

Winner Takes All Chapter 1051-1060

Chapter 1051

This night, Chen Dong did not sleep soundly.

Even in his sleep, that solid silhouette never disappeared from his mind.

The playful and teasing laughter and the phrase “big fool” kept echoing in his dream world.

This caused Chen Dong to wake up not refreshed but extraordinarily tired.

Slowly opening his eyes, Chen Dong found himself still lying on the bed of Xixing.

It was warm and comfortable, and the air was lingering with a refreshing and exotic fragrance.

The headache was splitting.

Chen Dong slowly propped himself up and sat up, raising his hand to feel the gauze wrapped around his head.

“You’re awake?”

Behind him, a tired and feeble voice rang out.

Chen Dong turned his head, but he saw Xixing with a tired face, with dark circles under her eyes, leaning indifferently on the chair next to the bed, with a white fleece blanket in front of her.

Chen Dong could not help but freeze for a moment.

Compared to yesterday’s stargazer, he felt an unprecedented sense of indifference and distance when he was confronted again.

Thinking of what happened yesterday, Chen Dong hurriedly apologized, “Sorry, yesterday .....

“Big fool, who is it?”

Xixing slowly faded the white fluffy blanket onto her thighs, wrapped her hands around her chest, and stared at Chen Dong with a cold gaze, “All this time you were asleep, your mouth kept dreaming of these three words.”

Big fool?!

Chen Dong's expression was stunned, his eyes became drifting, and the silhouette that was only an outline once again appeared in his mind.

A blurred silhouette, but with an unprecedented strong sense of familiarity.

A very absurd feeling that just happened to be real.

"Hm?"

Xixing looked indifferent, her face as cold as frost, as if at this moment, the ten thousand charm disappeared and was replaced only by that biting and piercing like an iceberg.

"I... I don't know."

Chen Dong shook his head blankly, raised his finger and pointed to his temple, saying, "It just feels like there's something in my head, last night I was actually ready, but there's just a very strong feeling of resistance in my consciousness."

As he spoke, Chen Dong's brow gradually tightened up in thought.

This scene fell into Xixing's eyes, and her cold eyes finally changed.

She busily said, "Don't reminisce, I don't want you to get hurt again because of your memories, it's your misfortune and mine that you get hurt."

Saying that, Xixing slowly sat up straight, as if she was a lazy kitten, stretched her back and yawned.

This lazy stretching motion outlined the figure to the fullest.

Chen Dong looked a little lost in thought, and after he returned to his senses, his gaze fell on Xixing's tired face with dark circles under his eyes, he couldn't help but say guiltily and heartily, "I'm sorry for making you guard me all night last night."

"You and I are husband and wife, there's no need to be like this."

Xixing shook her head, a gentle smile finally squeezing out of her tired face as she slowly got up and settled onto the bed, facing Chen Dong: "But I will one day make you pay me back for what you owe me this time, completely and utterly!"

The words were forceful and reeked of stubbornness.

Chen Dong opened his arms and gently hugged Xixing, "There will be that day, I will try to overcome those things in my head."

“Mmm, I want to rest for a while, do you want to join me?”

Xixing wooed and asked, “But I spoke to Father, now that you have the Triple Crown Supreme Glory in your possession, you can continue to enlighten the seventy-two Martial Dao Bodies of the Heavenly Wolf Academy.”

“Then I will go and enlighten the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Bodies right now.”

Chen Dong politely declined Xixing’s request, having slept through the night, although he was tired, he could hardly sleep again for a while.

The solid silhouette in his mind was like a shackle, and after yesterday’s splitting headache, it made him somewhat resist Xixing even at this moment.

To be precise, he was worried that even if he slept with his clothes, it would still cause a splitting headache.

Looking at Chen Dong leaving, the glow on Xie Xing’s face gradually disappeared, reverting to the coldness of a moment ago, her face as cold as frost, only the light of her eyes was as deep as if a black hole swirled.

“What exactly are you ..... resisting? Who is the big fool ..... again?”

Xixing’s red lips were mouthing, and she murmured, “How, exactly, should I take complete control of you?”

Just now she had done it on purpose, deliberately making Chen Dong stop remembering and deliberately showing a forgiving look.

It was because she dared not gamble that now it was a situation where the arrow was on the string and if she really let this man recall something, then all her plans would be lost.

Time was too short.

It was too late for her to make up enough memories of what had gone before for this man, and too late to get this man for good.

This left Shying’s heart, always empty and hanging.

Two successive attempts to offer herself ended in failure, and Chen Dong’s reaction was as if it was a thorn in Xixing’s heart.

As proud as she was, she had been pushed into such a humiliating situation twice in a row by Chen Dong, so how could she easily be forgiven with a “sorry”?

After what happened yesterday.

“Maybe ..... I was a little too hasty when I first took this step, right?”

Xixing rubbed her temples tiredly, jade hand slender fingers, gently sliding down the snow-white neck towards the bottom, her gaze deep, but depression emerged in her eyes: “What is it, that makes you resist even a youkai like me, time and time again?”

.....

All the way.

Chen Dong was in a bit of a trance, as he struggled to remember.

Not recalling memories from before his amnesia, but recalling what had happened yesterday.

Guilt, embarrassment, self-blame .....

All that happened yesterday was as if he was nailed to the pillar of shame, and when he recalled it, his body felt like it was on fire with shame.

Just ..... that silhouette, in the end, whose is it?

This is the most confusing question Chen Dong has had all the way through.

He was clear.

The woman’s shadow, and the phrase “big fool” is the crux of his true instinct to resist Xixing.

He kept saying “I’m sorry” last night because of that silhouette and that phrase “big idiot”.

But even he could not understand this absurd scene.

It was clear that he and Xixing were husband and wife, but the knot in his head had drawn a gap between him and Xixing.

The relationship between husband and wife had become an absurd and bizarre one that could only be viewed from afar, but not profaned.

After walking into the Heavenly Wolf Academy, under the surveillance of a special escort, Chen Dong went straight into the secret room where the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Bodies were placed.

Only because of Wu Gang's death, this time, no one followed Chen Dong into it, except that outside the door, there were still two guards.

Rumble .....

The door to the chamber behind him slowly closed, and with a "bang", the entire chamber fell into absolute silence.

Even the wind and snow blowing in through the vents was silent.

The lights were bright.

Chen Dong stopped in front of the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao, gazing at the patterns on it, and that unprecedented sense of familiarity reappeared.

With a dazed expression, he suddenly recalled what had happened the last time he was in this secret room, in front of this Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao body.

At that time, it was the lapse into memories that had led to Wu Gang's tragic death.

But it was also the memories from last time that caused that silhouetted silhouette to appear in his mind.

That feeling of being far away and near, of being clear from a thousand miles away, was still fresh in Chen Dong's mind.

This was a secret he kept in his heart, and he did not dare to tell it to Xixing.

It was just that last time, just as he was about to see the silhouette of the silhouette's face, he fainted to death.

"Could it be that my memories can only reappear a little bit after suffering great pain again and again?"

Chen Dong's gaze drifted, the light in his eyes brightening and flickering as he hesitantly murmured.

Gradually, his gaze began to become firm .....

Chapter 1052

A bold idea suddenly surfaced in Chen Dong's mind.

Immediately afterwards, his gaze became firm.

Looking at the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body in front of him, it was as if the familiar stances were engraved into his mind.

However, it didn't matter anymore!

Casting a sidelong glance at the tightly closed chamber door, although it was his second visit.

However, Chen Dong had heard from Xixing that once someone entered the secret chamber of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, the guards on the outside would not come in easily.

The reason was that those who entered the chamber of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body were all enlightened about the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, and the slightest disturbance might be able to pull the person out of the state of enlightenment and ruin their previous work.

Unless, like last time, the guards outside would only break down the door when the situation was menacing with hoarse wailing.

“Whew .....

Exhaling a heavy breath, Chen Dong sat directly on the ground in front of the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao body.

With that, he slowly closed his eyes.

He wasn't sure if his memories were only able to find their way back a little bit during the huge headache after headache.

When he was in the chamber of this Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body last time, it was also true that it was because of the memories and the splitting headache that the silhouette that was only an outline came to him.

Everything, was just a guess.

But Chen Dong decided to take a chance.

He could just have another headache and faint to death.

But if his guesses were correct, he would be able to recover his memories, which, in Chen Dong's opinion, was what he needed most!

For some reason, the remnants in his mind had always made him feel that there was something wrong with the relationship between him and Xixing as a couple.

Not just this feeling, but also the things that had happened since entering the Hun king's palace, as well as the occasional remarks that came out of the mouths of the people around him.

Everywhere ..... there was something out of the ordinary.

Although Xixing had told him about some of the things that happened before he lost his memory, it was as if a trajectory had been traced out in his mind, but the things he had experienced in the past few days always failed to match up tightly with this trajectory.

