

Winner Takes All Chapter 1501-1510

Chapter 1501

A night without words.

Early the next morning.

Chen Dong, who had not slept all night, got up early and left the villa to exercise.

The warm morning sun sprinkled down on his skin and muscles, gilding them with a faint golden glow.

Every inch of muscle was evenly proportioned, with crystal clear beads of sweat dotting the tops, and as Chen Dong's movements rose and fell, every inch of muscle gave the impression of being extremely taut, harbouring endless explosive power.

Without the slightest pause, one exercise followed another.

Chen Dong was already drenched in sweat and panting, but he still didn't stop.

Even at the end, with every slight movement, a subtle sound like frying beans would be emitted from within his muscles, and the limit was gradually reached.

His arms and legs, his waist and abdomen were all sore and swollen with pain.

But Chen Dong still clenched his teeth and did not stop.

In the past, he had exercised in order to improve himself.

But this morning's exercise was to immerse himself in such a state, to force down his thoughts of grief and pain.

Throughout the night, he had been immersed in the immense grief of his father-in-law and mother-in-law's accident, and every frame of the video was like a sharp knife, ruthlessly stirring his nerves.

Words could not describe that feeling.

When his mother passed away, the blow to him was like the sky tumbling down.

Now something had happened to his father-in-law and mother-in-law again.

Experiencing the same dome overturned a second time, even Chen Dong felt the urge to collapse.

Not only was he grieving, but this night, he was also thinking about his future plans.

Inside the villa.

Gu Qingying slowly walked down the stairs, unable to find Chen Dong in all directions, but raised her eyes to see Elder Long, Fan Lu, Zhao Brezhong and Wu Chang standing in front of the door.

“Sister Xiao Lu, have you seen Chen Dong?”

Gu Qingying called out in a soft voice.

The four of them turned around, and Elder Long gestured for Gu Qingying to look outside.

Gu Qingying slowly walked up to a few people and gazed outwards, just in time to see Chen Dong who was doing push-ups at the moment.

“Xiaoying, what’s wrong with Mr. Chen? This workout of his today is too hard!”

Gu Qingying pointed to Chen Dong outside with some concern, “One thousand push-ups is one set, he’s already on his third set, and the other workouts he’s doing are many times more intense than before.”

“I don’t know, he disappeared as soon as I opened my eyes.”

Gu Qingying shook her head in confusion and bewilderment.

Several people looked worriedly at Chen Dong outside, none of them noticing that Elder Long’s expression had become incomparably complicated, even with a hint of guilt.

“If you want to do it quickly, you won’t be able to achieve it, even if Mr. Chen is a heavenly man, I’m afraid that overloading himself with this kind of exercise will leave behind a root of trouble!”

Changeless said with a deep gaze and worry, “Once he leaves behind hidden dangers, his martial arts future will definitely be limited!”

At these words.

Both Elder Long and Fan Lu, and even Zhao Broke-Ru nodded along.

This was like digging an aqueduct, a little bit of steady and steady progress could make the aqueduct neat and complete, everything was in order, and it could withstand the maximum pressure of water pressure after the water was filled.

If you move forward in a bold manner, the speed is indeed fast, but there are hidden problems in the details, the thickness is uneven, once the water is filled, the strong water pressure will not be a threat on a thick enough dam, but once it touches the weak hidden problem, it will be an instant collapse!

And yet.

“Wait!”

Suddenly, Zhao Breru exclaimed, “Why has Chen’s speed suddenly become faster? Just now, it clearly gave the impression that it couldn’t be supported!”

Boom!

The sound was like a thunderclap.

Elder Long and Fan Lu’s eyes suddenly exploded with a brilliant aura as they looked at Chen Dong in a dumbfounded manner.

The old man’s face suddenly stiffened as he raised his eyes and found that Chen Dong had not only not stopped, but had instead become faster, and did not have the same feeling of exhaustion and weakness as before, just as Zhao Baolu had said!

“Hiss~”

Wu Chang’s face turned blue and complicatedly raised his right hand and rubbed his cheek, it felt as if his cheek had been invisibly slapped, a hot and painful pain.

“This, this is breaking through the shackles?”

Fan Lu’s lips were noodling, somewhat in a trance.

The so-called shackles were actually the so-called transient limits.

When ordinary young people were doing physical exercise at school, when they were exhausted and struggled to make an inch of progress, the physical education teachers would urge the students to hold on a little longer, actually to help break this limit, and once they broke through, the individual’s own ability to endure, would be raised another notch.

Compared to ordinary people, the shackles of a martial artist are higher and more difficult to break!

This greatly limits less talented martial artists from continuing to improve.

“We’ve all overlooked a key.”

Elder Long murmured out, and under the astonished gazes of the crowd, he raised his right hand and pointed at Chen Dong outside, "Overlooking the fact that his name is Chen Dong, a demon who can eat epiphanies like a meal!"

At those words.

Fan Lu instantly revealed a look of realization, and after returning to his senses, he looked at Chen Dong again with a gaze that was no longer the same as before, but was instead calm and composed.

Such a thing, placed on Chen Dong, was just what it was supposed to be!

"If only I could be like this."

Zhao Broke-Ru did not hide his envy, murmuring his longing.

"Yes, if you had Chen's talent, you could learn all of Xu Qingfeng's skills as well." Changeless said conspiratorially.

Zhao Broken looked askance at Impermanence, but didn't say anything.

"I also feel that he's strange today."

While the crowd was amazed, Gu Qingying wrinkled her eyebrows and pondered, "It feels like he's hiding something from me."

Long Lao's pupils at the side tightened up at once.

Thinking of Chen Dong's request last night, he hurriedly smiled and said, "Young lady is overly concerned, now that the situation in the southwest is so good, the young master should just think that he neglected to exercise for the southwest before and focus on exercising a bit today."

"Perhaps is it."

Gu Qing Ying hesitantly murmured.

With the rising of the sun.

The entire southwest region, after a day and a night of fermentation, seemed to have entered a state of chicken blood.

With an imperial decree descending.

For the entire Southwest Region, this day and night was a national revelry feast!

The future of the Southwest Region would be golden even in the eyes of ordinary people!

But for the giants and powers of the world who had gathered in the southwest region with the intention of getting a piece of the pie, they almost vomited blood, and the lords and giants of the region did not close their eyes for a day and a night, holding their anger in.

But when the edict came, no one dared to disobey it.

After a day and a night of silence, the media were bombarded with a barrage of news early in the morning.

“Rockefeller family, announces land development in southwest territory starting today

“The oil tycoon announced that in the next six months, it will complete the construction of all the land parcels in the hands of the southwest territory.”

“Following the domain master’s order, for harmonious development, the Ding Sheng Consortium will choose a land in the southwest territory today to plan its headquarters, and work with all of you to develop and promote the southwest territory to take off.”

.....

The news was bombarded by rounds of giants and giants of power from all over the world announcing the start of construction.

There was also a piece of news about the Ding Sheng Consortium choosing a site for its headquarters.

But in the midst of the dense bombardment of news, one piece of news quietly surfaced.

The content was short, even with a single headline – Galaxy Industries will enter the southwest region to provide strong support for its development!

So much so that amidst this overwhelming bombardment of news, ordinary people simply ignored it.

But when the news broke, all the world’s powerful family heads and giants gathered in the southwest region turned blue and pounded their chests, wanting to vomit blood on the spot.

“Damn it, damn it! Galaxy Industries, if I remember correctly, this is clearly a mineral industry under the Chen family, and it should be in Chen Dong’s hands now!”

“Damn, damn! Little thief Chen Dong, you have caused us all to be thieves! It’s just as well that you tricked the world’s giants into doing your dowry, but now you are trying to smash those trillions of assets into the southwest region and forcefully whale the world’s blood?”

“Young Master Chen! Worthy of being Young Master Chen! You brought us into the game and now you are smashing your industries into the southwest region... Yes, aren’t your trillions of assets in the real estate chain? You have asked us to help you develop the southwest region and bleed for you, and now you are using this industry chain to pump us backwards? You’ve made a lot of money this time, both in terms of money and face!”

Chapter 1502

The gentry were furious and cursed.

Even for the heads of these powerful families and giants, they couldn’t help but be furious and angry.

An imperial edict had made the world’s most powerful families do Chen Dong’s dowry, forcibly changing the entire southwest region within six months.

The news thrown out by Galaxy Industries was undoubtedly a thunderbolt to the already resentful giants of the powerful families.

This is no longer a case of pulling the rug out from under them!

This is digging up the roots of a grave!

The world has to do the dowry for them while at the same time forcibly pumping the “blood” of the world’s giants, how ruthless a calculation should this be?

Is this really the kind of manners that Chen Dong has at his age?

As the news spread, the anger and resentment of more and more powerful giants towards Chen Dong rose sharply.

And as the early morning news rounds bombarded them, the magnate giants all deliberately paid attention to the one news item that broke.

They were shocked to discover that among the news announced by the major powers to the outside world, there was a brief, hard-to-notice news item interspersed.

Without exception, all of them were related to the trillions of assets under Chen Dong’s command!

At the same time as the giants and giants of the world, all of whom had been declared to be developing due to the edict of the domain lord, Chen Dong had also successfully dumped all of his trillion dollar assets into the southwest region!

This undoubtedly made the giants and giants gathered in the southwest region furious and full of grievances.

Tianmen Mountain Villa.

After a day and a night of work, Jiang Qilin, Chu Reed and Zhuge Qing, had finally returned.

