Chapter 1011

The words were resolute, even revealing a bitter killing intent.

Xixing's expression remained unchanged and he was respectfully grateful, "Many thanks, Father!"

"Go on."

The Hun King waved his hand.

Only after Xixing left did he then lean back in his chair again in exhaustion, eyes closed, his right hand slowly rubbing the bridge of his swollen nose.

A long, drawn-out sigh echoed through the room.

"Blessed by the ancestral kings of Xiongnu, the unfilial grandson's hand of great gamble is also to regain the glory of the former king of the hundred tribes of Xiongnu, praying to the ancestral kings and the Heavenly Wolf to bless this great gamble with a great victory!"

When Xixing walked to Chen Dong's room.

Chen Dong had woken up long ago and was exercising in his room.

Under the light.

A body so well-proportioned that it looked as if it was carved out of muscles, Shying Xing was lost in thought for a while.

Drops of sweat, slowly flowing one muscle at a time, as if there was a magic power that hooked the eyes.

"You're here?"

Chen Dong stopped his workout when he saw Xixing.

"Well, come, come."

Shy Xing's ears burned a little, and a hint of panic flashed in her eyes.

This scene, when it fell into Chen Dong's eyes, was that he thought that Xixing still remembered what happened last night.

He said guiltily and blamed himself, "I'm sorry, last night was my fault."

Hearing the word last night, a depressed look appeared on Xixing's face.

She said in a cold voice, "I don't blame anyone for last night, but remember, you owe me this, you have been owing me since the last time we got married, and I will make you pay it back."

"Good! I'll get over the headache as soon as I can!"

Chen Dong nodded seriously.

This made Xixing somewhat at a loss as she tentatively asked, "You, really don't remember what happened before?"

It wasn't that she was suspicious, but the state of being displayed in this man was really a bit perverse.

She scraped the bridge of Barbara's nose, such a simple action, could make this man feel familiar.

If there was memory loss, everything from last night, again, could not be explained.

"Really, I don't remember anything."

Chen Dong nodded seriously, his eyebrows slightly wrinkled, as if he had fallen back into memory because of those words, and then a painful look quickly surfaced on his face.

"Don't go remembering!"

Shying called out hastily to stop.

Chen Dong's brows snapped open and he took a deep breath with his heart pounding.

He had a real shadow of that huge pain where his head was about to explode.

Seeing Chen Dong's expression ease, Xixing secretly breathed a sigh of relief, then slowly said, "Come on, come with me to a place."

"What place?"

Chen Dong asked.

"The Heavenly Wolf Courtyard!"

Xixing raised her eyebrows and smiled sweetly.

A smile that was so captivating that it was as if everything in time was instantly eclipsed.

Looking at Chen Dong, he did not wait to regain his senses before he felt his right hand being held by a warm and soft hand.

The voice of Xixing rang in his ears, "Come with me, I'll explain to you on the way, your entry into the Heavenly Wolf Academy is a decision that my father made with the greatest determination in his life."

Wearing the stars and the moon, the two men's steps were hurried along the way.

And from Xixing's introduction, Chen Dong also figured out the importance of the Heavenly Wolf Academy.

This was almost the top military academy in Xiongnu, specialising in selecting talents and training top talents such as generals and marshals, military teachers and so on for the future pillars of Xiongnu.

The secrecy of it was the greatest in Xiongnu!

And upon learning the secrets of the 72 Heavenly Wolf Martial Bodies, even if Chen Dong was in a state of amnesia, he could not help but become breathless.

Covering the martial dao inheritance of all the tribes of the entire Great Snowy Plain that had been quenched, how terrifying a martial dao treasure trove should this be?

"If I could comprehend all seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, wouldn't I be the undeserved number one among the hundred tribes of the Great Snowy Plain?"

Chen Dong's eyes were on fire, his heartbeat banging as he felt his blood boil. He felt his blood boil.

After losing his memory, the only thing he "remembered" was the fighting skills that were integrated into his instincts, and the state he had deduced.

That's why he cared so much about martial arts.

After all, he didn't remember anything other than martial arts, so he couldn't care about it even if he wanted to.

"Not to mention the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, when Brother Kui Gang who fought you yesterday had enlightened fifty-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, he was already the undeserved number one warrior in the Great Snowy Plain!"

Shying said seriously, "The martial inheritance recorded on the 72 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies changes from simple to difficult, from the first basic martial inheritance, it slowly becomes more in-depth, the further you go, the more difficult it is to comprehend, but the martial dao recorded also becomes stronger, the 52 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies are already very high level."

"That's even very high?"

Chen Dong rubbed his nose, blinked his eyes and said calmly, "Then it seems that the inheritance on the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body isn't too strong, otherwise Kui Gang wouldn't have been beaten by me like that."

Xixing: "....."

Why did a nice person suddenly start acting like a pussy?

"If you hadn't entered that state yesterday, you would have been killed by Brother Kui Gang!"

Xixing snapped at Chen Dong: "But Brother Kui Gang's First Warrior appellation is actually inaccurate, after all, whether it's the Huns or the entire Great Snowy Plains, when judging the First Warrior, there are strict requirements for age, only among the young and strong, among which there should also be some hidden experts who are over the age but strong, not included in the judging, unable to pick up Brother Kui Gang's sharpness. "

Chen Dong rubbed his nose and gave a strange laugh.

He did not know exactly how strong he was when he entered that state.

Even knowing the existence of that state was only a bold speculation relying on the two brief memory gaps, and the changes in his perimeter of safety and security.

Once he had entered that state, his memory would go into a short memory gap, and when he woke up again, he would not remember at all.

But the battle with Kui Gang yesterday, before he entered that state, he still remembered it!

It was also true that what Shying said did not belittle him in the slightest.

"Covetous Wolf you should be prepared, with your strength, it should be easy to comprehend the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body at the front, but the further you go, the more difficult it will be, almost geometrically."

Although Xixing had high hopes for Chen Dong, she was also well aware of the difficulty of the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, and at this moment, she also calmly analyzed, "I am not asking much of you, it would be enough if you could enlighten the first ten Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies in a month, and if you could enlighten the first fifteen Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies in two months, it would not be worth the persistence I did for you in front of my father. "

The Polar Night lasted for a long time though.

But when placed in the context of the matter of the Hundred Clans joining forces to attack Zhenjiang City southwards, the time became very short.

She had to plan every period of time, which would enable the Hundred Clans to swing south before the Extreme Night receded.

And giving Chen Dong two months was already the maximum possible time schedule for Xixing.

Longer time would indeed allow Chen Dong to comprehend more of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, but the time for the army to swing the whip south would become embarrassingly tight.

In Xixing's plan, as long as he stepped on Zhenjiang City during the extreme night and beheaded Huo Zhenxiao in the midst of the chaotic army, then the plan of the Hundred Clans to go south to the Ten Thousand Miles Warren would actually be half successful!

And this man in front of him, his greatest role was to resist and delay Huo Zhenxiao during the battle at Zhenjiang City!

"Fifteen Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies?"

Chen Dong's brows knitted together as his expression rose solemnly.

Xixing said seriously, "Well, this is what I expect from you, I hope you won't let me down, of course fifteen is the limit I set for you, I just hope you get to this stage in two months at best!"

Chapter 1012

Entering the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard.

Along the lengthy and closed main path, Chen Dong followed Xixing into the main hall.

All along the way.

Chen Dong was curious to gaze at everything along the way, but Xixing also stopped it time and again.

After entering the main hall and taking his seat, Xixing then explained, "The Heavenly Wolf Academy concerns the entire Xiongnu, allowing you to enter the Heavenly Wolf Academy to enlighten the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Bodies is already the limit of what Father can do, the rest of the place, you must not pry into, or Father will not keep you!"

In the last few words, Xixing's tone was heavy.

She did not want the person she had waited so long and hard for to be killed in advance because of a small curiosity.

For her, and for the Hundred Clans wielding the whip south, it would be a heavy and huge loss!

"Good."

Chen Dong nodded his head.

At this very moment.

A figure slowly walked into the main hall.

Chen Dong and Xixing looked at the same time.

The person who came was still wrapped in the iconic beast robe of the Great Snowy Plain, but his figure was not as stout as some of the people Chen Dong had seen before. The man in front of him was lean and even somewhat slim, only about one meter seven tall.

A wisp of goatee hung on his chin, his cheeks were fleshless, his hawk nose, and his thin, narrow eyes appeared to be small, but they were shining with a fine light.

"Wu Gang pays his respects to the princess and the sidekick."

As soon as he entered the room, the goat-bearded man was respectfully kneeling down on one knee to Chen Dong and Xixing.

"Wu Gang?"

Chen Dong frowned slightly and murmured, "A man from the domain?"

“Not from the domain, it is because their tribe is close to the frontier, so the customs and habits are much less of the Great Snowy Plain and more of the domain, and this surname name follows the domain.”

In order to survive and prevent being exterminated by other tribes, Wu just came to Xiongnu, prayed for our Xiongnu's asylum and became a vassal tribe of Xiongnu, and he also stayed over here, but Wu Gang is very smart and has excellent insight and strategy, so he was included in the Sky Wolf House by his father, and now he is now a warlord who can follow an army alone.”

