Chapter 51 - Abyssal Vine Cranberry

Chapter 51: Abyssal Vine Cranberry

Jiu Shen glanced at the horned behemoth through his spiritual power. The savage beast had the body of a robust dog that was over ten meters tall. Its body wasn't covered by fur but was instead protected by black infernal flames that fully enveloped its muscular body.

2

The grass beneath its feet turned into dust as the huge behemoth walked towards Jiu Shen and Lu Sulan while growling in a threatening manner.

"Grrrr! Grrr!"

The beast's scaldingly hot saliva dripped on the grassy field as it emitted an intimidating sound.

Lu Sulan could finally see the figure of the incoming beast after it showed itself in front of them.

It had a sword-like horn on top of its forehead. Its teeth were like sharp rows of blades that could even tear metals apart. And its black robust body was enveloped by dark nightmarish flames.

1

"That's an adult Horned Infernal Hound that is on the verge of breaking through to the 9th-rank Saint realm!" Lu Sulan exclaimed in surprise after identifying the savage beast.

Jiu Shen nodded his head in an expression that was devoid of any ripple. He looked at the savage beast with indifference, but if one would look closely, there was a hint of desire in Jiu Shen's silver eyes.

'Braised Dog Meat? Barbecued Dog Meat? Hmm...' Jiu Shen was still thinking about what kind of dish would he cook with the Horned Infernal Hound's meat.

16

The beast felt Jiu Shen's peculiar gaze and it felt a primal kind of fear taking root in its heart. The Horned Infernal Hound became confused with its own emotion. Since when did it fear humans? Never...

6

The Horned Infernal Hound could definitely feel the 8th-rank Divine realm cultivation of the woman dressed in white, but it couldn't even sense an ounce of power from Jiu Shen, so it didn't place Jiu Shen in its eyes. But strangely enough, its beastly instincts were sending signals about the danger that came from Jiu Shen.

1

"Roarr!" The Horned Infernal Hound chose to disregard its instincts and pounced towards Jiu Shen with its mouth wide open.

5

Lu Sulan who was standing behind Jiu Shen felt the terrifying power of the beast as it leaped towards them.

"This beast is so much stronger than me, but master is already a 9th-rank Saint realm martial and soul cultivator. This kind of beast is just like a small puppy in his eyes." Lu Sulan muttered to herself, but she was still feeling somewhat nervous at the sight of a much stronger being than herself.

2

Jiu Shen remained unperturbed at the Horned Infernal Hound's menacing attack. When the beast was just inches away from tearing his head off, Jiu Shen lifted a finger and casually tapped the beast's head as if he was just pressing a neighbor's doorbell.

9

The Horned Infernal Hound could not even emit a cry of pain before its huge body slumped on the ground, lifeless.

The ever-burning nightmarish flame around its body was gradually disappearing. What remained was just an intact burly body.

Lu Sulan gaped at the sight. The beast was not even able to touch the hem of Jiu Shen's clothes before it died in a blink of an eye!

She didn't even know how it died!

In fact, she only saw Jiu Shen casually tapped the Horned Infernal Hound's head before the beast's huge body dropped on the grassy field dead.

Jiu Shen walked towards the corpse of the Horned Infernal Hound and poked its body with his finger.

"The meat should be in perfect state since I only used my spiritual power to attack its brain in a short distance. This meat is quite firm and bouncy. It should taste much better if this is barbecued..." Jiu Shen nodded his head as he poked the beast's body from time to time.

1

Lu Sulan who was standing behind her master almost felt her head going dizzy after she heard what Jiu Shen said. 'So he intentionally killed the Horned Infernal Hound that way just to maintain the perfect condition of its meat?'

8

Jiu Shen placed the Horned Infernal Hound's corpse inside his spatial sword earring while nodding his head in satisfaction.

He then glanced calmly at Lu Sulan and ignored her doubtful glance as he said plainly. "Let's go. There is still an 8th-rank spiritual plant waiting to be plucked."

