

Winner Takes All Chapter 1471-1480

Chapter 1471

Because of the time difference.

So when it's midnight in the domain, it's daytime on the other side of the ocean.

There was a difference between day and night, but there was only one day after all!

Chen Dong was not sure of everything, so he could only hope that Elder Long and Hong would be able to make a miracle happen within this one day's time.

Otherwise

Throughout the night, Chen Dong did not sleep.

Until the light of day dawned.

Chen Dong kept his eyes open and never closed them. He turned his head to look at the gradually brightening white glow outside the window and murmured in a gruff tone, "It's the 18th of May!"

The Gu Qingying beside him gave a cry, like a lazy kitten, wriggling her body, her upturned eyelashes trembling twice, slowly opening her eyes.

"Awake?"

Chen Dong doted on Gu Qingying's high nose: "Be careful, don't squeeze the baby."

"Mmm."

Gu Qingying wrinkled her jasper nose and saw the red blood on Chen Dong's eyes, "You haven't slept all night?"

"Mm."

Chen Dong responded with a smile.

Gu Qingying was a little distressed and slowly sat up, her jade arm crossed and swept Chen Dong into her arms.

"Wife hug, rest for a while."

Chen Dong subconsciously tried to break free, with the lofty mountain-like pressure on his mind, how could he have any semblance of sleepiness?

“This is an order from the wife’s lord, it’s good not to sleep and close your eyes to recuperate.”

Gu Qingying said in a strong tone.

Chen Dong was somewhat helpless, but still closed his eyes.

Gu Qingying gently patted Chen Dong’s shoulder to soothe him to sleep, her eyebrows lowered, and the way she looked at Chen Dong was full of heartache.

She didn’t know what this man was going through and what he had undertaken for this family!

As a wife, pregnant, she could not help, all she could do was to provide this one soft arm.

The whole morning.

Inside the Tianmen Mountain villa, it was all calm and quiet.

With Zhuge Qing and Chu Reed and Jiang Qilin leading the way at Din Tai, it was enough.

What’s more, now that the water is ready, it’s just one final kick in the pants, as long as there are no other changes in the Dingtai Company, it’s enough.

And inside the villa.

Pervasive, Fan Lu and Zhao Bros. were also each busy with their own affairs.

It was until noon.

Only then did Chen Dong and Gu Qingying change their clothes and walk out of the room.

Chen Dong did not fall asleep after all.

He just lay in Gu Qingying’s arms, closing his eyes and faking sleep to recuperate.

When the two of them were helping each other downstairs.

Gu Qingying suddenly asked, “By the way, where did Elder Long go in a hurry last night?”

Chen Dong’s bloodshot eyes twitched, his eyes obscured for a few moments.

He smiled, "It's nothing big, it involves the whole situation, I asked him to help me with some key matters."

Gu Qingying nodded dumbfoundedly and did not pursue the matter further.

After going downstairs.

Fan Lu and Wu Chang were in their room making lunch.

However, there was no sign of Zhao Brezhong.

Chen Dong asked Fan Lu, and learnt that Zhao Baolu was in his study.

So Chen Dong let Gu Qingying rest in the living room, while he himself headed to the study.

Zhao Broke-Ru had always given him an odd feeling lately.

He allowed such eccentricities to exist, whether it was Zhao Baolu or Wu Chang.

But when the eccentricity was extremely obvious, he should care a little.

Knock, knock, knock.

Chen Dong knocked on the study door.

Inside the study, no one answered.

Chen Dong simply pushed the door open and entered.

As soon as the door opened, a strong smell of ink and brush poured into his nostrils.

What met his eyes was Zhao Breru standing in front of the desk, sweating profusely.

Chen Dong could not help but be stunned, and at the same time stopped in his tracks.

In his vision, Zhao Bre Ru looked extremely strange.

He was standing in front of the desk, twirling the brush, waving the ink, everything was flowing smoothly, without any stagnation.

It seemed normal, but what really amazed Chen Dong was the state of Zhao Zhaolu at the moment.

His features were in an indescribable state, especially his eyes, which were glued to the rice paper on the desk, shining like a light.

Drops of bean-sized sweat cover Zhao's entire face, and his face takes on a hot, dry red colour.

Even so, Zhao's breathing was steady and unusual.

Seeing that Zhao Bre Ru did not notice his entrance, Chen Dong suppressed his footsteps and stepped up to Zhao Bre Ru's side.

It was a painting scroll.

But the content on the scroll made Chen Dong's scalp tingle, unprepared.

Reasoning.

For all the things that Zhao Brelu had shown in his day-to-day life, the effusive and cynical, Chen Dong had not been able to attach himself to it to the point of being able to paint such a painting.

Every brush stroke is superb.

Each character, in all its glory, leaps out.

It is only the content that is constructed together that is horrific and hideous.

In one corner of the scroll is half of the city wall, a large hole crumbling out of the towering wall.

On the wall, corpses are strewn across it, and countless arrows are fired down from the sky.

Beneath the walls, a thousand miles of corpses were strewn across the city, an endless mountain of corpses that stood out so clearly that every hand and foot on the mountain was clearly identifiable.

A thousand miles of corpses littered the plain, and a ferocious beast rampaged across the battlefield, stifling and devouring flesh and blood with abandon.

It was so gruesome that it was like purgatory.

Even though there was no colour rendering, Chen Dong could still feel the scene of purgatory pounding in his face.

Even, as he froze, Chen Dong vaguely felt the smell of blood filling his nasal cavity.

“Hoo hoo”

The sound of breathing as rough as a ripped bellows rang out in his ears.

Chen Dong was horrified and stared at Zhao Breru with his eyes wide open.

At this moment, Zhao Breru's right hand was still holding the pen, but his whole demeanor was as if he was hysterical, and his breathing was very rapid.

Not good!

Chen Dong's heart stuttered.

He immediately put a hand on Zhao Breru's shoulder, and his tongue burst into thunder:
"Zhao Breru!"

He did not know what had happened to Zhao Breru, but the demeanour of Zhao Breru in front of him was clearly not good!

"Ah!"

Zhao Bre Ru's body shook and he let out a fierce scream as the ink-dyed brush in his hand fell onto the rice paper on the desk, rendering a pile of ink.

"Hoo Dong, Dong."

Zhao Brocade came back to his senses and looked at Chen Dong in front of him, his eyes wavering and terrified.

"What are you kid up to?"

Chen Dong asked in surprise.

"Painting."

Zhao Breru hesitated for a second, and a smile emerged on his red and fearful face.

"Painting? All of them are made like this?"

Chen Dong pointed to the scroll on the desk and joked, "I didn't see that you still had the ability to paint!"

"Yes, yes, for those who are in the jianghu world, there are more skills to eat, so you have to learn something."

Zhao Baolu shrugged his shoulders and said with a helpless expression, "That's what old man Xu taught me when he brought me along that year."

Xu Qingfeng?

Chen Dong's heart was clear, if this matter involved the Thief Saint Xu Qingfeng, perhaps it could explain Zhao Breru's state just now.

After all, Thief Saint Xu Qingfeng was simply too mysterious and powerful!

It could even directly ignore the bloodline restrictions on the Zhuge Family's Eight Formation Diagram of Gods and Ghosts.

"If there is nothing else, I will leave first."

Chen Dong did not intend to ask any detailed questions and pointed at the scroll, deflating his mouth, "This painting of yours is really dark."

Zhao Baolu always kept his smile on.

It was only when Chen Dong left and the door to the room closed that his smile disappeared abruptly.

His face was full of fear and his heart was palpitating.

Zhao Breru stared at the scroll and fell into deep thought: How did I paint the dream?

Chapter 1472

Time passed.

Worried about the safety of his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Chen Dong was always disturbed.

Even this emotion, which could no longer be concealed, was completely written on his face.

Success or failure was at stake!

Or he could make it to the south-west in one fell swoop, or fail at midnight and end it all!

He had no choice!

The things that a man should protect in his life, his parents at home, his wife and children in his arms, his brothers beside him.

From the beginning to the end, Chen Dong has never forgotten.

He tried to do whatever he could, by any means necessary.

If it really came to that, for the sake of Gu Qingying and the baby, he would have to end everything too!

Chen Dong's restlessness and annoyance were all seen by Gu Qingying and the others.

Everyone didn't say much, and rightly assumed that Chen Dong was worried about whether or not he would be able to make it in one fell swoop tomorrow, May 19th.

This alone, in the minds of Gu Qingying and the others, was enough for Chen Dong to be this upset!

As for the matter of his father-in-law and mother-in-law, so far, only Elder Long and Zhuge Qing knew about it at home.

Elder Long had already left for the other side of the ocean.

And Zhuge Qing, under Chen Dong's strict orders, could only keep his mouth shut!

As time passed, every second felt like a year to Chen Dong, and it was a torturous time.

The closer we got to May 19, the less news there was from Elder Long, the less hope there was, and the status quo kept pushing Chen Dong, step by step, towards the point of giving up.

It was at the same time that Chen Dong was suffering.

The entire south-western region seemed to have fallen silent.

With Chen Dong's peak operation.

The world's giants and giants of power who had gathered in the southwest region had also experienced a roller-coaster ride.

With the 18th of May, the storm of land grabbing and rolling back gradually subsided.

Even if it still exists, it is hardly any more than before.

Everyone is waiting.

A pair of eyes, fiery, watched Chen Dong.

