

Winner Takes All Chapter 191-200

Chapter 191

It was as if a cold wind was blowing from the depths of the Nine Phenomena.

It sent chills down the spines of all the Li family members.

Master Li's face turned blue and red as he stared at Chen Daolin, his eyes shadowy to the extreme.

An aura of decadence was born.

Even if he was the head of the dangling Li family, his heart was still weak in the face of the Chen family.

"Heh!"

Chen Daolin suddenly sneered, turned to look at the helicopter outside, and waved his hand.

Just three seconds.

There was a sudden loud bang in the thunder and lightning raging night sky.

A flash of fire tore through the night sky.

Boom!

A corner of the courtyard wall of the Li family's ancient fortress collapsed straight away as the firelight fell.

Smoke and dust swept up.

A mushroom cloud of flames rose up.

The flames and vibrations caused all the Li family members within the hall to be horrified.

It had really exploded!

All of the Li family members looked at Chen Daoling with eyes that became terrified.

This guy, had he gone mad?

This was the Li family residence!

“Chen Daoling, are you trying to start a war? Bombing my Li family mansion, what do you take our Li family for?” Li Deshan’s anger rose and his roar shook his ears.

The corners of Elder Li’s eyes jumped wildly as he looked angrily at Li Deshan, wanting to stop him, but it was already too late.

“War?”

Chen Daolin laughed and raised his right hand once again, landing.

In an instant.

Once again, there was a loud bang in the night sky, and flames were heard across the sky.

Boom!

A tremendous sound that shocked the heavens.

Along with the flames and vibrations, another ancient fortress courtyard wall collapsed with a bang.

Overwhelming, crushing!

Not to mention the Li family.

Even Chen Dong’s heart was beating wildly as he watched, dumbfounded.

My dad was really super fierce!

Inside the hall, there was dead silence.

Only in the night sky, lightning roared and warplanes circled.

All the Li family members were dumbfounded.

No one had expected that someone would dare to do such a shocking thing in the Li family.

Accustomed to being arrogant, now that they had been pulled down from the clouds by Chen Dong and ruthlessly pressed to the ground by Chen Daoling, all of them did not know how to react.

“You, you

Li Deshan was furious, he was the eldest son of the Li family, a proper direct lineage bloodline.

Since the glory of the Li family, he had never suffered such a great humiliation.

If word got out, what face would the Li family have in Kyoto?

And yet.

“Shut up for the old man!”

Elder Li bellowed angrily, frightening Li Deshan’s body into a tremor.

In the Li family, Old Master Li possessed supreme prestige.

He was the heaven of all Li family members.

Elder Li stepped forward and looked gloomily at Chen Daolin: “I only want Dong’s son to inherit the position of Li family head, is this how you, as a father, repay me as a grandfather?”

At these words, Chen Dong revealed a look of boredom.

He was truly disgusted by the Li family’s rhetoric to the extreme.

Gritting his teeth, he was about to retort.

But Chen Daolin in front of him spoke calmly, “What kind of grandfather are you? You bully my wife and force my son, and you call this a grandfather?”

With that, he waved his right hand once again.

Boom!

Another cannonball fell straight down.

And this time, it was a mushroom cloud of flame that rose from the open space inside the ancient castle manor.

The ground shook and smoke and dust swept away.

The terrifying blasting force caused the hearts of the Li family to tremble in fear.

“Chen Daolin! You deceive people too much!”

Li Deshan was furious as he stepped forward in anger.

“You shut up!”

Elder Li’s body trembled as he turned and roared, “Useless fool, back off!”

If it were anyone else, if he had offended the Li family today, it would have been a death-defying situation.

The Li family’s face must not be humiliated!

He knew clearly that even if the Li family was the richest in Kyoto, it was not comparable to the Chen family.

If the conflict was allowed to continue to escalate.

If Chen Daolin said he would blow up the Li family, then he really dared to do so!

“Rubbish Li family, useless next generation, it’s hard enough for you to hold on to this late old body.”

Looking at Elder Li, Chen Daoling did not hide the contempt and disdain on his face.

“Dao Lin, I am still Lan’er’s father after all, back then Lan’er was with you and I fully approved of it, you know, at that time we didn’t even know the identity of your Chen family’s heir, Lan’er was marrying down at that time.”

Master Li was red-faced and hurried to persuade.

He knew that the situation today could not be undone, and that the Chen Daoling before him was enough to crush the Li family to death.

But asking him to let Li Lan go, to let her and Chen Dong, mother and son, leave, he could not do it again.

Chen Dong was the future hope of the Li family!

If he let him go today, he would never have such a good opportunity again.

I am afraid that even if he wanted to see Chen Dong or Li Lan for real, he would not be able to do so.

“I want it, my wife!”

Chen Daolin let out a roar, interrupting Elder Li’s words, “Your Li family values sons over daughters, in your Li family, Lan’er has no status or resources, the so-called dowry and approval you speak of, that is fucking indifference, what old face do you have to say this to me?”

The roar echoed.

Accompanied by that, the firelight once again ripped through the night sky.

Rumble!

The earth shook and flames rose.

Everyone in the Li family's heart jumped and chills ran down their backs.

At this moment, even a fool could see it.

This fierce god, Chen Daolin, did not want to talk at all, but wanted to directly make the Li family make a choice.

Either let Li Lan go or blow up the Li family!