However, none of the three were the least bit tired, especially Chu Reed and Zhuge Qing, who were refreshed and their entire being was overflowing with unconcealed joy.

Chen Dong's successful determination of the southwest was of no harm to those of them who were from the dragon!

Whether it was the land they grabbed this time, or their future development, in this region of the Southwest, to them, it was like a dragon returning to the sea!

"Hehe, Mr. Chen's aura has become more majestic again!"

Jiang Qilin noticed Chen Dong in the courtyard and could not help but be astonished.

Chu Reed and Zhuge Qing also looked along with him.

At this moment, Chen Dong had already finished his workout and was sitting in the courtyard, bare-chested, with inches of muscle dotted with crystal beads of sweat, which seemed to be gilded with a layer of light under the sun.

It was clear that he was just sitting in meditation.

But at a glance, even Chu Reed noticed something very different about Chen Dong.

Just as the three looked at Chen Dong, Chen Dong also looked over towards them.

"Thank you all for your hard work, you have been busy all day and night."

The three of them walked towards Chen Dong at the same time.

Zhuce Qing and Chu Reed exchanged a few pleasantries before entering the villa.

Jiang Qilin, on the other hand, settled down beside Chen Dong.

“Mr. Chen’s planning is truly amazing, dumping all the trillions of assets into the southwest region, within the next six months, is enough to make this snowball roll to sensational proportions!”

Jiang Qilin praised with emotion, “Did Mr. Chen already think of this step when he was initially scheming for the southwest?”

“Mm.”

Chen Dong did not avoid nodding, “Trillions of assets are my foundation, but it is difficult to grow me to the point of withstanding monstrous waves in a short period of time, I do not have much time, I can only take this step.”

“But is Mr. Chen so certain that the world’s giants and giants of power in the southwest region will definitely choose you for this chain of industries when it comes to development?”

Jiang Qilin smiled and inquired, “This time to set up the southwest, not to say that Mr. Chen has crossed the world, but the world’s giants and power giants that converge to the southwest region will definitely have grievances in their hearts, what if they bypassed Mr. Chen’s trillion asset industrial chain?”

Chen Dong rubbed his nose and smiled proudly, “That would only be possible if they could bypass it.”

Jiang Qilin froze for a moment.

Chen Dong explained, “My trillions of assets are all in this one industrial chain of real estate, minerals sand and gravel, construction materials and so on, rolling it up at full force, it can indeed make me a fortune, as long as there is a six-month period stuck in the imperial edict, they can’t get around me here, only if I want to supply them or not, not if they choose not to choose us, even if they want to get around, but southwest Even if they want to bypass, but Southwest China is such a big piece of cake, even if I can’t swallow all of it, I can still swallow most of it, half a year is a very short time!”

Jiang Qilin suddenly realized, “Mr. Chen is brilliant! Specifically sticking time in the imperial edict, not only is it completing the construction of the southwest region in half a year’s time, it is also directly cutting off the hidden danger of trillions of assets rolling in, killing two birds with one stone!”

As a Jiang family Qilin, he lacked in human affairs, but never lacked in experience in the business world.

Half a year might seem like a long time, but for business purposes, it was actually very short!

To develop the southwest region in half a year, and to get enough material supply in such a short period of time, it was really hard for other forces to afford it, except for Chen Dong who had already prepared for it.

Even if some of the magnates and giants wanted to get a piece of the pie in terms of materials, but obtaining qualifications and then slowly going through the process, half a year would simply not be enough time!

To put it politely, Chen Dong's half-year period is a big yang conspiracy!

Even if the world's giants had grievances in their hearts, they would still have to hold their noses and honestly come to Chen Dong to purchase materials for the construction!

Conspiracies are easy to prevent, but yang plots are hard to stop!

Chen Dong had gone straight to the heavens and invited the Domain Lord's edict, which would undoubtedly be a complete downgrade to the entire southwest region!

Chen Dong smiled gently, but deep under his eyes, an endless sadness flowed.

After a few seconds of silence, he suddenly asked, "By the way, Mr Jiang, could you know where the mountain gate of the Gatekeeper Gu Family is located?"

Jiang Qilin froze instantly, "Why is Mr. Chen suddenly curious about the mountain gate of the Gu Family?"

"The Gu Family has killed me at every turn along my journey, and now that Southwest China is set, it's time to settle the score."

Chen Dong uttered a reason that made it impossible for anyone to raise suspicion.

Not to mention the old lady Chen who had already perished, just the original Heavenly Killing Game as a start, this whole journey, the Gu Family had been a victim at every turn, this account alone was enough to cover up the matter of his father-in-law and mother-in-law!

Jiang Qilin nodded, but was somewhat troubled: "The Gu family became a clan back then with martial arts, and was magnificent for a while, only after the Chen family struck out at the Gu family back then, the Gu family hibernated and disappeared, and only in recent years did they slowly show themselves, after what happened back then, they have also been much more careful and cautious, and where the mountain gate is now, Qilin does not know."

After a pause, he added, "But if Mr. Chen wants to explore, Qilin can ask someone in his family to look into it, it is not difficult for the Jiang family."

“Then I’ll trouble Mr. Jiang!”

Chen Dong got up and gave a fist bump to Jiang Qilin.

“Hahahaha A mere trifle, nothing to worry about!”

Jiang Qilin waved his hand and laughed.

The two of them were about to walk towards the house.

Gu Qingying suddenly walked out in a hurry.

“What’s wrong?”

Chen Dong inquired.

Gu Qingying’s face was complicated as she said, “The security people at the villa area have just informed that there are some people who want to see us, it seems to be Uncle Dao Ye and the others.”

Winner Takes All Chapter 1503-1504

Chapter 1503

“Uncle Dao Ye and the others?”

Chen Dong was a little surprised and tilted his head to look at the sun above his head.

How long has it been since I returned, how come Uncle Dao Ye and the others followed me when I came back on my front foot?

Has something happened to the Chen family?

“They’ve already come in.” Gu Qingying said.

Chen Dong nodded, “Come with me and pick them up.”

Gu Qingying did not refuse, after all, they were all his own uncles, it was a courtesy to pick them up.

Soon.

A taxi sped up to the outside of the villa courtyard.

As soon as he saw the taxi, Chen Dong was confused, a sense of foreboding came over him.

When the car door opened and several uncles stepped down, Chen Dong's pupils suddenly tightened.

Gu Qingying, who was on the side, even raised her jade hand to cover her mouth, almost screaming out.

Even Jiang Qilin was a little stunned.

There were four uncles in total, yet there was no sign of Chen Dao Ye.

Even the four of them, at the moment, were frighteningly down and out in Chen Dong's eyes.

Their hair was dishevelled, they looked tired, and their eyes were filled with blood.

Although all four of them intended to cover up, Chen Dong could still see that their clothes were stained with blood!

"Uncles, what has happened?"

Chen Dong hurriedly greeted them.

"Young master!"

The four shouted at the same time, and one of them had tears dripping out of his eyes with a swish, his lips trembling as he lamented, "The Chen family has broken up!"

Boom!

Chen Dong was struck by lightning, somewhat unable to return to his senses.

Looking at the four despondent uncles, he was in a bit of a trance, but still said, "Uncles, go inside first, Xiao Ying tell Sister Xiao Lu to prepare a few more dishes."

After the four men met with Jiang Qilin and saluted, they walked into the villa with Chen Dong.

At the arrival of the four of them, Elder Long and the rest of the family were quite surprised.

However, seeing Chen Dong's grave expression, the people did not go forward to ask questions and allowed Chen Dong to lead the four into the study.

Inside the study.

Chen Dong greeted the four people and took their seats, making tea for them before sitting down on a chair and asking.

“Uncle and uncle, what exactly has happened to the Chen family? And where is Uncle Dao Ye?”

He knew clearly that since his father had “disappeared”, the faction of the family head was actually led by Chen Dao Ye.

The four of them bowed their heads and sighed at the same time.

One of them held up a cup of tea and took a sip, his eyes gradually became frightened before he slowly said.

“After you beheaded the old lady and left yesterday, Chen Daocheng suddenly mobilised his bodyguards and launched a duel, directly besieging the mansions of all those in power in the Chen family.”

A simple sentence, but it caused Chen Dong’s heart and soul to tremble.

Had it all gone so rampant to this extent?

When he had beheaded the old lady, he had actually budgeted that the Chen Family would be completely torn apart by the various factions in their future situation of having no leader.

But he simply did not expect that this storm would come so quickly and suddenly in the Chen Family!

“I never thought that Chen Daocheng and the others would be so decisive.”

Chen Dong rubbed his nose, his eyes deep, “I beheaded the old lady and reminded Uncle Dao Ye when I left, in fact, at that time I had already predicted that the Chen family would break up, so I asked Uncle Dao Ye to consider bringing all the uncles to come to the southwest with his family, but I never thought that just a day later

Another Chen family elder, slowly said, “Brother Dao Ye took your words into consideration and was looking for us to discuss, but Chen Daocheng and the others acted so quickly that the factions didn’t even have time to react, even we

Speaking of this, this elder suddenly wept.

Another elder took over: “We were all at Brother Dao Ye’s residence at the time, Chen Daocheng and his men cut off all communication directly, we couldn’t even mobilize our bodyguards, but it was Brother Dao Ye’s son who sneaked out of his residence to contact our houses, but because of this, Brother Dao Ye sent his white hair to his black hair. The four of them were all in tears at the moment.

