

Winner Takes All Chapter 131-140

Chapter 131

After returning to Tianmen Mountain Villa.

Chen Dong received two more phone calls one after another, from Dean Liu and Lord Meng respectively.

Both of them were old friends with Old Zheng and knew that once Chen Dong wanted to pursue the matter tonight, it would definitely ruin Old Zheng's half-life achievement, so they wanted to plead for Old Zheng's mercy.

After Chen Dong made it clear that he would not pursue the matter, the two of them felt a little more at ease.

After hanging up the phone, it was finally clear.

As he lay in bed, Chen Dong felt a little melancholy.

If it were not for his status as the young master of the Chen family, perhaps the genuine calligraphy and painting of Tang Yin tonight would have been called a forgery by Zheng Guote, and he would have been unable to defend himself.

The word "birth" is annoying, but helpless.

If Zheng Guote had known who he was at the beginning, he would have been able to say that even if he had taken a forgery, he would have said that it was genuine, right?

The following two days were calm and quiet.

The sales of Dingtai's three pre-sale properties were as Chen Dong had expected, although not enough to fire up the city, it was not difficult to sell out in a week's time.

This was what he wanted to see the most, Dingtai's volume today was ultimately too small.

Leaving aside the shares of Zun Long Real Estate, Din Tai was at most in the top ten in the city.

There is still a long way to go before it is number one in the city.

The shantytown renovation project in the west of the city was originally a big hole, and it was he who took advantage of the Chen family's east wind to turn it around.

If the sale of the property is repeatedly on the cusp of the storm, it is bound to attract the eyes of the rest of the peers.

If someone really wanted a piece of the pie, it would be a problem.

He could rely on the Chen family's energy to smooth things over, but he was clear that it was all an appearance, and that only when he truly grew up and walked through the doors of the Chen family in a dignified manner, would he bestow on his mother the glory that originally belonged to her.

That moment would be when the Chen family energy was truly in his hands.

Before that, with the Chen family's intricate factions and secret infighting, he really couldn't be sure that the Chen family would help every time something went wrong.

If, in the middle of all this, something went wrong with the Chen family and there were peers with hot eyes, it would be big trouble for him.

Working quietly and then wowing the crowd was what he would most like to see and do right now.

In two days' time, Gu Qingying had also approached him many times, and he had replied patiently, afraid that this silly girl would still think he was angry about that night at the Four Seals Club.

In fact, that was what Gu Qingying thought, and no matter how much Chen Dong explained, that silly girl did not believe him.

She even wanted to come to Dingtai in person, but was refused by Chen Dong.

All his focus these days was on the pre-sale of the three properties, and he was really distracted.

Luckily, after some persuasion, he finally managed to get Gu Qingying to drop the idea of coming to the company.

It was early this morning.

It was just after dawn.

Chen Dong was having a physical training session with Kunlun when a phone call came in.

"Brother Dong, watch the news, there's a big trouble!" On the phone, Xiao Ma's voice was as anxious as an ant on a hot pot.

“The sky is falling?” Chen Dong joked.

Xiao Ma pondered for a second and said in a trembling voice, “Mmm!”

Chen Dong’s expression froze and his mind exploded.

He hurriedly asked Pony what had happened.

Pony said, “Yike Group has announced that it will temporarily shelve its plans to enter our city.”

Boom!

A bolt from the blue.

Chen Dong’s body shook and his mind instantly went blank.

It was even as if he had disconnected from the world for a few seconds, so much so that he had completely missed what else Xiao Ma had said on the phone.

“Young master, what’s wrong?”

Kun Lun’s anxious and worried voice rang in his ears, bringing Chen Dong back to reality instantly.

“Good, I know.”

Desperately suppressing his anger, he ended the call with Xiao Ma.

Chen Dong’s right hand, however, clutched the phone, hesitantly refusing to put it down, his hand clicking, the veins on the back of his hand protruding.

And his eyes were churning with monstrous anger.

A calm anger that made Kunlun’s heart wince as he watched.

“A final revenge? What a good move to take revenge from the bottom of the kettle!” Chen Dong spat out a sentence from between his teeth, smiling back in anger.

After a brief moment of shock and anger, he quickly figured it out.

Yike was the Chen family’s enterprise, and it was Elder Long who had helped arrange for the news to be released in the first place, which had turned the tide of the shantytown renovation project in the west of the city, and with the huge volume of Yike, had pushed up the property prices in the west of the city.

It is no exaggeration to say that as long as Yike does not take the initiative to overturn that news, the city's west of the city house prices will never be able to fall.

And now, with Yike suddenly announcing that it was temporarily shelving its project to enter the city, there was only one person Chen Dong could think of, and who had the energy to do this!

The old lady of the Chen family!

In the entire Chen family, only the old lady would dare to go against her father's wishes and order Yike to overturn the news.

The previous Chen Tianyang and Chen Tiansheng must have also known about this one-strike method, and the reason why they didn't use it was that they were not qualified to order Yike.

This is a vicious way to take the bottom out of the kettle and hit Chen Dong straight in the throat with a single knife.

Once the news came out, the entire shantytown West project, would be turned upside down, even leading to an avalanche for Din Tai!

For Din Tai, the sky is indeed falling!

"Young Master, what exactly has happened?" Kunlun saw Chen Dong's shocked look and became a little anxious.

"Nothing, let's stop practicing today and go home."

Chen Dong took a deep breath and quickly ran towards home.

In the living room, the morning news was playing.

Long Lao was sitting on the sofa with a gloomy face, and Li Lan's face beside him was also extremely ugly.

Fan Lu was still in the kitchen making breakfast. Normally, at this time of the day, everyone in the family was extremely eager for Fan Lu's breakfast.

But now, no one had lost their appetite.

Even Li Lan, who regarded Fan Lu as her daughter, was the same.

"Elder Long, Dong'er this time, can he pull through?" Li Lan's voice was a little low.

The morning news on the television was showing the news that Yike had announced that the project to enter the city was on hold.

Knowing that Chen Dong was the boss of Dingtai, Li Lan naturally knew how fatal a blow this news would deal to Dingtai!

It would not be an overstatement to say that it was a one-hit kill.

Elder Long shook his head, even he had a sense of powerlessness at the moment, "It's too toxic, this one news is enough to cause an earthquake in the city's real estate, a reshuffle in the west of the city, this time Dingtai is in danger!"

The two successive pre-sales in the west of the city were all hot.

But it was clear to everyone that whether it was the pre-sale explosion or the rise in property prices in the west of the city, it was all because Yike had announced its move in before.

Without the giant that is Yike, City West is bound to be quickly stripped of its trappings and reverted to its former self in no time.

"Elder Long, let him make his move." Li Lan's eyes steeped in determination, "Dao Lin will never stand by and watch Dong'er fall into the abyss of ten thousand feet!"

Elder Long smiled bitterly, "Madam, Master knows this, and old slave is certain that Master is racking his brains to help young master at this time, this killing blow is fatal to young master, enough to wipe out all of young master's previous achievements, Master will not stand by and watch."

"If even he can't help, does that mean"

Li Lan was anxious, her hands clenched together, "Does it mean that Dong'er will have to fall into hell this time?"

Chapter 132

Looking at the silent Elder Long.

Even though there was no answer, the look on Elder Long's face gave Leland the answer.

Li Lan's eyes were a little red.

Over the years, she had always seen her son's efforts in her eyes.

In three years, from a graduate, he had fought his way up to the position of Vice President, which was proof enough of her son's ability.

If he had seen the light of day, he would have returned to darkness again.

Even if she was Chen Dong's mother, she did not dare to imagine how much it would hurt him.

As a mother, how could one not feel for her son?

In her anxiety, a bold thought suddenly popped into Li Lan's mind.

She said in a deep voice, "Elder Long, I want to go back to the Chen family!"

"Madam, no!" Elder Long's face changed dramatically.

Letting Li Lan go back to the Chen family at this moment would undoubtedly add fuel to this incident again.

Long Lao hurriedly explained, "Madam is forgetting what happened back then?"

Li Lan looked stunned, then she raised her hand and patted her head, "I, too, am in a hurry, that old lady wants me and Dong'er to die, so it won't help if I go back."

The more she spoke, the more anxious she became, and with tears in her eyes, she said, "But what should I do now? What should I do for Dong'er?"

"Mum"

A gentle voice suddenly came from behind her.

Li Lan was startled and turned around to see Chen Dong and Kunlun standing outside the living room.

"Dong'er"

Chen Dong walked into the living room and hugged Leland, gently patting Leland's back.

It was like, when he was scared as a child, his mother soothed him.

He smiled and said, "It's alright, I'll take care of it, don't worry, the only thing you have to do now is to get well."

"But" Leland's mind calmed down slightly.

“Get well, you’re still waiting to hold your grandchildren.”

Chen Dong smiled spontaneously, his gaze firm: “You were able to hold up a sky for me to grow up, now I can hold up this sky above my head!”

Li Lan was stunned and looked at Chen Dong with a complicated gaze.

For a long time.

Only then did she lower her head and smile bitterly, “Yes, Dong’er has grown up.”

“Dinner’s ready.”

At this time, Fan Lu walked out from the kitchen.

“Mom, let’s eat breakfast first.”

Chen Dong was in a hurry, more so than anyone else, but now that his mother was like this, he had to act calm and collected.

After forcing himself to insist on eating with his family, Chen Dong took Kunlun and left home.

