

The Immortal's Wine Store

#Chapter 371 - I Need A Sweeper In My Wine Store - Read The Immortal's Wine Store Chapter 371 - I Need A Sweeper In My Wine Store

'Wait. I can't sense this young man's cultivation level. That means he is at least stronger than me. If that's the case, there should be some truth to his words. I have nothing to lose anymore even if he's lying...' The old man thought deeply to himself. He just got worked up earlier since his cursed eyes caused harm to him and his friends during their younger years. That was also the reason why he sealed his own eyes using a secret technique.

"This Fire Lord Crimson Eyes that you mentioned, can you tell me more about it?" The old man changed his tone as he asked Jiu Shen with a hint of respect.

Jiu Shen stared at him calmly as he replied. "The Fire Lord Crimson Eye is a unique ability that is only possessed by those with noble origin. Someone who has the Fire Lord Crimson Eye would have the ability to see the world in great detail. Even the most minute detail couldn't escape its sights. Possessing this unique ability will also enhance one's affinity with the fire element and it can even improve your spiritual power. However, if you don't have the necessary knowledge on how to control this ability, it will be dangerous. I think you have experienced this already..."

The old man nodded his head gravely upon hearing his words. He was also stunned when he learned that the cursed eyes he had were actually a great and powerful ability! "Do you really have a way to help me control it?"

"Of course, but you've already sealed your eyes for more than a thousand years, so I need to reawaken it. We need to concoct an Origin-rank medicinal pill for you to forcefully awaken it." Jiu Shen answered concisely.

The old man was initially happy, but when he heard the latter half of Jiu Shen's words, he sighed. He knew what an Origin-rank pill was, so he knew how difficult it was to make it. He had a friend who was once known as the top alchemist of the whole Profound Dragon Continent, but he had already left this world... There was no one else he knew who had the ability to concoct a pill at this level.

Sigh...

"I can concoct this pill and I even have the complete set of ingredients necessary to refine this pill." Jiu Shen suddenly said when he heard the old man's sigh.

The old man raised his head with a look of surprise. "You are an alchemist? But I thought you are a cultivator... Sorry, I don't mean anything with my words, but I just find it shocking. Sigh... I'm getting old..."

After being silent for a moment, the old man raised his head and gazed into Jiu Shen's eyes. "If you can help me reawaken my Fire Lord Crimson Eyes and control this power, I will do anything to repay you. I might be old, but I was once one of the top experts of this continent..."

After hearing the old man's solemn promise, Jiu Shen's lips slightly curved upwards. "Actually, I'm lacking a sweeper in my wine store..."

Hm? He wants me to become a sweeper of his wine store? The old man felt that Jiu Shen was mocking him, but when he saw the young man's calm expression, he thought that he might be serious. However, would he really agree to become a mere sweeper? His answer was...

"Sure. I'm old and I don't like to fight anymore. I've been cleaning my old friends' tombstones for hundreds of years, so I don't mind becoming a sweeper in your wine store. Perhaps that's a good ending for someone like me..." The old man forced out a sad smile. He had long since lost his interest in becoming the top expert in the world. The only reason why he wanted to reawaken his Fire Lord Crimson Eyes was because of his past regrets.

"Good. Don't worry, although my wine store is located in the Crimson Fiend Continent, the demons there are rather friendly." Jiu Shen casually said, but his words almost made the old man fall to the ground.

"What did you say?!" The old man held onto Jiu Shen's clothes, his beard rose and fell as he breathed heavily.

"I said that the demons there are quite friendly." Jiu Shen answered without a change in his expression.

"You mean your wine store is truly in the Crimson Fiend Continent? That place? You-" The old man breathed deeply and sighed.

"Now, I don't know if this will be a good ending for me or not..." The old man muttered with a hollow laugh.

Jiu Shen patted him on the shoulder as he said. "Don't worry, you won't regret it..."

The old man raised his head to look at Jiu Shen, but he no longer had the energy to reply. He felt like he was conned by a scammer, but it was already too late to take back his words. Since he had already decided, he might as well believe in his choice.

Looking at the dispirited look of the old man, the three ladies who were standing behind Jiu Shen chuckled secretly. They felt that the scene was a bit comical and amusing.

"Alright. I will begin the pill refining in a while. You should stay further away lest you disturb me in the pill refining process. You don't want anything going wrong in this, right?" Jiu Shen said with a smile.

The old man felt as if he was a fly being shooed away, but he merely nodded his head absentmindedly. Although he was a bit irked by Jiu Shen's attitude, he was also curious if the young man was truthful with his words. After all, he was planning to concoct an Origin-rank pill. Even his late friend had his troubles when he refined pills at that level.

"Wait. Are you planning to refine the pill here?" The old man suddenly asked as he stared at the surroundings. It was full of old tombstones and wild grasses. The place was definitely not suitable for refining pills, especially a high-ranked one.

Jiu Shen stared at the old man as if he was looking at an idiot. "Of course. Is there anything wrong with it?" To Jiu Shen, there wasn't a problem in refining pills anywhere. As long as no one disturbs him in the pill refining process, then the place doesn't matter much.

The old man felt like spewing blood when he saw the look that Jiu Shen gave him. He waved his hand lifelessly as he muttered. "Alright. Alright. Just do what you want...."

Yue Bo dragged his weary body listlessly and found himself a spot at the corner. He stared at Jiu Shen's figure with a hint of hope, doubt, and expectation. Could this young man refine an Origin-rank pill? Yue Bo was unsure himself.

The old man's name was Yue Bo. He was the only remaining guardian of the Profound Dragon Continent. He participated in the battle against the demons during the great warring period and because of his merits and great power, he rose to the highest position in the Alliance. However, after the Alliance signed a treaty with the Demon Race, he stepped down from his position and lived a solitary and unknown life.

Initially, he planned to stay in this abandoned cemetery for his remaining years and clean his old friends' tombstones, but then...

Yue Bo glanced at Jiu Shen with a penetrating look. Although he had the eyes of a blind man, he could still see using his spiritual vision. He watched as Jiu Shen took out a huge cauldron from out of nowhere. The cauldron looked stunning and majestic. Even Yue Bo had never seen a cauldron as precious as that after thousands of years. He could tell that this huge cauldron was not ordinary just based on its arcane aura and intricate patterns. Only a high-level blacksmith could create such a masterpiece!

"This cauldron..."

Jiu Shen slapped the Heaven Trampling Cauldron, making it emit a loud smacking sound. The ground beneath the cauldron trembled and produced a quaking sound.