Lu Sulan opened her mouth but then she chose to not speak. She just nodded her head with a helpless sigh. "Yes, master."

Lu Sulan had many questions inside her head, but she knew it wasn't the right time to talk about it.

With a helpless look, she followed behind her master's figure. But despite that, she was also curious about the spiritual plant that her master spoke about.

'Just what could this spiritual plant be to garner my master's interest? Perhaps it's another ingredient for his wine?' Lu Sulan thought to herself.

1

Jiu Shen who was unaware of his disciple's thoughts continued moving towards where he saw the Abyssal Vine Cranberry.

Not long after, the pair saw a shrub that was as tall as an adult man. It had a few short trailing branches and there were also a number of small white flowers that clustered together. Dozens of small light red fruits can also be seen.

The Abyssal Vine Cranberry had an imposing name, but it's actually just a harmless spiritual plant. It was just named as such since its fruit was the main ingredient of a highly potent poison created by an alchemist from the Alchemy Hall.

2

Though its reputation was quite petrifying, the Abyssal Vine Cranberry wasn't really poisonous. In fact, it was one of the most precious and delicious fruits in Nuar.

"Master, what is this spiritual plant called?" Lu Sulan asked Jiu Shen as she inhaled the fragrant scent of the Abyssal Vine Cranberry.

Jiu Shen touched the small fruit that was light red in color and gave it a gentle pinch. It felt quite soft to touch signifying that it was still unripe. "This spiritual plant is called the Abyssal Vine Cranberry."

The Immortal's Wine Store Chapter 52 - The Fourth Prince's Breakthrough

Chapter 52: The Fourth Prince's Breakthrough

"Abyssal Vine Cranberry? Isn't that the main ingredient of a poison that was made by the Alchemy Hall?" Lu Sulan asked with a stunned look. She had heard of the imposing reputation of the said spiritual plant, so she was surprised about her master's interest in it.

Jiu Shen's lips twitched when he heard what Lu Sulan said. He was familiar with alchemy, so he knew what those alchemists from the Alchemy Hall must've done with the Abyssal Vine Cranberry in making their poison. 'I bet those little brats from the Alchemy Hall used the unstable true essence inside the Abyssal Vine Cranberry. Too wasteful...'

"Those little brats don't know how to properly refine the unstable true essence of the Abyssal Vine Cranberry. That's why they used it as the main ingredient in making poisons instead. In actual fact, this spiritual plant has a miraculous effect in enhancing one's cultivation level and spiritual power." Jiu Shen said as he kept the Abyssal Vine Cranberry inside his spatial sword earring.

Lu Sulan was speechless at her master's reply. Although she didn't know anything about alchemy, she still understood its concept. 'To think that the alchemists that I respected and admired are just wasteful little brats in my master's eyes...'

Jiu Shen ignored Lu Sulan as he lightly tapped his foot on the ground to ascend in mid-air.

"Let's go." He said as his figure streak through the sky.

Lu Sulan immediately followed behind her master after seeing him fly away. "Master, wait for me!"

5

Inside the throne room of the Silver Wing Empire's imperial palace, Defender Duanmu knelt down respectfully in front of Emperor Elyk Silveria.

"Your Majesty, the fourth prince is currently in closed-door cultivation so he can't be here at the moment." Defender Duanmu said in a respectful tone.

Emperor Elyk's eyes shone when he heard Defender Duanmu's words. He couldn't help but lightly exclaim. "Oh! It appears that he had quite a bountiful harvest from that wine store. After his closed-door cultivation, he should already be at the 5th-rank Spirit realm. That's good news."

2

The emperor was of course happy about his fourth son's cultivation progress. The Fourth Prince Dante Silveria was someone he doted secretly.

Emperor Elyk was already tired about his three eldest sons squabbles and small skirmishes, so he took his time in showing care and affection to his two youngest children, the Fourth Prince Dante Silveria, and the Fifth Princess Sylvia Silveria.

5

Defender Duanmu suddenly sighed and said. "Your Majesty, although the fourth prince advancement in cultivation is a happy occasion, I have bad news to tell you."