"I"

Elder Li looked torn, anxious as ants on a hot pot.

Chen Daoling pointed his backhand outside and spoke angrily, "First blow up your Li family's courtyard wall, then blow up your Li family's garden, if you still dare to pester and argue, the next shell will be this ancient castle!"

The bullying was unparalleled.

It was so overwhelming that everyone in the Li family could not breathe.

Chen Dong's nose tingled as he looked at the lofty figure in front of him, as if it was a great mountain, stopping him in front of him.

"I only asked him to be the head of the Li family! He is the heir to the Chen family, but he has to fight, fight for that slim chance, you have no way to put him on the head of the family, while in my Li family, I can!"

Elder Li exploded with impatience, near wailing.

"That is Dong'er's own choice of subject, he can be the head of your Li family, I respect his choice, but you cannot use despicable and underhanded means!"

Chen Daolin's gaze was stern, "The bottom line is given to you, now, let my wife go!"

Like a cold wind blowing from the depths of the Nine Secrets, the temperature in the entire hall plummeted to freezing.

Master Li staggered back, at this moment he seemed to have aged to the point of dying, his body was weak and his face was blue.

Faced with the aggressive and domineering Chen Daolin.

All his pride was lost.

In the end, he fiercely gritted his teeth, "Someone, bring Lan'er out and let her go!"

The Li family all breathed a sigh of relief at the same time.

A trail of terrified gazes fell on Chen Daoling.

If the family head insisted on not letting her go, this fierce god would definitely dare to raze the Li family to the ground!

Soon.

Li Lan then limped down the hall with the help of the Li family members.

"Dong'er!"

As soon as she saw Chen Dong, Li Lan instantly struggled, and after breaking free from the Li family members, she was immediately about to run towards Chen Dong.

However, a sharp pain in her hand and leg caused her to fall straight to the ground.

"Mum!"

Chen Dong's face changed drastically and he jumped directly in front of Li Lan, picking her up, as soon as he saw the injuries on her legs.

He turned back violently and roared at Elder Li, "You hit my mother?"

Almost simultaneously.

Chen Daolin, who saw Li Lan's injuries, also spoke in a cold voice, "You beat my wife?"

Chapter 192

Inside the hall.

As Chen Dong and Chen Daolin spoke.

At that moment, the air seemed to freeze.

Killing intent surged.

All the Li family members' faces changed drastically at the same time.

Old Master Li's body trembled and his intestines turned blue with regret.

Why had he not held back just now and had to hit hard?

He felt the gaze of Chen Dong and Chen Daolin.

He could not help but feel nervous, even with his experience and heart.

The smoke and fire from the bombardment outside was still there.

That was what Elder Li was truly afraid of.

"I"

Elder Li was instantly about to explain.

"You hurt my mother in two places, I want your Li family to come out and hurt her in the same two places!"

Chen Dong spoke in a cold voice, his gaze fierce as he stared at Elder Li: "Otherwise, I will personally strike at you!"

"Chen Dong, this is no place for you to shout!"

Li Deshan roared, "Arrogant and arrogant, you are a member of my Li family in vain!"

"Arrogant and arrogant?"

Chen Dong let out a snort, "That's right, I'm not arrogant and arrogant, not to your Li family! What qualifications does your despicable and underhanded Li family have to make me, Chen Dong, one of you?"

"You" Li Deshan was seething with anger, gnashing his teeth.

Chen Daolin, however, looked at Chen Dong, his eyes full of appreciation, only after his gaze fell on Li Lan, his brow tightened once again.

"Deshan, come forward and be punished!"

Elder Li suddenly chided.

Li Deshan's body shook as he looked at Elder Li with a shocked expression, "Dad, are you telling me to go up and stand and let him beat me?"

"Could it be that you want the old man to go up?" Old Master Li sank his face and roared.

Li Deshan's face changed greatly, clenched his teeth, lowered his head, and walked up to Chen Dong.

Without looking, Chen Dong helped Li Lan to walk to Chen Daolin's side and said in a cold voice, "Kunlun!"

"Understood!"

Kunlun walked quickly towards Li Deshan.

The lofty and sturdy figure created a sense of oppression that caused Li Deshan's face to swish white.

Li Deshan looked at Kunlun, who was walking quickly, in terror, and at this moment he wanted to turn around and run away.

But his back was suddenly nudged by Elder Li with his walking stick.

"Stand still!"

Li Deshan looked determined and straightened his body slightly.

Old Master Li was his father, and even more so, the head of the Li family.

His father had said so.

Then there was simply no other way for him.

If he didn't listen, he would have nothing left in the Li family afterwards!

A flash of lightning.

As soon as Kunlun got close, without the slightest pause, he directly landed a whip kick with a residual shadow on Li Deshan's right leg.

Bang!

Ka!

There was a muffled sound, accompanied by a slight, yet enough bone cracking sound for everyone to hear.

“Ah!”

Li Deshan flew straight out and fell to the ground, screaming in agony.

His features were instantly hideously distorted, and his head was full of beads of sweat sticking out.

The miserable scream sent chills down the spines of all the Li family.

But, no one stopped it!

Kunlun stepped forward once again, his expression cold and stern, and once again kicked out with his right foot at Li Deshan’s left hand.

Bang!

Ka!

Under the tremendous force, Li Deshan, who was lying on the ground, instantly twisted his direction, and his left hand even took on a strange twisted shape.