The giants and giants of power under the heavens all knew clearly that whether or not the Southwest Region could take off, and the value of the land parcels they were pinching in their hands, all depended entirely on Chen Dong!

The entire Southwest Region was waiting for Chen Dong's next move!

Even Lord Meng and the other top officials of the southwest region are all dragging their tired bodies around the workplace today, holding on for dear life and waiting.

"Dong'er next step, what exactly will you do?"

Lord Meng's eyes were scarlet, tired and filled another bottle of functional drink, this bout, let his heart and soul exhausted, able to hold on, but also rely on this bottle of functional drink overdraft body.

As a parent official, after putting everything aside, he is ultimately concerned about the well-being of the people in his area.

This is the real concern of a party official!

.....

The other side of the ocean.

The city where the Shanhe Hall is located, with the order of Yuan Yigang's dragon head gave a command.

From daylight, to night.

In a short period of time, it was completely turned upside down.

People were terrified and anxious.

Panic pervaded the hearts of everyone in the city.

And the forces, too, were on pins and needles.

The forces that survived the Hong Society's headquarters were all looking up to the Society.

Now that all 3,600 Hong Society clans have returned to their headquarters, it is a bolt from the blue for these forces.

Not only the local forces, but also the forces across the ocean and the world were all speculating and panicking.

The 3,600 clans of the Hong Society were scattered all over the world, and once they converged, the power that could be unleashed would be absolutely terrifying.

It is important to know that each of the three thousand six hundred sects is located in a region that is capable of becoming a powerhouse, and the resources and heritage they possess are absolutely superior.

The three thousand six hundred doors, divided then each show divine ability.

Together they are gigantic beasts!

When nothing was found locally, the power of the 3,600 Sects of the Hong Society was spreading out in all directions in a blistering manner, lifting the ground in all directions and radiating across the ocean.

Such a frenzied move has caused everyone's heart to wince.

Even the top powers and giants were trembling and their heads were numb.

Three thousand and six hundred gates, encroaching wildly in all directions, gave the impression that the tide of beasts was raging unstoppable!

What's more crucial is that no one knows what the Hong Society is actually looking for!

This fear of the unknown was the most terrifying of all!

"God, what the hell are the people of the Hong Society doing? Three thousand six hundred gates and a huge tide of people just spreading out with impunity?"

"A top tier leading order that hasn't appeared for decades, what exactly did that Yuan Yigang give to the three thousand six hundred sects?"

"Pass the order down, all members of the clan, no one is allowed to go out without an order, keep a low profile, stay put, whoever dares to pick up the fronts of the Hong Society, expel them from the clan, life or death is their own concern!"

.....

Fear pervaded.

Inside the Mountain River Association Hall.

The lights were bright and the crowd was surging.

Three thousand and six hundred clan members had returned to support the Hong Association, leaving the Mountain River Association Hall overcrowded.

The tide of people kept coming in and out, surging.

But without exception, even with this crowd, the Mountain River Association Hall was in an extremely restrained state of quiet and oppression.

The pedestrians were in a hurry and kept their mouths shut.

This silence and oppression even spilled out from the Shanhe Hall and pressed across the whole of Chinatown.

Inside the room.

Yuan Yigang sat at his desk, the tall piles of documents and information in front of him nearly burying him.

And on the floor, stacks of intelligence information were stacked like mountains.

Outside, members of the Hong Society were constantly entering and submitting information.

The sight was mind-boggling!

No one could have imagined that when the 3,600 doors of the Hong Society were working together on one thing, there would be such a terrifying sight.

Even with Yuan Yigang's physique, he was already exhausted and somewhat overwhelmed in just a few hours from the time he moved the three thousand six hundred gates until now.

There was no other reason.

Every piece of this intelligence information required him to analyse and pat on the back to decide whether or not to move forward.

The amount of energy required in it was unimaginable.

Even so, what Yuan Yigang had piled up in front of him was information that had been filtered by the senior members of the Hong Society and eventually pushed to him.

The information that the senior members of the Hong Society under Yuan Yigang had to deal with was even greater and more complicated!

On the other hand.

Inside Ye Yuanqiu's mansion.

Ye Yuanqiu came out of the kitchen with his apron tied and sweating, "Linglong, quickly find some people and send the ginseng soup to your brother Yigang and the others!"

“Grandpa, what in heaven’s name has happened to the Hong Society?”

Ye Linglong was bewildered, from the time the Hong Society’s three thousand six hundred gates had been activated until now, she hadn’t even figured out what was going on.

She had asked, she had pressured, and she had even quietly investigated.

But at the Hong Society, everyone seemed to have blocked her out, keeping their mouths shut and unable to find out!

“Do something!”

Ye Yuanqiu’s eyes flashed for a moment and he said in a stern voice.

Ye Linglong was so angry that she wrinkled her agate nose, secretly squeezed the nunchaku behind her waist and let go, before going into the kitchen to serve ginseng soup.

After Ye Linglong had left.

Only then did Ye Yuanqiu walk into the room with a bowl of ginseng soup and put it in front of Old Man Long who was sitting with his eyes closed, “Old Man Long, have some soup.”

“There are still the last seven hours left.”

Without opening his eyes, Elder Long said in a deep voice, “The success of a dragon or a worm all depends on you, Hong Hui!”

“As you can see, the Hong Society has all three thousand and six hundred doors out, what more do you want?”

Ye Yuanqiu’s face was full of helplessness, “This kind of spectacle only appeared when Chen Daolin and his generation were fighting for the family headship!”

“If you had been more decisive initially, you wouldn’t have been in such a predicament!”

Elder Long slowly opened his eyes and looked at Ye Yuanqiu with a look full of resentment.

“That was for fear of alerting the snake and messing up Chen Dongfang’s inch!”

Ye Yuanqiu argued.

“When you think too much, you throw in the towel and cower in fear.”

Long Lao was full of contempt: “Ye Yuanqiu, you old man, with the name of Yuan, all you do is to pull the crotch, the bad things in your stomach, I know, you want to set up a pagoda after being a cousin, you want to take all the advantages, but you don’t want any of the bad things!”

“Old man, you want to fight?”

Ye Yuanqiu was furious: “Just your strength, if I were a few dozen years older, I would still be able to chop you up with a watermelon knife!”

“What kind of bullshit is that? Why don’t you go and find someone?”

Long Lao’s eyes were stern, instantly making Ye Yuanqiu like a deflated ball.

“Seven hours, it’s too little, it’s not enough.”

Ye Yuanqiu said breathlessly, then slowly raised his head and stared at Elder Long profoundly, “What do you think, if we can’t find Gu Guohua and his wife within these seven hours, how should we report to Chen Dong? Should we tell the truth, or just hide it?”

Winner Takes All Chapter 1473-1474

Chapter 1473

Under the dim light.

As Ye Yuanqiu’s words were asked, Elder Long’s face suddenly turned gloomy to the extreme, like black charcoal.

Long Lao cast a sideways glance and looked at Ye Yuanqiu with a harsh slant.

“What do you mean by that?”

There were a few moments of coldness in his tone.

“Don’t misunderstand, old man just wants to make more plans!”

Ye Yuanqiu said in a deep voice, facing Elder Long’s harsh gaze, not dodging or evading: “With so much at stake, any possibility can arise, it’s not that these last seven hours, my Hong Society will definitely fall flat, but good or bad, you and I should make a plan in advance.”

Words are heavy.

The words were bad, but the reasoning was indeed true.

The courtyard.

There was silence and the night breeze was slightly cool.

But Elder Long fell into silence, holding the ginseng soup in both hands and munching on it one by one.

Ye Yuanqiu did not urge, but waited quietly, only that his gaze never left Elder Long.

Half a day later.

Elder Long slowly put down the ginseng soup cup, his expression obscure, and murmured, "Let's look for it first, we must not give up until the last moment!"

"Mm."

Ye Yuanqiu did not continue to argue and calmly responded.

Under the light.

The figures of the two were stretched out and stretched out, somewhat distorted.

The courtyard then returned to dead silence.

Across the ocean, the Hong Society had stirred up the storm.

The 3,600 gates scattered across the world, and the members of the Hong Society who remained behind, did not slacken for a moment.

The headquarters and those who had returned were searching for traces.

Those Hong Society members who remained behind were also trying to find ways to obtain intelligence information.

Countless secret orders were sent out and countless intelligence information was gathered back.

This kind of great effort directly stirred up the hearts of the world's giants and giants, making it difficult for them to sleep.

The Jiang family.

Jiang Han'er looked at the information in front of her with a shocked expression.

Beside her was the sorrowful Sixth Master Jiang.

“Sixth Grandpa, the Hong Society has unleashed all three thousand and six hundred gates, what has happened?”

Jiang Han'er couldn't help but ask in horror.

She was familiar with the relationship between the Hong Society and Chen Dong, and she vaguely felt that this matter must have something to do with Chen Dong.

The Sixth Master Jiang's brows were knitted together as he held his forehead and sighed softly, “A thousand calculations, but in the end, a hundred secrets and one oversight, Chen Dong's father-in-law and mother-in-law are afraid that they will become the killer app to strangle Chen Dong, and this is the reason why all three thousand and six hundred doors of the Hong Society have come out of their holes.”

As a member of the Jiang family, a family clan and gate, able to save the building from falling, the strength of the bottom, absolutely can be called the leader of the world.

What other giants and giants did not know, the Jiang family wanted to find out, it was as easy as pie!

