

Winner Takes All Chapter 1341-1350

Chapter 1341

Under the warm sun.

Inside the Shura Prison Field.

Chen Dong was still surrounded by Qi energy, but without any warning, he put his long sword up in front of him and closed his eyes.

This scene was unbelievable.

When it fell into Li Danggu's eyes, it even directly made Li Danggu dumbfounded.

What the hell was this guy doing?

Facing Gu Cang Yue, the strength was not even on the same level, and still closed his eyes relative to each other, looking for death?

"Has given up the dying struggle?"

Li Danggui muttered, but then shook his head and discarded the idea, and then snorted, "Should be knowingly unbeatable, deliberately trying to fight for luck, right?"

"Heh"

A smile pulled up on Gu Cang Yue's vicissitudes and cold face, just along with the centipede-like scars that pulled at his face, making this smile of his incomparably seeping.

"Chen Dong, fighting with your eyes closed is a death sentence for you, you have not yet reached the point where your ears can hear all directions and your mind can be viewed!"

The laughter echoed.

Gu Cangyue, however, was confident with his chest.

However, Chen Dong's response caused the smile on Gu Cang Yue's face to disappear abruptly, replaced by a lion-like fury.

Chen Dong closed his eyes, his face expressionless, and slowly spoke.

"I, Chen Dong, do not need to explain my actions to you, one battle will determine life and death, come and fight!"

The tone of his voice was calm and unruffled.

But the words were arrogant to the extreme!

“Berserker!”

Gu Cangyue narrowed his eyes, his Qi surging, and bowed his body slightly, as if he was a pale wolf hunting for prey in the grassland.

The next second.

Buzz!

The astral wind whistled and struck the heavens.

Gu Cangyue’s figure swayed violently and disappeared in place.

Pieces of remnants dragged behind him, and with the momentum of lightning, he charged directly towards Chen Dong with a silver needle in his hand.

“It’s over!”

Looking at this scene, Li Danggui calmed down.

All the stifled grievances would dissipate in the next blow.

His original intention was to kill Chen Dong, whether it was his own strike or Gu Cangyue’s, as long as his objective was achieved, it would be enough.

However.

Clang!

A cluster of sparks suddenly exploded.

Just as Gu Cangyue rushed to Chen Dong’s close proximity, she diagonally stabbed a needle straight into Chen Dong’s temple.

Chen Dong, who was motionless, suddenly shifted his Ice Spirit Longsword sideways.

It was only a slight shift, but it blocked the silver needle with unerring accuracy!

Qi energy raged.

Gu Cangyue was suddenly shocked.

Not far away, Li Dangui's body even trembled violently, exclaiming out of breath, "Damn, this is impossible!"

He had not directly fought with Gu Cangyue, but from the battle between Chen Dong and Gu Cangyue, he could tell that the difference in their strength was so vast that it was comparable to clouds and mud.

On the contrary, Chen Dong, who had his eyes open, could not block Gu Cangyue's attack and was slashed by silver needles all over his body.

At this moment, Chen Dong, who had closed his eyes and discarded one of his senses, was able to lightly block Gu Cang Yue's attack?

How the hell could this be possible?

Bang!

The moment the silver needles came into contact with the icy longsword, Chen Dong's qi force swept onto the icy longsword.

The fierce and harsh sword qi boomed, directly shaking back Gu Cangyue.

After Gu Cangyue landed on the ground, he still could not hide his shock.

"At your age, there is no way you could have reached this level, it is absolutely impossible!"

Chen Dong withdrew his sword and continued to hold it upright in front of him, his face expressionless as he stood with his eyes closed.

"Whether it is possible or not, we will know in one battle, mother-in-law, why don't you come and take my life?"

With a single word, Gu Cang Yue's face instantly tumbled with anger.

No more words were spoken.

With a shake of his body, Gu Cang Yue once again rushed towards Chen Dong.

Qi whistled and his body was like a swimming dragon.

After the experience she had just had, Gu Cangyue became much more careful this time.

Instead of going straight ahead, he moved from side to side, blurring Chen Dong's hearing with the whistling of Qi energy.

At a level like his, his combat experience and talent were unparalleled in the world.

During a martial artist's battle, when one sense was lost, the remaining sensory abilities could indeed be substantially enhanced.

In this way, it was indeed possible for Chen Dong to catch up to his speed with his ears alone.

But only if the martial artist had specially conducted special training during the day!

He did not believe that Chen Dong could really listen to all directions and observe his mind. With Chen Dong's age, martial arts experience and talent, it was impossible for him to have entered into this kind of "biased" training at an early stage.

"It must have happened! Even if you have training in this area, it is impossible for you to avoid it every time, messing up your hearing, I'll see how you can still tell?"

This was the thought in Gu Cang Yue's mind.

Those who had the same thought as him were also Li Danggui!

At Li Danggui's age, he was already proud of himself for being able to perceive "Qi" in the martial arts.

A genius had the pride and arrogance of a genius.

But when he faced Chen Dong, his pride and arrogance were shattered with a bang!

Even Li Danggui did not believe that Chen Dong's martial strength had soared to such a sensational level at such a young age!

Boom, boom, boom

As Gu Cangyue moved around like a wandering dragon, majestic Qi energy whistled and echoed around Chen Dong.

Gu Cang Yue clearly saw that the frown on Chen Dong's frontless face was tightly knitted, revealing a look of strain.

This instantly made Gu Cangyue's heart and soul lift.

The next second.

Gu Cangyue moved across once, and took advantage of the moment when the whistling of Qi around her had not yet been broken, and directly stabbed a silver needle at Chen Dong's throat.

However.

Clang!

Just as the silver needle was about to reach Chen Dong's throat, the Ice Spirit Longsword shifted slightly sideways once again, blocking Gu Cangyue's silver needle with unerring precision.

Sparks erupted.

Sword Qi stirred.

Gu Cang Yue drew back and flew back, shocked beyond words, his features even twisted a little from the shock.

"This this"

Li Danggu was completely dumbfounded, his lips were mumbling, but he could not spit out a complete sentence.

Once is a coincidence!

What about twice?

How is this guy so demonic?

Gu Cang Yue landed steadily, looking at Chen Dong with eyes full of shock and complexity.

Only as soon as he landed.

Chen Dong's cold and indifferent voice followed.

"If you want to take my life, then hurry up, don't try one move after another, show the aura you had just now!"

The indifferent voice, however, seemed like countless sharp needles, instantly stirring Gu Cangyue's nerves.

Humiliation!

A strange shame!

What right did a junior with a far different age have to speak with such a tone?

"Hehe, no wonder that girl Dragonfly always has a strange feeling towards you."

Gu Cang Yue pulled up the corner of his mouth and smiled fiercely, but in his heart he added.

A whirlwind.

The strong wind howled and his body was like a swimming dragon.

This time, Gu Cang Yue no longer tried, but strongly suppressed her shock, holding silver needles in her hand and sweeping her qi, a stormy attack, directly towards Chen Dong.

Clang clang clang

Sparks burst out, sword qi stirred.

No matter how Gu Cang Yue attacked, Chen Dong, who held his sword with his eyes closed, could always resist with his sword in a godlike posture.

This scene left Li Danggu dumbfounded and speechless.

In his line of sight, Chen Dong stood still, lofty, his Ice Spirit Longsword in his hand only moving within a tiny range.

The strength of Gu Cang Yue, who was already at an advantage, was now charging left and right, like a jumping clown, attacking Chen Dong like crazy.

But every attack was easily defeated by Chen Dong, who remained motionless.

If this scene were put into the world martial arts world, it would be enough to shock the world martial arts world in one battle!

In contrast to Li Danggui, the party in question, Gu Cang Yue, has even more tremendous waves in his heart at this moment.

The stormy attacks seemed to hit the air time and time again, and this feeling made him, who was originally confident, hesitant and horrified, and his mind was in turmoil.

“Impossible, you’re so young, you can’t possibly have achieved this level!”

“If a demon like you were to emerge from the world’s martial dao, the martial dao would flourish and restore the glory of the martial dao in the long history!”

“This Chen Dong, just how much weight has been put on him by those two madmen?”

.....

The more he fought, the more frightened he became.

Gu Cang Yue's entire being was in a state of annoyance.

In the midst of the fierce battle.

Chen Dong's expressionless face, however, suddenly emerged with a sneer.

"Do you know that after not moving like a mountain, you are moving like a thunderbolt?"

Chapter 1342

Hmm?!

Gu Cang Yue's expression was solemn, his eyes suddenly somewhat scornful.

Not moving like a mountain

In an instant, Gu Cang Yue was enlightened and snapped out of it.

"Good boy, relying on defence instead of attack to bridge the speed gap between us, good one, not moving like a mountain!"

As Chen Dong's sneer rang out, Gu Cangyue, who had originally attacked but could not, was instantly clear in his thoughts.

His speed was originally crushing to Chen Dong.

The two were not on the same level of strength at all.

The previous fight had also proven that.

After Chen Dong changed his fighting style, he was able to make up for the speed difference.

A seemingly weak change, even in a high-intensity fight, almost a death-defying change, but it was able to bring death to life!

His speed was indeed terrifying, but after Chen Dong stationed himself in place, he did not have to pursue speed at all, and simply sought all his strength to fend off his attacks.

The trajectory of movement and distance travelled was greatly shortened and used to make up for the gap in speed.