The four men's eyes were now red with tears and trembling.

Chen Dong couldn't help but suck in a cold breath backwards, his eyes swished red.

The elders had said very little, but from these few words, and from their appearance and demeanour in front of him, Chen Dong's mind had already conjured up a tragic scene of what had happened to the Chen family!

To have a man in power lose his son on the spot, this was no longer just a split!

It was a slaughter of swords, a river of blood and heads rolling!

In a trance, Chen Dong's heartbeat banged faster as he asked in a deep voice, "Where's Uncle Dao Ye?"

"At first, Brother Dao Ye and us were thinking of losing part of our family business and giving it to Chen Daocheng and the others, as long as we could leave safely, but we didn't even expect them to do such a desperate thing! Their people are so ruthless that they will simply kill if they don't submit, they don't even give room for negotiation."

An elder wiped a tear heavily, "Brother Dao Ye fell into the hands of Chen Daocheng and the others to cover our departure, the situation was so urgent that we could hardly even bring out our respective families, and only by relying on over a hundred bodyguards to die to protect us did we rush to the airport to grab a plane and escape!"

"Now the Chen family has been isolated from the world, Chen Daocheng and the rest of them are killing their eyes, because of the family business, Brother Dao Ye is still safe for the time being, but once Chen Daocheng and the rest of them have completely whaled away the family business, the people up and down the Chen family who are not subservient, perhaps"

Ka!

The teacup in Chen Dong's hand cracked at the sound, spilling tea all over the table.

The four elders raised their heads at the same time and looked towards Chen Dong.

At this moment, Chen Dong's face was as cold as frost, his eyes narrowed into slits, and his cold light was bitterly cold.

A bone-chilling chill filled the entire study.

It caused the four elders to change their expressions abruptly.

“Heh!”

The corners of Chen Dong’s half mouth tugged, “Good, very good! This ragged and decaying Chen Family is decaying far faster than I could have imagined.”

A whirlwind.

Chen Dong swept a glance at the four elders and said soothingly, “The four uncles are at ease, it will be lunch soon, after lunch, my nephew will go to the Chen Family to bring back Uncle Dao Ye, and all of your family members.”

“Dong’er, don’t be impulsive!”

One elder hurriedly discouraged him, “The Chen family is now in deep water, Chen Daocheng’s faction has completely taken control of the situation and has many people under its command, going to the Chen family without any haste is undoubtedly trespassing on a dragon’s den!”

The remaining three elders also nodded in agreement.

“I’m calm.”

Chen Dong smiled, a cold aura erupting in his eyes, “If they have more people, can they still have as many people as me? Uncle Dao Ye and the families of all the uncles, he, Chen Daocheng, has to pay even if he gives, or not!”

Although he was smiling.

But when the smile fell into the eyes of the four elders, it made their hearts leap with fear.

The next second.

Chen Dong took out his mobile phone and dialed a number.

When the call was answered, Chen Dong smiled and said, “Senior brother, how have you been?”

There was a two-second pause.

Chen Dong added, “I want to ask you to borrow some troops, but I need them to arrive at the Chen Clan before dark, ten thousand men should be enough to attack the Chen Clan, right?”

Boom!

The sound was like loud thunder, exploding in the ears of the four elders.

In an instant, the four men's eyes erupted with essence and became delighted and excited.

They knew who Chen Dong was, and they understood how much weight this call carried!

This was a real loan of troops!

Borrowing the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army in Huo Zhenxiao's hands!

Chapter 1504

When Chen Dong hung up the phone.

The four elders were already in tears, unable to contain themselves in excitement.

Chen Dong smiled and said, "Uncles, don't worry, 10,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders should be enough to ask Chen Daocheng for men, right?"

"Enough, it's enough!"

"Hahahaha Dong'er, how could I have forgotten the identity of your Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army's leading guard!"

"With this 10,000 Great Snow Dragon Riding Army on our doorstep, Brother Dao Ye and our families from all sides will be safe and sound!"

"Dong'er, I'm counting on you this time!"

With this phone call, the four people who were originally apprehensive relaxed.

The fighting strength of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, they all knew it well!

With 300,000 people guarding a city, it had become the Northern Region's heavenly wrath to stop the Hundred Tribes outside the domain, such fighting strength, it was not too much to say that it was the number one in the world!

That was a group of existences that could withstand hot weapons with their physical bodies!

"Let's go down to lunch."

Chen Dong looked at the time and got up and made an inviting gesture to the four of them.

By the time Chen Dong and the four uncles reached the dining room, Gu Qingying and the others were all present.

The table was filled with dishes, and although they were all home-cooked dishes, under the care of Fan Lu and Wu Chang, each dish was also full of colour and flavour.

Gu Qingying, Elder Long and the others were all curious about what was happening in the Chen family.

However, seeing that Chen Dong and the four elders had no intention of telling them, they did not ask too many questions.

After lunch.

Chen Dong changed into a casual outfit and then said to Gu Qingying, "Wife, I have to go out for a while, I won't be back for dinner."

"Is it the Chen family's business?"

Gu Qingying asked, "The four uncles are like that, something big must have happened to the Chen family."

Chen Dong did not hide and nodded, "The family has changed, I have to go and welcome Uncle Dao Ye and the others back."

Gu Qingying instantly revealed a worried look.

However, she still held her jade hand tightly and nodded, "Be safe, the baby and I will wait for you to return safely at home, as well as Uncle Dao Ye and the others."

Chen Dong's remark that the family had changed made her understand that the situation of the Chen family must have reached a very dangerous point now.

She was also clear that Chen Dong's departure was bound to be dangerous.

But she knew even better that Chen Dong had to go!

After Chen Daolin's disappearance and Chen Dong's expulsion from the Chen family, it was Chen Daoye and his uncles who had snatched out trillions of assets for Chen Dong, which had made it possible for him to operate in the southwest of China today.

For this kindness alone, Gu Qingying felt that Chen Dong should go!

As a wife, the biggest help when you know your husband can't do nothing, is to support!

"Mm, I'll be back as soon as I can."

A warmth flowed in Chen Dong's heart as he went up and gently kissed Gu Qingying on her forehead before he turned around.

When he walked to the living room on the ground floor.

However, Elder Long and Jiang Qilin were already standing at the door waiting.

Seeing Chen Dong.

Elder Long and Jiang Qilin greeted him at the same time.

"Young master, several masters have already spoken to old slave roughly, so on this trip, old slave will accompany you!"

"Mr. Chen, Qilin is willing to go with you!"

Chen Dong shook his head, "I'll just go alone."

"But"

Elder Long immediately wanted to argue.

However, Chen Dong smiled proudly, "With the current situation of the Chen family, can Chen Daocheng and the others be any more ruthless than the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army?"

As soon as the words left his mouth.

Elder Long and Jiang Qilin then changed their faces and fell silent.

With the prestige of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, that was indeed enough!

A large army at the door was already brutally crushing!

.....

When Chen Dong arrived at the airport on the outskirts of the city, everything had already been arranged and without the slightest stop, he directly entered the airport runway and boarded a special plane.

The new Chen Chen has just made a small beginning, but the old Chen Chen has already reached a situation of death and defeat, the greed of the human heart can really drive people crazy!"

Night falls.

The Chen family, situated between the mountains, seems to be isolated from the world, as quiet as stagnant water.

The Chen family, which used to be prosperous and full of people, is as cold as can be tonight.

The airport is closed.

Even the lights in the large Chen family have become sporadic, flickering in the night.

The Chen family's mountain gates were tightly closed, and the air seemed to be filled with the smell of blood.

Every now and then, a team of bodyguards patrolled around the Chen family's estate.

For a whole day and night, the magnificent Chen family seemed to be in another world, completely disconnected from the outside world.

Inside Chen Daocheng's mansion.

The lights were exceptionally bright at the moment.

A team of bodyguards stood in the courtyard, looking solemn and alert.

And in the living room.

Chen Daocheng and Chen Daoye were sitting opposite each other, silent.

The living room was so quiet that the air seemed to freeze.

"Chen Daoye, I don't have much patience to grind slowly with you."

Chen Daocheng picked up his tea and took a sip, breaking the dead silence in the living room.

At this moment, Chen Daoye was dishevelled, his hair was dishevelled, his clothes were bloody, and his eyes were hollow and dark, lost in thought.

In the face of Chen Daocheng's words, Chen Daoye did not move a muscle and ignored them.

Bang!

Chen Daocheng slapped the table with his palm and got up with a fierce voice, shouting: "Chen Daoye, no one but me can be the new head of this Chen family. Even if they find Chen Dong, that bastard Chen Dong will never be able to save the day!"

When he heard the word “son”, Chen Dao Ye’s obscure eyes finally regained focus.

“Ah!”

In an instant, Chen Dao Ye looked as if he had gone mad, his scarlet eyes were tearful, but he was as fierce and vicious as a beast.

With a shrill whistle, Chen Daoye pounced directly in front of Chen Daocheng.

Bang!

Chen Daocheng looked aghast and kicked Chen Daoye in the stomach.

This kick was powerful and heavy.

Chen Daoye let out a miserable cry and flew straight backwards, landing heavily on the ground.

“Give back my son, give back my son Chen Daocheng, the Chen family has produced these evil sons of yours, even if I die, I will never hand over the family business to you!”

Chen Daoye hissed and roared, struggling several times, but struggling to get up.

“You have to hand it over even if you don’t!”