A miserable scream echoed through the hall.

It was like killing a pig.

“This matter is over!”

Chen Dong spoke indifferently.

Looking down at his mother in his arms, his expression gentled up, “Mom, I will take you home.”

“Go home we go home

Li Lan did not hesitate in the slightest, red eyes filled with tears, but teary-eyed hazily looking at the figure in front of him.

Twenty years.

From day to day, she had been thinking about this figure.

But now, she had never expected to meet him on such an occasion.

There were so many emotions and so many tastes.

But at this moment, she could not say that she missed him.

As Chen Dong turned around with Li Lan, Kun Lun and Elder Long and Qin Ye also followed.

Chen Daolin stood in the hall.

One faced all the Li family members.

He said coldly, "Remember, I am now the Chen family's man of words, my people, you can invite but not move!"

Overbearing and peerless.

Out of the corner of his eye, he looked at the crowd.

Under everyone's gaze.

Chen Daolin turned around blandly and walked outside.

When he reached the door, he paused.

"Blow up your Li family ten more, count it as punishment, if there is a next time in today's matter, the Li family will be turned into flat land, I said!"

At those words.

All the Li family members' minds went "boom" and they fell into an ice cave.

Was this a way to bully the Li family to death?

What would ten cannonballs do to the Li family?

But as the elder Li did not move, the rest of the Li family did not dare to speak up.

It was as if they were, silently, admitting to this heavy punishment!

As Chen Dong and the others left in the helicopter.

The warplanes hovering over the ancient castle roared up at once.

Ten artillery shells, tugging at the blinding flames.

Like a meteor shower, they blasted down into the Li family garden.

There was a series of explosions.

Ten flaming mushroom clouds rose into the air in a spectacular display.

Inside the Li family hall.

Everyone's face was deathly pale as they clenched their teeth.

Outside, there was a barrage of fire.

Inside the hall was dead silence.

This was a disgrace to the Li family!

A great shame!

They could even foresee that tonight, the Li family had been stared at the pillar of shame, becoming the laughing stock of the whole of Kyoto.

Master Li's body was trembling, his dry hands clenched into fists, his eyes shadowy as if he wanted to eat someone.

He valued the Li family's face above all else.

But as these shells fell, the Li family's face was gone.

Anger was raging!

But he dared not speak out in anger.

With the sound of Li Deshan's screams echoing in his ears, he looked at Li Deshan with a heartfelt look, "Someone, take Deshan to the doctor!"

At once, someone went to help Li Deshan.

At that moment, the rest of Elder Li's sons, who had finally returned to their senses, clustered around Elder Li.

"Father, are you really going to let my Li family suffer such a great humiliation?"

"Barging into my Li family, crashing into my Li family hall, shelling the Li family manor, all these things, how can my Li family still have any face in Kyoto in the future?"

"Chen Dong is disobedient and arrogant, father has to think twice about asking him to be the head of the family!"

A series of voices made Elder Li irritable.

He felt like countless mosquito chants coaxing in his ears.

“That’s enough!”

Elder Li angrily scolded, “If you don’t ask Chen Dong to be the head of the family, who in your generation will be able to do the job? I am doing all this for the sake of the long-lasting rainbow of the Li family for generations to come!”

All the Li family members were silent, but they were filled with doubts.

Was the Li family’s generation still inferior to that dead woman’s bastard son?

For the sake of the longevity of the Li family, the family head was single-handedly letting the Li family be stared at the pillar of shame?

The helicopter roared and flew towards Kyoto.

On the plane.

The three members of Chen Dong’s family sat together.

The atmosphere was odd.

What was supposed to be a family reunion was a family that looked at each other without words.

Elder Long, Kunlun and Qin Ye were looking out at the night sky.

Qin Ye murmured, “The three of us feel like three big electric bulbs.”

With a single word, he immediately made the few people in the helicopter laugh dumbly.

The atmosphere lightened up a little.

“Dong’er, give me your mother.”

Chen Daolin took Li Lan from Chen Dong’s arms and gave Chen Dong a provocative glance, “She’s my wife.”

Chen Dong, who was caught off guard, was instantly confused.

Winner Takes All Chapter 193-194

Chapter 193

Kyoto is a place of dragons and tigers.

The Li family fortress is in the mountains.

But this night's movement was like thunder and lightning, sweeping through the intelligence networks of all Kyoto's powers.

The Li family was broken into.

The Li family had been bombed, and even warplanes had been sent out.

One by one, information kept reaching the desks of the major powers.

Everyone was stunned.

It would not be an exaggeration to say that the whole city was shaken.

In Kyoto, the Li family was the richest, its position unshakeable.

Who was it?

Who was it that dared to do this act of slapping the tiger's butt?

For a while, some people were gloating, some were full of doubts, and some were even happier.

The Li family had become the laughing stock of everyone!

But without exception, all the forces were trying to trace the cause of the incident.

As a piece of information continued to appear in front of these people, the shock in these people's hearts, too, was rapidly amplified.

This night in Kyoto.

It was like this rain in the night.

The storm clouds were surging, thunder and lightning were flashing, and the rain was pouring down.

Somewhere in the hotel in Kyoto.

In the room, Chen Dong sat with Kunlun Long Lao and Qin Ye.

Kunlun Qin Ye was smoking a cigarette.

Elder Long looked at a book.