Jiang Han'er's delicate body trembled, her willow eyebrows raised, and a look of appalled worry appeared on her pretty face.

“If that's really the case, Chen Dong will definitely call it quits in the end!”

“You and I both know that!”

Sixth Master Jiang smiled helplessly, “Now it's up to us to see if we can find Gu Guohua and his wife.”

“Sixth Grandpa.”

Jiang Han'er grabbed Sixth Master Jiang's arm, her eyes twinkling as she begged pitifully, “Help him.”

The Sixth Master smiled, “The Jiang family has been doing this for a long time, but compared to the Hong Society's fanfare, we have been doing it in secret.

There was a pause.

The Hong Association has not dared to make a big splash because it is afraid of the people behind Zhang Lidong, while we have spent most of the time investigating and have learned that the Gu family is behind Zhang Lidong!”

“It's just a pity that it's difficult to find out where the Gu family has hidden the Gu Guohua couple.”

“The Gu family?”

Jiang Han'er had a resentment between her brows, and after a moment of contemplation, she gritted her teeth and said, “Sixth grandfather, why don't the Jiang family cooperate with the Hong Society? That way we can also find out the results more quickly?”

“It's already been notified down.”

Sixth Master Jiang tilted his head slowly and looked at the clear blue sky outlined by white clouds above his head, “Time is getting tighter and tighter, let's hope Utah has variables!”

There is a huge difference in time between the domain and the other side of the ocean itself.

Day and night, the two from different exist two places.

The alternation of day and night, but still can not change the duration of time.

As the sun sets in the domain, the star river rises into the sky.

Closer and closer to the 19th!

Inside the Tianmen Mountain villa.

There was silence.

Chen Dong sat alone on the rooftop, blowing the evening breeze that still carried the slightest hint of heat, withering and dazed.

Under the light.

He looked exhausted, gloomy and grave, his eyes full of resignation, yet vaguely expectant.

An extremely complex look.

It was as if the air around Chen Dong had been drained by this oppression, creating a vacuum that was suffocating.

The mobile phone beside him, the screen still lit up, was filled with caller ID.

There were calls from Xiao Ma, Zhuge Qing, Chu Reed, and even Jiang Qilin.

There were also a series of “strange” numbers that Chen Dong had not noted.

However, Chen Dong did not answer any of the calls.

He knew the purpose of these calls, and he also knew that he had no comment to make at the moment.

He was waiting, and so were the forces under his command.

There are also the world's giants and giant forces gathered in the southwest region, all waiting!

But until the last minute, Chen Dong would never be willing to act rashly!

Because of his change in mood, it also led to the atmosphere within the entire villa, which was extraordinarily oppressive and quiet.

Gu Qingying didn't even dare to go up to the rooftop to comfort Chen Dong.

She knew that giving a man the space to sit quietly alone was sometimes more soothing and relaxing than her chattering "comforting" next to him.

The same scene.

It was as if the villa at Tianmen Mountain radiated out directly over the entire southwestern region.

Like a thick haze, it fell with the darkness of the night, pressing down on the southwestern region.

The dust had settled, and after the scramble, all that was waiting for was Chen Dong's final kick!

Previously, Chen Dong's weakness had caused the crowd to sell off.

But Chen Dong's comeback had caught the crowd off guard and they had realised that there was still a way out.

Now that the land grab is coming to an end, everyone is waiting for Chen Dong's next step!

Time slowly passed.

The rooftop.

The night breeze was getting cooler and cooler.

Chen Dong, who looked like a statue, suddenly shrugged his shoulders.

Immediately, he stretched his back.

His expression eased, and he silently lit a cigarette, sucking off half of it with a vicious puff.

As he exhaled the thick smoke, he picked up the mobile phone beside him.

Every movement seemed to be extraordinarily easy.

The phone screen.

After crossing out the missed calls, the time had already reached 9pm, only three hours before 0:00 on the 19th!

But on the side of Elder Long and Hong Hui, there was still no response!

Chen Dong slid out of Elder Long's phone, his thumb hanging in mid-air, but hesitant to drop it.

There was a minute of stalemate.

Chen Dong put down the phone and rubbed his right hand fiercely on his trouser leg, wiping the sweat stains on his hand clean.

Then he closed his eyes, held his cigarette in his mouth, let the ashes fall onto his body, slowly tilted his head, faced the starry sky directly, murmured softly and prayed.

"Ma bless Dong'er for once!"

Chapter 1474

The prayer murmured and dissipated in the night wind.

Chen Dong slowly opened his eyes, and under the light, a pair of eyes covered with blood and obscure.

The last three hours!

Is it success or failure?

In a trance, Chen Dong even had a feeling that tonight was extraordinarily quiet.

Not just the Tianmen Mountain Villa, but the whole city!

At this very moment.

Behind him, at the entrance of the building, a voice suddenly rang out.

“Brother Dong.”

Chen Dong’s eyes lit up for a moment, then returned to obscurity.

He turned back to look at the entrance of the building, Qin Xiao Qian was standing at the doorway, looking at him in a complicated manner.

“Xiao Qian, back?”

Chen Dong barely managed to squeeze out a smile.

“Brother Dong, what’s wrong?”

Qin Xiao Qian stepped towards Chen Dong with a complicated expression, looking at Chen Dong with some worry in her eyes.

“Nothing’s wrong.”

Chen Dong smiled and shook his head.

Qin Xiao Qian stopped in front of Chen Dong and glanced back at the entrance of the building to make sure no one was there before looking back at Chen Dong.

“You can hide it from Sister Xiaoying and the others, but you can’t hide it from me.”

Chen Dong rubbed his nose and extinguished the cigarette that was burning out: “Why is that?”

“You sent me to finish this last thing, it was clearly a matter of ambition and Qiankun in hand!”

Qin Xiao Qian wrinkled her eyebrows and said in a deep voice: “A sure win, and now you are so worried that the whole family is afraid to go near you, clearly you have something else on your mind.”

Chen Dong was stunned for a moment.

Immediately, he laughed bitterly, “I forgot about this.”

He did not wait for Qin Xiao Qian to ask a follow-up question.

Chen Dong then turned his head sideways and looked out at the glorious lights within the Tianmen Mountain villa area in the distance.

“Did you get the stuff?”

Qin Xiao Qian’s lips mumbled for a moment, eventually giving up on pursuing the question.

She took out a scroll from her pocket and handed it to Chen Dong.

Chen Dong surveyed the scroll, and under the light, the cloth of the scroll glittered and glowed with a hefty majesty.

“Everything went smoothly and unhindered, hand to hand.”

Qin Xiao Qian’s gaze glowed with colour and she said firmly, “With it, this game will be a great victory for Brother Dong.”

“Yes, it should have been a big win and a whale of blood for the world!”

Chen Dong said meaningfully and slowly got up.

His right hand grasped the scroll and flung it violently.

With a clatter

The tough golden cloth and silk waved against the wind, emitting a tough sound.

Chen Dong’s left hand caught the golden cloth and silk in his hand with unerring accuracy.

What caught his eyes were the words in gold lacquer on the golden cloth – an imperial edict!

The simple words seemed to contain a supreme majesty that was intimidating to the eyes.

As for the detailed content of the gold letters below, Chen Dong did not look closely.

An untamed smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, for he knew clearly that as long as he had this imperial edict in his hand, the contents on it would inevitably be the same as what he thought.

“This single piece of imperial edict is enough to withstand a thousand armies!”

Qin Xiao Qian gazed at Chen Dong in awe, “If Brother Dong can obtain this edict from the domain lord, from the beginning to the end, this game is already in his hands and he is invincible, the world’s giants are all being played by Brother Dong!”

These words were not meant as a compliment, but rather were spoken from the bottom of his heart.

Given the relationship between Chen Dong and Qin Xiao Qian, there was no need for Qin Xiao Qian to pay compliments to Chen Dong.

At this moment, Chen Dong, who was holding the imperial edict in his hand, was like a flat mountain in Qin Xiao Qian's eyes, unreachable and majestic.

"The world's powerful families, the giants of power and ordinary people, from big to small, all have their eyes on the identity of my Chen family young family head, it is really ridiculous"

Chen Dong shook his head with a smile, slowly closing the scroll of the imperial edict with both hands and rolling it up a little, while saying, "Indeed, the magnificent Chen family holds all the world's wealth, and stands high in the clouds overlooking the world's gentry as ants, the status of the Chen family's young family head is indeed shining brightly and attracting people's attention, but everyone forgets" I have been to the northern region. I've been to the north, I've been to the Xiongnu, I've made a world of achievements, I've been with Huo Zhenxiao, I've made a world of achievements.

The words are chiseled, revealing a few teasing.

"Perhaps the" Chen family's halo is just too dazzling."

Qin Xiaochen said with a light smile, "Or perhaps it is because, Brother Dong, you have relied on the Chen Family all along this journey, and even with your worldly merits, you have only stunned yourself in the matter of setting up the Chen Family's Young Master, so it is easy for people to overlook it."

"Yes."

Chen Dong's eyes burst out with a brilliant aura, his back straightened and his brows untamed, "Money is too superficial, enough to blind people's eyes, so much so that they ignore the horror of the power hidden beneath it! But what everyone overlooks is the most crucial, they forget that it is this worldly merit that has allowed me to become the young master of the Chen family in one fell swoop, and single-handedly suppress the Chen family so much that they dare not disobey, and now"

The words were half spoken, but Chen Dong stopped abruptly.