Chen Daocheng gritted his teeth and lifted his finger to the outside, “They will be back soon, those who obey me will prosper and those who disobey me will die.

The words were full of ruthlessness.

At that moment.

A person in power under Chen Daocheng rushed in, “Brother Daocheng, a plane has arrived at the airport, it’s, it’s

“Who the hell is it? Tell him to get lost!”

Chen Daocheng scolded angrily.

The man in charge said with trepidation, “It’s Chen Dong!”

Chen Daocheng was instantly shocked.

Chen Daoye on the ground even stopped crying and wailed, “Dong’er, what are you doing here at this time?”

Almost simultaneously.

Chen Daocheng laughed, "Good timing, just in time! Dao Ye, you really did not love this wild young master for nothing, knowing that there is a tiger on the mountain!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 1505-1506

Chapter 1505

Chen Daocheng's laughter sounded like a cold wind from the depths of the Nine Phenomena, which entered his bones and marrow.

Chen Daoye shuddered violently, horrified and terrified.

"No, Young Master, run away!"

With a shrill cry, Chen Daoye stood up with all his might and rushed outside like a madman.

The pain of losing his son had left him devastated, but he still had what was left of his sanity.

The Chen family had changed, there were mountains of corpses outside, and Chen Daocheng's faction was showing its scales and claws.

But he had just reached the door.

The man in charge who had come to report the incident suddenly looked hostile and took a step forward, hitting Chen Dao Ye's abdomen with a brutal knee strike.

Chen Daoye let out a scream, his face turned pig's liver and he bowed directly into a shrimp shape.

He then pulled Chen Dao Ye back into the living room, and then he gave Chen Dao Ye a heavy thump on the chest.

"Poof!"

Chen Dao Ye spat out a mouthful of blood, his chest was in severe pain, and he almost passed out directly, even his eyes became dazed and hollow.

"How many people have come?"

Chen Daocheng asked with a fierce smile as he looked indifferently at what was happening in front of him.

The man in charge said with an odd expression, "Just him! Oh yes, and the special plane pilot."

Just one?!

Chen Daocheng froze in shock.

After three seconds of silence, he laughed disdainfully, "This wild bastard, does he really think that the Chen family is the Chen family of yesteryear, does he really think that we still have to be mindful of the family's iron law and don't dare to take action against him easily?"

At the end of his sentence, Chen Daocheng took a deep breath with force.

The smell of blood that filled the air poured into his nasal cavity, and he instantly narrowed his eyes slightly, revealing a look of obsession and madness.

"Up and down the Chen family, has Laozi cut down more than a hundred people? Since he dares to come, then will chop him up too!"

Chen family airport.

With a command from Chen Daocheng.

The closed airport finally gave permission for the planes hovering in the night sky to land down.

This was the only "outsider" during the day and night of the Chen family's change!

The lights were out.

The tower on the ground was standing by.

Without waiting for the plane to land, a team of bodyguards were already lined up around the airport, ready to go.

The loud roar of the engines resonated through the night sky.

Like a falcon, the plane swooped down and began to taxi.

The plane came to a halt.

The bodyguards, who had already been watching intently, swarmed up like a tidal wave and surrounded the plane.

"Chen Dong, come down!"

An explosive shout suddenly exploded in the crowd.

These bodyguards, all of whom were Chen Daocheng's and others' close friends, had long since become red with murder after participating in the Chen family's family mutiny.

Even if their master had no regard for the family bloodline, these "hawks and dogs" had even less regard for it!

The hatch slowly opened.

Chen Dong, dressed in a suit, stood indifferently at the door of the cabin, looking down on the crowded bodyguards below.

Immediately, a teasing smile crossed his indifferent face.

"What dog has ever dared to bark at its master?"

The thick banter pierced to the bone.

The people who had just burst out to drink at Chen Dong instantly turned blue and gritted their teeth.

In full view of the crowd.

With his hands in his suit pockets, Chen Dong walked down the street step by step, strolling leisurely and calmly, with a look of disdain between his eyebrows, as if the dozens of murderous bodyguards in front of him were all as if they were nothing.

From the beginning to the end, these bodyguards did not dare to make a move, and the whole room was as quiet as a pin.

The Chen family had changed overnight, but Chen Dong's prestige in the Chen family had not diminished in the slightest.

He was known as a wild child, but he had defied the Chen family's iron law and disobeyed his superiors time and again.

Not to mention the fact that on Chen Daolin's birthday, Chen Dong, with his world-renowned achievements, had overpowered all the successors of the Chen Family and secured the position of young master in one fell swoop, causing the world's most powerful families to compete for congratulations.

So much so that at this moment, when facing Chen Dong, the dozens of bodyguards, who were covered in blood, actually felt a sense of fear similar to that of the animal world, where they were suppressed by their bloodline.

Chen Dong walked up to the man who had just burst into song, "Dog, you want to devour your master?"

Being gazed at by Chen Dong, a hint of panic flashed in the man's eyes, before anger surfaced again.

Who the hell was this to escort who?

A strong sense of humiliation arose, and this bodyguard was about to sternly shout.

However, Chen Dong smiled teasingly, "Forget it, go to the plane and bring my sword."

"Chen Dong! The current Chen family is no longer the Chen family it once was, and this young master status of yours is no longer useful to us!"

This bodyguard was full of anger and scolded in a stern voice.

"The Chen Family is naturally no longer the Chen Family."

Chen Dong narrowed his eyes and pretended to take a deep breath, "This air is filled with the stench of blood and decay, how could the Chen Family, which holds all the world's wealth, have such a foul stench?"

One word came out.

The dozens of bodyguards in the room all changed their faces dramatically.

Chen Dong continued, "I'm here to find your master, Chen Daocheng. Dogs, they should do what they are told, otherwise you ask your master?"

This bodyguard hesitated at once.

Chen family family changes, indeed kill the heads rolled.

But his status, compared to Chen Dong's, was not worth mentioning at all.

And when Chen Daocheng had given the order just now, he had not told them to kill Chen Dong on the spot.

After hesitating for a moment, this bodyguard forced himself to hold back his humiliation and stifled his head as he ran onto the plane.

Ignoring the dozens of bodyguards, Chen Dong slowly turned around and looked towards the cabin door, the corners of his mouth were smiling, but his eyes gradually narrowed and a bitter cold light raged out.

Soon.

The bodyguards were red-faced and straining to drag the bladeless heavy sword out of the cabin door.

Squeak squeak

On the way, the bladeless heavy sword scraped against the ground, emitting an ear-splitting sound.

The atmosphere, too, became extraordinarily stern.

“Here comes the sword!”

Chen Dong stuck his left hand in his pocket, and his right hand directly reached out to the bodyguard.

With this action, a fearful, jail-like pressure pressed down horizontally on the bodyguard in front of him.

The bodyguard’s eyes fluttered for a moment, and in an instant, his sweat stood on end, as if he had fallen into an ice cave.

Chen Dong’s voice rang out in his ears, filling his ears like magic.

Without even the slightest hesitation, he strained to push the hilt of his bladeless heavy sword into Chen Dong’s right hand.

The next second.

Boom!

The gale rose.

Bang Teeny!

With a loud bang, blood flew into the air, and with it splattered out pieces of flesh and bone, clattering to the ground.

Silence.

A dead silence!

The sudden scene caught all the dozens of bodyguards present off guard.

When they woke up, all of them looked terrified and silent.

In the line of sight, a headless corpse was spurting a fountain of blood as it fell towards the ground.

It was as if the scene had been slow-played in the eyes of each of the bodyguards, and the chill went to their bones!

The whirlwind.

Chen Dong turned around and casually swept off the blood and flesh from his body before sweeping his eyes across the room, "You have to have the consciousness of a dog to be a dog, take me to see your master!"

Chapter 1506

The lights were sporadic and cold.

Chen Dong sat in the car, resting his bladeless heavy sword on his legs, his expression indifferent, but his gaze sweeping the surroundings was complicated and hard to understand.

How grand was the Chen family in the past?

Even late at night, the Chen family airport was comparable to the general airports in some regions.

The night was like daylight, and the flight paths that passed through the night sky were even marked out enough to form a splendid star map.

But once the family changed, the Chen family tonight made Chen Dong feel an unprecedented coldness and withering silence, the corruption and decay that diffused upwards from the roots of decay.

Even with Chen Dong's six senses, even though he was still some distance away from the Chen family pagoda, he could still smell the blood in the air.

This made him appear calm on the surface, but his heart had already set off shocking waves.

"Dad, did you already anticipate this scene of the Chen family today? It's just that this scene came at a time that far exceeded your expectations."

This was the thought in Chen Dong's mind.

All the way forward, around the vehicle Chen Dong was in, the dozens of bodyguards from earlier were sitting in a dozen vehicles, as if the stars were arching over the moon, clustering around the vehicle Chen Dong was in as it approached the Chen Family's Zhuang Yuan.

The few bodyguards who were travelling with Chen Dong were now enveloped by Chen Dong's aura, and were even more silent and stiff, even their breathing was deliberately suppressed.

The scene of Chen Dong's killing and decisiveness just now was like a nightmare that haunted the minds of these bodyguards, lingering in their minds.

After passing through the Chen family pagoda.

Chen Dong then got out of the car, carrying Fengless on his back, and walked towards the Chen family manor garden, surrounded by dozens of bodyguards.

Under the light, the silhouette of the man stretched long and long, showing a stern and cold look.