As soon as he got into the car, Chen Dong’s face sank and he said to Kunlun, “Get to the office as soon as possible!”

.....

At Din Tai Company, it was right at work time.

All the employees were gathered together, looking terrified.

A piece of news that contained so much energy that it blew all the Dingtai employees out of the water.

No one could have imagined that yesterday everyone was still working feverishly on the pre-sale and discussing how to celebrate the sold-out properties.

Early this morning, when they opened their eyes, the sky had collapsed!

“Brother Xiao Ma, when is Chen Dong coming? After such a big incident, what the hell should we do?”

“I’m also going crazy, I got up after a good night’s sleep, and how come Yike suddenly announced that the project was put on hold? When will the project continue if it is shelved?”

“Think too much! The big companies’ rhetoric, shelving usually means it’s gone, it’s just a euphemism, what we should consider now is the emotions of those home buying customers of the pre-sale properties in the west of the city, and whether the house prices in the west of the city are stable or collapsing!”

.....

The “collapse” of an employee instantly made everyone freeze.

The price of the west of the city was pushed up by the news that Yike had moved in.

Now that the project is on hold, the prices of the west side of the city are bound to be in an uproar.

After all, the west side of the city has never been liked by the people of the city.

At the time, the news of Yike moving in had everyone’s blood pumping.

And now, after everyone had calmed down, what would be the attitude towards the west of the city?

Just at that moment.

Two figures appeared at the entrance of the company.

At the same time, a calm voice rang out.

“It’s early in the morning, have you finished all the work in hand?”

In an instant, all eyes looked towards Chen Dong.

“Brother Dong, you’re finally here!”

Xiao Ma hurriedly greeted him.

Chen Dong glared at Xiao Ma: “All gathered here early in the morning, the three property presales in the west of the city are not yet finished, take the big guys to work!”

His voice was cold and stern, and his attitude was not as warm as usual.

This made Xiao Ma freeze, but he turned around and called everyone to work.

As each employee returned to their posts, they all peeked at Chen Dong.

When they saw Chen Dong walking calmly into the office, they were all puzzled.

The sky was falling, and the boss could still be so calm?

“Brother Xiao Ma, didn’t Chen always know about this long ago and had already prepared his backhand?” An employee who was close to Xiao Ma asked.

Since Chen Dong had taken over the company, two crises in a row had been solved by Chen Dong in a light manner.

In the hearts of the employees, Chen Dong’s image rose to a very high level.

Every time they saw Chen Dong calm and collected, it was as if they had found their backbone and instinctively felt that things were not that bad.

Xiao Ma was also puzzled in his mind and scratched his head, “I guess so?”

The uncertain tone of voice, however, acted as an affirmation in the employee’s mind, and he was soon engaged in his work.

Inside the office.

Chen Dong sat in his chair, frazzled, scratching his hair over and over again.

He knew that as the boss, he was the backbone of the company.

If he acted panicked in front of the staff, instead of solving the problem, it would affect the whole company.

That’s why when he came in just now, he forced himself to be calm.

The indifference towards Xiao Ma was also to reduce the time spent explaining to everyone and increase the risk of exposure.

Now that it was just him and Kunlun in the office, the anxiety naturally came out.

Rubbing his face, Chen Dong said in a deep voice, “Kunlun, what do you do when you have a sword pointed at your throat?”

Kunlun said, “Get him killed!”

Chen Dong froze, and then laughed bitterly.

With Kunlun’s fighting prowess, he could easily kill back even if he was being pointed at the throat with a sword.

But he couldn’t do it!

This time, he was facing the Chen family's old lady!

A killing blow that directly caused the sky to collapse on Din Tai, dismantling him from the roots up.

How was he supposed to counter-kill?

It was also at a time when Chen Dong was heavily anxious and at his wit's end.

Throughout the city, an even bigger storm was brewing.

The calm before the storm was the most apt description.

For, when the news was broadcast, everyone failed to react and froze.

Within a very short time, Dingtai was thrust into the limelight, along with the shantytown project in the west of the city.

The focus of almost all the talk in the population was on this.

If it wasn't for the fact that Yike was going to move in, house prices in the west of the city would not have risen, let alone the fact that so many home buyers flocked to the west of the city to grab houses.

Now that Yike has shelved the project, people who have calmed down have instantly returned to their former state of disdain for the west of the city.

Meanwhile.

In front of Longting Garden and the three properties being pre-sold, a large group of people had already gathered.

These people were full of anger and rage, rushing into the sales centres of the four properties

Chapter 133

Bang!

The office door was roughly pushed open.

Chen Dong, who was in the middle of a frenzy, instantly wrinkled his brows and looked furious.

Xiao Ma rushed in and said in a deep voice, "Brother Dong, it's a big deal, the four sales centres have been smashed by home buyers!"

Chen Dong's pupils tightened and the corners of his eyes jumped wildly.

The extermination has begun!

"I go deal with it?" Kunlun, who was on the side, said with a frown.

"This has nothing to do with them, the herd is in a frenzy, if the house prices in the west of the city fall, they are also victims."

Chen Dong rubbed his swollen temples tiredly.

In the beginning, he had pushed up the house prices in the west of the city, and if the house prices in the west of the city had remained the same, he would still have a clear conscience.

But if house prices fall, in the end, not only is the sky collapsing for Dingtai, but those home buyers are also victims.

Raising his eyes, he looked at Xiao Ma: "You first bring people over to stabilize the mood of the home buyers, those three pre-sale properties, also temporarily stop pre-sale."

"Dong" Xiao Ma was anxious, "The impact of Yike shelving the move in is too great, if we don't set things right soon, the west side of the city will collapse."

"I will think of a way." Chen Dong said in a deep voice.

Kunlun, who was at the side, waved his hand, "Go out first, Chen always has a solution."

After the pony left.

Only then did Kun Lun say, "Young master, should we have Elder Long return to the Chen family immediately to check the situation? It's such a big deal, Master won't just sit back and do nothing."

Chen Dong smiled helplessly.

Of course he knew that his father would not sit back and do nothing.

Otherwise, back in the bamboo courtyard of the Four Seals Club, his father would not have dared to ask Old Lady Chen to die for him.

What was crucial now was that Old Lady Chen had put her sword to his throat with one hand.

Even if his father had wanted to help, Old Lady Chen would have dragged his father into a tangle and stalled for time.

It just so happened that Din Tai could not afford to stall now!

Rubbing his face fiercely, Chen Dong suddenly felt a sense of hopeless despair.

This feeling of being held and left to be pinched and rubbed round was annoying to him.

“Or, let Zun Long Real Estate help?” Kunlun suggested.

“It’s useless.” Chen Dong shook his head, his tone waning, “Zun Long Real Estate’s volume can’t do what Yike did, it can’t stabilise property prices.”

It was also at the same time as the four property sales centres were smashed.

A video news of the smashing of the sales centres flew onto the internet.

With the momentum of today’s advanced entertainment, there were no secrets that could be concealed.

The whole city was talking about Dingtai.

And amidst this wave of public opinion, property prices in the west of the city were rocking.

When everyone’s dreams were shattered, the anger naturally implicated Din Tai, the biggest gainer.

Meanwhile.

In the spacious office.

Zhou Yanqiu watched the news with furrowed brows and a deep gaze.

Snapping!

After turning off the news, he slowly lit up his cigar.

“What’s going on with the Chen family?”

While enjoying the rich fragrance of the cigar smoke, Zhou Yanqiu quietly pondered, “First, he used Yike to help Chen Dong raise the property prices in the west of the city, and now he’s pulling the trigger with another move, could it be that Chen Tiansheng has the old lady of the Chen family and the head of the Chen family pinching each other?”

What ordinary people outside do not know, as the city's leading real estate industry, Zhou Yanqiu knows by heart how the city's west house prices actually rose.

It was even clear that the property ripples in the eyes of the outside world were nothing more than an internal fight in the Chen family.

This made Zhou Yanqiu, who was already planning to ride the wall, wavered once again.

Help? Or not?

Or rather, to whose side?

This made Zhou Yanqiu's head spin.

If he chose the right one, he would be a dragon, but if he chose the wrong one, it would not be like the last time when he could step back and choose to ride the wall.

Zun Long Real Estate.

Zhou Zun Long looked at a news article with a hostile face, and his heart was indescribably happy.

He had built Zun Long Real Estate to be the second largest real estate company in the city.

But Chen Dong's appearance, taking away most of his shares at the drop of a hat, simply made him more resentful than killing his cousin.

"Yike announced that it was shelving the project, and without the giant Yike in the city's west, even if it was shanty, it would still be the same old city's west."

Zhou Zunlong murmured, "A phoenix that has lost its feathers is worse than a chicken, the property prices in the west of the city are bound to collapse, Chen Dong your Dingtai is going to be finished!"

The words had just fallen.

The office door was pushed open.

Zhou Zunlong raised his eyebrows and looked furious.

Who dared to barge into his office without his consent?

He was about to raise his head in anger when he saw the person who came in, and he instantly suppressed his anger.

“Sorry, I came in directly without notice.” Elder Long sat down.

Chen Dong had accepted the shares of Zun Long Real Estate, even if he did not control Zun Long Real Estate, he was still the largest shareholder, no one dared to stop Elder Long if he wanted to come in.

“Oh where are the words, this old man Long can come in whenever he wants, I sweep the couch and welcome him.” Zhou Zun Long smiled awkwardly.

Elder Long glanced at the computer screen and smiled faintly, “Are you happy that something happened to Dingtai?”