It was as if it was a piece of twine, frazzled.

"Perhaps after really recovering my memories, my body will be able to accept Xixing smoothly, no longer resisting, and no longer failing her."

Chen Dong murmured softly, and as the words fell, his brow gradually furrowed, and the eyelids of his closed eyes trembled slightly.

Memories.

Thinking hard.

In this closed chamber, everything was silent and still, allowing one to be in an absolutely quiet environment.

This also contributed to the fact that Chen Dong's recollection was extremely rapid, almost as soon as the thought came to him, he went straight into the "track" of recollection.

"Hum ....."

Chen Dong's body shook, and while a muffled grunt came out of his mouth, his face turned red abruptly.

Immediately afterwards, the veins on his neck and the corners of his eyes also stood out and trembled.

Time seemed to have become extremely slow in this moment.

Compared to the speed of memories, it was like a second and ten thousand years.

Pain!

A cone of pain that pierced the bones and went straight to the soul.

As Chen Dong recalled it, the pain in his mind was growing geometrically.

There was a poof!

Chen Dong fell to the ground, the huge pain unbearable, his body twitching uncontrollably.

His neck was thick and he was panting like an ox.

On his red face, beads of sweat dripped down at this time.

Even so, he clenched his teeth and forced himself not to utter a single shout.

Because he knew that after what had happened last time, this time perhaps as soon as he shouted out, the guards outside would immediately rush in.

“Who is it?”

“Who the hell is it?”

“Let me see clearly, see clearly .....

.....

The heart cries out over and over again, as if in this instant, forming an obsession.

On one side was a desperate attempt to remember.

On the other side was the increasingly intense and severe pain in the mind.

At this moment, the two states were intertwined, as if they were swords against swords, but all the evil spirits, fell to Chen Dong to bear only.

Finally.

At the moment when Chen Dong's pain was so intense that his consciousness was almost blurred.

In his mind, finally, like last time, the blurred figure appeared once again, as if it was far away from the sky.

“Come here, come here and let me see clearly!”

“You, who the hell are you? Who is it?”

“Come here, come here .....

The silent cry of the heart.

In his mind, the blurred figure far away in the sky finally moved.

As if spanning across the void, with a feeling of being as fast as lightning, yet eerily slow, it quickly drew closer and became clear in Chen Dong's mind.

Ouch!

It hurts!

Chen Dong's body fell to the ground, curling up into a ball like a shrimp, his hands clutching his head to death, his fingers even tightening and bending, as if he wanted to snap his skull and dig into his brain.

Sweat was pouring down.

With the sound of ragged, sharp gasps coming out of his mouth and nose, Chen Dong's painfully red face turned blue and red, and the veins on his neck and at the corners of his eyes became more and more pronounced, just like a climbing earthworm.

"Who is it? Faster, faster!"

As his consciousness gradually blurred, Chen Dong became more and more anxious.

Once his consciousness receded and he fell into a coma, all the pain he was enduring at the moment would be lost and meaningless.

Poof!

In his anxiety, Chen Dong bit through the tip of his tongue viciously.

All of a sudden the fishy sweetness filled Chen Dong's mouth, and his originally blurred consciousness cleared up a little at the same time.

"Hold on, hold on ....."

Chen Dong's body tensed and curled into a ball, his heart kept shouting.

This moment was so wretched and miserable that it was even unbearable to look at.

But Chen Dong did not give up.

One could lose one's memory, but one's character and certain aspects of traits were something that had long since been incorporated into one's bones and blood through years and months of perseverance.

Although Chen Dong had lost his memory, the resilience and tenacity he had developed since he was a child, walking step by step in the darkness and facing the light, had long since been fused into his bones and blood.

It also allowed him to show even more terrifying endurance and perseverance in the face of the indescribable pain he was experiencing at the moment!

It was also while Chen Dong was curled up in the chamber like a dead dog, suffering the pain and frantically remembering.

On the other side.

The entrance to the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard.

“Greetings, Princess!”

The two men guarding the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard saw Xixing and respectfully knelt down.

“Get up, I’ll go into the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard to see the sidekick.”

Xixing held Barbara and swept a clear, cold glance at the two Skywolf Courtyard men.

The people in the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard were destined to become the future pillars and foundation stones of the country of Xiongnu as soon as they set foot in the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard.

But they were as different as heaven and earth in the eyes of Xixing as they were in the eyes of ordinary people.

“In reply to the princess, the horse harnessed by the side of the horse has just entered the secret room of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, so I think he has already entered the state of enlightenment.”

A large bearded man responded.

Beyond words, he was also reminding Xixing that going to see Chen Dong at this moment would affect his enlightenment.

Xixing shook his head and took Barbara into the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard.

As soon as he entered the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard, Barbara was attracted by the special decoration inside the Courtyard.

Blinking her big eyes for a moment, Barbara asked, "Auntie Xixing, what are we going to find Uncle for?"

"Uncle had a splitting headache last night, and now he just woke up and ran to enlighten the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body again, it's too taxing on his mind, so Auntie is a little relieved."

Xixing held Barbara and quickly walked towards the secret room of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, only responding to Barbara while the clear coldness on her face was getting thicker and thicker.

Winner Takes All Chapter 1053-1054

Chapter 1053

Uncle doesn't know how to love his body at all."

Barbara was a little worried, and there were a few moments of anger on her little pink face.

"Yes, so auntie and Barbara will be relieved to go and see uncle together, ah."

Xixing said as she walked, only the coolness on her face did not disappear, instead, her eyes narrowed slightly.

She was indeed a little worried about Chen Dong.

A memory had kept Chen Dong in a dreamy state last night.

The enlightenment of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body itself was extremely mind-consuming, requiring full concentration and extremely rapid rotation of the mind, which was obviously strenuous for Chen Dong, who had only suffered a lot yesterday.

Of course, such a concern is only somewhat.

What's more important is .....

"Could he have actually regained a bit of his memory? The pain shown by resisting me time and again is just a disguised act?"

This was what Xixing was most worried about in her heart!

After Chen Dong left just now, she wanted to rest for a while, but lying on the bed, she tossed and turned, but could not sleep.

Her mind was cluttered with thoughts, and her thoughts were all over the place.

Ever since she was a child, her looks had brought her countless superiority, and a little had spawned her confidence in her looks.

Even now, in the Order of the Hundred Clans, although the Hundred Clans have joined hands to rely on the prestige of the Hun King, which one of the leaders of the Hundred Clans has not welcomed her with a smile because of her looks?

She asked herself, "There is no one in the snowy plains who would not fall under her skirt!

This was her confidence and her pride!

But when she faced Chen Dong, she was defeated over and over again, shattering her confidence and stripping away her pride!

This is simply not reasonable!

Even if she had resisted the first time, that man and her were indeed a bit rusty at that time, and even she herself felt distant.

But what happened yesterday, Shying really couldn't understand.

It was clear that she had agreed to it, that it had gone well.

Yet just at the threshold, it resisted.

This bizarre thing was even more difficult to understand than the last time.

Unless ..... the man had recalled something in that short time and then resisted of his own accord.

In Xie Xing's opinion, the world is as black as a crow, what man is not lustful?

The fat meat sent to the door, if not in the heart to belong, in the case of memory loss, will resist again and again?

She was now bringing Barbara to the Wolf House, just to secretly find out what Chen Dong was all about!

Only after seeing and hearing clearly could she completely let go of that palpitating, wary feeling she had in her heart towards Chen Dong.

Wind and snow drifting.

Xixing worriedly took Barbara with her and quickly walked towards the secret room of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Body.

Meanwhile.

“Come here, come here, let me, let me see, you, who are you really?”

Chen Dong was hissing and growling in his mind.

His features were twisted to an almost hideous and terrifying state.

The body curled and twitched.

Teeth were on the verge of gnashing.

Consciousness was also blurring and receding so rapidly that even the extreme method of biting his teeth through the tip of his tongue could not clear him up again.

He was unaware that outside, Shying and Barbara were rapidly approaching.

He was in pain.

He was also dizzy.

But more than anything else, he wanted to see the true face of the silhouette that had come across the void in his mind's eye!

This was the key!

It was the key to unlocking the crux of his ongoing resistance to the cherished star!

In a trance.

Chen Dong's blurred consciousness seemed to hear that playful, teasing laughter in his mind again.

“Big fool .....

“Big fool .....

“Big fool .....

It was repeated over and over again.

As the silhouette became clearer and clearer, the playful, teasing laughter became louder.

At this moment.

Chen Dong was already blurred in consciousness not knowing the environment he was in.

What was left of his consciousness and attention was on that sinister figure in his mind.

From far and near, it came across the void.

Finally, the sinister shadow reached the same level as the last time before Chen Dong fell unconscious.

It was so close!

It was so close!

Chen Dong was like a madman at this moment, and in order to maintain his last shred of lucidity, he opened his mouth like a beast, and in an almost creepy gesture, he stretched out his tongue and his teeth fell down viciously.

