some emotion, “The ancestors of the elves are the original elves of the wood family, but they were cursed on the ancient battlefield. This was the first battle of gods. The elves at that time were cursed. The entire clan has been cursed, and even our ancient gods can’t do anything about it, but after hundreds of thousands of years, their clansmen still remember this spell.”

“Warriors, follow me.” The elf queen’s voice was old but very high-pitched. She dragged her broken body, and with Rustafa’s help, walked along the steps of the palace to the center of the city.

It was originally a residential area, but at this time it became a dense peach blossom forest. Algaia stood in front of the peach blossom forest and saw the Elf Queen kneeling on the ground with her subordinates, and said loudly: “Congratulations. Her Majesty the Queen~!”

“The future of the elves is left to you and Sarah. She is the queen, you are the king of elves, and Rustafa is the first elder.” The queen of elves said loudly.

“Yes.” Algaia and Sarah nodded at the same time.

Rustafa said excitedly: “Your Majesty, I want to follow your lead.”

The elf queen smiled and said, “You are the wisest elder of the elf clan. The two of them still need your help. I have already sensed the arrival of the ghost fog in Tallinn, so don’t say more.”

Rustafa was speechless.

The Elf Queen pushed Rustafa away. Although she could not see, she seemed to be able to see, and walked into the peach blossom forest alone.

“I never imagined that there are such beautiful trees and plants on this planet. Thank you for your help, and may life never go out~!” The voice of the elf queen became ethereal.

The entire peach blossom forest suddenly glowed with a pale green light. With this light, all the peach trees grew rapidly. The largest peach blossom tree in the middle was the most lush. Her height was reduced in just a few seconds. It reached hundreds of meters, and the huge trunk was dozens of meters thick.

Countless branches stretched out from all heights of the trunk, covered with pink peach blossoms. The breeze floated, and the petals of the peach blossoms fell and danced freely in the air.

Some petals fell to the ground, while others stagnated at a height of 1.78 meters above the ground. An emerald-green short bow suddenly appeared in Bao Sihan's hand. I saw that he did not take out the bow and arrow from the quiver. It's straight up the bowstring.

A light green bow and arrow formed naturally. In an instant, the bow and arrow hit the position of the petal, and a warrior of the Tallinn Ghost Mist tribe showed a purple figure, and fell to the ground without even making a scream.

This soldier's face was still very immature, as if he was still a young man from the Tallinn Ghost Mist tribe, but within 3 seconds of his falling to the ground, his appearance seemed to have experienced a lifetime, and he was instantly old and shriveled.

"I didn't expect this spy to be hiding in the city all the time." Algaia said in shock.

"The enemy has attacked from the western city wall. My soldiers, follow my peach blossom's guidance and kill all the enemies." The queen's voice echoed in the air.

Countless peach blossoms drifted to the west side of Baishan City. Misteng, the patriarch of the Guiwu tribe in Tallinn, just took his elite tribe to kill all the enemies on the west city wall. rushed in.

"Kill all the creatures of the six races in the city, I will sacrifice their lives." Misten's voice was full of ruthlessness and cruelty.

"Roar~!"

The 50,000 king-rank powerhouses roared in unison. This war was too simple for them. The ones who fought with them were all second- and third-rank creatures. The strongest were only fifth-rank lords, and they were not their opponents at all. , this is completely a one-sided massacre, and they don't even need to release the ghost fog.

Below the western city wall, a coalition of more than 100,000 troops consisting of Hasturs, ogres, and trolls was looking at the open space ahead in horror.

They knew that the enemy was ahead, but they couldn't see it. Just when they didn't know what to do, the peach blossoms flew from the sky and landed on Misten and all the strong men of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist tribe.

“Boom~!”

The crisp bowstring sounded, and in an instant, hundreds of turquoise arrows shot from a distance, the target being the Tallinn Ghost and Mist warriors covered in peach blossoms.

The warriors of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist tribe wear armor, but this armor is the bones of their tribe. Only in this way will the armor on their bodies become invisible together when they turn on the stealth ability, but every bone armor is used by the king. It is made from the bones of the strong above the rank, and its defense is not weaker than that of the metal of the fifth rank. Ordinary bows and arrows are ineffective against them.

Most of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist warriors did not pay attention to the turquoise bow and arrow. Only a few monarch-level powerhouses such as Mi Siteng felt the unusualness of the bow and arrow, and hurriedly avoided it, but they didn't have time to inform their subordinates, and could only watch. The soldiers in the first row were shot by bows and arrows and fell to the ground and turned into dead bones.

“Damn it, what kind of spell is this?” Misten's face was extremely poor, and he roared lowly as he stared at Bao Sihan and the others running over from a distance.

Bao Sihan and other more than 3,000 elf warriors did not answer, and continued to shoot with bows and arrows. The most terrifying thing about this kind of bows and arrows is that they are formed by the condensation of their lives, so even if they shoot out, they can control the arrows. In the direction of flight, if they missed a hit, they could also order the arrow of time that fell on the ground to attack the surrounding Tallinn Ghost Mist warriors.

In just ten seconds, more than 7,000 soldiers of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist tribe died in battle. The rest of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist soldiers who were frightened hurriedly avoided, but they still did not react from their shock. , I don't know what kind of bows and arrows the elves used against them.

"Retreat, retreat first." Misten ordered loudly.

"Let's go now, it's too late." The Queen's ethereal voice sounded in the ears of everyone, and the blooming peach blossoms gathered into a bud and threw them from the direction of the peach blossom forest.

The moment it landed on the ground, the flower bud exploded, and countless petals scattered and elegant, and each petal had a light green breath of life.

All Tallinn Guiwu Clan strongmen who were hit by this petal, whether they were kings or monarchs, began to age uncontrollably.

Misten was also hit by a flower petal while trying to dodge. He clearly felt the loss of vitality, and he turned his head and ran towards the west city wall with his clan in horror, but Bao Sihan and others would not let them go. The arrows of time follow one after another.

Chapter 2423: sacrificial battle

Above the city wall, countless Hastur warriors suddenly poured out. The flame core in their chests burst into flames crazily. The old patriarch Millers was only a fifth-order lord. Looking at the Tallinn ghosts and fog clan who were madly fleeing, He shouted in a hoarse voice: "The flames live forever~! Kill with me~!"

Thousands of Hastur warriors rushed towards the Tallinn Ghost Mist Clan frantically. Although they could not see the specific appearance of the Tallinn Ghost Mist Clan, they could see the petals falling on them.

Misteng, the patriarch of the Tallinn Ghost Mist Clan, had already retreated under the city wall, looking at the Hastur clan warriors who rushed down, his face was full of sneer, and he roared: "The humble ants, just because you want to block the Tallinn Ghosts. The foggy road, kill them."

"Kill~!"

The powerhouses of the Tallinn Guiwu Clan have been driven to a desperate situation, and the super-powerful combat power of the king and monarchs broke out, and rushed towards the warriors of the Hasta clan.

As soon as the two sides came into contact, whether it was magic, strength, or speed, the Hasturs were not the opponents of the strong Tallinn Ghosts, but when the strong men of the Tallinn Ghosts killed the Hasturs, every A terrifying flame erupted from the chest of a Hastur warrior.

At the moment of death, there was no pain, no despair, and no fear on their faces, but only an incomparable future.

"The God of Fire will live forever~!"

When they whispered this incantation, the flame element between heaven and earth seemed to feel the call, and the blazing white light shone in the air.

Lu Yang recognized that this was a high-level flame elf at a glance, and he said to the Blazing Demon God in shock, "What spell did you teach them?"

The Blazing Demon God said in a flat tone: "The flame return spell, also known as the sacrifice spell, uses their death to summon high-level fire elements. Only in this way can they protect their homeland, and only in this way can prove their courage. Only then can you be qualified to be the servant of my Blazing Demon God."

Lu Yang took a deep breath. This is the age of war. If the Hasturs want to survive, there is only one way to survive. There is no other way to survive.

“Wow~~~~!”

The sound of a horn came from not far away, and the strong men of the trolls, ogres, and rock tribes rushed over from a distance, and the leader of the troll tribe, Dostor, roared: “The Hasturs and the elves The warriors of the clan have set an example, and it is time for us to dedicate to the race, troll clan warriors, kill it~!”

Countless trolls and ogres rushed towards the battlefield on the side. Their task was to block the area where the Tallinn Ghost Mist soldiers escaped from both sides, but they even resisted the ordinary one of the king-rank Tallinn Ghost Mist. Hits are hard to do, but they can do one thing.

“Life sacrifice~!”

Dostor, headed by him, actually blew his body, and the monstrous blood rain fell on the invisible Tallinn Ghost and Mist powerhouse accompanied by the peach blossoms in the sky, and the powerhouse of the ogre tribe also blew his body, a terrifying blood fog. Immediately, the rushing Tallinn Guiwu Clan powerhouse revealed his figure.

“Kill them, kill~!” Bao Sihan roared wildly when he saw this scene, and the green arrows in his hand shot out one by one. At the moment of Bao Sihan’s death, he saw with his own eyes Misteng cut off his arm with a knife, revealing a purple figure.

“Haha, it turned out to be a group of short sheep-headed monsters~!” Bao Sihan finally laughed and lost his life with his eyes open.

“Crazy, crazy, you are all crazy~!” Mi Siteng was frightened. He has lived for hundreds of years and killed more than a hundred races, but no race can be like the elves and trolls in Baishan City. The clan, the ogre clan, and the rock clan are so crazy, they really don’t want to die, they want to sacrifice their lives for their teammates, which does not exist in another world.

“Retreat, retreat~!” Misten shouted.

“You can’t leave.” Lu Yang’s body suddenly turned into a streamer and appeared in front of Misiteng, and the chaotic demon flames emerged in his body, killing him and the other ten monarchs of the Tallinn Ghost Clan around him. At the moment when Misten and other monarch-level powerhouses wanted to break free, Lu Yang opened the Bandarsburg space and took him into the hot desert.

“Damn, what is this place?” Misiteng looked around in horror, and finally fixed his eyes on Lu Yang. One of his arms was still bleeding, and the other was holding a short knife, staring at Lu Yang. Said: “Do you think you can kill me in this place? Since you want to die, then I will fulfill you.”

Eleven Tallinn Ghost Mist Clan experts released purple mist at the same time. They wanted to use the ability of the mist to block spells to put out the chaotic flames on their bodies. Knowing when the closest point has been reached, the temperature in Bandarsburg reaches over 4000 degrees.

With the body of the monarch, Misiteng can resist the frontal burning of the flames of more than 6,000 degrees, but this does not mean that Misiteng is not afraid of fire, and another, the flames released by the sixty-four Chaos Demon Flame Pillars are still tied to the flames. On Misten’s body.

Lu Yang said, “If it wasn’t for studying you, you would have died the moment you arrived in this world. Repent for your crimes. The flames will make you realize your mistakes.”

The light flickered.

Lu Yang left Bandarsburg and returned to the battlefield in Baishan City. Seeing that most of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist powerhouses were trapped, only the arrows of time of the elves were left to kill him. Leap into the air.

The war on the elves’ side has started, and the battle on the Shekou side has entered the countdown, and he must go back to participate in the war.

Sara and Algaia did not keep Lu Yang, all they needed was Lu Yang to kill the monarch-level powerhouse of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist clan, and now that Lu Yang has completed the task, they shouted in unison: “I wish mankind to keep the Shekou defensive position. ”

Lu Yang made a circle in the air and flew towards Shekou at full speed. Unlike Baishan City, who encountered the Tallinn Ghosts and Mists, the strongest attack was encountered by humans. A simultaneous attack by the two **** races, Demon Blood Orcs and Void Ghosts.

Just listening to the description of the Blazing Demon God, Lu Yang felt the horror of these two races, but the Shekou defensive position had been prepared for defense. There were more than 2,000 king-rank wood-type mages and tens of thousands of third-rank wood wizards. The wooden magic circle composed of magic cores has spread all over the Shekou defensive position, just waiting for the two major **** races to attack.

“Drip drip”

Just when Lu Yang was curious about how the Demon Blood Orcs and the Void Ghosts were going to attack, Zhuojiu sent a message and reported: “Boss, hurry to the east of the Shekou defensive position as soon as possible, the enemy, this time, did not walk on the ground, but Coming from the sea, a new race has appeared in the sea and is assisting the enemy to attack.”

Lu Yang’s eyes widened, and he quickly flew towards the west of the Shekou defensive position.

Chapter 2424: Demon blood orcs are coming

The east side of the Shekou defensive position is connected to the beach, and in the sea opposite the beach, countless giant sea turtles are swimming towards the shore.

The giant sea turtle has a diameter of about 50 meters, its eyes glow with red blood, and four tusks grow out of its mouth. On the turtle’s back were a group of red-skinned orcs.

One of the orcs was extremely tall, almost three meters in height, with muscular muscles all over his body and a hideous smile on his face. His name is Droman, and he is the chief of the Demon Blood Orcs.

Seeing that he was only 50 meters away from the beach, he shouted loudly: “The corpse of the enemy has paved the way of honor, roar~!”

“Roar~!”

More than 50,000 blood demon orcs on the backs of more than 100 big turtles raised their swords and shouted loudly.

The first to arrive here were the Divine Blood Orc Warrior Legion led by White Lion, the Holy Light Knight Legion led by Zhuojiu, and a thousand wood-type archmages led by De Buchanzhe.

“Prepare to fight~!” Turbid wine and Bai Shi roared at the same time.

The Holy Light Knights and the Divine-Blood Orc Warriors added together only 10,000 people, and they quickly set up to fight, which made the demon-blood orcs who were getting closer and closer on the sea showed a sarcastic smile.

Droman, the patriarch of the Demon Blood Orcs, looked at the nearest enemy less than 200 meters away from him. He was standing on the cliff in a mage robe and was about to cast a spell. His face was hideous, and he jumped up like a ghost in the blink of an eye. After crossing a distance of 200 meters, he came to the front of this human powerhouse, and swept the sword with both hands.

The body of this wood-type mage was instantly cut in half, and this person was none other than De Buchanz himself.

“Ah~!” De Buchan’s corpse let out a heart-piercing cry. The waist cut was the most painful, because there is no fatal place below the waist, and people will only be slowly tortured to death in this severe pain. It can be seen that De How cruel Roman is.

“Virtue doesn’t taste the corpse~!” The white lion roared, his eyes instantly turned red, and he jumped and ran towards the cliff.

“The humble are not qualified to live, human beings, you will all die~!” Droman laughed as he grabbed the head of De Buchan’s corpse, looking at the white lion rushing towards him, his face full of sarcasm.

“Really? If you want to kill us humans, you have to step over our corpses first.” De Buchan’s face showed no fear of death, but a calm expression. He turned his head to look at Droman’s. Face, he said sarcastically: “You were fooled, I deliberately lured you here, feel it, the anger from the humble person in your mouth, the tree and vine enchantment~!”

The lower body where De Buchan’s corpse was still standing suddenly turned into the root of a big tree, madly burrowing into the soil on the cliff, while the upper body of De Buchan’s corpse turned into countless vines. , entwining Droman’s body tightly.

The vines have strong tenacity, and they have reached the king rank. They never thought that this war could be easily won. Therefore, he took the most radical method and used himself as a bait to lure Droman to come. sneak attack.

Sure enough, Droman was fooled!

The vines simultaneously attacked Droman’s limbs, neck, eyes, legs, knees, and the most important part, and in an instant, Droman let out a roar of excruciating pain.

“Damn bug, you dare to attack me.” Droman roared furiously, and frantically wanted to chop off these vines with his hands, but the number of vines was so large that every finger of Droman was bound. , he couldn’t wield the long knife at all.

Even if the long knife is moved occasionally to cut off a few vines, more vines will quickly grow and replenish to the original position.

Droman tried his best, but he could only move in a limited space, which made the rushing white lion see the opportunity, and the blood roar in his hand swept towards Droman’s neck. Once he was swept away, Droman would die. undoubtedly.

But at this moment, the white lion felt a strange feeling behind him, and he hurriedly turned around and swept it with an axe.

“when”

The crisp sound of gold and iron clashing made Bai Shi's ears hurt, his arms were sore and numb, and he almost couldn't hold the axe in his hand, and the demon blood orc who appeared on the opposite side was also stunned. Roman's brother, called Kazan, is also a strong monarch.