'I have a lot of pill recipes that can awaken a human bloodline, but the pill I'm planning to refine is the Sky Rousing Dan. It is the most suitable and easiest pill to concoct based on that brat's circumstance. The Sky Rousing Dan should be able to awaken his Fire Lord Crimson Eyes. Alright. Let's begin...' Jiu Shen took out more than a dozen spiritual ingredients. Some were rare, while others were common.

After taking out all the ingredients from his space earring, Jiu Shen started refining the spiritual plants. His movements were unhurried and relaxed as if he was merely brewing a simple medicinal tea.

Looking at this scene, Yue Bo was stunned. Although he wasn't an alchemist, he saw how his old friend refined pills. And what Jiu Shen was doing right now was completely different than what he remembered. 'What is this kid doing? Is he even refining pills or is he brewing coffee?'

Jiu Shen who was unaware of Yue Bo's thoughts continued the refining process with a calm expression.

Long Meili, Theia, and Ice also watched the scene with interest.

Not long later, Jiu Shen completely concocted the pill. It didn't even take him an hour to concoct the Origin-rank Sky Rousing Dan!

A wave of dense pill aroma covered the cemetery after Jiu Shen opened the lid of the Heaven Trampling Cauldron. He didn't even look at what level of pill he produced and just took everything in his hand. He kept the rest after tossing one to Yue Bo.

"Eat this." He said to the speechless old man who caught the pill with trembling hands.

"Is this really an Origin-rank pill?" He muttered absentmindedly. The pill refining process took less than an hour and he almost thought that he was dreaming. However, when he looked at the brilliantly glowing round pill in his palm and the warmth it was emitting, he knew that it was the real deal. He could even sense a strong amount of true essence and power inside the small pill.

"It's just a mere Origin-rank pill. You don't need to act like that..." Jiu Shen said to the old man as he kept the Heaven Trampling Cauldron inside his space earring.

Yue Bo glanced at Jiu Shen and opened his mouth, but when he saw the look of disdain in that handsome face, he felt a bit ashamed of himself. He then popped the pill into his mouth and swallowed it down his throat.

When the pill entered his stomach, he felt a burning sensation slowly enveloping his body. It then traveled upwards and stopped on his eyes. The burning sensation intensified, making Yue Bo grit his teeth in pain. He let out a soft groan as he clutched his burning eyes.

Argh!

"Endure the pain and refine the medicinal properties of the pill!" He heard Jiu Shen's reminder, so he immediately sat down cross-legged and started refining the remaining medicinal properties left in his body.

Yue Bo breathed heavily as beads of sweat slid down his cheeks. His eyes were shut tight and a look of pain can be seen on his face.

There were only a small bit of medicinal properties left from the Sky Rousing Dan, so it didn't take Yue Bo much time to fully refine the pill.

Suddenly, he felt an itchy sensation in his eyes. Just as he was about to rub his eyes using his hands, he heard a calm voice.

"Open your eyes! The Sky Rousing Dan has already awakened your Fire Lord Crimson Eyes, but it still has to be controlled. I will teach you a mantra that could help you control this power. Listen carefully because I will only say this twice..."

Oh Luk Ga Si Naw

Vol Bul Hie Yet

Yue Bo carefully memorized the chant and silently murmured it as he tried to restrain the power rising in his eyes.

Haa!

He exhaled a breath of warm air as he slowly opened his eyes. A pair of crimson pupils that burned like the sun. The three ladies unconsciously narrowed their eyes when they saw this. They felt slightly uncomfortable looking at Yue Bo's eyes.

Rumble! Rumble!

Jiu Shen and the three ladies raised their heads when they heard the rumbling sounds above the skies.

Dark clouds congregated and produced webs of lightning, illuminating the firmament with a brilliant glow.

"So the pill also gave him the chance to reach the Void God Realm. With the brat's Fire Lord Crimson Eyes, he should barely survive this tribulation despite his old age. When that happens, he would gain back his youth..." Jiu Shen muttered to himself.

Yue Bo stood up and stared at the dark clouds with a grave and excited look. "This is...."

Yue Bo stared at the huge dark clouds in the sky. He could hear the rumbling sounds of thunder as flashes of lightning occasionally struck.

"Is this my tribulation lightning? I never thought I would have the chance to break through the Void God Realm. It looks like I have to obediently sweep that guy's wine store when the time comes..." Yue Bo muttered to himself as the fire in his crimson eyes burned intensely.

Meanwhile, Jiu Shen glanced at the three ladies and told them. "Let's stay out of here. If we remain in this place, his tribulation lightning will only become stronger."

The three women nodded their heads obediently and followed behind Jiu Shen.

Yue Bo muttered the mantra that Jiu Shen told him and activated his Fire Lord Crimson Eyes. His crimson pupils released a terrifying wave of power that scorched the old man's surroundings.

Yue Bo stared apologetically at the collapsed tombstones. "I'm so sorry buddies..."

He still found it difficult to control his ability, but he knew that he would get used to it soon.

Zapp!

A huge bolt of lightning struck like a spear of glowing white light, tearing space asunder!

Bang!

Yue Bo was directly hit, but a burst of fiery crimson flames covered his entire body, lessening the damage of the lightning.

Hahaha!

Yue Bo laughed like a crazy old man. His bent back suddenly stood straight as he slowly raised his head to the sky. "COME!! Hahaha!"

Bolts after bolts of lightning continuously struck Yue Bo, but his unrestrained laughter still lingered in the now-destroyed cemetery.

***

"Your Majesty, I've returned..." Cornelia respectfully bowed at the man seated on the throne. Her amorous expression was now replaced by a rare look of seriousness.

"How's the situation against the Rebel Army?" Emperor Balmond asked as he stared at the kneeling Cornelia. He was most pleased about this child of his. She was the number one expert among the younger generation and she was already a Demon Lord (Nascent God Realm) at such a young age. Her talent was rare even among their ancestors.

Cornelia gathered her thoughts before she answered. "Our Demon Army has captured three bases of the Rebel Army and we also killed two of their Nascent God Realm experts. The situation at the frontline has been stabilized following our most recent victory."

Balmond nodded his head, pleased, at the report. "Good! I know that you won't fail me. It was a wise decision to put you in charge of leading our Demon Army. Although you are still lacking in terms of personal strength, your wisdom and battle tactics make up for it!"