Poof!

Blood splashed out from the middle of his tongue.

The huge pain coming from his tongue even made Chen Dong's scalp feel like it was going to explode instantly.

But, consciousness did clear up for a minute.

Outside the chamber.

The two guards did not know what was happening inside the chamber.

However, the two guards saw Xixing and Barbara who were walking down the passage.

Without hesitation.

The two guards knelt down respectfully at the same time.

"Greetings, Princess!"

"Get up!"

Xixing led Barbara to slow down her steps, her expression now stretched out, leaving only a faint coldness: "How is Greedy Wolf's enlightenment inside?"

She had come to relieve the doubts and stigmas in her heart, so she did not like to reveal too many changes in her expression to too many people.

In her opinion, as long as she could release that mustache and worry in her heart, even if this time, she interrupted the timing of Greedy Wolf's enlightenment of the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, she would not hesitate to do so.

Even if ..... gave Greedy Wolf not too much time to enlighten his Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body.

Time was urgent and every second was extremely valuable.

But Xie Xing felt that it was very necessary!

"Greedy Wolf has just entered not long ago, but after what happened last time, he should not have penetrated the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body yet."

The two guards rose and one of them responded respectfully, "I think he has already entered the state of enlightenment of the first Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body at this moment, does Princess need us to call on Covetous Wolf?"

"No need, you guys move back."

Xixing instructed, "Just go and stand guard at the end of the passage."

With that, she squatted down and scratched the bridge of Barbara's nose, smiling gently, "Barbara will also follow the two uncles and wait for Auntie outside, okay? Auntie will see how Uncle is doing first."

"Okay!"

Barbara followed the two guards towards the outside.

Xixing's expression, however, quickly turned cold and stern.

She took a breath, and with a cold and stern face, she turned around, took a step, and walked towards the door of the secret room.

Her footsteps were slow, and even when she landed on her feet, she was extraordinarily careful, afraid to make a sound.

For she knew that one is most comfortable and relaxed in a confined, quiet and unoccupied space!

Sneak a peek!

Just that one glance might be enough to see through her worries, whether they exist or not!

crunch ..... crunch .....

There was snow on the ground, and even though Xixing had tried her best to contain the sound of her footsteps, stepping on the snow still inevitably made a sound.

But the sound was exceptionally soft.

However, the sound echoed in Xixing's ears, but it made the atmosphere outside the chamber become heavy and tense.

She was looking at the closed door of the chamber with a cold and stern expression, but her heart was beating faster as she approached.

Finally, she stood in front of the door of the chamber.

Her white, crystalline jade hand quietly, carefully, landed on the door of the chamber.

Then she leaned down, bent over, searched for a crack in the door and looked inside the chamber .....

Chapter 1054

Time seems to have slowed down.

Inside and outside the secret room, two scenes of light.

But it was with Chen Dong's strong pain and silence, and with Xixing's caution and mitigation of the rattling.

Let the atmosphere, become frozen, tense.

Inside the secret room.

"Come on!"

Chen Dong let out a roar in his heart.

The body that was curled into a ball violently unfolded, and his tightly closed eyes, moreover, instantly opened in anger, his eyes filled with blood.

Almost simultaneously.

"Poof!"

A mouthful of fresh blood, directly spurted out from his mouth.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, had pain on his face, but at this moment, the corners of his mouth curled upwards in a bizarre manner.

He saw it!

That silhouette, he finally saw it the moment his consciousness was about to fade.

The stunningly beautiful face, the fair skin, and the familiarity that was so strong that it was indescribable.

In his mind, that silhouette was smiling at him, eyes like stars, and with this smile, everything in the world seemed to be eclipsed.

“Gu Qing Ying ..... wife .....”

The corners of the blood-stained mouth softly noisily murmured.

An unprecedented clarity appeared in the blood-filled eyes.

It was only with this weak to near inaudible murmur that followed.

Chen Dong’s consciousness could no longer hold on and he directly passed out.

On the other side.

Xixing finally carefully crouched down on the door of the chamber, found a gap, and cast his eyes along it, into the chamber.

Only what met his eyes was Chen Dong, who was lying on the floor, motionless and already passed out.

With this glance, the pupils of Xixing dilated.

Her torso trembled and fear suddenly grew.

“Greedy Wolf!”

Shying struggled to push open the door of the secret room.

Hearing the shout, the two guards and Barbara at the end of the passage, also quickly ran towards this way.

Shying rushed into the secret room, and after seeing the blood spurting out from Chen Dong’s chest and soaking into his robe, she immediately lost her face.

“Greedy Wolf, Greedy Wolf .....”

She hurriedly squatted on the ground and swept Chen Dong into her arms.

At this moment, where was there any semblance of suspicion or palpitation.

The situation of Chen Dong in front of her eyes left Shying with only fear and disorientation, as well as anxiety and worry.

“Uncle .....

When Barbara saw the fainted Chen Dong, her little face instantly changed greatly.

The two guards also had a frozen expression.

How could it be this kind of thing again?

The people who guarded the secret chambers that housed the seventy-two Heavenly Wolf Martial Bodies were not fixed, but in the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard, it was hard to hide from everyone after what happened last time, and almost very quickly, the entire Heavenly Wolf Courtyard was known to everyone.

It was absurd that it happened once last time, but this time it was still the same.

However, while the two guards frowned in amazement, they could not help but breathe a sigh of relief in their hearts.

It’s a good thing that ..... no one else came in with them this time!

Otherwise, I’m afraid that they would have to repeat the same mistake as Military Division Wu!

“Summon the Great Physician, quickly summon the Great Physician!”

Xixing ordered in a stern voice to the two guards, and at this point, she didn’t care about the princess’s manners, she was completely terrified and screaming harshly.

One of the guards hurriedly ran outside.

The guard who was left behind, however, hurried forward and took the unconscious Chen Dong from Xixing’s arms, carried him by the waist and quickly headed out.

Xixing, on the other hand, hurriedly pulled Barbara and ran outside.

As she ran, the tears held in Xixing’s reddened eyes quietly flowed out, as if they were broken pearls and pearly rain.

“Fortunately, fortunately came to see, otherwise, otherwise .....

Xixing kept consoling herself in her heart, she had come to spy on Chen Dong no less, but experiencing the scene in front of her, she was also secretly crying out for luck.

If she did not have the suspicion to see this glance.

With the rules of the secret room, where one would enquire about the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, it was estimated that the two guards would not have even noticed that Chen Dong had vomited blood and passed out in the secret room.

Xixing did not know what exactly Chen Dong had just experienced in the secret chamber.

But it didn't matter!

If it hadn't been discovered, putting aside the fact that Chen Dong had vomited blood, the unconsciousness alone would have been absolutely fatal in this extremely cold night!

Not to mention unconsciousness, there was never a shortage of tragedies in the Great Snowy Plains where people were unable to open their eyes and fall asleep forever due to loss of temperature in their sleep.

In the Hall of Healing.

The guards of the Heavenly Wolf House placed Chen Dong on the operating table.

A group of great doctors rushed forward and started the consultation.

When she saw that the doctors had already started their treatment, the expression of the young and old man visibly eased.

But the consultation did not last too long.

Soon, the many great doctors had dispersed, leaving only one nurse to clean Chen Dong's body.

"What's going on? What's wrong with Greedy Wolf?"

A layer of gloom steeply covered Xixing's stunningly beautiful face as she sternly scolded.

One of the great doctors quickly stepped forward and respectfully reported, "Your Highness, there is nothing serious wrong with the horse harnessed by the side of the harness, it is only that his anger has attacked his heart."

"His anger has attacked his heart?"

Xixing was stunned, "But he has already vomited blood."

The Great Doctor glanced at the guards of the Wolf House who stood in the Medical Hall and had not yet left.

Then, solemnly, he said to Xixing.

"The horse harnessed by the side of the harness has not fully recovered, not to mention the fact that a few days ago he also entered the beast cage and fought a life-and-death battle with a snowy lion, so his body has never been fully replenished, and with an ill body, if he is emotionally exhausted, and if he thinks deeply about things that consume his mind, it is inevitable that his anger will attack his heart. The blood vomiting of the horse's son-in-law is also a result of his anger attacking his heart, bringing out the exhaustion and injury already present in his body."

There was a pause.

Although there are only tired cows, there are no broken fields, but the fields are not broken, but they need time to recuperate after the planting damage."

Shying was stunned.

Chen Dong's injury was indeed clear to her.

However, the Great Doctor's explanation reminded her of the painful scene Chen Dong had experienced yesterday.

He had not recovered from his own injuries, his body was weak, and he was exhausted from the painful headache he had experienced yesterday, and as soon as he woke up today, he immediately went to enlighten the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body, something that was extremely depleting to his mind and soul, so it was only normal to have the scene before him.