It was as if the trajectory of his movement, Gu Cang Yue, was a circle drawn with Chen Dong at its centre, dashing left and right inside the circle, waiting for an opportunity to move.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, was like a point, simply raising his hand and waving his sword.

As fast as he was, it was nowhere near as fast as Chen Dong raising his hand and waving his sword!

Gu Cangyue's brows knitted together as he stared at Chen Dong's tightly closed eyes in confusion.

Changing his combat style could indeed make up for the speed gap, but how could this be explained when his ears were listening to all directions and his mind was watching?

The mind that had just calmed down rippled again as it gazed towards Chen Dong's tightly closed eyes.

"Changing the way he fought, responding to all changes with immobility, bridging the gap in speed, and then drastically closing the gap between the two sides by discarding his vision and enhancing his ears, is this really a fighting style that he was able to contemplate in such a short period of time at his age?"

Gu Cangyue's heartbeat banged faster, and at this moment, the look in Chen Dong's eyes completely changed.

No longer disdainful and contemptuous as before, instead, there were a few more moments of gravity, and even fear!

As a member of the Gu family, the first time he came out of customs, Chen Dong's intelligence information was presented to him.

A person who had reached his present achievements in the martial arts in just over a year's time, crowned the top of the ancient world, not just the number one in the current young generation, but also definitely ranked among the top in the entire long history of the martial arts.

It was only after this battle with Chen Dong that Gu Cangyue realised how much he had underestimated this young man in front of him!

When he thought of the disdain and contempt he had previously held for Chen Dong, Gu Cang Yue even felt ridiculous himself.

Being able to find a way to cope so quickly in a situation of absolute weakness, greatly narrowing the gap between the two sides.

This combat instinct was so terrifying that it sent chills down one's back!

"Continue!"

Chen Dong, who held his sword in both hands and stood with his eyes closed, spoke slowly.

His tone was as calm as a puddle of stagnant water, with no ripples.

At this moment, Chen Dong, who was dressed in a blood-stained suit and standing motionless, was surrounded by qi energy, but he gave people a majestic feeling as thick and heavy as a mountain.

"Good."

Gu Cangyue looked solemn, not daring to be the least bit underestimated or careless: "Let me see where your limits are in the face of death!"

Boom!

A majestic qi energy instantly emanated from Gu Cangyue's body, like a waterfall rolling backwards and rushing up to the sky.

The originally clear sky was suddenly darkened as Gu Cangyue's Qi surged into the sky.

The wind howled and wreaked havoc in all directions, and the stone slabs on the ground where Gu Cangyue was standing cracked under the raging Qi, spreading out in all directions.

This scene was incomparably shocking.

Even the Zhuge family and the Qin family, who had killed each other, were shocked by this huge movement and came to an abrupt halt at the same time.

"Mr. Chen"

In the crowd, Zhuge Qing, who was covered in blood, looked at Chen Dong who was not far away with a terrified expression, "Must, be alright!"

On the other side, Li Danggui was ecstatic as he met Gu Cang Yue's qi astral wind.

"Full strength, the full strength of the Gu family's Cang Yue, Chen Dong you will surely die today even if you are a heavenly god descending to earth!"

The words have not yet fallen.

The momentum of Gu Cang Yue brazenly lifted up the astral wind that covered the sky, and his body turned into several streaks of shadow, like a ghost, directly pouncing on Chen Dong.

Chen Dong's calm face trembled as the astral wind blew on it.

In an instant, the fearful killing intent that emanated from Gu Cang Yue's body enveloped his body, causing him to stiffen and fall into an ice cave.

But his eyes, they still did not open!

"The fish has taken the bait!"

Chen Dong thought in his mind, and the corners of his mouth could not help but once again sketch a quirky smile.

Suddenly.

A strong wind whistled from the slant.

Chen Dong's eyebrows trembled lightly and he instantly moved his Ice Spirit Longsword across.

Clang!

Sparks erupted and sword qi stirred out, directly shaking Gu Cang Yue back.

"Are you faster, or am I faster!"

Gu Cang Yue's expression was solemn, his body was filled with a stern and majestic killing intent, no longer pausing, when his blow was shaken back, he immediately reversed his direction and attacked again to kill.

Clang clang clang

The wind raged and sparks burst.

In the face of Gu Cang Yue's attack, Chen Dong did not move, only holding his sword with both hands, gently swinging it out again and again, cleansing it all with an antelope hanging from the corner of his head in an exquisite gesture.

The seemingly dangerous game of certain death had, at this moment, strangely fallen into a stalemate.

This scene made Li Danggu in the distance look pale, like a lump in his throat.

Every now and then, when his gaze fell on Chen Dong, he became even more terrified, as if he was facing the evil spirits of hell directly.

His fighting instincts, did they have no upper limit?

“Faster, faster, Chen Dong will die if he doesn't!”

Amidst the fierce wind and rain of attacks, Gu Cang Yue blasted out in a stern voice.

With Chen Dong as the centre, as Gu Cang Yue's attack, majestic Qi swept, as if forming a tornado, sweeping up into the sky.

Gu Cang Yue kept changing his stance, immediately retreating when he missed a blow, and then picking his angle again to continue his attack.

“Soon, we'll find it soon, everyone's battles have their own patterns and habits, there is never a trace-free battle in this world!”

Chen Dong stood tall and indifferent, parrying Gu Cang Yue's attacks time and again, seemingly calm and composed, but his mind was spinning rapidly.

“You don't need to make too many moves to kill someone, one move, one move is enough!”

Quietly, a fine bead of sweat seeped out from Chen Dong's forehead.

Just at that moment.

The wind behind him suddenly rose up, and the biting wind seemed like countless sharp knives, tearing at his back.

In an instant, Chen Dong's eyes fiercely opened, and his sharp aura burst out, his killing intent blazing.

“I've got you!”

In a flash of lightning, Chen Dong's Qi energy blasted and coalesced his feet, and his entire body was like a cannonball, and without turning around, he shot directly towards his back.

“This is

At the same time, the face of Gu Cang Yue, who was right behind Chen Dong, changed greatly.

He looked in shock at the back of Chen Dong who was shooting radically, his heart suddenly palpitating at this moment.

It was just that with the distance between the two, plus the fact that he had simply not expected Chen Dong, who had been as motionless as a mountain, to suddenly surge up just now.

At this moment, it was too late for him to dodge!

“Lunatic!”

Almost simultaneously.

Li Danggui’s explosive roar exploded over the Qin family.

Under the warm sun, Chen Dong, who had shot behind him, brazenly raised his Ice Spirit Longsword and aimed it at his left shoulder blade without the slightest hesitation.

Poof!

Fresh blood flew into the air.

The Ice Spirit Longsword pierced straight through Chen Dong’s left shoulder blade, bringing blood with it and revealing itself behind him.

The next instant.

Bang!

Chen Dong’s back struck Gu Cangyue’s predecessor, while the Ice Spirit Longsword that pierced through his left shoulder blade also unerringly penetrated into the middle of Gu Cangyue’s chest cavity

Winner Takes All Chapter 1343-1344

Chapter 1343

Bang Teen!

The tremendous impact caused Chen Dong and Gu Cang Yue to instantly lose their balance and fall to the ground at the same time.

After landing on the ground, Chen Dong gritted his teeth and directly pulled the Ice Spirit Longsword out of his body, bringing up a large amount of blood.

At the same time, he rolled on the ground and pulled away from Gu Cangyue.

The blow just now had only severely injured Gu Cangyue, far from killing him in one blow.

If he didn't pull away as soon as possible, with a strength of Gu Cangyue's level, even a momentary breath would be enough to turn the situation around!

After stabilising his stance, Chen Dong held his sword in his left hand, but his right hand was pressed tightly against his left shoulder blade.

Just now, his left shoulder blade had been wounded by Gu Cangyue's silver needle, and now he had received another sword, adding to the wound, the tearing pain was so severe that his entire left hand was nearly paralysed.

The blood was raging and wetting his back.

Even though Chen Dong tried his best to press it down, the blood still flowed out from his fingers.

Chen Dong stood in place, sucking in cold air backwards under his breath, forcing himself to endure the immense pain in his left shoulder blade, his gaze burning as he stared at Gu Cang Yue who was kneeling on the ground, the corners of his mouth curled up into a fierce smile.

"Unfortunately, a little more deflection would have been nice!"

Time and again, he had passed against Gu Cang Yue's attacks just to find a little bit of a pattern in the dense trajectory of the attacks.

After entering the martial path, Chen Dong had gradually figured out some subtleties as well.

The way a martial artist attacked was largely determined by his own character and habits, such subtleties were hard for ordinary people to notice, and even the martial artist himself would find it difficult to detect.

The danger of life and death just now also came to Chen Dong with a fierce thought of enlightenment.

This is like a person who is used to using his left hand or his right hand.

Only when comparing the two, a martial artist's attack trajectory was obviously more complicated and varied.

But even if the trajectory became more varied, it would eventually carry some of the martial artist's own personal habits, and after a few times, one could always figure it out!

And this was the key to Chen Dong's turnaround!

It was a pity that his luck was not so good after all, and he could not really kill Gu Cangyue with a single blow!

Under the warm sun.

It was as if the pause button had been pressed on the empty space where Chen Dong and Gu Cangyue were, so different from the surrounding Shura Slaughterhouse that it was like two worlds.

Gu Cang Yue knelt on the ground, motionless, but his right hand was pressing down on the wound on his chest cavity.

Blood was flowing everywhere.