He casually threw the imperial edict on the recliner, unruly disappeared, what remained was a strong desolation.

"It's just, it's just" I can calculate the world, but I can't calculate this mu of land, it's ridiculous, ridiculous to the extreme!"

Buzz!

At the end of his words, Chen Dong's robe suddenly bulged, emitting a burst of sound.

The sudden scene scared Qin Xiao Qian's face, swishing as pale as paper.

"Brother Dong, what are you doing?"

Qin Xiao Qian's eyes were wide and terrified, her eyes constantly sweeping over Chen Dong's back and the imperial edict on the recliner.

Was this an imperial edict, or was it just a piece of my footwear?

An imperial edict from a domain lord, a supreme power!

Not to mention ordinary people, even the world's most powerful family heads and power giants would not dare to disobey their superiors and trample on and insult them like this!

Is Chen Dong crazy?

"There are still the last three hours!"

Chen Dong did not move, his voice was a little hoarse: "Xiao Qian, hard work, this imperial edict, whether it is a supreme treasure or a waste of paper, depends on these last three hours!"

What?

Qin Xiao Qian was horrified, biting her lips and clenching her fists, "Brother Dong, what is happening?"

At this moment, her heart was in turmoil.

The Chen Dong in front of her was far too abnormal.

This was a different person from the time when she was sent to kowtow to the Domain Master!

At that time, how confident and confident was Chen Dong?

His eyes were as if they encompassed the stars.

But now

"Xiao Qian, go and rest."

Chen Dong did not answer Qin Xiao Qian, he was worried about this matter being known by Gu Qingying.

At least, the current situation, he was not willing to tell Gu Qingying.

There was a pause.

Chen Dong rubbed his face and turned back to the dazed Qin Xiao Qian with a faint smile, "In these last three hours, there is a mixture of good news and bad news, no good news coming and just no bad news coming, if neither comes at 0:00, this edict from the domain lord is just as much of a supreme treasure!"

Qin Xiao Qian was terrified and confused.

Her lips made several noises, but she didn't know what to say.

Finally.

Qin Xiao Qian's thin lips lightly opened: "Brother Dong, it will definitely work, with this imperial edict in place, all the giants of the southwest region will be at your disposal!"

Looking at Qin Xiao Qian who had left.

Chen Dong's gaze fell on the imperial edict on the recliner and smiled astonishingly.

"Although the imperial edict is heavy, it is not half as heavy as my parents!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 1475-1476

Chapter 1475

Across the ocean.

Inside the Mountain River Hall, it is bright all night long.

The bright, blinding lights are intertwined with the lights of Chinatown outside, but they create an atmosphere that is like two worlds.

The long, empty Chinatown is lit up in yellow, even in the daytime, but the lights are never extinguished and there is no more of the usual late night noise.

The whole street is in a state of extreme depression.

Luxury cars sped past like mad.

The doors of the shops were closed and silent.

But the Shanhe Hall, where the luxury cars enter and exit, is noisy.

Even if everyone who entered and left was silent, the sound of their footsteps, together with the whirring of the cars, made it extremely noisy.

Inside the room.

Ye Yuanqiu and Elder Long were sitting side by side, both of them with their eyes closed, their white beards and white hair, but in the light they showed some of their immortal bones and ancient charm.

I don't know how long they have remained in this position, but the tea on the table is no longer hot.

On the wall, a clock hangs.

Every time the second hand advances, a "click" is made.

In the living room, the "click" of the advancing seconds is the only sound.

As each second passed, the click sounded like a loud bell, blasting in the ears of the two men, the corners of their eyes twitching and their eyelids twitching slightly as they seemed to be calm.

Seconds are like years" is perhaps the right word to describe their state at this moment.

It seemed peaceful, but in reality every second was a torment of fire.

It was already close to midday and the air conditioning was on, so it wasn't too hot, even a little cold, but gradually, drops of sweat were seeping from their foreheads, glistening brightly.

On the other side.

Yuan Yigang was bracing his tired body, hating to use a toothpick to prop up his heavy eyelids as he stared intently at the information being presented to him.

He had to stay absolutely focused every second, so that he could manage to extract a drop of useful information from the vast sea of information.

And this is an absolute overload for him, no, for anyone.

It was a great test of physical strength, brain power, everything!

This was the case for Yuan Yigang, and even more so for the middle and senior forces of the Hong Society under his command.

The 3,600 members of the Hong Society are all out, causing the world to change in this part of the world across the ocean.

But even though the outside world was in turmoil, the people inside the Mountain River Association Hall had to press down on the oppression and calmly concentrate on pulling apart the information.

Time waits for no one!

Nor could anyone else!

As time was running out and the future of the Hong Society was at stake, Yuan Yigang gave absolute deadly orders to everyone.

Either die on the table or die under the Hong Society's iron rule of the three blades and six eyes!

The 3,600 gates of the Hong Society were like a vast and lofty machine, firing on all cylinders at this moment!

Inside the tense and oppressive Shanhe Guild Hall, perhaps only Ye Linglong's mansion seemed out of place.

There was silence.

The wind swirled with heat and raged through the courtyard.

Ye Linglong sat in the courtyard, her jade arms folded on the stone table, her chin resting on her arms, listening in boredom to the sharp, dense sound of footsteps outside and the roar of a car engine.

She had no idea what had happened to the Hong Society!

Up and down, it was as if a wall of steel had been forged against her, shutting out all information.

It was suffocating her to no end.

Ye Linglong couldn't help but raise her eyes to look at the sun that was approaching directly above her and muttered, "Over there, it should be almost late at night, right?"

She didn't know what was happening, but she was able to roughly guess some of the clues.

Hong would suddenly become like this, and according to Ye Linglong's speculation, in all probability, it had something to do with Chen Dong!

As for the rest, she couldn't guess!

Tianmen Mountain Villa.

The night was getting darker and darker.

Chen Dong sat withered on the rooftop, the light of the stars and moon, getting colder and colder.

Unknowingly, Chen Dong's palms were already covered with sweat stains, which could not be wiped off no matter how much he wiped them.

He remained in a sitting posture, like a statue, and did not move for a long time.

But the silence around him was a silent oppression to him.

It was suffocating him!

Even his heartbeat was being contained to death!

Snapping snapping

The sound of footsteps ringing out behind him broke the dead silence on the rooftop.

A figure, slowly, walked behind Chen Dong.

"Mr. Chen."

Chen Dong's body trembled for a moment, his hollow, drifting eyes quickly regaining focus as he looked back at Jiang Qilin, who was stationed at the doorway of the building.

"What can I do for you?"

Jiang Qilin's evil and handsome face was outlined with a kind smile as he slowly walked over to Chen Dong and settled into the recliner.

"Mr. Chen's preoccupied look is very worrying."

"I know."

Chen Dong smiled helplessly.

"Only one hour to go until the nineteenth, when will the situation turn around?"

Jiang Qilin enquired with a smile.

“An hour?”

Chen Dong’s heart twitched and tightened a little.

“Is Mr. Chen worried about something?” Jiang Qilin’s eyes brightened.

Chen Dong was silent for a few seconds.

He tilted his head to look at the starry sky and said in a deep voice, “Inform Zhuge Qing and the others and start building momentum.”

There was only one last hour until the 19th.

While there was no good news coming in, there was also no bad news coming in.

Such a situation made Chen Dong anxious, but it was a good situation.

Before anything happened, it was time to move on!

“I’ll go and inform them right now.”

Jiang Qilin got up and headed downstairs, and when he reached the door of the building, he smiled, “Mr. Chen, I think that those who achieve great things do not stick to small things, and when the big picture is in hand, a great man can just go ahead without any worries.”

Chen Dong’s expression changed for a moment and he smiled teasingly, “What if it involves your family?”

Under the light.

Jiang Qilin did not move, and was silent for a few seconds.

Only then did he slowly open his voice: “The same question, Qilin had asked his father and also his grandfather, but they, and the entire Jiang family, had all warned Qilin that the family could be destroyed, but Qilin must live, so Qilin would go all the way!”

At the end of the sentence, Jiang Qilin’s voice became resolute.

Chen Dong’s pupils shrank for a moment, and the corners of his eyes could not help but tremble.

There was a pause.

He only laughed disdainfully, “It’s so good to be a brute without touching the human world, without staining the dust.”

When he said these words.

Jiang Qilin's expression clearly changed violently.

However, since his back was turned to Chen Dong, Chen Dong was not aware of this scene.

After a day of waiting, the entire Din Tai, as well as the various forces under Chen Dong's command, had long since gathered momentum.

With a command from Chen Dong, Zhuge Qing and Chu Reed directly launched themselves.

Not only the Dingtai, but also the Zhuge Family, the Zhang and Chu families, as well as Zhou Zunlong and Zhou Yanqiu, all the major forces also started to move at the same moment.

Such a message was sent to the heads of the world's most powerful families and giants gathered in the southwest region, just like a sudden storm of wind and thunder and lightning.

Chapter 1476

"It's moving! It's moving! Chen Dong and the projects in the hands of all the forces under his command are pushing!"

"Damn it! It's late at night, how can Young Master Chen and his projects suddenly be pushing?"

"It's finally moving, I told you that there must be a reason for Chen Dong and all the forces under his command to suddenly stop for a day, it seems that they are waiting for tonight's action, to pass the order for all the projects to start operating immediately!"