For a moment, guilt raged in Xixing's heart, "Blame me, blame me for not letting him rest properly."

She had taken Barbara to the Heavenly Wolf Courtyard to spy on Chen Dong as the Lord, but she also had a few worries.

But to her surprise, these few moments of worry had evolved into reality so quickly!

Only, neither Xixing nor the great doctors had expected it.

The Great Physician's explanation was the most perfect and reasonable explanation for Chen Dong.

Of course the unconscious Chen Dong was not aware of it at this time.

“Uncle .....

A barbarian walked to Chen Dong’s side, looking at the unconscious Chen Dong with pity, mist welling up in his eyes.

When he came back to his senses, Xixing also followed behind Barbara and walked up to Chen Dong, settling down next to the operating table, Xixing looked guiltily and painfully at Chen Dong’s still painful face.

Perhaps because he had just vomited blood, Chen Dong’s face was a little pale.

With a trembling right hand, Xixing gently caressed Chen Dong’s face and said in a low voice, “I was too eager to get things done and didn’t take care of your body. When you wake up, I will let you recuperate and relax for a while.”

Winner Takes All Chapter 1055-1056

Chapter 1055

It was a cold night, a bitter winter.

In the midst of this extremely cold night, the lights of all the families in the Thirteen Cities of the King’s Court shone as brightly as the stars and the white moon that had fallen on the snowy plains.

However, even in the Thirteen Cities of the Royal Court.

But even in the Thirteen Cities of the King’s Court, under the cover of the long night, some sordid and cruel things were happening in the dark corners of the city.

As night falls, people and ghosts walk together.

The evil spirits are in a hurry, and the pedestrians are taking their time.

Not to mention the long night and the cruel snowfields.

Even though the Huns had already strengthened their patrols in the thirteen cities, they could not prevent such chaos from occurring.

It also made it possible that even if something less noticeable happened not far from the palace, it would never be scrutinised.

For example, two people crouched motionless in the street not far from the palace would not be questioned by patrols.

This is because it is all too common in the Thirteen Cities of the King's Court.

In the Thirteen Cities of the King's Court, the people of the Huns gathered.

But in the dark corners of the city, there are also many people who live like ants.

Displaced and homeless, where do they squat if not in the streets?

One of the men squatting on the street slowly stretched out, "Let's go, back to change the guard, it's freezing."

This man was, of course, Zhang Chao.

After calling up their companion, the two of them tightened the hoods on their heads and wrapped their black robes tightly, they headed towards the inn.

Since deciding to squat in the king's palace, the secret guards had almost changed their shifts, with the aim of squatting until Chen Dong came out of the palace.

It was just ..... this was simply too time consuming in Zhang Chao's opinion!

It was also too much of a test of patience!

In the inn.

Wang Yu looked at the time and said to the secret guard members beside him, "It's time for Zhang Chao and the others to come back, organize two people to go over and change their posts."

"Alright chief."

The secret guard member immediately got up, was with another companion and set off in full gear.

"Young master ..... what exactly did you go through?"

Wang Yu frowned and murmured in a low voice as he pondered.

As the leader of the Dark Guards, he thought more than Zhang Chao and the others.

The Dark Guards were born because of Chen Daolin, and all of them were willing to die for Chen Daolin.

But as the leader, Wang Yu naturally hoped that everyone would live well and bring the young master back to the domain unharmed without giving their lives.

Of course, when it really came to a critical situation and it was necessary to give their lives, he and the group of secret guards would not hesitate in the slightest.

Squeak .....

Zhang Chao and his companions pushed open the door to Wang Yu's room.

A blizzard of wind and snow swept into the room at once.

Once inside, Wang Yu was shaking off the snow and taking off his hooded black robe while complaining, "Chief, it's not a good idea to squat like this, after one shift, one is almost frozen into a stick of ice."

Wang Yu glanced at Zhang Chao, but his eyes fell on the short knife at Zhang Chao's waist.

Under the light, a little bit of frozen blood could be seen on the mouth of the knife's sheath.

"Moved the knife?"

Wang Yu asked, frowning.

Zhang Chao looked at the short knife at his waist and shrugged, "When the two of us were returning, we met a scumbag who jumped out and tried to rob me, so I gave him a slash."

"Tell everyone to try to be careful in the future, and not to use knives if you can." Wang Yu said calmly.

"It's alright."

Zhang Chao waved his hand, sat down next to Wang Yu, picked up a cup of hot tea and took a sip, the warmth in his belly surged, and he was much more comfortable, before he added, "The place where we were both robbed, and I wasn't the only one who moved his knife, all the way here, in that dark alley alone, three gangs were fighting for their lives."

Wang Yu wasn't surprised; this was a real and normal thing in the thirteen cities of the King's Court after the descent of the very night.

The barbarism and cruelty, even in the cities, seemed extremely clear and very different from the domain.

So after knowing that Zhang Chao had moved his sword, he was still able to remain calm.

Wang Yu rubbed his chin, "Be careful, we only have one chance!"

"Got it, just now it was also a narrow encounter, otherwise I wouldn't be willing to move my knife."

Zhang Chao nodded and gestured for his companion who had returned with him to go and rest, before he approached Wang Yu and said, "But if we crouch like this, in case the young master never comes out, this is not a solution, why don't we both go into the king's palace?" "I'm not willing to take that risk until it's absolutely necessary."

Wang Yu shook his head and said seriously, "Our first goal is to safely take the young master back to the domain and meet the family head."

"But if we keep squatting, we don't know how long we will be squatting, it will be much more efficient for us to sneak into the King's Palace!" Zhang Chao had some blazing enthusiasm in his eyes.

"Do you know the time difference between the two of us joining the secret guards, why the family lord would choose me as the leader and you still have to listen to me?"

Wang Yu looked at Zhang Chao with a strange smile.

Zhang Chao shook his head, "There are only so many people in the Dark Guards, the family head can choose whoever he wants, I have no complaints."

"Because I am more stable than you!"

Wang Yu explained with a smile, "The family head established the dark guards for survival, safety and defence, not risk."

Zhang Chao shrugged helplessly, "Then keep squatting."

.....

"Is this night or day?"

Chen Dong slowly opened his eyes, looking blankly at the lights in the room, and then slowly looking out at the night.

After the polar night had fallen, the dividing line between day and night had all but disappeared.

It made it hard to tell what time it really was.

"Where is the daylight, you were unconscious all night."

Xixing responded, rubbed her swollen and dry eyes, went up and hugged Chen Dong from behind, her head gently resting on Chen Dong's back, "I'm sorry, I was in too much of a hurry and made you appear in that kind of danger yesterday."

"Danger?"

Chen Dong's eyes shifted for a moment, suddenly reacting that it must have been the matter of vomiting blood and passing out yesterday.

However, the way Xixing was reacting now, it was obvious that he did not understand the truth about the matter of him vomiting blood and passing out yesterday.

"Well, yesterday you were enlightening the Heavenly Wolf Martial Dao Body and your anger attacked your heart, stirring up the injuries in your body and vomiting blood and fainting."

Behind him, the voice of Xixing rang out.

Chen Dong instantly relaxed, such an explanation made sense, and there was no need to consume his mind to cover it up anymore.

However.

Feeling the softness behind him, and the force around his waist.

Chen Dong's gaze changed rapidly, and eventually became as deep as a black hole.

In his mind, however, a scene from yesterday before he fell unconscious came to mind, and even more so, Gu Qingying's appearance came to mind.

In a trance, he suddenly had an indescribably strong sense of unfamiliarity with the Xixing behind him.

Even, in his heart, he was somewhat disgusted with the softness behind him, and the hands around his waist.

Such a movement ..... was too intimate!

But ..... my wife ..... is someone else!

Xixing, not my wife!

Although Chen Dong remained unconscious yesterday, he also verified his initial speculation after enduring some huge pains that are unbearable for normal people.

Only by enduring one huge headache after another can one recover his memory a little bit!

Gu Qing Ying.

The great fool.

In his mind, he remembered everything clearly and after recalling Gu Qing Ying's appearance.

The girl called Gu Qing Ying in his mind gave him a feeling that was obviously more familiar and close to him than the Xixing behind him.

Gu Qing Ying ..... is my wife!

That was all he recalled, but that alone was enough.

The strong disgust, revulsion, and even that oily feeling of being used, made Chen Dong's outlook on the Xixing behind him at this time, completely crumble.

However, the Xixing behind him did not know.

She leaned on Chen Dong's back, her eyes flushed red, holding Lei, she softly said, "I'm sorry, it's all my fault, for the next few days, you rest well, I'll keep you company."

Chen Dong's gaze flickered twice, and then became firm.

He nodded, "Good, hard work!"

Xixing slowly raised her head and rested her chin on Chen Dong's shoulder as she softly said, "Now that you've woken up, you should be able to walk around freely too, do you want to go out of the palace with me and relax?"