The pain was so great that it entered the marrow of his bones, causing Gu Cangyue to look agonised, and his mouth kept sucking in cold air.

But compared to the immense pain in the wound, Gu Cangyue's heart hurt even more, so much that it dripped blood!

His eyes, at this moment, were even more furious as if they were about to turn into substantial flames and spit out.

With a lifetime of combat experience, he had never experienced such a scene before him!

One kneeling and one standing revealed which of the two had been more seriously injured by the sword just now!

He had been in a great position, crushed by the wind, but was directly overturned by Chen Dong's incredible sword.

At the same time, Gu Cangyue's heart was shocked, and doubts lingered in his mind.

In the distance, Li Danggui was completely dumbfounded at this moment.

His mind was blank, slowly raising his hand and rubbing his eyes fiercely, the scene he had just witnessed gave him a sense of unreality as if he had been dreaming.

"How the hell did he do that?"

Li Danggu murmured incredulously.

Looking at Gu Cang Yue who was kneeling on the ground, the scarlet red on his chest seemed like a heavy hammer, ruthlessly blasting his eyeballs.

The eyes gradually moved and landed on Chen Dong's body.

The moment the fierce smile at the corner of Chen Dong's mouth fell into Li Danggu's eyes, Li Danggu's body trembled violently, and in an instant, he had the feeling that his body was emptied of strength and his limbs were powerless.

This smile was like a nightmare to Li Danggui!

The disparity in strength was so great that Chen Dong had indeed performed spectacularly enough, but from the beginning to the end, Li Danggui did not even think that Chen Dong had the possibility of turning the tables!

In his eyes, Chen Dong was just struggling for his life in the previous fight.

But the situation was overturned by Chen Dong with an incredible sword!

If he had not witnessed it with his own eyes, Li Danggu would never have dared to imagine that there was such a way to overturn a martial arts battle in the world.

The doubts involved made him wonder.

But what frightened him even more was Chen Dong's ruthlessness!

A man who could, in an instant, draw his sword and stab himself without hesitation, in order to seek to exchange damage for his opponent, such a man was too terrifying!

After a short stalemate of a few seconds.

The ancient Cang Yue on the ground finally stood up slowly, his chest muscles squirming, forcing the blood flow to a minimum.

This would reduce the damage drastically, as well as allow him to have a longer fighting time.

"Wounding a thousand enemies and damaging yourself eight hundred, just this ruthlessness of yours, among the young generation of the world, you should be the leading leader!"

Gu Cangyue smiled gently, not hiding her praise for Chen Dong.

If the two sides did not have different positions and deep hatred, he would not even mind promoting the young man in front of him.

This was an incomparable seedling, and it would be difficult for him not to become a great weapon in the future!

The thought of killing Chen Dong had become an obsession in Gu Cang Yue's mind as the words were spoken, not to mention the thought of stalling for time.

If Chen Dong was in his own camp, he would be a pillar of the future.

But if it is in the opposing camp, the future will certainly be a big problem!

Chen Dong's gaze tightly gazed at Gu Cang Yue's chest.

The wound that was bleeding just a moment ago, as Gu Cang Yue controlled the muscles to wriggle and squeeze, froze to reduce the blood loss to an extremely weak level.

A martial artist controlling his muscles was indeed too powerful!

Chen Dong couldn't help but feel a sense of emotion in his heart, but his gaze cast a sidelong glance at the injury on his left shoulder blade.

He had clearly reduced his self-damage as much as possible, and even the angle of his stabbing sword had sought to go directly into the position where he had been injured by Gu Cangyue before.

On the contrary, just because he couldn't control the muscles of his left shoulder blade, it caused the extent of his injury and Gu Cangyue's to not actually pull apart by much!

"I'm curious as to how exactly you managed to do all this, but I'm not going to be curious about a dead man going on."

While Gu Cang Yue spat out cold and harsh words from his mouth, his Qi energy was once again sweeping around his body, drumming up a cloth coat that rattled.

The majestic killing intent was like a mountain and a prison.

At this moment, he even had the feeling that Gu Cang Yue's figure was rising up.

A huge oppression, a majestic killing intent.

It was as if it was a gloom above the vault of the sky, deadly suppressing.

Bang!

The clothes on the upper half of Gu Cang Yue's body exploded in response to the sound, and the gnarled muscles all graved up at this moment, as if they were built like rocks, the muscles that were not overly rugged, but contained an explosive power that was unimaginable.

“Hoo

Chen Dong exhaled heavily, his right hand took the Ice Spirit Longsword from his numb left hand and stood ready.

However.

A strange change occurred abruptly!

Whoosh!

In the direction of the diagonal stab, a sudden wind whistled.

There was no warning.

A leaf shot into the air, carrying a thin Qi energy, and directly penetrated Gu Cangyue's surrounding Qi energy.

Time seemed to be slowed down at this moment.

Both Chen Dong and Gu Cangyue were stunned by the leaf that suddenly shot out.

In their line of sight, the bright green leaf slowly swept between them, clearly an ordinary leaf, but as it swept past them, both of their attention was only on this leaf.

Bang!

The leaf sank directly into a landscaped tree on the slant, like a golden stone, straight and straight, and only after the wood chips had flung out did the leaf hang limply down.

No sooner had Chen Dong snapped out of his shocked trance than he did.

“A leaf is blind, can't see Mt. Tai?!”

Gu Cangyue, whose qi was originally tumbling and whose killing intent was majestic, but her expression changed drastically and she fiercely exclaimed.

A whirlwind.

Under Chen Dong's puzzled gaze, Gu Cang Yue turned around abruptly and looked in a panicked manner in the direction from which the leaves had just shot out, scolding in a stern voice.

“You, how did you manage to shed out?”

Chapter 1344

Who?

Chen Dong looked in shock in the direction from which the leaves were shooting.

Even after exhausting his eyesight, he could find nothing.

When he thought back to the time when the leaf had just swept past his eyes, the feeling of being completely and utterly captivated by the concentration made his scalp tingle when he recalled it now.

Just a simple, ordinary leaf was what instantly plunged him and Gu Cang Yue into a state as if they were blindfolded.

How terrifying must the darkness be?

“All a leaf blinded, you show yourself!”

Gu Cang Yue hissed and shouted, his face unconcealed panic, his eyes even more full of scruples.

At this moment, he was a different person from just now!

“Show yourself, hiding in the shadows and attacking, what kind of skill is that?”

“You want to protect him, don’t you? As long as you stand out, I, Gu Cang Yue, will sell you this face today!”

.....

The voice was shouting and shouting like a madman.

The centipede-like scars on his face were twisting and writhing because he was so excited, showing his hideousness.

Chen Dong’s jaw dropped as he watched.

Although Gu Cang Yue was hissing, his face and eyes were showing naked panic and scare.

Who was that person in the dark?

The Gu Family was an ancient martial arts clan, and with Gu Cang Yue's strength, he was definitely one of the best among the Gu Family.

From the time Gu Cang Yue appeared to Fang just now, he had displayed a powerful posture, as if everything was in the palm of his hand with a lookout aura.

After the appearance of a single leaf, the state of affairs changed with a bang.

Not only was Chen Dong confused.

Even Li Danggui was dumbfounded and confused at this moment.

"Senior, senior, it's important to kill Chen Dong!"

Li Danggui could not help but remind loudly.

As soon as the words left his mouth.

Gu Cangyue, who was hissing, suddenly gazed sternly at Li Danggui.

With just one glance, it scared Li Danggui into staggering back a step, not daring to say more.

Immediately.

Gu Cangyue shouted in the direction where the leaves had just shot from, "Come out, you rat who attacked from behind, don't you dare to show yourself?"

The Qin family was large.

Apart from the sounds of the Zhuge family and the Qin family killing each other and screaming and wailing, no one responded to Gu Cangyue at all.

Gu Cangyue stopped where she was, trembling all over, not knowing whether she was angry or frightened.

Even in the process, Chen Dong clearly saw that the bleeding rate of Gu Cangyue's chest injury had become larger.

Obviously it was caused by Gu Cang Yue's negligence in controlling his muscles!

Suddenly.

Gu Cang Yue suddenly turned around, looking like a madman and staring at Chen Dong with murderous intent.

Chen Dong's gaze froze as he scornfully gripped the Ice Spirit Longsword in his hand.

Facing Gu Cangyue at this moment, he had the same feeling as when he had faced the Snowy Lion in the Xiongnu Beast Cage.

Such an existence, whose mind was in such a state of chaos, could be a disaster once it flared up!

However.

"Good, very good! Even if you don't come out, I, Gu Cangyue, will sell you this face and let Chen Dong go today!"

Gu Cang Yue suddenly opened his voice and roared in righteousness.

Chen Dong: "? 0?"

Li Danggu: "???"

What the hell does want to be ashamed of?

The first thing that happened was that Chen Dong didn't wait for Chen Dong to react, but Gu Cang Yue looked cold and walked towards Li Danggui with big steps.

From the beginning to the end, there was not even the slightest expression of discomfort or embarrassment on her face, not even a blush!

Chen Dong stared dumbfounded at Gu Cang Yue's back, the straightness of his back, his majestic appearance, as if he was a victorious man!

"Li Clan boy, come with me!"

Gu Cangyue walked up to Li Danggui, his face not red and his breath not panting, and said in a stern voice.

"Seniors, seniors"

Li Danggui was dumbfounded, raising his finger to point at Gu Cang Yue and then towards Chen Dong, but he was somewhat speechless.

Pop!