Chen Dong was somewhat idle, looking out of the window at the heavy rain and lightning, silently dazed.

Everything tonight had been too much of a shock for him.

His father's domineering ways had left an indelible impression on him.

As a child, every time he clashed with someone, he was expecting a father to stand up for him.

But he didn't have a father, the people he was in conflict with did.

This contributed to the fact that when he was a child, whenever he clashed, whether he was right or wrong, he ended up on the wrong side of the fence.

When he was wrong, he deserved a beating.

But when he was right, he was also beaten.

His mother was exhausted from holding up a family for him, and whenever he was wronged, he dared not confide in her, like a dog, hiding in a dark corner, silently licking his wounds and recovering to face her with a smile.

And today, twenty years on.

The feeling of having a father is finally being felt.

The feeling was intense, shocking, and made Chen Dong's emotions overwhelmingly complex.

His parents were in the next room and his father was helping his mother with her injuries.

And he consciously ran to Elder Long's side of the room on their side.

Because he knew that, after twenty years of reunion, his mother must have had a lot of thoughts to tell his father.

And he had too, but that was after his parents had caught up with each other.

"Elder Long, don't pretend."

Qin Ye's voice broke the silence in the room.

Chen Dong turned around and saw that Qin Ye had stood up and ripped Elder Long's book away with one hand.

What Chen Dong did not expect was that there was still a book stuck inside the book.

Just the cover of the book looked a little red to his face.

Elder Long's body trembled and he was a little alarmed.

He hurriedly put away the book and angrily glared at Qin Ye: "You brat, I am only interested in reading sage books!"

"Che you old rascal will only be bent on studying technology!"

Qin Ye rolled his eyes.

Chen Dong and Kun Lun looked at each other.

If it wasn't for Qin Ye, the two of them really didn't think that Elder Long had this side.

The image of Old Man Long in their hearts in the past was now completely crumbling.

Following closely.

Qin Ye walked up to Chen Dong and extended his right hand, "Make a price, I'm your man tonight."

Boom!

Chen Dong's tiger body shook and his face turned red as he looked at Qin Ye in horror, "You, what do you want? I, I'm not that kind of person!"

The sudden scene caused Elder Long and Kunlun to be startled as well.

Had the young master been discovered by Qin Ye for something?

Suddenly, Elder Long's gaze flashed and he became excited, "Young master, why don't you say yes?"

How the hell could this be a promise?

Chen Dong immediately became unsettled and was about to open his mouth to argue.

Long Lao stomped his foot, "Qin Ye has agreed to your invitation."

Chen Dong was stunned, and then came to his senses.

He excitedly clasped Qin Ye's hand, "Deal!"

The two men looked at each other and smiled.

Qin Ye said, "But you have to put a good price on it, if you want me to work for you, you have to be worthy of my life, and the price for my helping you is also great."

"The price?" Chen Dong was stunned for a moment.

Qin Ye, however, smiled faintly, his handsome features dripping with a bit of evil aura.

He turned around and took out his mobile phone, dialing a number.

Soon, the call was answered.

Qin Ye said coldly, "From now on, I am not a member of the Qin family, expel me from the clan tree."

Snap!

Hang up the phone.

In the room, it was silent enough to listen to a needle.

Chen Dong was confused.

Elder Long and Kunlun were also confused.

This was a huge price, indeed!

Even for a person from a powerful and powerful family, it was undoubtedly a disaster of annihilation.

Yet, Qin Ye was refusing so casually.

This was where the three were truly shocked.

Qin Ye turned around, looked at the dumbfounded Chen Dong and shrugged his shoulders.

"Don't be so surprised, anyway, I am being stored up as a ruined person in the Qin family, since I have a goal to be able to work towards, breaking away from the Qin family to struggle is just fine, now that my parents are gone, I don't have any big attachments in the Qin family."

Chen Dong's heart was full of doubts.

Looking at Qin Ye, his lips were curd, wanting to ask.

A man who had killed his father had committed a great crime, yet the Qin family had spared his life and kept him.

To say that Qin Ye had killed his father and had no inside knowledge would be purely false.

Recalling carefully, it was clear to him that Qin Ye had also undergone a change in attitude from his saving his mother's life this time.

After taking a deep breath, Chen Dong finally suppressed the doubts in his heart and did not ask.

This was Qin Ye's secret.

It was also an inside story that the Qin family in Xishu had been hiding.

He respected Qin Ye, and if Qin Ye did not say anything, he would not ask more questions.

It was just like Fan Lu back then.

Only, looking at Qin Ye again.

Chen Dong suddenly felt that the man who had killed his father in front of him did not seem to be that cold-blooded and ruthless anymore.

Knock, knock!

A knock sounded at the door.

Chen Dong's expression froze.

Was it finally his turn?

Kunlun got up and opened the door.

Standing in the doorway was Chen Daolin and Li Lan.

The two were embracing each other, their eyes were red.

Clearly, both had been crying.

“Master.”

“Master Chen family.”

Kun Lun, Elder Long and Qin Ye greeted each other.

Chen Daolin nodded and looked at Chen Dong with a soft gaze.

Chen Dong was dumbfounded, this moment, staring at his father, left him a little dazed, his mind was blank.

All the thoughts and expectations that he sometimes really got were not as easy and casual to deal with as he had expected to design them to be.

“You’ve done well!”