In the silence around them, the only sounds were those of Chen Dong and his bodyguards raising their feet and taking steps.

It was hard to imagine that the Chen family, which had once been trodden down by the world's giants and giants, would actually have such a silent moment.

All along the way.

The smell of blood in the air was getting thicker and thicker.

Chen Dong looked indifferent, but his mind was getting more and more complicated, and an invisible pent-up Qi was clogging up in his chest.

Although he was regarded as a wild child by the Chen family, he was after all the rightful young master of the Chen family.

Now that the Chen family has collapsed to such a state, he too has mixed feelings, and his heart is suffocating.

The magnificent Chen family, with all its wealth, standing in the clouds, overlooking the world's giants like ants, all these words of praise now seem ridiculous in the context of the Chen family, which has changed so drastically in one day and one night!

If this scene within the Chen family were to get out, how much more would the world be shaken?

The world has really come to a point of chaos with the collapse of the Chen family in a single night of dramatic change?

The company's business is a very important part of the company's business.

The number of bodyguards around him had obviously increased.

Wherever Chen Dong passed, gazes were bound to lock onto him.

They were indifferent, murderous, or complicated

Chen Dong's gaze slowly swept around, and he could even see that the doors of some of the mansions were open, and through the lights, he could vaguely see the blinding blood red spilled on the ground in the courtyards.

Even he could see a fearful, pale face with dead eyes.

Those were all the once high and mighty Chen family members!

But now, each and every one of them had fear and despair written all over their faces, mute and indistinguishable from those who had been captured and about to be sold into slavery on the snowy plains outside the domain!

The Chen Clan was no longer magnificent, it was like a purgatory at the moment!

Finally.

Chen Dong walked into Chen Daocheng's mansion.

As soon as he entered the mansion, a cold light swept across Chen Dong's face, catching him off guard and causing him to narrow his eyes.

In the courtyard of the mansion.

Rows and rows of bodyguards lined up.

Cold weapons glinted with a biting coldness in the light.

As Chen Dong swept past, he could clearly see that each bodyguard was equipped with hot weapons.

There were at least hundreds of them in the entire compound!

The courtyard was so densely packed that only a path leading from the main gate to the hall was left open.

The atmosphere was stern, as if the air was filled with the light of swords and shadows.

With so many people, all with bloodstained hands, gathered together, the oppressive feeling created was too much for ordinary people to bear.

But Chen Dong had already been to the Northern Region, where he had gone into the midst of ten thousand armies and fought to the death.

He had even been to the snowy plains outside the domain and witnessed the purgatory on earth.

Chen Dong rubbed his nose and calmly walked towards the hall.

The bodyguards behind him, upon entering the courtyard, stopped at the same time and closed the door.

Some, even, had already quietly drawn their swords and taken out their hot weapons.

What was waiting for was nothing more than an order from Chen Daocheng in the hall!

Through the tide of people, Chen Dong walked into the hall.

Inside the hall, there was silence.

As far as the eye could see, Chen Daocheng and several people in power under his command were all seated, looking solemn, but the untamed aura of a victor could not be concealed between their brows.

Chen Dong's gaze, however, fell on the corner of the hall, and his heart could not help but contract fiercely.

"Uncle Dao Ye!"

Chen Dong called out in a deep voice.

Chen Daoye looked extremely wretched, sitting on the floor, with his head in a puffy mess and his body still stained with blood.

As soon as he saw Chen Dong, his eyes burst into tears and he wailed, "Young master, you shouldn't have come, you shouldn't have come! I bailed them out so that they could assist you in your great work, not so that they could ask you for help!"

The tone was sad, but from the heart!

"Uncle Dao Ye has treated my nephew well, now that he is in trouble, how dare he not come?"

Chen Dong smiled faintly and said from the bottom of his heart, "Even if it is a dragon's den, a tiger's den, a prison of cultivation, my nephew will still walk this one personally!"

"Young master"

Chen Dao Ye trembled and wailed in grief.

"Hmph hmph good one will personally walk a game!"

Chen Daocheng laughed sardonically, his body lazily piled up on the chair, disdainfully saying to Chen Dong, "Young master Chen is really imposing, barging over here single-handedly and trying to save people?"

"Right!"

Chen Dong smiled and nodded, his words suddenly turning, "Now I solemnly inform you to spare Uncle Dao Ye and his uncles' families, I hope you will not give shame!"

Rampant to the extreme, brutal and arrogant!

With a single word, the faces of Chen Daocheng and the few people in power under his command changed drastically at once.

Anger surged.

The crowd was furious.

"Who the hell do you think you are? Chen Dong, you little bastard still think that the Chen family is the Chen family of old?"

"Damn it, where the hell did you get the courage to be so arrogant? If we kill you, who else in the Chen family will dare to disobey us?"

"Little bastard, your strength is indeed very strong, but don't forget, this is our territory, if there is a way to heaven, you don't want to leave, there is no door to hell, you dare to come, then be prepared to pay the price for your ignorance and arrogance!"

.....

Inside the hall, the noise was unbearable.

Chen Daocheng's face was even more blue, and the anger in his eyes seemed like it was going to turn into substance.

He looked at Chen Dong angrily and squeezed out a sentence from between his teeth, "You are a strong qi master, that is your bottom line, but as strong as you are, you are not strong enough to resist bullets with your qi, don't forget that all beings are equal under hot weapons!"

Swish swish swish

As soon as the words left their mouths, several of the people in power in the hall raised their guns, while in the courtyard outside, a pitch-black gun barrel was densely packed, all aiming at Chen Dong.

Hundreds of hot weapons were aimed at him, and anyone else would have been scared to death.

But Chen Dong remained calm as usual, under the gaze of the crowd.

He rubbed his nose, slowly raised his head and looked up at the roof: "You are right, under the heat weapons, all beings are equal!"

Boom!

Before the words left his mouth, a loud sound comparable to thunder suddenly exploded in the night sky.

It was deafening and earth-shattering!

Even the courtyard trembled under the loud noise!

Winner Takes All Chapter 1507-1508

Chapter 1507

There was a loud sound that shook the heavens and the earth.

All of a sudden, inside and outside the hall, everyone was in a state of panic.

"What's going on? What has happened?"

Chen Daocheng's face changed drastically as he scolded in a stern voice.

Rumble

At the same time, a thunderous roar suddenly resounded through the heavens and the earth in the night sky.

It was dense and voluminous.

Just by listening to the sound, it gave people a great terror and oppression of dark clouds covering the sky and thunder moving the nine heavens.

“Planes, it’s planes! No, it’s a warplane!”

In the courtyard, hundreds of bodyguards were all panicked and confused, and there was a sudden cry of alarm from the crowd.

What?!

Chen Daocheng and a few other people in power were horrified.

“Damn, how could a warplane suddenly arrive in this part of the Chen family?”

A person in power gritted his teeth and his face turned red.

Chen Daocheng’s eyes suddenly opened round, as if he had thought of something.

He gave Chen Dong an indignant stare and then strode towards the outside.

Almost at the same time, the people in power in the house followed suit and walked hastily towards the courtyard.

In the blink of an eye.

Inside the wide hall.

Only Chen Dong and Chen Dao Ye in the corner remained.

And on the night sky, booming sounds echoed, completely breaking the dead silence of the Chen family this day and night.

“Young master

Chen Dao Ye’s blood-covered, tear-laden eyes regained a trace of clarity, with some unreal sense of trance like a dream.

Chen Dong, carrying Fengless on his back, his hands casually stuck in his trouser pockets, stepped in front of Chen Daoye and smiled.

“Uncle Daoye, Dong’er is not only the young master of the Chen family, but also the leading guard of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army!”

Suddenly, a brilliant aura appeared in Chen Dong’s eyes.

At this moment, Chen Dong’s entire aura was untamed and stern.

In Chen Dao Ye's eyes, Chen Dong was clearly standing in place, but his entire person seemed to be pulling up mountains like a flat earth, booming up so high that he was looking up.

The majestic and domineering aura that came over him was so overwhelming that even Chen Daoye's heart trembled.

Yes!

What he saw before him was not only the young master of the Chen family, but also the leader of the 300,000-strong Great Snow Dragon Riding Army, the leader of Chen who was under one man and above all others!

An existence that carries a world of merit, a word that stands shoulder to shoulder with Huo Zhenxiao!

An existence that could reach the heavens and invite the Lord of the Realm to ignore the world, to blatantly oppress the world with a single edict, to take sides!

In a trance, Chen Dao Ye's breathing gradually became sharper, his eyes bright as stars, delighted and excited.

It was at the same time that uncle and nephew were looking at each other.

Outside, in the courtyard, people were on edge and the noise was noisy.

It was no better than the roar of warplanes in the night sky.

Everyone, including Chen Daocheng and the rest of the rulers, looked up at the sky in fear, their bodies sifting like chaff.

Under the cover of the night, a warplane flew through the sky, looming in the darkness, its engines roaring like the roar of an ancient beast.

It was impossible to count how many there were, but the dense roar brought an indescribable sense of despair to Chen Daocheng and the others.

The oppressive feeling of a great prison came down from the heavens, making everyone's faces pale and their hearts beat wildly.

Boom!

Suddenly, without warning, a warplane swooped down directly from the night sky.

A fierce wave of air crushed down from above.

In the courtyard, a wave of screams and shrieks erupted.

Some of the more timid bodyguards were shaken and unsteady under the pressure of the wave of air.