As he spoke, Xixing gestured for Wu Gang to get up.

Wu Gang smiled modestly, “Thank you, Princess, for the compliment.

“Don't be modest, if you want to be nurtured, you have to be that seedling for you to be nurtured.”

Xixing said with a smile, and then said to Chen Dong, “From today onwards, from now on, when you enter the Heavenly Wolf Academy, you will have Wu Gang take you to the place where the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body is located, and Wu Gang will also accompany you to enlightenment.”

“Good, Brother Wu Gang, please take care of yourself in the future.”

Chen Dong clasped his fist at Wu Gang.

Wu Gang smiled, “It is only thanks to the blessing of the harnessed horse that Wu Gang was fortunate enough to be able to enlighten the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body this time.”

As he spoke, Wu Gang turned sideways and made an inviting gesture to Chen Dong, “Please follow me, Master of the sidekick.”

Chen Dong and Xixing greeted each other, and then followed Wu Gang out of the main hall.

As he watched Chen Dong leave, the smile on Xie Xing's face disappeared and his eyes were filled with longing expectation, “I hope you will not fail to live up to the expectations I have for you, reach at least fifteen Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies in two months so that when the Hundred Clans head south, you should only have the strength to delay Huo Zhenxiao.”

Huo Zhenxiao's true battle strength had always been a mystery among the Hundred Clans of the Great Snowy Plain.

Even if Huo Zhenxiao had a terrifying record of destroying a city with one man, one horse and one spear!

But it was also this terrifying battle record that had raised Huo Zhenxiao's battle power rank among the Hundred Tribes to an infinite level.

Since it had all been infinitely elevated, there was no way to examine Huo Zhenxiao's battle power among the Hundred Clans.

Chen Dong entering that state, together with the fifteen martial dao of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body that he had comprehended, being able to resist delaying Huo Zhenxiao was only a prediction of Xie Xing.

Chen Dong followed Wu Gang all the way along the lengthy and closed main pathway.

When they reached the entrance to a room, led by Wu Gang, the two turned to enter and walked along this smaller closed road for another five minutes, before entering a courtyard.

What appeared before Chen Dong's eyes was a courtyard with no doors or windows throughout, just a few vents above a high wall.

And at the entrance, there were still two people standing, guarding the doorway.

"Military Master Wu Gang, follow the king's order and bring Greedy Wolf to enlighten the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body!"

Just as Chen Dong was surveying the courtyard, Wu Gang stepped forward and took out a token and handed it to the two guards.

The Hun King had difficulty accepting the fact that Chen Dong and Xixing had tied the knot for a while, so he also suppressed this secret as much as possible, and only Wu Gang was informed by the Hun King in advance because he had to spend a long time with Chen Dong.

"Greedy Wolf?!"

Upon hearing the name, the two guards revealed a shocked look at the same time.

Both of them stared round in unison and looked towards Chen Dong.

"You are the one who beat Lord Kui Gang to the point where his life was hanging by a thread yesterday, forcing the king to directly order the great doctors of the thirteen cities to converge on the king's city in order to save Kui Gang?"

“My goodness! I didn’t expect to see you so soon, Lord Kui Gang is the number one warrior of our Xiongnu, you ..... No wonder you can come to the Heavenly Wolf Academy today!”

The two people’s exclams caused Chen Dong to lower his head somewhat awkwardly.

He knew clearly that if he had not entered that state yesterday, as Xixing had said, he would really have been killed by Kui Gang.

Yesterday’s battle was, in the end, a bit more luck!

“Yes, this should be the fastest one to be promoted by our Heavenly Wolf Academy!”

Wu Gang said from the bottom of his heart.

In one day’s time, he had entered the Heavenly Wolf Academy and enlightened the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, this was the first person recorded since the establishment of the Heavenly Wolf Academy!

Even with the heavy status of being the prince of the side of a horse, Wu Gang knew clearly that if he was not a heavenly man, he would never have allowed the Hun King to open such a big hole in the Heavenly Wolf Academy.

The two guards also nodded their heads.

Soon, the two guards were opening the door to the room.

An earthy, rotten smell, which was somewhat unpleasant, hit Chen Dong’s face at once as he walked to the door.

Wu Gang and the two guards looked as normal.

Chen Dong did not care either and followed Wu Gang into the room, while the two guards behind him also closed the door directly.

“They will open the door for us when the enlightenment is over.” Wu Gang explained.

Chen Dong nodded his head.

It was also at this moment.

Click!

With a soft sound, the darkened house was abruptly lit up with lights.

A light stretched from the location of the doorway and quickly lit up towards the distance.

Chen Dong's eyes squinted as he was stung by the strong light, and only after he gradually adapted did he see everything inside the house.

Only when he could see clearly, he was also dumbfounded by what was inside the house.

It was a house with a long depth of entry, with three rows of lights that stretched out all the way to about a hundred metres.

Underneath his feet was a long carpet that stretched all the way out.

And to the left and right, in turn, stood a five-metre tall, wolf-headed figure carved entirely out of boulder, a humanoid pattern with different movements was faintly visible on each of the Wolf Martial Dao bodies, and on the ground plinths of the Wolf Martial Dao bodies were clearly marked with numbers.

Silence, solemnity and austerity.

The tall shape of a Skywolf Martial Dao body and the hideous, toothless wolf's head all give people an extremely strong sense of oppression.

It was as if one would subconsciously silence oneself in this room.

"Greedy Wolf, a total of seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, carrying the essence of thousands of years of martial dao in the Great Snowy Plain!"

Wu Kong's slim face revealed a smug, with-it smile, "Let's start with the first one, it's the foundation, and one is more difficult to enlighten than the other."

"Good!"

Chen Dong's eyes blazed with enthusiasm, nodding his head, he was walking towards the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body.

Wu Gang lightly stroked his goatee, his gaze deep as he thought to himself, "Although the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body is the foundation, and the harnessed horse is also a heavenly man, it should take at least two days to comprehend it, right?"

However.

"Hm?!"

A startled voice suddenly came out from the mouth of Chen Dong who was standing in front of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body.

Winner Takes All Chapter 1013-1014

Chapter 1013

The sound of a startled voice was extraordinarily clear in the quiet and closed house.

When Wu Gang raised his eyes to look at Chen Dong, he saw Chen Dong's frown and complicated expression, and his heart immediately sank.

Could it be that it was too difficult?

It couldn't be, even the harnessed horse could beat Lord Kui Gang, the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, it couldn't be that it was immediately difficult for the harnessed horse to look at it for a few moments.

The first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body is only the foundation of the 72 Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies, but anyone who has made a mark in the martial arts should not be as good as the horse's sidekick, right?

Just as Wu Gang was wondering.

"Wu Gang, can you come over here for a moment?"

Chen Dong suddenly turned his head and shouted with a face full of gravity.

Such a look made the suspicions in Wu Gang's heart even more certain.

He walked quickly to Chen Dong, but did not dare to ask directly, instead he said respectfully, "What is the order of the harnessed horse?"

"You should have enlightened the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, right?"

Chen Dong's gaze was profound, his eyes narrowed into slits as he gazed at the First Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body in front of him with furrowed brows.

"I have comprehended it, but my humble servant is not naturally good at martial dao, so I have only comprehended it several times, and so far, I have only comprehended the fifth one, and the fifth one has not yet been thoroughly comprehended."

Wu Gang said solemnly, but his heart was sinking one by one, he had deliberately told his bottom to the side of the horse, also because he was worried that the sidekick would think that way.

But.

Chen Dong raised his finger and pointed at the Heavenly Wolf Martial Daoist Body:
“Can you explain it to me?”

Sure enough!

Fear what comes!

Wu Gang’s heart sank to the bottom, puzzled, but he still explained, “Your Highness, the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies need to be enlightened by yourself, you cannot learn the martial dao on the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies just by relying on other people’s explanations.”

“That’s not what I meant.”

Chen Dong shook his head, in a pensive expression, and said, “Forget it, since you have comprehended through the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, then you should be familiar with these contents on it, so you can help me compare them.”

Contrast?!

Wu Gang’s gaze suddenly stared, somewhat unresponsive.

Almost simultaneously.

Chen Dong then took two steps backwards, pulling away from Wu Gang.

Then, under Wu Gang’s puzzled gaze.

Chen Dong’s body, slowly bowed up, the whole person was like a bow with strings drawn.

This is .....

The doubt in Wu Gang’s eyes became even stronger, completely unaware of what exactly Chen Dong was up to.

The next second.

As Chen Dong exhaled a deep breath, his arms and legs were deliberately slowed down to cast away.

Since it was a comparison, it had to be slowed down to a point where Wu Gang could see it clearly.

“Hm?”

As Chen Dong’s first movement was performed, Wu Gang’s eyebrows immediately knitted together into a “Chuan” and he murmured, “Why is it a bit familiar?”

As he murmured, Wu Gang’s mind was also thinking fast.

He was not good at martial arts, but focused on his mind, and he had been trained in the direction of a warlord within the Heavenly Wolf Academy, so he had really entered very shallowly in the martial arts.

Only, when Chen Dong performed his fifth move .....

Boom!