Gu Cangyue landed one hand on Li Danggu's shoulder with great force, and Li Danggu even directly screamed out miserably.

“If you are told to leave, you will leave, for the sake of that person, I have to let Chen Dong go today no matter what I say!”

While saying that, Gu Cang Yue brutally dragged Li Danggui towards the outside of the Qin family, “You brat also come with me, don’t wait here to die!”

The abrupt scene came without warning.

The transformation before and after caused Chen Dong to be a bit overwhelmed.

It was only when Gu Cangyue dragged Li Danggu past him and shouted at him that he snapped back to his senses.

Gu Cangyue stared at Chen Dong with a stern gaze, “Chen Dong, today someone is protecting you, so I will let you go, next time you will die!”

Chen Dong was silent, standing in place.

At this moment, his mind was still a muddle, he did not expect the situation to become like this in this instant, because of a leaf.

The terrifying existence of an ancient martial arts clan was shouting at him to fight and kill, and then he changed his face, no, he lost his face!

It would be difficult for anyone else to immediately transform and adapt to this.

After the threatening words, Gu Cang Yue did not stay any longer and dragged Li Danggui outside.

Chen Dong slowly raised his eyes to look in the direction where the leaves were shooting from, but there was nothing but the pavilions and the blue sky.

But he knew clearly that in that direction, somewhere, there was a figure standing, watching intently.

Just now, with a leaf, he had saved him from the hands of Gu Cang Yue!

After gazing at it for a few seconds, Chen Dong looked solemn and respectfully bowed in that direction with a fist and a salute of thanks.

As he rose once more, he raised his hand and rubbed his eyes, blinking hard to squeeze out the tears in his eyes, and murmured, “Squinting and forcing your eyes to pretend to be closed for a long time is really tiring.”

.....

Outside the Qin family.

After tugging Li Danggui out of the Qin family, Gu Cang Yue did not stop, but walked directly in large strides towards further away.

There were people from the Zhuge family around, who wanted to come forward to stop them, but were scared back directly by Gu Cangyue's qi and a stern shout.

Gu Cangyue's face was sullen as she tugged Li Danggui, not letting go of his hand even though he was screaming in pain, and walked out of the street at a fast pace.

After stopping a taxi, Gu Cang Yue directly shoved Li Danggui into the car, then got into the car himself and said to the taxi driver, "Go to the airport!"

Everything, it was as if nothing had happened.

However, the blood on Gu Cangyue and Li Danggui's bodies made the taxi driver apprehensive.

Sensing this, Gu Cangyue directly threw a pile of banknotes on the passenger side, "As fast as you can, go to the airport!"

The driver's eyes lit up when he saw the money, and the accelerator went straight to the floor, and the taxi sped up.

Li Danggu squirmed and sat down before asking in an uncertain manner, "Senior, what exactly are you afraid of?"

He was not stupid, and he could see all the changes in Gu Cang Yue's eyes.

It was clear that it was because Gu Cangyue was afraid that she had made such a big change.

But in the dark, what exactly was there?

"Shut up, don't ask more questions!"

Gu Cang Yue reprimanded in a deep voice, with a sidelong glance, glaring at Li Danggui: "If it weren't for the fact that the two Gu and Li families have some friendship, I wouldn't care about you, you floundering bastard, is it possible that a group of old and immortal people from the Li family have been blinded by lard and released you, a sinful animal, to seek death?"

"I"

Li Danggui's face was red, but he was afraid of Gu Cangyue and did not dare to argue.

The world is indeed in chaos, your Li family has always been secluded, it must have been nearly a hundred years since you last came out, right? Back then when the Chen family changed, you guys didn't even bother to ask about it, and that guy, he actually came out too!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 1345-1346

The killings continued until nightfall.

All over the Qin family, blood flowed and corpses were strewn all over the place.

The screams and wails only gradually weakened as night fell.

The majestic Qin family, the number one family in Western Shu in the past.

Today, it collapsed and was completely annihilated.

Outside the Qin family, in all four streets, people from the Zhuge family stood, blocking everything.

Even though the major powers of Western Shu had been spying on the Qin family for a long time, they were still unable to find anything.

Under this tight blockade, the Qin family garden was completely transformed into a meat grinder.

The stars and moon were in the sky.

The Qin family is no longer as brightly lit as it used to be, and the dimly lit manor is hidden in the darkness, as cold and desolate as possible.

In one room.

The light is dim, with only a small lamp glowing.

Qin He-nian, with his hair and face covered in blood, sits dumbly in a chair, as if his soul has left his body, as if he is a walking corpse.

He was the only survivor of the Qin family catastrophe!

It was because of that moment of hesitation when he initially rebelled against Chen Dong that he survived.

Of course, it was only a matter of surviving.

Creak

The door to the room pushed open, and the night breeze was still a little bit harsh in the early spring night.

The night breeze puffed into the room, but Qin Henian remained motionless, his gaze vacant.

It was only when his nose shrugged a little that his originally empty eyes rippled.

The air was thick with the sickening smell of blood.

Zhuge Qing walked in, his face indifferent as he said, "It's all been dealt with, the Zhuge family will take care of the aftermath, you don't need to worry."

Worried?

Qin Henian's eyes rippled and tears came out of his eyes, flowing into two tear tracks.

"It is your fault that the Qin family has come to this point, there is no one else to blame."

Zhuge Qing had his hands behind his back, after the day's killings, he could not afford to make any waves: "Compared to the Zhuge family, your Qin family has a better chance of getting close to Mr Chen. If your family had been loyal and willing to submit after Master Qin killed himself, Western Shu would not have been the Zhuge family's king, but two kings in one place! "

"It is only a pity that you wolves are ambitious and wild dogs dare to compete with the Canglong!"

Qin Henian's body trembled, and his pale lips trembled noisily.

Every word of Zhuge Qing's words seemed like a burning red sharp knife, stabbing Qin Henian fiercely in the heart.

"Mr. Chen should be back soon."

Zhuge Qing closed the door of the room and leaned against the door frame, his hands clasped over his chest, his face indifferent.

He hadn't come to show off anything to Qin Henian.

From the moment the Zhuge Family had attached itself to Chen Dong, they, the Zhuge Family, no longer had to look at anyone's face in Western Shu.

The purpose of his visit was merely to watch over Qin Henian until Chen Dong returned.

The words he said were not meant to show off in the slightest, and even Zhuge Qing felt stifled by the fact that the Qin family had come to this point.

A group of stupid and unaware Qin family members, who clearly had a better choice, did not let go of their unruly and rampant hearts, and completely buried the Qin family.

The sins of God can be forgiven, but the sins of man cannot be lived, let alone the collective sins of the entire Qin family this time!

He waited for about ten minutes.

Outside the door, the sound of hurried footsteps rang out.

Zhuce Qing turned around and opened the door, and when he saw Chen Dong, he respectfully shouted, "Mr. Chen, your injury is nothing serious, right?"

"I've bandaged them up a bit, I'll have to continue some treatment later on, Qin Ye and the others are still in a coma, thanks to your Zhuge family this time!"

Chen Dong said soberly, but his face was a little pale.

After Gu Cangyue and Li Danggui left, he had the Zhuge Family's people send Qin Ye and the three of them to the hospital at the first opportunity.

Now the three were still being resuscitated, and his heart was hanging in the air.

But returning to the Qin family was something that had to be done immediately.

"Have you thoroughly checked around the Qin family?"

Chen Dong inquired.

Zhuce Qing shook his head, "There is no trace of anything, the surveillance equipment has yielded nothing, even I had people carpet search for traces, they all came up empty."

"That's also true, an existence that can block the eyes with a single leaf, if he wants to hide, no one can find him."

Chen Dong laughed to himself, then his gaze went to Qin Henian who was sitting frozen on the ground, weeping silently.

"Do you want to say something?"

Chen Dong walked up to Qin Henian: "The Qin family is still here, you are willing to return to it, and after Qin Ye and the three of them have recuperated, there will be a place for you in the Qin family."

At those words.

Qin Henian's eyes, which were filled with tears, finally glowed a little.

He slowly raised his head, his pale and haggard face, and turned to Chen Dong, his lips mouthing, saying hoarsely, "The family is here, but the people have died!"

"This is your own choice, I have been kind enough to your Qin family."

Chen Dong rubbed his nose, his expression was ancient, without the slightest emotion: "Greed has created the Qin family today with corpses all over the place."

Qin Henian was speechless, and tears were flowing down his face.

How could he not know the whole story?

As Zhuge Qing had said, if only someone from the Qin family had stood up and chosen the right path for the Qin family at the time of the fork in the road, the Qin family would not have been reduced to this state.

He didn't even think of blaming Chen Dong.

If he were to do it instead, he would only do it more desperately than Chen Dong!

He took a deep breath.

Qin Henian bowed his head in despair and said with a deathly intent, "Give me three feet of white silk, the Qin family is dead, I have no face to live on, and I will go down to face the ancestors of the Qin family."

The spirit of despair and death was so strong that it seemed to turn into substance.

As soon as the words were spoken, Zhuge Qing's pupils next to him could not help but contract for a moment.

Chen Dong fell into silence.

Three seconds later.

Chen Dong nodded and turned around, "Zhuge Qing, take the three feet of white silk and send Qin Henian on his way."

“Mhmm.”

Zhuge Qing nodded his head.

He was not a woman's man, the Qin family had committed this heinous disaster, and for Chen Dong to leave Qin Henian alive was already a great kindness.