Emperor Elyk's eyes turned grim as he glanced at the kneeling Defender Duanmu. He took in a deep breath and spoke. "What is it, Duanmu?"

"Your Majesty, when I was inside the wine store recently, I've heard of something from the Liu Family. Although it was spoken by an escapee from the Liu Family, I can still feel the authenticity of his words." Defender Duanmu said with a stern voice.

"It appears that the Liu Family had already gotten news about the Beiming Family's illegal dealings with the outside forces. What do you think about this, Your Majesty?" Defender Duanmu added.

Emperor Elyk Silveria frowned and slumped back on his throne with a tired look. "Honestly, I still don't believe everything about this at all. The Beiming Family has been the most loyal aristocratic clan to our Silveria Imperial Family. They've been serving us for many generations that it is very hard to believe this at all. In fact, I think that someone is deliberately making the waters muddy from behind the scenes."

Defender Duanmu's eyes flashed for a moment before he replied. "Your Majesty, you mean that a third party is involved in this? And they are trying to smear the reputation of the Beiming Family?"

Emperor Elyk sighed and shook his head helplessly. "I'm also unsure about everything, Duanmu, but it appears that a storm is brewing inside my Silver Wing Empire when there are still a lot of prying eyes outside waiting for a perfect chance to attack our empire."

Defender Duanmu also felt the gravity of the situation. If the emperor's words were spot on, then their Silver Wing Empire might truly experience a wide-scale war in the near future. As for whether they could tide through that war, Defender Duanmu was also uncertain.

"Your Majesty, I think it's best if we maintain a friendly relationship with the wine store's owner. He might be of help if something untoward happens to our Silver Wing Empire." Defender Duanmu stated after a moment of thinking. The old man was still perplexed about Jiu Shen's reason for staying inside their empire, but he felt that Jiu Shen wasn't here with bad intentions.

Emperor Elyk's eyes lit up but dimmed once again. "Duanmu, that man's origins is something that we are currently unaware of. But then, maintaining a friendly relationship with him might bring us good benefits. Hopefully, he won't strike us when we are already beaten down from all sides."

Defender Duanmu sighed and remained silent. He was betting on Jiu Shen's intentions towards their empire. Whether he was right or wrong in placing his bets on Jiu Shen, Defender Duanmu would know soon.

2

Emperor Elyk Silveria closed his tired eyes as he rubbed his aching temples. Although he was one of the strongest experts in the Profound Dragon Continent, he still felt that he might be powerless to protect their empire if a war came about.

'Jiu Shen... Are you a friend or a foe?'

3

Inside a luxurious mansion, a young man with long black hair was sitting crossed legged in his room. His eyes were wide open and his mouth gaped due to his surprise.

"What the hell? I haven't even meditated yet but I already broke through to the 5th-rank Spirit realm?! This... this..." Instead of feeling happy about his breakthrough, the Fourth Prince Dante Silveria was dumbstruck.

"Wine Master Jiu, did you perhaps added a Bottleneck Breaking Pill in your Deep Sea Spring Dew?" The fourth prince muttered in a silent voice as he sprawled on top of his bed.

The Immortal's Wine Store Chapter 53 - Heaven Trampling Cauldron Chapter 53: Heaven Trampling Cauldron

2

Lu Sulan glanced quietly at her master who appeared to be looking for something. She remained silent throughout the journey and just focused her attention on cultivating the Chaotic Ice Flame Formula.

Jiu Shen glanced at the surroundings and nodded his head in approval. He said with a hint of satisfaction in his tone. "This place is perfect for barbecuing the meat of the Horned Infernal Hound."

6

Lu Sulan who was partly immersed in her cultivation almost stumbled when she heard her master's words. 'I thought master is looking for another spiritual plant. To think that he is just looking for a suitable place to barbecue the meat of the Horned Infernal Hound...' Lu Sulan thought to herself.