Wu Gang’s body shook violently as if it was a thunderbolt from a clear sky, his eyes abruptly exploded with a refined aura, and his thin face even showed a frightened look as if he had seen a ghost as he exclaimed, “Impossible!”

Chen Dong did not stop because of Wu Gang’s alarming cry, and continued to cast slowly, a puzzled thoughtful look appearing on his face at the same time.

“Impossible, it’s simply not possible .....”

Wu Gang shook his head in shocked denial while staring at Chen Dong’s movements with a deadly stare, followed by him turning his head suddenly and looking towards the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body.

At this moment, his heartbeat thumped, his face turned red, his whole body even more rapidly oozed beads of sweat, and the shock in his eyes grew thicker and thicker: “Why? Why can it be right? You, Prince-in-law, are you really enlightening the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body for the first time?”

A series of questioning questions caused this Hun army master, who was located in the midst of a thousand armies and could talk and laugh, to completely fall into madness at this moment.

Wu Gang quickly twisted his head, alternating his eyes quickly between the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body and Chen Dong.

In extreme shock.

It made Wu Gang’s body drenched in sweat, and his heart was thumping even faster, as if it was about to jump out of his chest.

He was not good at martial arts, so it was only when Chen Dong performed the fifth move that he suddenly woke up.

But at this time, following Chen Dong's demonstration, he checked the humanoid pattern on the first Skywolf Martial Dao body over and over again, and surprisingly, he found that every single move Chen Dong made, fit perfectly with the humanoid pattern!

This fucking ..... was a hell of a sight!

When the shock reached the extreme, the emotions were rapidly changing towards panic.

Shock and fear!

Every movement Chen Dong made was perfectly in tune with the humanoid pattern on the Sky Wolf Martial Path.

As Chen Dong performed, Wu Gang's sweat poured down, his features twisted in fear, and he felt a spinning sensation, his body feeling weak.

It was only after Chen Dong had finished casting all the human-shaped patterns on the entire first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao that he stopped.

There was a poof!

Wu Gang's body went limp and he directly sat down on his buttocks, his clothes having been completely drenched in sweat by this moment.

But Wu Gang did not care in the slightest about the chill wrapped up in the sweat, his whole body was in a state of panic and confusion.

"All right, all right!"

A breathless voice emanated from Wu Gang's mouth.

Chen Dong was also gazing at the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao body with a puzzled expression.

He had lost his memory and did not remember anything from the past.

However, with years and years of training, a move of the martial dao would be integrated into the bloodline and engraved into the bones, forming an almost instinctive muscle memory.

Therefore, when Chen Dong gazed at the first Skywolf martial arts body for a few seconds, that muscle memory was awakened.

At first, he was not sure if these movements of his were the movements on the first Skywolf Martial Path body, which was why he had asked Wu Gang to compare and reference them.

Now Wu Gang's reaction, apparently turned out to be exactly the same as his initial speculation!

"How did I get these?"

Chen Dong's brows were furrowed and doubt was strong in his eyes as he subconsciously rubbed his nose and murmured softly.

Hearing Chen Dong's words, Wu Gang froze and turned his head, looking at Chen Dong with trepidation and fear: "Master of the sidekick, are you, are you sure ..... you really have not enlightened the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body before?"

At these words.

Chen Dong shook his head blankly, "I don't remember, but I just feel that everything on this first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body is ..... familiar."

When he said the word "familiar", even Chen Dong himself had a tone of uncertainty.

But this sentence, once again like an explosive thunder, ruthlessly blasted on Wu Gang.

All very ..... familiar?

What the hell is this?

Wu Gang's entire body was dumbfounded, with a feeling of being shocked and frantic.

With Chen Dong's words, his tightly locked brow did not stretch out, but wrinkled even deeper.

He had lost his memory, but the martial heritage on the Sky Wolf Martial Path in front of him made him subconsciously fall back into his memories while he was stunned and puzzled.

Just .....

"Ah!"

A painful and miserable scream exploded.

Chapter 1014

Boom!

With a miserable scream.

Chen Dong fell straight to the ground, curled up into a ball, his hands clutching his head tightly as he kept screaming in agony.

The sharp pain in his head, hocked to the bone, went straight to his soul.

As he recalled, this excruciating pain, even more rapidly, became fierce.

The sudden scene made Wu Gang's entire body dumbfounded.

Not caring about the weakness brought on by the panic, he struggled and rolled evenly to Chen Dong's side.

"What's wrong with you, Prince in Law? What on earth has happened?"

Anxiously, he asked, but at this moment, Chen Dong was unable to respond at all.

"Ah! My head, it hurts .....

In a flash, Chen Dong was already sweating profusely, his face turned red to the colour of pig's liver, his facial features were even more twisted and hideous, and there were even blue tendons protruding from his face due to the huge pain.

He was breathing heavily, like a bellows.

His body was like sieve chaff.

The sound of screams echoed through the quiet house.

Wu Gang was completely dumbfounded, he had no idea what had happened to the harnessed horse in front of him.

In a panic.

Wu Gang was about to get up and call the guards outside to come in and help.

But at that very moment.

There was a sudden change.

"Go away, go away!"

Chen Dong suddenly pushed his hands towards Chen Dong, his face was hideously twisted, and his eyes were even scarlet.

The pain that was like ten thousand needles stirring his brain had caused him to lose his senses.

When he landed, his head hit the stone of the base of the first Skywolf Martial Body, and blood blossomed like a plum blossom.

Wu Gang, on the other hand, was motionless, unaware of life or death.

“It hurts, it hurts so much .....

Chen Dong fell to the ground, shivering, his eyes scarlet, and the violent protrusion of veins on his face, making his appearance extremely terrifying at the moment.

It was just like entering a state of madness, not much different.

“Ah ..... why, why?”

With the memories, the huge pain in his mind intensified, causing Chen Dong’s entire person to go a little crazy.

While his face was covered in sweat, his hands kept banging his head.

What was left of his sanity made him desperately want to suppress the memories at this moment.

But the shock and doubts that he had just brought to him by performing all of the martial heritage of the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body were so thick that they had reached an extreme level.

At this moment, even though he wanted to suppress the memories, his instincts just kept going back to them.

It was like a car driving at high speed and suddenly slamming on the brakes, even though the action of braking had already begun, the inertia, would still keep the car going.

Chen Dong’s current instinct to recall was just like “inertia”.

Soon, Chen Dong’s face turned pale and his lips turned purple.

The pain was so intense that it seemed to be tearing his head apart inch by inch.

It was so painful that he could not breathe.

No matter how much Chen Dong controlled his breathing, his chest heaving violently, the air in his lungs, however, was still being squeezed out rapidly.

The intense suffocation made it seem as if he was drowning in water at this point.

Buzz!

Suddenly.

Chen Dong's eyes snapped open round, his scarlet orbs covered in blood, but at this moment his eyes were filled with astonishment and horror.

This moment of trance was like being slowed down in time.

In his blank mind, something suddenly came to him.

It was as if a dot of ink had suddenly appeared on a blank piece of paper.

And, the ink dot was being enlarged at great speed in this instant, getting bigger and bigger and clearer and clearer.

Was this a memory from before .....?

In a trance, Chen Dong even forgot about the huge pain like a thousand cuts on his body, and forgot about the intense suffocation as if he was drowning.

Faster!

Closer!

In his mind, that little thing was zooming in and out extremely fast .....

Gradually, it became clearer.

It was a human figure.

A blurred figure that, as it zoomed in, seemed to be coming from a thousand miles away, across the void, to his nearness.

Who was it?

At this moment, Chen Dong felt as if time had been frozen.

There was complete silence around him, as if he had instantly entered into an extremely strange state.

Bang Bang Bang .....

He could hear the sound of his heart beating faster, and this was the only sound he could hear in his current state.

In his mind, the figure was rapidly drawing closer.

But Chen Dong still felt very slow.

Faster!

Faster!

Chen Dong shouted loudly in his mind, as the figure drew closer, his consciousness gradually blurred.

It was a race against time!

And time, was only frozen in this instant.

The silhouette zoomed in fast and became clear quickly.

But compared to the speed of Chen Dong's blurred consciousness, it was still too slow after all!

In his anxiety, Chen Dong finally saw the figure, although he could not see his face, he could tell from the outline that it was a woman.

Who was it?

Who the hell is it?

Chen Dong kept shouting in his heart, and at this moment, it was as if he was in a frenzy.

The silhouette of the woman was rapidly becoming clearer.

Only, just when Chen Dong was about to see the silhouette's face clearly.

Boom!

The door of the room was suddenly pushed open heavily.

And the loud sound was like a thunderclap.

Chen Dong's body shook, and his precarious consciousness was like a flood of water.

Before he could see what he looked like, Chen Dong's eyes closed and he passed out.

But while he was unconscious, his mouth murmured, "Little Shadow ....."

This sound was extremely subtle.

It even made the two guards who pushed the door and rushed in, didn't even hear it.

And the moment that had just been recalled, described as long, was in fact extremely brief.

"What's wrong?"

The two guards entered the room and saw the scene in front of them and were instantly shocked.

In particular, where Wu Gang had fallen, there was a large amount of blood flowing from his head, which caused a strong smell of blood to waft through the air.