.....

The news came out.

The giants and giants of the world who had gathered in the southwest region were all agitated, and even in the middle of the night, they were not sleepy, and they all settled down to their desks.

In an instant, the emails spread out like snowflakes in the sky.

Under the night.

The silent south-western region, however, was undercurrents with an order from Chen Dong.

The giants and giants from all over the world had gathered in the southwest region in order to get a piece of the pie when Chen Dong and Rothschild jointly promoted the development of the southwest region.

After Chen Dong's manipulation, he pulled up land prices and prices, then immediately weakened, prompting an avalanche of collapsing land prices and prices, and then made a comeback, secretly taking advantage of the low land prices to frantically acquire and grab land.

Even though some of the magnates and giants have lost some of their money as a result, it is still not harmful to the bigger picture.

Everyone is keeping an eye on Chen Dong's movements.

It was clear to everyone that the future lifeline of the entire southwest region rested in Chen Dong's hands alone.

Tonight, Chen Dong, who had been silent for a day, suddenly made a move.

This is like sending a signal to the world's giants and giants of power – the development of the southwest region has officially started!

Tonight is the "carnival" of the southwest region!

Under the night curtain.

The Chen family compound, located between the mountains, is vast and magnificent, and the lights, like stars in the night, decorate a gorgeous river of stars between the mountains.

And in the silence of the night, the Chen family was the heart of several parties.

"It's moving, Brother Daocheng, that wild bastard Chen Dong has finally moved!"

In Chen Daocheng's mansion, a person in power leapt straight up in excitement the first time he received the news.

Chen Daocheng and the rest of the power-holders also rose up in ecstasy.

"Hahahaha That wild bastard's blood and courage is admirable enough, knowing that he is doing us a favour, but he still launched a plan for the entire southwest region. What a bastard!"

“Brother Dao Cheng is wise! This time, not only will we be able to completely crush that bastard, we will also be able to profit from it, all thanks to Brother Dao Cheng’s decision!”

“Tsk, tsk, tsk that bastard is bold enough to hesitate for just one day and then just launch. As soon as he launches, he will be working for us until his death!”

.....

The laughter was so loud that the group of people in power could not control their emotions.

To them, being able to profit from the southwest region is just a “cheer”, what really makes them ecstatic is that once Chen Dong pushes the southwest region, they can rely on the huge number of land plots in their hands to completely pull Chen Dong into the mire and make it difficult to move forward!

It would only be a matter of time before Chen Dong collapsed and went bankrupt!

Chen Daocheng’s eyes shone brightly, and his ears echoed with the joyful laughter of those in power under his command, and his face could not help but be filled with an excited smile.

“Chen Daolin, Chen Daolin! This is the young master of the Chen family that you have so deliberately cultivated? Away from you, even if the true dragon rushes up to the ninth heaven and peels off his skin, it is still just a wild child that has never seen the world!”

On the other side.

Inside Old Lady Chen’s Buddha Hall.

The sound of chanting sutras reverberated in a tumultuous manner.

In front of the golden statue of Buddha.

It had been some time since Old Lady Chen had knelt on the futon in such a pious manner.

While chanting the sutra, she twirled the Buddhist beads.

Under the light, although Old Mrs. Chen’s face was pale and tired, her expression was extremely pious.

“Ma, Ma

Outside the Buddha Hall, Chen Daoping hurriedly came running and shouted.

He had just reached the door.

Old Mrs. Chen, who was chanting sutras reverently, suddenly opened her eyes, as if her anger was about to turn into substance and be vented out.

“Dao Ping! Why are you crying in the middle of the night?”

Chen Daoping stopped at the door and said in dismay, “Mom, I’m not crying, I’m calling you.”

Old Mrs. Chen’s eyes narrowed and she snapped back, scolding, “What do you mean?”

“Mom I was wrong!”

Chen Daoping hurriedly bowed his head and said, “It’s my son who was impatient, but it’s a matter of great importance, Chen Dong just now suddenly had all the forces under his command activated!”

“Activated?”

Old Madam Chen’s body shook, somewhat stunned, “Impossible!”

Chen Daoping looked up at Old Madam Chen in surprise.

Immediately, Old Madam Chen waved her hand, “Go down.”

That was it?

Chen Daoping froze, he had come to report this matter and had not expected the old madam to be so calm and perfunctory.

With a “hmm” from Old Madam Chen’s mouth and nose, Chen Daoping dared not stay any longer and hurriedly left.

He waited for a few seconds.

Only then did Old Madam Chen take out her mobile phone with a gloomy face and dial the number.

As soon as she got through.

She said in a deep voice: “Sister! That wild bastard has already started building momentum, is your so-called killer app still not being used?”

Pop!

The phone hung up.

The depression on Old Lady Chen's face dissipated and she looked up at the golden Buddha statue, "My Buddha is merciful, I ask for nothing else, but for everything to go smoothly!"

Her words were heartfelt.

Old Mrs. Chen kowtowed to the ground in reverence and did not move for a long time.

She had waited for this day after all the planning and humiliation she had endured a century ago!

When she first entered the Chen family, Chen Daoling's emergence was like a god's needle in the sea, holding the Chen family in place and daring her to do anything.

Fortunately, God had blessed the Chen family with such a change in her lifetime.

As far as she was concerned, as soon as Chen Dong started up.

The Gu family holds the lives of Chen Dong's father-in-law and mother-in-law, and this is the undefeated card!

Whether Chen Dong started or not, it would eventually lead to a direct war between Chen Dong and Chen Daocheng's faction, and she only needed to watch the fire from the other side of the river, waiting quietly until Chen Dong and Chen Daocheng had lost their battle, and then she could take the Chen family into her hands!

At the same time, Old Lady Chen was praying and Chen Daocheng was overjoyed.

But Chen Daoye and the others were gathered together, frowning sadly, each apprehensive.

They were the family head's faction, and they were the only faction, up and down the Chen family, who hoped that Chen Dong would truly succeed in promoting the development of the southwestern region in the true sense of the word!

But until then, they had racked their brains to think of what exactly Chen Dong would rely on to complete this final push!

Whether it was Chen Daocheng's squeeze, or the various thoughts of the world's giants and power giants.

To Chen Dong, the situation in front of him in the southwest region had long since become intricate to the extreme.

Even if he could promote development, it would be a mire and a deep pit, and it would be difficult to take off in a short time.

Across the ocean.

As soon as Chen Dong moved, the news was presented to Yuan Yigang in the first instance.

Bang!

Yuan Yigang pressed his hands heavily on the table.

He immediately got up, ignoring the redundant documents in front of him, and hurriedly went to find Ye Yuanqiu.

When Yuan Yigang hurriedly ran into the living room.

Ye Yuanqiu and Elder Long, who were in the middle of closing their eyes, simultaneously shook their bodies and opened their eyes with a jerk.

“Elder Ye, Elder Long, Mr. Chen has moved!”

Boom!

Ye Yuanqiu and Elder Long were struck by lightning.

“It’s the last hour, haven’t we found any traces yet?”

Ye Yuanqiu’s eyes swished red as he scolded.

Yuan Yigang shook his head sadly.

This shake of his head instantly made Ye Yuanqiu and Elder Long fall into the abyss.

It was at this moment.

A voice fiercely came from behind them, “Dragon Leader, Elder Ye, Elder Long, there is news, the Hong Society and the Jiang Family have just scouted out the location of Gu Guohua and his wife!”

This alarming cry was like heavenly music, lingering in the ears of Elder Long, Ye Yuanqiu and Yuan Yigang.

Winner Takes All Chapter 1477-1478

Chapter 1477

“Where is it?”

In an instant, Elder Long and Ye Yuanqiu rose to their feet in a tentative manner, their eyes bursting with brilliant auras.

Yuan Yigang also turned around violently, his gaze burning at the person outside the room.

The last hour!

Finally, a turnaround!

“On an isolated island off the east coast, just scouted out the latitude and longitude!”

The man’s expression tightened as he reported in a deep voice.

As soon as the words left his mouth.

Yuan Yigang immediately ordered, “Immediately recall the 3,600 Hongmen, organize helicopters, and send all 3,600 of them to the isolated island.

“Yes, sir!”

The man turned and left at once.

In the living room.

Old Man Long and Ye Yuanqiu were ecstatic, their faces flushed red with excitement.

“Old man Long, this time we’ve won!”

Ye Yuanqiu burst out laughing.

Elder Long also exhaled a foul breath of relief.

As long as he successfully rescued Gu Guohua and his wife, then there would be no more obstacles for Chen Dong to set the southwest region.

This time must win the game!

With a command from Yuan Yigang.

The three thousand six hundred doors of the Hong Society that were sweeping and rampaging outside terminated their search mission at the first opportunity and went to the nearest airport in their location.

Like ten thousand rivers returning to the sea, the vast carpet search came to an abrupt halt, and a car, at the same time, was directed straight to the airport, winding up.

The sudden termination caught the entire gentry and powers across the ocean off guard.

It was also just as the Hong Society's three thousand six hundred gates were moving.

All the magnates and giants of power received information at the first opportunity.

"It's terminated? What has happened again? What the hell is the Hong Society up to today?"

"Three thousand and six hundred gates swept across the entire inland in a brutal and overbearing manner, and now they suddenly terminate without warning and all run to the airport?"