Chen Daolin nodded and praised, “You are excellent beyond my imagination, I am ashamed of you for twenty years, I have failed you mother and son.”

Chen Dong smiled and did not say anything.

“Our son, he can already hold up a piece of heaven for his mother.”

Chen Daolin twisted his head to look at Li Lan and smiled gently.

He then looked at Chen Dong again, “Be careful yourself, your answer sheet is not enough for you to take your mother back to the Chen family, the Chen family heirs, there are more than just the Born and Raised duo, I will take you and surpass them step by step.”

“I can surpass them myself.” Chen Dong said.

Chen Daolin smiled spontaneously and nodded, “Good, good, that’s the kind of guts my son should have!”

“I need to go back to the Chen family immediately, the incident tonight will be a big deal, and the Chen family needs to be suppressed.”

Chen Daolin’s face was sullen, but his gaze was directed towards Qin Ye: “Qin family boy, I know about you, you’re a filial son! Very good! Assist my son well, and what you want, my son will give you one by one in the future!”

Chen Dong frowned.

Qin Ye instead scratched his head and smiled, “What are you laughing at, Master Chen, I’m the beast that slaughtered my own dad with my own hands.”

Chen Daolin laughed noncommittally.

Turning around, he left.

Chen Daolin has left.

It came very suddenly and left very suddenly.

This made Chen Dong, who had come back to his senses and calmed down, inexplicably feel a little lost.

Li Lan saw what was on Chen Dong's mind and she smiled softly, "Your father, at home, is waiting for us to come home."

A simple sentence, but it conveyed another layer of meaning.

Chen Dong's eyes flashed up with a fine aura.

Secretly, he clenched his fist.

Twenty years of relying on each other.

He must walk right into the Chen family and let his mother have the glory that should have belonged to her.

The night was without words.

At dawn, the rain stopped.

Chen Dong and the others then left Kyoto in a hurry.

The Li family last night was bound to cause a storm in Kyoto.

In Chen Dong's eyes, Kyoto had long since become a maelstrom after the night.

A long stay would only plunge a few of them into the whirlpool as well.

He did not have an ounce of good feeling towards the Li family.

There was only disgust, anger and hatred.

Even if the Li family was willing to make him the head of the family, he would rather fight to the death for the slim chance of being the head of the Chen family.

The Li family's whirlpool was something he had even less heart to get involved in.

In fact it was indeed as Chen Dong thought it would be.

A night of fermentation.

The major powers had also probed into the cause of what had happened at the Li family last night.

After all, Chen Daoling's descent was not earth-shattering, but it was enough to shake the whole city.

All the powers were also shocked by Chen Daoling's appearance.

It was important to know that the Chen family was at a level higher than the Li family, the richest family.

While in shock, some of the giants of the forces also reacted quickly.

As soon as the stock market opened, the share prices of the companies under the Li family plummeted in unison.

Not only that, some undercurrents, too, were gathering momentum in Kyoto.

Inside the Li family's ancient castle manor.

Last night's bombardment had left the ancient fortress manor in ruins and disrepair.

The courtyard walls had collapsed and the vast gardens were ruined.

The only thing left standing is the old castle.

Had Elder Li not made a quick decision in the end, he would have had to bomb the old fortress too.

The once glorious and mysterious Li family, under the rising sun, was showing a bleakness of the waning sun.

All the Li family members were terrified and looked gloomy.

The events of last night had shattered the pride in the hearts of the Li family.

Inside a luxurious room in the old castle.

Master Li sat silently at the window, a cigar cigarette burning in a curl of smoke in his hand.

Looking out from this angle, he could just about take in the devastation of the garden.

Master Li's eyes were red and his face could not hide the look of exhaustion.

He had not slept all night, and had sat here, all night long.

Even after the night was over, he was still filled with resentment.

"Father."

Li Deshan's voice came from behind him, "The doctor said you can't smoke."

Old Master Li laughed: "This old body of mine is already holding strong, not being able to smoke is for the good of my health, can I live a thousand years?"

Li Deshan looked puzzled.

After a moment's hesitation, he said, "Father, in fact, we, the brothers, are able to take charge of the Li family, it's just that you have refused to let go."

As he said these words, his gaze kept sweeping towards Old Master Li.

The heart was frightened.

Because he knew that this was already asking his father to choose a new family head.

It was no different from forcing a palace in ancient times!

"Oh, you brothers, who is this material?"

Old Master Li smiled despondently, "I also want to let go of my power and step down as the family head, but you all, who can take up the position of family head? All of you are brave but not resourceful, and all of you are drunken sacks of rice, skilled in internal fighting."

The character of his sons had been in the eyes of Old Master Li since he was a child.

If he hadn't known them well, why would he have gone to such lengths to plan for Chen Dong, a man with the surname Chen, to become the head of the family?

Even if he had already calculated how his son could usurp Chen Dong's position as head of the family when the Li family was firmly established in the future.

But at least during the time when Chen Dong was the head of the family, the Li family would be a disgrace and a laughing stock in the eyes of outsiders.

Li Deshan's old face flushed.

But he still gritted his teeth and said stubbornly, "Father, I think I am already capable of taking charge of the Li family, you may not know yet, just because of this operation of yours, today the share prices of the listed companies under our Li family have plummeted at the same time, and several of them have already fallen to a halt."

"I don't need to know, I also guessed that there will be more trouble for the Li family in Kyoto in the coming period."