After two seconds of shock, the two guards ran towards Chen Dong and Wu Gang respectively.

"What the hell is going on here? How did it become like this when you came in to enlighten the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body?"

While lamenting, the guards hurriedly checked Chen Dong's injuries.

As Chen Dong passed out, his memories came to an abrupt end and his immense pain disappeared. Although his face was still white and his lips were purple, his breathing was gradually stabilising.

After making sure that Chen Dong was not seriously injured, the watchman let out a long breath.

But before he could fully exhale the breath in his chest, his companion behind him, who was in a state of panic, said in a trembling voice.

"Dead, dead, Military Master Wu ..... is dead!"

Boom!

The trembling and low voice, at this moment, but like a big thunder explosion in this secret room.

"Quickly, report this immediately, we can't hide this matter!"

The guard who was checking Chen Dong's injuries looked terrified and immediately decided, "One is a new noble who entered the Wolf House in a day, and the other is an evergreen in the Wolf House, a one-man army master, this kind of thing must be reported to the king immediately, otherwise if we are blamed, you and I will not say we will stay in the Wolf House, perhaps ..... perhaps will be sent down with a great crime!"

The guards crouching beside Wu Gang's lips mumbled, subconsciously wanting to say something, but swallowed the words back into their stomachs.

They were the guards of this chamber, their positions were important, and they even had the great benefit of being able to sneak into this chamber at any time to enlighten the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body.

However, no matter how important the position was, it was no more important than a heavenly man who entered the Heavenly Wolf Academy for one day and a sole warlord, and the evil consequences of such a tragedy could not afford to happen to them!

Winner Takes All Chapter 1015-1016

Chapter 1015

Inside the King's Palace Medical Hall.

The smell of disinfectant water and herbs was in the air.

Chen Dong is lying flat on his bed, with a great Hun doctor sitting sideways next to him, looking over the injuries and occasionally looking at the test reports.

The incident had happened suddenly and the stakes were high.

Everyone in the medical hall was in a state of shock.

The atmosphere was no longer as calm as it had been in the past, so heavy that it was difficult to breathe, and every breath had to be taken carefully.

Shying, holding Barbara by the hand, stood by the side, her face full of deep suspicion.

And Barbara, with her little pink face, was heavily worried.

The two guards were the first to inform the King of the Huns, but it was Xixing and Barbara who arrived first.

After all, the King of Xiongnu was the king of the Xiongnu clan and had a heavy daily schedule, not as leisurely and relaxed as Xixing.

Finally, the great doctor finished his examination.

Getting up with a thick pile of test reports, he respectfully said to Xixing, "Princess, Greedy Wolf is not seriously injured, he should have suffered some kind of strong stimulation, that's why he passed out."

Hearing the report, Xixing's willow brows tightened and a thick layer of cold frost covered her face.

Another ..... memory?

"Auntie, I want to see uncle."

Barbara said worriedly, then her little hand struggled out of Xie Xing's hand, was running to the bed, squatting on the floor, lying on the edge of the bed and examining Chen Dong.

Xixing, on the other hand, stopped where she was, her face as cold as frost.

This caused the great doctor in front of her to look a little flustered, always keeping her head down and not daring to look directly at him.

It was at this moment.

Another great doctor hurriedly came over.

When he saw the frosty-faced Xixing and his fellow doctor who was bowing his head, his expression froze.

"Results!"

Xixing spat out two words coldly.

The great doctor who rushed over hurriedly bowed and said, "Your Highness, Military Division Wu suffered a severe head injury, lost too much blood and died on the spot, unable to return to life."

"Hmm."

A sound emitted from Xixing's mouth and nose, her eyes staring deeply at the unconscious Chen Dong on the bed: "What exactly ..... happened?"

The secret room where the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Bodies were placed was only entered by Chen Dong and Wu Gang at that time.

The two guards, who were also just outside the door, had no idea what had happened.

It happened in that instant, and by the time the two guards entered, Chen Dong and Wu Gang were already lying on the ground, one unconscious and one dead.

“King, arriving!”

Outside the Hall of Healing, the sound of a proclamation came.

In an instant, all the great doctors in the Hall of Healing prostrated themselves on the ground.

Only Xixing stood in place, motionless, and Barbara crouched by the bed, ignoring it, always watching Chen Dong.

Soon, the sound of dense footsteps came.

The Hun King’s face was blue, his brows were furious, and he was walking like a lion with suppressed anger, ready to devour anyone.

A large group of people followed behind him.

As he walked in, an invisible majesty, as if a large invisible hand, pressed down across the whole room, causing everyone in the already stagnant Medical Hall to shudder.

“Greetings to the King!”

Voices echoed within the Hall of Healing.

The King of Xiongnu ignored them and stepped up to Xixing: “Are you satisfied now .....

“Father, what am I satisfied with?”

Xixing raised her eyebrows, a trace of stubbornness emerged on her frosty face: “Father, you don’t know the cause and effect of the matter, so you question your daughter like this, how should my daughter answer?”

There was hostility in the King of Xiongnu’s eyes as he raised his hand to point at the unconscious Chen Dong on the couch and said sternly to Xixing, “This man you brought back, this man you chose, the first day he entered the palace, his life was hanging by a thread when he was seriously wounded by the Kui Gang, the second day he entered the palace, the death of Military Division Wu fell in the Wolf House.

The words were sharp, like a knife and a sword.

She turned around and looked directly into the King of Xiongnu's angry eyes, "Father, my daughter is saying that we have to wait until Greedy Wolf wakes up before we can make a decision!

"But what else needs to be decided now? Is all that the king has said a fabricated lie?"

The Hun King said sternly, his face fierce and his hair on end, "Do you know that every one of those people in the Wolf Academy are the greatest treasure of the Huns! They are destined to be the future pillars of the Xiongnu nation, the foundation stones of the nation, from the moment they set foot in the Academy!"

"Kui Gang is a marshal's talent, Wu Gang is a warlord's talent, do you know how much the whole Xiongnu has paid to train them both? But now, just because of him, just because of the arrival of this calamity, one has just returned from the gates of ghosts and the other has entered the gates of ghosts, can such a price be justified by him, a man from the domain?"

Angry to the core, the Hun King roared in a direct and stern voice.

The sound echoed.

It frightened everyone in the Hall of Healers, shivering and splitting their liver and guts.

Even those who had accompanied the King of Xiongnu into the Hall of Healing also knelt and prostrated.

The King of Xiongnu was so furious that to them, it was no less than the wrath of the heavens!

When the King of Xiongnu's words fell, Xixing did not respond immediately, but her beautiful eyes met the King of Xiongnu's angry gaze with anger, not letting go in the slightest.

Father and daughter stared at each other, but between the four eyes, it was like the shadow of a sword and light.

An endless dead silence fell over the entire medical hall.

Even Barbara, who was squatting beside the bed watching Chen Dong, had a frightened look on her little face as she secretly turned her head and gazed at King Xiong Nu and Xixing.

Amidst the panic, Barbara's small hand quietly traced its way to Chen Dong's hand, holding it tightly, with some determination in her big, clear eyes.

For a long time.

Xixing suddenly pulled the corners of his mouth and smiled disdainfully: “The pillars of the country, the foundation stones of the country that Father is so proud of, have they ever opened up the land for Father? The first thing you need to do is to get back to the glory of the former king of the Huns. They ..... have only maintained and slowed the decay of the Hun’s prestige, and yet Father values them so highly and treats them as treasures?”

A disdainful smile, solid words.

It instantly made the Hun king’s face change and his heart twist like a knife.

This was a direct stab at his scales, a poke at his most painful spot~!

As Xixing’s words left his mouth, within the Medical Hall, everyone’s liver and guts split, and they fought to bend down, almost throwing themselves to the ground in all five directions, their bodies trembling even more.

“Unbridled!”

The Hun King let out a thunderous burst of roar.

The next second.

He was the dragon marching and striding directly towards Chen Dong.

“Don’t, don’t hurt uncle, Ah Man won’t let you touch uncle!”

Barbarian, who was clinging to Chen Dong’s hand, was instantly terrified and disoriented, her eyes swished red, tears surging out as she cried out.

“Get lost!”

The furious Hun King pushed Barbara away with a bang.

Barbara was so weak that she was sent flying by the slap and fell heavily to the ground with a scream.

Clang!

In a flash of lightning.

A sound of a long knife being sheathed suddenly rang out.

Xixing drew her sword across her neck and sternly said, “Father, if you harm him, the Demon Mother will immediately kill herself!”

Boom!

The Hun King was struck by lightning, and his feet stopped abruptly at the edge of Chen Dong's bed, his eyes even more furious, gnashing his teeth.

At the same time.

Chen Dong, who was lying unconscious in bed, heard Barbara's cries, his eyelashes trembled lightly and slowly ..... opened his eyes.

Chapter 1016

Inside the Hall of Healing, there is silence.

The atmosphere was stern and murderous.

As Chen Dong opened his eyes, his stern, sword-like gaze looked straight at the Hun King.

His bloodshot eyes were filled with raging anger, as if they were burning with fire.

Even when the King of Xiongnu's eyes met Chen Dong's, he felt a sense of fear and trepidation.