"Crazy! The Hong Society has gone mad! Yuan Yigang and Ye Yuanqiu have all gone mad! Three thousand six hundred gates, like arms, but they are also rampant today!"

.....

Just as the major giants and giants of power were shocked and apprehensive.

In the major airports across the ocean.

The 3,600 gates of the Hong Society arrived in full, and within the first hour they commandeered a helicopter ride and flew off towards the east coast in great numbers.

The scene was majestic.

Under the clear sky, the helicopters were densely packed, like rivers of stars, heading straight for one direction.

Some Hong Society members who had not commandeered the helicopters also turned around at the first opportunity and sped off towards the east coast port.

In the sky and on the ground, the 3,600 gates of the Hong Society were so loud and powerful that they shocked the whole of the other side of the ocean.

The common people were in a state of shock.

The giants and giants sat dumbfounded on the spot.

Countless news and opinions spread like shreds of paper.

The East Coast.

The crowds of people around the harbour, without exception, were all standing still, looking up at the sky.

The dense and loud roar of the helicopter propellers echoed like thunder in the sky for a long time.

The helicopters, densely packed, were like locusts in transit, sweeping across the sky and heading overseas.

And on the road, a car whistled and sped into the harbour.

Soon, a ship, of all sizes, sailed rapidly out of the harbour.

Compared to the countless helicopters in the sky, the number of ships leaving the harbour at sea level was uncountable.

The ships were dense and vast.

As far as the eye can see, there are ships everywhere.

A thousand sails and a hundred boats competing!

Together with the helicopters in the sky, they formed an incomparable and visually stunning scene.

Elder Long, Ye Yuanqiu and Yuan Yigang were all riding in the same helicopter.

The loud roar of the helicopter's propellers echoed in their ears.

But the three of them could not stop looking ecstatic and excited.

Whether they could find Gu Guohua and his wife in this last hour would directly determine whether Chen Dong's plan in the southwest region would succeed or not!

All the depression, tension and trepidation that they had felt before had now dissipated as the helicopter headed for the isolated island overseas!

"Yi Gang, how much longer?"

Ye Yuanqiu couldn't help but ask after him.

Yuan Yigang looked at the time, and his stretched brows suddenly furrowed.

“Elder Ye and Elder Long, it’s almost twelve o’clock, there’s still some distance to go before the longitude and latitude of the isolated island, time is running out!”

The smiles on Ye Yuanqiu’s and Elder Long’s faces froze instantly.

Twelve o’clock noon on this side of the ocean was corresponding to midnight zero in the domain!

It was also the 19th, the moment when Chen Dong kicked the proverbial bucket!

The atmosphere suddenly became oppressive and tense again.

Ye Yuanqiu clenched his hands together and said in a deep voice, “Late is never too late, immediately inform Mr. Chen that Gu Guohua and his wife have been found, and that they are safe and sound, so let him cast his mind at ease!”

The words were resounding and incomparably resolute.

One word came out.

Elder Long and Yuan Yigang froze in shock at the same time.

Even the isolated island had not yet been found, and Gu Guohua and his wife were not even sure of their safety, so to report to Chen Dong in advance, what was the difference between this and deception?

“Laozi disagrees!”

Long Lao looked furious and sternly rebuked, “Old man Ye, why are you suddenly so decisive now, you son of a bitch? Do you know that this is deceiving my young master? If something were to change, Gu Guohua and his wife would be like biological parents to my young master, you can’t afford to take this responsibility!”

Yuan Yigang, who was at the side, also showed his approval.

As far as he was concerned, reporting to Chen Dong in advance, this was too much danger!

Ye Yuanqiu narrowed his eyes and looked up at Elder Long and Yuan Yigang with a grave and solemn expression.

“Then, old man, if the southwest region cannot be thoroughly promoted, who will be able to bear this responsibility?”

Elder Long and Yuan Yigang’s breath caught in their mouths and they were speechless.

Setting up the Southwest Region was a matter of the whole situation, not just about Chen Dong personally, but also about the various forces under their command.

The momentum had already been created!

If he could not deliver this final kick with a flourish, it would be difficult to turn the situation around!

The same drama can be staged once, but it cannot be replicated a second time!

The giants of the world, the giants of power, are not so stupid!

On the other side.

The night was depressing and dreary.

Chen Dong sat withered on the rooftop, with dense cigarette butts already scattered in front of him, and a burning cigarette in the corner of his mouth.

At this juncture, every second was unbearably oppressive for him.

So heavy was the pressure that in this short time Chen Dong's clean face had once again sprouted a sigh of scruff, looking haggard and exhausted.

In his hand, he still held the imperial edict!

This was the key!

But at this moment, he did not know whether to activate the edict or to stay put and put an end to it all!

The clock was ticking closer and closer to midnight.

He was also aware that all the parties under his command were waiting, that the entire south-western region was waiting, that the giants of the world, the giants of power, were all waiting!

Zero o'clock is the key to the future fate of the Southwest!

But father-in-law and mother-in-law

Suddenly, Chen Dong's mobile phone rang.

It was like a thunderclap on this quiet rooftop.

Chen Dong was violently startled, his body trembled, he quickly grabbed his mobile phone, took a look at the phone number, his complexion instantly obscured to the extreme!

Chapter 1478

Looking at the caller ID on his mobile phone screen.

Chen Dong's face was ashen, and the lustre in his eyes was rapidly fading.

At this moment, a vicious chill ran from the bottom of his feet to the sky, and Chen Dong felt that the sky was spinning, and he was rapidly falling into a dark and bottomless abyss.

The caller ID was an unfamiliar number!

But, whether it was Elder Long or Yuan Yigang or Ye Yuanqiu of the Hong Society, he had contact information!

Then there was only one possibility for the number!

"What's supposed to come, has come after all!"

Chen Dong lost his soul and murmured a simple sentence, but it seemed as if he had used all his strength.

The phone rang continuously.

Chen Dong, however, as if his body had been emptied of strength, gritted his teeth, forcing down the palpating feeling of his heart beating out of his chest, and pressed the answer button.

"Young Master Chen, good day!"

As soon as he was connected, a familiar hoarse old laugh rang out.

Chen Dong's eyes narrowed as a fierce aura emerged.

"Old Mrs. Gu!"

"Hahahaha Young Master Chen really does have deaf ears!"

On the phone, Old Mrs. Gu's laughed, "Young Master Chen is worthy of being a true dragon among men, my father disappeared, was expelled from the Chen family by all the anti-bone boys and became a ruined lord, yet he still managed to stir up the world, this kind of skill really makes me admire him!"

A complimentary laugh, but with a bit of sarcasm.

Chen Dong had no patience at all, he knew what Old Madam Gu's call meant, and at this moment, what Old Madam Gu said was too harsh for him!

"If you have a fart, let it out!"

On the phone, there was silence for two seconds.

A whirlwind.

The old lady said in a deep voice: "Young master Chen wants to settle the southwest region in one go, attracting the world's giants and forces to flock, the old body deeply admire, but always heard that young master Chen is the most good and pure filial piety, but also ask Mr. Chen to be noble and end this move to settle the southwest, the old body advised young master Chen to have self-awareness, after all everyone does not want to see young master Chen well, young master Chen and why do you struggle stiflingly, desperately upward?"

"Heh"

Chen Dong pulled the corners of his mouth, disheveled and desolate smile, chest depression and anger as if to explode the chest cavity.

"Young master Chen has today's achievement, should be cherished, live a good little life is not beautiful? Why do you want to make everyone unhappy? I advise young master Chen not to be insensitive, otherwise Gu family ancestral graves will have two more piles of graves!"

Silence.

There was a dead silence.

The calm voice of Old Lady Chen on the phone seemed like a sword tilted from the sky, falling brazenly on Chen Dong's head.

The suffocating sound made Chen Dong almost frantic at this moment.

Chen Dong fiercely gritted his teeth, "As long as I terminate this plan, will my father-in-law and mother-in-law be able to return safely?"

"That's natural!"

Old Madam Gu laughed over the phone, "If Young Master Chen will behave, the old body will naturally behave as well, at most one or two extra conditions will be added then."

“My blood?”

Chen Dong’s face was full of depression and his eyes were scarlet, as if he was a fierce beast with pent up rage, and he raised his eyebrows.

“Young Master Chen is wise to the core!”

Old Madam Chen said with a smile, “I am not a brutal and unreasonable person, the matter is very important, so I will naturally give Young Master Chen time to think about it, whether to terminate the plan or to let his father-in-law and mother-in-law die, it is all up to Young Master Chen to choose, the time limit, according to the momentum of Young Master Chen’s momentum, it should be released at midnight, then at midnight, I need a choice from you, Young Master Chen! ”

Pop!

The phone hung up.

CLICK!

Chen Dong’s right hand lashed out, and the phone screen cracked under the tremendous force.

Resentment, anger, resentment

At this moment like a terrifying tsunami roared and engulfed Chen Dong.

Chen Dong sat on the chair, arching his back, his whole body trembling.

The aura that came out from his body caused the heaven and earth on this rooftop to seem to freeze, and the temperature plummeted to freezing point.

Settling the Southwest?

His father-in-law and mother-in-law?

He had already made his choice when he was speculating and apprehensive before!

As a man, his parents, his wife and children, his brothers and friends, these were the people he had to protect with his life.

But when it came to the moment when his speculations came true, the intense resentment was like a thousand sharp knives cutting into his body.

Time passed slowly.