Elder Li looked obscure and sighed helplessly, "Last night's descent of Chen Daolin was already using his big hands to stir up the entire situation in Kyoto into a dark current, those people, I guess, already started sharpening their knives last night, preparing to deal with our Li family."

The position of the richest man, the Li family had been sitting on it for many years.

A big tree invites wind, and there are many enemies.

The glorious Li family, in Kyoto, had people who wanted to take its place.

However, they had always been fearful of the strength of the richest Li family and did not dare to make a move.

This has also kept this pool of water in Kyoto, calm.

Last night, when Chen Daolin descended, a dozen shells fell.

However, it had stripped the Li family's bottom clean. Elder Li knew very well that when the skin was stripped, the bare meat would be the most extravagant thing those people could hope for.

"Then what should we do about this?" Li Deshan's face changed dramatically.

Elder Li smiled bitterly, "If Dong'er were here, he wouldn't be asking old man this, that's why he can be the head of the family, but you few can't."

.....

When the plane landed at the airport.

It was already eleven o'clock at noon.

Long Lao had long ago arranged for a car, and when several people walked out of the airport, they took the car directly back to their Tianmen Mountain villa home.

By the time they arrived home.

Fan Lu had already set the table full of dishes.

Seeing Li Lan, Fan Lu first froze for a moment, then flung herself in front of Li Lan with tears of joy and hugged her.

“Auntie, you scared me to death, you really scared me to death.”

Li Lan was stifled by Fan Lu’s lunge, which involved her injury, and she immediately let out a stifled grunt.

This scared Fan Lu and she hurriedly apologised.

But Li Lan smiled and said, “It’s alright, it’s a small injury, it’s not a big deal.”

“Mom, let’s eat first.”

Chen Dong let Fan Lu hold her mother, then greeted Qin Ye Long Lao and took his seat.

In the kitchen, there was still movement.

Chen Dong glanced at Fan Lu, “There is someone else?”

Fan Lu smiled and said, “It’s Little Shadow, after Auntie disappeared, I was terrified, after informing you guys, Young Master, I also informed Little Shadow, she was so scared that she rushed over.”

The words had just fallen.

The kitchen door opened.

Gu Qingying, whose face was red from the smoke and fire and who was wearing an apron, came out carrying a bowl of soup.

After putting down the soup, she rubbed her hands together and sat down next to Li Lan, saying with an apology, “Auntie I’m sorry I didn’t take care of you while Chen Dong was away.”

A sudden apology.

Not only did it confuse Li Lan, even Chen Dong was not expecting it.

However, Chen Dong was feeling a warm current flowing in his heart.

In this matter, what was Gu Qingying's fault?

She lived alone and her mother was kidnapped at home, how could Gu Qingying possibly know?

"Silly girl, it was auntie's own fault, why are you still blaming yourself." Li Lan said in a soft voice.

"But I am Chen Dong's fiancée, you are my future mother-in-law, I should have taken care of you after Chen Dong left, but I didn't take care of you and let you get kidnapped, that's my fault." Gu Qingying said seriously.

This made Chen Dong and the others laugh dumbly.

Chen Dong scraped the bridge of Gu Qingying's high nose, "You little fool, your logic is quite smooth."

Gu Qingying's nose wrinkled slightly and she glared at Chen Dong.

At this moment, Qin Ye suddenly stood up.

He extended his right hand to Chen Dong, "Brother Dong, for the sake of my sister-in-law, I've made this friend of yours."

Chen Dong's eyes glared, "Kunlun, beat the hell out of him!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 195-196

The following days.

Chen Dong was once again busy, on the one hand, he had to lead the project of Dingtai.

On the other hand, he also set up the structure of the financial company with Qin Ye, and the follow-up only required Qin Ye to take the lead.

He was indifferent to the storm clouds in Kyoto because of the Li family.

The Li family, even if they were to go down the drain, would have nothing to do with him.

Because of the kidnapping of Li Lan, Gu Qingying would also go to Tianmen Mountain Villa every day to accompany Li Lan.

From time to time, she would also ask Fan Lu for cooking lessons.

It was simple and happy, making Chen Dong feel very warm.

However, just because Chen Dong did not care about the stormy clouds of the Li family in Kyoto, it did not mean that he could really stay out of it.

Evening.

Chen Dong, Elder Long and Kunlun and Qin Ye were sitting on the terrace, drinking beer and blowing the night breeze.

The terrace on the roof of the villa had become a place for the four to rest in their leisure time.

“Young master, the recent storm formation in Kyoto is not small at all.” Elder Long murmured.

Chen Dong gave a non-committal smile.

Qin Ye poured in a mouthful of beer and said, “The Li family has been sitting on their asses as the richest man in Kyoto for so many years, there are probably many people coveting that position, this time Brother Dong and Master Chen have skinned the Li family, those people will definitely take advantage of the Li family’s illness to take their lives.”

Saying that, he shrugged, “The Qin family in Xishu is also secretly the target of many people who want to pull down their horses.”

Long Lao deflated his mouth and looked up at the night sky, “The old man in Kyoto doesn’t care about the storm in Kyoto, but now the wind from Kyoto has slowly blown over here.”

Chen Dong frowned slightly, looking at Elder Long in surprise.

It was true that he did not care about the death of the Li family, even if Kyoto was turned upside down, he could still sit on a steady fishing platform.