"I don't deserve such praise, Your Majesty! The victory isn't just my achievement alone. Our officers and our soldiers helped me greatly in this battle! They deserve to be praised more than me." Cornelia was being truthful. Their victory was greatly credited to the overwhelming strength of their Demon Army. They decimated the resistance of the Rebel Army, killing thousands of their members in the process. The casualties on their side were negligible compared to the number of enemies they killed!

Balmond knew this too, so he nodded his head in agreement. "Even so, your contribution to this war was massive. What reward do you want me to give you?" He asked as he stared at his daughter. Although his son was disappointing, Cornelia's recent achievements made him happy with his choice of choosing her as the crown princess.

Cornelia slowly raised her head and answered with a sweet smile. "Your Majesty, I hope you can give me a short vacation."

Balmond was a bit surprised when he heard this. "Just this? Do you not desire anything else? Land? Soldiers? Treasures? Do you not want any of this?"

Cornelia shook her head. "Emperor Father, your pitiful daughter is now weary from the constant war at the frontline. I wish to have a short vacation." She answered as she acted pitifully.

Balmond chuckled to himself when he saw his daughter acting like this. He knew her well, but since she did have huge merit this time, he nodded his head. "Alright. I'll approve of your one-year break, but you must not get out of the empire without any protection."

"Don't worry, Emperor Father. I don't plan to go out of the empire at the moment. I've heard a lot about a peculiar wine store in Morlon City. According to my subordinates, the wines sold in that store have stunning effects. I want to go and see this place myself." Cornelia said, a hint of expectation can be felt in her voice.

Balmond frowned upon hearing this. Although there was no conflict between him and the mysterious owner of this store, Emperor Balmond was unaware of the other party's thoughts. However, when he saw the eager look of his beloved daughter, he sighed and reluctantly agreed. "Fine. Just don't provoke anyone from that store. Not until we clear the remaining members of the Rebel Army. It's not good to make more enemies at times like this."

Cornelia nodded her head obediently. "Yes, Emperor Father."

She was also curious why her father was so cautious about the mysterious owner of the wine store. However, she dared not ask about this.

'I'll investigate this owner myself and see what makes him so special that even father is cautious towards him.' Cornelia thought to herself.

"Alright. You may leave now." Emperor Balmond waved his hand, motioning Cornelia to leave the throne room.

Cornelia slowly stood up and bowed at Emperor Balmond before she left the throne room.

Outside, Cornelia's amorous face slowly returned. She gave off the aura of seduction, making the imperial guards standing outside the throne room feel their lower bodies getting hotter.

As if she had sensed their reaction, Cornelia winked at them before she left.

The two imperial guards gritted their teeth and bit their tongues. It was only until a few seconds later did they regained their senses.

"Shit! I almost got my soul lost in Her Highness' seduction arts!"

"Shh! Quiet! If His Majesty hears you, I won't even bother helping you!"

Jiu Shen stared at the collapsed Yue Bo under the ruins with a smile on his face. The dark clouds had already drifted away, replaced by the radiant and blue sky. Only the ravaged ruins of the then old cemetery was left behind by the frenzied bolts of tribulation lightning.

"He actually survived his tribulation lightning..." Long Meili muttered in surprise as she stared at Yue Bo who was still sprawled lifelessly on the ground. With her acute senses, she could hear that Yue Bo was still breathing.

"Give this healing pill to him. His condition might worsen if his injuries aren't treated well. However, that guy is now a Void God Realm expert, so he should be able to heal on his own soon, but I can't wait that long so let him consume the pill." Jiu Shen tossed a pill to Long Meili who swiftly caught it with her hand.

She then walked towards Yue Bo and turned him over. When she saw the face of Yue Bo, she was quite shocked. The old man had recovered his youth! He now looked like a man in his early thirties! After her initial surprise, Long Meili quickly pushed the pill inside Yue Bo's mouth.

Gulp.

Yue Bo's throat moved as he unconsciously swallowed down the healing panacea.

Long Meili stood up and returned behind Jiu Shen after letting Yue Bo consume the pill.

After a while, Yue Bo slowly opened his eyes and sat up cross-legged with difficulty. He could feel a warm sensation in his body and after checking it using his spiritual vision, he discovered a pill in his stomach. It was providing his body with huge amounts of true essence, making him recover faster.

Without wasting too much time, he swiftly refined the pill. His physical injuries healed quickly and his breathing went back to normal. After recuperating, he slowly stood up and checked the changes in his body. He noticed that his wrinkled skin had become tight and full of vitality!

Yue Bo touched his face and he almost cried when he felt the youthful skin. It wasn't a dream! He had become young once again!

After checking the changes in his body, he scrutinized his dantian. It was filled with power!

Void God Realm.

Hahaha!

Yue Bo raised his head and laughed happily. Although he no longer desired anything, he was happy that he had finally achieved his wish. He had become a Void God Realm expert!

"What's your name, young brat?" Amidst his laughing fit, Yue Bo suddenly heard a calm voice calling out to him. He turned his gaze and saw the young man who had refined the Origin-rank Sky Rousing Dan that helped him awaken his Fire Lord Crimson Eyes. The said pill was also responsible for his breakthrough to the Void God Realm.

He didn't even know this young man's name, but now that he had broken through, he could still not sense the other party's cultivation level. As if a metallic wall was preventing him from sensing anything. Now, he finally realized how scary this young man was.

When Jiu Shen noticed Yue Bo trying to gauge his strength, he smirked in his heart. His cultivation level was only at the Origin God Realm, but no one would be able to discern his real strength because he had the Seamless Deity Physique! A body that exceeded even that of Immortals!

'Although my cultivation is weak at the moment, my soul is different. I was once a Heavenly God Realm expert, a few realms stronger than that of a Void God Realm cultivator. Let me show you a bit of my power.'

The ponytail holder tying Jiu Shen's hair snapped, making his long silver hair dance wildly. His golden eyes flashed with a sharp glint as he stared calmly at Yue Bo. A wave of heavy and stifling spiritual aura suddenly gushed out of him, making Yue Bo glance at Jiu Shen in horror.

"This power! This is not the Void God Realm! You! You are-" Yue Bo's knees caved in under the immense pressure of Jiu Shen's spiritual aura. Blood sipped out at the corner of his lips, but he couldn't even lift his hand to wipe it off his face.

Looking at Jiu Shen's peerless visage, he felt like a bug in front of a deity! The difference in their power was so vast that he didn't even dare breathe in his presence!

'This realm of power is not possible to achieve in this world! Who is he?!' Yue Bo thought to himself in fear.