Jiu Shen ignored the peculiar look of Lu Sulan that was directed at him. He then took out the cauldron that the system rewarded him after he had successfully refined ten Invigorating Meridians Pill in the Profound State. The cauldron's name was Heaven Trampling Cauldron.

Jiu Shen has yet to see how the cauldron looked like, but he was looking forward to it especially after knowing the system's extravagance.

"Roaaarr!" A roar that resembled a dragon's cry resounded when Jiu Shen took out the Heaven Trampling Cauldron. The sky appeared to have darkened as if the heavens was angry about the arrival of something!

Thick dark clouds hovered above the sky as they continuously produced crackling sounds of thunder. It was as if a huge storm was about to hit the whole mountain range!

Jiu Shen glanced at the sky with an indifferent look before he turned to look at the cauldron in front of him.

The Heaven Trampling Cauldron was approximately one meter in height with three legs supporting it. Embedded on the cauldron's body were four azure dragons that appeared to be roaring at the skies. The four azure dragons seemed so real that even low-level cultivators would tremble in fear if they took a glance at the cauldron.

"This cauldron is actually made from a Heaven Collapsing Alavard Stone. So that's why it was able to summon the Heavenly Tribulation Lightning because this heavenly metal attracts the most potent kinds of lightning. Aside from the Heaven Collapsing Alavard Stone, each of the four azure dragons embedded in this cauldron's body also contains a true dragon's bone." Jiu Shen muttered to himself as he slapped the cauldron's body causing it to produce a dull ringing sound.

1

"Rooaarr!" As if angered by Jiu Shen's rough actions, the four azure dragons embedded on the cauldron emitted a resonating dragon cry.

1

"Crackle!" The crackling sounds of thunder intensified as if the heavens was wary of the Heaven Trampling Cauldron's might.

1

A streak of violent lightning smashed towards the Heaven Trampling Cauldron in a bid to erase its existence.

Lu Sulan's eyes had a trace of fear as she glanced at the incoming bolt of lightning. Although Lu Sulan was an expert at the 8th-rank Divine realm, she was still powerless against the Heavenly Tribulation Lightning.

Only those at the very peak of the 9th-rank Saint realm dared to face it head-on.

The dragon tattoo on his right arm slowly morphed into a sword. He then turned to face the bolt of Heavenly Tribulation Lightning with an uncaring expression. It was if he didn't place the violent streak of lightning in his eyes.

In fact, Jiu Shen disdained the Heavenly Tribulation Lightning. In his past life, he only used the Heavenly Tribulation Lightning to scratch his itch...

22

With a casual sword stroke that looked as if an immortal painter was wielding his brush to draw a beautiful painting, Jiu Shen brandished his Baleful Dragon Sacred Sword with one hand in a carefree manner.

1

When the bolt of Heavenly Tribulation Lightning hit the sword's blade, a huge transformation occurred in Jiu Shen's sword.

It's ordinary-looking sword body slowly grew bigger until it reached two meters in length. Red archaic patterns slowly emerged from the sword's body and two red dragons can be seen on the sword's hilt that intertwined against each other.

This was the true form of Jiu Shen's Baleful Dragon Sword!

2

Like a droplet of rain that hit the solid ground, the Heavenly Tribulation Lightning wasn't even able to produce a ripple in the Baleful Dragon Sacred Sword's body. It was immediately extinguished after it hit the sword's body.

Following that, the sky slowly reverted to its calm state.

Lu Sulan Heaved a sigh of relief after seeing that the Heavenly Tribulation Clouds were gradually disappearing. She then turned to look at her master and the huge heavy sword that he had wielded.

It was the first time that she had seen a weapon that was unlike any other. She refused to believe that it was just an ordinary sword especially after it had effortlessly received a bolt of Heavenly Tribulation Lightning. Furthermore, her reverence towards her master increased significantly after seeing that he remained unscathed and unperturbed when faced against the Heavenly Tribulation Lightning.

'Master, just how strong are you?' Lu Sulan glanced at her master in awe and worship.