"Human, **** you~!" Kazan's face showed a furious look, because a gap appeared in the long knife in his hand, and in the shadow of the knife, he stabbed straight towards the white lion.

How can the white lion's martial arts be comparable to these people, so the white lion is sure that the opponent's attack is not his vital point, and the battle axe in his hand is facing the opponent's head.

If the opponent stabs him in the body, the battle axe will also split the opponent in half. Kazan has seen the power of the axe and knows that his head can't stop the damage of the axe, so he quickly returned to the knife to block.

At this point, the white lion can be considered to have found the place where the opponent fears, and cut towards Kazan in a life-for-life method, but he underestimated Kazan's strength and wisdom. The next second, Kazan's body shook, and there was no Fighting head-on with the White Lion, he charged towards Droman behind him.

Where did the white lion dare to let Kazan save Droman, he hurriedly flew over to block it, which was in the middle of Kazan's plan, and in an instant, Kazan came to the white lion, grabbed the white lion's arm with one hand, and he grinned. He said, "Human, you are too weak."

As soon as the words fell, the white lion's arm was smashed by Kazan, followed by Kazan's kick to break the white lion's bone joints. In the face of absolute martial skills and strength, the white lion's blocking was like a joke, but human beings Not fighting alone, they have brothers and comrades!

"Holy Light Technique~!"

At a distance of 200 meters, Zhuojiu chanted a spell, and a holy light flew out from his body and landed on the body of the white lion, and the broken arms and calves quickly recovered as before.

The white lion quickly stood up, swept the axe in his hand, and forced Kaman to retreat 10 meters away. This surprised Kazan, he glanced at the turbid wine, and then at the white lion, and said sarcastically: "Since you want to If you feel this pain all the time, then I'll let you taste it."

Kazan rushed towards the white lion as if he was teasing cats and dogs, but whenever he wanted to make contact, he would dodge and rush towards Droman, and the forced white lion showed his flaws.

"Pfft~!"

The belly of the white lion was stabbed in the opposite direction. In the next second, Kazan slashed down with a long knife, cutting the white lion's body into two sections, with only a small part of it still connected.

"How does the pain feel?" Kazan was very happy with his masterpiece.

"That's it." The cold sweat fell from Bai Shi's forehead, but he gritted his teeth and didn't cry out in pain.

"Holy Light"

A holy light fell, and the body of the white lion was restored to its original state. Kazan was not in a hurry. He continued to slash at the white lion. On the other side, Zhuojia was also in trouble. in front of.

Chapter 2425: What is a hero

"Blood Slash"

The two blood-red air blades smashed the turbid wine and the body-protecting holy light at the same time, and smashed his body into opposite directions, but at the same time as his body was shattered, the holy light surged in his body, repairing his body as before. , this is the Holy Light version of immortality.

With the protection of the ancient Holy Spirit, when the turbid wine reaches the monarch rank, the strength is far beyond the ordinary monarch rank, but he is facing the monarch rank of the **** race, and even Malthus has to take action in person to protect it. Turbid liquor.

“How long will it take?” Zhuojiu asked loudly. He saw that countless sea turtles were less than 10 meters away from the shore, and a large number of demon blood orcs were ready to fight. preparation.

If they were allowed to rush to the shore so easily, they would not be able to stop their attack. On average, they were all king-level powerhouses, and most of the Beast-Blood Warriors and Holy Light Knights on the Jagged Brotherhood were still Demon-level, if there is no control of wood-type mages, this war cannot be won at all.

“Three minutes, it still takes three minutes.” He became upset and was leading the wood-type mages to cast spells. He was very anxious, but the wood-type mages were not prepared, and the skills released could not control them at all.

There was a solemn look in Zhuojiu’s eyes, and he didn’t look back, but shouted loudly: “Brothers, are you ready?”

“It’s ready.” The eight thousand warriors of the Beast Blood Warrior Legion and the Holy Light Knights shouted with pride. They knew that it was time for them to die, but there was not a trace on their faces. Fear, but full of perseverance and heroism.

“Whenever human beings are in danger, it is when we stand up. Brothers, if you have me for a second, you will not die. Listen to my order, and all of you will charge for the wood mages and the follow-up legions. Come, fight for these three minutes.” The holy light surged wildly all over Zhuojiu’s body, and said loudly to everyone.

With pride, he looked back at the eight thousand brothers behind him, and shouted loudly: “Attack with me, kill~!!!”

“Kill~!” The 8,000 people looked like they were crazy, and raised their crude weapons with only Tier 3 in their hands, and attacked the demon blood beasts who had jumped off the back of the giant tortoise by the sea.

The powerhouses of the Demon Blood Orcs were surprised. Looking at this group of humble races with only Tier 3, they did not understand why they dared to take the initiative to attack them with this little strength.

“You dare to attack us just because of you?” A monarch-level demon-blood orc powerhouse standing in front of Zhuojiu was full of contempt. He continued to attack Zhuojiu while laughing and said: “Destroy them, Kill all humans.”

“One legion is enough!” A monarch-level powerhouse in the back did not let all 50,000 people attack, but ordered the first group of 5,000 soldiers who jumped off the back of the giant tortoise, and waited for the pride People charge.

“Roar~! Ha~!”

The demon-blooded orcs powerhouses at the peak of the 5,000 lord rank and the early king rank rushed up to meet the pride, Wan Zong and others. As soon as the two sides came into contact, the judgment was made.

A lord-level peak like Pride, Facing the Demon Blood Orcs who are also at the peak of the lord-level, he couldn't even hold it for a round. The moment the two sides exchanged weapons, his weapon was thrown out.

“I'll fight with you.” Qianqing Wanzong expected this scene, pulled out the dagger from his waist, and suddenly got close, and stabbed the demon-blood orc's skin.

“puff”

The dagger only penetrated less than 1 centimeter and was blocked from the muscles. The body of the demon blood orcs was not afraid of this level of attack.

“Poor waste.” The warrior of the Demon Blood Orc race smirked, and slashed out with a backhand, and his proud arm was cut off to the ground.

“Ah~!”

The prideful screamed in pain, but without any hesitation, he picked up his arm and connected it to the break. At the same time, a holy light fell from the sky, perfectly connecting the proud body.

This is made by the turbid wine, but it is not aimed at one person who is full of pride, but all his own members. When the turbid wine releases the holy light with all its strength, every 5 seconds, there will be a holy light falling on the pride. Indulge them and ensure their safety.

The two monarch-level powerhouses of the Demon Blood Orcs originally wanted to watch the scene of their subordinates slaughtering human beings. The battle just now was true. It was like the scene of arrogance and slaughter that could be seen every second, but when the holy light fell At the time, all the human beings were intact, which made them a little uncomfortable.

Carlos, the third elder of the Demon Blood Orc Elders Association, stared at the turbid wine and said: “I admire your behavior, but you are still using the Holy Light like this while fighting the two of us. How long can you support it? I’m afraid it won’t work. I’ll be exhausted and die in half a day.”

Zhuojiu looked at Carlos with a sneer, and said: “For the sake of the race, our ancestors have gone forward one after another, never had the idea of cherishing their bodies, you think that humans are ants, and today I will show you how powerful humans are, even if they are If you want to kill us all, we will also drag you to death.”

“Then give it a try.” Carlos was provoked and slashed towards the maiden wine.

There is no good weapon in Zhuojiu’s hand, so he can only fight against Carlos and another monarch-level sword with the Holy Light Condensation Sword. Every time he fights, the Holy Light Sword will be smashed into pieces, which also causes Zhuojiu to be very passive. .

The war on the side of Pride is even fiercer, their bodies are being chopped to pieces every second, and after five seconds, they will be restored by the Holy Light.

The feeling of being in constant pain but not dying is more uncomfortable than killing them with one knife, but the only benefit is that the 45,000 demon blood orc warriors in the distance did not attack, but quickly assembled the team. And watching the one-sided massacre in front of them, they even bet on how long it would take for an orc to completely hack a human, or how long a human could endure this torture-like torture.

“Up to 1 minute.”

“I bet 3 minutes, and the strongest of our clan has not exceeded this time.”

“I’d rather die than be tortured like this, it’s so sad.”

“These lowly poor **** were tortured so badly.”

...

In the laughter of the many demon blood orcs, the time passed by one minute and one second.

One minute

three minutes

When the time finally reached five minutes, blood and tears had flowed out of his troubled eyes, and he shouted loudly: “Brothers, prepare to retreat.”

Turbid wine roared: “Release the spell immediately.”

“Yes.” He became upset and wished that it was him who was in front of the battle at this moment. He cried and shouted: “Brothers, I’m sorry for you, the enchantment of thousands of trees, kill~!”

“Kill~!”

Two thousand king-level wood-type archmages chanted and chanted incantations at the same time. In an instant, within a radius of several kilometers, including the beach, the sea, and the grass on the shore, countless towering sky madly grew out. big tree.

When these trees grew, they stretched out countless vines, thorns, and highly poisonous flowers, indiscriminately attacking the turbid wine and the arrogant, and there were even more demon blood orcs. of the strong.

“Just these flowers and plants want to restrict us?” Carlos stabbed through the body of the turbid wine with a sword, and at the same time he pulled it out, he cut off the vines and thorns growing under his feet.

Turbid wine escaped, and after his body recovered quickly, he looked at Carlos and said with a sneer, “Then you have to try to find out.”

“Guck~!”

A sound of something breaking sounded. Carlos heard the sound, and his eyes showed an unbelievable look. He looked back quickly and saw a huge purple-red flower cracked, and the white liquid inside was flowing out.

Carlos was careless, his body was splashed with liquid, and his body-protecting aura gushed wildly to block the liquid, but the white liquid seemed to be strong acid and plastic. Dou Qi didn't have much effect, and he was so frightened that he hurriedly jumped out of the flower area.

“Spirit Devouring Flower”

Carlos's shocked eyes crossed the turbid wine, and looked at the people who became annoyed and others in the distance, who had all turned into ancient trees. He finally understood what the turbid wine and the others were doing just now, and said incredulously: “Five The wood-type archmage of the rank can also release the poisonous spirit-devouring flower, this is the unique ability of the three-eyed magic flower, how can you have it?”

Zhuojiu's eyes were already blood red. The poison released by this spirit-devouring poisonous flower was too terrifying. The 8,000 brothers who were on the main battlefield could not escape from the shackles of the vines. The few people were submerged in the venom, the body was melted and there were no bones, and his holy light was no longer alive.

This order was given by him, which means that the lives of the brothers were ruined by him, and the turbid wine has fallen into deep self-blame. The only thing he can do now is to release the holy light desperately and save the people as much as possible. The brothers in the battlefield look forward to them being able to cut off the guard's vines as soon as possible and withdraw from the battlefield.

The powerhouses of the Demon Blood Orcs are not so lucky. Without the protection of the Holy Light Anyone who is sprayed by the liquid of the poisonous flower will quickly corrode their bodies, and they will not be sprayed. Even if he avoided the venom, he was still entangled by the vines.

These fifth-order wood-based mages who absorbed the three-eyed magic flower, the spells released by two thousand people combined, although not as good as the nine complete three-eyed magic flowers, but they dealt with the same king rank and lower lord rank. Demon blood orc warriors, there is still no problem.

In particular, Kazan, who was attacking the white lion, and Droman, the demon-blooded orc clan chief who was trapped in the vine net of the undead corpse, were completely restrained by the vines. They could temporarily avoid the venom, but they could not completely. to break free from the control of the vines.

“Brothers, we’re here~!” The Hell King in the distance roared and rushed over at full speed with tens of thousands of shooters and mages riding on fire lions.

They were scattered in the mountains and forests that stretched for hundreds of kilometers on both sides of the Shekou defensive position. The enemy suddenly changed their route, and their defensive position became useless.

Chapter 2426: Kill the powerful monarch

The confidence of all the warriors of the Jagged Brothers Alliance, including Zhuojiu and Baishi, was greatly increased, and the reinforcements finally arrived, and the war finally had hope of victory.

“Spirit Devouring Poison Flower~!”

He became annoyed and yelled, and a large number of poisonous spirit-devouring flowers grew within a kilometer of the surrounding area.

When the archers such as the Suppressing Pluto were still two hundred meters away from becoming upset, they jumped forward with the help of the back of the mount, and landed on the side of the upset.

As soon as he landed, after he rolled forward and unloaded the force, he pulled out the bow and arrow behind him, smeared the poison in the poisonous flower, aimed at Carlos beside Zhuojiu and shot it with an arrow.

The harsh sound of breaking the air sounded. Carlos, who was five hundred meters away, did not expect that there would be a human being able to shoot such a powerful bow and arrow at such a long distance. One did not pay attention, and the neck was shot by the bow and arrow of the King of Hell. middle.

Although the arrow made after the melting of the third-order star-shattering blade could not kill Carlos, the liquid of the poisonous poisonous flower was all over it, causing the body protection magic of Carlos’ neck to disappear. Before he could react, the town The second arrow of the Underworld King followed the first arrow, and hit the same place precisely.

“puff”

Carlos' neck was almost pierced, and the aorta and trachea were all smashed, causing his breathing to become unsmooth. It was impossible to attack again, and he quickly retreated while holding his neck.

How could Zhuojiu miss such an opportunity, he rushed towards Carlos desperately, and the monarch-level demon-blood beast powerhouse Burrows quickly blocked the attack of Zhuojiu, but in the next second, his neck was also attacked. When it came to the second shot of the bow and arrow, fortunately, he paid attention to the surrounding situation. The shield on his arm blocked the bow and arrow, but his chest was successively shot by four bows and arrows.

Sun Yu and Han Yu stood side by side with bows and arrows. In the early years, Sun Yu was the number one archery master under Lu Yang, but when he entered a different world, Sun Yu couldn't adapt for a while, but now, he finally overcomes his inner demons and returns to life again. to the battlefield.

Bros looked at his chest in shock, the blood in his heart spurted more than ten meters away, and he felt the power in his body was rapidly losing.

“Death to me~!” Zhuojiu swept his sword and chopped off Bros' head. He stared at Carlos and said coldly, “Now it's your turn.”

Carlos's eyes were full of terror. The vines under his feet had grown out, restraining his body, and his neck was severely injured. He couldn't even exert half of his usual strength.

Not only him, but also the battlefield in the distance. The 45,000 demon blood orc warriors on the beach are being entangled by countless vines. No matter how they swing the long swords in their hands, even if they release the cold sword energy, they will chop the vines down. Broken, but the vines still grow wildly from the beach and the sea.

Soul-devouring poisonous flowers also kept appearing beside them. Once they were controlled, they would be watered by the poisonous soul-devouring flower, and not even ashes would remain.

What really made Carlos unbelievable was the 8,000 blood orc warriors and holy light warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood. These people were also attacked by poison and vines, but they seemed to be sent to death on their own initiative, letting the vines attack. Wearing their bodies, the venom devoured them, but not a single human cursed the turbid wine.

“You, your race, how can you be willing to die for others? It’s impossible. This is something that only the Void Zerg without self-awareness can do.” Carlos roared.

Another golden light flew out of Zhuojiu’s body to rescue the brothers in the vines. His body was already very weak, but he still rushed towards Carlos, and stabbed and collided with Carlos’s long sword. , said: “You have offended a race that should never be offended, and opened the door to sin in the true sense. When we continue to become stronger and capable of attacking other worlds, you will all pay the price for this.”

“Delusion~!” Carlos yelled, he wanted to kill the mud wine, but his body became weaker and weaker because he couldn’t breathe, and the blood vessels were constantly spewing blood, and he continued to block several attacks by the mud wine. After he cut off the vines under his feet, he knew that he couldn’t do it anymore, glared at the turbid wine and said, “You beat us just because you just restrained us, wait, the gods will continue to send more gods to attack you. , sooner or later you will all be killed by the gods~!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the turbid wine pierced Carlos’ heart with a sword, and then he was so weak that he could only use the sword to support him from falling, fighting with two monarchs at the same time, his body was almost exhausted, and what was even worse was that he His magic power can no longer be continued, and the Holy Light can be released, all relying on the ancient Holy Spirit Malthus.

“Death to me~!”

A short spear suddenly flew over in the distance, passed through countless vines, hit the belly of Zhuojiu, and smashed his whole body into two sections, followed by two powerful monarchs jumping over.