"Brat, it's not good to inspect the cultivation level of others right in front of their face. You're lucky that I still have uses for you or I would have erased your body and soul." Jiu Shen muttered in an eerily calm voice as he slowly withdrew his spiritual aura. His current physical body could not handle exerting the spiritual power of a Heavenly God Realm expert for too long.

Yue Bo fell to the ground after Jiu Shen lifted off his spiritual aura. He breathed heavily as he clutched his chest. That was the most horrifying thing he had experienced in all his life! All the experts he had known all those years ago would only be ants in the presence of this young man! That kind of power was capable of destroying a whole world!

It took him quite a bit of time before he returned to normal. He anxiously stared at Jiu Shen and bowed as he said. "Your Excellency, please forgive this lowly one for offending you! I didn't mean to offend you. I was merely curious about your power. Please forgive me, Your Excellency!"

Jiu Shen chuckled in his heart, but he kept on a straight face. "My name is Jiu Shen, but call me Wine Master Jiu or Sect Master Jiu. That's what my subordinates call me."

"Yes, Wine Master Jiu Shen! Don't worry! I will do as I promised and serve you as your wine store's sweeper!" He no longer felt reluctant to become this young man's sweeper. The hell! It was a rare chance to serve such a powerful being! Even if it was just as a lowly sweeper, he was still eager to do it!

c 375

Jiu Shen was pleased when he saw Yue Bo's expression. This man was his strongest subordinate at the moment. The guy's cultivation realm was even higher than his own!

"Alright. Meili, give him a few sets of our sect's guardian robe. We will go back to the sect and rest there for a day before we go to the Crimson Fiend Continent." Jiu Shen said as he summoned a spatial door with a mere flick of his hand.

Looking at the dark rift, Yue Bo's gaze turned even more respectful. Even with his current level of power, he could not command space to that degree.

The group went back to the sword tower in just a few seconds.

Yue Bo stared at the huge sword erected on the ground. Its blade was pointed at the heavens in an arrogant manner as if it wanted to pierce the skies. Young disciples dressed in black robes can be seen going in and out of this sword tower. All of them had sharp auras unbecoming their young ages. If any of these disciples were placed in different empires, they would surely be considered as the top talents in the younger generation!

Yue Bo who was once one of the most powerful members of the Alliance fifty thousand years ago was shocked to see this. The young members of the Alliance all those years ago could not even compare to the disciples of this sword tower! It must be noted that all members of the Alliance fifty thousand years ago including the young ones were constantly facing wars and battles, making them even stronger. However, the young disciples in front of him were not inferior and even stronger than those young Alliance members!

"Welcome to the Heavenly Sword Tower. From now on you will be one of the guardians of this place. It is still new and is not even a year old yet, so it is still a bit weak, but I'm confident that in less than fifty years, this sword tower will give birth to countless experts." Jiu Shen said with his hands behind his back. His words were like the words of a madman, but Yue Bo and the three ladies didn't even show a hint of disagreement. They knew that this man was capable of doing what he had just said.

'Weak? You call these freaks weak?' Yue Bo almost cursed, but he put on a smile as he promised.

"I will follow your arrangements, Sect Master Jiu Shen. As long as I'm alive, I will help you achieve your dreams!"

Jiu Shen chuckled when he heard his words. He then walked inside the tower under the respectful gazes of Yue Bo and the three ladies.

One day later, inside the Sect Master's room. Jiu Shen was seated on a chair. His expression was relaxed.

"Ren Shuang." He called out.

Swoosh.

A shadow appeared in front of him as a person teleported out of nowhere.

"Sect Master." Ren Shuang greeted as he kneeled in front of Jiu Shen.

"Tell Elyk and his father to come here right away. I have something to tell them." Jiu Shen said with an impassive look.

"As you command." Ren Shuang said before his figure disappeared.

***

"Your Majesty, Vice Sect Master Ren Shuang of the Heavenly Sword Tower has arrived!" An imperial guard notified Emperor Elyk. This news made Elyk abruptly stand up. It was actually Ren Shuang!

Emperor Elyk knew this man very well since he had seen him quite a few times every time he visited the Heavenly Sword Tower. Ren Shuang was a man of few words and he rarely goes out of the Heavenly Sword Tower. Only Jiu Shen could command him to go to the imperial palace.

"Send Vice Sect Master Ren Shuang inside. Never mind, I'll go out and meet him personally." Emperor Elyk might be the emperor of the Silver Wing Empire, but he dared not neglect Ren Shuang. Even his father wouldn't dare provoke this man.

Emperor Elyk rushed out of the throne room to meet Ren Shuang. When he arrived in the guest hall, he saw Ren Shuang who was wearing a stern look.

"Vice Sect Master Ren, welcome! I apologize for making you wait. Come. I'll bring you inside the throne room." Emperor Elyk greeted Ren Shuang with a warm smile.

"There is no need for that. The Sect Master wants to see you and the old emperor." Ren Shuang said in a cold and distant tone.

'Sect Master Jiu? Is it finally time?'

Emperor Elyk turned serious as he nodded his head. "Alright. I'll inform my father and we will be in the sword tower right away."

Ren Shuang nodded his head. "I've delivered Sect Master's words, so I will now take my leave."

Swoosh.

Emperor Elyk did not dally after Ren Shuang left. He immediately went to find his old man.

"Old man, Sect Master Jiu wants to see us. Let's go." Emperor Elyk pulled his father who was still drinking his morning tea.

The old emperor stood up and muttered. "Is he finally planning to go back to the Crimson Fiend Continent?"

"Perhaps."

The father and son duo swiftly flew towards the sword tower at their fastest speed. They didn't even bother to change their clothes as they left behind afterimages in the skies.

Not long later, they arrived in front of the sword tower. They were then greeted by Jiu Shen's first disciple, Lu Sulan. She also led the two to the Sect Master's room.

"Master, His Majesty, and the old emperor have arrived." Lu Sulan knocked on the door gently.

"Let them in."

Lu Sulan pushed the door open and motioned the emperor and the old emperor to get inside the room.

Inside the room was the calmly sitting Jiu Shen. Standing behind him were Long Meili, Theia, and Ice in her human form.

"Greetings, Sect Master Jiu Shen."

"Greetings, Sect Master Jiu Shen."

The father and son greeted Jiu Shen respectfully. They also greeted the three ladies behind him.

Jiu Shen nodded at them and said in a serious voice. "I will go back to the Crimson Fiend Continent. Elyk, are you sure that you want to come with me?"