Zhou Zun Long’s expression stalled.

Elder Long shook his head with a smile, “I don’t care if you’re happy or not, I’ve come to find you today to ask you to do one thing!”

“What is it?” Zhou Zun Long asked.

“In the name of Zun Long Real Estate, go and get two pieces of land in the west of the city!” Elder Long said.

“Does Elder Long want me to help Dingtai stabilise first-hand property prices?” Zhou Zun Long instantly reacted and said with difficulty, “With the volume of Zun Long Real Estate, it can’t be stabilised.”

“It’s better than nothing.” Elder Long got up and walked out, “Since the young master accepted the shares of your company, you and the young master are on the same boat, Dingtai has suffered a setback, look at the stock market of your Zun Long Real Estate!”

“I know you are reluctant, if the stock market can’t get you out, then I”

When he reached the door, Elder Long paused and his voice was steeply cold: “Then I will give you a spiritual hall!”

The killing intent was thick and unconcealed.

It was calmly as if it was telling a trivial matter.

But when it fell on Zhou Zunlong’s ears, it was like a cold wind blowing out from the depths of the Nine Mysteries, chilling the cicadas.

He had no doubt that Elder Long really had the power to do so!

Therefore, Zhou Zun Long nodded, “Understood.”

Four Seals Clubhouse.

“Dad, please help Chen Dong, will you, he’s really in big trouble this time.”

Gu Qingying was full of anxiety as she took Gu Guohua’s arm and pleaded, “This should be easy for you, right?”

“Easy?”

Gu Guohua raised an eyebrow, “Baby girl, if I help Chen Dong, then I will have to erect a city commercial complex almost on the same scale as Yike in the west of the city, and this is called easy?”

Yike is the undeserved leader in real estate!

The sheer volume of the city’s commercial complexes has allowed property prices to soar wherever they are located.

But every time one was built, the cost was also absolutely huge, far from what a mere 100 or 200 million could achieve.

What’s more, Gu Guohua’s current commercial focus has also long since ceased to be in the city.

“But now you’re the only one who can save him.”

Gu Qingying’s eyes turned red and she suddenly knelt down on the ground with tears in her eyes, begging, “If you don’t save him, Dingtai will be completely ruined this time!”

The sudden scene startled Gu Guohua and Li Wanqing.

“You child, why are you suddenly like this? Get up quickly!” Gu Guohua hurriedly assisted.

“I won’t get up until you help him!” Gu Qingying said stubbornly.

Li Wanqing became anxious and said to Gu Guohua, “Guohua, please help him, a few billion dollars is nothing to you. Also, don’t forget what Lao Meng and the others said to you!”

Boom!

Gu Guohua’s tiger body shook, as if struck by lightning.

He took a deep breath and said to Gu Qingying with a complicated gaze, “Xiao Ying, get up first, I have to discuss this matter with your Uncle Meng.”

Winner Takes All Chapter 134-136

Chapter 134

Inside the room, the sandalwood fragrance lingers.

Gu Guohua sits and waits quietly.

The eyes are a little deep.

Creak

The door opened.

“Old Meng, you’re finally here.” Gu Guohua got up and said.

Lord Meng looked grave, with a weary look between his eyebrows, sat down on his chair and poured a cup of tea and drank it all.

Now he slowly said, “Don’t mention it, Yike has announced that it is shelving its move in, the west side of the city is in an uproar today, all four of your son-in-law’s sales centres have been smashed! I’m rushing to put out the fire!”

“I’m looking for you for the same thing.” Gu Guohua said.

Lord Meng raised his eyebrows, “Tell me about it.”

Gu Guohua hesitated for a moment and said, “This matter of Chen Dong being the Dragon’s son-in-law, what is it all about?”

“Can’t say.” Lord Meng shook his head and balked.

Gu Guohua was anxious: “You and Old Liu are talking about a dragon son-in-law, and now that such a thing has happened, Xiao Ying is anxious, and so am I.”

At these words.

Lord Meng’s eyes suddenly lit up.

He smiled meaningfully and looked at Gu Guohua, “Old Gu, don’t blame me for not reminding you, you have to help with Chen Dong’s matter!”

Lord Meng deliberately paused for a moment and changed to a more comfortable sitting position before continuing.

“With your financial power, investing in a commercial complex in this city is just a wave of your hand, once you’ve made your move, the property prices in the west of the city will be stabilised and Chen Dong’s company will be saved, this is considered your investment in Chen Dong!”

“Moreover, I’ll give you my word that you’ll make a solid profit on this investment, and it depends on where the growth limit of this dragon son-in-law of yours is as to how much you’ll make!”

“Growth limit?”

Gu Guohua’s gaze flashed as he caught a very crucial word.

Lord Meng’s utterance of the words “growth limit” struck him as abrupt and odd.

From what he had seen of Chen Dong, he was indeed considered a young talent, young and talented.

But this was far from enough to match the “dragon son-in-law” that Lord Meng had described. Obviously, the part that Lord Meng had hidden from him was the true depth of Chen Dong’s talent.

Taking a deep breath, Gu Guohua’s eyes steeped in determination, “Okay, let’s vote.”

“Hahahaha

Lord Meng suddenly laughed and cupped his fist at Gu Guohua, “Thanks for your help, old friend, the west of the city is now stable, and I, a man of great power, can breathe a sigh of relief.”

Gu Guohua froze for a moment, then reacted and cursed with a smile, “You old fox, you entered the door and prepared for me to invest, didn’t you?”

Once the west of the city collapsed, the powerful Lord Meng was also anxious.

If he couldn’t stabilise the property prices, it would be a failure for Lord Meng as well.

Lord Meng laughed and said, “Alas is not useful anymore, after decades of friendship, it really is not as useful as your future son-in-law.”

Gu Guohua smiled spontaneously, but did not say anything further.

Since the decision has been made, whether for the sake of his daughter or for the sake of his decades-old friend, this investment will have to be smashed out.

.....

The situation intensified over the next two days.

The tide of public opinion grew more and more ferocious.

The trend is to point the sword at Din Tai.

And the property prices in the west of the city have also slumped by a full 20% in just two days!

Such a horrific plunge has caused those who previously purchased homes in the west of the city to become enraged and angry.

This, coupled with the deliberate smearing by peers and internet hacks, has caused this massive earthquake to develop towards an unstoppable point.

Dingtai Company.

People are on tenterhooks, and everyone is trembling with fear.

Everyone knew that if house prices continued to plummet, the shantytown west project in Dingtai's hands would completely crush Dingtai.

It would be even more tragic than if the company had simply closed down with a blood loss!

Risk and reward are always directly proportional to each other. When property prices are rising, Din Tai is full of oil, but once the risk is exposed, Din Tai will be doomed.

Inside the office, Chen Dong looked out of the window in silence.

He had already learned from Elder Long that Zhou Zunlong would be buying two sites in the west of the city, and although he knew it shouldn't do much good, he would delay for as long as he could now.

All he could do was to delay the "explosion of lightning" in the west of the city by any means possible.

In the end, it was up to the Chen family to decide whether their father had won or the old lady!

This battle is an internal struggle within the Chen family.

It was no longer something he could control single-handedly.

Even Chen Dong, when he looked up, the Chen family was the sky.

And now, the sky has changed!

The only thing he could do was to linger and wait for the heavens above his head to divide and conquer!

If his father had been able to suppress the old lady, then with a wave of his hand, peace would have reigned in the west of the city.

But if his father could not, or if the old lady delayed him too long, then he would have lost the battle!

WeChat rang on his mobile phone.

It was from Elder Long.

Chen Dong clicked on it and frowned.

The content was simple: Young Master, a letter has arrived from the Chen family!

A letter?

Even Chen Dong was puzzled.

Was this a split decision on the part of the Chen family, or did it mean something else?

Before he could reply to Elder Long, the door to his office was suddenly pushed open by Lone Wolf.

“Mr. Chen, it’s not good.”

Lone Wolf looked panicked and his clothes were unkempt, “The home buyers have blocked the company’s floor, they want to barge in and ask you for an explanation, they can’t stop them.”

“Oh?”

Chen Dong smiled, “Then I’ll go down to meet them.”

“What?” Lone Wolf was instantly frozen.

The downstairs was already swarming with people and water.

There was even a security brother who had already had his head broken by the angry homebuyers, and Mr. Chen still wanted to go down to meet those people?

“What’s coming will always come, running, will only make the situation collapse faster!”

Chen Dong smiled bitterly, all he had to do now was to stall, even if he had to linger, he had to endure the humiliation and stall.

“I... I understand.”

Lone Wolf nodded his head and hurriedly followed.

The downstairs of the Din Tai Company.

By now, it was already waterlogged and crowded.

The sounds of abuse and denunciation were deafening.

There were even people holding signs and frantically rushing towards the inside of the building.

Both the building security guards and Din Tai's security guards were desperately blocking the doors, and there was no shortage of those with injuries and blood on their bodies.

And further out, there were quite a few onlookers holding up their mobile phones to film, and even more media coverage!

As Chen Dong and Lone Wolf walked downstairs.

A shout suddenly rang out from the wildly surging crowd.

“Chen Dong is here!”

In an instant, the homebuyers who were already desperately rushing towards the building suddenly became even more ferocious.

“Mr. Chen, you, you go first

A Din Tai security guard shouted.

Snap!

As soon as the words left his mouth, a slap was slapped on this security guard's face in the crowd, directly hitting his face full of nose blood.