Just like the Tallinn Ghost Mist Race, there are also a lot of monarch-level powerhouses from the Demon Blood Orcs. There are eight in total. They were panicked by the attack of the poisonous flower just now, and they still need to protect their soldiers from being killed. Plus To the effect, only let Zhuojiu kill two powerful monarchs in a row, which made the remaining four monarchs very angry, two of them went straight to Zhuojiu and rushed over, the other two rushed to the shooter group and The location of the wood-based mage group.

Under the protection of the Holy Light, Zhuojiu's body recovered quickly, but before he could stand up, his heart was pierced by a sword, and a strong man of the demon blood orc race twisted his long sword with a grin, staring at Zhuojiu. Jiu's face said: "I'd like to see how long you **** reptile can last."

The severe pain of being pierced through the heart is simply not something that ordinary people can endure, but is turbid wine ordinary people? He gritted his teeth and said nothing, at the same time, he released the holy light from behind, stood up with his entire upper body, grabbed the monarch-level powerhouse with both hands, and roared: "Get upset, what are you waiting for, release Spirit Devouring Poison Flower."

"Boss turbid wine." How dare you let it go when you become upset.

"Let's go~!" Zhuojiu roared, his eyes were full of determination, at this moment, the demon blood orcs who attacked him showed a terrified expression hurriedly drew out his long sword Backwards more than 30 meters.

But as soon as he landed, Zhuojiu fell to the ground again, which made the demon blood orcs feel humiliated and roared, "If you dare to trample on my honor, I will kill you."

"Hey, you don't have a chance." Zhuojiu showed a smile on the face of the enemy, because, behind this monarch-level powerhouse, in the sky not far away, there was a white light rushing out, that was Lu Yang's unique light, he knew that this war was won!

"Mr. Malthus, don't stop releasing the Holy Light, protect my brother." Mizuki left the last sentence and passed out.

Malthus sighed and said: "Of course I will do this, loyalty, courage, responsibility, you are worthy of my Malthus paying all my strength, Holy Light, come on~!"

The violent Holy Light poured out from the body of the turbid wine, allowing the Holy Light Knight and the Divine Blood Orc warrior who were still struggling in the vines to retain the hope of staying alive.

Chapter 2427: The terrifying power of Chaos Demon Flame

“A strong monarch wants to protect the weak before he dies, you are absolutely stupid, stupid, the weak are only the shield and servant of the strong, how can the master die for the servant, you tarnished the title of the strong.” The monarch-level powerhouse of the demon-blood orcs was completely unable to understand the behavior of turbid wine, but he felt a great touch in his heart, it was a loosening of belief, so that the demon-blood orc made the The strong man of the clan fell into a state of madness.

“I’m going to kill you, you stupid loser.” The powerhouse of the Demon Blood Orcs stabbed straight at Zhuojiu with a sword, but he was still a little bit helpless when he faced Zhuojiu.

“Dimos, what are you doing, you haven’t killed him yet.” Mo’er, the monarch-level powerhouse who rushed into the wood-based mage group, roared furiously. He had already seen that the turbid wine was the commander of this group of people. Only by killing the turbid liquor can the rebellion be quickly quelled.

Timothy stared at the turbid wine under his feet and raised the long sword in his hand, but just as he was about to cut off the turbid wine’s head, a suppressed and angry voice came from behind him.

“Your hesitation allows you to live longer.” Lu Yang was already standing behind Timothy, the space in Bandarsburg opened, and a gray flame rope bound him.

“Roar~!”

Demos roared furiously, desperately trying to struggle out, but as long as he exerted a little force, the chaotic flames would burn through his protective magic, cutting into his skin like a steel wire, down to the bones.

“Ah~!”

Timothy's roar had turned into a scream of pain, and at the moment when he lost his mind, his body was pulled into Bandarsburg by the chaotic flames, and stood under the scorching sun with the monarch of the Tallinn Ghost Mist tribe. Baked.

Lu Yan leaned down to look at Zhuojiu and asked, "How's it going?"

Malthus flew out of Lu Yang's body and said, "He will be fine with me, he's just overworked."

Lu Yan took out a cup of nine-color sap from the Demon Temple and poured it into the mouth of the turbid wine. This is the sap boiled from the bark of the Nine-Dragon Blood Tree. It can quickly repair injured body tissues, and can be given to those who are dying. save.

As soon as he took a sip of the turbid wine, nine colors of light appeared from his body, and he slowly opened his eyes. He subconsciously wanted to stand up and look around. When he found Lu Yang in front of him, he breathed a sigh of relief and said with a wry smile. : "Boss has made you worry again."

Lu Yang patted him on the shoulder with a smile and said, "Good job, you have bought enough time, the war on the elves side has been won, let's kill the enemy here together."

"Our war is difficult, and there is still an enemy that has not come out. Yuwei and Tianming suspect that these enemies have gone to the main city of the East China Sea. We are divided into two groups, and they are still looking for the position of the Void Ghost Race." Zhuojiu said weakly. .

"Don't worry, you recover first, the war here is handed over to me, and we will find the last batch of enemies together." Lu Yang stood up and looked around.

The white lion is still fighting. With the help of Blood Roar and the surrounding wood spells, he can still support him. The place where the crisis occurs is the area of the wood magician group. The powerful monarch who rushed in is frantically killing wood magicians. .

Fortunately, they became upset that all 2,000 wood-type mages had reached the king rank and turned into treemen. It was very difficult to kill them, especially the pure-physics mages who had the ability to regenerate the wood-type, almost It can't be killed, but this also affects the casting speed of the wood-based mages, causing the regeneration ability of the ten thousand tree enchantment in the front battlefield to slow down.

“Fire Soul Slash + Chaos Demon Flame”

Lu Yang’s body suddenly turned purple-gray, and a human-shaped purple-gray light shot out from his body like a sharp blade, and came to Moore’s back in the blink of an eye.

Mo Er was disturbed by countless vines, and was attacking frantically. As soon as he felt the attack from behind, Fire Soul Slash had already come behind him, and it was too late to escape.

“Who dares to attack me.” Moer roared furiously, turned around and put the long knife across his chest to block the attack, but the flame passed through the blade and hit Moir’s body in the next second.

“Ah~!”

Mor let out a crazy howl, and the terrifying chaotic demon flames directly burned Mor’s body into flying ashes. Mor didn’t even have the ability to resist, so he died on the ground, along with his sword. melted into a liquid state.

Becoming annoyed, he got out of Mo Er’s side, still in the form of a tree man, looking at Mo Er’s appearance, he said to Lu Yang in shock: “Boss, your flame is so strong, monarchy, you will die in one bite. what.”

Lu Yang was not too shocked, and said, “Keep the output and see the boss burn all the enemies to death.”

This is the chaotic demon flame. The flames produced by the ancient beasts accompanied by the formation of different worlds are the products of natural growth. They can kill even the demigod-level Void Mother Insect, not to mention the monarch-level pure physics department.

The demon blood orcs are pure physics. Facing such flames, they are completely restrained. They are not even as good as the Tallinn Ghost Mist. At least when the Tallinn Ghost Mist dies, the mist sprayed can protect other clansmen. There was such a short moment that he was not killed by the Chaos Demon Flame, but the pure physical demon blood orcs died without any resistance.

“The boss is mighty~!” He became annoyed and shouted excitedly while casting spells.

This scream of killing was instantly heard by the white lions on the battlefield ahead and the soldiers in the ten thousand tree barrier, and they all looked back. When they saw Lu Yang, their faces showed the light of victory.

“The boss is here, we won.”

“Brothers follow me to attack and buy time for the boss.”

...

Roaring with pride, leading the remaining warriors to fight the enemy desperately, this made the blood demon orc warriors in the ten thousand tree enchantment feel that human beings are crazy.

While waving a blood roar to fight the enemy, the white lion roared: “Boss, don’t worry about my side, go save the brothers first, I can survive.”

“Hold on.” Lu Yang also knows that now is not the best time to rescue the white lion ~ The eight thousand brothers are less than half alive in the ten thousand tree enchantment. He must find a way to save the rest. rescued, but only after killing the other two monarchs of the enemy.

Lu Yang jumped to the top of the ten thousand tree barrier, he quickly found the enemy’s two monarchs in the team, jumped, rushed towards them, and shouted at the same time: “Become Annoyed, entangle the two of them with me and don’t let them move.”

Although the attack speed of Fire Soul Slash is very fast, the movement speed and reaction speed of the pure physics system are very fast, and they must be entangled first to ensure that they cannot move before they can hit with one hit.

“Yes.”

He became upset and closed his eyes. His consciousness was connected to the ten thousand tree barrier in front of him. One-tenth of the magic power turned into vines to attack the two monarch-level powerhouses. In an instant, the two monarch-level powerhouses were entangled by the vines. Can only operate within a limited range.

Chapter 2428: Grief Blade

“Fire Soul Slash”

Lu Yang saw the opportunity and shot out a violent black-gray light in the sky, but just after his light was cut out, the two monarch-level powerhouses below suddenly disappeared in place, and in the next second, Lu Yang felt a terrifying sound behind him. breath.

“Death to me~!”

The two monarch-level powerhouses of the Demon Blood Orcs jumped into the air behind Lu Yang, and at the same time slashed down with their swords. The violent sword energy destroyed Lu Yang’s body into countless pieces, and grinned on their faces. At that time, the chopped body suddenly swelled wildly.

“Boom~!”

A mushroom cloud formed in the air, and the terrifying high temperature even blew all the demon blood orc warriors within a hundred meters to ashes.

The two monarch-level powerhouses at the center point were even more injured by the explosion, and they flew out a few hundred meters and slammed into the rock.

However, when the two stood up from the stone, their bodies were recovering quickly, and the scars on their bodies soon disappeared.

“A human being can learn the immortality and immortality of the flame race.” The taller monarch looked at Lu Yang with a frown.

The short monarch also stared at Lu Yang and said, “To release immortality and immortality, you need a place with flames. He resurrected out of thin air, proving that this human being has the ability similar to space. It seems that you and I have done our best.”

The tall monarch-level powerhouse pulled out the long sword that had never been used from his back. In an instant, a strange purple-black light shone in the audience. He stared at Lu Yang and said, “Originally, this weapon was used to kill the patriarch of the Void Ghost Clan. You should feel honored that it will be used on you.”

Lu Yang said to the Blazing Demon God, “What kind of weapon is this, is it special?”

The Blazing Demon God frowned and said: “The weapon of the lower **** level is called the Blade of Sorrow. Be careful. This weapon is designed to cut mental power. If you are hit by their weapons again, you will lose a lot of mental power.”

Lu Yang couldn't help frowning. What bothered him the most was the situation in front of him. As a mage, he needed to face off against the warriors, or 1v2. Just when he couldn't help frowning, his spiritual sense moved and he felt it. A bit different.

The three-eyed magic flower hidden in his chest actually woke up and was promoted to the monarch rank. He respectfully said to Lu Yang, “Master, I can join the battle.”

A smile appeared on the corner of Lu Yang's mouth, and he asked in his mind, "What new abilities do you have?"

The three-eyed magic flower said: "God wood shield, the shield I made, the physical attack of the monarch is invalid to me, and the lower **** weapon can block an attack."

Lu Yang said with a smile, "Enough is enough, get ready to protect me."

"Yes." The three-eyed magic flower was very excited.

Lu Yang jumped up and took the initiative to fly towards the tall monarch-level powerhouse holding the blade of grief. The other party did not expect that Lu Yang would dare to take the initiative to attack him. down.

"Blood Slash"

A ray of blood shot out from the blade and was about to hit Lu Yang's body when suddenly, a green wooden shield appeared in front of Lu Yang. With a shallow trace, the tall monarch-level powerhouse was frightened and quickly exerted his strength, spinning his body and flying to the shield in front of him with a knife in the middle.

"boom"

The wooden shield was smashed to pieces, but at the same time, Lu Yang was already in front of him in the gap between his attacks. Chaos demon flames appeared in his hands, and instantly burned the arms of his tall monarch-rank powerhouse into flying ashes. , Before waiting for the other party to shout, Lu Yang caught the weapon with his left hand and stabbed the short monarch-level powerhouse beside him with a sword.

"when"

The short monarch-level powerhouse didn't expect Lu Yang to have such a shield. He thought that Lu Yang would definitely die, but he didn't expect the tide of the battle to turn around. Facing Lu Yang's attack, he hurriedly waved his sword to block, reluctantly During the attack, Lu Yang would give him such a chance, and the three-eyed magic flower shot out multiple shackle-like divine wooden shields, trapping his body tightly.

Lu Yang released the chaotic demon flame and pulled the short monarch-level powerhouse into Bandarsburg. At this point, only the tall man beside him was left among the monarch-level powerhouses of the Demon Blood Orcs on the battlefield. , still missing half an arm.

“You haven’t surrendered yet?” Lu Yang said, staring at the other side.

“We will never surrender.” The tall, monarch-level powerhouse roared in rage, enduring the severe pain, and rammed towards Lu Yang like this.

Knowing that the other party was unwilling, Lu Yang had a sneer on his face, flames erupted from his body, and countless purple-black flames entangled the monarch-level powerhouse.

Lu Yang grew wings behind him, and he flew into the air like this, the third eye on his forehead opened, he aimed at the demon blood orcs powerhouse in the ten thousand tree barrier, and said loudly in Elvish language: “The surrenderer Don’t kill, otherwise, kill it!”

There are 50,000 king-rank and lord-rank powerhouses of the god-blood orcs. At this time, there are more than 30,000 people left. Looking at Lu Yang, who holds the blade of grief above his head and grabs the tall monarch-rank powerhouse, their faces Showed a terrified look.

“How, how could our patriarch be caught.”

“That is our artifact, why is it in the hands of humans.”

“Could it be that we failed?”

The powerhouses of the Demon Blood Orcs are confused, but they can't accept that they can put down their weapons. As a higher race, how could they surrender to humans?

“Since you don't surrender, then you'll all die~!” Lu Yang's face was full of icy coldness, and the third eye on his forehead condensed energy frantically. In the next second, the eye of the demon madly shot out a white laser, all of which were captured by Wanshu. The demon blood orcs who were bound by the enchantment were pierced through their brains and died on the spot!

Huo Tau said in Lu Yang's consciousness: “Boss, if you can capture it alive, the shaman in the Demon Temple said that he has the ability to strip the blood of these demon blood orcs and use it on humans.”

“Okay.” Lu Yang changed his style of play, the light from the Demon God's Eye only attacked the shoulders and abdomen of the Demon Blood Orc warrior.

Without the interference of the monarchs, the spells cast by the 2,000 wood-type mages who became upset became more and more powerful. Sun Yu, Hades, and the others brought the archer army closer. com shoot with a bow and arrow.

After half a day, there were less than 1,000 demon-blooded orcs who could still move on the battlefield, and it didn't take long for them all to be captured.

Lu Yang looked at the battlefield. The only ones still at war were the white lion and the corpse. Under the treatment of Zhuojiu's crazy holy light energy, after countless deaths, the white lion actually realized his combat skills in a desperate situation.

The powerhouse of the Demon Blood Orcs is full of regrets now. He can't force the white lion back, nor kill him, let alone save the monarch who was controlled by the corpse.

“Don’t try to run, I will kill you today.” The white lion’s face was full of excitement. The pain of death so many times in the past was worth it for the current combat skills. He was like a brown candy. Sticking to the opponent to death, the axe slashed again and again frantically, and the sharpness of the Gorehowl cut the opponent’s long sword full of gaps.

Chapter 2429: 10 does not exist 1

A crisp clash sounded, and under the continuous frantic attacks of the white lion, Blood Roar cut off the long sword in the opponent’s hand from the middle.

Just when the opponent wanted to retreat, the tip of the Gorehowl battle axe pierced his chest with a long bloodstain that could be seen deep into the bone.

“Ah~!”

The monarch-level powerhouse of the Demon Blood Orcs suddenly roared and turned to run away, but just as he jumped up, a purple-gray light emerged from Lu Yang’s hand, holding him firmly in the air, saying: “ Don’t kill him, I will use his blood to replace some bloodlines for the brothers.”

The white lion turned around and put away the battle axe, knelt directly on the ground, looked at Lu Yang and Zhuojiu who came over with a smile, and said, “Boss, I won.”