Chapter 1056

Shying's voice was soft, even tinged with a few hints of guilt.

Since the man in front of him had appeared, he had indeed been squeezed too much.

Old wounds had not yet healed, and new ones had been added.

Such a crushing was too much for even steel to bear, not to mention a human being.

She was determined to make the man in front of her improve his strength as soon as possible to achieve the strength that would delay Huo Zhenxiao, but Chen Dong's "anger attack" and vomiting of blood and fainting was a wake-up call to her.

If the man in front of her was not allowed to relax and recuperate, once he had accumulated an injury that he could not recover from, he would not be improving his strength, but killing his potential to fight Huo Zhenxiao.

Chen Dong's gaze flickered for a moment, after arriving at the Thirteen Cities of the King's Court for so long, he really hadn't seen the scenery of King Xiong Nu City properly either.

"Good!"

After hesitating for a second, Chen Dong agreed in one breath.

Not only did he want to see the scenery of King Xiongnu City, he also wanted to secretly explore who his original self really was!

A gaping hole had been opened in his memory, and he was certain that the Xixing behind him was not his wife, but the woman in his mind who could make him feel guilty out of thin air even in the midst of his memory loss – Gu Qingying!

When the opening was opened, then he had to do his best to tear the opening apart and explore the memories that truly belonged to him.

The reason for his dislike of the Xixing behind him was that after a trace of his memory returned, he realized that Xixing had used him purely and almost as a tool.

Although he had been given the supreme honour of being a Hun, and even gave his life to him, the whole thing, from the beginning, had been a way for him to be used as a tool against Huo Zhenxiao, the god of war, as they called him!

Ten minutes later.

Ten minutes later, Chen Dong and Xie Xing, who were fully dressed, quietly left the royal palace.

Since it was a leisurely rest, neither Chen Dong nor Xixing wanted to be followed by a large number of guards, which would be too flamboyant and the people would inevitably be respectful and even retreat, making it less relaxing and leisurely.

"I didn't expect the guards to let us out so easily."

Chen Dong glanced back at the heavily guarded gates of the palace and smiled.

"I have been in the habit of running out of the royal palace for fun since I was a child, so my father had decreed that I would not be too harshly disciplined about my self-service trips out of the palace."

Xixing took Chen Dong's arm and explained with a smile.

Chen Dong's gaze flickered for a moment and teased, "It's the two of us on the surface, but there should be guards in secret, right?"

"Hee hee ..... my husband is so smart."

Xixing leaped in front of Chen Dong in a birdlike manner, smiling and raising her hand to scratch the bridge of Chen Dong's nose.

However, Chen Dong's heart suddenly clenched, and just when Xie Xing's finger was about to scrape the bridge of his nose, he subconsciously took a step backwards and dodged.

"What's wrong?"

Shying asked.

Revulsion!

Chen Dong's face was sullen, but he did not say it outright, but found a reason: "At least I'm such an old man, don't make the childish actions towards Barbara on me, ah, it's weird and humiliating."

With this explanation, Xi Xing did not suspect much.

Nodding, Xi Xing returned to Chen Dong's side and took his arm, "Let's go, let's have a good stroll around our Xiongnu King City today."

Just as the two of them were walking along the main street, they headed towards the street.

On the corner of the street, two hidden guards, wrapped in hooded black robes and crouching on the ground, watched Chen Dong and Xixing walk away in disbelief.

Half a day later.

"Out, out?"

"Holy shit, after waiting for so long, they finally came out, and, and so casually, without defences?"

After waiting for Chen Dong and Xixing to disappear into thin air.

Only then did the two men get up, one of them directly and quietly hid into the darkness and chased after Chen Dong and Xie Xing in the direction they left, while the other one rushed back to the inn in a dusty manner.

“Chief, the young master has left the palace!”

As soon as he entered the room, the dark guard hurriedly reported.

At the sound of his words.

Wang Yu’s expression was solemn and he stood up with a start, “Here’s your chance! Zhang Chao, gather the brothers and prepare to make a move!”

Zhang Chao, who was standing at the side, had just stood up.

The secret guard suddenly looked strange and said, “Chief, something is not right, the young master and the Hun princess, both of them, came out from the palace alone.”

“Hmm?”

Wang Yu ejaculated in surprise.

But Zhang Chao’s eyes lit up, “What a good opportunity! Let’s just form a group, go up and snatch the Young Lord away, and leave the Thirteen Cities of the King’s Court at night!”

“You’re the only one who’s smart?”

Wang Yu gave Zhang Chao a sidelong glance, but he also knew Zhang Chao’s “reckless” character, so he did not care.

The members of the Dark Guards were all the best in the mercenary battlefield in the past, but in the end, because of their different personalities, sometimes their perspectives and ways of thinking about things were also very different.

“What?”

Zhang Chao scratched his head and looked at Wang Yu in confusion.

Wang Yu glanced at the secret guard who had returned to inform him and sighed, before saying to Zhang Chao, “Do you think what we see, is what we see? Young master aside, a Hun princess, the only daughter of the Hun king, even if she wants to go on a self-service tour, do you really think that there are no eagle-like eyes watching in the shadows?”

“Then this is not a good thing to do.”

Zhang Chao was enlightened and frowned, "But didn't you tell me to gather my brothers and prepare to do something?"

"The situation has changed, so we'll have to change the plan."

Wang Yu rubbed his chin with his right hand and pondered for a few seconds before he slowly said, "This way, divide the secret guards into two teams, you and I will lead them separately, I will be responsible for robbing the young master while you ....."

Wang Yu laughed lightly, "You are responsible for going with your brothers to gather a group of stragglers in the king's city, lead the stragglers to storm the young lord and the Hun princess, after forcing the secret guards to reveal themselves, you will retreat immediately!"

"And then what?"

Zhang Chao asked suspiciously.

"Then we'll see if the young lord and the Hun princess will be scattered by the onslaught, once the two of them are out of the guards' care, we'll be fine."

Wang Yu stretched, his gaze deep, but his voice was abruptly stern, "Remember! This is not our last chance, no matter whether we succeed or not in the end, you and your brothers, try not to expose ourselves, success is best, even if we fail this time, as long as we are not exposed, then there will be another chance!"

"I understand this, don't worry."

Zhang Chao nodded and gave an "OK" gesture, then he went out to gather the other secret guards.

Wang Yu's face was sullen and his sword brows were knitted together, "May the gods bless that this time it will be a direct success, otherwise the chances are getting slimmer and slimmer."

Although he cautioned Zhang Chao that as long as he did not reveal his identity, then there would be another chance.

But he himself knew very well that the first and subsequent chances were two completely different concepts!

When the Hun princess, really found out that someone was thinking about Chen Dong, going forward, it would not be as easy and careless as the first time, and if the first time did not work out, the difficulty would skyrocket even if there was a chance for the subsequent time.

Ten minutes later.

Zhang Chao had gathered all the secret guards together.

Wang Yu divided up the ranks and once again warned and admonished them, and then gave the order.

Under the cover of the night.

The guards split into several batches and left the inn quietly.

Like ghosts in the night, once they left the inn, they quickly wandered towards the dark corners .....

Winner Takes All Chapter 1057-1058

Chapter 1057

The bustling streets.

The lights were bright, like stars falling to the ground, illuminating the streets as bright as day.

But the streets were still full of ragged, hurried people.

The lights could dispel the darkness, but not the stragglers who had taken advantage of the nightfall to wander the streets.

This was also the norm in every tribal city in the Great Snowy Plain after the night had fallen.

Shying took Chen Dong's arm and the two of them walked among the crowd.

Every now and then, Xixing would drag Chen Dong into one of the shops.

Chen Dong did not object to this.

Although the memory opening had made him aware of the situation at hand, he was clear that, at least for the time being, he could not show his dislike for Xixing.

Even, from time to time, Chen Dong would deliberately feign a smile and greet Shy Xing.

However, compared to before, Chen Dong's catering nowadays was a little more hypocritical and reluctant.

Luckily, Xixing didn't notice and cheerfully dragged Chen Dong through the crowds and into the shops.

To her, shopping was the most wonderful thing, and it was probably in every girl's nature to do so.

But in an hour, Chen Dong was already carrying a large bag in his hand.

"Xixing, did you bring me out to shop and relax, or did you bring me out to be a hard worker?"

Walking out of a clothes shop again, Chen Dong took a look at the big bags in his hands and said to Xixing in a fake aggravated manner.

Xixing looked back and shyly took Chen Dong's arm and said, "Okay, let's treat you to something delicious?"

"For the sake of your sincerity, I'll reluctantly agree."

Chen Dong nodded reluctantly.

Immediately afterwards, Xixing pulled Chen Dong through the streets, his eyes looking around as if he was looking for something.

With such a focused look, even Chen Dong was a little curious.

But when an old man holding a candy cane came along with a group of children, Xixing's eyes lit up and she immediately greeted him.