As the distance drew closer, the outline of the war machine suddenly became clear.

“Five-clawed Golden Dragon! It’s the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army’s Five-Clawed Golden Dragon warplane, the seat of Huo Huo Zhenxiao!”

A fearful, hoarse cry of alarm exploded from the crowd.

In an instant.

The hundreds of bodyguards in the courtyard were all dead and cold.

They were just bodyguards.

But the warplanes hanging in the night sky were the Great Snow Dragon Riders of the Northern Territory!

A terrifying army that had been able to cut through the hundred tribes outside the realm with the strength of a single army, the number one army in the world!

There is no comparison between the two!

Chen Daocheng and the few people in power were also pale and stiff at the moment, their scalps even tingling.

“Damn it! Huo Zhenxiao is a Sovereign, not in the Northern Domain to guard the Hundred Tribes outside the domain, but he is personally approaching my Chen Clan at this moment, what does he want? He wants to point his sword at my Chen Clan?”

“Damn it, damn it! How dare Huo Zhenxiao show favouritism for that bastard? Brother Dao Cheng, what should we do?”

“What does he think my Chen family is? To lead a warplane across the skies above our Chen Clan with such fanfare, even a domain lord wouldn’t dare to be so brutal in such a move!”

The rulers were shocked and gnashed their teeth.

The magnificent Chen Family is just one step away from being a worldly clan.

It was on a par with the domain lord family, the two were merely different in terms of family attributes.

The three attributes of power, money and martial arts also determine the different paths for the major clans to progress to the World Clan Monarchy.

Each will also observe the normal rules of order between each other!

Several people waited for half a day, but did not wait for Chen Daocheng to respond.

They looked sideways at Chen Daocheng and urged, "Brother Daocheng, what should we do now?"

Chen Daocheng's hollow eyes flickered for a moment, his lips mumbled, and he was about to speak.

The five-clawed Golden Dragon, which had just swooped down, suddenly exploded, pulling out an arc near the ground and pulling up again.

Almost simultaneously.

Outside the courtyard, a cry of dismay rang out.

Boom!

A huge hole was blown in the closed courtyard gate with a loud boom, and smoke and dust rolled out.

The sudden scene scared Chen Daocheng and the others in the compound and the hundreds of bodyguards, and they all looked at each other in horror.

In the darkness, the lights were dim.

Amidst the rolling smoke and dust, the silhouette of a lofty figure gradually emerged.

Almost simultaneously.

A thick, low, cold, stern voice suddenly emerged from the smoke.

"The Great Snow Dragon Riding Army is on its way, you and other small fry will die if you dare to stop it!"

The words were overbearing, and killing intent was pouring out!

If it had been the magnificent and prosperous Chen family in the past, this voice would have brought laughter to the audience.

But after this day and night, the Chen family was no longer as grand as it used to be!

Inside the hall.

Chen Dong unloaded the bladeless behind him and turned to crouch in front of Chen Dao Ye.

“Uncle Daoye, Dong’er carry you.”

“Young master, make it impossible, make it impossible.”

Chen Daoye was so elated that he burst into old tears, but he did not forget Chen Dong’s identity as Young Master.

“After my father’s disappearance, without the help of several uncles of Uncle Dao Ye, Dong’er would not have had those trillions of assets, not to mention the possibility of setting the Southwest today, what is there to make it impossible for my nephew to carry my uncle?”

Chen Dong smiled slightly and fell backwards, grabbing Chen Dao Ye with his backhand and tugging him on his back.

He then dragged Fengless backwards out of the hall.

The entrance of the courtyard.

The smoke and dust gradually dissipated.

Chen Dong looked at the lofty tower-like figure and smiled faintly.

“Bai Qi!”

Bang Teen!

Bai Qi knelt down on one knee, “Bai Qi pays his respects to Leader Chen! The ten thousand Great Snow Dragon Cavalry troops have arrived and are at the disposal of Dragon Head Chen!”

The sound echoed.

The courtyard, which had been clamouring and shouting, was now reduced to dead silence.

Chen Dong’s cold eyes fell on Chen Daocheng and he smiled teasingly, “You said it yourself, all beings are equal under hot weapons!”

Chen Daocheng and the others shook their tigers, not waiting for a response.

Chen Dong then looked at Bai Qi and said calmly, "Bai Qi, they are not going to ask me to leave, what should I do according to the rules of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army?"

Bai Qi slowly raised his head and got up, a fierce aura bursting out of his eyes.

"Then step flat before leaving!"

Chapter 1508

A few simple words, but like a thunderclap from the ninth heaven, resounded through the whole place.

In the courtyard, hundreds of bodyguards looked ashen, terrified and at a loss for words.

Chen Daocheng and a few others in power had a buzz in their heads.

One of the rulers stepped out from the crowd and pointed directly at Bai Qi.

"This is the Chen family, you can't just do whatever you want!"

"What is the Chen family?"

Bai Qi laughed disdainfully, "The Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army only looks up to the head of the Chen Dragon Head, and as the sword of the Dragon Head Guard points, the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army will go forward!"

"You"

This person in power turned blue and was speechless.

Chen Daocheng exhaled a heavy breath, but his gaze was morosely directed towards Chen Dong.

"Young Master Chen, this is in the Chen Family, even the Domain Master or Huo Zhenxiao here would not dare to act so rudely!"

The words were icy cold and dripping with threat.

"There is one thing wrong with what Bai Qi said, the Chen Family is not something!"

Chen Dong carried Chen Dao Ye on his back, dragging Feng Wu backwards with one hand as he slowly walked down the steps of the hall, "The Chen Family is no longer the Chen Family of the past, the Chen Family under my father's reign is the Chen Family of the world, how can you and other rats who only fight each other and nestle in each other deserve the word Chen Family?"

Chen Dong gently raised his eyebrows, his eyebrows were untamed and domineering.

"Bai Qi, follow the rules of the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army!"

With a single word, all the people's faces were as white as paper.

Chen Daocheng gritted his teeth and said, "How dare you!"

"Bai Qi, he is questioning us!"

Chen Dong spoke calmly.

Almost simultaneously.

Bai Qi picked up the walkie-talkie and whispered a few times.

"Oh, the entire Chen family has been blocked by us, and you still presume to contact?"

When a person in power saw Bai Qi's action, he immediately snorted and laughed, looking at Bai Qi even more as if he was looking at a fool.

As this person in power spoke out, Chen Daocheng and the others' faces also eased up a little.

Yes!

The entire Chen family had already blocked communication, what else was there to worry about?

It was just that when Bai Qi put down the walkie-talkie and looked up again, there was an odd smile on the corner of his mouth.

The next second.

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

.....

With a loud bang, a ball of flame bloomed like a firework in the night, illuminating the heaven and earth as bright as day, incomparably gorgeous and spectacular.

A shell, like rain, fell into the Chen family garden.

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

.....

The ground shook and a cloud of flames instantly rose from the four sides of the Chen family's manor.

The air was instantly filled with a strong smell of smoke and fire.

The flames shot up into the sky, illuminating heaven and earth in a white haze.

In the courtyard, the shrieks and screams were deafening.

Chen Daocheng and the others were ashen-faced and dumbfounded.

Chen Dong stood tall in his place, the firelight imprinting on his face, the corners of his mouth gradually curving into a disdainful smile.

As the firelight gradually waned.

The smile on Chen Dong's face fell into the eyes of Chen Daocheng and the others, but it looked like a ghost, eerie and ominous.

The whole room was dead silent.

The fearful gazes fell on Chen Dong.

"Dragon Head Chen, the first round of bombardment is over."

Bai Qi respectfully reported to Chen Dong.

The three words "first round" instantly caused the backs of everyone in the room to explode, like falling into an abyss.

"Impossible, we have blocked the communication, why"

One of the power-holders was pale, terrified and at a loss for words.

The words were not finished.

Bai Qi then snorted, "You and other petty tactics, you dare to compare with the Great Snow Dragon Cavalry Army, the weapon of the state?"

The sarcasm was undisguised.

It instantly made the doubters look obscure and desperate.

Given the pressure the Great Snow Dragon Riders were under in the Northern Region, it was no exaggeration to call the military's methods top-notch.

In terms of communication alone, there was a world of difference between the two!

Following closely.

Chen Dong calmly said, "The first round of bombardment was the no man's land within the manor, the second round is Chen Daocheng, now please tell me your attitude!"

The tone of his voice was calm, but every word was filled with a sense of subordinate coercion.

The first time I saw the company, I was able to get to the top of the list, and I was able to get to the bottom of the list.

The rest of the people in power also looked uncomfortable.

Who could have imagined that the scene would suddenly turn out like this when they had already sharpened their swords and were ready to go!

Chen Dong, whom they had treated as a lamb to be slaughtered, was now looking askance, causing Chen Daocheng and the others to feel the urge to vomit blood.

Anger, resentment, resentment.

But could not do anything about it!

10,000 great snow dragon riding army with warplanes swarmed, this is the sword of the dome!

But if the word "no" popped out of his mouth, whether it was Chen Daocheng or several other people in power, he knew exactly what would happen next!

Chen Dong had the guts to do so!

The Great Snow Dragon Riders also had the strength to do so!

Time passed slowly.

In the courtyard, it was as quiet as dead water, and seconds passed like years.

In full view of the crowd.

Chen Dong walked slowly towards the entrance of the courtyard with Chen Daoye on his back in a calm and collected manner.