Lu Yang smiled and handed him a glass of juice from the Nine Dragons Blood Tree. He came to the demon-blooded beastman who was under the control of De Buchan’s corpse. He took out the blade of grief and stabbed him in the chest. Without the ability, he fell directly to the ground.

De Bu taste the corpse back to human form, half-kneeling beside Lu Yang, panted and said excitedly: "Boss, I actually restrained a strong monarch, I am too powerful."

Lu Yang laughed and said, "You are using the magic core of the lower god's three-eyed magic flower. Although it is only fifth-order, it is not comparable to the general elite of the **** race."

The Three-Eyed Demon Flower is a soldier directly under the wood-type God King, and it is also the main infantry on the battlefield of the battle of the gods. Although the Three-Eyed Demon Flower is not too strong in front of the gods, in front of the warriors below the God, the Three-Eyed Demon Flower is the true God.

In particular, the enemies of the battle are the non-elite warriors of the gods. According to the knowledge of the Blazing Demon God, the monarch is their normalized combat power in each god. There are thousands of monarchs in a god. Not surprisingly, they can survive for tens of thousands of years. Under the protection of the gods, it is a very simple matter to develop thousands of monarchs, but the enemy only sent two **** races this time. Ten monarchs, showing the extent of contempt for human beings.

"Check the battle damage." Lu Yang gave the order. He looked at the brothers who were besieged by the Wanshu Barrier in the distance, with a sad look on his face. Even he dared to think about how badly the brothers were killed and injured. .

The joy on the faces of Zhuojiu, Baishi, Debuchengzhe and others disappeared instantly, and when they looked at the gradually disappearing forest in the distance, they all burst into tears, and ran over there quickly.

Lu Yang also flew over. After all the forests had disappeared, there were not one out of ten soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood who could still stand.

There were a total of 8,000 people. After the final count, only 800 people were still alive, and the remaining 7,000 people were all killed.

Pride lost his legs, he grabbed Lu Yang's hand and cried, "Boss, brothers are not cowards, they all died standing up."

Lu Yang's tears couldn't stop, he stared at the pride and said, "Brothers are all good."

"Hey, don't save us, we are all disabled, leave the resources to other brothers." The pride is very open-minded.

"What are you talking about, I have to save you." The white lion had collapsed, grabbing his arms full of pride and roaring.

"I know that I'm dying. This kind of weakness that comes from the blood can't be saved even with the Holy Light. Don't be sad, there's only so much I can do, it's up to you guys in the future. ' said proudly with a smile.

"Hey~!" The white lion punched the sand, and the tears couldn't stop.

Malthus flew out of Zhuojiu's body, shook his head and said: "These people can't be saved, the blood of the beast gods they originally had is very thin, and they suffered such heavy damage, unless they have the blood of ancient beasts. Otherwise, you will not be able to survive."

Lu Yang was shocked and said, "I have it, I have the blood of the ancient beasts."

He quickly took out the blood of the Ghost Face Roar in the Demon Temple and said to Malthus, "Is this kind of thing okay?"

"Blood of Ghost Face Roar? How did you get it?" Malthus's shocked body trembled.

Lu Yang said, "I got it by chance in the Emerald Forest. I still have a lot of this kind of stuff."

Malthus said excitedly: "Hurry up and drink it with pride, this thing can not only save his life, but also make his limbs grow back, and even cultivate with this blood essence, he can temporarily transform into a ghost face. The form of a roar."

Lu Yang didn't expect this thing to be so useful. He quickly took out the blood of Ghost Face Roar from the Demon Temple and gave it to everyone. There were eight hundred and one brothers in total. After one person took a sip, all of them miraculously survived. Even if the body is severely injured, it will recover as well as ever.

"No wonder they all want to hunt down the ancient beasts, they are really full of treasures." Lu Yang sighed.

"It's not right." Malthus suddenly looked at Lu Yang and said, "Don't rest here, go to the main city of the East China Sea, I feel the message from Holy Light's Wrath, there's a war over there, it's probably Void. The ghost clan was found by Zhou Tianming and the others, and the two sides fought."

The Holy Light's Wrath was originally held by Zhuojiu, but Zhou Tianming occupied the body of an extraterritorial demon to advance to the peak of the lord rank, and it was difficult to control his body, so Malthus asked Zhuojiu to lend the Holy Light's Wrath to Zhou Tianming. Used to suppress the uncontrolled dark power within him.

As long as there is any mutation in Holy Light's Wrath, Malthus can immediately feel that now, this weapon is shaking frantically, and the information is very bad.

"Transform~!"

Lu Yang jumped into the air and turned into a phoenix. He didn't care to explain any words to Zhuojiu and the others, and flew towards the East China Sea at full speed.

There are more than 10 million people in the East China Sea. If a large-scale sacrifice event really occurs, the East China Sea will be destroyed. . Even if it didn't happen, he was worried about whether Zhou Tianming, Xia Yuwei and Kuai Bansheng would be able to block the attack of the Void Ghost Race. After all, they didn't have the support of wood-type mages, and among the three subordinates, only Xia Yuwei's Void Warrior was strong. The strongest, the rest are ordinary third-order mages.

Virtue did not taste the corpse and became upset and other people could not take a rest, so he quickly summoned his mounts, borrowed all the flying mounts, and flew towards the East China Sea.

Ten minutes later.

Lu Yang came to the East China Sea first, and through the perception of the Blazing Demon God, he saw the Void Ghost Clan who were attacking frantically in the back mountain area only 200 meters away from the East China Sea Underground City, as well as the warriors of the Jagged Brothers who were fighting with all their strength.

Zhou Tianming has transformed into a 100-meter-high image of an extraterrestrial demon. With every step of his walk, countless red demons in the sky flew out from a red teleportation array and fell to the ground to devour the warriors of the Void Ghost Race. The Void Ghost Race is worthy of being a race of gods, and can actually avoid the devour of the red devil by virtue of the power of the void.

Chapter 2430: Lu Yang exploded

The three Void Ghost Race monarchs surrounded Zhou Tianming with hundreds of kings and lords, constantly attacking him with the short knives in their hands, and whenever an attack hit Zhou Tianming's body, will emit a black light, causing Zhou Tianming's injured area to become a black spot.

The situation of bitter love for half a lifetime is also very bad. He is besieged by the four monarch-level powerhouses of the Void Ghost Race. If he hadn't had the Sword Spirit, he would have fought against these four Void Ghost Race powerhouses with his sword. killed.

Xia Yuwei was also attacked by two powerful monarchs of the Void Ghost Race. Fortunately, Xia Yuwei and her sister group have been practicing with the demon core of the Void Mother Insect, so their battle is actually the strongest, but There are also the most lords and kings of the Void Ghost Race besieging them. There are only 3,000 people, but 30,000 people are besieging them.

The remaining 10,000 Void Ghosts were attacking the mage and warrior legions led by Hei Yan and Han Ying. In front of them, ordinary warriors were like children who were powerless to fight back. They didn't even know how they were killed. .

Of the 60,000 second- and third-order Jagged Brotherhood warrior legions, less than 40,000 people were killed. If it wasn't for the support of the magic of the mage regiment, they would have been killed long ago, but even so, None of the ordinary warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood retreated, standing firmly in their own position to buy time for their teammates.

“Brothers hold on, our reinforcements are coming soon.”

“Behind is the homeland, fight to the death~!”

“Fight to the death~!”

“Roar~!”

A roar shouted out from the mouths of the ordinary warriors of the Jagged Brothers Alliance, and the terrifying power made the faces of the powerhouses of the Void Ghost Race show an angry look.

“Damn race, you must kill them all as soon as possible.” A monarch of the Void Ghost Race flew into the sky, and a black mist suddenly surged up from his body. In the next second, countless ghosts flew out of the black mist, straight In the battle formation of the Jagged Brotherhood, in an instant, countless soldiers were pierced by their souls and died on the spot!

Lu Yang just saw this scene, and suddenly he entered the state of fire demon in a moment of rage, and rushed towards the black fog from high altitude.

“Chaos Sun Fist”

A purple-gray flame erupted from Lu Yang's hand, and he punched the core of the black mist. In the next second, a piercing scream broke out from the black mist.

“Ah~!”

The black mist released by the monarch-level powerhouses of the Void Ghost Race was dissipated by the smoke of the Chaos Lie Yang Punch. The move he used just now is called Soul Killing, which is the real name skill of their race. When it is released, it will weaken to the extreme. , but the power is huge and can cause damage to a wide range of enemies.

Normally, when the Void Ghost Race wants to release this move, they will ask other clansmen to help cover in advance, and then release it, but the monarch of the Void Ghost Race is too arrogant, thinking that humans have no means of attack that can threaten them, Released in mid-air without cover.

The key is that there are not a few enemies released in this way, there are as many as hundreds, but the others are Wangjie. Lu Yang killed the monarchjie with one punch. Looking back at the other black mists, the third one on his forehead One eye is open.

“Death to me~!” Lu Yang’s eyes spurted out countless purple-black rays of light. Every time he hit a cloud of black mist, the black mist was scattered, so that there were only a few dozen Void Ghost Race kings. The soul killing was completely released, and most of them were killed by Lu Yang’s laser halfway through the spell, but even so, less than 40,000 human legions were killed, and more than 3,000 people died.

“Roar~!” Lu Yang was completely furious, his body instantly turned into a 100-meter-high figure, and the purple-gray flames all over his body spurted wildly outwards. When he landed, he stepped on countless void ghosts on the body.

The warriors of the Void Ghost Race immediately released their hidden void skills. They thought they could avoid Lu Yang’s attack, but they didn’t know that the Chaos Demon Flame could burn through the void. Before he could react, he was burned to fly ash by the flames in the void.

“Death to me~!” Lu Yang aimed at the warrior group of the Void Ghost Race surrounding Zhou Tianming in the distance, and a mouthful of flames shot out from the void.

The monarch of the Void Ghost Race recognized the flame at a glance, but he still couldn’t believe it. At such a moment of hesitation, countless subordinates were hit by the flames of chaos.

Lu Yang used all his strength to shoot this time. Therefore, the temperature of the flame was above 10,000 degrees, and the chaotic demon flames that could burn the void. Anyone who was sprayed by the flames, even Wangjie, would die on the spot.

It's not that the Void Ghost Race is not strong, but that this race is not famous for its defense and magic defense in another world, but its ghostly assassination ability to hide in the void.

Their race can theoretically avoid any damage that cannot attack the void. Therefore, whether it is Zhou Tianming's demonic magic, or the sharp sword light that he has loved for half his life, or the attacks of Hei Yan and Han Ying's mage groups, they cannot Any harm done to them, but once it can do harm to them, it is almost a one-shot fatality.

"Who are you? How can there be chaotic demon flames?" The remaining nine lords of the Void Clan flew away from Zhou Tianming, Xia Yuwei and others, and all gathered around Lu Yang. They only used a height of two meters to levitate. In front of Lu Yang.

Only then did Zhou Tianming, Xia Yuwei and the others notice Lu Yang's arrival, and they all showed excited expressions, but they didn't dare to go over it now, the temperature around Lu Yang was too high, and the forests within a few kilometers were all because of Lu Yang. The body's high temperature ignited, even if it was within 100 meters of Lu Yang, the body would be burned to fly ash.

"Boss, be careful." Kuai Bansheng shouted loudly.

"The reinforcements will arrive soon, everyone hold on for another 20 minutes, and the war here will be handed over to me for the time being." Lu Yang shouted, his body continued to expand, and the Chaos Demon Flame dyed his entire body from silver to purple. grey.

At this time, even if Zhou Tianming was dressed in demon red, Lu Yang looked more like a demon than Lu Yang. The situation of destroying the sky and destroying the earth made more than 40,000 warriors of the Void Ghost Clan show fear.

Lu Yang stared at the nine monarch-level powerhouses in front of him, and said with a sneer, "None of you want to live today, just feel the flames from chaos."

“God’s Fire”

A black light suddenly appeared from Lu Yang’s 100-meter-high body, purple-gray light and shadow flew into the sky, with him as the center, within five kilometers around, a purple-gray flame rain fell at the same time.

This is not a special attack method, but a super-large-scale spell flame spell developed by Lu Yang himself.

“Void Light Curtain!” The nine monarch-level powerhouses of the Void Ghost Clan chanted a spell at the same time, raising their hands upwards.

With them as the center, a huge black disc appeared in the air, and most of the chaotic flames fell from the air and smashed on the black disc. Without holding on for 2 seconds, the black disc was beaten into a sieve. More flames fell from the sky, but it was the 2 seconds that were delayed, allowing countless lords and kings of the Void Ghost Race to launch spells to escape the attack range.

“Kill all the human warriors, don’t give him a second chance to release spells.” The monarch-level patriarch of the Void Ghost Clan growled.

“Roar~!”

More than 40,000 soldiers of the Void Ghost Race flew in the direction of the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood at the same time.

Chapter 2431: Broken Void Ghost

Once the warriors of the Void Ghost Race and the warriors of the Jagged Brotherhood are mixed together, Lu Yang's flame spells cannot be released. This is the plan of the Void Race.

The soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood saw through the other's strategy at a glance, and Hei Yan, the head of the Fire Mage Corps, roared: "Brothers, it's time for us to dedicate our lives, all the Fire Mage stepped forward and formed a flame shield to block their way. ."

More than 5,000 fire mages walked out of the team at the same time and came to the front of the army formation. Hei Yan, headed by him, shouted: "I'm the first one, from below me, the legion commander will step up in order, brothers, see you in the next life. "

"Roar~!"

Hei Yan's body suddenly erupted with blazing black flames, and he flew over to meet the tens of thousands of Void Ghosts who were rushing over in the distance. Halfway, countless Void Ghosts shot shadow arrows at him, but he didn't wait. These shadow arrows hit his body, and Hei Yan's body turned into a cloud of blood mist, and half of the sky was ignited by this flame.

Not only the Hastas have learned the self-destruction spell, but all the fire mages of the Jagged Brotherhood have also learned the self-destruction spell. Facing the gods, there is no luck at all.

"The second one is coming to me." Tang Cheng, the commander of the first legion of the Fire Mage Corps, jumped into the air, and a blood mist burst out from his body, but his flame was not released immediately, but was waiting for the Void Ghost. actions of the tribe.

"Mad, this group of **** humans are crazy, they are crazy." The powerhouses of the Void Ghost Race saw this scene, just like the mentality of the powerhouses of the Tallinn Ghost Clan and the Demon Blood Orcs, they couldn't understand, How can humans have the same dedication as the Void Zerg, but they also have the ability to think independently.

The Escape into the Void skill of the Void Ghost Race can not be activated at any time, and it also has a certain time limit. Seeing the human beings in such a self-explosive way to fight against the enemy in close combat, the Void Ghost Race does not dare to approach.

They came to slaughter human beings, not to perish with human beings. Therefore, all the Void Ghost Race warriors were divided into two teams and ran in the direction of the surrounding two sides, but when they came to both sides, the commander of the second army They blew themselves up at the same time as the commander of the third army, and the flames in the sky blocked their way.

Seeing that Hei Yan used suicide to protect his brothers, Lu Yang was helpless. He fell into a violent rage in an instant. He stared at the group leaders of the Void Ghost clan in the distance and said, "You all have to die, none of you will survive."

Unlike others, Hei Yan was one of the first to follow Lu Yang. Lu Yang always wanted to protect these brothers, but some of the first brothers who followed him started to die, which Lu Yang could not accept.

"Chaos Demon Flame"

Lu Yang rushed towards a monarch-level Void Ghost Race powerhouse, releasing Void Flames halfway through, blocking all his escape routes.

The remaining 8 Void Ghost Race monarchs wanted to step forward to help, but Zhou Tianming, Kuai Bansheng and Xia Yuwei flew into the air and launched their strongest attacks.

"Void Slash"

"Sword of Heaven"

"Soul Slash"

The blue, white, and purple spells attacked the 5 Void Ghost Race powerhouses endlessly, forcing these 8 people to keep dodging, causing the powerhouse attacked by Lu Yang to be completely unable to get the help of other powerhouses. , can only face this chaotic flame alone.

"If you want me to die, I'll kill you first." The strong man of the Void Ghost Race emitted a strong light and disappeared in place. In the next second, there were fluctuations in the void from Lu Yang's side.

The powerhouse of the ghost clan passed through out of thin air, and the dagger in his hand pierced Lu Yang's abdomen.