At this moment, Chen Dong was suddenly not curious anymore.

His eyes were stunned as he watched Xie Xing take two bunches of sugar gourds from the old man's hand, this stuff ..... was just delicious?

Even though Chen Dong had lost his memory, he knew that this kind of food that was sold along the street was really not good enough to talk about for Xie Xing's status.

"Here, this sugar gourd is the top delicacy on the Great Snowy Plain."

While eating it contentedly, Xixing handed the sugar gourd to Chen Dong, "I only knew about it after an uncle from the domain gave it to me when I was a child."

"An uncle from within the domain?"

Chen Dong's gaze flickered for a moment, but he instantly pushed down the distracting thoughts rising in his heart.

He took the candy gourd in Xixing's hand and took a bite, the mouth full of sweetness, with the slight acidity of hawthorn, instantly filled his mouth with abandon.

"It does taste good."

Chen Dong grinned and asked Xixing, "Xixing, I'm just a face of a person from the domain, and I don't fit in with you guys, can you tell me about the things in the domain?"

"Ha?"

Xixing was surprised for a moment, then shook her head, "There's nothing in the domain, there's nothing to tell."

With that, she went to Chen Dong's side once again, holding him towards another street, "Let's go, go to another street and stroll around, there are all good food there, whatever you want to eat, your wife will pay for it all!"

Chen Dong's gaze sank for a moment, but his heart was a little helpless.

If before, he would not have felt that there was anything wrong with Xixing's words, but at this moment, with a trace of memory restored, he could clearly hear the strong perfidy in Xixing's words.

"She is jealous of me recovering my memory!"

Chen Dong thought in his mind, but his expression soon relaxed.

The two of them headed towards another street together.

Only because of the distance, Xixing soon pulled Chen Dong into a slightly dim and apparently secluded street with few people.

"It's too far, let's go through this side street, it can be much closer."

Chen Dong took a sober look at the secluded street, but hesitantly said, "Are you sure you want to go through this kind of street? It's the middle of the night!"

"Gee, I know, don't worry about the stragglers, if something really happens, the guards Father has arranged for me will take care of it."

Xixing shrugged, "Besides, with you around, what am I afraid of?"

As she spoke, she was snuggling up to Chen Dong, giving the impression of a small bird clinging to her.

The reason for his hesitation was that he was worried that there might be stragglers in these streets.

During the daytime, those stragglers would try to hide in the dark and secluded alleys as if they were ghosts, and would only go out into the streets at night, looking for food to survive.

Normally, however, the day and night were so distinct that the stragglers did not have too much time to move around or too much courage.

As the night falls, the long hours of night cover their nerves!

Under the law of survival of the weak and the strong, night ..... is the best time to hunt!

The street was so secluded that Chen Dong and Xixing could even hear their own footsteps as they stepped forward.

From time to time, when passing by dark, damp and even smelly alleys, one could clearly hear rattling in the alleys, and even miserable wailing sounds.

There were even more daring stragglers who, from time to time, would hear the commotion on the street and poke their heads out of the alleys, staring straight at Chen Dong and Xixing.

When they saw Xie Xing's appearance, their eyes obviously changed.

This made Chen Dong feel very uncomfortable and had a bad feeling.

However, Xixing was as normal as ever, as a Hun princess, she already knew better than anyone what would be in the place where she grew up.

And yet.

"Ah!"

A harsh, miserable scream, like an explosive thunder, boomed out and broke the secluded silence of this street.

Chen Dong and Xixing's faces changed greatly as they raised their eyes to follow the sound.

In the distant alleyway, a wretched figure leapt out of it as if it were a mad dog.

And because of this scream, the rest of the stragglers, who were hiding in the darkness, also leapt into the street in fear.

The streets, which had been empty, were instantly filled with a dense mass of figures.

Each figure was dressed in rags and in disarray, with a fishy stench emanating from their bodies.

This scene was like a hundred ghosts walking around at night.

Even Chen Dong and Xixing, who had been prepared for this, could not help but feel a shuddering feeling at this moment.

“Grab it!”

In the midst of the wind and snow, an angry roar exploded violently.

Immediately afterwards, a tide of stragglers rushed onto the street, rushing towards Chen Dong and Xixing with a bang.

A clamour suddenly exploded.

“Women, it’s been a long time since I’ve seen a woman! That woman is mine!”

“Don’t grab it from me, that woman, it must be mine, and that man, it’s mine too!”

“They’re rich, they must be rich, grab it, grab it so old me can go live in a house and change my status!”

.....

Chen Dong and Xixing were both stunned by the scene in front of them.

It was also at that moment.

Whoosh!

A strong wind whistling sound suddenly rang out from the crowd of stragglers.

A stone, like a meteor breaking through the sky, whistled and came directly towards Xixing’s face.

It was as fast as lightning!

In a flash of lightning, Xie Xing’s face changed drastically, his pupils suddenly tightened, and he even stopped breathing.

However.

A figure suddenly appeared in front of Xie Xing, blocking her line of sight.

Boom!

There was a muffled sound.

Chen Dong's body shook and a mouthful of fresh blood, directly spurted out.

Chapter 1058

Looking at the figure in front of him.

Xixing was frozen.

Her delicate body trembled and her red lips mumbled, "You, why are you helping me block?"

Chen Dong did not even turn his head back, his gaze was cold as he gazed at the onrushing tide of stragglers, raising his hand to gently wipe the blood from the corner of his mouth, "I am not in the habit of watching a woman get hurt."

The words were resounding and incomparably firm.

Xixing's eyes drifted for a moment, but he bypassed Chen Dong and looked at the raging influx of stragglers, each with fierce faces, and a chill emerged on his face.

The next second.

She turned around, took Chen Dong's hand and took a look at the blood at the corner of Chen Dong's mouth, as well as the broken stone chips that were vaguely present on his chest.

"Let's go."

Xixing said coldly and sternly, pulling Chen Dong around and turning back towards the previous street.

The footsteps were not fast, even as if the danger behind them did not exist.

It was only after two steps that Xixing suddenly burst into thunder with her tongue, "My man is injured, give me ..... to clear the scene!"

The tone was overbearing and unparalleled.

It is hard to imagine that a weak woman would have such a bold and domineering scene.

The only thing is, when the word “clear the field” was uttered, the corner of Chen Dong’s eyes not only twitched and twitched.

He knew exactly what the word “clear the court” meant!

Only that Xixing had put the meaning in a euphemistic way, but when he felt the harsh meaning emanating from Xixing’s body, Chen Dong knew that the so-called “clearing” was an imminent massacre!

“A lot of lives.”

As he stepped forward, Chen Dong could not help but speak.

“Before they hurt you, they were human lives, but after they hurt you, they are no longer human lives!”

Xixing said coldly, “If you can shield me from harm, I can kill them all for you to take revenge!”

The words had not yet fallen.

In the darkness around them, the sound of dense footsteps already rang out.

At the same time, under the light, a cold aura reflected in the darkness in a way that sent chills down one’s spine.

As Xixing took a step towards the street, Chen Dong, out of the corner of his eye, glanced at a figure holding a sharp blade, as if it were a ghost, at this moment, lurking directly behind him.

No hot weapons were used because the noise was too loud.

Chen Dong could even foresee the “silent” killing that was about to take place!

“Ah!”

A scream rang out behind him.

Chen Dong subconsciously glanced back, but saw a straggler at the front of the tide of stragglers, stopping in place, his head tilted up, and a fountain of blood spurting into the air.

And all around him, a figure wielding a sharp blade, wordlessly, had wielded a butcher’s knife and lunged into the crowd.

The next second.

The screams of misery, like a tidal wave.

The quiet little street boiled over with noise.

It was like a purgatory, a one-sided massacre!

The air was soon filled with the thick smell of blood.

Chen Dong withdrew his gaze and said to Xixing with some reluctance, "Kill them all, the impact is too great."

"A woman's kindness should not appear in your body."

The moment she turned around to face Chen Dong, her eyes were a little red, and she slowly raised her jade hand to the spot where the stone chips remained on Chen Dong's chest: "Does it hurt?"

"A little."

Chen Dong said.

Xixing lifted her jade hand and looked at Chen Dong with tears in her eyes, eventually, her jade hand gently wiped away the blood from the corner of Chen Dong's mouth: "Just because I am your woman, you stood in front of me just now? What if it was someone else? What if instead of a stone, a knife, or a bullet had flown across the room?"

A series of enquiries, however, caused Chen Dong to freeze for a moment.

Xixing had obviously misunderstood what he had just said, misunderstanding it to mean that because Xixing was his woman, he had righteously stood in the way.

Just .....

Not waiting for Chen Dong to say anything yet.

A dark alleyway in the slash suddenly resounded with the sound of dense footsteps.

"There are still escorts?"

Chen Dong couldn't help but be puzzled, and Xie Xing coincidentally twisted his head to look at the alleyway where the sound came from.