If eyes can kill, then Chen Dong at this moment is!

"Ah Man ....."

Chen Dong called out gently.

"Uncle ....."

Barbara stumbled over, with a trace of blood at the corner of her mouth, her face full of tears and pitiful.

Chen Dong slowly sat up, hugged Barbara, raised his hand, and gently wiped away the blood from the corner of Barbara's mouth.

From beginning to end, he ignored the Hun King, as if the lofty figure beside him did not exist at all.

Everyone was shocked by this scene.

Even Xixing, who had her sword around her neck, could not help but frown.

She knew the relationship between the man in front of her and the little girl, and she could also clearly detect the majestic coldness emanating from the man on the bed.

Finally.

After slowly wiping away the blood from the corner of Barbara's mouth and the tears on her face, Chen Dong said seriously, "Didn't Barbara promise her brother that she wouldn't cry?"

"Mm."

Barbara nodded her head forcefully, trying hard to hold back her tears.

Following closely.

Chen Dong slowly turned his head and looked up at the Hun King in front of him, his voice was cold and harsh, but it was like thunder that blew everyone away.

"Barbara saved my life, it is fine for you to kill me, but if you hurt her, I can fight you to the death!"

The words were cold and harsh, a naked threat.

Boom!

In an instant, everyone in the Medical Hall's liver and guts split.

Was this going to be a monstrous disaster?

In Xiongnu, the King of Xiongnu was the supreme majesty, looking down on all beings, the true lord of Xiongnu, no one dared to show any disrespect to the King of Xiongnu, let alone such a threatening and vicious word?

Crazy!

This guy must be mad!

The crowd was scared and prostrate, everyone knew exactly what was going to happen next.

Threatening the Hun, that's a death wish!

Clang, clang, clang .....

With Chen Dong's words, the guards in the hall drew their swords, their cold light biting, their swords sounding piercingly.

Killing intent instantly filled the entire Medical Hall!

“Greedy Wolf, shut up and apologise to Father immediately!”

In a flash of lightning, Xixing, who was standing with her sword across her face, lost her colour and shrieked harshly.

How could she have ever imagined that things would take a sharp turn to this extent!

“How dare you! How dare you threaten the king?”

The King of Xiongnu was so furious that he raised his hand and slapped his palm down directly towards Chen Dong’s head.

The wind exploded.

The King of Xiongnu was not only the ruler of Xiongnu, he was also the best among men in the Great Snowy Plains, which believed in the law of survival of the weak and the strong, and his martial strength was absolutely outstanding!

“Ah!”

In a flash of lightning, Barbara screamed in terror and shrank into Chen Dong’s arms.

Snap!

Chen Dong faced the Hun King indifferently and raised his right hand, grabbing his wrist with one hand.

“When a pitiful man is angry, blood will spill five steps!”

The voice with a bitter chill as his lips and teeth lightly opened, slowly came out from Chen Dong’s mouth.

In an instant.

The entire Hall of Healing was plunged into great fear, and their bodies were even cold and bone-chilling to the extreme.

My God!

Where in the world did this madman come from, how dare he treat the Hun King like this?

Shying was so confused that beads of sweat even crept onto her forehead.

Her lips mumbled as she tried to prevent this turn of events from continuing.

But her thoughts flew, and she did not know how to stop it.

She wanted to get her hands on the sword that had come south.

But now, this sharp sword used to counter Huo Zhenxiao's southward movement was a public threat to the King of Xiongnu and her father.

Chen Dong's two words had pushed the matter to a point where it was difficult to ride a tiger!

Even if she advised the Hun King, the Hun King would never give up in order to maintain the majesty of the King.

Being threatened like this in public, if Chen Dong was not killed, where should the King of Xiongnu's face be placed?

"Then do you know that when the Son of Heaven is angry, a million corpses will be killed?"

The King of Xiongnu's brow was knitted tightly and his eyes were tossed with murderous intent, like a fierce beast that was raging and ready to devour others, and he squeezed out these words almost from his teeth.

At the same time.

At the same time, his right hand was slowly exerting force, trying to break free from Chen Dong's grip.

However, no matter how hard he tried, Chen Dong's right hand seemed to be an iron pincer, imprisoning his wrist in a deadly manner.

This caused the Hun King's heart to be terrified, and the veins in the corners of his eyes stood out.

He knew that Chen Dong's strength was capable of sweeping through a thousand armies, after all, there was the video that Timur had sent back before he died as proof.

What's more, he had witnessed Chen Dong shaking Kui Gang and beating him to the point where his life hung in the balance.

However, the two times he had shown his strength, he had entered the state of "unique I have no king", as Xixing had said, and now, the strength Chen Dong had shown in his normal state still made the Hun king tremble.

“Don’t say it, don’t say it ..... what to do? What the hell should we do?”

Looking at the tit-for-tat Chen Dong and the Hun King, at this moment, Xixing’s body was like oil cooking, his heart was like fire, and his thoughts were flying around extremely fast.

Things had reached a critical and precarious point.

If she couldn’t come up with a solution, whether it was Chen Dong or the Hun King, whichever side was injured, it was never something she wanted to see!

“Uncle .....

Facing the Hun King who came overlooking her, Barbara slowly pulled her head out of Chen Dong’s arms and said fearfully, “Uncle don’t argue with the king, Barbara is fine. ,”

In her perception, the Hun King was what her father and mother had told her about, a legendary being.

High and mighty and unbeatable!

“Good, Ah Barbara won’t let argue anymore, so uncle won’t argue.”

Chen Dong’s cold, stern expression eased slightly with Barbara’s persuasion.

At the same time, the right hand that was holding the Hun King’s wrist tightly, also slowly loosened.

Just .....

Snap!

The moment the Hun King’s right hand lost its confinement, instead of withdrawing it, he directly slapped Chen Dong’s face fiercely.

The sound of the slap was crisp and loud.

It was so powerful that it even caused Chen Dong to tumble directly from the bed onto the floor, a mouthful of blood spurting out from his mouth.

“Greedy Wolf!”

“Uncle!”

The sudden scene frightened Xixing and Barbara, and the two of them immediately rushed towards Chen Dong.

And everyone in the Medical Hall, at this moment, revealed a look of deserved guilt.

Threatening the Hun King was not enough to die for!

Also just as Xie Xing swept past the Hun King, the Hun King raised his hand and yanked Xie Xing, sternly saying, "Someone, give it to this King, kill ....."

In a flash of lightning.

Xixing's face turned steeply pale, but a sudden flash of light came to his mind.

There was a poof!

"Father!"

Shying instantly knelt down on the ground and forcibly interrupted the Hun King's order.

She knew very well that the king's order would be irrevocable!

"I implore Father King, allow Greedy Wolf to enter the fighting cage!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 1017-1018

Chapter 1017

Boom!

Shying's voice echoed through the medical hall, causing the crowd to burst into an uproar.

Even the King of Xiongnu, in a state of shock and anger, stopped his words abruptly and looked at Xixing with a deep, stunned gaze.

"A beast fighting cage? I, my goodness! Princess, are you trying to save this guy, or kill him?"

"It's true that the Beast Fighting Cage can exempt you from death, but in the long history of the Hun Beast Fighting Cage since its existence, very few people have actually made it out of the cage alive."

"Heavenly Wolf is above! If you're executed by the king, it's not a big deal, but if you enter the cage, you'll be food for the beasts!"

.....

Even though the entire medical hall was enveloped by the majesty of the Hun King and filled with the guards' awe-inspiring killing intent.

But at this moment, the crowd present could hardly bear the shock and murmured.

Chen Dong frowned, looking at Xixing and the Hun King, the murmurs that filled his ears made him a little puzzled.

What exactly is the fighting cage .....? You are so desperate to protect his life?"

Facing the Hun King's gaze, Xixing looked a little torn, his gaze flickering.

"I am sorry, Father, it is the demon mother who is unfilial, but ..... the demon mother feels that it is worth it!"

The last two words were incomparably firm.

"Do you really think he can get out of the fighting cage alive?" The Hun King raised his hand and pointed at Chen Dong.

"Not sure."

The demon lady shook her head, her gaze so deep that she looked at Chen Dong, "But it is better to have hope than despair."

"Hahahaha ..... hahahaha ....."

The Hun King suddenly tilted his head, and his thick, thunderous laughter echoed throughout the entire medical hall.

The crowd, who were still in shock and murmuring, were instantly silenced.

Everyone could hear that although the Hun King was laughing, the majestic coldness emanating from his laughter was even colder and more biting than the wind and snow in the middle of the night.

Suddenly.

The Hun King's laughter stopped, and he angrily lowered his head and looked angrily at Xixing: "Fine! I promise you, let's see if this boy can come out of the beast fighting cage alive!"

"Many thanks, Father."

Xixing let go of King Xiongnu and kowtowed gratefully to the ground.

But the Hun King ignored it and turned his head to look angrily at Chen Dong: “Now, the King wants you to tell him what happened in the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard! Why did Wu Gang die?”

“Wu Gang died?”

Chen Dong’s pupils contracted for a moment, a look of shocked guilt appearing on his face.

Instantly, everything in the room of the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf bodies and the painful memories surfaced in his mind.