"Death to me~!" Lu Yang had already guarded against his hand, turned around and punched, and hit the shoulders of the Void Ghost Race powerhouse first, knocking half of his body flying out in the air. burnt to ashes.

"Ah~!" screamed.

Flames erupted from Lu Yang's body and caught the Void Ghost Race powerhouse into Bandarsburg. Then, Lu Yang rushed towards the other 8 Void Ghost Race powerhouses.

"Kill him together."

"Okay!"

The eight monarchs of the Void Ghost Clan also saw that they would not kill Lu Yang. They had no chance to leave alive. They launched the strongest spells to force Xia Yuwei and others back, and rushed towards Lu Yang together.

Lu Yang didn't frighten the eight of them in the slightest. Just when the distance between them was 10 meters, the flames in Lu Yang's body surged wildly.

"Pillar of Chaos Demon Flame"

Sixteen purple-gray chaotic flames suddenly flew out of Lu Yang's body, capturing the eight monarch-level powerhouses at the same time.

"Chaos Laser"

The third eye on Lu Yang's forehead opened, ejecting eight laser beams, hitting the foreheads of the eight monarchs at the same time, blasting their souls.

Just now, due to lack of physical strength, the strongman of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist tribe in Bandarsburg had fainted to the ground under the damage of the Chaos Demon Flame Pillar. Therefore, Lu Yang deliberately rushed towards these monarch-level Void Ghosts. , pretending to fight them hard.

Unexpectedly, he really deceived a few of them. Looking at the monarchs whose souls had been damaged, he opened Bandarsburg and caught them all.

It's not so easy for these people to die well. Since they killed so many of his brothers, let's go to the arena and kill each other to atone for their sins.

Lu Yang looked at the tens of thousands of Void Ghosts on the ground, and the magic in his body surged frantically again. After a few seconds, Lu Yang chanted a spell.

“God's Fire”

The purple-gray flames fell from the sky like rain, and nearly 40,000 Void Ghost Race powerhouses were all in the rain of fire. Suddenly, the sound of mourning resounded through the valley.

All the powerhouses of the Void Ghost Race who are hit by the chaotic flames, even if they want to hide in the void, they can't do it. The flames will follow them into the void and burn through the void.

At this time, humans can finally fight back, and various spells fall on them. Even if the damage caused is slight, it can be accumulated and superimposed, and the lords and kings of the Void Ghost Race begin to fall on the battlefield.

When the number exceeded 5,000, the enemy blew up and began to flee frantically.

“Why did I come to this **** world.”

“These **** humans I must be crazy to fight them.”

“There is no normal creature here, why would they blow themselves up.”

“Don’t kill me, I was just sent here, not on my own initiative.”

Lu Yang did not expect that these Void Ghost Race members would collapse. He looked at this scene with a sneer, and said, “What kind of **** belongs to the race, they are not as calm as us in the face of death.”

The Blazing Demon God sighed and said, “The criteria for selecting the gods are getting lower and lower for this group of trash new gods. This is a group of enemies who can only fight against the wind and cannot fight against the wind. Of course, more importantly, They are a group of races that are good at assassination, and they are not good at frontal combat, so don’t be careless.”

Lu Yang nodded, and he could also see that these creatures did not have too strong armor, nor the physical quality of a frontal attack. It can be said that, except for a demon blood orc, Void Ghost and Tallinn Ghost Mist, all are They should be sent to assassinate, that is, to deal with the Donghai Underground City, but in the first battle, it was too easy for Tallinn Guiwu to kill the elves of Baishan City, making them forget about it.

Chapter 2432: unsolicited water element

ten days.

A full ten days.

Lu Yang led the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood, chased and killed more than 1,000 kilometers, beheaded 41,000 lords of the Void Ghost Race and the powerful kings, and arrested more than 9,000.

When the team of the Jagged Brothers returned to Donghai New City, all the people were empty, and everyone came out to celebrate the victory of the war, but Lu Yang just showed up and returned to the old part of the underground city.

Different from the great joy of Xincheng, almost everyone in the old city wears filial piety. In this battle, the soldiers in the old city of the Jagged Brothers suffered heavy losses. The 100,000 people who started with him now have less than 60,000 people, even Hei Yan. dead.

Fortunately, Hei Yan just blew up his body, and at the moment before his soul dissipated, he was rescued by the Blazing Flame Demon God and put it in the Demon God Temple.

Others were not so lucky. They could only sleep in the cemetery in the back mountain. Lu Yang took a shovel and, together with Zhuojiu, buried each brother.

“Brothers, I chose you with my own hands. If you went to war with me, I sent you to die with my own hands. You can’t pay it back in this life. In the next life, I will definitely pay you back.” Lu Yang’s eyes stopped. Couldn’t hold back the tears.

For so many years, since his last life, he has been able to live strong, relying on the brothers behind him who trust him and support him. In this life, it is also the unconditional support of the brothers that he can reach today.

On the battlefield, who would like to die, but in order to win the war, they said it was for the entire human race, but at a lower level, they obeyed Lu Yang’s orders and took the initiative to die.

This kindness is not enough, and it will not be enough in this life!

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei, Zhou Tianming, Kuai Bansheng and others also burst into tears. Although they won the war, they lost too much.

As soon as they succeeded, they became heroes of mankind, but they would rather use these two words in exchange for the lives of these brothers, but this is impossible.

Tu Feng walked over from a distance and said to Lu Yang, "Boss, those giant tortoises by the sea still haven't left. This time, a humanoid creature called the water of the elements came and wanted to talk to you."

Lu Yang sneered and said, "They can't help it anymore."

"We'll go with you," said the turbid wine.

"Let's go and see, what exactly does this elemental water want to do?" Lu Yang summoned the red night.

Zhuojiu and Bai Shi also summoned the Cloud Sculptures respectively. As Lu Yang flew towards the beach east of Shekou, they arrived at the beach area within half an hour.

More than 30 giant sea turtles stood motionless on the beach. On the back of the sea turtle in front, stood an elemental body made of water. Lu Yang recognized it at a glance. The water element seen in another world.

"Follow me~!" Lu Yang waved his hand and led the crowd to the beach, just staring at the water element.

A strange smile appeared on the flowing water pattern of the elemental water. He suddenly turned into a water bomb and flew forward for nearly 100 meters, and only stopped when he came to a position 3 meters in front of Lu Yang. , said respectfully: "King of Flame, we meet again."

Lu Yang looked at the water element with a smile and said, "This time you can introduce yourself."

The elemental water gradually turned into an ice-blue, muscular man, he bent down to pay tribute to Lu Yang, and said, "The Patriarch of the Water Element Race, the King of the Sea, Aparis has mentioned His Excellency the Flame King. "

Lu Yang was a little tired, and what bothered him most was the way of introducing his title first, and then his name, and said, "If you have anything to say, you may send the Void Ghost Clan over here. We It's still a hostile relationship."

"No no no~!" Aparisti raised his right hand and shook his fingers very humanly, and said, "If I hadn't told you who the next group of enemies is, I don't think your Excellency would be able to fight so easily. To win this war, in fact, I won it for you, right?"

"That's right, but why are you helping me?" Lu Yang asked curiously.

Aparisti spread his hands and said, "We want to monopolize this ocean. I believe your Lord Vulcan also agrees with us."

Lu Yang smiled. He guessed that the other party knew that there was a Blazing Demon God in his body, but he would not admit it, and said, "Tell me your reason."

Aparisti was not angry at Lu Yang's noncommittal answer, but raised his hand with a smile and summoned a water element seat, he sat on it, and said to Lu Yang in a relaxed manner: "This world is a In a balanced world, the elements of each line have formed a stable pattern. To be honest, I like this world, and I also like human beings, "In fact, I have been in this world for nearly 20 years, and I once took the shape of a human. Living in the human world, I don't want to let the gods of another world ruin this world. "

Lu Yang was a little surprised and said, "So, you are the first group of strong people to be thrown into this world by the gods."

Just like the red night behind him, it was teleported by throwing a space treasure box into the space-time tunnel. It has the potential to become a god, but the highest qualification is a lower god, and it still needs various opportunities.

Aparisti did not feel inferior about his life experience, and said: "I am a child abandoned by my race, but I love my race, so I want to find a stable place for them to live, and this sea is very suitable ."

Lu Yang frowned and asked, "But when your race comes, it will still invade our world, and so will other races."

Aparisti said: "This is the purpose of my coming to you, my clan has already come to tens of thousands of people, they all live in the ocean, and there will be no conflict with you, so I want to help you Destroy the space rift in the East China Sea area and make them return to chaos."

This kind of destruction will not cause the magic element to fail to pass, but it will make the space rift unable to pass over the powerhouses of other worlds. Lu Yang asked Blazing Demon God about this method, but the answer is that it requires huge void energy.

Lu Yang said, "We don't have this ability, do you have it?"

Aparisti said: "Originally there was none, but the Void Ghost Race brought a large number of Void Soul Stones, which can close some of the space cracks."

The Blazing Demon God was a little surprised and said to Lu Yang: "The biggest function of the Void Soul Stone is to destroy the space rift and make them return to chaos. This kind of thing can only be produced in the back mountain of the Void God Temple. I can't think of the new Void God thinking. It's going to be a big game."

Lu Yang sneered and said: "It's nothing more than wanting to monopolize this area. If we humans die, the Void Ghost Race will probably destroy part of the teleportation channel immediately, leaving only the next Void Race's teleportation channel, and let the Void Race occupy it from now on. In this area, I just didn't expect the Void Ghost Race to be defeated."

The Blazing Demon God also sneered and said: "It is estimated that the Void God decided to use the Void Ghost Clan to do this after thinking for a long time in order to make this plan succeed. Bring some less monarch-level masters, unexpectedly, these things will eventually fall into the hands of the water element family."

Lu Yang looked at Aparisti and said, "You mean to cooperate with me, right?"

Aparisti nodded and said, "Exactly."

Lu Yang smiled and didn't answer, staring at Aparisti's eyes for a long time, until the other party's eyes flickered, he said: "If you want to cooperate, you have to let me see all your clansmen. , and the full strength of your race, it is impossible for me to cooperate without knowing anything."

Aparisti said cheerfully: "No problem. After five days, I can bring all my clansmen to the beach. You can see how strong we are at a glance."

Lu Yang said: "Then we will meet and talk later."

The easier it is to negotiate the conditions, proves that the other party doesn't care about this matter, and Lu Yang doesn't believe that the other party will really bring all his strength out of the sea.

Obviously, Aparisti is setting up a set for Lu Yang. The water element race is a race that can connect with another world at any time. This is terrible.

Now the other party wants to help humans close the space fissure on the land, which means that there are still space fissures on the seabed, and these elemental races want to dominate the human region.

The water element family is in the sea. It may only take half a day for them to reach the East China Sea dungeon. The reason why they have not attacked is definitely not their kindness, but that there is still some problem on the side of Aparisti.

The current situation is that the wolf wants to negotiate with the sheep, saying that it will not eat you in the future, we will also eat grass, and the wolf and the sheep will coexist peacefully in the future, who can believe this.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others didn't believe it either. They flew away with Lu Yang, leaving Yaparisti alone on the beach, but Yaparisti was not angry, but smiled and watched the flying away. The expressions on Lu Yang and others' faces gradually became hideous.

"Damn humans, sooner or later you will be wiped out." Aparisti turned around and dived into the sea.

Chapter 2433: Water Elemental Conspiracy

Back to the Shekou defensive position.

Lu Yang was sitting in the room, Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, Xia Yuwei, Zhou Tianming, and Ku Ai were all there for half a lifetime, and even the Blazing Demon God and Malthus flew out.

Malthus transformed into a human-shaped Holy Light Warrior, frowned and said: “The race of water elements is an ancient race. It has a long history, and even I can’t compare to them. The previous gods and kings had deep feelings for them. However, every generation of water element races has masters of the main **** level, and there are countless upper gods, so they have always been one of the most powerful groups in the water **** lineage.”

The Blazing Demon God also said with a solemn expression: “I had a fight with Boldog, the main **** of water elements. Although I won, I couldn’t kill him. Now that the water element has come to the earth, it is definitely not safe. What kind of good intentions, the new water **** king has no sense of crisis.”

Lu Yang asked, “Can you perceive the strength of that water element?”

Malthus said: “Aparisti’s strength is that of a monarch, but don’t forget, he has already entered the sea, and his strength will increase by 50% or even 100%. Strength, no less than a demigod.”

Lu Yang smiled speechlessly, and said, “What kind of enemy are these, they are not weaker.”

Blazing Demon God said: “You can’t avoid them, unless you enter the arid desert, otherwise, as long as there is water, they can swim over, and another, one of the attack methods of the water element is to absorb you. The water in the body, ordinary people will dehydrate and die in an instant in front of him, without any chance to resist, if you are a little careless, more than ten million lives in the East China Sea will all die.”

Lu Yang was a little surprised and said, "Then why didn't he sneak attack from behind when the Ghosts attacked us?"

Blazing Demon God and Malthus both shook their heads.

Lu Yang thought for a while and said: "This may become a breakthrough. We can be sure that the water element must want to kill all human beings. Then, we can now assume that Aparisti does not have this strength for the time being, so that he does not have this ability. There are only two possibilities for strength, one is that he is seriously injured, and the other is that he can't get too far from the coast, and temporarily can't achieve the ability to launch a big move."

Zhuojiu said: "It's entirely possible, even if he wants to see us and the ghost clan kill each other and wait for the opportunity to attack, but when we won the war, they had enough time to launch a sneak attack, which can only mean that they There is currently no such ability."

Lu Yang said, "Then let's give it a try and find a way to bring back Yapolis for questioning."

Blazing Demon God said: "You don't necessarily need to grab Aparisti to see your sewage outlet. Perhaps, the water element race has sneaked in."

Lu Yang reacted violently and said, "It's definitely possible. These **** may have sneaked in from this place. When our army was dispatched, they suddenly attacked, and we didn't even have a chance to react."

This makes sense. When the Jagged Brotherhood and the Ghost Race fought before, all the humans hid in the caves dug a long time ago, which were almost completely isolated from the outside world, so there was no way for the water element to do so. launched a sneak attack.

If after five days, Lu Yang leads all the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood to the seaside to negotiate with the water element clan, Aparisti only needs to use sea water to create a large number of clones, and the other water element soldiers enter the three cities of the East China Sea by water and launch a sneak attack, in just a few hours, the tens of millions of lives on the third floor of the East China Sea will all die, and even a sound will be released, because that is the death of the body dehydration.

Blazing Demon God said: "It's ruthless, this is the bottom of the pot."

"Then we'll set a big trap for them." Lu Yang smiled and looked at the white lion and said, "There is only one river connecting the three cities in the East China Sea with the sea. You bring people upstream to block the dam and stop the river's flow. I want to let them come and go."

"Yes." White Lion said solemnly.

Lu Yang looked at Zhou Tianming and said, "You are responsible for leading the Rockman Legion and Hastur Legion to cut off the enemy's return path downstream of the **** and prevent them from escaping back into the sea."

This war cannot immediately send the human legion over. Lu Yang believes that there must be a water element that has transformed into a human form and has been hidden in the three cities of the East China Sea to observe the situation. If Lu Yang did not send all the soldiers over, then the water element clan may not necessarily be. They can sneak attack by water, so Lu Yang decided to use the Hasturs and Rock Humans of Baishan City to fight.

"Yes." Zhou Tianming said.

Lu Yang looked at Qianli Zhan He Bai Shi and Xia Yuwei and said, "Give all the main forces with cloud eagles and fire crows. Once the enemy is found, quickly send the fire crow army and the cloud crow army to support."

"Yes." The three said in unison.

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief and said with a smile, "Now we'll wait three days to see how this water element clan gets into our trap."

The faces of everyone finally became lighter. As long as the enemy's weaknesses can be found, humans can still persevere in this war.

The meeting ended, and that night, Lu Yang took Zhou Tianming and Bai Shi to Baishan City. After explaining the purpose of his visit, the Rock and Hasta Patriarchs agreed to send troops to help.

Early the next morning.

After the white lion took the elven soldiers to enter the Shekou defensive position after a long journey, they continued to move eastward, and came to the upper reaches of a large river.

The river has no name, but there is a small **** here, less than 10 meters high, which has now been destroyed, and the remaining dikes are less than 3 meters high.