But when the wind swept this way, eventually he and Dingtai, too, would be swept into the whirlpool.

With his current strength, it was not the time to fight against the dragons and tigers of Kyoto.

Qin Ye’s expression also gripped his features.

As a member of the Qin family, the entanglements of the giants and magnates were most clear.

“The commotion that night was too big, Kyoto hides dragons and tigers, it’s simply too easy to scout it out.”

Qin Ye frowned and murmured, “Brother Dong, what do you think about this?”

“Dryly watching.”

Chen Dong smiled to himself, “The storm clouds in Kyoto are rolling in, and Din Tai, who lives in this corner of the world, really has no other choice but to watch dryly.”

“Actually, young master has nothing to worry about, after all, young master still has the family head and the Chen family behind him.” Kunlun said comfortingly.

Qin Ye raised his eyebrows and said, “Didn’t the Li family know about Dong’s background and still kidnap Auntie?”

Kun Lun was speechless for a while.

On the contrary, Elder Long smiled slightly, “It’s just that, and we’ll see how the wind and clouds change, and the fortune will have its own argument.”

.....

The next morning.

After Chen Dong and Kun Lun had their devil training, they ate breakfast and prepared to go to the company.

But an invitation was delivered to his doorstep by the security personnel of the Tianmen Mountain Villa.

When he opened the invitation, Chen Dong became a little despondent.

“Coming, so soon?”

“Is it from Kyoto?” Elder Long asked with a frown.

Chen Dong nodded his head and sighed helplessly, “It’s from the Zhang family in Kyoto, inviting me to attend an auction in the city tonight.”

“An auction?”

Elder Long was stunned for a moment, and then smiled, "Since it is an invitation to an auction, it should be for good."

Chen Dong hesitated for a moment and said, "Elder Long, tell us about this Zhang family in the car."

He had been immersed in real estate for three years, and he was still clear about the real estate-related families.

But the only way to find out about the magnates outside the industry was to ask Elder Long.

The Rolls-Royce drove towards Dingtai Company.

In the car, Long Lao recounted, "Young master, this Zhang family is considered a relatively clean family, in fact, the energy in Kyoto is not too big, mainly engaged in film and television entertainment, now after three generations of cultivation, just like to become the oligarch of film and television entertainment, already in cooperation with international film companies."

Small power.

Clean family history.

Chen Dong quickly eliminated two important pieces of information from Elder Long's profile, and the big stone in his heart finally fell.

This Zhang family, as Elder Long had said, should have come here for good and to make friends.

Otherwise, would such a "weak" family have the guts to deal with him?

Stretching his back, Chen Dong said, "I'll ask Qin Ye to go with me tonight."

Long Lao nodded, not wondering why Chen Dong had brought Qin Ye and not him.

In fact, Chen Dong also thought that since Long Lao was so old, he had no one to rely on before, but now that Qin Ye, the son of a rich family, was there, he could share the burden on Long Lao's behalf.

It was a busy day.

At six o'clock in the afternoon.

Chen Dong left work on time and went downstairs to wait for a moment.

A roar of engines came from the distant street corner, bombarding the whole street.

Immediately after, Chen Dong saw a black Koenigsegg rushing over.

Crunch!

The Koenigsegg stopped, the car door opened and Qin Ye stepped out, "Brother Dong, let's go you!"

Chen Dong was dumbfounded for a while.

Looking at the Koenigsegg his heart beat a little faster.

This car was dead expensive!

"Brother Dong, don't stand still, what's so surprising about just one car?" Qin Ye smiled cynically.

Chen Dong's lips nodded as he sat in the car.

Feeling the luxury inside the car, he was a little bewildered.

He was the heir of the Chen family, and Qin Ye was the outcast of the Qin family.

The original and now distinct identities had given birth to a feeling in Chen Dong that he was now the outcast.

"Qin Ye, just how much private money do you have?"

Chen Dong couldn't help but ask, "First you sold that villa next door to my house, and now you're buying such an expensive car, you only look like the heir to the Chen family, huh?"

"Not much not much."

Qin Ye smiled mysteriously and gave Chen Dong a contemptuous look while driving, "Your father gave you so much money, you hide it yourself and don't show it, and you don't allow me to show it?"

Chen Dong: "....."

Koenigsegg sped along.

When he arrived at the auction house, it was already 7:30 pm.

Night had fallen.

Looking at the ancient pavilion building in front of him, Chen Dong was in a bit of a trance.

He had been to many high-end places, but this was the first time he had been to an auction house.

There was a sense of restraint in his behaviour and demeanour.

Qin Ye, on the other hand, was walking calmly, strutting towards the auction house.

As he walked, he even spat out to Chen Dong, "Brother Dong, the auction house in your place is no good, it is better for my auction house in Western Shu to have style.

Chen Dong was dumbfounded and laughed.

When the two of them reached the entrance, they handed in their invitations and were led into the auction house by a special person.

The lights were dimmed at once.

As they walked along the long corridor to the interior of the auction hall, the only light in the entire venue was also focused on the central stage.

"Two, please follow me."

The man from the auction house led Chen Dong and Qin Ye towards the first floor box.

It was also just when the two were going upstairs.

Not far away in the darkness, a soft laughter suddenly rang out, "Grandpa, that Chen Dong looks cynical, like a prodigal son!"