Emperor Elyk's expression turned solemn as he stared at his father. After seeing his old man nodding his head, the emperor turned his gaze back to Jiu Shen and said. "Sect Master Jiu, I want to go with you!"

"Good. The teleportation formation is in my store, so we will go there first.." Jiu Shen stood up and summoned the space door.

Jiu Shen checked the teleportation formation. He then stared at Yue Bo, Emperor Elyk, Ice, Theia, and Long Meili. They were?the ones going with him to the Crimson Fiend Continent. "Are you guys ready?"

The five of them nodded their heads at him.

After seeing them nod their heads, Jiu Shen activated the teleportation array formation.

Their bodies were enveloped by a bright ray of light as they vanished. When they opened their eyes, they were already inside an unfamiliar room.

"We're here." Jiu Shen's calm voice woke them from their stupor.

Emperor Elyk was stunned. He expected a deserted place full of blood and chaos, but he didn't expect that they would be teleported inside a luxurious place.

"Where are we?" He asked curiously as he stared at Jiu Shen's face.

"This is a branch store of mine here in the Crimson Fiend Continent. This place isn't as peaceful as it looks. Once you stepped out of this building, you'll see it yourself. Follow me downstairs." Jiu Shen replied calmly before he led them to the first floor.

When they reached the first floor, they finally saw a few demons. Some of them were seated in groups of four or five, while others sat alone. Almost all of them had bulky appearances and horrifying faces.

Emperor Elyk who was still a 9th-rank Saint gasped in surprise when he sensed demons who were even stronger than him.

'This is indeed the Crimson Fiend Continent.' The emperor thought to himself in shock.

"Burlock. Come here." Jiu Shen suddenly called out a name.

The five newcomers turned their gazes and saw a huge and bulky demon walking in their direction. Even though he was hiding his strength, they could still sense that this guy was at the Nascent God Realm! However, what made them even more surprised was the respectful look of this demon as he glanced at Jiu Shen.

"Wine Master Jiu, welcome back!" Burlock greeted Jiu Shen enthusiastically. He then noticed a few individuals standing behind Jiu Shen and observed them briefly. There were five people behind Jiu Shen, three were ladies who were at the Nascent God Realm, one was a dignified looking middle-aged man who was at the 9th-rank Saint, and the last person made Burlock frown. He couldn't sense this person's strength at all!

"These people are your new colleagues. They have been with me for way earlier than you, so you must treat them well." Jiu Shen patted Burlock's shoulder.

Burlock hurriedly nodded his head upon hearing Jiu Shen's words. 'So they are Wine Master Jiu's old subordinates.'

"I will treat them well, Wine Master Jiu. You can rest assured." Burlock promised.

"Good. Go and get to know them. After that, give them a small tour within Morlon City. Oh, Yue Bo, you stay here and clean the garden outside. I only have a broom here with me, so can you make other tools yourself." Jiu Shen said as he took out an old-looking wooden broom. This was easy to make, so it didn't take him long to make this broom. Although it looked shabby and frail, it was made of precious materials, making it a lot durable. Heck! It can even be made as a weapon!

Yue Bo accepted the broom with an eager look. There wasn't even an ounce of reluctance on his face as he took the broom in his hands.

"Yes, Wine Master Jiu! I'll start cleaning the garden right away!" Yue Bo patted his chest and stepped outside the building with haste. Perhaps only this man would be excited to clean someone else's garden...

Looking at the excited figure going out of the building, Burlock and the rest were speechless.

***

"According to my subordinates, the wine store should be around this corner." Cornelia muttered to herself as she checked the map in her hands. It was roughly drawn, but everything about Morlon City was clearly drawn on the map.

Cornelia kept the map in her space ring and glanced ahead of her. There she saw a huge blooming azure lotus surrounded by tall metal fences. Demons also came in and out of the lotus building.

"That should be it!" Cornelia's eyes lit up and she immediately flew towards the direction of the lotus building.

She slowly descended in front of the metal gate of the lotus building. In her descent, she saw hundreds of spiritual herbs and flowers neatly planted in rows and columns outside the lotus building. All of which were at least Nascent-rank spiritual plants! She even saw some Origin-rank spiritual plants and a few others with levels that she could not discern. Looking at this scene, Cornelia's mouth twitched uncontrollably.

"Just how rich is the owner of this wine store for him to casually plant such precious spiritual plants in his garden? Even Emperor Father isn't as rich as him..." Cornelia muttered to herself as she stepped inside the metal gate. She glanced to her left and right to observe the spiritual plants closely. Even until now, she has yet to recover from her shock.

Just then, she saw a human in his thirties sweeping near the garden. He was wearing a black robe with an insignia that she was unfamiliar with.

'He must be a worker here...' Cornelia thought in her heart. However, as she looked closer at this human, she felt that her vision was obscured by a thin veil of strange power, preventing him from looking at the human's cultivation level.

Cornelia was shocked to discover this since she only experienced this kind of thing in front of her father, Emperor Balmond.

'Wait. Is this guy the mysterious owner of this store? This strength... Void God Realm...' She was stunned at this discovery. Now she knew why her father was wary of offending this wine store owner.

As if he noticed Cornelia looking at him, the human turned his gaze at her and smiled amiably.

His face was average at best, but his temperament was similar to those who had experienced many things in life. His most striking feature was his eyes. It seemed to contain a galaxy of its own.

Suddenly, Cornelia felt her heartbeat moving faster.

Cornelia swiftly calmed her restless heart. She was merely excited at the thought of meeting another Void God Realm expert other than her father.

"Handsome, are you the mysterious owner of this store?" Cornelia asked Yue Bo with a seductive smile hanging on her face. She slowly leaned closer to him, exposing her deep cleavage that could drown any man in ecstasy.

With a light smile on his face, Yue Bo appeared to be unruffled by her charms. He stared into her eyes as he answered with an amiable voice. "I'm merely an ordinary sweeper working here. If you are looking for the owner, Wine Master Jiu Shen is inside the lotus building."

Cornelia slightly frowned when she heard the reply. 'Am I wrong? Is he really just an ordinary sweeper? No. For a human, he didn't show any fear when he spoke to me.'

"Young Miss? Please excuse me. I still have to clean the garden." Yue Bo bowed gently at her and left with the broom in his hand.

Cornelia stared at his figure with interest. This average-looking human was definitely not normal. She secretly used her seductive arts on him, but it actually had no effects! If he was a normal human, he would have thrown himself at her, but no such thing happened. The only explanation was that the human was way stronger than her!