And ..... the sinister figure he had almost seen before he passed out! ~

Taking a deep breath, Chen Dong said calmly, “Military Master Wu asked me about my memory loss, I fell into a memory, I had a splitting headache, Military Master Wu came up to check on me, I was in huge pain, and in my pain I casually pushed a hand .....

He did not intend to tell the martial heritage on his already would be Wolf Martial Way, after seeing Wu Gang’s shock, Chen Dong instinctively felt that this matter was too unbelievable, if he told, I’m afraid there would be even greater implication.

It was best to hide it for the time being and take his time to clear it up.

The explanation was not afraid of being overturned, as he and Wu Gang were the only two people in the chamber at the time, and since Wu Gang was already dead, no one would know about it.

“Pushed a hand?”

The Hun King froze at once.

Even Xixing and all the people present were all stunned.

Just this accidental push?

The great Wu military commander, who was a pillar of the country and able to take charge of his own, died on the spot?

“Oh ..... is just that, just that, around you are the one who is going to enter the fighting cage, this king is too lazy to bother with you.”

The Hun King narrowed his eyes and looked at Chen Dong with a cold smile, as if he was looking at a dead person: “Because you entered the palace, the king has lost two of the kingdom’s foundation stones, you entered the cage, if you die inside, it will be considered as the king’s revenge for the two pillar stones, if you can really step out of the cage alive, it will also prove that the gods want you to have a bad life, the matter of Kui Gang and Wu Gang, the king and you The matter of Kui Gang and Wu Gang will be written off!”

All the people in the audience looked up.

At this moment, there was sympathy, sneers, and gloating.

Without exception, everyone looked at Chen Dong in the same way as the Hun King, as if they were looking at a dead man.

“Guards, take him to the beast fighting cage!”

With a command from the Hun King, there were guards with swords approaching Chen Dong at once.

Barbara instinctively wanted to stand in front of Chen Dong, but was gently pulled away by Chen Dong, then gestured for Xixing to take care of Barbara.

He was not stupid.

Because of Barbara, he had only woken up as soon as he had confronted the Thundering Volcanoes of the Hun King.

Xixing had chosen to do so in order to save him, and also to give the Hun King a step down.

Otherwise, if he remained frozen in the same gunpowder-filled scene just now, the King of Huns would surely end up killing him so painfully that he would not even have a chance to survive!

“Uncle .....

Looking at Chen Dong being taken away by the guards, Ah Barbara’s clear eyes were full of worry.

“Good boy Barbara, Uncle .....

Xixing bit her red lips, even as she comforted Barbara, her tone was somewhat uncertain.

Looking at the lengthy procession exiting the medical hall, Xie Xing did not stop and brought Barbara to quickly catch up with the troops.

Beneath the wind and snow.

The lights were bright.

Shying Xing, however, led Barbara to quickly catch up with Chen Dong.

“Greedy Wolf, you have to be mentally prepared!”

Shying’s voice was low, but his gaze glanced at the front of the group where the Hun King was, before he whispered, “You were too impulsive just now, if you could have taken a step back, the situation would never have reached such a scorching and dangerous point.”

“I can retreat from anything, but not from Barbara’s matter, without them, I would have died in the snowy plains.”

Chen Dong strides forward in, but the look is as cold as the wind and snow: “I this life is they picked up, for barbarian, send out again, no fear!”

“You ..... why are you so stubborn?”

Shy Xing’s absolutely beautiful face is full of helplessness.

The wind and snow drifted down and fell on top of her green silk, also making her look even colder.

Gritting her silver teeth, Xixing said in a deep voice, “In order to defuse the situation, please don’t blame me for letting my father send you into the fighting cage.”

“No blame, you have already been very helpful to me.” Chen Dong shook his head, Xixing was his wife and the daughter of the Hun King, and she was most embarrassed to be caught in the middle just now.

After a pause, Chen Dong asked, “What exactly is the fighting cage?”

“The Xiongnu have thrived in the Great Snowy Plain for thousands of years, the environment in the Great Snowy Plain is harsh and both the Xiongnu and other tribes believe in the rule of the weak and the strong.”

Xixing looked pensive as he quickly explained, “So within the Xiongnu, the existence of the fighting cage slowly evolved, exactly when it appeared, I’m not sure, the Xiongnu history books are also very vague.”

“The beast fighting cage has a great significance, it is considered an alternative death-free card, but anyone who can come out of the cage alive, even the king’s will to kill, can be swayed, those who can come out of the cage means that the strength is strong enough, also means that it is the arrangement of the gods, in this world that believes in the weak and the strong, the strength of the strong, but also in an alternative way, can be able to continue to survive. ”

“There are even warriors in the history of the Huns who emerged from the cage alive, not only free of their guilt, but also with a high ranking in the history books! Of course, not everyone can enter the cage at will.”

“Just now, you and father were fighting against each other, the situation is irreversible, entering the cage is the best way I can think of, there is a chance of survival if you go in, but if you don't, you will die on the spot!”

Chen Dong nodded, “I know that.”

“If you can get out of the cage, then God will not kill you, but if you cannot, then you will be devoured by the beasts on the spot!”

Shy Xing looked at Chen Dong gruffly and said in a deep voice, “I hope that the heavens will be kind to you, so that you can be a little better when you draw a deadly fierce beast, if you draw a snowy lion, that is the top of the line fierce beast of the fighting cage, perhaps .....

The last words were not spoken by Xie Xing.

But the meaning is already very obvious!

Even the little Barbara, whom she was holding, understood the meaning and her pretty face turned a little pale.

Chapter 1018

The royal palace at night.

It is still brightly lit.

Patrols can be seen everywhere.

The wind and snow howled.

Chen Dong and the others, however, hurried on.

Along the way, patrols kept stopping to greet the King of the Huns.

But the King of Xiongnu was cold and stern, ignoring everything around him.

Soon.

The long procession entered a palace.

It was not a palace, but rather a fortress of the size of a palace.

At the king's command, the gates of the fortress opened with a rumble.

In an instant.

The roar of the beasts came from inside the fortress, drowning out the wind and snow and shaking the heart, echoing throughout the Xiongnu Palace in the night.

For a moment, the palace, which had been silent in the darkness of the night and the wind and snow, exploded in shock.

"The roar of a beast? My God, did I hear it right? The king has opened the cage?"

"Something's wrong! It's a big deal! The cage hasn't been opened in almost thirty years, has it?"

"I heard from the people of the Medical Hall that it seems that the king was so enraged that he wanted to forcibly kill a lord of the Heavenly Wolf House, and the princess prayed for the king to open the cage!"

.....

In the king's palace, as the roar of the beast echoed, chatter surged and clamour shook the sky.

There was no shortage of people who had gathered around towards the beast fighting cage against the wind and snow.

Even if they couldn't enter the cage, it would be a great event for the people in the palace to stand outside the cage and wait for the results!

The cage is not really opened very often!

The last time it was opened was nearly thirty years ago, so that was enough time to make it an event in the palace!

As the roar of the beast rang out, the residents near the royal palace were also in a state of fear and shock.

For a while, there was a lot of chatter.

"It's open! It's the beast fighting cage that's opened!"

“Heavenly Wolf is above, I remember the last time our beast fighting cage opened when I was just a little kid, and now my waifu is out!”

“When the cage is opened, it means a life-and-death gamble is on. If you win, you’ll be a star of the Huns, if you lose, you’ll be a nobody!”

.....

In front of the cage, as the beasts hissed and roared.

A barbarian was so frightened that she took a step forward and leaned on Chen Dong’s side, clutching Chen Dong’s big hand with both hands, “Can you, not go in?”

Just now, when Xixing was telling Chen Dong about the beast fighting cage, he did not avoid Barbara, so Barbara knew all about the dangers of the cage, and when she heard the terrifying roar of the beasts, she was scared and worried about Chen Dong.

“Barbara, it’s alright.”

Chen Dong picked Barbara up in his arms.

The guards around him, because they were shy of the star, did not stop them either.

As he walked into the cage with the group, Chen Dong rubbed Barbara’s back as a comfort, while turning his head and saying to Xixing in a deep voice, “If I really die in the cage, Barbara ..... will be counting on you.”

“Don’t worry.”

Shying nodded, “Barbara is the one who saved you, how can I dare to forget this kindness as a human wife? What’s more, she is also a child of the Great Snowy Plain, with me here, from now on, Barbara will not be aggrieved in the slightest.”

A short conversation.

But it was as if it was a dying man’s last words.

“Hoo .....

Chen Dong exhaled a heavy breath, his expression cold down, and between his mouth and nose, as his breath exhaled, it turned into a stream of air visible to the naked eye.

As they walked into the beast fighting cage.

Rumble!

The heavy doors behind them closed with a sound.

Inside the sealed fortress, various beastly roars rose and fell.

There was the roar of a tiger, the roar of a lion, and the shrill roar of a wolf .....

The sound was deafening and chilling.

The roar of the beasts was accompanied by the loud booming sound of the beasts hitting the iron cage, thumping loudly.

The entire beast-fighting cage, as the procession entered, seemed like a calm frying pan that had suddenly been poured with a pot of cold water, completely exploding.

“Beast slaves!”