Qin He-nian was full of death wishing to die, and if he stayed, he would be nothing more than a fearful shell.

“Leave this place to your Zhuge family, in addition, the matter will be sealed off until tomorrow and announced to the public, your Zhuge family will take over for me.”

Chen Dong no longer stopped and walked quickly towards the outside, in the hospital, Qin Ye and the others were still waiting for him.

“Released by us?”

Zhuge Qing was a little confused, but did not pursue the matter.

When Chen Dong arrived at the hospital, Qin Xiao Qian had already been pushed out from the resuscitation room.

And Qin Ye and Zhang Yulan were still being resuscitated.

Distraught, Chen Dong went to see Qin Xiao Qian, who was still sleeping, and did not stay long. He walked to the stairwell, lit a cigarette and sat on the stairs.

The whole hospital was the property of the Zhuge family, and it would be much better to have the Zhuge family arrange it.

But Qin Ye and Zhang Yulan's safety and security had always made him restless.

Everything that had happened during the day had also made his mind busy with thoughts.

“The Pan Gu Plan, what exactly is it?”

Chen Dong murmured with a cigarette in his mouth, rubbed his hair in annoyance and fished out the Pan Gu jade pendant in his trouser pocket, twisting it in his hand to examine it carefully.

Immediately, he took out his mobile phone again and dialled Zheng Junlin's number.

The matter has come to a head, can only speed up the process of exploring the “Pangu Project”, otherwise he has been kept in the dark, will be bound to act in every way

Chapter 1346

“Hey, Brother Dong.”

The phone was quickly answered.

The tone of Zheng Junlin’s voice made Chen Dong’s heart slightly settled.

“Jun Lin, sorry to disturb your rest so late.” Chen Dong said.

“How could I, I am still awake too, busy handling various matters under the Jun Lin Group.”

Zheng Junlin complained, “My father, at the drop of a hat, took his entire family and passed away, leaving behind such a big mess for the Junlin Group, I have to get a handle on it as soon as possible.”

The sound is a complaint, but the calmness in it, but let Chen Dong slightly shocked.

This kid’s tolerance exceeded that of many, many people!

“Please do something for me.”

Chen Dong let out a sigh of relief, he had actually been worried that Zheng Junlin was trapped in the tragedy of the Zheng family’s destruction and had fallen.

“You name it, I’ll arrange it down immediately.”

“Do you still remember the Pan Gu jade pendant?”

Chen Dong slowly said, “I still have a copy of the equity agreement of Pangu Biotechnology Company here, I need you to arrange to go down, regardless of everything, and use the fastest time to probe into where this Pangu Biotechnology Company actually is.”

“In addition, I have checked this company in advance, but after using all my powers, there is no news, this company does not exist at all.”

“Eh, then what am I checking for?”

Zheng Junlin said helplessly.

“The Pangu jade pendant is in your Zheng family, so I guess the Pangu Biotechnology Company, was made by my father and your father, you are in the Zheng family, it is easier to check some traces than me.”

Chen Dong frowned, his eyes deep, "You carefully recall something your father said to you before, or explained something, maybe it's hidden inside."

"Alright then, I'll start pushing for this right now."

Snap!

Hanging up the phone.

Chen Dong crushed out the cigarette at the corner of his mouth, on the ground.

If it was in the past, he would not have been so eager to push forward with the investigation of the "Pangu Jade Pendant" and the "Pangu Biotechnology Company", after all, he had checked at the beginning and found that there was no such company at all, so it was a bit ridiculous to speculate everything based on a jade pendant alone.

However, after the experience of Master Kongkong and what happened today.

Project Pan Gu, he had to use the fastest time possible to figure out what it was!

"Only by figuring out the so-called Pan Gu plan, perhaps will also be able to figure out what secrets are hidden in me."

A low murmuring voice echoed in the stairwell.

Chen Dong's face, however, was sunken and frozen to the point where his gaze was as deep as two black holes.

At the beginning of his father's birthday banquet, Master Khong Khong descended on the Chen family and forcibly demanded three drops of his blood, and later on, Master Khong Khong made an appearance at the Tianmen Mountain Villa, clearly testing for something.

And today during the day, whether it was Li Danggu or Gu Cang Yue.

Although both of them were bent on letting him die, during the process, Chen Dong could actually feel that both of them were intentionally or unintentionally testing something!

This might be the secret hidden in his body!

From the time he was led onto this path of martial arts by Kunlun, his initial rapid ascension could be attributed to having martial arts talent.

But the subsequent rapid rise in realm, even the mind state that was regarded as a great taboo by all martial artists in the long history of the martial dao, such as the Dao Heart Demon, had been suppressed without limit when it came to him.

Is it possible without the secret

Chen Dong had never considered himself a genius, but after stepping onto this path of the martial dao, he began to doubt his own perceptions and doubted himself like never before.

Rubbing a handful of his face, Chen Dong smiled to himself, "I might be considered the genius who had the most miserable childhood, right?"

With that, he got up and returned to the hospital corridor.

In the empty corridor, he could see the resuscitation room at the end.

The scarlet, stinging resuscitation lights were still on.

At the door, there were several doctors waiting, their faces grave, discussing something with each other.

Upon seeing Chen Dong, several doctors immediately surged up.

"Mr. Chen, the situation is very bad!"

Chen Dong's heart sank violently, "Qin Ye or Yu Lan, or both?"

"Zhang Yulan."

The doctor said gruffly, "It's possible that will never wake up!"

Boom!

Chen Dong was struck by lightning, the sky spun, his body staggered, and he propped himself up on the corridor wall with one hand.

His eyes swished red as he gritted his teeth and said, "I can respectfully invite the great doctors of the world to descend here!"

When he first saved Qin Ye, he was able to invite the great doctors of the world.

Now he could do it again, what harm would it do?

When he first arrived at the hospital during the day, he had actually had this thought, but was stopped by the doctor.

“Mr. Chen, it’s not that we deliberately stopped you from inviting the great doctors of the world, the healers are benevolent, and we doctors are no less happy than your relatives when a patient recovers.”

The doctor in front of him wearily pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose and said in a deep voice, “In fact, when I came in the afternoon, it was actually too late, this was something I told Mr. Chen at the time.”

The doctor rubbed his hands together and looked around at his peers.

Several of them all looked gloomy.

The doctor said slowly, “Qin Xiao Qian was the least injured, so she was the first to be released from the rescue room, Qin Ye was the second, and should not be seriously injured, but Zhang Yulan lost too much blood and was injured too badly, so when she was brought in, she was already in her deathbed. It’s also powerless to return to heaven.”

“We have fought for so long, but the only thing we can do is to keep her alive, and if we keep that breath, she may never wake up!

Because they knew of Chen Dong’s relationship with the Zhuge family, the doctors did not hold back when they explained the situation.

Chen Dong leaned against the wall, breathing heavily while his eyes were climbing with blood.

At this moment, he felt as if his chest was stuffed with stones and blocked.

The doctor was explaining the situation, but to him, it was no less than a death sentence!

Qin Ye and Zhang Yulan had come a long way, and were finally about to enter the hall of fame, but now Zhang Yulan had ended up in this situation, how would Qin Ye react when he found out?

Guilt, grief, all sorts of emotions were like sharp knives cutting viciously on Chen Dong’s body.

However.

Just then.

There was a sudden commotion in the resuscitation room where Qin Ye was, a sound of things smashing down, along with the sound of people shouting and screaming.

The sudden scene made Chen Dong and the few doctors all startled.

Chen Dong and the doctors immediately rushed into the resuscitation room.

Bang!

The door of the resuscitation room was ruthlessly slammed open.

Qin Ye, naked, fell to the ground with a poof.

There was still blood on his body, there were still wounds, and even the resuscitation instruments were still left on his body.

But at this moment, it was as if Qin Ye had gone mad, his scarlet eyes containing tears, full of panic and worry.

Even when he fell to the ground, it was as if he didn't know the pain, bracing his hands on the ground and crawling out desperately.

“Yatou, I want to find my yatou

“Qin Ye!”

Chen Dong's heart was like a knife, and he shouted sternly in a deep voice.

Qin Ye's body trembled, looking up at Chen Dong, tears flowed out with a clamor, wailing and praying.

“Brother Dong, save Yatou, save her, I haven't had time to marry her yet

The cries and howls, echoing through the corridor, tore at the heart.

Winner Takes All Chapter 1347-1348

Chapter 1347

The sound of heart-rending cries moved those who heard them.

Several doctors looked gloomy, and some female doctors even turned their heads to wipe their tears.

“Qin Ye, calm down, Yu Lan has to be saved, and you can't be okay!”

Chen Dong's eyes were red and his nostrils were sour as he squatted on the ground, trying to help Qin Ye up.

Looking at Qin Ye's appearance, his heart felt like a knife and his guilt was like a tidal wave.

"Brother Dong, I can die, please you must save Yu Lan, save her!"

Qin Ye cried snotty tears, like a broken child, his hands clutching Chen Dong: "I promised her that I would marry her, that I would put on a wedding dress for her and hold flowers in my hands"

While crying and begging, because of too much excitement, so much so that it made Qin Ye's injuries all over his body collapse again, the crimson stinging blood, halo stained the gauze red.

But this moment of Qin Ye, as if completely unconscious.

Is this really the man who once killed his father?

Chen Dong's red eyes, also covered with blood, Qin Ye's cries were like sharp knives, lingering on his body.