The white lion looked at Sara, Rustafa and the others beside him, and said, "Please use vines to build a huge dam and turn this place into a reservoir again."

Sara said with a smile: "This task is simple, we can complete it in one day."

The white lion said: "Don't close the dam for the time being. After five days, the boss orders it to close it quickly, so that the enemy can't escape."

"Well." Rustafa and others nodded, and immediately began to cast spells. A large number of trees grew from both sides of the dam, and a large number of vines began to spread in the water.

The white lion and the rest of the elf warriors began to look for the boulders. Once the vines were successfully blocked, these boulders were the barriers for the vines to prevent the vines from being washed away by the water.

Lu Yang flew to the position where the sea meets the river. At a height of one thousand meters in the sky, the Blazing Flame Demon God could still feel the changes in the river, whether there were any enemies entering.

Chapter 2434: river ambush

from day to night.

There was no change in the river, but in the middle of the night two days later, the moon on the horizon was covered by dark clouds, and a strange energy suddenly came from the calm river, and the Blazing Demon God said: "Come, there are at least a few thousand in number."

Lu Yang sneered and said, "So that's what happened. The number of enemies is too small, and there is no way to fight us head-on, so I want to use the sneak attack."

The strength of the water element in the river is between the lord rank and the king rank. With this strength, if you fight the Jagged Brotherhood, there is absolutely no chance of winning.

Lu Yang's tracker, these water elements, flew about 20 kilometers upstream, and when they came to the corner, these water elements stopped.

It just so happens that this is the area where the Jagged Brothers has the strongest defense and the least attention. This is the rear of the central fortress of the Shekou defensive position.

All the soldiers of the Jagged Brotherhood take this road to and from the three cities of the East China Sea and Shekou every day. There are also the most patrol troops here. If there are enemies here, no one will believe them, but the enemies dare to be so bold. , let the water element ambush in this place.

After Lu Yang locked the position, he sent a message to Bai Shi, Zhou Tianming and others saying, "The enemy is already in place, everyone is ready."

"You can cut off the water source at any time," said the white lion.

Zhou Tianming said: "The dam downstream can be blocked at any time."

Lu Yang nodded, leaving a clone in the air, his body quickly flew towards the Shekou defensive position.

By the next morning.

Lu Yang left 20,000 people to defend the Shekou position, and quickly brought 30,000 people to the beach. In the sea, Yaparisti was standing on the sea with 30,000 water elemental people. They seemed to have endless resources. The magic power is average, constantly absorbing the sea water.

“President Lu Yang, we are here as scheduled.” Aparisti was very excited, opened his arms to show his friendship, stepped on the waves to the beach, and when he walked in front of Lu Yang, he bowed respectfully and said: “I have brought all the void crystals and peace, and I hope that our two races will be on good terms forever.”

Lu Yangxiao watched Aparisti’s performance. If he hadn’t analyzed the opponent’s conspiracy, this sneak attack would have destroyed the entire human race. He imitated Yaparisti’s appearance and bowed respectfully and said, “I Accept your Void Crystal and Peace, and our two races will be friends forever.”

Aparisti waved his hand, and a spiritual sense flew out from his body, and dozens of water elements came over with purple-black boxes. At the same time, the army of water elements hidden in the river behind the Shekou defensive position got the Instructed to swim towards the three cities in the East China Sea.

Huo Niu controlled Lu Yang’s avatar, and immediately noticed the change of the water element. He secretly communicated with Lu Yang and said, “The enemy has moved.”

Lu Yang sneered and sent a message to Zhou Tianming and Bai Shi, “Cut off the flow.”

“Yes.” The white lion looked at the dam in the distance and said to Rustafa and Sarah, “Start.”

“Infinite Vine”

Thousands of mages cast spells at the same time, and they have already been created. Thousands of vines lying at the bottom of the river suddenly swelled rapidly, and each one became 30 centimeters in diameter.

All the vines were intertwined to form a huge tree wall two meters wide and twenty meters high. A large number of warriors quickly moved the boulders and formed a new wood and stone embankment, so that not a drop of water could flow out.

In the downstream position, in order to prevent the water element from swimming back, Zhou Tianming took the earth mage to quickly divide a river into six rivers, and the water flow speeded up, which made the water elements who were moving fast in the river suddenly feel that something was wrong.

The chief elder of the water element family, Borghese, roared, "Stop moving forward, the water in front is not right!"

"What's wrong?" Pioneer Officer Chavez asked with a frown.

Borghese roared: "Not good, we may have been ambushed, the water level is dropping rapidly, we are running out of water."

Originally the river was several meters deep, and after the cut-off upstream dike, the water level dropped almost as fast as the naked eye.

"Damn, let's go back." Chavez said excitedly.

"It's too late." Algaia appeared on the south bank of the river with a large number of elves wood-type mages, and they chanted a spell in their mouths.

"Myriad Tree Barrier~!"

Countless big trees suddenly grew out of the ground. At the same time, the moisture in the surrounding soil was quickly absorbed into the big trees. For a time, cracks appeared on the surrounding ground that could only be seen in drought.

Gonzalez, the elder of the Hastur clan, appeared beside the elves, and they chanted a spell in their mouths.

“The Devil’s Flame Burns Out”

A very high temperature flame suddenly fell in the sky, all the plants on the ground were ignited, the river water that was about to bottom was quickly evaporated, and a large amount of water mist splashed from the river water, but it was quickly evaporated by the flames clean.

Thousands of water elements stared blankly at all this, and the elder Borghese roared: “Damn elves and Hasturs, what are you doing?”

Algaia sneered and said, “Do what you want to stop you from doing? Surrender yourself or wait for us to catch you with our own hands. This is not in the water, you have no chance.”

On land, the strength of the water element family is greatly reduced, especially in such a dry place that there is only flame and no water. If the water element wants to cast spells, it can only be released by the water in their own bodies, but how much water can they have in their bodies? , the strength has been cut off by at least 80%, even the monarchs are not as durable as the lords of Algaia.

Algaia shouted: “Everyone pay attention, be careful that the water element family is desperately fighting with us, they are already mortal, there is no need to let them pull their backs.”

“Oh~!” Thousands of elf mages and Hastur warriors responded one after another, and everyone had a smile on their faces.

“The flame circle, get up~!” Gonzalez, the elder of the Hastur clan, roared.

In order to prepare for this ambush, the Hastas took out the third-order fire spar from the warehouse. Now that the enemy was surrounded, they released the magic circle. Suddenly, more violent flames erupted from more than 300 fires. The magic array spewed out.

The water element family in the river did not know what to do, and the elder Borghese roared: "Retreat, everyone retreats."

Thousands of water elements turned and ran, wanting to retreat along the river into the sea, but there was no water in the river, and their movement speed was several times slower than normal.

Seeing that he couldn't escape, the king-level master with the water element roared.

"Exploding"

Like a flood, the river was instantly filled with river water, and as soon as the water source appeared, most of it was absorbed by the duties rooted in the ground. There was also a terrifying flame, and the river water produced by the self-destruction of a king rank did not wait for others to run more. Dozens of meters, it just disappeared without a trace.

Chapter 2435: new enemy

"how so?"

"Damn elves, why did you see through our plan?"

"I'm not reconciled. If you have the courage to let us go back to the sea, we will fight again."

...

The high-level powerhouses of the water element roared furiously, but unfortunately, they were completely unable to stop the decline of the battle. The first old Borghese finally couldn't bear it anymore, and passed the message to Aparisti through his consciousness, but his consciousness was unexpectedly blocked. The barrier blocked it.

Xia Yuwei suddenly appeared in front of him, despite the protection of thousands of water elements around the elder, she rushed in like this, and the void dagger inserted into the chest of the elder, stabbing the soul demon core.

"How, how can people know my weakness." Borghese was actually shattered by this blow, he stared at Xia Yuwei and roared, "I want you to be buried with me."

In an instant, Borghese's body swelled frantically, turning into a thousand-meter-high water element giant, and Xia Yuwei was wrapped into his body by him.

"boom"

The kilometer-high water element giant shook his body violently, and then, as if he had lost his strength, his body turned into a turbulent river and rushed in all directions.

Such a huge amount of seawater cannot be digested by the existing vines and flames. Just when all the water elements thought they could escape through this monstrous flood, Xia Yuwei's figure appeared in the air. In the middle, the incantation was recited in his mouth, and the dagger fiercely drew a purple-black aperture in the air, with a diameter of nearly 100 meters.

"Void Black Hole"

The area crossed by the dagger suddenly turned into a huge black hole, and the violent suction actually sucked all the river water above the legs of the water element elder into the black hole.

"How, how could this be?" All the water element warriors were stunned. They didn't understand how humans could have such terrifying combat power.

Xia Yuwei was also frightened by the power of her own move. This is a combat skill she has only learned in the past few days. After so many wars, her mastery of void spells has become more and more comprehensive.

“Boss, we are already in place.” Liu Juan sent news to Xia Yuwei through consciousness.

Although the 3,000 Void Warriors were not as fast as Xia Yuwei, they had also arrived at the battlefield at this time and could join the battle at any time.

“Destroy all the water elements, leave none.” Xia Yuwei’s voice was icy cold.

“As ordered~!” Liu Juan said solemnly.

In an instant, the water elements, who had not yet reacted from their shock, suddenly appeared a large number of blue rays of light around them. Three thousand void warriors including Liu Juan, Li Mao, and Tao Fei walked out of the void and returned to reality. The dagger pierced sharply. The core of the water element in front of them.

All the water elements that were hit died on the ground without any reaction. Only a few kings and monarchs were able to evade the attack, but they were also stabbed by the void dagger.

When the water element family wanted to counterattack, their spells could not reach 30 meters, and they were absorbed by the transpiration of flames and plants.

Xia Yuwei attacked again, and almost every attack would take away a water element. From the beginning to the end of the war, it didn’t take half an hour, all the water elements in the attack were all disbanded, leaving only one. The magic core stayed where it was.

The only Water Elemental who didn’t die turned out to be their vanguard, Chavez, who yelled, “Don’t kill me, don’t kill me, I surrender!”

Xia Yuwei fell in front of Chavez, inserted the dagger into his body, pressed it against the magic core, and asked in Elvish language: “Say, what is the purpose of your coming?”

“Kill all human beings and welcome the water god.” Chavez’s answer was very quick.

Xia Yuwei sneered and asked, “It’s just you people?”

Chavez shook his head, looked at the dozens of large boxes lying quietly in the dry river in the distance, and said, “There are spiritual water magic cores in them, which are specially used to arrange the dehydration array. All creatures in the array, The water in the body will be sucked dry, this trick is only effective for creatures below the second rank, it was proposed by the patriarch Aparis.”

“As expected.” Xia Yuwei looked at Chavez with a sneer, and said, “How many people do you have?”

Chavez said neatly: “No, except for those big turtles that we spawned with magic, all the water elements standing on the sea are our clones.”

“Are there any other clansmen in the sea?” Xia Yuwei asked.

“No, Aparisti just has the ability to communicate with our world. We are also the first batch of warriors to send over. Please don’t kill me. I am useful. I know the position of the warped time and space under the sea. I can Take you there.” Chavez said excitedly.

“You can survive.” Xia Yuwei pulled out the dagger, let Chavez take care of her, took out the phone and called Lu Yang.

Lu Yang was chatting with Aparisti very much. Looking at the boxes of Void Crystals, he said, “I will take people to destroy those warped time and space this afternoon. Thank you very much for your help.”

Aparisti was even happier and said, “I’ll accompany you there. A lot of twisted time and space are small gaps, but such a place cannot be spared. My perception ability is very strong, and I can feel it.”

“Okay, how about we go now?” Lu Yang said.

“Okay, let your troops return to Shekou, I will go with you alone, we will be brothers in the future.” Yaparisti said enthusiastically.

Just as Lu Yang was about to agree, he received a call from Xia Yuwei and said with a smile, “I have something to do, wait for me.”

He took the phone and came not far away. After listening to Xia Yuwei’s report, he smiled even more, returned to Yaparisti with a big laugh, and said, “Brother, I have something good to tell you.”

Aparisti was worried that his sneak attack was discovered in advance, but seeing Lu Yang’s expression didn’t seem like an accident, he restrained the anxiety in his heart, and pretended to be curious and asked, “What good thing is it?”

Lu Yang stretched out his arms and gave Aparisti a hug, and said, “I killed all your subordinates, and your conspiracy failed.”

As soon as the words fell, eight chains flew out of Lu Yang’s body, trapping Yaparisti’s body firmly, which made Yaparisti stunned and said, “What, what did you say? Why can’t I understand?”

Lu Yang said with a smile: “Why don’t you understand Your vanguard officer Chavez has already told all your secrets, and your elders have also died in battle. Now you are A bare commander, surrender, and I will spare your life.”

“What?” Aparisti’s eyes widened in disbelief, and after a while, his face became grim and contorted, he stared at Lu Yang and said, “Do you think these chains alone can trap me? Don’t think that you won this time, and I will come back again, human, you will never know the greatness of the gods.”

Aparisti’s body turned into a pool of stagnant water at a speed visible to the naked eye and fell to the ground. In the depths of the ocean, Aparisti opened his eyes and roared with a hideous expression: “Damn human, This is the only chance I can show in front of my father, you are all ruined, I can’t spare you, I can’t spare you!”

A humanoid creature appeared beside Aparisti and said with a smile: "It really failed, I told you, don't compete with humans for wisdom."

"What I need now is a solution, not your cynicism." Aparisti said furiously.

The humanoid creature was not afraid at all, and said: "Of course we have a way, but the premise is that you have enough troops. Human beings not only have Donghai, but also Jin City and further Fu City."

Chapter 2436: Plunder the bloodline

Appaliste's eyes became more and more hideous. He didn't speak any more, but a ray of light appeared in his hand. Not far away, Garcia, the patriarch of the sea demon clan and Lu Yang's most loyal warrior, was trapped in a water polo. The state of suffocation kept struggling.

"Go and tell Lu Yang of the Jagged Brotherhood, and let him release all the demon cores of my clan, otherwise, I will kill your entire clan." Yaparisti's voice was ruthless, he lifted the control plus West Asian water polo.

"Your Excellency Lu Yang will not spare you." Garcia roared and swam quickly towards the sea.

"It's ridiculous." Aparisti vented his anger on Garcia and cast a spell on his back.

the other side.

Lu Yang was surprised that Aparisti was able to escape under such circumstances. Suddenly, he sensed Garcia's arrival and looked towards the sea. Garcia, who was scarred all over his body, was washed up by the sea, and he quickly let the turbid wine take him with him. The Holy Light Mage team went to the rescue.

Malthus himself cast a spell to resolve the damage of the lord rank. Looking at Garcia who was gradually waking up, Lu Yang frowned and asked, "What happened?"

Seeing Lu Yang, Garcia burst into tears and cried, "Your Excellency Lu Yang, my clan was attacked, and the water element race suddenly emerged from the bottom of the sea. Our army of 20,000 sea demons was all killed by him. Take it away, he said, if you don't return the water element magic core you caught to Aparisti, he will kill my entire clan."

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others all took a deep breath. Apparently, Aparisti was using the sea demons to contain Lu Yang. If Lu Yang put the magic core back, I am afraid that these water elements can rely on the magic core. Reborn, what Lu Yang did before will be in vain, but if he doesn't put it back, it will hurt the hearts of all the surrendering races. In the future, the elves and Hasturs and other races will not be able to help humans wholeheartedly.

The Blazing Demon God said: "You can't go into the sea. Fighting in the water is a taboo for fire creatures."

Lu Yang sighed and said, "Then what should I do, I can't help but save them."

Malthus thought for a while and said, "Maybe there is another way."

"What way?" Lu Yang asked.

Malthus said: "Turn your mages who are good at using water spells into water elements."

That is to say, let them absorb the magic core of the lord, king and monarch water elements, change the blood of human beings, and let human beings also have the ability to become water elements.

Hearing this, Shen Hai jumped out excitedly and said to Lu Yang, "Boss, let's go, brothers, I've been waiting for this day for a long time."

Lu Yang looked at the deep sea with a smile and said, "After thinking about it, choose the water element."

"Think about it, our brothers from the Tsunami Mage Corps were born to like water spells and enter other worlds. We are also good at using water magic. Let our brothers evolve into water elements. We want to play a role on the battlefield too much. ." Deep Sea said excitedly.