With a guard’s stern and explosive voice.

In the distance, there was finally the sound of iron chains shaking.

Under the bright lights.

Chen Dong raised his eyes and swept past the crowd, and saw several figures in the distance slowly approaching, with chains tied under their feet.

Each of them was naked and covered with wounds, but their expressions were indifferent, without sorrow or joy, and their long hair was like weeds covering their heads in a messy manner.

“Beast slaves?”

Chen Dong frowned slightly.

Xixing at the side said, “They are slaves, specially responsible for raising and caring for each fierce beast in the beast fighting cage, such dangerous work would not be allowed to be done by ordinary people, the slightest mistake would make these beast slaves become food for the fierce beasts on the spot.”

Chen Dong’s frown deepened.

He loathed this system!

When slavery was cloaked behind them, people ..... were not even as good as animals!

If it wasn't for Barbara's brother in the first place, and if he hadn't happened to meet Xixing, he, Barbara and Barbara's brother would all have had their ultimate fate rewritten.

It would have been ..... utterly and completely dark, like eternal night!

"Hurry up!"

Seeing that several beast slaves were walking slowly, the guard beside the Hun king directly rushed over and kicked down a beast slave with a bang: "It's an honor for you to have the king's royal visit, why don't you hurry up?"

As he spoke, the guard kicked the fallen beast slave a few more times hard.

From the beginning to the end, no one felt that this was the least bit wrong.

Slaves ..... are supposed to be so lowly!

But the beatings did have an effect.

Several of the beast slaves' steps quickened considerably, and with their heavy chains, they soon reached the Hun king and prostrated themselves in unison.

"Beast slaves, worship the great king!"

Once a slave, he did not even deserve to have a name.

"Open the beast cage and prepare for the beast fight!"

The Hun King coldly threw out a sentence.

Several beast slaves, under the torso of their guards, walked towards the depths of the beast fighting cage.

The Hun King, on the other hand, led the procession and walked forward without any haste.

Gradually, everything inside the fighting cage was also presented to Chen Dong.

The scene in front of him shocked Chen Dong, who could not help but take a breath of cold air backwards.

In the middle of the cage was an extremely spacious open space.

In the very centre, a huge cage of nearly five hundred square feet was cast out of metal.

Around the cage, there were also cage-like pipes cast in metal, connecting the dark spaces around it.

And it was from within that dark space that the roar and crashing sounds of the beasts came.

Even, because of the light, Chen Dong could still see the pairs of different coloured, yet cold and fierce gazes in the darkness.

“Barbara was completely curled up in Chen Dong’s arms, shivering.”

Still young, this scene was too frightening for her.

People, themselves, had a sense of fear when faced with beasts.

Even an adult would find it hard to face it openly, let alone a little girl of a few years old.

“Good boy, Barbara, follow Auntie first.”

Chen Dong soothed as he handed Barbara to Xixing.

Xixing did not refuse, but directly swept Barbara into her arms and hugged her.

This scene made the guards around them, who were unaware of the scene, look on in awe and secretly smack their lips.

Goodness!

What exactly was this man’s relationship with the princess?

The princess of the Great Hun was actually committing herself to hug a child?

The King of the Huns also noticed the scene and snorted, his expression cold and stern, then he bellowed, “Bring in the life and death sticks!”

Clang and clang .....

Soon, the sound of chains came from the darkness in the distance.

Chen Dong then saw several beast slaves who had crossed the bundle of chains, were carrying a thick and heavy box with difficulty and slowness, coming this way.

“Good luck!”

Xixing nodded to Chen Dong, seemingly calm, but in reality, beads of sweat had already seeped out from the palms of the hands holding Barbara in her arms.

Chen Dong did not say much and dotingly rubbed Barbara's head before walking towards the Life and Death Sign.

He knew that this life and death stick was the one that would be used to extract the beasts for the duel!

Only, just as Chen Dong was taking a step forward.

Behind him, however, Xixing suddenly tugged her, and at the same time, he felt Xixing pressed against his back.

Without waiting for Chen Dong to turn around, Chen Dong felt a sharp dagger, which was tucked into the waistband of his beast robe by Xie Xing .....

Chen Dong immediately was raising his hand to press that spot.

This scene was very well held by Xie Xing, although all the eyes of the road looked over, but no one found out about the dagger.

Snapping ..... snapping .....

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the actual barrel of the barrel, and you don't have to hesitate, because if you do, you'll have to make a trip to the ghost gate after all!

After taking a deep breath, he reached in and grabbed a slip of paper.

As Chen Dong made this move, everyone's heart lifted.

It was clear to everyone that this draw would directly determine what kind of beast Chen Dong would fight, and also directly determine the chances of surviving in the end!

Chapter 1019

As Chen Dong reached into the life and death sign tube with one hand.

It was as if the entire cage had fallen silent for an instant.

Everyone's heart lifted and their eyes burned with anticipation.

However, their thoughts were different.

Xixing and Barbara were worried and apprehensive.

The ordinary guards, on the other hand, were all watching as if it were a hilarious event.

As for the Hun King, his expression was cold and stern, and his face was still thick with anger.

The moment of reaching out his hand seemed like a long time had passed.

When Chen Dong slowly drew his right hand out of the life and death stick tube.

Everyone's heart was in their throats, their heartbeats racing as if they were about to jump out of their chests.

Even Chen Dong was nervous when he took out the beast selection stick.

But when he saw the beasts on the sign, he felt a bolt from the blue.

His whole body froze in place and he cursed out loud, "Damn it!"

The guard who had already followed behind Chen Dong took the stick directly from Chen Dong's hand.

Once he saw the beast on it, even the guard could not help but give Chen Dong an extra look.

Shaking his head, the guard then turned around and said loudly, "Snowy Lion!"

Boom!

The four words were thunderous explosions.

In an instant.

Everyone was boiling with clamour.

"The Heavenly Wolf is above! Surprisingly, it's the Snowy Land Lion, which is the strongest fierce beast in the fighting cage!"

"It is said that three years ago, when the king was out hunting with a team of ten thousand people, he found a Snowy Lion and managed to capture it only after losing the lives of hundreds of people!"

"I know more than you do, when the king put the snowy lion into the fighting cage, the snowy lion was fighting with a Siberian tiger, at that time the Siberian tiger was the strongest fighting force in the fighting cage, but in the face of the snowy lion, it was eventually reduced to food!"

.....

Even if the Hun king was present, these guards, at this time, could not help but argue about it.

On the other side.

When Xixing heard the words “Snowy Lion”, his whole body suddenly felt like the sky was spinning, and he lamented in his heart: Is it really the sky that will kill you?

According to common sense, there could not be any lions in the snowy plains, and lions should have been the kings of the grasslands.

But the snowy lion was indeed captured three years ago when the Hun king was out hunting!

It was a species so rare in the snowfields that the King of the Huns regarded it as a good luck charm and gave a three-day banquet in his palace to all the lords and nobles!

Perhaps it was also because of this unnatural existence that this snowy lion was as powerful as it was terrifying!

What these guards were talking about was the loss of hundreds of lives when the Snow Lion was captured.

What they didn't know was that among the hundreds of lives ..... were five future generals of the Skywolf Academy, and two dozen officers with superb martial arts skills who held important positions in the military!

Each and every one of them is no ordinary person!

The martial arts strength, all of them are the best among people, the peak of existence!

“Uncle .....

A barbarian's pretty face was white and her clear eyes were full of worry, suddenly she turned her head to Xixing's face and pleaded, “Auntie, can you, can you save uncle?”

Save?

That was already saving!

The way she expected to save him, if she had drawn a fierce beast like the coyote, even if there were more of them, with this man's strength, there was a high probability that he would be able to get out of the cage alive.

However, the heavens had not blessed her, and she had drawn a Snow Lion.

This is heaven's will to kill him!

“Demon Mother, Father has given him the chance, he drew the Snowy Lion himself, this is because the heavens wanted him to die, he had to die!”

The Xiong Nu King even had a smug look on his face at this moment, and his eyes were full of coldness as he looked at Xixing, who was frozen in place: “The Snowy Lion, this is the top beast, he was able to draw this beast, and Father cannot look petty, if he can walk out of the beast fighting cage, not only will the King forget everything he did before, but he will also be promoted to the rank of Xiong Nu General, in charge of the army!”

He had been in a state of wavering, no, rather, the Hun king had been in a state of wavering and indecision, indecisive and hesitant, about this man whom Qigang had taken a liking to and wielded the whip southwards in conjunction with the Hundred Clans.

So after Kui Gang's life was hanging in the balance, and Wu Gang's warlord perished on the spot, he angrily wanted to kill Chen Dong in anger.

Compared to Shying's pattern, the Hun King thought more of stabilising the situation in Xiongnu today, and as for wielding the whip southwards, one step at a time, there was always a chance!

His attitude was not as firm and resolute as that of Xixing's, so after suffering heavy blows from the General Star and the Warlord of the Wolf House one after another, he also took the life of this “sharp sword of the south” more lightly.

In the midst of Chen Dong's threat just now, he was also thunderstruck and instantly equated Chen Dong with death, and was not as magnanimous as Xixing.