Jiu Shen took back his sword and flicked his right arm causing his robes to flutter.

"Now, I can peacefully barbecue the meat of the Horned Infernal Hound." Jiu Shen muttered silently.

Lu Sulan numbly sat down crossed-legged on the grassy field while acting as if she hadn't heard of her master's words.

4

With a snap of his fingers, a small wisp of black flames materialized on his fingertips.

Lu Sulan's eyes grew wary when she felt the heat coming from the small wisp of black flame. She could still remember that it was the same flame that Jiu Shen used when he refined the 8th-grade Invigorating Meridians Pill.

Jiu Shen gently flicked his fingers and directed the wisp of black flames at the bottom of the Heaven Trampling Cauldron.

Jiu Shen then bit the tip of his forefinger causing a small drop of his blood to drip towards the Heaven Trampling Cauldron.

After feeling a strong connection from the Heaven Trampling Cauldron. He knew that it had approved him in becoming its owner.

"Time to start barbecuing..."

12

The Immortal's Wine Store Chapter 54 - Skewered Meat Cubes

Chapter 54: Skewered Meat Cubes

Jiu Shen took out the corpse of the Horned Infernal Hound that he had killed earlier.

'I still don't have a knife meant for cutting meat. As of now, my Baleful Dragon Sacred Sword will do the job. Although it is a little demeaning for a God-rank weapon to be used as a meat cutter, I don't have any other choice.' Jiu Shen called his Baleful Dragon Sacred Sword, causing the dragon tattoo on his right arm to glow.

10

With a casual move of his wrist, he gently tossed the Horned Infernal Hound's huge body in mid-air.

Jiu Shen's lazy eyes suddenly flashed with a brilliant glow as his gaze sharpened considerably. His overall lazy and uncaring demeanor suddenly took a drastic change as if a God-rank beast was suddenly awakened from its deep slumber.

Time seemed to have slowed down in Lu Sulan's eyes. She also felt the change in her master's aura and it was the first time that she had seen him with that kind of eyes.

"Master looks way too cool..." She inadvertently said with a stunned expression lingering on her peerless facade.

Jiu Shen was quite familiar with skinning savage beasts or be exact, he was used to skinning God-rank beasts.

Following the change in Jiu Shen's aura, the air fluctuated around him causing his hair to break free from the ponytail holder. His long silver hair cascaded and sprung loosely amidst the turbulent wind.

7

He then glanced sharply at the Horned Infernal Hound that he had tossed earlier in mid-air.

With a slight move of his right hand, Jiu Shen performed dozens of sword strokes in a blink of an eye. His strokes were so fast that the turbulent air became even stronger as he moved gracefully with his sword in hand.

"Whoosh!"

Lu Sulan held her skirt together as she watched Jiu Shen's performance with a dumbstruck expression. "So master can be this serious sometimes..."

The Horned Infernal Hound wasn't exactly a furry savage beast, but it had a thick black skin that was even tougher than normal armors.

Jiu Shen's goal was to separate this black skin from the meat.

Lu Sulan saw everything that happened, but she was somewhat confused since it didn't look like Jiu Shen was trying to skin the Horned Infernal Hound. Instead, she thought that Jiu Shen was performing a graceful sword dance.

With a mouth wide open, Lu Sulan saw the black skin of the Horned Infernal Hound gradually separate itself from the beast's meat. "What? I didn't even see his sword strokes clearly enough..."

After skinning the Horned Infernal Hound, Jiu Shen's aura once again changed.

This time, his eyes contained a hint of brutality and his demeanor felt as if he was an ancient demon god.

1

With a savage glint, he ferociously diced the Horned Infernal Hound's meat into small cubes. He then swatted the huge bones away.

Jiu Shen recalled his Baleful Dragon Sacred Sword and gently opened the lid of the Heaven Trampling Cauldron. Hundreds of diced meat were perfectly put inside the cauldron.

While ignoring the amazed look of his disciple, Jiu Shen took out a bunch of sticks that he had prepared along the way. He then handed half of it to Lu Sulan and said in a calm and unhurried tone of voice. "Sulan, help me skewer the meat cubes."