"Interesting! I will find out more about you soon, but first, let me see if the owner is truly inside this lotus building..." Cornelia muttered with a dazzling smile as she elegantly walked towards the wine store.

When she stepped inside the store, there was a sudden change in the atmosphere. The amount of true essence became denser and the space inside the building seemed to have become bigger. She was sure that it wasn't just a misconception. This was a high-level array formation that controlled space! That means, whoever made this lotus building was a top Array Formation Maker!

Cornelia's arrival inside the store made her the focal point of everyone's gazes. Lecherous stares were directed at her figure, but she merely ignored them. She was used to this already, so wasn't surprised by their reaction. Although she didn't show any change in her outward appearance, Cornelia was mocking these lowly beings in her heart.

Tap. Tap.

Her high heels made light tapping sounds as she slowly walked around the store. Wherever she passed by, she would leave a wave of tantalizing fragrance that made the customers inhale her scent greedily.

Cornelia Bloodfallen was a well-known figure in the Great Demon Empire, but only a few important people managed to see her appearance. That's why no one was able to recognize her this time.

The succubus princess toured around the store's first floor as if she was sightseeing. Many individuals had already noticed her seductive figure walking around, but no one dared to disturb or cause trouble for her. This also surprised Cornelia since every time she showed herself in public, there were always brave individuals who tried to strike a conversation with her. Some couldn't even control themselves after seeing her beauty and pounced at her with hungry eyes. Of course, the latter individuals were no longer alive in this world...

Suddenly, Cornelia stopped and stared at a human who was sitting calmly in a corner. His devilishly handsome face made her eyes light up.

This man was leaning on his chair with an expressionless look on his face. At the moment, he was holding a sleeping chubby white cat in his arms. Seated on either side of this man were two peerlessly beautiful ladies, each with their own charms. She even sensed that their cultivation levels were on par or even stronger than hers.

Looking at them, Cornelia smirked and proceeded to walk towards their group.

Theia and Long Meili noticed someone walking towards them. When they saw the seductive-looking succubus throwing amorous glances at Jiu Shen, their eyebrows knitted into a frown.

Cornelia chuckled when she saw the hostile gazes of the two ladies.

"Oh my! Don't look at me like that. I feel so scared..." She put on a scared look as she glanced at the two.

"Stay where you are if you don't want me to break your face!" Long Meili said as killing intent seeped out of her eyes. Theia's hand also rested on the hilt of her sword, prepared to strike if she saw this succubus acting weirdly. They both felt threatened when they saw her appearance.

Cornelia covered her mouth with her hands as she giggled coquettishly. She then stared at Jiu Shen and said in a cute manner. "Hey handsome, is this how you treat the guests of your store?"

Jiu Shen turned his gaze towards the unfamiliar-looking succubus. He acted as if he failed to notice the seductive arts purposely directed at him.

"Theia, Meili, you guys sit down. This young lady is the crown princess of the Great Demon Empire, Her Highness Princess Cornelia Bloodfallen." Jiu Shen said as he motioned the succubus to a nearby seat.

Cornelia was surprised that her identity was uncovered by this human. This was the first time they had seen each other, so how did he know her? She was full of questions, but she still put on the same seductive smile. With a hand covering her small lips, Cornelia winked at Jiu Shen. "Hehe. It seems like you are the mysterious owner of this store, little brother..."

Little brother?

Jiu Shen's calm face froze when he heard this title. He then laughed hard, shocking Long Meili and Theia who was seated beside him.

After Jiu Shen's laughter ceased, he stared at Cornelia with an impassive look. His handsome features made her blush instinctively. To hide her embarrassment, she looked away.

"Meili, go and get a bottle of Bejeweled Ocean Nectar for Princess Cornelia." Jiu Shen said.

Hearing that, Cornelia's smile turned even more vibrant.. "The mysterious owner Wine Master Jiu Shen is actually this generous."

"One bottle is 1000 Blood Stones. Don't worry. The price is worth it..." Jiu Shen smiled at Cornelia, making her face turn stiff.

"1000 Blood Stones..." It was not a big amount, but it wasn't small either. However, this was nothing to the relatively well-off crown princess. She just felt that this Wine Master Jiu Shen was quite the miser of an owner.

Long Meili stood up with a mocking smile and went to the wine storage. She felt a bit happy that they could swindle 1000 Blood Stones from this lecherous succubus.

"I wonder why the Great Demon Empire's crown princess is here in my humble store..." Jiu Shen said as he stroked the fur of the sleeping white cat in his arms.

Cornelia adjusted her sitting posture and tucked her bangs behind her ears. Looking at Jiu Shen with the same charming smile, she answered. "I'm only here to taste your wonderful wines. According to my sources, each of your wines has different and unique effects on the consumers. In particular, the Bejeweled Ocean Nectar is surprisingly helpful to those above the Nascent God Realm."

When Jiu Shen heard her reply, he remained silent. He knew that this crown princess has other motives in coming here. However, he couldn't care less about her. As long as she doesn't do anything outrageous and spend Blood Stones on his wines, then that's all that matters.

Theia who was seated beside Jiu Shen continued giving Cornelia a deathly stare. Although Jiu Shen didn't care about this woman, Theia felt that this succubus was a dangerous foe.

Looking at Theia's cold gaze, Cornelia merely gave her a splendid smile.

"Don't look at me like that, little sister. I won't eat this guy, but if he eats me, how could I resist. Uh~"

Theia's scalp tingled when she heard the succubus moaning at the end of her words. 'She definitely did it on purpose!'

Slam!

A bottle of wine was suddenly slammed on the table.

Cornelia turned her gaze, ignoring the judging look of Long Meili. She focused her attention on the wine. It had an ocean blue color, and despite it still being sealed in the bottle, she could already sense the vigorous amount of true essence within the wine.

'This is without a doubt a treasure!' She exclaimed in her heart.

***

"Your Majesty, the delegate sent by Narda Principality has arrived in our borders. At the moment, their group decided to rest in Morlon City, so they would only be here in the capital after two days." Hanzo reported to Emperor Balmond.

"So they could no longer hold back themselves, huh? After eyeing our Bloodfallen Imperial Family for many years, they finally decided to extend their dirty claws in my territory! Hmph!" Emperor Balmond muttered through gritted teeth.

The Crimson Fiend Continent wasn't as peaceful as it seemed to be. There have been traces of internal conflict among them during the last few centuries. Although there were no large conflicts yet, the recent altercations have become much fiercer. It was only a matter of time before the whole continent would be engulfed in war.