Vaguely, a human figure could be seen coming towards the two of them in a hurry, and there was even a cold light flashing.

"The guards Father sent to me can't be moving this slowly."

Xixing's willow brows furrowed as she murmured.

Almost simultaneously.

Chen Dong and Xixing's faces changed drastically at the same time.

"Run!"

Chen Dong grabbed Xixing's hand and quickly ran towards the street where the crowd had swarmed before.

The guards were already slaughtering the stragglers, and according to what Xie Xing said, there was no way her guards would be so slow to act!

There was only one reason then ..... these people, were coming for the two of them!

When the killing opportunity came raging, there was no longer any need for Chen Dong to think any further.

He was even less stupid to let Xixing escape alone at such a moment, while he himself met these killers.

With his current state, taking on a few killers was not a problem.

But the point was, the sound of dense footsteps in the alleyway could not have come from just a few people!

Not to mention, why fight when you can run?

However.

Just as Chen Dong and Xixing ran not too far away.

Suddenly.

On the street in the direction of escape, a black shadow with an upright figure and a strong killing intent was lined up across the street.

The blades in their hands even reflected a seeping cold aura.

Snapping!

Chen Dong and Xixing's footsteps stopped at the same time.

"There are wolves in front and tigers at the back!"

Chen Dong's expression was sullen and his voice was low.

And after being stunned for a second, Xixing snapped back and shouted, "Escort!"

However.

At this moment, the slaughter on the street had already entered a white heat.

While the guards were recklessly harvesting human lives, they were also facing a group of stragglers who were like dead dogs, desperately resisting!

To them, they had no status, no identity, and they were even in a precarious situation.

But when faced with a sudden massacre, most of them would resist with the idea that even if they died, they would spill their blood all over each other.

This is the fierce culture of the snowy plains!

Even though some of the guards had spotted the sudden appearance of the killers and heard the cries of Xixing, they were still entangled in the mire of the stragglers around them, unable to get out.

The killing intent descended.

It was as if the wind and snow in the sky had fallen silent.

I could feel the killing intent surging in front of and behind me, and I heard the sound of footsteps approaching fast.

She was a princess, and she was used to seeing great storms, but when she was unguarded and faced with death, her instinctive panic was difficult to restrain.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was searching around with a sullen expression on his face.

Suddenly.

His eyes lit up.

"Follow me!"

Chen Dong grabbed onto Xixing's hand and pulled Xixing quickly towards the high wall next to him.

As he ran wildly, Chen Dong suddenly shouted out, "Get ready!"

Prepare for what?

This shout caused Xixing's face to change greatly and she was somewhat frightened and confused.

However, in the next second, along with Xixing's shout, Chen Dong's right hand lashed out and actually threw Xixing into the air brazenly.

As Xixing was thrown into the air.

With the force of the impact, Chen Dong stomped his foot on the wall and leapt up in the air, raising his hands upwards and lifting Xixing directly around his waist.

With the force of the lift.

In the midst of Xixing's screams, Xixing landed steadily on top of the wall.

"Come on up!"

After landing on the wall, Xie Xing hurriedly turned around and bent down, reaching out to pull Chen Dong.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was at this moment, quickly backing up and preparing to assist in his jump.

"Come on, hurry up!"

Shying glanced at one of the killers out of the corner of her eyes, already close at hand, and was so anxious that she lost her face and her back was covered in cold sweat.

Winner Takes All Chapter 1059-1060

Chapter 1059

The sound of dense footsteps.

The sound of the wind and the snow whistled as the killer figures approached.

The cold light reflected from the sharp blades pierced the heart.

At this moment.

Shying's heart was pounding and her whole body was in a state of fear and panic.

She desperately leaned down, trying to get her hand as far down as possible so that she could tug at Chen Dong at the critical moment.

And out of sight, Chen Dong had stopped dead in his tracks, his expression stern.

“Hurry up, Greedy Wolf you hurry up!”

Sensing the majestic killing intent approaching, Xixing could not help but shout out in a piteous voice.

Finally.

Chen Dong, who had stopped, moved as if he was a frenzied thunderbolt, instantly exploding his speed to the limit and rushing directly towards the high wall.

And in Shying Xing’s line of sight, the killers, who were close at hand, also raised their long swords and rapiers.

Bang, bang!

In the nick of time, Chen Dong kicked the wall with both feet in quick succession and leapt straight up the wall.

Just as he leapt up the wall, there was a sudden “poof” as a sharp pain swept through his right calf.

The pain in his right leg caused him to lose his balance when he landed on the wall, and he almost fell back to the ground again.

“Greedy Wolf, your leg!”

The injury on Chen Dong’s right calf was clearly caused by a killer’s knife when he was jumping.

At this moment, Chen Dong’s calf, his trouser leg had torn, revealing a wound full of blood.

However, Chen Dong knew clearly that now was not the time to care about this.

He shook his head solemnly and soberly, “Don’t care, follow me!”

As he spoke, Chen Dong’s eyebrows knitted together and, holding back the pain in his right calf, he picked up Xixing by the waist and jumped straight down the other side of the wall.

After landing on the ground, he dragged Xixing and quickly ran towards the darkness in the distance!

Under the wall.

A killer's figure stood at a standstill, a cold shadow of sharp blades in his hands.

A low, dismayed voice rang out, "Chief, are you really going to kill me?"

Zhang Chao was a bit confused, although they had just rushed to Chen Dong, but with a little bit of water, it was impossible to hurt Chen Dong.

On the contrary, just now, Wang Yu acted as if he was really going to kill someone, he jumped directly in place and gave Chen Dong a slash after he had already leaped out to a certain height.

Was he saving the young master?

Or was he killing the young master?

"You're the smart one? It's all close at hand and you don't give a slash, you think that woman is retarded?"

Wang Yu retorted and said, "That slash was only a superficial wound, hurry up and chase, it would be troublesome to miss out on a great situation!"

As he spoke.

Wang Yu took the lead in backing up, jumped up with a running start and leapt onto the wall.

Following closely, Zhang Chao and the others backed up at the same time, jumped up in unison and leapt up the wall.

In the blink of an eye.

The dangerous scene disappeared from the secluded street.

The carnage in the far street was still going on!

Only, a group of guards, who were recklessly harvesting human lives, one by one, panicked in fear and panic.

Their purpose ..... was to protect the princess!

But now, the princess was in trouble, but they were pulled into the mud by these stragglers, and if something happened to the princess, they would end up like the stragglers who were now reaping!

On the other side.

In the darkness.

Chen Dong pulled Xixing and quickly fled.

As he ran, the injury to his right calf caused a sharp pain, which caused Chen Dong to stumble a little.

Both Chen Dong and Xixing were panting sharply.

The surrounding area was too dark, like an alleyway, narrow enough to accommodate just four people walking side by side, and the ground was also rugged and uneven, with deep and shallow feet.

In the air, there was even a fishy, rotten smell.

“Greedy Wolf, I... We should be safe now.”

Xixing’s voice, laced with ragged panting, rang out in the darkness.

“No!”

Chen Dong dryly and decisively vetoed, “A group of prepared killers will not stop there so simply!”

The words had just fallen.

In the darkness behind him, the sound of hurried footsteps suddenly rang out.

The sound of these footsteps, in the darkness, was like a life-threatening Brahma sound, instantly causing Xixing’s delicate body to tremble, and even her ragged panting was forcibly curbed out of fear at this moment.

“Don’t be afraid, I’m here!”

Chen Dong’s voice, in the darkness, brought the only sense of security to Xixing.

Even as the voice rang out, Xixing could feel the large hand that was holding her tightly, slightly using force.

This made Shying’s gaze flutter for a moment, and for a moment even her fear was gone.

But compared to Xixing.

At this moment in the darkness, Chen Dong’s mind was overwhelmed with thoughts.

His memory had opened up a gaping hole, allowing him to understand the situation he was now in, so he resented Xie Xing.

But now, in the face of this sudden killing opportunity, he had no reason to abandon Xixing and seek survival alone.

Even though he felt resentful, Chen Dong could not instinctively leave Xing Xing behind.

The surroundings were too dark.

The crisis was behind him.

Chen Dong no longer cared to look for a path, and the sight in front of him was not enough for him to find a better path.

Even if, in the darkness, he could see something, time no longer allowed him to look for a better path.

The sound of footsteps behind him was getting closer and closer, and he could even hear the chilling sound of swords cutting against the walls.

Suddenly.

Chen Dong's gaze focussed, locking onto a spot on the wall of the alley ahead.

"Xixing, get ready!"

Chen Dong said in a deep voice.

Again?!

Xixing was instantly startled for a moment.

At the same time.

Chen Dong turned back to look at the dark alleyway behind him.

With his eyesight, at this moment, although the sound of footsteps rang through his ears, he could not yet see the killer figure.

"That should get you rid of the killer!"