For a moment, he didn't even know how to tell Qin Ye about Zhang Yulan's result.

The truer the love, the deeper the wound.

Zhang Yulan's situation at this time, once Qin Ye knew about it, it was like the sky had collapsed!

When hesitating, Qin Ye's tear-filled eyes suddenly erupted with two brilliant auras, as if he thought of something.

He shook Chen Dong excitedly, as if a dying man had grabbed the last straw to save his life.

"Right, Brother Dong, aren't you able to invite the world's great doctors? When I was seriously injured and dying, it was you who gave the order to invite the world's great doctors and snatched me back from the hands of the King of Hell!"

"Please, Brother Dong, please hire one more time to save Yatou."

As he said that, Qin Ye smashed his head on the ground with force.

At this moment, Qin Ye, where is the half of his original appearance of lights and wine, sound and fame!

Crumbling, crying out, praying, defying everything.

Even if it was dignity!

Looking at the Qin Ye in front of him, Chen Dong's heart was bitter to the extreme.

The same thought, why hadn't he ever surfaced?

But it was too late!

The doctors' words had already "pronounced" the verdict, not to mention the great doctors of the world, even if all the gods and goddesses in heaven were to come down, there was nothing they could do to return to heaven!

"Mr. Chen, Mr. Qin's injury can't be delayed!"

The doctor's reminder sounded behind him.

Chen Dong took a deep breath and rose with abrupt determination.

He picked up Qin Ye with force and swept him directly into his arms, his gaze determined as he said in a deep voice, "Qin Ye, I'm sorry, Yu Lan she won't wake up, all the doctors can do is to save this last breath of hers!"

Boom!

The calm, low voice, in an instant, was like a bolt from the blue, exploding in the corridor.

Chen Dong could clearly feel that the Qin Ye in his arms trembled and her body tensed up quickly.

The next second.

"Ah!"

Qin Ye suddenly roared, his entire body seemed like a beast as he struggled, trying to break free from Chen Dong.

"Let go of me, I want to see Yu Lan, Brother Dong, you lied to me, right? Brother Dong, you are joking with me right?"

No matter how much Qin Ye struggled, Chen Dong did not relax even half a bit: "Qin Ye, no joke, it's all true!"

What was to come would always come, the most urgent task was to get Qin Ye back on the operating table to receive treatment as soon as possible, the quickest way to cut through the chaos, dragging on and covering up would only drag on for longer.

This would not do any good to Zhang Yulan, who had already made a decision, but would do great harm to Qin Ye.

At moments like this, Chen Dong had to make himself ruthless and get Qin Ye back on the operating table as soon as possible.

“Impossible, I don’t believe it, I want to see Yu Lan, Dong let go of me, please let go of me!”

Qin Ye struggled desperately, but he was only an ordinary man, his strength was nothing compared to Chen Dong’s, whose arms were like iron pincers, imprisoning him in a deadly grip.

Faced with Qin Ye’s pleading, Chen Dong ignored it and said sternly to the doctors, “Calm down!”

The doctors standing at the entrance to the operating theatre turned around in a panic to prepare.

Chen Dong, however, was red-eyed, forcing back the soreness in his nostrils and hugging Qin Ye tightly.

Hearing Chen Dong’s words, Qin Ye struggled even more, hissing and wailing as if he were a manic and mad beast.

Blood flowed from his wounds, stinging red and staining Chen Dong’s clothes.

Soon the doctors came running out with the sedation.

“Beast, brother will not harm you!”

Chen Dong spoke in a deep voice, but his right hand directly lifted Qin Ye’s arm up, “You sleep first, I will take care of Yu Lan.”

“No, please don’t let me see her, just one look!”

Qin Ye cried and howled, his arm twisting, but to no avail.

As the sedation hit his body, Qin Ye’s struggle became weaker and weaker.

From beginning to end, Chen Dong did not relax even half a bit.

Until, when Qin Ye was about to pass out.

A weak voice suddenly rang out in Chen Dong’s ears.

“Brother Dong, I want to marry her.”

“Good!”

Chen Dong answered, feeling the Qin Ye in his arms completely limp as tears came to his eyes.

The doctors and nurses gathered around, and Chen Dong finally let go of Qin Ye, stumbling back two steps with feeble footsteps.

Looking at the doctors and nurses carrying Qin Ye back to the operating theatre.

The scene just now surfaced in his mind, as if countless sharp needles were stirring every nerve.

“Li family up poor and down yellow spring, I, Chen Dong, swear to exterminate your whole family!”

A chiseled, ruthless voice emanated from Chen Dong’s mouth and echoed down the corridor.

In an instant, the temperature in the corridor seemed to plummet to the freezing point, piercing the bones to the marrow.

This night, Chen Dong was lost in thought, guarding the door of the resuscitation room.

On the floor, was a pile of cigarette butts.

Qin Ye’s collapse seemed like a nightmare, constantly floating in his mind.

When the light of day dawned.

The red light on the resuscitation room, finally went out.

Chen Dong got up and greeted him, and the doctors and nurses quickly pushed Qin Ye and Zhang Yulan out of the operating theatre.

Both were in a coma, the only difference being that Qin Ye would soon wake up, while Zhang Yulan would never wake up again.

Looking at the unconscious and sleeping Zhang Yulan, Chen Dong’s heart contracted fiercely, suffocating in pain.

The doctors and nurses were all tired, and after a hurried greeting with Chen Dong, they pushed the two into the general ward.

Chen Dong adjusted himself and was about to follow, when in the distance, Zhuge Qing came in a hurry.

“Mr Chen, you haven’t slept all night, why don’t you take a rest?”

Zhuce Qing looked at Chen Dong’s exhausted and haggard face and said in a comforting manner.

Chen Dong waved his hand, “Have you announced the news?”

“It has already been announced.”

Zhuce Qing nodded, “The Western Shu Magnates have completely exploded.”

“Well, from now on, no one will dare to shake your Zhuge Family’s position as the number one powerful family in Western Shu!”

Chen Dong said, and was about to sweep past Zhuge Qing and head towards the ward when his mobile phone rang.

As soon as he saw that it was Chen Daojun’s number, Chen Dong’s eyebrows knitted together.

In a trance, an unprecedented weakness swept through his body.

Could it be that something had happened to the few people from Black Prison as well?

Chapter 1348

Chen Dong wasn’t just thinking blindly.

It was really because the succession of events that had occurred had made his whole person a little bit cupid and snake.

Chen Daojun had always been low-key and mysterious, and would not easily contact him if it was not an important matter.

After taking Kunlun and the others into the Black Prison, the sudden call at this moment made Chen Dong feel apprehensive.

However, Chen Dong still picked up the phone.

“I know about Qin Ye and the others.”

As soon as he was connected, Chen Daojun said straight away.

Chen Dong was not surprised, even though Chen Daogun was in the Black Prison, it was still very easy for a single person to know the news of the outside world when he wanted to oppress the existence of a prison.

To those in the Black Prison, the Black Prison was a prison.

But to Chen Daojun, the Black Prison was a virtual void.

What's more, this time, it was the people from the Gu and Li families who had struck, directly causing the destruction of the Qin family.

Such a sensation could not be considered too big!

But, what Chen Dong did not expect was this.

Chen Daogun's one sentence, however, caused Chen Dong to instantly look gloomy and full of resentment.

Over the phone, Chen Daogun said slowly, "Dong'er, for the time being, do not seek revenge on the Gu and Li families!"

Chen Dong's complexion suddenly turned gloomy to the extreme, as if he was a bloodthirsty beast.

He gritted his teeth and said, "I'm sorry, this is not negotiable, the Gu and Li families deserve blood.

A bitter killing intent was released from Chen Dong's body.

However.

Chen Daogun's next words caused the killing intent on Chen Dong's body to give a sudden pause, and his face was full of astonishment.

Over the phone, Chen Daogun said, "As long as you listen to me, I have a way to make Zhang Yulan wake up sometime in the future!"

Boom!

The calm tone without sorrow or joy was like a terrifying thunderstorm that boomed in Chen Dong's ears.

"You, how is that possible? The doctors they"

Chen Dong was so shocked that his voice stuttered, his eyes were wide open and his eyes were about to fall to the ground.

The words of the doctors last night were still ringing in his ears.

How did Uncle Daojun have a way to revive Zhang Yulan?

“Just because the doctors don’t have a solution doesn’t mean that I, Chen Daojun, don’t have a solution, listen to my words, in the future Zhang Yulan will wake up!”

Chen Daogun’s voice was devoid of sorrow and joy, clearly expounding on something amazing, yet it seemed as if it was plain as day.

Chen Dong was stunned.

After a three-second standoff, he suddenly snorted, “Uncle Daojun, you just want to delay my revenge, right?”

He was not stupid.

Nor did he doubt the medical skills of the doctors in this hospital.

How could Uncle Daojun, who was merely a martial arts madman, have the power to return to heaven for something that even the doctors were clueless about?

“There is no need for me to delay you with deception, if I say there is a way, then there is a way!”

Chen Daogun said in a deep voice, “You are the key to Pan Gu’s plan, before everything is completely clarified, you can’t make any slip-ups, everyone can die, you can’t die!”

It was the fucking Pan Gu plan again!

Anger instantly filled Chen Dong’s chest, as if it was a volcano that wanted to erupt.

Chen Dong said in a stern voice, “The Pan Gu Plan, what exactly is it? My brother, my wife, everyone around me, I don’t want them to be in the slightest bit of danger, but it’s this Pan Gu Plus

“Shut up, when it’s your turn to know, you will naturally know.”