The Great Demon Empire currently held the strongest power in the whole Crimson Fiend Continent, but there were rumors that the guardian of Narda Principality has become a Void God Realm expert. If this news was true, then the Great Demon Empire's authority would be shaken. After all, they weren't on good terms with this territory.

Hanzo could feel the wrath of the emperor, so he dared not raise his head.

"Who did they send as a delegate?" Emperor Balmond suppressed his fury as he asked the trembling Hanzo.

"It's Demon Ancestor Lou Baiqing! The Narda Principality also sent five Demon Lords to escort him." Hanzo answered while wiping off his sweat.

"They were actually willing to send that bastard? Just what are those guys planning that they even decided to send one of their guardians..." Emperor Balmond frowned and was silent for a moment. In the end, he could still not fathom what the Narda Principality was trying to achieve.

Hanzo who has been quiet for some time suddenly suggested. "Your Majesty, how about we make those guys cause trouble in that lotus building? If they become enemies with that Wine Master Jiu, we would be able to sit at the sidelines and watch the two tigers fight between themselves!"

When Emperor Balmond heard the idea, his eyes lit up. He slammed the armrest of his chair and said. "Brilliant idea! Hanzo, I never thought that you can actually think of such a terrific plan! Hahaha!"

"I don't deserve such praise, Your Majesty." Hanzo bowed his head humbly.

"Good! Put this plan into motion and make sure that those bastards from the Narda Principality will offend Jiu Shen!" Emperor Balmond ordered with a ferocious smile.

Hanzo immediately saluted when he heard the command. "Yes, Your Majesty!"

He then stood up and left the throne room with haste. With his speed, it won't take him long to reach Morlon City.

When Hanzo left, Emperor Balmond was already imagining the battle between Jiu Shen's group and the army of Narda Principality. However, he suddenly recalled something that made him abruptly stand up from his seat.

"Wait. Cornelia said that she was planning to visit that wine store. She should have arrived there by now. Oh no! She might be caught up in this! Shit! I have to go there and get her before anything happens. Nothing must go wrong with the plan! I have to make sure that the plan would proceed smoothly. However, that girl is very stubborn and she would certainly not listen if I send my subordinates to get her. I think I have to go there personally..." Emperor Balmond muttered to himself with a solemn look. He then walked out of the throne room as he cursed in his mind.. Why did he approve his daughter's vacation? It was such a shitty coincidence that it made his temples hurt.

Hanzo was already on his way to Morlon City when he suddenly felt a strong aura tailing him. He turned his gaze and saw a familiar figure draped in long dark robes.

"Your Majesty?" He called out, feeling a bit confused. Why did His Majesty come out of the imperial palace? Is he planning to visit the delegate of Narda Principality in person? Hanzo stopped his flight in midair.

Swoosh.

However, the emperor didn't even bother to explain things to him and just whizzed past him. Hanzo was stunned and he was wondering what Emperor Balmond was planning to do.

With a troubled look, Hanzo followed the emperor with his fastest speed, leaving behind a trail within the blue skies.

In just a few minutes, Emperor Balmond saw the outline of Morlon City. It still looked the same as how it did in the past. The only difference was the presence of a beautiful and huge azure lotus somewhere at the center of the city. It was definitely the wine store of Jiu Shen. The emperor thought to himself.

As he neared the wine store, he noticed a human cleaning the garden outside the lotus building. He looked ordinary, but Emperor Balmond felt a sense of pressure coming from this guy.

'A Void God Realm expert? Is this Jiu Shen? But from what my subordinates told me, he should be a handsome young man.' Emperor Balmond walked towards the gate with a baffled look.

Hm?

Yue Bo placed the broom at the side and furrowed his eyebrows as he glanced at the incoming demon. This guy's stature was tall and broad. Yue Bo could also sense the dangerous vibe emitted by this demon. 'A Void God Realm demon? Is he the emperor of this empire?'

"Are you Jiu Shen?" Emperor Balmond skipped the chitchat and asked right away as he scrutinized the man in front of him. From the aura of this human, Emperor Balmond realized that he had just recently broken through.

Yue Bo stared into Emperor Balmond's eyes with a calm look. He was surprised that he wasn't afraid of a Void God Realm expert now. He wondered if it was because of his cultivation or because of Jiu Shen's presence.

"You got the wrong person. I'm just a subordinate of Wine Master Jiu Shen. If you're looking for him, he is inside the store chatting with a succubus lady." Yue Bo said as he lightly smiled.

Hearing his words, Emperor Balmond was stunned. A Void God Realm expert was just Jiu Shen's subordinate? Emperor Balmond felt a sudden chill in his heart. It looks like their plan has to be canceled. It would be fine if their plan succeeds, but if it fails and Jiu Shen noticed their involvement, it would certainly be a disaster for them.

Someone who could make a Void God Realm expert serve him was surely not just a simple figure. Provoking that kind of existence should not be done.

Thinking about this, Emperor Balmond's eyes softened as he said. "Thank you, brother. My name is Balmond Bloodfallen. I'll talk with you later."

Yue Bo was slightly surprised by the sudden change of Balmond. 'This demon is quite smart. He must have realized Wine Master Jiu Shen's power through my words.'

"My name is Yue Bo. Alright. I know you're in a hurry, so I won't take your time." Yue Bo smiled as he waved his hand.

Emperor Balmond nodded his head gratefully at Yue Bo. He then walked towards the store after adjusting his mood. Luckily, he came here in person. It would have been a catastrophe if he didn't come here himself.

When he stepped inside the store, Emperor Balmond scanned the room, feeling slightly anxious. From Yue Bo's words, his daughter should be talking to Wine Master Jiu Shen at this moment. He hoped that his daughter was smart enough to avoid making enemies with that man.

After scanning the room briefly, his eyes lit up when he noticed a familiar figure. He hastily moved towards her, but a sudden exclamation stopped him in his tracks.

"Your Majesty!"

Emperor Balmond glanced at the demon who had suddenly called out, making the poor fellow almost piss his pants under the emperor's penetrating gaze.

"At this moment, I'm no emperor. I'm just a customer who wants to buy a bottle of wine or two. Don't mind me, everyone." Emperor Balmond forced out a smile as he gestured for the startled crowd to move back to their seats. Emperor Balmond didn't want to cause a commotion here in Jiu Shen's store or he might think badly of him.