Chen Dong seemed to be frozen, but his scarlet eyes were always staring at the time advancing a little on the broken phone screen.

Did Elder Long and the others not make a miracle after all?

As the time approached midnight zero, it was not only Chen Dong who was anxious and tormented.

All forces, the entire southwest region is anxious and tormented.

It was as if the vast southwest region had become a giant frying pan, frying everyone!

Dingtai Company.

The lights were bright.

Zhuge Qing, Chu Reed, Xiao Ma and the others were all waiting.

The momentum had been built up!

All that was waiting now was Chen Dong's command!

And within the Tianmen Mountain Villa.

Gu Qingying, Jiang Qilin, Fan Lu and Wu Chang, Zhao Brezhong and Qin Xiao Qian also looked ugly.

It was clear to everyone that tonight's Chen Dong was extraordinarily different!

The pressure was so overwhelming that no one here could be sure that they could bear it as well as Chen Dong!

The giants and giants of the world who had gathered in the southwest region were also waiting anxiously in their homes.

"What is going on with Chen Dong? The momentum has been built up and it's clear that he's going to make a move, but why is there no follow-up?"

"What exactly is Young Master Chen hesitating about? Where exactly should this southwest region go tonight?"

"I've been around for a hundred years, and I've been through all the big storms, but tonight I'm so disturbed by the Chen family young master's maneuvers that I can't sleep, what are you waiting for, young master Chen"

.....

Soon.

The time flowed to eleven fifty minutes past midnight.

Chen Dong remained rigid.

With scarlet eyes, his eyes changed and changed!

Behind him, the sound of footsteps rang out once again.

“Mr. Chen, is it a battle, is it a halt?”

Together with him, there was Qin Xiao Qian!

Qin Xiao Qian’s eyes were bleak as she glanced at the crumpled imperial edict in Chen Dong’s left hand.

That was the Prime Sword and the God’s Needle of the Sea that she had invited for Chen Dong!

But at this moment Chen Dong’s silence and delay had left her with a sense of despair like falling into an abyss.

“Hahahaha hahahaha”

Chen Dong suddenly threw back his head and laughed, his laughter was ear-splitting and reckless.

Jiang Qilin and Qin Xiao Qian were startled at the same time.

Under the dim yellow light.

The two of them clearly saw that Chen Dong, who was laughing, had tears flowing down from the corners of his eyes, which were narrowed into slits, like broken pearls.

A man’s tears are not lightly shed, it is just that he has not yet reached the point of sadness.

At this moment, how much pain should Chen Dong be in?

Jiang Qilin was immediately about to console him, but was stopped by Qin Xiaoqian tugging on his arm with one hand.

“It’s just that”

Chen Dong, who was laughing and shedding tears, slowly lowered his head, looked at the phone and the imperial edict, and said incomparably sadly: "All can't see me well, then it is not good, this reckoning will be an empty one, this world, I won't fight for it!"

As he spoke.

Under the gaze of Jiang Qilin and Qin Xiao Qian's horrified gaze.

Chen Dong directly picked up the imperial edict to tear it up.

"Mr. Chen!"

"Brother Dong!"

This scene frightened Jiang Qilin and Qin Xiao Qian's faces.

"Ten thousand things are empty, what I went through, I will never let Xiaoying go through it again, if I don't have my parents, there is only a way back in life, a great sorrow on earth!"

Suddenly.

The phone with the shattered screen, once again lit up with light and rang a ringtone.

This ringtone.

At this moment, it was like a thunderbolt from the sky.

The movement in Chen Dong's hand gave an abrupt lurch.

Jiang Qilin and Qin Xiao Qian also jerked to a halt.

Chen Dong turned his head and once he saw that it was Elder Long's mobile phone number, his obscure eyes instantly glowed with a glint of light.

It was as if a dying man had grabbed the last straw to save his life.

He hurriedly dropped the edict and held up the phone like a treasure, while constantly sniffing to stop crying.

"Hello, Elder Long!"

Chen Dong's voice was trembling, and at this moment he no longer cared about his image, so he simply knelt down on both knees and held the phone.

“Mr. Chen, this is Ye Yuanqiu, Elder Long was injured during the operation and is unable to talk, Mr. Chen’s parents have been found, both parents are safe and sound, Mr. Chen need not worry, you can take the final step!”

“Congratulations Mr. Chen, the flag has been won, and the world is lost in one fell swoop!”

Winner Takes All Chapter 1479-1480

Chapter 1479

Boom!

The words were hard and the words were like thunder.

In an instant, Chen Dong’s heart turned upside down.

Ye Yuanqiu’s call was like a big hand that instantly dragged him from the dark abyss right up to the sky!

If his father-in-law and mother-in-law were safe and sound, then he no longer had any worries!

“Well, well! If it had been any later, perhaps it would have been a total loss!”

An ecstatic Chen Dong was filled with tears and trembling all over.

He was glad that he had waited for such a long time to stalemate.

The moment of utmost importance!

The Gu Family and the Hong Society had been wrestling together for a minute and a second, and the outcome was decidedly different.

Finally had made him wait!

“Mr. Jiang, immediately notify the Dingtai crowd, make a move!”

Chen Dong rose up brazenly, his moment was majestic, so stern that it seemed like a sword rushing through the sky, wanting to tear apart the sky: “Xiao Qian, release this edict to the world, make it known that I want to settle this southwest region in one fell swoop, and I am determined to win it!”

“Yes, sir!”

“As you command!”

Jiang Qilin and Qin Xiao Qian both replied with delight.

Waiting for the two to leave.

Chen Dong, still trembling uncontrollably, slowly stood up, holding his phone while grabbing the imperial edict.

He stumbled over to the rooftop and looked at the lights and the gorgeous and magnificent villa area in all its glory, his tiredness and haggardness swept away and his entire essence was renewed.

Stern, out of sight, domineering, untamed and confident!

Clap

As Chen Dong shook his hand, the golden edict in his hand unfolded against the air.

The night breeze blew the edict to a rustle.

The words on the edict were strong and powerful.

“Little Shadow, I have done it! Even if the world is shocked, I am determined to win this time!”

The confident murmur echoed in the night sky.

With Chen Dong’s command, the company was waiting for the new Chen family.

Zhuge Qing, Chu Reed and Xiao Ma, who had been waiting for the Dingtai Company, started to mobilise at the first opportunity.

The large Dingtai Company was lit up all night long.

All the staff were on duty, and the projects in their hands were being pushed forward at the same time.

Not only that.

The Zhuge Family, the Zhang and Chu families in Kyoto, and the local Zhou Zunlong and Zhou Yanqiu were also all working on their projects under the cover of the night, as Chen Dong gave the order.

“Today from the dragon, the old ancestor Kong Ming is above, thankful for blessing the descendants of the Zhuge family!”

In the Zhuge Family, Zhuge senior kneels before the statue of Zhuge Kongming with tears in his eyes.

The Zhuge family is located in the southwest region, and once the southwest region takes off, apart from Chen Dong and the Rothschilds, the Zhuge family will undoubtedly be the biggest beneficiaries!

What's more, thanks to Chen Dong's kindness, everything under the Qin family's command could be swallowed up by the Zhuge family after the tragic disaster.

With this kind of heritage and strength, the future of the Zhuge family in the southwest region will be magnificent, and at this moment Zhuge senior can even foresee it.

Perhaps will be able to surpass Zhuge Kongming when his ancestor was alive!

Kyoto.

Chu family mansion, inside the hall.

The lights are bright.

All of the Chu family's rulers were present.

Among them was also Elder Zhang.

"It's moving, Mr. Chen has finally moved!"

A shout of alarm suddenly rang out, breaking the silence and oppression within the hall.

In an instant, everyone was ecstatic, their faces flushed red.

"Proceed immediately and unleash them all together!"

The old man of the Chu family ordered in a stern voice, "Call the reed at the same time, go all out, do not hold back and hide your clumsiness, the future of the two families of Zhang and Chu lies in her hands alone!"

Elder Zhang brushed his beard and smiled lightly, his eyes were a little complicated.

"Moved, waited for a day and a night, Mr. Chen finally moved ah, Master Chu, the two Zhang and Chu families have been fighting in the entertainment industry for so long, but now because Mr. Chen has moved to the southwest, it is the first time that your two families and mine have joined forces like this, this is really saddening ah!"

“Hmph! So what if the Chu family follows Mr. Chen and doesn’t want the status of Kyoto? The sky is high and the fish can leap from the sea! Old Zhang, don’t leave now, let’s get drunk tonight and celebrate!”

Master Chu said boldly.

The smile on Old Master Zhang’s face grew even bigger.

His thoughts were just the same as Master Chu’s.

Although the Zhang and Chu families had a high status in Kyoto, they were ultimately limited by their location in Kyoto and it was extremely difficult to continue to expand their family head strength.

But once the southwest region is settled, the heaven and earth there will be more than enough room for the Zhang and Chu families to continue to grow and expand!

“Zhou Yanqiu, it’s time for us to move together, what do you think?”

In the company, Zhou Zun Long asked Zhou Yanqiu.

However, Zhou Yanqiu pushed the glasses on the bridge of her nose and gave a teasing smile, “Zhou Zunlong, are you really stupid or are you faking it?”

“Hm?”

Zhou Zun Long froze for a moment.

Zhou Yanqiu’s gaze obscured for a moment, somewhat reluctantly, but still explained, “From the time Mr Chen asked me to help you share the consequences of your crazy land grab during the original land auction, we were already high and low in Mr Chen’s mind, the idea shouldn’t be mine, but yours!”