Chen Daogun interrupted Chen Dong with a stern drink, “Go do what you need to do, trillions of assets are given to you, go make him spin up and collect money like crazy, don’t mind the rest!”

Pop!

The phone hung up straight away.

From beginning to end, Chen Daogun's tone did not have much ripple, giving Chen Dong a cold-blooded and brutal feeling.

"The Pan Gu Plan, it's all fucking Pan Gu Plan, and since I'm the key, why the fuck do I not know about the Pan Gu Plan?"

Snap!

Chen Dong's angry voice was accompanied by a fierce slamming of his phone against the wall, breaking it into pieces.

Anger, guilt, resentment all sorts of emotions seemed to engulf Chen Dong like a tidal wave.

He stood in place, trembling all over, ragged gasps coming from his mouth and nose, and his eyes were full of blood.

Chen Dong hated this feeling!

This feeling of deception, of being blinded, of not being able to see everything, yet having to carry the weight forward.

From childhood to adulthood, step by step, Chen Dong had long since washed away his lead and presented himself as a vegetarian, impatience and impulsiveness were not in his vocabulary, but at this moment it was a complete and utter mania.

He could endure it, just as he had endured the darkness of his childhood, but he and his mother had gritted their teeth and endured it step by step, leading to the light.

But what he could not endure was having to go through a little bit of hurt and separation between his relatives and brothers while being kept in the dark.

Qin Ye and Zhang Yulan, how long had it taken to get to this point?

There was suffering, there was drama, there was crying, there was laughter!

They were just one step away from becoming a couple, but now they are in this situation because of the "Pan Gu Project".

As a big brother, he saw it in his eyes and felt the pain in his heart.

The actual fact is, the blood feud is so great that you have to endure it at this moment.

Chen Dong's sudden outburst of anger caused Zhuge Qing's face behind him to change greatly, full of fear and confusion.

The Pan Gu plan, what exactly was it?

Just now, Zhuge Qing had not heard Chen Daojun's voice on the phone, but he had actually heard Chen Dong's words!

While full of doubts, Zhuge Qing's face was filled with fear and confusion.

The Chen Dong in front of him was like a fierce beast in a frenzy, making Zhuge Qing feel timid and cold just by looking at him.

"Mr. Chen"

Zhuce Qing gritted his teeth and slowly spoke as he held back his fear.

"I will go and take care of my brother."

Chen Dong, who was originally manic, was suddenly quiet.

It was just a voice, but it was as if it was squeezed out of his teeth with all his might.

Zhuce Qing could not see Chen Dong's face, but Chen Dong's words caused his heart to bang and beat wildly.

Looking at Chen Dong, who was leaving at a fast pace, Zhuce Qing even felt that even the light of the place Chen Dong passed had become dim.

The feeling of forcibly holding back his killing intent and anger was like substance, making Zhuce Qing's scalp tingle with feelings.

In the sickroom.

Chen Dong dragged his body and pushed the door in.

Looking at Qin Ye, who was still unconscious on the hospital bed with all kinds of instruments inserted, Chen Dong's eyes flushed red and rippled.

Step by step, as if his legs were filled with lead, he walked up to the hospital bed.

There was a poof!

Chen Dong sat down paralyzed on the chair and rubbed his face fiercely, "Beast, when you recover some, I will definitely let you marry Yu Lan in a big way, a wedding that will attract the attention of the world!"

At Uncle Daojun's cold and determined attitude, Chen Dong was furious.

But he had to force himself to endure it.

Blood feud, anger and so on, all had to be endured.

He didn't know what the Pan Gu Project was, but he knew that it was being watched by many people, not just his father and Uncle Daojun, but also by many more powerful forces hiding under the sun.

And his becoming the next head of the Chen family might just be the first step in the Pan Gu Plan!

With such a monstrous plan, it is only at some point in the future that the light will shine through!

Winner Takes All Chapter 1349-1350

Chapter 1349

The former number one family in Western Shu was exterminated overnight.

As the first rays of sunlight fell on the earth and the Zhuge family made the news public, the entire Western Shu region exploded.

Even though some of the giants had already had their suspicions, when the facts were laid out in front of them, it was still a thunderstorm of shock.

After all, what was the Qin family like in the past?

Even though the building was about to tumble and it had lost its prestige as the number one family in Western Shu and was under Chen Dong's command, everyone knew that a thin camel was bigger than a horse.

And this time, overnight, it was uprooted!

As giants of the same powerful family, there was inevitably a sense of fear and shock that the lips were dying and the teeth were cold.

The death of the Qin family continued to fester in Western Shu for three days before it gradually subsided.

Chen Dong, on the other hand, remained in the hospital during these three days, indifferent to the rumours from the outside world.

He asked the Zhuge Family to announce the news in order to help the Zhuge Family establish its majesty as the number one powerful family in Western Shu, so that the rest of the powerful giants would not dare to pick up the Zhuge Family's fronts again.

The situation was too chaotic, and he did not have much time and energy to let the Zhuge family consolidate its prestige in Western Shu little by little.

The Zhuge family's prestige in Western Shu had declined too much over the centuries, and using the former number one family in Western Shu as a stepping stone would allow the family to return to its position as the number one family in Western Shu more quickly.

For him, it was a simple matter of choosing whether to announce the news of the Qin family's extermination himself or the Zhuge family.

But for the Zhuge family, it was a rare "opportunity"!

For three days, Chen Dong did not just stay at the hospital, taking care of Qin Ye, Zhang Yulan and Qin Xiao Qian.

He had promised Qin Ye that he would organise a wedding for Qin Ye and Zhang Yulan that would attract worldwide attention.

During these three days, invitations, like snowflakes, flew out to all parts of the world and were presented to the heads of the families of the world's top powers and powerful families.

Meanwhile.

The snowy plains of the Northern Region.

The extreme night faded, leaving the land covered in silver again.

Cold winds, cold snow.

This has been the only tone in the snowy plains of the North for ages.

The caravan moves on, but the atmosphere is breathtakingly heavy.

From the far north, to the Huns.

It is a long road that would be a difficult challenge for any caravan to face death.

Not to mention the fact that the caravan itself was a collection of old and weak women and children, and even the strong adult men had been wounded in the previous battles.

From time to time, cold bodies had to be dumped inside the caravan during this period.

These were all people who had been unable to withstand the extreme cold weather during the rush and had quietly fallen asleep.

A cruel choice, but the law of survival in the snowy north.

When the last breath is taken, the man is no longer a man, and the corpse becomes a burden that weighs down the caravan.

The only thing that can be achieved is perhaps a brief pause for the caravan.

The only thing that could be done was for the caravan to stop for a few moments and for Master Khong Khong in the caravan to recite a few verses of the scripture of the afterlife.

“All beings suffer, Amitabha Buddha!”

Master Empty Sky slowly let go of his hand, allowing the wind and snow to cover the old man's body in front of him.

Whirling, with a solemn expression, he turned around abruptly and returned to the carriage.

With a call from the chief, the caravan moved again.

“Master, the Huns are ahead!”

The chieftain steered his horse alongside the caravan, and a rare touch of joy appeared on his face, which was covered in frostbite.

In successive rushes, people kept dying, people kept being left behind.

But no one in the caravan ever retorted, let alone objected.

For everyone, the Huns, who had abolished slavery after the destruction of their villages and the deaths of their families, were now the only holy land in the snowy north!

The human world is not a holy land, each has its own suffering, but when it appears, it is worth fighting for with one's life.

“Amitabha Buddha, great goodness, great goodness.”

A warm smile appeared on Master Empty Sky's pale face as he folded his hands and nodded slightly.

The grown men guarding the perimeter of the caravan, on the other hand, had a gloomy and complicated look on their tired faces at the moment.

“Chief, is it really possible to get in?”

A man finally couldn't help but ask: "The Xiongnu king was prince, the new king ascended to the throne, the Xiongnu nation held mourning for 300 days, now the Xiongnu queen although abolished slavery, but I heard from the people of the caravan, Xiongnu is now a windy, foreigners into Xiongnu, it is difficult to move an inch, not to mention" " said, his eyes looked at the carriage on the empty empty master, want to say.

Although their village was remote, it did not mean that information was closed in this great land of the snowy plains in the North.

It was no longer a secret that the Xiongnu had raised their country to change, in the snowy plains of the North.

The chief's face sank and he hesitated for a few seconds before smiling bitterly: "Do we, have a choice? Take our lives and fight for it, or be slaves for eternity?"

The man inquiring was stunned for a moment and gave the same bitter smile.

The men around them, after hearing the chief's words, their gloomy and complicated expressions dissipated, glanced at each other and smiled bitterly at the same time.

"The Wolf will bless us, we just move forward."

The chief raised the battle sword in his hand, "Not a slave!"

Master Empty Sky looked at the crowd and slowly closed his eyes.

His state did not allow him much time for distraction, and most of the time during this rush, he spent with his eyes closed, maintaining his current state as much as possible to keep his injuries from continuing to deteriorate.

As we approached the Huns, the speed of the caravan could not help but increase.

It was while Master Khong Khong was resting his eyes.

The chief called softly, causing Master Khong Khong to open his eyes.

The chief handed a hooded robe to Master Khong Khong.

"Please wrap yourself in this robe, Master, you are about to enter the Huns, and the face of a Master's domainer is too much of a nuisance."

It was no secret what was going on within the Huns in the snowy plains outside the domain.