Chen Dong looked despondent as he looked at the security guards who were desperately trying to stop him.

He spoke loudly, “Let them in, I will give them a reasonable explanation.”

Whoosh!

As soon as the words left his mouth, a beer bottle flew straight over from the crowd.

Pop!

The bottle smashed into Chen Dong's head, splitting in pieces and scattering to the ground.

And Chen Dong's forehead flowed down with crimson blood, dripping down his face and onto the ground.

"Slot nima! I don't want your explanation, I want your money back!"

Chapter 135

Lone Wolf's face changed dramatically.

A fierce light flashed in his eyes in an instant, and he took big strides towards the entrance.

"Stand still!"

Chen Dong bellowed angrily.

"Mr. Chen"

Lone Wolf turned around and was about to explain, but when he met Chen Dong's eyes, he instantly swallowed the words that were coming out of his mouth back into his stomach.

At this moment, Chen Dong's face was covered in blood.

But he did not show the slightest bit of pain, his expression was cold and his eyes were unusually deep and calm.

Such a look was so cold that even the Lone Wolf's back was chilled.

The sudden scene also made the group of excited home buyers at the gate quiet at the same time.

"Gentlemen, Yike's plan to shelve its move-in is also something I did not expect, and admittedly this matter will make waves in the city, and will also make you worry about whether your hard-earned money will be damaged."

Chen Dong's voice was calm, but he was trying to shout, trying to get every word to fall clearly into everyone's ears.

"For this matter, as the owner of Din Tai, I am also very sorry, and here, on behalf of all Din Tai staff, I bow and apologise to all of you!"

With that, Chen Dong bent down ninety degrees.

This scene made Lone Wolf and a group of security guards look complicated.

How bitter must it be for a company boss to be forced to bow and apologise in public?

What's more, at least in the eyes of ordinary people, what happened to Yike had nothing to do with Din Tai at all, and Din Tai was a victim.

Now it's one victim, apologising to other victims and seeking understanding from other victims for this one!

But, a hundred different kinds of rice feed a hundred different kinds of people.

In the midst of a silence, an angry rebuke suddenly rang out.

"What's the use of just apologising? If you are really sincere, then give us back our hard-earned money, we won't buy the house!"

A thunderous word.

In an instant, the crowd was abuzz with voices.

"Right! We all bought our houses because we saw that the property prices in the west of the city were going up, but now that the houses are not going up, why should we still stay in that shitty place in the west of the city?"

"Yike isn't even moving in anymore, why should we lose money along with that poor countryside in the west of the city?"

"That's right! Since you're sincere, why don't you check out?"

.....

The words were harsh.

Listening to them, Lone Wolf and the security guards couldn't help but frown tightly.

And further down the hallway, Xiao Ma and a group of company employees, frowned even more.

Clearly no shortage of people were shocked by what those people were saying!

“Okay, I promise you guys!”

To everyone’s surprise, Chen Dong incomparably and dryly responded.

Boom!

Everyone in the room froze on the spot.

The commotion of the scene was abruptly dead silent.

Some even drilled their ears in disbelief, thinking they had heard wrong.

Chen Dong straightened his back, his voice calm, without sadness or joy: “Since everyone wants to return the room, Dingtai will definitely satisfy everyone!”

Really, really give a refund?

The homebuyers at the door were all confused.

They had made such a big fuss and blocked the door because they wanted to force Din Tai to withdraw their properties and keep their money.

But to their surprise, the owner of Din Tai had agreed to do it so simply!

In the past, those news about the purchase and withdrawal of properties had never been so crisp!

At the entrance of the building, a group of Din Tai employees were all shocked.

“Brother Xiao Ma, go and persuade him, Brother Dong has agreed to a mass withdrawal so categorically, our cash flow will not be able to survive!”

“Yes, this is the first time this has happened, one buys and one sells, how can there be any backtracking afterwards?”

“Isn’t this forcing Mr Chen to carry it all alone?”

.....

Xiao Ma looked gloomy and smiled helplessly.

He knew that he couldn’t persuade Chen Dong!

Chen Dong swept his gaze over the dumbfounded crowd and squeezed out a smile.

“Dingtai will give the same number of refunds to those purchasers who wish to return their homes, please give me three days, I will repair and restore the sales centres of the four properties, at that time you can bring your contracts and go to the sales centres.”

After saying that, Chen Dong turned around and left.

Even this step, he had backed out.

The aftermath would be well handled by Lone Wolf and the others.

When Chen Dong walked to the lift entrance, Xiao Ma and the others at the entrance of the building all rushed out.

“Brother Dong, have you really decided to do this?” Xiao Ma was the person closest to Chen Dong in the company and was the first to ask at this time.

As he asked, he also took out a tissue to wipe the blood from Chen Dong’s face.

Chen Dong took the tissue and covered the wound on top of his head, smiling helplessly, “What I need now is time!”

Time?

All the employees were frozen in place.

The lift door opened.

Chen Dong stepped into the lift.

Without waiting for Xiao Ma and the others to enter, he directly pressed the floor and close button.

Inside the closed and narrow lift room, Chen Dong leaned against the wall, incomparably exhausted.

“Three days, is that enough time to divide the results?”

The Chen family’s infighting was no longer a matter of his ability.

Even Chen Tiansheng Chen Tianyang, who was also the heir apparent, could definitely not interfere!

It was a matter of position!

If three days were not enough for his father to suppress Old Lady Chen, then he could only go as far as the last step.

Taking out his mobile phone, Chen Dong dialed Zhou Zun Long.

“Tonight, announce the news of you taking the land and announce it out!”

Snap!

Hanging up the phone, Chen Dong exhaled a breath, “Let’s hope that Zun Long Land’s capacity will make those returnees hesitate to consider.”

With the volume of Zun Long Real Estate, it was by no means possible to reverse the situation in the west of the city today.

However, what Chen Dong hoped was that he could even make those resolute returnees waver a little and think about it, delaying their retreat.

That way, he would still have more time to wait!

In the afternoon, a news story about Dingtai’s promise to withdraw swept through the city like a storm.

Everyone’s jaw dropped in shock.

What made everyone even more dumbfounded was that within the live video, Chen Dong promised to be as crisp as could be.

There was no fudging, and even less emotion and reasoning.

It was like, “If you want to return it, I’ll return it to you in a big way!

Such an operation, not to mention ordinary people, even the industry was stunned!

However, this made the hearts of those buyers who wanted to return their homes happy.

They all made up their minds that they would be the first to rush into the sales centre early in the morning three days later to withdraw from their homes!

In the evening, a news item was broadcasted on the evening news.

[Zun Long Real Estate has successfully acquired two plots of land in the west of the city, and it is reported that Zun Long Real Estate will increase its development in the west of the city!

A news item that once again floated the minds of the whole city.

When Zun Long Real Estate transferred Chen Dong’s equity, it was in the news.

Could this be Chen Dong saving himself?

Is he hoping to use Zun Long Real Estate to stabilise property prices in the west of the city?

Some people speculated, some hesitated, while others remained firm in their intention to withdraw.

Chen Dong returned home, already exhausted and with gauze wrapped around his head.

His mother, Li Lan, painfully carried the soup and handed it to him without asking much, just saying gently, "Go and rest after eating, don't be too tired."

"Mum, I'll go back inside first."

After finishing the soup, Chen Dong did not have the thought of eating and went straight back to his room.

Physically and mentally exhausted, he was lying on the bed when Gu Qingying's WeChat came.

"You big fool, why did you stand out and let those people fight? Have you ever considered my feelings?"

Chen Dong's heart warmed, and a gentle smile surfaced on his tired face.

"It's alright, it's just a little broken."

"What do you mean it's alright? There was so much blood in the video, and you're still telling me it's fine? If I hadn't been afraid it would affect you this afternoon, I would have gone straight to you!"

"It's really fine."

Chen Dong took a selfie with a heartbeat and sent it to Gu Qingying, before sending another sentence, "Xiaoying, I'm going to rest first."

Four Seals Clubhouse.

After Gu Qingying confirmed that Chen Dong was not seriously injured, the stone hanging in her heart finally fell to the ground.

She looked at her father beside her.

But Gu Guohua smiled helplessly, "Little Ying, Daddy is also anxious to help Chen Dong, but you know, this project is not something that can be completed immediately if Daddy stands in front of the media and says a word, it has to be done step by step!"

Chapter 136

Chen Dong, who was physically and mentally exhausted, slept very deeply and deeply.

It was only when his mother brought breakfast to his bedside the next morning that he was woken up.

Looking at the breakfast in front of him, Chen Dong smiled, "Mum, I'm not a child anymore, why do I still bring it to my hand?"

Li Lan smiled and said, "In Mom's eyes, you will always be a child."

Chen Dong laughed heatedly and took his breakfast and ate it.

After finishing breakfast, he got up and washed up, before going downstairs.

In the living room, Elder Long was watching the morning news with Kunlun.

Seeing Chen Dong, Elder Long waved his hand and smiled oddly, "Young master, come and take a look at this news, it's a bit interesting."

Chen Dong walked over curiously, took a look at the news and was stunned for a moment, "Zhou Yanqiu has also taken a piece of land in the west of the city?"

"Isn't that interesting?" Elder Long smiled oddly.

Chen Dong shook his head, "Old fox, keep your hand in."

Kunlun was puzzled, "Young Master, Elder Long, what does this mean?"