"Father Em- Your Majesty! Why are you here?" Princess Cornelia was stunned to see her father here. She thought that her father didn't want to involve himself with Jiu Shen at the moment, so she was shocked when she saw him.

"My good daughter, it's good to see you." Emperor Balmond took off the hood that covered his face, showing a ferocious-looking appearance. However, this terrorizing face was currently smiling amiably at his daughter. He no longer cared if his image was destroyed in public. It was much better than provoking Jiu Shen, who might be a more terrifying existence!

Cornelia could not believe her eyes when she saw her father acting like this. In her mind, he was strict and dignified. He never showed such a meek appearance in front of her. She was wondering what strange medicine he had eaten for him to show such a vulnerable personality.

Emperor Balmond ignored his daughter's questioning look and moved his gaze towards the human with long silver hair. He felt that this human was detached from the world with how he acted. There was an ethereal air around him, making him seem like a grand being.

This must be Jiu Shen.

Emperor Balmond immediately knew it in his heart. He dared not check the man's cultivation since it might incur his displeasure.

"Wine Master Jiu, I've heard stories about you. It looks like those rumors were true." Emperor Balmond put on a smile, but that smile didn't truly fit his ferocious look.

"You must be Balmond. The emperor of the Great Demon Empire." Jiu Shen casually said.

"You! How dare you talk to father that way!" Cornelia stood up from her seat and pointed at Jiu Shen's nose as she snarled at him.

Looking at this scene, Emperor Balmond felt his heart freezing.

c 380

Emperor Balmond was feeling nervous at this moment. His daughter was actually pointing at Jiu Shen's nose as she shouted at him!

'My dear daughter. Are you trying to get our Bloodfallen family killed?' The emperor felt regret that he approved of Cornelia's vacation leave. If he knew that something like this would happen, he would certainly not give her his approval.

As he carefully thought of solutions, Emperor Balmond anxiously pulled his daughter behind him and glanced apologetically at Jiu Shen. "Wine Master Jiu, please pardon my daughter's rudeness. She has been on the battlefield for quite some time and she had just returned from duty, so she has no idea about your greatness. I will talk to her for a moment. We will come back in a few minutes. Please excuse us first..."

Emperor Balmond didn't care if he had lost face. As long as they could escape imminent death, then that would be best.

Jiu Shen stared at Emperor Balmond who was now pulling his daughter out of the store. He had an intrigued look on his face as he stroked the sleeping white cat in his arms.

Outside the store.

"Father, why did you bring me outside? That man talked to you like he was someone superior!" Cornelia frowned in displeasure. It was the first time she had seen her father act in a humiliating manner! She couldn't accept it!

Emperor Balmond's face turned ashen and he immediately slapped Cornelia.

Pa!

Cornelia held her face in surprise as she stared at her father with an indignant look.

"Enough! I thought you are smart, but I was wrong about you! Have you not realized it yet? That man Jiu Shen is no Void God Realm expert! He even has a subordinate whose strength is almost on par with mine! Genius my ass! Have you been blinded by those idiotic praises that it has clouded your judgment to this degree?! Disappointing!" Emperor Balmond glared ferociously at his daughter as he reprimanded her in a harsh tone.

Cornelia who was about to curse, almost choked herself when she heard her father's words. That's right. Why did she not think of this? She recalled the man who told her that he was merely Jiu Shen's sweeper. She had guessed that the guy was a Void God Realm expert because of his distinct quality. However, she wasn't certain at that time, so she didn't think too much about it. As for Jiu Shen, she tried gauging the man's power, but she failed to discern it even after scrutinizing him carefully. She thought that he was at most on par with her father. Now, she realized how incredibly naive she was for underestimating them so much.

At this moment, Cornelia felt that her father's slap didn't hurt anymore. It was definitely to wake her up from her stupidity. If she had provoked Jiu Shen at that time, their Bloodfallen Family might cease to exist in this world. Even the Great Demon Empire might be taken down along with them.

Thinking about it, Cornelia shivered in fright. Luckily, her father was smart enough to notice this or it would have been the end for them.

"Father, I'm so sorry. I've become arrogant after becoming a Demon Lord. I will accept your punishments..." Cornelia stared at Emperor Balmond with watery eyes. She felt regretful for her actions. She should have investigated Jiu Shen's power before she acted.

Emperor Balmond felt his heart aching when he saw the remorseful look of his daughter. He rubbed her head gently as he said. "It doesn't matter. Everything should still be fine since it hasn't escalated yet. Make sure that you will apologize to Wine Master Jiu Shen once we come back inside the store."

"Yes, father. I will make sure that nothing goes wrong this time." Cornelia avoided her father's gaze. She felt ashamed of herself. She was regarded as an absolute genius in the whole Crimson Fiend Continent, but she acted like an idiot in front of Jiu Shen.

"Alright. Let's go back inside. Make sure that you will do as you've promised." Emperor Balmond smiled kindly at her.

Although Cornelia was feeling down, she felt inexplicably happy since this was the first time her father had shown her such a gentle smile.

The father and daughter duo slowly walked inside the lotus building. Their hearts were in a state of anxiety at the unknown. They were unsure how Jiu Shen would react after that farce.

***

Somewhere in Morlon City, a tall and bulky demon with dark red skin suddenly lifted his head. He narrowed his eyes into slits and carefully observed the distant sky. He could sense a strong aura moving at a lightning speed! 'This aura... It must be Balmond. Did he discover my arrival? No, that's not possible. So why did he suddenly come here in Morlon City?'

"Demon Emperor Garland, is there anything wrong?" A thin and handsome demon walked up to him and asked. This was Lou Baiqing who Hanzo thought was the leader of Narda Principality's delegate. However, this demon who was also a Demon Ancestor and a guardian of Narda Principality was now acting like a subordinate of this red-skinned demon!

It must be noted that only those at the Void God Realm can be referred to as 'Demon Emperor'. That means, this red-skinned demon whom Demon Ancestor Lou Baiqing called Garland was certainly a Void God Realm expert!

Garland shook his head and continued leading his group towards their temporary resting place. They must leave while Emperor Balmond has yet to see them or their plans might be foiled. "This is not the best place to talk. Let's return to our resting place first. Also, Lou Baiqing, have one of your subordinates gather information related to Morlon City."

Initially, Garland didn't treat this city in high regard, but Emperor Balmond going here felt a bit suspicious. He was curious what his long-time enemy was up to this time.. 'Balmond, you've become careless after living in luxury for many years. Hahaha!'