Lu Sulan absentmindedly received the sticks while nodding her head. And with intense idolizing gaze directed at her master, Lu Sulan replied in a clear voice. "Yes, master."

Jiu Shen took his time skewering the meat cubes with an indifferent look. He had finally reverted back to his usual calm self.

'I think I got a bit carried away. Well, it has been millions of years since I last barbecued meat in the wild.' Jiu Shen was feeling a bit nostalgic as he skewered the meat cubes.

"Master, the sword strokes you performed earlier... Was that also a sword technique?" Lu Sulan asked tentatively as she did her task.

Jiu Shen glanced at his disciple with a plain expression and shook his head. "That was not a sword technique, so if you thought that it was one, then your swordsmanship needs more training. I'll tell you more about it after we've gathered all the necessary ingredients for brewing the Frozen Origin."

Lu Sulan nodded her head meekly. Although she was already a top expert in Nuar, she still felt that she was insignificant compared to her master.

'I'm not even sure about master's true strength. Is he really just a 9th-rank Saint realm dual martial and soul cultivator? Or is he someone beyond that level?' Lu Sulan thought to herself with slightly downcast emotion.

Not long later, the duo finished skewering the meat cubes.

Since they had no spices with them, Jiu Shen had no choice but to directly barbecue the skewered meat cubes on the Heaven Trampling Cauldron.

1

With the quality of the ingredients and the materials used to barbecue the meat cubes, it could still be considered as a rare delicacy.

Jiu Shen kept most of the skewered meat cubes and just barbecued a few.

A sizzling sound echoed faintly as Jiu Shen placed the skewered meat cubes in the Heaven Trampling Cauldron. Puffs of white smoke drifted in the air as the meat was being barbecued.

The meat of the Horned Infernal Hound was bouncy and lean, so it contained a lot of meat juices.

Jiu Shen sprinkled drops of Deep Sea Spring Dew for the added flavor.

When the drops of wine touched the skewered meat cubes, another bout of sizzling sound echoed about.

A meaty aroma lingered in the air as the fatty oil of the meat slowly oozed out making the meat cubes look even more enticing.

Lu Sulan stared at Jiu Shen who was calmly barbecuing the meat.

She could hardly contain the grumbling of her stomach after she smelled the meaty aroma in the air.

"Even without spices, the meat of an 8th-rank savage beast would never be shabby..." She said with a salivating look in her eyes.

The Immortal's Wine Store Chapter 55 - Nostalgia Evoked by a Barbecued Meat

Chapter 55: Nostalgia Evoked by a Barbecued Meat

'What a pity! If only I had brought with me some spices, then I might have been able to make an even more delicious barbecued meat.' Jiu Shen thought to himself with a bit of regret.

In barbecuing, there were a lot of factors involved in how to maximize the flavor of the meat. For example, one could marinate the meat using their desired marinade blend. Also, one could brush the meat with their own homemade sauce to add flavor to the meat.

But Jiu Shen didn't want to waste too much time, hence, he skipped all those processes and just directly threw the meat cubes in the Heaven Trampling Cauldron. Just that the final outcome might not be too flavourful with the lack of spices and preparation. Nonetheless, the Horned Infernal Hound's meat was still a high-level ingredient after all, so its taste shouldn't be too bad even without the addition of spices.

The skewered meat cubes were now emitting a dense aroma as it sizzled under the intense heat from Jiu Shen's wisp of black flame.

Though the black flame was just as small as a person's thumb, it was hot enough to cook the Horned Infernal Hound's meat.

"The texture of a dog's meat is almost similar to a goat's meat, but the process of cooking the two is greatly different. The goat's meat is mildly gamey so it needs a lot of preparation in order to lessen the earthly taste and smell in it. As for a dog's meat, it is surprisingly similar to beef in terms of taste. Just that dog meat is chewier and not as succulent as beef." Jiu Shen muttered to himself as he recalled the skills and cooking knowledge that he had accumulated in his billions of years of life.