Elder Long patiently explained, "Last time, Zhou Yanqiu turned against Chen Tiansheng and sort of stood against the Young Master, and later took the initiative to withdraw the material to resist and ride up the wall himself."

Saying that, Long Lao pointed to the TV news: "This time, immediately after Zun Long Real Estate took land in the west of the city, it is clear that he wants to lift the young master's Dingtai by one hand, now he should be unable to catch the Chen family's situation, so he deliberately took such a piece of land."

"One, to show the young master willing to lift the young master's hand, two, just such a piece of land is not able to dominate the big picture, if Chen Tiansheng's side pursues, it can't pursue anything."

Kunlun frowned, a little displeased: "This old fox, the calculation is really smart."

"Let's go, I'm going to the company."

Chen Dong dropped a sentence and headed out.

Kunlun hurriedly followed, after what happened yesterday, he had to stay close to Chen Dong's side for this recent period.

Long Lao watched the TV news and squinted his eyes as he sneered, "Grabbing with both hands, just in case you can't grab with both hands, the heart is not enough for a snake to swallow an elephant!"

With Zhou Yanqiu's land acquisition in the west of the city, the news swept the city once again.

Originally, the land acquisition by Zun Long Real Estate last night had caused quite a stir.

Now, the number one and number two real estate companies in the city are making their bids one after another.

Smart people could see at a glance that they were all trying to lift Chen Dong's Dingtai at the tip of the storm.

Those who originally planned to withdraw from the property, there was no shortage of people who hesitated.

The fact that the first and second real estate properties were acquired at the same time means that there is still the possibility of development in the west of the city, and the price of housing may not collapse, so if you don't withdraw your house, in the future, if the west of the city develops, your house will also be able to earn.

Of course, more people still haven't changed their minds about withdrawing from their homes.

You're kidding!

Even the first and second largest real estate companies in the city combined are not as good as Yike.

Yike is the leader of the whole industry!

With Yike shelving its project, in the minds of these determined retreaters, property prices in the west of the city are bound to plummet, even back to the original average price.

None of the city's real estate companies could save the city.

Nor could they lift up Din Tai!

Even in this avalanche, Din Tai will go bankrupt and collapse, and their houses will rot, so what's the point of not retreating now?

A public opinion has been building up over the past two days, as if it were a wave, one wave over another.

Some people even suspected that Din Tai's promise to withdraw was just a delaying tactic to take advantage of the opportunity to run away!

This made people on tenterhooks, and once again there was a siege of the Din Tai building.

This time, however, Chen Dong did not equivocate and directly notified a special person to persuade the good people to leave.

He was able to simply agree to check out.

But it didn't mean he was a soft touch, able to be bullied and squeezed at will in times of distress and distress!

In the blink of an eye, it was the day Chen Dong and the home buyers had agreed upon.

The sales centres of the four pre-sale properties were repaired in three days' time, in a flurry of fire.

Early in the morning, there were already long queues in front of each of the sales centres.

It was an unprecedented event!

It was even hotter than the previous situation when three properties were pre-sold at the same time!

Such a grand situation naturally led to media coverage.

"This gentleman, do you really want to opt out of the property?"

A female reporter with a camera randomly interviewed a person in the queue for a refund.

"No refund to stay for the New Year?"

The female reporter smiled and continued to ask, "What prompted your firm withdrawal? It is reported that the city's two properties have been successively acquired in the west of the city, the price of housing"

Not waiting for the female reporter to finish, the man being interviewed said excitedly, "Those two properties can be compared to Yike? Are you kidding me? Without Yike, the house prices in the west of the city are bound to collapse, the owner of Din Tai is willing to back out, why wouldn't we?"

The female reporter was a bit embarrassed and asked, "This is the first time in the city that such a large number of properties have been withdrawn, and this may lead to the bankruptcy and collapse of Dingtai."

The man sneered, "What does it matter to me if Din Tai closes down? He dies, I live, as long as I still have my money!"

At that very moment.

At the front of the line, someone shouted, "The sales centre is open!"

In an instant, the originally well-organised queue was instantly scattered, a swarm of birds and beasts pressing towards the sales centre.

The female reporter grabbed the man and tried to interview him, but the man brutally shook the female reporter off.

"Are you guys annoyed? I'm still in a hurry to check out, get out of my way!"

The female reporter stumbled and fell to the ground, her arm rubbing off a piece of skin and dripping with blood.

And the retreaters around her, while crowding towards the sales centre, accused the female reporter.

"I say, you're a girl doll, why are you so in the way? Get out of the way, get out of the way!"

"Interviews are interviews, and you're holding things up, you deserve to fall."

.....

Early in the morning, all the media in the city had their guns set up in front of the four pre-sale properties of Dingtai.

The scale was even bigger than when Longting Garden was pre-sold!

The contrast between before and after gave people the impression that the river was going down and the building was about to collapse.

All of a sudden, everyone was talking about Dingtai.

Ridicule, ridicule, abuse and slander abounded.

In the midst of such a tsunami, property prices in the western part of the city plummeted by another 20% on that day alone!

At the behest of Chen Dong, Din Tai returned the original purchase price to all buyers, and even paid the taxes on the purchase!

Such a move, in the eyes of everyone, was extremely stupid!

Even Zhou Zunlong and Zhou Yanqiu were shocked and dumbfounded when they found out about all this.

Had Chen Dong really gone mad?

Dingtai Company.

Xiao Ma looked at the data sent from the four major properties, his heart was dripping blood, his hands were trembling and his face was white: "Brother Dong, the funds on our company's books are flying out the door."

"Oh, it's fine, I'll transfer the money to the company."

Chen Dong's gaze was deep and despondent as he took out his mobile phone and transferred one billion from his Bauhinia bank card to the company's account.

Even if he lost money, he had to endure it!

One billion, he could afford to lose!

Time, that was the key that mattered to him now!

The retreat, which lasted until 8pm.

Din Tai Company, was in a state of desolation.

All the employees were listless and downcast.

At this moment, the sky was really falling!

With the previous advances and this massive withdrawal, if Chen Dong hadn't poured a billion into the company, Dingtai wouldn't have been able to hold on!

In the office.

With tears in his eyes, Xiao Ma said, "Dong, Brother Dong, in one day, the houses that were pre-sold out, refunded seventy percent!"

"It's okay!"

Chen Dong stretched: "Tomorrow if someone wants to refund, continue to refund, anyway I still have a few hundred million."

Xiao Ma wanted to say something but stopped, forcing the tears in his eyes not to fall.

Was this just a refund?

This was pushing Din Tai to its death fast!

And at a price that was even worse than when Din Tai chose to go bankrupt when it signed the sky-high contract!

"Everyone has been busy all day, let's all go home and rest first."

Chen Dong was exhausted and his eyes were bloodshot, "Xiao Ma help me tell everyone that Ding Tai may collapse, but I, Chen Dong, will never be negative to everyone."

.....

Four Seals Clubhouse.

Gu Qingying hung her head and swiped through the videos, all about the tidal wave of Din Tai check-outs.

The whole internet was talking about it and sneering all over the place.

Her eyes were red with anger, and she wanted to contact Chen Dong.

But in the past few days, she knew that Chen Dong was more anxious and anxious than she was, and at this time, silently paying attention was the greatest comfort to Chen Dong, and asking one more question herself was adding to Chen Dong's stress.

The video of a female journalist being pushed down was among the various videos that were watched, and at the bottom of the video there were comments about Dingtai checking out of more than 70% of its rooms in just one day.

The company's main focus is on the development of a new product, which is a new product.

He's been thinking about these home buyers for a long time, but have they ever thought about him?

Knock, knock!

A knock sounded on the door.

"Little Ying, can Daddy come in?" Gu Guohua's voice rang out.

"Mm." Gu Qingying forced herself to resist the urge to cry and answered.

The door opened and Gu Guohua walked in with a smile on his face, "Little Ying, do you want to hear a good news?"

Winner Takes All Chapter 137-138

Chapter 137

The night went on without a word.

Early the following morning, long queues once again formed in front of Din Tai's four sales centres.

The media, who had already been waiting, had even set up their long guns early.

The exit crisis at Din Tai was attracting the attention of the whole city.

This was big news that couldn't be missed by half!

Inside the Longting Garden sales centre, a group of Din Tai employees looked sadly at the long queue outside.

They could even foresee that the last 30% of the purchasers left yesterday would also be checking out today.

Thinking back to the previous day when Longting Garden was sold out, all of them could not hide their sadness and loss.

After today, Din Tai will not only be knocked back to its original form, but will also completely fall into the abyss of ten thousand feet!

"Hey, when are you guys going to open?"

Before it was even time to go to work, the people in the queue were impatiently urging.

“People are already here, what are you still dawdling about? You Din Tai aren’t going to back out, are you?”

“Mr. Chen of Din Tai promised to give us a refund, and now he still won’t do it?”

“Media friends, film this, expose the crimes of Din Tai, they are not going to give us a refund.”

Faced with a crowd of waiting returnees, the media reporters burst into bitter laughter.

What is this?

It wasn’t time to go to work and people’s staff had come to do preparatory work in advance.

How come they are not checking out?

At the front of the queue was a big bald man.

When he saw that the staff in the sales centre were unmoved, he became furious.

He quickly stepped forward, threw up his fist and started to smash the door.

Knock knock

“Are you all dry eaters? How long do you want to keep us people waiting? If you don’t want to check out, just say so, and we’ll go straight to the legal process!”