Chen Dong said in a low tone.

What?

Shying's heart immediately surged with suspicion.

Without waiting for her to ask questions, Chen Dong had already led Xie Xing to rush to the wall he had locked on before.

Just like earlier.

Chen Dong threw Xixing towards the wall brazenly, while using his inertia, he stomped on the wall in the air and leapt up while lifting his hands high to lift Xixing up, allowing Xixing to land on the wall in a smooth manner.

"Come on up!"

After landing on the wall, Xixing hurriedly leaned down and made a gesture to tug Chen Dong.

"You hide!"

Chen Dong coldly dropped a sentence, but did not retreat, but turned around and ran wildly out in the direction he had just escaped.

This scene caused Xixing's face to pale and his heart to beat wildly.

He was using himself as a target to lure the killers away?

Shying reacted instantly, she wanted to call out to Chen Dong, but the sound of rapidly approaching footsteps, and the sound of swords cutting against the wall, made her not dare to shout.

As the sound got closer and closer.

Terrified and disoriented, Xixing hurriedly crouched on top of the wall, her hands tightly covering her mouth, and discarding all sound.

Just thinking of Chen Dong made Shying's nostrils sore and her heart cut like a knife.

Quietly, drops of tears flowed down from the corners of her eyes.

It was almost just a foot before and after Shying slumped against the wall.

A figure full of killing intent rushed past the alleyway beneath Xie Xing like a ghost.

From the very beginning to the very end, no one had even noticed Xie Xing lying on top of the wall!

Chapter 1060

The dark alleyway.

The sound of footsteps and swords cutting against the walls, quickly moving away.

Until after the sound had completely disappeared.

For a moment, Shying did not dare to move and hunkered down on top of the wall in a dead hibernation, her hands tightly covering her mouth and nose, even if she was pearly, she forcibly suppressed her cries.

As the sound faded away.

The whole alleyway was abruptly silent to the extreme.

Xixing, who was lying on her back on the wall, her delicate body trembled as tears flowed freely.

She did not expect Chen Dong to use herself as bait to lure away all the killers at the critical moment.

Just now, Chen Dong had a chance to jump up the wall with her and continue her escape!

It was just that Xixing knew clearly that it would be difficult for the two of them to get away from the killers by going up the wall together, and the two of them would still be in the perilous position of being chased.

And what Chen Dong did was to exchange her safety with his own life's safety!

This approach made Shying's heart like a knife and her body like oil cooking at this moment.

She waited for a long time.

After making sure that the killer was far away, Xixing finally let go of her hands.

Her chest rose and fell violently, panting heavily.

At the same time, she also took out her mobile phone from her pocket with trembling hands, fearfully, and while dialing the phone, she murmured in a pearly and piteous voice, "Greedy Wolf, wait for me, hold on, I, I, will, save you, you must, hold on!"

With so many killers chasing after him, Xixing knew very well the desperate situation that man was facing.

If he couldn't run out in this intricate alleyway, couldn't run to the crowded streets, the end result would only be to become a trapped beast.

Chen Dong was the future sword of the Hundred Clans going south, the hope!

She was unwilling to let Chen Dong die at this moment.

What's more, because of Chen Dong's sacrifice of his life to save her, this touching, Xie Xing also can't allow that man to end up in danger!

.....

The other side.

Chen Dong stumbled and ran wildly in the darkness, surrounded by darkness and emitting an unpleasant stench.

The deep and shallow terrain, coupled with the injury to his right calf, made Chen Dong's escape incredibly difficult at the moment.

It was only when he heard the dense sound of footsteps approaching behind him that Chen Dong's heart was certain.

At least ..... that woman Xixing was safe now!

Just looking at the narrow, yet unseen end of the alleyway in front of him, Chen Dong was a bit anxious.

The thirteen cities of Xiongnu, although representing the glory of Xiongnu.

But even the architectural structures in the King's City were extremely messy, which also led to this complex and intricate alleyways abounding.

If you continue to run like this, you will undoubtedly just be running for your life.

But ..... where is the direction to stay alive?

And behind Chen Dong.

At this time, Wang Yu and Zhang Chao, a group of secret guards, were flying on their feet.

"Chief, that woman was just at the wall, how come we don't care?"

After making sure that they were far apart, Zhang Chao asked in a low voice.

Just now, the group of secret guards had all detected Shying Xing who was hibernating on the wall.

For a group of the best who had survived the mercenary battlefield, the keen perception of being close at hand could still easily spot a person.

It was just that because Wang Yu had not made a move, all the dark guards had followed suit as best they could.

“The target is the young master, not the Hun princess!”

Wang Yu said in a deep voice, “Killing the Hun princess will not only not help us improve our chances of completing the mission, but will greatly increase the chances of our entire army being wiped out.”

The only son of the Hun King, the Princess, if there was a slip-up, it would be enough to shake the entire Huns!

It would be the King’s thunderous anger and the shock of the entire Huns that would be faced then.

“But if we kill the Hun princess, it will be a great achievement for us when we return, enough to gain a lot of benefits!”

Zhang Chao said with some incomprehension.

With the deep hatred between the inner and outer domains, being able to save the young lord and at the same time sniping the Hun princess in the process, this was a double achievement, a truly great feat!

After returning to the domain, Chen Daolin would definitely reward him greatly!

In Zhang Chao’s opinion, high risk comes with high reward, so it’s really worth a shot!

“Greed is not enough for a snake to swallow an elephant! The target is the young master, we are only here to complete the mission, nothing else will be mentioned!”

Wang Yu said in a deep voice while running wildly, “You should put away your audacious snake swallowing an elephant mentality, that stone just now, if the Young Lord hadn’t sheltered the Hun princess, you would have already caused a mortal disaster for our Dark Guards!”

Zhang Chao’s gaze stared.

He did not expect that the retreat just now was fast enough, yet he was still caught by Wang Yu in that scene.

Just now, he had indeed thought of sniping to kill Xixing, which was why he had thrown the stone in the dark, but after being blocked by Chen Dong, he immediately led his men to retreat, so that he could quickly rejoin Wang Yu and the others.

Now that he had been bluntly exposed by Wang Yu, it made him a little embarrassed too.

However, after careful thought, he did not refute Wang Yu's words.

Indeed .....

saving the young master might alert the Xiong Nu and be besieged.

But killing the Hun princess would not only alert the Huns and be besieged, but all the members of the secret guards would suffer the wrath of the Huns as if the sky had fallen!

The situation would have become a deadly one!

"Now that we've lost the Hun princess, the young lord is the only one left, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!"

Zhang Chao changed the subject in a deep voice and said helplessly, "But what's wrong with the young master, he's running faster than a donkey.

Wang Yu's mind was sunken and he was also a little annoyed.

They had appeared as assassins, in order to cover their ears and be able to strip away Xixing in the process.

But now the plan was just this close to the door, yet they had been unable to catch up with Chen Dong, and that was the trouble!

If time drags on, the later the better!

"Perhaps, we can catch up, right? After all, I gave the young master a slash."

Wang Yu said with some uncertainty.

"It's not like you don't know how terrifying our Young Lord really is." Zhang Chao added a slash, which instantly made Wang Yu even more uncertain.

Just run and run.

Wang Yu, Zhang Chao and the rest of the secret guards, however, gradually slowed down their pace.

With their eyesight, they could vaguely see that there was a wall ahead, a dead end!

Where was the young master?

Wang Yu, Zhang Chao and the others all stopped in their tracks.

They were sure that Chen Dong was escaping in this direction, and the distance between the two sides should not be far, even if Chen Dong had fled up the wall, they should have detected some movement.

But now, it felt as if Chen Dong was running and then suddenly disappeared with a bang.

In the dark alleyway.

A dead silence.

An inexplicable sense of tension haunted Wang Yu, Zhang Chao and the other kind of secret guards.

“Spread out and look for them!”

Wang Yu gave an order and immediately headed towards the wall at the end of the alleyway.

A once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, he would never be willing to stop there.

As long as he found Chen Dong, he would be able to leave the city immediately.

If he missed it, any subsequent attempt to save Chen Dong would be sharply more difficult and risky!

Even if the ground in this corner of the city was dug down three feet, Wang Yu would still want to find out what was going on!

Just .....

Just when Wang Yu was close to the wall, only half a meter away.

His footsteps abruptly stopped and his pupils tightened as he gazed at the wall in front of him, vaguely feeling as if something was wrong with the wall.

The next second.

Boom!

A strong wind lifted up.

A large beast robe enveloped the sky.

Wang Yu didn't even have time to react before his head was completely blinded.

Almost simultaneously.

Bang!

Wang Yu then felt a huge pain in my right wrist, and his long knife came off his hand.

Immediately afterwards, he felt a tightening of his neck and his body was ruthlessly yanked.

At the same time.

A cold and familiar voice suddenly rang out.

“Let me go, or he dies!”