Back then, the Jagged Brotherhood was able to win the national uniform in the game, and the Tsunami Mage Group made great contributions. Since entering the other world, Lu Yang has successively formed the Wood Element Archmage Corps, the Holy Light Knights, the Beast Blood Warriors and the Void Warriors. They can only participate in the battle as ordinary water mages in the deep sea. They have always been of little significance to the battlefield. They are fed up with the feeling that they can only be protected by their brothers, but cannot help them. Now they finally have the opportunity, they don't care about themselves. What it will be like, as long as it can help the brothers.

Lu Yang said: "Okay, all the water element magic cores you have obtained belong to you. Now follow me to the Void Hall. You will call 500 people first."

"Yes." Deep Sea excitedly went to find someone.

Lu Yang looked at Garcia and said, "Go back and tell Aparisti that in ten days, I will release all the captives, but he must also release all the captives, and we will exchange them face-to-face."

Garcia said, "Yes."

Lu Yang continued: "After ten days, you will take these 500 human mages and sneak into the lair of Aparisti and rescue all your clansmen."

Garcia hesitated and asked, "Can they do it?"

Lu Yang said with a smile: "Don't think that time is short, but I have a way. Believe me, I have never abandoned you before, and I will never do so in the future."

“Yeah.” Garcia nodded sharply and said, “I’ll go tell him right now, I’ll report back in time if anything happens.”

Lu Yang nodded and watched Garcia enter the sea. He turned to look at the 500 members of the original Tsunami Mage Group, including the deep sea, who ran over. With a wave of his hand, he sent them, the turbid wine, and all the water element magic cores into the sea. Inside Bandarsburg.

“Void Palace”

Lu Yang chanted the spell, and a ray of light flickered, and he entered the door of the Void Temple. Numerous voids rushed over, all blocked by the Void Shield in Lu Yang’s hand, and he easily entered the Void Temple.

“The Eye of the Devil”

The third eye on Lu Yang’s forehead opened, the white sun in Bandarsburg provided a huge amount of flame energy, which made Lu Yang proud to open the space, and sent the turbid wine and 500 tsunami mages into the space.

“This is the Temple of the Void. I’ve long heard that I’ve become annoyed and they brag to me. This time I’m also in.” Deep Sea said excitedly.

Lu Yang shook his head with a smile, looked at Malthus beside Zhuojia and said, “Please help me guide them.”

Malthus shrugged indifferently, looked at the deep sea and others, and began to teach the method of raising blood. To put it bluntly, this is a spell to plunder blood, allowing creatures that can use water magic to plunder higher-level water blood. Improve your own strength.

This time is very short, and it can be completed in less than half a day. What really takes time is to fully learn how the water element works, and to learn the super powerful water attack skills.

One year in the Void Hall, only one day outside, Lu Yang accompanied Shen Hai and the others in the Void Hall to comprehend for ten years. From the second year in the Void Hall, he lectured every day and taught them his own understanding of spells.

After ten years, Lu Yang took them back to the beach and looked at the time in reality. It happened that only ten days had passed.

“Boss, you’re back.” Xia Yuwei, Zhou Tianming and others were not far away, and when they saw Lu Yang returning, they gathered around.

Lu Yang asked, “Has anything happened these days?”

The white lion shook his head and said, “Everything is normal. Garcia went back and forth a few times, and soon Garcia should come again.”

The voice just fell.

A sea demon warrior jumped out of the sea not far away. It was Garcia himself. He walked quickly to Lu Yang and said excitedly, “You are back.”

Lu Yang asked, “How about Aparisti?”

Garcia gritted his teeth and said: “He asked you to put the magic core of the water elements on an iron-backed turtle first, and when it was sent to the sea, he released my clansmen. I suspect that he did not want to release it.”

Lu Yang sneered and said, “I don’t have a long memory when I first watched it. I still want to play a conspiracy with me. According to the original plan, you bring my water element army into the deep sea and rescue you. At the same time, you told Aparisti that the place of delivery must be a small island at sea, we have to watch these water element magic cores, and we will not withdraw until the hostages of the sea demons are rescued.”

Aparisti would never have imagined that Lu Yang would have the ability to create a water-based army with the strength of a king and a monarch in just ten days.

The strength of the deep sea has reached the early stage of the monarch rank. This is forcibly poured out with ten elder soul cores of the water element monarch rank. The remaining 499 people are all king rank. With their strength, it may be possible to fight an Aparisti in the sea. Can't win, but definitely can't lose.

Especially in the case of a sneak attack, if you have no intentions, you might even be able to catch Aparis.

He looked at the deep sea and other water masters behind him, and said, "It's up to you."

"Leave it to us." A smile appeared at the corner of the deep sea's mouth, and the human body suddenly turned into the shape of the water element.

Not only him, but also the other 499 water mages also turned into the form of water elements. After saying goodbye to Lu Yang and others, they entered the sea with Garcia.

Chapter 2437: Ambush Aparisti

After Lu Yang watched Shen Hai and others leave, his eyes turned to Chavez beside him, and said, "It's time for you to play."

"Don't let me go back, that **** Aparisti will torture me to death, please." Chavez knelt in front of Lu Yang, tears falling like water.

Lu Yang looked at Chavez with a smile and said, "Don't worry, I won't let you die, you still have a big role in the human race, swear your allegiance to me, as long as you are loyal to me, I will give you To give you a safe life."

Chavez immediately swore in elven language, uttered the slave oath, and was willing to become Lu Yang's humblest slave servant. Then, an ancient elf's slave word appeared on his forehead, which was very conspicuous.

"Master, from now on, I am willing to serve you for the rest of my life." Chavez said flatteringly.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi, and others all showed disgust in their eyes. They didn't understand how Lu Yang would accept a soldier with no sense of honor as his slave.

Lu Yang walked to Chavez with a smile, stroking his forehead and said, "You will become the water magic teacher of the human race. After this war, you will stay behind forever, and I will not ask you to go to the battlefield again. Just be a good mentor."

"Thank you master." Chavez knelt down and cried bitterly, he could finally live.

No one knows about Chavez's life experience. In the huge and long-standing race of the water element, Chavez was able to play the role of a vanguard because of his family's reasons. Aparisti is here to die.

Chavez knew this very well, but he didn't want to die. He also wanted to seek revenge on those brothers, but in this huge other world, there was no existence that could shake the water element family.

Chavez originally thought that Aparisti would have this opportunity, but after the war, he clearly realized that the gap between Aparisti and Lu Yang was so huge, so he pinned his hopes on On Lu Yang's body, even if he were a dog for Lu Yang.

"Let's go, let's go to the island." Lu Yang summoned Hong Ye and flew into the air.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and others rode on the cloud eagle and flew to an island half an hour away with Lu Yang.

Originally that place was an inhabited island, but when Lu Yang came to this island, all the inhabitants had already died.

“Aparisti, I’ve already arrived, please show up.” Lu Yang said loudly.

In the sea water on the south side of the island, Aparisti also sensed the huge magic power of Lu Yang and others. He sneered and used the vibration of water waves to make a sound, saying: “Hand over all your magic cores, I will release the people of the sea demon clan. .”

Lu Yang said: “I put the magic core on the island, now it’s your time to show your sincerity.”

“Leaving the island, our water element family, we always keep our word, and we will never break our word.” Aparisti growled.

“Okay, I’ll return Chavez to you.” Lu Yang pretended to be too lazy to know where Aparisti was, got up and controlled Hong Ye to fly into the air, towards the sky in the distance.

Aparisti waited in the sea for more than half an hour. After feeling that Lu Yang had really left, he slowly surfaced and came to the central area of the island, but before he could find the magic core, he saw it. Chavez, his vanguard.

“You still have the face to come back?” Aparisti gathered the water elements in a rage, ready to attack.

Chavez pretended to be dazed and said, “Patriarch, why can’t I come back, I was taken away.”

“Lu Yang said you exposed all our secrets.” Aparisti growled.

“I am a proud member of the water element family, how could I do such a thing.” Chavez pretended to be surprised.

“Stop doing this, I will never believe you.” Aparisti said excitedly.

“You’re right if you don’t believe it.” Chavez’s body suddenly turned into a pool of sea water.

the other side.

In the sea, Chavez’s body aimed at a reef area and chanted a spell.

“Sea Dragon Blast”

Nine sea dragons suddenly appeared behind Chavez and slammed into the reef frantically.

“boom”

The reef shattered, and Aparisti’s figure appeared on the sea. He looked at Chavez angrily, and scolded, “I thought you surrendered to humans at most, but I didn’t expect you to dare to attack me, I want Kill you.”

“You don’t have this chance.” Zhou Tianming’s voice came from the sea, and a purple-red ghost flew into the sea.

This is an attack method similar to Fire Soul Slash. Once hit, it will cause heavy damage to Aparisti’s soul.

Aparisti dared to let this attack hit his body, so he hurriedly dodged, but just as he dodged, the ghost turned around and chased after him, circling crazily around his body, and kept shrinking and encircling him.

“Rain Slash”

Aparisti couldn’t hit the ghost, and launched a group attack. With him at the center, countless water droplets turned into sharp blades and shot out.

No matter how fast the red ghost is, it can't avoid such dense water droplets. After being hit many times, the ghost collapses.

But before Aparistido could breathe a sigh of relief, a giant sword in the sky plunged straight into the bottom of the sea, and the half-life incarnation of bitter love turned into a sword light, and stabbed Aparisti's body at a faster speed. This time, Aparis Ti didn't dodge, and was cut off in half by Jianmang.

"Think you want to kill me like this?" Aparisti sneered, his body actually recovered, and the half of his body that was cut off turned into a huge water ball, imprisoning his bitter love for half his life.

"Sword is invisible"

The body that had been in love for half a lifetime scattered, turned into countless sword qi, pierced the water polo and escaped, and attacked wildly around Aparisti.

At the same time, Zhou Tianming in the sky released a second ghost, and the purple-red light and sword energy went straight to Aparisti and rushed over.

Aparisti saw that he couldn't dodge, his body suddenly turned into dozens of water waves, which flew out in all directions, and at the same time he roared: "Lu Yang, I will kill all the sea demons to punish you, wait. Let's collect the corpses for them."

The voice just fell.

Xia Yuwei appeared in front of Yaparisti's real body, and the dagger in her hand pierced the water waves, breaking Yaparisti's soul core.

"This, how is this possible?" Yaparisti recovered his water element form, looked at Xia Yuwei weakly, and said blankly, "How could you find my body?"

Xia Yuwei couldn't find it either, neither could the Blazing Demon God, but Malthus could find it. As an ancient Holy Light Spirit, Malthus had no attack power, but he had a lot of knowledge. Even Blazing Demon God didn't know much about the spell mechanism of the water element. But Malthus knew.

He saw Yaparisti's real body at a glance from high in the sky, and Xia Yuwei took the opportunity to launch an attack, killing Yaparisti with one blow.

Lu Yang breathed a sigh of relief in the sky and said, "This is the most dangerous war so far. I can't help at all."

Blazing Demon God separated a flame clone next to him, smiled at Lu Yang and said, "You should trust your brothers more, with the current strength of your race, even in another world, it is enough to be called It's a higher race."

Lu Yang nodded, and he also discovered that the current human beings are stronger than the elves and Hasturs that came here, because they have six monarch orders.

"Boss, what about the magic core?" Xia Yuwei teleported to Hong Ye's back and handed the magic core to Lu Yang.

"Leave it to the deep sea, let's go back to the city, it's time to talk about the final topic Lu Yang said with a smile.

Xia Yuwei was a little surprised and asked, "What topic?"

Lu Yang said, "Seal the twisted time and space."

This is a very important matter for all the people of the East China Sea. Now as long as there are no powerhouses above demigods, there will be no greater danger for human beings. For three or four years of peace time.

During this period, there were as many as two or three million newly grown children of human beings. If the warped time and space were completely closed, it would be equivalent to cutting off their opportunities for cultivation. This is not something that Lu Yang can decide, it depends on the whole East China Sea people's wishes.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others flew back to Lu Yang's body, and when they heard this, they all showed thoughtful expressions, they looked at each other, and Bai Shi said, "I don't think most people are willing to close it, after all, We are blocked here, but other areas are not blocked, but we have no energy for cultivation, which is not suitable."

Lu Yang smiled and said, "It depends on the wishes of the majority of people. Let's go back first."

Everyone nodded and followed Lu Yang back to the East China Sea.

Chapter 2438: National decision

East China Sea Three Cities, Inland Arena.

The venue that can accommodate 100,000 people is already full of audiences. Today's performance is a highlight, the monarch-level powerhouse of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist clan will fight against the monarch-level powerhouse of the Demon Blood Orcs.

Letting the two monarchs fight for life and death in front of human beings made more than 15 million people in the three cities of the East China Sea excited. Three days ago, the official began to warm up.

The identities, bloodlines, and all the fighting skills and powerful spells of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist monarchs and the Demon Blood Orcs monarchs have been introduced in detail.

"I bet the demon blood orcs will win. The demon blood orcs are too strong. This is what a warrior should look like."

“Cut, I bet on the ghost fog in Tallinn. As long as the fog is released, the demon blood orcs can’t find their way at all. He can kill the demon blood orcs in one hit.”

“Demon blood orcs...”

The children on the street were already arguing about which master would win, and the adults were also discussing who would win between the two powerhouses after dinner.

Now, it’s finally time for the game. Fifteen million people in Donghai have become spectators. Those who have the means to buy tickets will go to the scene to watch the game. Live broadcast.

Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and others also sat in the stands. What they have to do today is to let all of them vote after attracting the attention of all the people of the East China Sea.

inside the arena.

The game has already started, and the two powerhouses fought very well, but there were thirty-six king-rank powerhouses around them forming a magic circle. Once the two of them had any riot action, they would activate the magic circle and kill the two of them. die.

The powerhouse of the Tallinn Ghost and Mist tribe is very powerful. He did not fight with the demon blood orcs, but kept evading, looking for opportunities to sneak attack.

Half an hour later, the monarch of the Demon Blood Orcs was annoyed by the enemy who kept jumping around him. A trick accidentally revealed a flaw, and the powerhouse of the Tallinn Ghost Mist suddenly stepped forward and attacked. The dagger went straight to the throat of the Demon Blood Orcs powerhouse, but was dodged by the latter, grabbed the opponent’s dagger with his arm, and grabbed the Tallinn Ghost Mist Powerhouse at close range.

This kind of close-range hand-to-hand combat, the Tallinn Guiwu Clan suffered very much, and it didn't take long for them to be subdued by the monarch of the Demon Blood Orcs.

A sensation!

The monarch of the Demon Blood Orcs came to the stand, stared at Lu Yang, who was standing at the highest point, and asked, "Kill or stay."

Lu Yang raised his hands and motioned him to look at the surrounding stands. Most of the 100,000 spectators moved their thumbs down, meaning to kill Tallinn Ghost Mist.

The monarch of the Demon Blood Orcs did not hesitate, and with a hard arm, twisted the neck of the strong man of the Tallinn Ghost Mist, and walked back to the rest area.

According to Lu Yang's agreement with them, if they can win a hundred games, then they can redeem the crime of attacking mankind, enter the human academy, and become a mentor.

This condition has been agreed by all the human beings in the East China Sea. One hundred tests of life and death are enough to redeem their sins, but the reality is that almost no strong person can survive a hundred battles. After all, the object of their fight, Either the same level or the higher level.

The host felt that the atmosphere in the audience had almost stabilized, and said loudly: "All the human beings in the East China Sea, now there is a major matter that needs to be decided together by everyone."

He handed the microphone to Lu Yang, which surprised everyone in the East China Sea. For a moment, they all paid attention to what Lu Yang was going to say.

"In this war, we seized a large number of Void Crystals from the Void Ghost Race. Using this thing, we can destroy the teleportation array of Twisted Time and Space. What I want to ask you now is whether we destroy these teleportation arrays or keep them. Come down, I hope everyone can figure it out before making a decision. You have a week to think about it.

If you decide to destroy the twisted time and space in the East China Sea area, then we will destroy these twisted time and space. All practitioners in the East China Sea will go to other areas to practice.

If you decide to keep these warped time and space, then we will use these void crystals to create a large teleportation array for everyone to make intercity jumps in the future.