If the Huns had scruples against foreigners, it was a complete and utter certainty for the domainers now!

Master Khong Khong had been a re-creation of the whole party, and when Master Khong Khong wanted to accompany the caravan, he could not bear to refuse, after all, in those circumstances, with Master Khong Khong's state of health, he might not have survived if he had not cuddled up with them.

Now that they were about to enter the Huns, they had to be prepared in advance.

"What non sequiturs?"

Master Empyrean frowned.

The chief smiled bitterly and did not explain, "Master, please, I have to think of my villagers too."

With a nod of his head, Master Empty Sky wrapped his robe around his body and bowed his head.

With such a movement, his face was barely visible to outsiders.

The caravan moved on quickly, but the crowd was silent.

The wind and snow wailed around them, and the sound of the horses' hooves echoed.

Only, not long into the journey, the ground suddenly rumbled and shook.

The sudden change of events caused an uproar among the crowd.

In the distance, in the icy snow, with the roar of the shaking, but swept up a rolling wave of snow, and vaguely could be seen a vast array of horses coming.

"It's the Hun border guards! Don't make any sudden moves!"

The chief's face changed and he ordered at once.

Almost simultaneously.

Whoosh!

In the distance, an arrow tore through the wind and snow and shot straight towards us.

Vaguely, one could even see a spiral wave of air sweeping up from the front of the arrow.

Bang Teen!

The ordinary arrow violently penetrated the ground in front of the caravan, instantly exploding with a terrifying destructive force, directly lifting the snow around it and forming a huge crater.

“Eh?!”

Master Khong Khong, who was hiding low in his robes, let out a startled cry, his cloudy eyes fiercely blooming with astonishment as he gazed up at the arrow stuck in the ground.

“When did the barbarians from outside the realm become so strong? The man who shoots the arrow has actually stepped on the threshold of enlightening ‘Qi’.”

Chapter 1350

In his astonishment, Master Khong Khong even ignored the vast Xiongnu border guards coming in the distance.

In the path of martial arts, the enlightenment of “Qi” is a watershed in the form of a heavenly rift.

Even if a martial artist’s strength is measured in a comprehensive manner, there are many ways to improve it.

For example, fighting techniques, control of muscles and so on!

But there is still no substitute for “Qi” as a watershed in the martial arts.

A martial artist who can perceive qi is enough to take the world by storm.

The only way to get to the top of the world is to be able to understand it.

A martial artist who could reach the threshold of Qi was already good enough to be the commander of an army!

In the distance, the Xiongnu border guards, though powerful, were not nearly as powerful as an army.

The caravan, now in a state of fear and trepidation, were all staring at the Xiong Nu border guards raging in the distance, and no one noticed Master Kong Kong, who was now looking up and showing his face.

As the army swept in, the snow and wind swept over the land.

“Dare to trespass on my Xiongnu territory, seeking death!”

The general at the front of the army gave a furious rebuke.

The border guards split into two columns and surrounded the caravan in the blink of an eye.

“Kneel down, kneel down now!”

The leader of the caravan looked terrified and immediately ordered.

In an instant, all the men prostrated and knelt down with their heads on the ground.

Even the old and weak women and children on the carriage, under the leader’s scolding, hurriedly got off the carriage and knelt down.

In the panic.

The chief subconsciously glanced at Master Kongkong.

As soon as he saw Master Khong Khong sitting motionlessly, with his head tilted back and his face exposed.

His mind exploded, his eyes went black and the sky spun.

It was over!

In a flash of lightning, the chief gritted his teeth and crept closer to the carriage, trying to alert the dazed Master Khongkong.

But he had just moved a little.

But he had just moved.

A spear, flashing with a cold light, pierced the doorpost of the carriage, just a stone’s throw away from Master Khong Khong’s face!

“A man from the domain?!”

Almost simultaneously, a startled voice, sounded.

It sounded as if it was the sound of a life-seeking Brahma.

The chief’s face was as pale as paper, and his eyes swished red.

Gritting his teeth, he swept guiltily towards the villagers around him and swept his child into his arms.

It was over!

It was all over now!

With the certainty of the Hun nation's attitude towards the domainers these days, he knew exactly what was going to happen to him and the villagers next!

All the extravagant hopes thumped into thin air at this moment.

Even if they had come to surrender in good faith, the presence of Master Khong Khong, an inlander in the caravan, was enough to send everyone to the grave with him!

Despair, fear, guilt

In an instant, it brought tears to the man's eyes.

The crowd of caravan villagers also reacted at this moment, looking as close to the chief as they could get, if not more so.

Some of the old men and women were so frightened that they cried out in pain.

The Hun border guards around them were now also filled with murderous intent, and their ruthless gazes were directed at Master Kong Kong, gnashing their teeth.

"Commander, kill them all!"

"This old monk is from the mainland and has come to Xiongnu with these barbarians, so they must be colluding with each other to spy on Xiongnu!"

"Kill them all, kill them all!"

.....

The soldiers were furious, and the shouts of killing and screaming were deafening.

The caravan of villagers, amidst the ear-splitting shouts, were completely plunged into great fear, howling and crying interspersed with a chorus of shouts and kills.

Master Empty Sky returned to his senses and slowly swept his gaze over the crowd of villagers, his expression becoming compassionate.

"If the poor monk does not enter hell, who will? I will not kill Bo Ren, but if Bo Ren dies because of me, this is a great sin!"

As he murmured, he slowly rose, but his gaze fell on the frosty-faced commander riding a war horse in front of him.

The shot just now, although he was walking away, he felt it even more clearly than the arrow just now.

“Amitabha Buddha, as a commander in chief, yet he has already touched the threshold of Qi, the Lord Commander will have a bright future!”

Ignoring the deafening shouts of murder around him, Master Empty Sky calmly folded his hands and gave a slight nod to the Commander: “I hope you will understand, although I come from the domain, I am a monk in cloth, and I was in trouble in the snowy plains outside the domain. As far as the poor monk is concerned, they are the poor monk’s life-saving benefactors who have come to join the Xiongnu, if they are to be killed, I would ask the Lord Commander to kill the poor monk and spare them.”

“Heh

The corner of the Lord Commander’s mouth pulled up a cold smile of disdain, “Do you take me for a three-year-old child?”

The moment the words left his mouth.

The chief kneeling on the ground cried out in fear and pleaded.

“Lord Commander, we are a village tribe near the extreme north, suffering from the bloodshed of village extermination, I am the leader of a village, hearing that the Hun Queen has abolished slavery, so I have come from far away with the remaining villagers, to join them, please let us go.”

As he spoke, the man wept bitterly, smashing his head heavily on the cold, hard ground again and again.

Just a few times, his forehead cracked and bled.

With the leader leading the way, the villagers also seemed to have grabbed the last straw as if they were about to die, crying out in pain and grabbing the ground with their heads.

However.

The commander on his war horse swept a glance at the crowd, and instead of showing the slightest sympathy, the killing intent surged up on his face.

“Blame it on the fact that there is a man from the domain in your group, this revenge is unforgivable, all of you will be sent to jail!”

As soon as the words left his mouth.

Master Empty Sky suddenly looked solemn.

“I’m sorry!”

An apology was uttered.

Boom!

The robe wrapped around his body instantly exploded, revealing a tattered monk’s robe.

As the qi swept through him, Master Kongkong’s white eyebrows and white beard flew up in the air.

The golden light burst out from the qi, setting off Master Kong Kong’s solemn and majestic appearance.

The sudden scene drew the attention of the whole crowd, which shouted in amazement.

To the chief and the other villagers, who had already witnessed it once before, it did not yet affect them too much.

But to the entire Hun border guards, Master Kong Kong, who was standing tall at that moment, was like a god descending!

Even the commander of the army changed his expression and was lost in thought for a moment.

That was the moment.

Master Empty Sky took a step, his qi sweeping around the soles of his feet, sending out ripples of golden light as lotuses sprang up beneath his feet.

With this step, he actually stepped into the air, a step in the air, directly in front of the Commander’s war horse.

Bang!

As Master Kongkong landed his hand on the war horse’s neck.

The strong war horse let out a miserable hiss and fell to the ground with a bang.

“A qi powerhouse?!”

The commander was instantly shocked, and the moment the war horse fell to the ground, he was slapping his palm on the horse's back, using his strength to rise up in the air.

However.

Not waiting for the Commander to land on the ground.

Master Empty Sky suddenly tilted his head, his eyes faintly glowing with golden light as he looked straight at the Commander in the air.

It was this stare.

The Commander's body instantly stiffened and fear surged out from the bottom of his heart.

It was like facing a god or a Buddha, and a great prison of fear was crushed into his body, causing his mind to go blank and even the thought of resisting to dissipate.

Bang!

Grandmaster Empty Sky slapped his palm against the Commander's chest.

The Commander let out a miserable cry and spurted out a large mouthful of blood.

The next second.

Master Empty Sky moved again and reached behind the Commander, raising his hand and strangling the Commander's throat.

The move was as quick as lightning.

While the crowd was still dumbfounded, Master Kongkong had already captured the Border Guard Commander.

However, no one noticed that when Master Kongkong came around behind the commander, his majestic face was suddenly twisted with pain.

Master Khong Khong forced himself to endure the pain, and with a face as cold as frost, he looked straight at the entire Hun border guards and shouted in a stern voice.

"Let these people go, the poor monk binds his hands and lets you kill them, otherwise your commander dies!"