However, it was precisely because of his indecisiveness and his love for his daughter as a father that he fell into line when Shying requested to open the cage.

By chance, the heavens were going to kill this man!

He, the King of Huns, naturally had no qualms about it.

He was not stupid, so he naturally had to show more generosity in front of his daughter.

When a person dies, father and daughter still have to get along every day in the future.

It was only ..... Xixing who ignored the Hun King's promise.

She stopped where she was, holding Barbara, feeling the sky spinning while her eyes were black and her body was weak.

Great General?

What might! What courage!

What was the point of making such a promise, knowing that he would surely die?

To appear generous? To appear magnanimous? To show that you have courage?

“Father, father, if you were king, the Xiongnu would have been doomed to continue to decline, unable to save the world, and you knew he would die under the snowy lion, so what is the point of making such a promise?”

This was the thought in Xixing’s mind.

Even as the thought appeared, the corners of Shying’s mouth curled up into a disdainful smile.

Ever since she was a child, this was the first time she had despised her father!

In a trance.

Shying felt some wetness on her cheeks, and as she returned to her senses, she leaned Barbara back gently, and instantly saw two lines of tears at the corners of Barbara’s eyes.

It was just that Barbara’s lips were tightly obliterated, forcing her to hold back her sobs.

At the time when Xie Xing saw Barbara’s tears, Barbara also made a silent gesture at the same time, forcing down her sobs and whispering, “Brother and uncle, let Barbara be strong and not cry .....

Shying was instantly stunned, Barbara’s words seemed like a sharp knife that cut fiercely at her heart!

“Into the beast fighting cage!”

The guard who had been standing beside Chen Dong gave Chen Dong a disdainful glance and said with a sarcastic tone, “You are damn talented too, the fighting cage is said to have dozens of fierce beasts, you drew the top Snowy Lion with this hand, you deserve to die.”

If it was before, with his status as a guard, he would never dare to speak like this to Chen Dong, who had entered the Heavenly Wolf Academy.

But now, having drawn the Snowy Lion, it had become a certain death sentence, and the guard had no doubt that this man in front of him, even if he was the number one person in the Skywolf Academy, Lord Kui Gang, would end up as food for the Snowy Lion.

Respect and awe have never been the way to treat the dead!

Chapter 1020

Inside the fortress, the roar of the beast echoed in the ears.

In full view of the crowd, Chen Dong looked cold as he stepped into the beast cage.

Bang Teen!

The huge metal door closed with a sound.

“Uncle .....

A hissing voice with a crying tone suddenly came from behind him.

Chen Dong slowly turned around, and under the bright light, what caught his eyes was Barbara’s puffy little face, forcing herself to hold back her sorrow.

He tugged at the corner of his mouth and smiled gently.

Following closely.

Barbara slowly shouted, “Uncle ..... is going to walk out!”

Chen Dong nodded, and then was slowly turning around.

Under the spotlight, his movements were slow, only as he turned around, the gentleness and smile on his face disappeared, replaced by an endless gloom and coldness.

Subconsciously, his right hand was placed on his belt at his waist, lined with the dagger that Shying had just quietly slipped to him.

At this moment ..... the only thing he could rely on was this dagger!

“Walk out? What a joke!”

Hearing Barbara’s words, the Hun King gazed morosely at Chen Dong’s back, “If you could defeat the Snowy Lion with just one man’s strength, then the King wouldn’t have lost so many of his beloved generals back then!”

The voice murmured, but only the King of Xiongnu and the few guards around him could hear it.

The next second.

With a twinkle in his eye, the Hun King shouted, "Greedy Wolf, the King will grant you one more promise, if you can walk out, the King will not only forgive you and make you a great general, but will also erect a monument for you in the King's city, to be worshipped by my Xiongnu son's name for generations to come!"

"Father, that's enough!"

Xixing let out a hiss, her stunning face filled with a bitter coldness.

The Hun King was indeed making a promise.

But it was clear to everyone that when facing the Snowy Lion single-handedly, it was a certain death sentence!

What's more, the man in the fighting cage had no gun, no horse, and the only thing that could serve as a weapon was the dagger she had just quietly given him!

She knew the details of her father's capture of the Snowy Lion, so she knew better than to assume that the dagger would be more of a comfort than nothing!

In the end, it was only by piling up human lives and exhausting the lion that the capture was successful!

It is true that making promises to the living can win the hearts and minds of the people and show off one's strength.

But to make such a promise to a dead man is a blatant insult and a mockery!

That man, the man she had dreamed of, the man she had wanted every day and night!

It was the man she had picked out of a million to be her "sword to the south".

Because of the change, because the Hun King was her father, she was already looking for room for manoeuvre for both sides, but she really didn't expect Chen Dong to draw the Snow Lion directly from a handful of life and death sticks.

When the guard shouted out the words "Snowy Lion" just now, Xixing already felt a sense of uncertainty as the sky spun and the earth turned black.

But there was nothing she could do to stop it, everything was up to fate.

She had even prepared herself in her heart to accept Chen Dong's death.

But she would never allow it, and her father, at this moment, still did not spare Chen Dong any humiliation or ridicule.

A man's dignity, even in death, should be upheld!

Hearing Xixing's rebuke, the Hun King's face immediately turned gloomy to the extreme.

He was the king of Xiongnu, above all others, and to be reprimanded by his own daughter in public was indeed a bit embarrassing.

But ..... Xixing was his daughter.

This made him helpless!

It was also at this time.

In the beast fighting cage, Chen Dong, who had already turned around, but suddenly sneered.

"King Xiong Nu, this is what you yourself promised, a ruler has no more words, a king's order is like a mountain, if I, Greedy Wolf, can really walk out of the fighting cage today, I still hope that you will not ..... miss your words!"

The words were resounding, and instead of being angry at the Hun king's humiliation, he was full of confidence.

This confident stance, invariably directly out of the eyes of the Hun king.

A shocking statement.

Everyone in the audience was frozen in their tracks.

Even the King of Xiongnu's pupils tightened, and the only thing left in his sight was Chen Dong's frost-covered, confident and askance face.

With these words from Chen Dong.

Xixing, who was in a state of agitation and anger, was abruptly stunned.

It was as if a fist had smashed into her heart, making her heart pound.

It was a very special feeling that even she could not describe.

“Being in a deadly situation, he can still endure humiliation and look at everything out of the blue, how strong is his heart .....?”

Xixing speculated in her heart, such a situation, such a humiliation, if it were anyone else, they would have been unable to keep calm.

But now, the man in the cage was turning around confidently.

“Heh .....”

After a short silence, the corner of the Hun king’s mouth outlined a bitter smile: “This king’s promise is as heavy as a thousand pounds, if you can walk out, all the previous words will count, provided ..... you can walk out!”

The laughter that rolled like thunder echoed, and at the same time, the Hun king slowly raised his right hand.

The moment the words ended, his right hand fell violently.

“Release the beast!”

Rumble .....

The beast slaves, who had already prepared themselves, immediately began to open the gate that was holding the Snowy Lion.

The sound of chains scratching, the sound of the big thick iron door slowly opening.

At this moment, it echoed throughout the whole place.

What’s more, it made everyone look solemn, and some even subconsciously took a step backwards, their hands clenched into fists.

“Hoo .....”

Chen Dong gathered up the cold smile on his face and slowly turned around as he exhaled a heavy breath.

His expression was cold and his gaze was like a torch.

All attention, at this moment, was all withdrawn and fell towards the darkness where the sound came from.

All the noise around him gradually faded away, and the only sound that could be heard was the sound of the big iron door and the chains scratching.

Chen Dong's right hand quietly reached into his belt and gripped the dagger, holding it with a firm grip, with sweat even faintly seeping out of his palm.

Just as he waited, his face, too, had long been covered with beads of sweat.

He was not sure!

But he knew that what the Hun King had just said was a deliberate attempt to humiliate him.

It was at that moment of humiliation that, inexplicably, he suddenly developed a strange confidence, which is why he turned around and responded to the Hun King's words.

It was as if a voice in his head was telling him, "Even if you die, you must die standing up! How can a seven-foot man stand up to the sky and be humiliated by ridicule?"

"Ouch!"

In the darkness where Chen Dong was watching, a lion's roar suddenly exploded, shaking the heavens and the earth.

Boom!

In the darkness, a foul-smelling gust of wind poured out directly towards Chen Dong.

The wind blew Chen Dong's robe and made Chen Dong's eyes narrow into slits as he stared into the darkness with all his eyesight.

The sound of the lion's roar shook the sky and the earth, but it also shook the heart.

The moment the roar and the fishy wind appeared.

Outside the cage, even the Huns could not help but retreat in fear, their hearts beating faster and their organs reeling.

The space where the roar of the beasts had been echoing was also abruptly silenced with the roar of the lion.

The king of all beasts, his majesty was displayed to the fullest!

Thud, thud, thud!

Almost simultaneously, the earth began to tremble and the sound echoed like thunder from a drum.

Chen Dong's heart plummeted, his sweat hairs standing on end at this moment.

An unprecedented sense of crisis overwhelmed his entire body, causing him to instantly fall into an ice cave and chill all over.

In the darkness of his vision, there was a huge creature that was becoming clear .....