A single word was uttered, which immediately drew all those in line to chant and echo.

Inside the sales centre of Long Ting Garden.

Several sales and staff members were all looking at a young man.

“Chief, what should we do?”

The young man bowed his head and sighed, “Let’s open it up, anyway, Mr. Chen has ordered that all those who are willing to return it should do so, all of our sales at Long Ting have made a large amount of money thanks to Mr. Chen’s blessing, now that Mr. Chen is in such a situation, all we can do is this hard work now.”

The two male salesmen nodded and quickly stepped forward to open the door.

As soon as it was opened, the bald man walked in with an air of dignity and gave the two salesmen a sidelong glance: "Do you really think we are all honest people when we don't give you some heat?"

The words had barely left his mouth.

Behind them, the people who had withdrawn from the sale swarmed in.

There was a lot of noise and pushing and crowding.

The sales centre was instantly like a morning food market.

Soon, the bald man completed the withdrawal procedure and, with the withdrawal contract in hand, he struggled to push his way out of the crowd.

As he walked out of the sales centre, he took a deep breath and said with an excited smile, "Damn, I've saved it, I've finally saved it. It's also that Mr. Chen of Din Tai is stupid, so much stupider than those real estate bosses!"

It was also just when the four major sales centres started to conduct the retreat.

Inside the Din Tai company, it was a miserable scene.

All the employees were listless and depressed.

Some of them were even full of bloodshot eyes, obviously having not slept all night.

Xiao Ma, was one of them.

He had been brought up by Chen Dong, and it was because of Chen Dong that he had become what he was today.

Xiao Ma's feelings for Dingtai and Chen Dong were very strong.

But now, with such a big crisis at Din Tai, his level of grief was perhaps only a little lower than Chen Dong's.

Taking a deep breath, Xiao Ma walked into Chen Dong's office.

What Xiao Ma didn't expect was that Chen Dong was sitting in front of the computer as he did yesterday looking at the real-time feedback data, no sorrow, no joy, no ripples in the ancient well.

"Dong" Xiao Ma shouted in a low voice, "you can talk to me, always carrying alone, it's not good for your health."

Obviously, Xiao Ma did not think that Chen Dong was still as he was before, having already had a plan, which was why he was acting like he was on cloud nine.

What he was showing now was just to stabilise the army's heart, suppressing all by himself.

“There is still ten percent left.”

Chen Dong pointed at the computer screen and smiled bitterly.

Xiao Ma said firmly, “It's alright Brother Dong, big deal, let's rise again in the east, I'm still with you!”

“What are you talking about?” Chen Dong raised his eyebrows and pointed to the chair next to him, “Sit there and play with your phone yourself.”

Xiao Ma looked bewildered.

This was a big change of heart from Dong's repression, right?

This kind of example is not unheard of, after people have repressed to the limit, their state of mind is likely to change.

To put it in layman's terms, it was a case of breaking the jar.

But after being glared at by Chen Dong, he still obediently sat aside, took out his phone and swiped up the news.

The more he watched, the deeper the frown on Xiao Ma's face, the more indignant he became.

Without exception, all of them were related to Dingtai!

Not only the local media, but also the national social media such as Weibo, had all featured Dingtai.

There were mockers, ridiculers, gloaters, and even people who called Dingtai's boss a fool.

As he refreshed the news, Xiao Ma gritted his teeth.

Suddenly.

The phone refreshed the news once again.

Xiao Ma's body shook violently and his eyes instantly widened to the limit!

On the phone screen, among the new news that came out, there was a news item that was topped and floating in red.

“Qing Ying International Group has released an official announcement that Chairman Gu Guohua, mindful of his hometown, wants to invest in the western part of the city!”

This, this couldn't be right?

Xiao Ma's face changed greatly and his heart was beating wildly.

Qing Ying International, that's a big international company!

If it wasn't for the fact that the news headline directly mentioned the name of the chairman of ClearShadow International, Xiao Ma even suspected that this ClearShadow International was not the ClearShadow International he knew!

In his excitement, Xiao Ma quickly clicked on the news.

The light in his eyes flashed as he quickly browsed through the news content.

The more he read, the brighter the light in his eyes became, and his breathing became more and more rapid, his face flushed red.

Even at the end, his body started to tremble.

“Xiao Ma, what happened to you?” Chen Dong noticed Xiao Ma's abnormality and asked with a frown.

Clang!

Xiao Ma's body trembled and his phone fell to the ground.

But he did not care to pick up the phone, but stood up with a start.

Excited and ecstatic, he said, “Dong, Brother Dong we, our company is saved!”

Saved?

Chen Dong was puzzled, now the Chen family's side had not yet come out with results.

He was all desperately trying to stall for time.

How could Dingtai be saved?

Seeing Chen Dong's confusion, Xiao Ma hurriedly picked up his mobile phone and ran to Chen Dong in excitement.

“Look, it’s Qing Ying International them, they intend to invest in the west of the city! And it’s still the same as when Yike announced its move in, it’s to build a large CBD commercial complex, the price of our west of the city is stable!”

Because of too much excitement, Xiao Ma’s voice was trembling and stuttering.

Boom!

Chen Dong was struck by lightning.

In a flash the brain went blank.

Qing Ying International, that was a super company!

But when he saw the name of the chairman on the news headline, his face instantly became complicated and odd.

This seems to be eating soft food again, huh?

Chapter 138

Clearshot International, that is a big international company.

It was also engaged in international trade and big infrastructure projects.

But Chen Dong had never thought that Gu Qingying’s boss was actually the chairman of Qingying International!

Moreover, he did not think that Gu Guohua had really decided to invest because he was mindful of his hometown, as the news had said.

If Gu Guohua could keep Yingli Building Materials, he was already thinking of his feelings.

If he really wanted to invest in the city, with the volume of Qingying International, what would he have done long ago?

The city is full of good locations, with the energy of ClearShadow International, if they wanted to invest, what locations in the city could they not pick?

Why would he pick the western part of the city, which has just started to undergo redevelopment?

This is clearly a deliberate attempt to boost his Dingtai!

What Yike had failed to do, it had done directly.

Moreover, Qingying International could definitely lift up Chengxi.

“It’s stable, we’re stable now!”

Xiao Ma couldn’t restrain himself and laughed like a madman: “Brother Dong, I, I’ll go out and tell the guys!”

Not long after Xiao Ma rushed out, cheers rang out from outside the office.

No one doubted that Qing Ying International could hold the west side of the city steady.

And the way things were going, as long as we could stabilise the property prices in the western part of the city, Din Tai would be able to hit glory again!

Listening to the deafening cheers, Chen Dong’s face was complicated and odd, wanting to smile, but a little unable to do so.

With his character, he had never liked to rely on women.

But this time

Chen Dong smiled as if he was relieved, the stone in his heart settled and rubbed his nose: “This soft rice really smells good.”

With the news release of Qing Ying International, it was placed on top and floated red.

Within a short period of time, it set off a big storm in the whole city.

It was as if a nuclear bomb had smashed the city.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

No one expected that Qing Ying International would suddenly announce its investment in the west of the city!

Moreover, it was a project that had been shelved by Yike.

Everyone knew that the property prices in the western part of the city would not plummet!

With the energy of Qing Ying International, even Yike could not match it.

After all, one is playing internationally and the other is just a domestic leader.

The difference is clear to see!

And those home buyers who were still celebrating the success of the withdrawal in their front feet were bombarded by this heavy bombshell, their brains buzzed and they couldn't come back to their senses for half a day.

After the departure of Yike, here comes Qingying International, are all these big companies so good at playing?

The house price will not fall, then the withdrawal contract in hand?

For a while, the buyers who had successfully withdrawn from their homes were all repentant, beating their chests.

Some of those who reacted quickly even went back to the sales centres, only to find that the four sales centres of Dingtai were already locked.

In fact, at the time the news broke.

In fact, at the time the news broke, there were still about 10% of the purchasers at the four sales centres combined who had not gone through the withdrawal procedures.

And when the news broke, all the remaining withdrawals were immediately dispersed in a heartbeat.

Even those who were in the process of withdrawing from their homes forcibly tore up their contracts and turned around and left.

Those who did not complete the withdrawal process were secretly delighted.

They knew clearly that once Clear Shadows International moved in, the house in their hands was not destined to drop in price, and they had earned what they should have earned!

After sending the last customer away, all four sales centres closed their doors and went out of business.

This made those who wanted to buy back their houses, but had no way to do so, so they had to beat their chests and cry out in regret.

In just one morning.

The arrival of Qingying International was like a big earthquake, pulling the hearts of people all over the city to tremble viciously.

And all the public opinion, from the previous slander of the west side of the city, has once again evolved into touting a good view.

This, coupled with the fact that the news media squatted at the four major sales centres in the morning and released the video of the home buyers who didn't back out of their homes cheering at the end, made the public opinion bullish on the west side of the city even more intense.

Zun Long Real Estate.

The assistant excitedly pushed open Zhou Zun Long's office door.

"Mr Zhou, it's gone up, our company's share price has gone up!"

Zhou Zun Long had a complicated expression and did not show too much shock.

At this moment, he suddenly had some clarity on what Elder Long had said when he came to him earlier.

He waved his hand and let his assistant go out.

Zhou Zun Long rubbed his face, smiled bitterly in despondency and murmured, "The same breath, I am really tied to Chen Dong ah fate this kind of thing, really make people inscrutable oh."

On the other hand, inside the huge office.