Jiu Shen flipped the skewered meat cubes, making them produce another frizzling sound. A wave of beef-like aroma pervaded in the air as a dense white smoke lingered around the Heaven Trampling Cauldron.

One side of the skewered meat cubes was already light brown in color. Jiu Shen knew what the color signified, so he remained meticulous in doing every process in barbecuing the meat cubes.

"Master, is it already cooked?" Lu Sulan could not help but ask when the beefy smell of the Horned Infernal Hound's cooked meat reached her nostrils.

She had never tasted such high-quality meat before, so she was somewhat eager to have a taste of it. Although she had already tasted the meat of a 7th-rank Emperor realm savage beast, it was still a realm lower compared to the Horned Infernal Hound.

Jiu Shen did not glance at Lu Sulan and continued looking carefully at the skewered meat cubes on the Heaven Trampling Cauldron. With an unhurried tone, he replied. "It's almost cooked and it should be ready soon."

Lu Sulan involuntary gulped at her master's words. She covered her nose and closed her eyes to free herself from the salivating feeling, but to no avail, her stomach still produced a faint rumbling sound.

Lu Sulan slightly opened her left eye to take a peek at Jiu Shen. She heaved a sigh of relief after seeing his same neutral expression.

'That was so embarrassing! Good thing master is so focused on barbecuing the meat.'
Lu Sulan's ears reddened as she thought to herself.

1

Of course, with Jiu Shen's sensitive senses, he heard his disciple's complaining stomach, but he chose to ignore her and just immersed himself in the cooking process. It was many millions of years ago since he had last barbecued meat, so he was somewhat expectant about the result.

3

Jiu Shen gently poked the barbecued skewered meat cubes. He disregarded the intense heat and checked the texture of the meat to see if it was already cooked.

3

He nodded in satisfaction after feeling the softness of the meat. "It's done, but I have one last thing to do in order to add a bit of flavor to it."

3

With that, Jiu Shen took out another bottle of wine from his storage earring. This time, it was not the Deep Sea Spring Dew, but the Ables Blanc.

The Ables Blanc may be many grades lower compared to the Deep Sea Spring Dew, but what Jiu Shen wanted to add on his skewered meat was the oceanic taste of the Ables Oyster's honey which was present in the Ables Blanc.

When Jiu Shen opened the bottle of Ables Blanc, an oceanic smell burst forth in the air. It lingered for a little while before it subsided.

Jiu Shen sprinkled drops of the Ables Blanc on the skewered meat cubes in a relaxed manner.

He then kept the bottle of Ables Blanc and nodded his head with a satisfied look as he glanced at the cooked skewered meat cubes in front of him.

He took them one by one and gave half of it to his disciple who was already drooling at the sidelines.

'This lady can sometimes act like a little girl...' He muttered in his heart after seeing the unladylike expression of his beautiful disciple.

5

Lu Sulan eagerly took the skewered meat cubes from her master's hands. She then held one stick of the skewered meat cubes with one hand and gave it a light blow before she took a big bite out of it.

"Munch!"

Lu Sulan's eyes widened when her tongue came in contact with the meat. She lightly chewed on the tender and soft meat of the Horned Infernal Hound that was still smoking hot.

"Delicious! Although it tastes kinda earthly, but with the addition of master's wines, the earthly taste could be hardly noticed." Lu Sulan exclaimed as she munched on her piping hot skewered meat cubes.

The meat was surprisingly able to retain its juiciness despite the rough cooking procedure done. Furthermore, the sprinkles of Deep Sea Spring Dew and Ables Blanc made the skewered meat even more aromatic and flavourful. The meat had the oceanic smell of the Ables Oyster's honey and also its own natural meaty scent.

2

After taking a bite of the delicacy that he hadn't tasted for countless years, Jiu Shen's eyes flashed with a nostalgic look. His lips curved up to form a faint smile as he chewed on the meat.

"Not bad." He said with a slightly emotional tone.