When he reached Chen Daocheng, Chen Dong stopped and raised his hand, slapping it recklessly on Chen Daocheng's face.

With his hands raised, he showed contempt and disdain.

"If I give you face, you have to take it!"

The whole audience was shocked.

Chen Daocheng's tiger body even shook, and the anger in his eyes seemed like it was going to turn into substance and gush out.

He locked gazes with Chen Dong.

Bai Qi said in a deep voice, "Dragon Head Chen, the brothers are waiting for the next instruction!"

The moment the words left his mouth.

"Release them! The families of Chen Daoye's several other compatriots, all of them let go!"

Chen Daocheng gritted his teeth fiercely and growled angrily!

"Brother Dao Cheng!"

One of the rulers' faces paled and was about to dissuade him.

Bang!

Chen Daocheng turned around abruptly and kicked that person in power out of the way, "If you don't let them go, are you going to let this mad dog and wild bastard raze the Chen family?"

The rest of the rulers instantly ran towards the outside.

But Chen Dong's cold, stern voice suddenly recalled.

“It’s a compliment! Not release, who exactly are you looking down on, Chen Daocheng?”

“Compliments, it’s compliments!”

Chen Daocheng’s eyes widened in anger, as if they were about to fall out of their sockets, fuming with rage, but he could only hold it back!

Chen Daoye, who was lying on top of Chen Dong, looked at this scene in front of him, but he was in tears of excitement, his anger completely venting out in his heart at this moment.

Before this, he had even thought that he and his four compatriots’ families would all be buried on Chen family land tonight!

“Within half an hour, I need you to personally deliver all the aunts and their families to the Chen family airport, if you fail to do so, I will have to level the Chen family!”

Chen Dong coldly dropped a sentence and walked out with Chen Dao Ye on his back.

No one dared to stop him!

Even though Chen Daocheng’s resentment was overwhelming, he was still forcing down his anger and resentment at this moment.

A man who has achieved greatness must endure what others cannot!

Chen Daocheng knew this very well!

He was planning for the entire Chen family, if he were to take a short view now, then all the planning he had done all day and all night would be in vain!

There were many opportunities to deal with Chen Dong in the future.

With this admonition in his heart, Chen Daocheng’s mind calmed down a bit.

However.

As Chen Dong walked to the entrance of the courtyard, alongside Bai Qi, he exhaled once again and opened his mouth.

“Right Chen Daocheng, you have become the head of the Chen family, then you must behave well, my mother is still enshrined in the clan ancestral hall, I hope you will do your filial duty by helping to make offerings on my behalf with three incense sticks in the morning and evening! You have seen what happened to the old lady, and if you fail to do so, I will have to mobilise the Great Snow Dragon Riders to raze the Chen family!”

Boom!

With one word, the whole room was shocked.

Even Bai Qi and Chen Dao Ye were frozen in shock.

Chen Daocheng was even stiffened, his features twisted and trembled.

Li Lan was of the same generation as Chen Daocheng, so how could he be filial?

This was clearly a humiliation!

A great shame!

Looking at Chen Dong, Chen Daoye and Bai Qi, Chen Daocheng's body suddenly shook, and a muffled grunt escaped from his mouth, blood flowed directly down the corner of his mouth

Chapter 1509

Along the way.

Chen Dong carried Chen Dao Ye on his back and walked side by side with Bai Qi towards the outside of the Chen Family Estate.

Along the way, they attracted countless gazes.

But no one dared to stand in their way!

In the night sky, warplanes roared and hovered, as if the sword of death was hanging in the air, ready to fall at any moment.

The sea of fire that had been bombed around the Chen family's garden had not yet been extinguished, and the after-effects of the earlier round of bombing had not yet diminished.

Even with Chen Daocheng's orders, the group of bodyguards did not dare to go forward.

Not only were the bodyguards following Chen Daocheng and the others, but along the way there was also a group of Chen family members who used to be well-dressed and spirited.

But this day and night of family changes had made all these Chen family members become frightened and desperate, with no light in their eyes.

They even looked at Chen Dong with a vague look of thirst!

“Young master, they

Chen Daoye felt the gazes of the Chen family members along the way and could not bear it in his heart.

“Uncle Dao Ye, the Chen family is no longer the Chen family.”

Chen Dong looked indifferent, no ripples in his eyes, and said meaningfully, “My experience does not allow me to be a holy mother.”

Chen Daoye’s expression darkened, and he wanted to speak again.

He lay on Chen Dong’s back, his gaze fixed on the back of Chen Dong’s head, no longer looking left or right.

Yes!

Who was Chen Dong to save them?

Ever since the family head had accepted Chen Dong, who in the Chen family had not called him “wild child”?

All along the way, apart from their faction of the family head, who had ever treated Chen Dong with sincerity?

Don’t advise others to be kind without having suffered!

Chen Dong’s journey had been a great success, and Chen Dao Ye, who was a member of the family head faction, had seen it all in his eyes, and at this moment, Chen Dong’s words made him feel compassionate, but it was hard for him to say anything.

A group of people who had targeted Chen Dong at every turn and verbally abused the wild race, on what basis could they allow Chen Dong to save them?

At this moment.

Bai Qi suddenly said in a deep voice, “Dragon Head Chen, the situation is great, 10,000 Great Snow Dragon Cavalry troops are in the sky, as long as you give the order, you can completely dismantle the present Chen family, moreover, Chen Daocheng and the others had mutiny first, you as the young family head, you also strike against them, you also have a good name and an honorable reputation, this is a heavenly opportunity, why did you give up?"

When he asked this, Bai Qi's brow was furrowed, his eyes full of incomprehension.

Nowadays, the Chen family had turned the world upside down in one day and one night.

The reason why it didn't shake the world was also because Chen Daocheng and the others had strictly blocked it, once it exploded out, the world would definitely be turned upside down.

But Chen Dong had 10,000 Great Snow Dragon Riders present to clean up the Chen family's rebellion in the name of the young lord, so he had all the advantages of the time, the place and the people!

The fact that Chen Dong, who was invincible, had given up on exterminating Chen Daocheng and the others in a few words was simply incomprehensible to Bai Qi.

Wasn't the battlefield all about riding the wave of victory?

Chen Dong laughed teasingly, rubbed his nose and gave Bai Qi a sidelong glance, "Pigs have to be fattened up before they can be killed!"

A pig must be fattened before it can be killed?

Bai Qi seemed to understand, pondering.

It was Chen Dao Ye who had a clear look of understanding in his eyes.

Chen Dong smiled gently and stopped explaining. In fact, there were many considerations for him not to kill Chen Daocheng and the others, and not to take this opportunity to raze the Chen family.

One of them was naturally because Chen Daocheng and the others had taken too much land in the southwest region!

All those lands required Chen Daocheng and the others to pour in a lot of money to promote their development.

If they were slaughtered now, the land would be put on hold, which would leave the blueprint for the development of the Southwest region in half a year's time spotted everywhere.

Chen Dong has no intention of taking over those lands, and once he does, he will inevitably pour more money into their development, which is a bit of a chicken feed to the current situation!

The second is that his new Chen has already raised its head, the rotten old Chen has let Chen Daocheng and these people clean up again, the crime is not on his own, in the future, after his new Chen is established, with the banner of killing Chen Daocheng and these Chen family rebellious seeds, as well as kill the righteous!

On the contrary, if he were to kill them now, then whose hands would be used to cleanse the rotten and complicated Chen family?

Chen Dong was also certain that the purpose of his father's new Chen was to clear up the complex factions in the Chen family and make the family simple, not so that the family could become a one-man house, but so that the family could have more strength to grow and develop, instead of being mired in the family's internal conflict.

If he does not purge these factions, and his new Chen is established, these factional clansmen will once again come under his command, and the families will fight openly and secretly, and the situation will be like water and fire, but it will just be a repeat of the old Chen.

Chen Daocheng and others were willing to become his beauty and act as his executioner, so why wouldn't he be happy to do so?

In Chen Dong's heart, these Chen family members he was not willing to save, nor could he!

Of course, there were other reasons, and they were so complicated that even Chen Dong himself could hardly clarify them in a few words!

By the time Chen Dong, Bai Qi and Chen Dao Ye arrived at the airport.

A total of five warplanes had already landed at the Chen family airport.

The special plane he had come in on, Chen Dong did not intend to take it, the heart of defense is not to be ignored, today's Chen family, Chen Daocheng and the others secretly make any kind of ghost out, Chen Dong is not surprised.

It was the Great Snow Dragon Riding Army that would give him peace of mind!

After waiting for more than ten minutes, a car came speeding in the distance.

These were the family members of Chen Dao Ye and the other four uncles, and the vast convoy drove straight into the airport runway.

There were over a hundred of them.

Chen Dong asked Bai Qi to arrange for all the family members to board the plane, and when there were not enough warplanes, he immediately asked Bai Qi to call the warplanes hovering in the night sky to continue landing to pick them up.

It was a good thing that the warplanes of the Great Snow Dragon Riders were built in a special way, so they could be used to carry the people when necessary.

Only after all the hundred or so people had lifted off in the warplanes did Chen Dong carry Chen Dao Ye to the last warplane.

From beginning to end.

The Chen family was silent.

Even the bodyguards inside the airport were ignoring everything that was happening inside the airport.

The unknown number of warplanes hovering in the night sky possessed absolute suppressive power in this side of the world!

Just as Chen Dong was about to board the plane, his footsteps suddenly came to a halt.