He was not stupid, being a business tycoon and accustomed to scheming, much less a reckless person like Zhou Zunlong.

When Chen Dong first asked him to help Zhou Zunlong share the consequences, he already had a clear idea.

He was also clear about what Chen Dong’s choice was because, after all, he had ridden the wall and been a wallflower at the time when Chen Dong first started, and there was no excuse for Chen Dong’s choice as this stain existed.

If his heart is not willing, he is also not willing.

Zhou Yanqiu could only endure his resentment, because he knew that if he endured his anger, his future would be broader!

The wind is from the dragon, the clouds are from the tiger!

If you work with the right person, sometimes it is more effective than trying a million times!

At the same time as the forces under Din Tai and Chen Dong were starting up.

The giants and giants of the world who had gathered in the southwestern region were all agitated, excited and ecstatic.

“It’s moving! Hahahaha Chen has finally moved, order it down and prepare overnight!”

“After waiting for so long, now we are finally going to see results, once Chen Dong moves, the value of the southwest region will be completely highlighted!”

“All aspects of the preparation to advance, the old man today with your equal, sleepless, also want to see this southwest bloom!”

.....

The various forces are all immersed in joy.

For them, holding the land parcels in the southwest region, once Chen Dong and the Rothschild family unleashed, the southwest region will be elevated in a straight line, and the value of the land parcels in their hands will skyrocket!

This cup of pie will soon be in their hands!

However.

The night is deep.

Just as the clouds were moving in all directions, the wind was rising.

An imperial edict from the Lord of the Heavenly Hearing Domain, however, was like a holy voice from the nine heavens, instantly shaking all the magnificent family heads and giants of power into speechlessness and dumbness.

The content of the edict, every word, was so powerful that it was impossible to disobey, overwhelming all beings with an almost supreme hegemony.

“The young lord of the Chen family, Chen Dong, is a man of great merit and virtue who wants to promote the development and prosperity of the southwest and share my worries. Anyone who disobeys this order will be the enemy of our region and will hinder the prosperity of our region.

Chapter 1480

Boom!

An imperial edict was like a bolt from the blue, instantly blowing the minds of the world’s great families and giants into a blank.

The contents of the imperial edict were so eloquent and overbearing.

Not only did it confirm Chen Dong’s status within the domain, it also directly determined that the land in the southwest region must be developed and constructed immediately in the short term, and cannot be resold, which directly fixed all the world’s giants and giants in the southwest region.

What’s more, if any extra-territorial power dares to disobey this edict, the price to be paid will be to make enemies of the entire domain.

This is a complete and utter killing!

An overwhelming, descending strike from above the nine heavens!

No powerful clan or force would dare to directly disobey and make an enemy of an entire domain!

And with that last sentence, the Domain Master was completely and utterly standing up for Chen Dong!

Pulling in the entire domain and supporting Chen Dong!

This mountain of support towered like a cloud, so hard that it was unshakeable!

Don’t say anything you don’t mean – say it up front, and don’t say later that you weren’t told beforehand!

With such a phrase in place, if any of the world’s giants gathered in the Southwest Region dare to disobey in the slightest, there will be no room for manoeuvre within the domain, but rather a direct descent of heavenly punishment!

The Southwest Region, which should have been in a state of revelry, was shocked by this edict and fell into complete silence!

The giants and giants of the world, who had been rubbing their hands together, were completely dumbfounded and called a halt to the start of the projects under their command.

“Is this madness? Why would that wild bastard Chen Dong have this up his sleeve? Is this his killer move?”

“A miscalculation, a miscalculation! How could I have overlooked that this son has a world of merit at his disposal and can reach the heavens?”

“The domain lord himself is standing up for him, is that wild bastard Chen Dong trying to play the entire world’s giants and powers to death? Laozi only wants to earn money from the wave land parcel, and now he wants to throw money in to develop and build it together too?”

“Good heavens! This imperial edict is the domain lord personally helping Chen Dong whale away the world!”

.....

The heads of the magnificent families and giants of power were cursing and grumbling at this moment.

They had come to the southwest region because they had run to Chen Dong and Rothschild, wanting a share of the pie, but now they hadn’t gotten a share of the pie, they had also directly cut their flesh and blood, doing the graft for Chen Dong and jointly developing and building the southwest region.

This made everyone resentful and spit out blood.

But the imperial edict was so powerful that no one dared to disobey it!

Even if they were still resentful, they had to gnash their teeth in their stomachs, and even if they were reluctant, they had to grit their teeth and do the dowry for Chen Dong!

In the entire southwestern region, tonight, only Chen Dong’s Dingtai, and the projects of several forces under his command, were steadily advancing.

The Gu Family.

Old Lady Gu stood in place, trembling all over, her features twisted and hideous as if she were a ferocious beast that wanted to devour people.

The room, long ago, had been smashed and smashed all over the place.

“Why? Why? Why?”

Old Madam Gu's eyes were bloodshot as she gritted her teeth, "Chen Dong, I advised you nicely, why did you have to put the lives of your father-in-law and mother-in-law at risk and forcefully start this? There is also this edict from the Lord of the Domain, the power of the Sectarials, my Gu Family also has it, why are you willing to do the dowry for Chen Dong, is he Chen Dong that important to you?"

On the other side.

The magnificent Chen Clan, surrounded by mountains and lit up with lights, was like a river of stars falling to earth.

But as the imperial edict was announced to the world.

The entire Chen family was in a state of darkness, and several families were happy and several families were sad.

Inside the Buddha Hall.

There was the sound of smashing.

Old Mrs. Chen's angry curses echoed.

"Why? Why did it turn out like this when we clearly had the victory in hand?"

"Damn it, wild bastard you deserve to die! You don't even care about your parents' lives, what makes you different from an animal?"

"Bastard, bastard, Chen Daolin, Chen Dong, you father and son are good, indeed, a tiger's father has no dog's son!"

Bang Bang Bang

Chen Daoping stopped at the entrance of the Buddha Hall and was silenced.

With the sound of the smashing inside, his body could not help but twitch and tremble again and again.

Until now, the southwestern region had become a wooden ship because of an imperial edict, he still had a buzzing brain and a sense of unreality as if he were dreaming.

No one had expected that Chen Dong would end up with such a descending blow of sleight of hand!

It was clearly a brutal and overbearing horizontal pressure, yet no one dared to resist!

This was the true Yang scheme!

“Ah!”

Inside the Buddha Hall, the shrill, harsh whine of Old Lady Chen resounded.

Chen Daoping was so frightened that he fell straight to his knees.

Immediately afterwards.

Old Mrs. Chen then walked out of the Buddha Hall with a strong wind surrounding her, blowing her white hair around, as if she was crazy.

“Ma

Chen Daoping called out in fear.

But Mrs. Chen was unaware of it and kept walking, gnashing her teeth as she did so.

“Li Lan, dead woman, you dead woman! You’ve really given birth to a good bastard, you son of a bitch, what right do you have to enter the ancestral hall? I’ll tear you down, I’ll smash you!”

Boom!

Chen Daoping was struck by lightning and immediately understood what Old Lady Chen was going to do.

But in the face of the furious Old Lady Chen, he did not dare to stop her, so he could only follow in silence.

In Chen Daocheng’s courtyard.

At the moment, the silence was like listening to a needle.

The mansion was like a pool of stagnant water.

The people who had just been exchanging glasses and laughing were now frozen like statues, and even the drunkenness they had built up had disappeared.

An edict was like a sword from the sky, directly across their necks.

It destroyed all their hopes and complacency!

“Brother Dao Cheng, what should we do now? What should we do now?”

One man asked in a panicked and piteous voice.

As soon as the words were spoken, the crowd also came to their senses.

“It’s over! The amount of money needed to develop and build the large amount of land in the southwest region within six months is astronomical!”

“Damn, how on earth are we going to pull out now? That bastard Chen Dong was able to ask the domain lord to send down an edict, this is a killing blow, a killing blow, how do we stop the damage now?”

“Stop the damage, my ass! Let’s cut and bleed, the edict is pouring down, my Chen family dares to resist? This time, we are helping Chen Dong as a graft, pushing him to develop the southwest region!”

The wailing and wailing was miserable.

One second in heaven, one second in the region.

With a single edict, Chen Daocheng’s faction went from being the biggest beneficiary to the biggest victim.

The difference was too much for anyone to bear.

With the amount of land they had acquired in the southwest region, the amount of money they would have to invest to really develop and build it all within half a year would be an astronomical figure that would rise geometrically!

For them, it would be astronomical too!

The difference between acquiring land and developing and building is huge!

The only thing that can be done is to pour money into the vortex of the South West region, to the death!

Keep smashing until, the whole southwest region is taking off!

“Damn it, stop it!”

Boom!

Chen Daocheng’s face turned blue and he shattered the table with a blatant slap, his voice raging to the sky.

At that very moment.

A servant hurriedly ran in, “My lords, the old lady is carrying a sword and has gone to the ancestral shrine!”

Chen Daocheng and the others were first stunned, and then their faces changed dramatically!

“Perhaps this is a turn of events!”

Chen Daocheng’s brows were knitted together, his eyes glowing with a shadowy, snake-like light: “If we can drag the old undead and that wild bastard into a deadly fight in the open, perhaps we still have room to manoeuvre in this game!”
