

Wild Fire 2578

Chapter 2578: new plan

Over the Hulun Lake.

When Lu Yang flew back, the battle between Zhuojiu and Bai Shi was basically over. In the face of the strong men of the Iron Brothers Alliance who had the form of Moonlight Seven, the Summoners couldn't beat them, especially the White Lion.

Launching the Moonlight Seven in the form of Ghost Face Roar, even if he is only at the initial stage of Quasi-God, every heavy blow can tear the ground into a large crack several kilometers long, with a depth of tens of meters.

It's winter now, and the ground is full of permafrost. The white lion can still play such an effect. All the elders of the evocation clan who fought against the white lion were all hacked alive by him, and even the demons they summoned were hacked alive. .

Zhou Tianming controlled six elders of the evocation clan alone, and he didn't have time to use the moonlight seven form. He threw the elders of the evocation clan and the summoned demons into the illusion. He came, and as a result, he was easily killed by Zhou Tianming with a soul knife.

Xia Yuwei and Ku Ai Bansheng were also amazingly powerful. The two of them walked beside the elders of the Demon Summoners with two swords, and the other party was killed without even touching their clothes.

De Buchanzhe, Luo Siyu, and Chu Xiao, who had a poor record, also killed an elder. When Lu Yangfei came back, a dozen people just ended their battle.

"How's it going? Are you okay?" Lu Yang asked.

Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others shook their heads one after another. Not only did they not have the fatigue after the battle, but they were all excited because, for the first time, they felt the feeling of crushing races in different worlds. Finally feel in control of the initiative.

Kuai Ai looked behind Lu Yang with excitement, and said, "Boss, your power is too terrifying, and winter has been beaten into spring by you."

In the area where Lu Yang had just fought, the steaming hot air on the ground had formed a dark cloud with the cold air whistling again, and a large area of rain fell, which combined with the rain on the ground to form a larger flood.

Lu Yang said with a smile, "You guys are all pretty good too. You killed so fast, how's the preparation of the big army?"

Liu Ruohuai said: "All the legions are ready to charge and can attack at any time."

"Let's fight, destroy the Summoners as soon as possible." Lu Yang soared into the air and said, "Let's go together and make a way for the big troops behind."

"Yes." Zhuojiu, Bai Shi and the others followed behind Lu Yang and rushed towards Hulun Lake in the distance. The formation of the 700,000 evokers had already been set up.

The death of the patriarch and many elders in battle has made their 700,000 people lose all confidence. Facing the arrival of Lu Yang and others, they can only fight to the death, but this kind of battle has no meaning.

Going out to the patriarchs and elders, the rest of the clansmen are of the monarch rank, which is too different from Lu Yang and the others who are either demigods or quasi-gods. The demons summoned by ordinary clansmen are also of the same rank as them, so the battlefield becomes slaughterhouse.

Lu Yang, Zhuojiu, and Bai Shi chose a route and pushed them forward with the strongest sound. When the dragon orc army and the blood spirit guards and other armies arrived at the front line, what they saw was already scattered. The fleeing Evokers are gone.

“This guy, the boss, they are too strong, brothers, don’t let them run away.” Liu Ruohuai has returned to the commanding position, leading tens of thousands of soldiers into the battlefield.

It took Lu Yang a whole month to kill most of the Summoners with the turbid wine. It was really hard to find where the few remaining Summoners escaped, so Lu Yang returned with the army.

At the end of this battle, the morale of the entire Jagged Brotherhood reached an unprecedented height, and Lu Yang understood the biggest difference between a race with gods and those without gods.

Before there was no lower god, no matter how strong Lu Yang’s strength was, he was just as beautiful and gorgeous as fireworks, but after he became a lower god, the kind of devastation that caused people to worship from the heart.

What surprised Lu Yang even more was that on the way from Hulun Lake back to the East China Sea, the fire elements between the heavens and the earth kept gathering towards his wounds. You must know that these fire elements ignored him before, only in the blazing flames. When the devil is dispatched, the fire element will approach, and now Lu Yang can do this by himself.

“What do these fire elements mean?” Lu Yang asked the Blazing Demon God curiously.

“Vulcan is an advanced form of fire elements, they are naturally willing to get close to you, and these fire elements also have a very special role, which can become the original power for you to forge your life weapon.” Blazing Demon God said.

“Fate weapon? What?” Lu Yang found another blind spot in his knowledge.

Blazing Demon God said: “When every lower **** becomes a god, he basically forges a natal weapon. This weapon will become stronger as you continue to grow, and one of the foundations for becoming stronger is that there is a fire element to take the initiative. Possessed, you don’t have a natal weapon, these fire elements can only be attached to your chest and want to enter Bandarsburg.”

Lu Yang asked, "Should I go find the materials for my real name weapon now?"

Blazing Demon God smiled and said: "Very correct, go back to the East China Sea to prepare, Malthus will take you to a place, maybe there, you and the mud wine can get their real weapons."

Malthus flew out of Zhuojiu's body and said to Lu Yang: "That place is called the Temple of Doom, an abandoned temple of the ancient gods. I entered there when I visited the continent in the early years, and it was hidden in a hidden place underground. Only through teleportation can you enter, there are wild beasts guarding it, you should be able to beat it with your abilities."

Lu Yang nodded and said, "I'll go to the imperial capital and discuss with Fu Yun and the others first to see where the rest of the races from other worlds are and how we should fight."

"Alright, there are too many races from other worlds. If you only rely on your team to fight, even if you can win every time, your subordinates will die in battle, and the Holy Light can't save soulless souls. people," Malthus said. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

In this battle with the Summoners, the Jagged Brothers sent only 220,000 troops, but none of them died. It was not that the warriors of the Jagged Brothers were powerful, but the Holy Light Knights played a great role in the team. Anyone who is killed will be instantly resurrected, but this is also like what Malthus said, if the soul is destroyed, the Holy Light cannot save it.

It is impossible for the future wars to be every time the Brotherhood of the same robes is desperate to kill the enemy all over the world, and some countermeasures need to be paid attention to.

Lu Yang said: "I have gained a lot of things this time, and I also got the mountain guarding formation of the Summoners. It's better than this. Let's make peace with the races of the other world. Anyway, there are wars between the races of the other world. Why do we have to work so hard?"

Before seeing Young Master Darkmoon, Lu Yang always thought that the new gods of the nine elements were good comrades-in-arms. After all, they killed the old gods together. However, after seeing Young Master Darkmoon, Lu Yang felt I understand one thing, another world civil war is about to start.

The new gods did kill the old gods, but the strength of the new gods was not recognized by those ancient races, such as the silver demons. Now the new gods are fighting Chaos Beasts and Void Zerg, and the ancient races inside are also Compromise and assassinate each other.

The transmitted races all have the mission of destroying other races, and after these races really arrived on earth, they basically all betrayed their gods and wanted to become gods on earth.

That being the case, Lu Yang can just use their psychology to discuss with Young Master Dark Moon and Fu Yun. When teleporting in the future, he will let those hostile races teleport over. Therefore, he must discuss with Fu Yun first.

The Blazing Demon God and Malthus glanced at each other, and both agreed with Lu Yang's method, so Lu Yang left the army and flew towards the imperial capital alone.