Zhou Yanqiu face sullenly staring at the computer screen, not moving.

But his fluttering eyes showed the ups and downs of his heart at this time.

On the computer was the news of ClearShadow International moving into the west of the city.

With his sense of smell, he naturally understood what this meant.

Half a day.

Zhou Yanqiu picked up his cigar and slowly lit it, but after taking a puff, he felt the incomparable bitterness of the smoke in his mouth.

He put down the cigar smoke and murmured in a deep voice, "Gone is Yike, come is Qingying International, it really is the gods coming down to earth, a Chen family, a Qingying International, Chen Dong ah Chen Dong how many gods are standing behind this true dragon of yours?"

The city is a small place, how can you be such a real dragon? What exactly is the origin of the Chen family and you? I took land in the west of the city to lift you at a time of crisis, will you erase that last incident because of this land?"

A series of questions made Zhou Yanqiu's expression more and more despondent.

Once Chen Dong was just the vice president of a small real estate company under him, and that was the place where he gave his wife's brother a pension.

How could he have ever imagined that Chen Dong would give him surprise after surprise?

Or scares!

Several families are happy and several are sad.

A news story that swept the city.

It made the whole city shake.

In the afternoon, the voice of public opinion became more and more violent.

Some people had even started to be certain that the property prices in the west of the city would rise again.

Such claims made those who had successfully withdrawn from the property want to die, and some even went straight to the Dingtai Company, intending to buy back the property immediately.

But Chen Dong had let the company go on holiday early.

He let Xiao Ma take the company's staff to have a good relaxation.

In these two short days, everyone at Din Tai was someone who had followed him on a trip through hell!

Now that Qing Ying International had entered the market and Din Tai had come back from the dead, it was time for everyone to celebrate.

As for himself, he went to the Four Seals Club alone.

Soft food was good, but thanks were due.

If Gu Guohua hadn't helped him out at this critical moment, he really wasn't sure that he would have been able to last until his father and Old Lady Chen had split the difference.

When he saw Gu Qingying, Chen Dong gave Gu Qingying a direct and fierce hug.

He knew clearly that it was Gu Qingying's fault!

After having a meal with Gu Qingying and Gu Guohua's couple to express his gratitude, Chen Dong left, he still had to arrange the follow-up plan for Dingtai.

The incident had happened so suddenly that he had not prepared what he should have prepared, but he was sure that he would solemnly host a banquet to thank Gu Guohua.

The couple didn't find anything wrong with this.

By the time Chen Dong left, night had fallen.

Gu Guohua and his wife looked at Gu Qingying, who was all smiles, and smiled along with them.

"This girl, we've finally seen a smile for once in the past two days." Li Wanqing said heartily.

Gu Guohua nodded: "Alas women are too big to stay, ah, to talk about a boyfriend and come up and spend billions on dad."

Hearing this, Gu Qingying smiled happily and gave her parents a hug: "Thank you mum and dad, I love you guys the most."

Gu Guohua and his family laughed out loud.

"I'm going to check the news." Gu Guohua got up and walked towards the computer.

He would watch the news every morning and evening to keep up with international current affairs.

But when he clicked on the webpage, his body shook violently and his face changed abruptly.

At the same time.

Another heavy bombshell, like a meteorite falling to the ground.

It appeared silently but with enough momentum to shake the heavens and earth, bombarding the city once again.

Winner Takes All Chapter 139-140

Chapter 139

When Chen Dong returned home.

The family was already in a joyous mood.

Everyone had smiles on their faces.

Fan Lu and her mother had even set up a large table of food, as well as wine, clearly to celebrate.

“You all know about it?”

The reason why Chen Dong had rushed back was partly to plan the follow-up to Din Tai, and partly to report the joy to his family.

“The whole city has been sensational, it’s been known for a long time.”

Li Lan smiled and urged, “This time, you are too blessed to have survived from a desperate situation, Dong’er, don’t just stand there, go wash your hands.”

“Yes, yes, young master, madam and Xiao Lu have been busy all afternoon.” Kunlun urged.

Chen Dong had just eaten dinner, but in the face of his family’s joy, he didn’t refuse and smiled as he walked into the kitchen, washed his hands, and the family sat down together in a joyful manner.

Long Lao was the first to lift his cup and said with a smile, “Double happiness, when congratulations!”

Everyone was about to clink their glasses when Chen Dong raised his eyebrows, “Double happiness? What other happy events? Not celebrating the fact that my company has been saved and ClearShadow International has come in to help me stabilise the property prices?”

Li Lan and the others glanced at each other and laughed oddly.

Immediately after, Elder Long put down his wine cup and got up, “Young master, come with old slave, let me show you another joy.”

Chen Dong followed Elder Long to the living room in suspicion.

From the beginning to the end, Elder Long had an odd smile on his face.

Elder Long picked up the remote control and turned on the television.

At this moment, it was exactly the time for the city’s evening news.

It was already coming to an end.

As a news item played, a loud “boom” sounded in Chen Dong’s head.

“Yike Group has officially announced that it will restart its previous investment plan in the city, and the site will remain in the west of the city.”

A very short news item, not even a detailed description.

Just a few seconds!

But it did not affect the explosive nature of the news in any way.

Even Chen Dong was shocked for a few seconds before his mind gradually came to a clearer state.

He looked at Elder Long incredulously, “Won?”

“Master won.” Elder Long nodded with a smile, “Old slave only learned of it this afternoon as well.”

Boom!

Chen Dong was struck by lightning, his heart beating wildly.

His face was red and he was even gasping for air, his neck thick.

Even for a man of his nature, his heart was in turmoil at this moment, and it was difficult for him to remain calm.

At a time of crisis, Din Tai was languishing and the building was about to fall.

Qing Ying International entered the game to help stabilise the property prices.

Now Yike Group has once again bombarded the city with a heavy bomb and re-entered the game.

Chen Dong knew better than anyone what this meant!

One is an international giant and the other is a domestic leader.

The two powerhouses are stationed in the west of the city at the same time, and house prices are going to explode!

For Chen Dong, the arrival of Qing Ying International was what made him and Din Tai climb out of hell.

And now that Yike has moved in again, it is allowing him and Din Tai to fly to heaven!

“Celebrate, we must celebrate!”

Chen Dong's eyes were red, the pressure he had endured over the past two days was incomparably huge.

The feeling of being powerless and having to passively wait for death or rebirth had even left him breathless.

Now, double happiness was on the horizon.

It made his entire being raise his eyebrows and relax.

"Hahahaha must be celebrated!" Elder Long laughed and quickly returned to the dining table with Chen Dong.

The family celebrated happily.

After three rounds of wine, the dishes passed five tastes.

Chen Dong was already drunk, and if his mother hadn't discouraged him, he would have had the urge to continue drinking to celebrate.

It was a big change today.

Li Lan and Fan Lu were busy clearing away the dishes.

Chen Dong, however, swayed and walked up to the terrace with Elder Long Kunlun.

"Elder Long and Kunlun, you know what? These two days, I'm even ready to fall into hell."

Chen Dong was lying on a chair, blowing the night breeze and laughing freely, "I didn't expect it, the heavens didn't kill me Chen Dong, double happiness, so that I am still qualified to compete with those Chen Family elites and see who is the final king!"

Both Elder Long and Kunlun were laughing, and the two of them had also drunk quite a lot of wine.

Blowing in the night breeze, the drunkenness intensified.

"Young Master, what's the relationship between Qing Ying International and you?" Elder Long suddenly asked.

Ordinary people didn't know, but he was clear as day.

A large international company that suddenly announced an investment in the city, just for the Chairman's hometown love?

That was pure bullshit!

Qing Ying International was running to help Dingtai!

Chen Dong gave a heated smile and said with drunken eyes, "Soft rice really smells good."

"Gu Qingying?" Elder Long was startled, then shook his head with a smile, "Shame, shame old slave never thought this woman's family history would be so illustrious!"

.....

It was also while the three Chen Dong were blowing off steam on the terrace.

As the evening news ended, a storm swept across the city once again.

The whole city was in an earthquake!

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Who would have thought that Yike, which had announced that it would shelve the project, would turn around and make a comeback and move into the city's west side again?

What the hell is this big company playing at?

After the shock, everyone reacted to a fact.

Property prices in the west of the city are about to skyrocket again!

In just two days, from a flurry of withdrawals and everyone singing their praises, they are now soaring like a rocket!

No one bothered to look deeper into why the two super companies had moved into the west of the city.

Everyone's attention is on the west side of the city.

It's a place that is now encrusted with gold!

In the eyes of the most active speculators, the west side of the city has become a gold rush.

If you can grab a suite, you can make a huge profit.

And now that the west side of the city is in the hands of Din Tai, Din Tai has the most property resources in the west side of the city.

The whole city is ready to rush to the west of the city at dawn.

The buyers who were still rejoicing at the success of their withdrawal, had two bolt from the blue in just one day, making them feel that the sky had collapsed.

All they could hear was remorse, anguish, slapping themselves in the face and crying out to the heavens.

The remaining nearly 10% who did not check out were laughing and celebrating with champagne.

It was a night of joy for some and sorrow for others across the city.

There was no shortage of wails of pain coming from some of the neighbourhoods.

Neighbours in the neighbourhood knew that those were the voices of those who had withdrawn from their homes.

The Wang family.

But there were sad clouds.

The television was on.

Wang De had his head down, smoking a cigarette, the jar in front of him already full of cigarette butts and a few remnants of smoke.