There is also a third type, which is to partially destroy the twisted time and space, so that he is no longer so big. At that time, there will still be a lot of energy pouring in, but the strength of the enemies who can enter will be greatly weakened, at most, the lord rank or Magic level. "Lu Yang sincerely gave three ways out for the entire East China Sea.

Everyone was stunned. For a while, they didn't know what to choose. After entering a different world for seven years, they have gradually adapted to the world with magic. Even an ordinary person can sense the existence of magic. , and even a little practice can release some magic.

If they lose their magical abilities like this, they will not be willing, but if they do not give up and choose to continue to let another world invade, they are not willing, even if it is a compromise plan, there will still be a race from another world invading, Or make their lives uneasy.

Quiet, the audience was deadly quiet, but after a while, a huge argument broke out, and almost everyone was expressing their own opinions.

Lu Yang guessed that such a thing would happen, and he was not in a hurry to let everyone make a decision. This is because a polling station was set up at the government gate of each urban area.

From the beginning of the day some people came to the polling station to cast their chosen plan, and after seven days, almost everyone completed the vote.

Lu Yang deliberately waited for three more days. Every day, these ballot boxes are guarded by people, and there will be live video broadcasts to ensure that no one will cause trouble.

On the tenth day, Lu Yang came to the arena again. Under the supervision of 100,000 live spectators and more than 10,000,000 spectators in front of the TV, he began to count the votes one by one.

In the end, on the night of the same day, the results were selected. More than 90% of the human beings in the entire East China Sea chose the third one, closing some of the channels that distorted time and space, so that magical energy from other worlds could still come in, but the power of the monsters sent over, The highest is only the lord rank or the magic rank.

Lu Yang looked at the camera and said to all the people of the East China Sea: "This is the result of everyone's common choice. From now on, everyone must work hard to practice spells. I hope that more strong people can step into the strength of a lord and become a lord. our comrades.

The Jagged Brotherhood will also open more magic academies, so that more strong people can teach the next generation of children, so that they have better conditions to learn magic, take less detours, and protect this city and this country as soon as possible. . "

Chapter 2439: monster in hurricane

After this war, the number of surviving veterans of the Jagged Brotherhood was only a little over 60,000, almost all of them were injured, and there were thousands of severely injured people such as broken arms and broken legs.

Lu Yang ordered these people to disarm and return to their fields and enter the academy he was about to open, which was divided into a basic research academy and a war college.

The former is specialized in studying various magic principles, energy release methods in different worlds, and the body composition of humans in different worlds, while the latter is specialized in studying spells and magic circles.

The Three East Sea Cities no longer only stay around the East China Sea Dungeon, but return to places such as Fengshi, Shancheng and Fushi. The Jagged Brotherhood will reduce the distortion of time and space in these places to a minimum, and only allow creatures below the demon level to appear. .

At the same time, the remaining 60,000 complete troops of the Jagged Brothers League have 3,000 people stationed in the Donghai Underground City, 3,000 people stationed in Fushi, 3,000 people stationed in Fengshi, 5,000 people stationed in Dan City, and the remaining 40,000 people are all stationed Follow Lu Yang to Horqin Prairie.

Lu Yang is ready to officially attack the outside world, annihilate the surrounding enemies, and create a stable environment for the entire Liao Province!

three days later.

On the seaside beach on the east side of the Shekou defensive position, Lu Yang came again with Zhuojiu and others. He handed ten Void Crystals to Kuai Bansheng, and said, "You take the deep sea and them to the bottom of the sea, and make the entrance there. Completely blocked."

"Yeah." Kuaishang nodded and entered the sea with Crystal and Deep Sea. In a large underground rift 20 nautical miles away, Kuaishang, Shenhai and Garcia found this twisted time and space. .

"Seal~!"

The bitter love chanted a spell for half a lifetime, and the violent power of the monarch in the body overflowed outwards, and the void crystal in his hand quickly turned into a black stream of water under the urging of magic power, and after drilling into the twisted time and space, in an instant, twisted Space-time has shrunk from 10 meters in diameter to 1 meter.

"Go back and return to your life." Ku Ai Bansheng was very satisfied with his masterpiece, and led the deep sea and others back to the ground. However, not long after they left, a humanoid creature gradually emerged from the water, looking at the Destroyed the twisted time and space, his face was extremely ferocious, and he scolded: "Lu Yang, Jagged Brotherhood, you wait for me."

Unfortunately, no matter how angry he was, it was useless, he had no way to open this twisted time and space, he could only turn around and swim towards the direction of Tsu City.

shore.

Lu Yang ignited a fire in his hands, evaporated the seawater on the bodies of Kuaibansheng and others, and said, "Everyone is divided into five groups, I will take the team to Fengshi, Zhuojiu will go to Baishan City, and Zhou Tianming will go to Fushi. , Xia Yuwei went to the mountain city, and the white lion went to Anshi."

As long as these five cities are solved, the infrastructure problems of the three cities in the East China Sea will also be solved. Jinzhou produces oil, Fushi produces coal, Shancheng and Anshi produce steel, and Fengshi has the most complete light industry industrial park and a city rich in grain. And the Liaoshen Plain of vegetables!

In the future, this world seems to be a magical world, but it is actually a world where magic and technology coexist. To live in this world, both are indispensable.

In the three cities of the East China Sea, the residents of Feng and Dan cities who have already settled down began to pack their bags. The first group to go was the soldiers and engineers. After building their homes and cleaning up the surrounding monsters, there will be Residents return.

Outside the three cities of the East China Sea, a large number of first- and second-order monsters are not as powerful as they used to be in the past. They have a great deterrent effect on the warriors of the Jagged Brothers. Now any veteran of the Jagged Brothers Alliance is at the lowest level. Yes, killing these Tier 1, Tier 2 and Tier 3 monsters is like chopping melons and vegetables.

It took less than a week from the army to wipe out the monsters in these cities. At the same time, the warped time and space in and around these cities were also closed by Lu Yang, Zhuojiu and others.

After half a month, the Jagged Brothers Alliance has created a huge security zone spanning two provinces.

In this area, as long as humans live in the city, there is no need to worry about being attacked by monsters. Outside the city, although there are monsters, these monsters have become the veterans of the Jagged Brotherhood in major colleges leading the rookie magic apprentices to gain experience. mobs.

Lu Yang took 40,000 troops and stationed in Fengshi for a month. After confirming that the surrounding area was safe, he brought the main force to the Daqinggou area to station.

Originally this was the home of the Void Mother Insect, but after Lu Yang dispatched ten Red Mist warriors led by Xiao Liang, he wiped out this area.

Lu Yang looked at the surrounding dilapidated environment and the almost polluted forest, and said, "Everyone settle down here, build a new fortress, and prepare to deal with the enemies from the grasslands."

When the Jagged Brotherhood was at war with the three major races of the gods, there was also a war on the grassland. The gods behind the demons and the orcs also sent the gods to participate in the war. Therefore, the two tribes killed on the grassland. extremely tragic.

Now the two clans have not yet decided the winner, but the soldiers of the two clans have already lost 300,000 to 400,000 people. These news were obtained by Xiao Liang and other Red Mist soldiers who went deep into the grassland to inquire.

The reason why Lu Yang wanted to build a fort here is on the one hand because it is close to the river and there is drinking water, and on the other hand because the terrain here is the best.

This is a y-shaped ravine. On the east side of the ditch is a grassland with severe desertification. The temperature in winter is minus 40 to 50 degrees, and the temperature in summer is 60 to 70 degrees.

Only the dense forest in Daqinggou is the best place to rest, and it has always been a scenic spot with many complete buildings and a railway next to it. As long as you take a serious rest, it will not take a few months. A new city can be built.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and others have returned to the team at this time, and they have brought their respective teams to build a group of fortresses in Daqinggou according to the drawings given by the engineer.

Lu Yang went deep into the grassland alone. He wanted to see what the enemy of the Devil City and the main city of Orcs were like now.

It is already the season of late autumn and early winter. Unfortunately, the desertification here is too serious. The cold wind from the north, accompanied by the yellow sand in the sky, can't open the eyes of those who blow.

Suddenly, Lu Yang felt something was wrong. Not far from him, a terrifying aura shot towards him, and his body disappeared in place. In the next second, a huge cyan wind blade with a diameter of three meters came out of the yellow sand in the sky. Flying shot over, splitting a huge crack fifty or sixty meters deep in the ground where Lu Yang had just stood.

"Escaped? You're a funny human being!" A feminine voice sounded around Lu Yang, making Lu Yang unable to tell which direction the voice was coming from.

Lu Yang turned on his perception ability, but the opponent's movement speed was too fast. He kept spinning around Lu Yang in the strong wind, and he couldn't lock it at all, but Lu Yang was not afraid of him, and the opponent did not dare to show up. There is a high probability that he won't be able to beat him. He sarcastically said, "You're not tired of spinning in circles like this, and you're not afraid of fainting yourself."

"Our wind races are used to living in storms all the year round, why have you ever said that you are dizzy?" The feminine voice appeared again.

As soon as the words fell, a bolt of lightning suddenly struck Lu Yang from behind, paralyzing Lu Yang on the spot with precision, and then, a bucket-thick purple thunderbolt fell in the air, blasting the ground Lu Yang was standing on into a dark spot. Big pit at the bottom.

Lu Yang was resurrected next to the deep pit. If he hadn't released his immortality and immortality skills in Bandarsburg just now, he would have been dead with the attack just now. Looking at the gust of wind around him, Lu Yang knew that he couldn't do any more. After letting the other party go on like this, his body instantly turned into a 100-meter-high flame giant, and he chanted a spell in his mouth.

"Firestorm"

A terrifying flame burst out from Lu Yang's body. He wanted to use the violent flame impact to disperse the hurricane, but at this moment, the surrounding hurricane became even more violent, and there were even ten hurricanes around. Six tornadoes were hitting him.

Chapter 2440: Demon body

So far, none of the other world powerhouses who have fought against Lu Yang have used wind and thunder spells, and none have confronted Lu Yang head-on in spells.

Lu Yang didn't know how strong his magic was. He wanted to fight against the invisible enemy. In the face of sixteen tornadoes, he didn't use the Chaos Demon Flame Formation, but kept condensing his magic power.

"Fire Soul Slash, open it for me~!"

Lu Yang's 100-meter-high body suddenly burst into a blazing red light, and a 100-meter-long flame figure shot out of his body, and a tornado condensed not far from the center.

With a loud "bang", the tornado was scattered by the Fire Soul Slash, and then the Fire Soul Slash flew out of Lu Yang's body, smashing all the remaining fifteen tornadoes, leaving only the gust of wind around him, but this wind is the natural formation of heaven and earth, and Lu Yang can't destroy it at all.

"It turned out to be the pinnacle of the monarch rank. Being able to hit so many Fire Soul Slashes, your mental power has also been depleted a lot. I want to see how you can break the hurricane between the world." The soft voice continued on Lu Yang rang next to him.

Lu Yang laughed when he heard this, and said: "Together with your ability is to hit these sixteen tornadoes, and you won't be able to let it out a second time after that. If you can't fight hard, you just want to borrow the power of heaven and earth, but You can't help me, if you don't want to fight, then I'll leave."

He jumped into the sky, and in the next second, he transformed into a phoenix and flew forward, which made the wind and thunder powerhouses who were hiding in the surrounding hurricanes stunned. After that, the enemy usually tried to find a way to fight him to the death in the gust of wind, but Lu Yang actually flew away and mocked him for a while before leaving, which made the strong wind and thunder rage.

“Damn, you lowly human with no sense of honor, I’m going to kill you.” The feminine voice became extremely twisted and vicious, and chased in the direction of Lu Yang.

Lu Yang sensed the other party, but this strong wind and thunder type was still hiding in the hurricane, as if he had the ability to be invisible. He couldn’t see the person’s face clearly. In this case, Lu Yang couldn’t lock him. Suddenly, Lu Yang thought of a way.

“The **** you believe in is just a joke.” Lu Yang said contemptuously.

“Damn, you dare to insult my lord, I’m going to kill you.” The wind and thunder powerhouse was even more angry, the wind speed increased greatly, and caught up with Lu Yang at a very fast speed. When the distance was only 10 meters, a bucket thick lightning bolt shot out, hitting Lu Yang’s back.

In an instant, Lu Yang’s body swelled rapidly, and the next second, Lu Yang’s body burst into blazing light. After a loud bang, a mushroom cloud was blown out in the surrounding sky within 100 meters. Lu Yang’s self-destruction technique.

Lu Yang returned to reality from Bandarsburg, looked at a strange creature with four wings and two heads that had been blown up in the distance, frowned and said in Elvish language, “What are you?”

“I am the noble Tansilien, the incarnation of wind and thunder, the messenger of the sky, the pioneer of the gods, the punisher of the world...”

Lu Yang looked at the two-headed bird man speechless for a while, and said, “Just tell me what your name is, don’t talk to me about this useless.”

“Bastard, this is the basic etiquette of aristocrats, you have to listen to me.” The two-headed birdman was furious.

Lu Yang sneered and said, “I’m not a noble, what do I do listening to you so much nonsense, say your intentions, why are you blocking me, and what’s your name, two-headed birdman.”

“I’m not called the Double-Headed Birdman, I am Powell, the Tanslian Pioneer.” The Double-Headed Birdman was so excited, his other head said, “My name is Sprewell.”

Lu Yang looked at the two heads with a tired face, and cursed: “You two can get it with one name. If you have two names, I will call you two-headed birdman.”

“You’re courting death.” The two heads of the two-headed birdman were furious at the same time, the one on the left spewed hurricanes, and the one on the right spewed thunder and lightning.

Lu Yang sneered, flapping his wings to avoid the attack, and at the same time, a purple-gray flame emerged from his hand, hitting the two-headed birdman.

“Hurricane~!” The four wings of the two-headed birdman fluttered at the same time, and they fanned back the flames that could burn through the void.

Lu Yang’s eyes widened, and he quickly avoided the attack of his flames and flew into the clouds. He said to the Blazing Demon God, “What kind of monster is this, it can fan my spells back.”

The Blazing Demon God smiled and said: “This is why I advise you to use the body of the demon as soon as possible to return to the biological form. You will eventually encounter creatures that restrain you. This wind element is purely restraining you. He is better than the ice element and the water element. And restraint.”

In terms of water and ice, Lu Yang, the flame monarch at his peak, can fight as much, but the wind element is different. This is pure restraint. No matter what Lu Yang’s spells are, they will be fanned back by the opponent.

Lu Yang asked: “Then the wind element restrains all categories, and he can blow back any water element, ice element, and soil element.”

The Blazing Demon God said: “The wind element can only restrain water and fire, but he can’t restrain the thunder element, space and time, or even the earth element. The earth element of the same rank can make any spell of the wind element ineffective. After all, you can create a Mountains, the wind system cannot be blown away.”

Lu Yang said: "Okay, then I'd better run quickly, it's obviously impossible to beat."

Blazing Demon God said: "Fly north, find a safe place, and we will study how to attract a high-level extraterritorial demon for you."

Lu Yang nodded, he no longer entangled with the two-headed birdman, and flew towards the north side quickly. With the additional flight power of the flame of the phoenix, even the two-headed birdman could not catch up with his wings.

An hour later, Lu Yang dumped the two-headed birdman without a trace, and found a forest. After Lu Yang made sure that the surroundings were safe, he stopped, changed back to human form, and said, "This place should be safe, I can't think of it, I still have a day of defeat."

The Blazing Demon God laughed and said: "What kind of failure are you, you have been defeated, even if you become a lower god, if you only know flames, you will still be unable to beat that two-headed birdman. Him, unless you drain his magic."

Lu Yang sighed and said, "Okay, I'll listen to you."

Blazing Demon God said with satisfaction: "You're not bad, at least you didn't lose your temper because of failure, this is a very good psychological quality, and it will make you go further on the road of becoming a god, okay, no Digressing, let's talk about the extraterrestrial demons. I know you have a taboo about changing a body, but the most suitable body for accommodating multiple spells in this world is the body of the extraterrestrial demons. Of course, there is another kind of body. Appropriately, it's called the Demon God, which only exists in the blood purgatory, are you interested in roaming the blood purgatory?"

Lu Yang felt that the Blazing Demon God was fooling him, and said, "Tell me the truth, did you want me to find a demon body from the very beginning?"