Immediately, he turned around with Chen Dao Ye on his back and looked out towards the Chen family in the distance.

The large manor house covered a vast area, and even though it was surrounded by mountains, it still showed a magnificent and majestic atmosphere.

But nowadays, the Chen family's lights were sporadic, showing the coldness and decay.

"Bai Qi."

Chen Dong's eyes reflected the starry lights in the airport, his eyes empty and fluttering.

As he called out softly.

The night breeze hit him, blowing his hair.

He said calmly, "This Chen family is too vast, too grand, Chen Daocheng and the others don't deserve it, help them dismantle it on my behalf as the young family head."

"As ordered!"

Bai Qi bowed and led the order.

As the warplane roared into the air, Bai Qi gave the order.

Chen Dong sat inside the warplane, sitting in front of and behind Chen Daoye, and as the warplane penetrated the sea of clouds, the surroundings went completely dark.

Soon.

A loud booming sound went up into the night sky from below.

At the same time, a blaze of fire shot up into the sky.

Even though the aircraft had risen to a certain height, Chen Dong's face, sitting by the window, was still illuminated by the flames below.

But Chen Dong's face was always as cold and indifferent as a frost, as if he was a statue, unmoving, without sadness or joy.

The corners of his mouth finally turned up in an arc until the warplane was far away from the sky above the Chen family

Chapter 1510

By the time the vast array of warplanes descended on the airport, it was already the latter part of the night.

Luckily, the number of flights at the suburban airport was low at this time, so this vast array of warplanes escorting them did not cause much of a stir.

However, under Bai Qi's arrangement.

The suburban airport had been placed under a secrecy ban early on.

Both Long Lao and Jiang Qilin had organised a convoy to wait at the airport, and the four uncles were also present at the same time.

As soon as the warplanes landed, a steady stream of cars left the airport carrying the families.

Chen Dong carried Chen Dao Ye and Bai Qi off the plane together.

Elder Long and Jiang Qilin, as well as the four uncles, immediately greeted them.

"Brother Dao Ye!"

When the four uncles saw Chen Daoye, they immediately burst into tears.

After many years of affection and belonging to the same faction under Chen Daoling's command, their feelings for each other could not be described as strong.

Not to mention the fact that the four of them were able to escape unscathed thanks to Chen Daoye's protection!

"You almost made a big mistake!"

Chen Daoye still could not let go of his grief and said, "The reason I let you run away was to keep the people who would assist the young master, not to let you ask the young master to enter the dragon pool all by himself.

The four men instantly lowered their heads, not daring to meet Chen Dao Ye's eyes.

"Uncle Daoye, the matter has been safely resolved, don't blame the uncles anymore, even if they don't say anything, I will choose to go to the Chen family just the same when I know the news."

Chen Dong placed Chen Dao Ye onto the wheelchair pushed by Elder Long.

Whirling around, he looked up and asked Elder Long, "Where are the arrangements for the uncles' families?"

"I have already spoken to Lord Meng, they have all been arranged into the Four Seals Clubhouse, where living conditions as well as safety can be adequately guaranteed." Elder Long said.

Chen Dong nodded, this arrangement was indeed the best as well.

After all, it was not three or two people, but more than a hundred, so many people, if they were arranged in an ordinary five-star hotel, he would not even feel at ease.

Now that the Chen family had turned the world upside down in one day and one night, Chen Daocheng and the others had isolated the Chen family from the world with their big hands across the pressure.

But after the dust settles, the Chen family's current situation will eventually be made known to the world by Chen Daocheng and the others.

Even if they wanted to conceal it, the magnificent Chen family is in the spotlight of the world, so they could conceal it for a while, but not for too long.

Once the "lightning" goes off, it is hard to say what will happen to Chen Daoye and the rest of the Chen family, who have left peacefully.

Be careful.

This was Chen Dong's usual rule of thumb.

He had wanted Chen Daocheng and the others to help him block the sword, but he hadn't thought of acting as a shield for Chen Daocheng and the others!

After leaving the scene to Elder Long to arrange, Chen Dong dragged Jiang Qilin to a secluded and open place to the side.

The night breeze was bitter.

It blew and caused both of their robes to dance gently.

"Mr. Chen has something to do?"

Jiang Qilin asked.

Chen Dong smiled, "Has there been any result on the matter that I asked Mr. Jiang to ask the Jiang Clan to inquire about?"

The Gu Family Mountain Gate!

This was the matter that concerned Chen Dong the most right now!

With the blood feud of his father-in-law and mother-in-law at stake, there was no bottom line for him to tolerate this time!

"It has already been reported back to the family, there should be results soon."

Jiang Qilin nodded, "Mr. Chen, don't worry, the Jiang family is secluded and the Gu family is equally secluded, but it is still as easy as pie for us to find out where the Gu family is!"

Chen Dong nodded his head.

He was not at all worried about the Jiang Family's heritage and whether he would be able to scout out the ancient family's mountain gate.

With the heritage of a thousand years of prosperity, if they could not even find out about this, would they not have the strength to help the building fall at a time when the world was about to be in turmoil?

.....

The Jiang family.

In the midst of the mountains, it is as quiet as can be.

The continuous lights are as gorgeous as a fairyland.

It seems to be the precipitation of a thousand years of heritage that has given the Jiang family's mountains and grass an air of tranquility and transcendence.

If you do not compete with the world, you will be invincible!

This is the strength of a family clan!

And at this moment.

The Sixth Master Jiang was hurriedly entering the family head's mansion.

He had long since received a call from Jiang Qilin requesting help in scouting out the ancient family's mountain gate, but Jiang Sixth Master had always maintained a questionable and hesitant attitude in his heart towards Jiang Qilin's sudden request.

After all, Jiang Qilin was now at Chen Dong's side.

And Chen Dong and the Gu Clan were even greater enemies in life and death!

Although the Sixth Master Jiang had forcibly driven Jiang Qilin away, it would be a pure lie to say that he did not care about his own bloodline.

Now that Jiang Qilin had arrived at Chen Dong's side, it was also a situation that the Sixth Master Jiang would be most happy to see.

However, he hesitated for a long time on this matter, and still felt that he could not act without permission, and had to ask the family head.

"Greetings, Sixth Master."

As soon as he entered the mansion, two young men with sturdy bodies and majestic auras greeted him.

"I have an urgent matter to find the Great House Master."

Sixth Master Jiang dropped a sentence and was about to head inside at once.

But the two young men raised their hands and stopped Master Jiang.

The Sixth Master Jiang was a little stunned, "You guys are stopping me?"

In the Jiang family, he really rarely encountered this kind of situation!

Even though it was the latter part of the night at the moment, the young men in front of him were not qualified to stop him!

“Sixth Master, don’t give the young men a hard time, the family head is still awake and is meeting an honored guest, so he specially ordered us to stop the door and forbid anyone from entering.”

One of the young men said aggressively.

“Even I am barred?”

Master Jiang’s old face was full of disbelief, pointing his backhand at himself, and then he was a little annoyed, “Doggone boss, is your ass so big now? Even I have to stop you when you see someone, damn it!”

By the end of his voice, he was no longer suppressed.

The two young men were so frightened that they fell prostrate on the ground, trembling in fear.

At that very moment.

“Old Six, come in, it’s the middle of the night, you’re old and you still can’t change that stubborn streak?”

A magnetic, calm voice suddenly came from within the closed parlour, only with some hopelessness in its tone.

“Just kidding! I’m looking for my own big brother and I have to be stopped, what’s wrong with me howling in aggravation?”

Jiang Liuxue chided with a terse neck, as if he was aggrieved.

If outsiders had seen this scene, they would have been shocked and their scalps would have exploded.

The majestic Sixth Master Jiang, who was almost a hundred years old, could still be so adorable?

The two youngsters on the ground were so shocked that they wanted to bury their heads in the ground at the same time.

Damn it!

How could we have seen this scene?

If word got out, the Sixth Master would rip our necks off, right?

The Sixth Master pushed open the door of the parlour with a swagger.

Inside the large parlour, it was pitch black and we could not see our fingers.

A figure could vaguely be seen sitting on the main seat directly in front of him.

“Big brother, meeting a guest in the latter part of the night and not even lighting the lights, are you playing chatelaine?”

Master Jiang Liu casually lifted his sleeve robe, revealing a rare appearance of a dilettante, and sat down on his chair with his butt on all fours.

“At over a hundred years of age, do you at least have some appearance?”

The man in the main seat sounded helplessly awesome.

Master Jiang Liu raised his eyebrows, “You’re my big brother, what’s wrong with me treating my own big brother like this? You cherish it, in case you die one day, I’ll be more mature than you.”

“Ugh

In the darkness, the old man on the right seat let out a long breath and asked, “Say, what’s the matter?”

Jiang Sixth Master did not delay and opened the door, “Kirin is by Chen Dong’s side and has specially reported back to me, asking our Jiang family to help Chen Dong scout out where the ancient family’s mountain gate is, I have thought about it, I still have to discuss this with you, it can be big or small, we can’t make a mistake!”

“No help!”

The moment the words left his mouth, the old man in the darkness simply and decisively refused.

What?

He had come here to discuss the matter, but he had never thought that his elder brother, who was always calm and steady, would refuse so decisively!

Immediately after.

The old man in the darkness then let out a bitter laugh, “Don’t argue about this, and don’t mess with me either, this master came here and is talking to me about this, your discussion is no match for his discussion with me, after all, if I don’t agree with him, he’ll have to beat me up!”