Zhang Xiuzhi sat dumbfounded and coiled on the sofa, her face turning blue and red as her mouth kept murmuring.

“Why? Why? Shouldn’t Chen Dong be bankrupt and lose money to suicide? Why did he manage to turn over again? Damn it simply damn it”

After the two families watched the news, their minds could not be calmed down for a long time.

In fact, the family has been depressed for the past few days since the Wang family’s accident.

And this emotion was naturally blamed on Chen Dong by Zhang Xiuzhi.

But apart from blaming and cursing, they could not even enter the gate of the villa area where Chen Dong lived.

When she found out that the whole city had checked out, Zhang Xiuzhi felt that she had finally gotten her revenge and was so excited that she opened a bottle of wine at home to celebrate fiercely.

She could even imagine that Chen Dong would end up jumping to his death at a loss, which made her incredibly happy.

But in the blink of an eye, Chen Dong had turned over a new leaf!

Not only had he turned over, he would become even richer than before.

This made Zhang Xiuzhi's heart twist like a knife and her resentment was unbearable.

Squeak

The door opened and Wang Hao came back.

Seeing his parents' sad clouds, Wang Hao didn't dare to ask more questions, but swept the house and said, "Mom and Dad, where is my sister?"

"That dead girl, she's taking a bath again!"

Zhang Xiuzhi, who could not calm her anger, suddenly got up and walked towards the bathroom.

The sudden scene caused Wang De and Wang Hao's faces to change dramatically.

The two wanted to stop them, but they could no longer do so.

Bang!

Zhang Xiuzhi kicked open the bathroom door, rushed in and grabbed Wang Nan Nan's hair in a big slap ruthlessly towards Wang Nan Nan's face.

"You money-losing bitch, what are you washing for? Don't you want to pay for the water? Look at what you've done. Chen Dong is so capable and rich, why did you divorce him in the first place? Why did you divorce him in the first place?"

As she screamed, Wang Nan Nan's bawling voice echoed in the bathroom.

Chapter 140

"Zhang Xiuzhi, let go of my daughter!"

Wang De was furious and threw away his cigarette and rushed into the bathroom.

Slap!

A slap ruthlessly smacked Zhang Xiuzhi on the face, angrily saying, "What has become of the family? If it wasn't for you, the family would be like this? Nan Nan is already like this, how can you be a mother and still do it?"

The sudden scene made Zhang Xiuzhi and Wang Hao outside all confused.

All along, Wang De had been an honest and tolerant image of weakness.

"What are you yelling at me for?" Zhang Xiuzhi froze for a moment and covered her face and suddenly cried out in a shrill voice.

"You're still yelling? Do you believe I'll beat you to death today?" Wang De raised his hand and was about to hit, scaring Zhang Xiuzhi into shrinking her neck.

Wang Hao saw that the situation was not right and hurried to persuade the fight: "Dad, how can you hit mum?"

"She's about to beat your sister to death, and I can't help?"

Wang De's eyes were red and he turned his head to stare angrily.

Wang Hao swallowed with a gulp and hurriedly pulled Zhang Xiuzhi back into the room.

Wang De looked at Wang Nan Nan on the floor, his eyes were red and shining with tears.

Wang Nan Nan's body on the floor was curled into a ball, her face full of red handprints, yet she still had vacant eyes and kept scrubbing her body.

Her mouth also muttered one after another, "Dirty dirty"

This scene made Wang De's heart twist like a knife.

With a poof!

He knelt down on the ground and cried, "What kind of sins have been created here? Nan Nan It's dad who's sorry for you."

Wang Nan Nan's delicate body trembled and suddenly stopped.

The next second.

"Dad"

Wang Nan Nan jumped into Wang De's arms and howled.

Father and daughter embraced each other and sobbed as Wang De kept apologizing and kept patting Wang Nan Nan's back to soothe her.

.....

When the first rays of sunlight enveloped the earth in the early morning.

Chen Dong, who woke up from his sleep, was drenched in joy, the transformation of the day had given him a feeling of rejuvenation.

He finished his devil training with Kunlun early in the morning.

After washing up, he hoofed it to the company.

Din Tai Company.

Everyone was red-faced and beaming with bright smiles.

At this hour, there was still a full hour before the start of work.

But everyone had arrived at work early.

Even Xiao Ma and a few of the company's mid-levels had immediately arrived at the company as soon as it was light.

"Did you guys see the news last night? Gosh, I thought I was hallucinating at the time!"

"It's so unexpected that Yike has re-announced its move in again, there are people in my neighbourhood who previously purchased properties in our west of the city, and they cried and howled all night last night."

"With two major companies, Qingying International and Yike, moving in at the same time, the property prices in the west of the city will definitely rise against the wind, even higher than before."

.....

The group of employees discussed enthusiastically.

Xiao Ma was the only one, sitting on the sidelines, pondering.

He was the earliest to come to the company, and after the evening news came out last night, he had stayed up all night in excitement.

But now, he was half-tired.

In his mind, as if on a slideshow, he kept recalling the events of the past two days.

Eventually, it settled on Chen Dong.

“Brother Dong didn’t show the slightest bit of panic from the beginning to the end, could it be that he knew about it a long time ago?”

The moment this thought appeared, Xiao Ma’s pupils instantly tightened and his heart beat wildly.

Could this be a big game Dong was playing?

The more he thought about it, the more Xiao Ma strengthened the horrible thought in his heart.

He was brought up by Chen Dong, and has been following Chen Dong’s work since he joined the company, and knows Chen Dong best.

If Chen Dong hadn’t planned ahead, then why had Chen Dong been acting so calmly and unperturbed during these two days?

After thinking about it, Xiao Ma looked at his colleagues who were enthusiastically discussing it, and a smug smile suddenly appeared at the corner of his mouth.

Sure enough, I’m the only one in the whole company who knows Dong best!

You are all still curious about the reasons why Yike and Qingying International entered the game, but you don’t know that Brother Dong has already planned all this!

One step, three calculations, and a good plan, as expected of Brother Dong!

At this moment, the image of Chen Dong in Xiao Ma’s mind rose in a straight line, glorious and magnificent.

He didn’t think about why Chen Dong had hooked up with Yike and Qingying International, this was not something he should think about as an employee, what he thought about was that he must follow Chen Dong steadfastly!

When Chen Dong rushed to the company and looked at each and every one of the employees with red faces, he instantly also smiled heartily.

Clap

The sound of clapping hands drew everyone’s attention.

“President Chen!”

The employees shouted in unison.

Chen Dong raised his eyebrows and smiled: “You know what happened last night, right? What to do today, just all act!”

The staff laughed out loud, and then went to work with great enthusiasm.

Meanwhile.

After a night of fermentation, the whole city was almost on the brink of madness.

It was even crazier than when Yike first announced its move in.

In everyone’s eyes, the west side of the city was a gold mine.

Wouldn’t it be foolish not to buy a house?

Before dawn, long queues had once again formed at the four sales centres under Din Tai.

Just like yesterday and the day before, everyone was furious and their eyes were red.

The only difference was that before it was all withdrawals, but now it was all house snatchers!

Overnight, hearts have changed!

However, what threw everyone for a loop was this.

When the sales centres opened their doors.

The four major sales centres, without exception, had put up a sign.

“Daily limit of fifty units!”

Boom!

All those who were ready to grab a house had a feeling of thunder and lightning from a clear sky.

In front of Long Ting Garden, the bald man looked at the sign with a sad face and gritted his teeth, “Why should there be a limit on purchases? Why do you have to restrict purchases? I’ve even bought a house from you before!”

“Sir, but you returned it before. If you returned the house, you will have to buy it again now, and if you buy it again, you will have to follow the purchase restriction.”

The sales manager’s tone was calm, but unconsciously his back straightened up, stretched his hands and said helplessly, “After all, there are too many withdrawal procedures accepted by our company in these two days, and it’s too late to process them, so the restriction is to clear up all the procedures as soon as possible, and in doing so, it’s also to provide better services to everyone.”

Bald man: “.....”

Snap!

He slapped himself hard.

Din Tai Company.

Xiao Ma walked into the office with some consternation, “Brother Dong, do you really want to introduce a restriction on purchases? I’m afraid public opinion will be very big if we do that!”

“Then let him be big.”

Chen Dong smiled faintly: “Remember one sentence, what should be lost should be lost and what should be earned, I can bear the burden when withdrawing from the house if I want to, but I have to earn what should be earned when purchasing a house, yesterday you abandoned it, today you are crying and crying, this is called taking the blame for yourself!”

The pony looked stunned and nodded in silence.

When Xiao Ma walked out of the office.

Chen Dong lowered his head and continued his work.

Nowadays, the property prices in the west of the city were rising instead of falling under the impetus of Yike and Qingying International, and this was an east wind for him!

An east wind that would give him the backbone to not be easily choked!

Only, the phone suddenly rang.

It was an unfamiliar number.

Chen Dong frowned and tapped the hang-up button.

But the number immediately called again.

He had no choice but to pick up the phone.

“You still like to hang up on me.”

On the phone, a bitter laugh rang out.

Chen Dong’s frown tightened and he was silent.

Immediately after, the voice on the phone rang out, “Can we meet one last time? Twelve noon, Blue Siren Western Restaurant, I’m leaving the city.”

The corners of Chen Dong’s eyes danced a little.

Blue Siren Western Restaurant That was the restaurant he had gone to on his first date with Wang Nan Nan back then.