A hoarse laugh sounded out, "Yu Lan, the Zhang family's intelligence agency is already at its limit when it comes to finding out what happened that night, and it can't even detect Chen Dong's appearance.

"The man beside him is dressed in a suit, but his demeanor is so formal, how could the heir to the Chen family act like this on such a small occasion?" The soft voice carried a note of certainty.

"That's true."

The hoarse voice suddenly became a little lower: "Yu Lan, would you blame grandpa? The Zhang family is relying on you tonight, if you can win Chen Dong's trust, the Zhang family will have one more way to go in the future."

"I don't blame grandpa, besides, Chen Dong is the heir of the Chen family, he falls under my skirt, I'm not at a loss."

In the darkness, a tall silhouette dressed in a long dress slowly walked towards the first floor

Chapter 196

First floor private room.

The lights were charming.

Chen Dong and Qin Ye looked at the environment as they walked into the box and looked at each other.

After the staff left.

Chen Dong frowned and said, "The boxes in the auction house, are all in this kind of tone?"

"I'm fucking dumbfounded too." Qin Ye looked like he had egg on his face, "This arrangement, it's so flirty."

The corner of Chen Dong's mouth twitched and he sat down on the recliner in a wooden manner.

It would have been fine if it was just the charming lighting.

The key was that the entire compartment was filled with a strong smell of fragrance, and there was a picture of semi-nude body art hanging on the wall.

This is to attend the auction, or to see the art exhibition?

Two big men crammed into such a box always gives people a strange feeling.

However, Chen Dong did find that the floor-to-ceiling window of this box, which was right in front of the auction stage, could take in everything below, so it should be the best location.

The Zhang family was showing their sincerity, but

Chen Dong swept a glance at the box and finally landed on Qin Ye.

This is a very excessive show of sincerity, ah.

Sensing Chen Dong's gaze, Qin Ye's expression was solemn: "Don't think too much!"

“Get lost!”

Chen Dong cursed with a smile.

Knock, knock!

There was a knock on the door.

Immediately after, a delicate and soft voice came from outside.

“I am from the Zhang family, Zhang Yulan, may Mr. Chen come in?”

Chen Dong nodded his head.

Only then did Qin Ye speak, “Come in.”

When Zhang Yulan, who was dressed in a long white dress and floated like an immortal, walked into the box.

A touch of surprise surfaced on her beautiful face at once.

And similarly, Chen Dong and Qin Ye were also surprised.

Chen Dong only knew that the Zhang family in Kyoto had invited him tonight, but he had never thought that a woman would come.

Moreover, it was an enchanting and beautiful woman!

Under the charming lighting, the long white dress trimmed Zhang Yulan’s tall figure to near perfection, with every depression and bulge just right.

Her delicate features, put together in near-perfect proportions, lightly powdered and with eyes like stars, were no better than those of the big stars on television.

This made Chen Dong’s mind think of Gu Qingying first when he was surprised.

Both of them were equally stunning, but when comparing them, Gu Qingying had more of a dusty and immortal aura, while Zhang Yulan gave off a mellow and worldly feeling.

Both were equally stunning, one in the sky and the other on earth.

“So beautiful!”

Qin Ye’s offhand exclaim broke the silence in the room.

Zhang Yulan woke up from her amazement and swept a somewhat bored glance at Chen Dong.

A bodyguard who would actually follow Mr. Chen into this box?

This was carefully decorated by me, and just because of this bodyguard, it brakes the view.

Zhang Yulan's bored look flickered away, but it was still easily caught by Chen Dong.

Chen Dong looked bewildered, inviting me here just to throw me a wink?

"Mr Chen, I am the first daughter of the Zhang family, Zhang Yulan."

Zhang Yulan was full of smiles, giving people a spring-like feeling, and as she walked, her waist twisted, looking at her posture.

Then, under the stunned gazes of Chen Dong and Qin Ye.

Zhang Yulan slightly owed her body and walked in front of Qin Ye, extending her right hand, "First time meeting, please enlighten Mr. Chen."

Mistaken identity?!

Chen Dong and Qin Ye looked at each other and were confused at the same time.

Chen Dong suddenly felt a little amused.

His own image, compared to Qin Ye's, was so unlike the rich second generation?

The Zhang family in Kyoto had invited him, and they hadn't even figured out who exactly was Chen Dong, and they had come up with the wrong one?

Zhang Yulan's willow brows knitted slightly as she looked at Chen Dong with some anger, "What's so funny about this?"

She had no good feeling towards this bodyguard in front of her.

This private room was personally prepared by her and her grandfather, and it should have been her and Chen Dong alone.

She believed that with her worldliness and looks, she would definitely be able to multiply her goodwill with Chen Dong overnight.

But a bodyguard had become a stumbling block to this elaborate preparation.

Chen Dong narrowed his smile for a moment, and did not get angry, but instead found the scene amusing.

If Zhang Yulan knew the truth later, what kind of reaction should she have?

Zhang Yulan was filled with a gentle smile as she looked towards Qin Ye: "Mr. Chen is really generous, he actually did not ask his bodyguards to stand outside the door and wait, but entered the box together, this is very different from the rich family's children that Yulan has seen."

"Pfft!"

Qin Ye suddenly laughed as well, his face flushed a little red.

This scene made Zhang Yulan look choked, a little confused.

Saying the wrong thing?

Qin Ye was busy waving his hand, "It's alright, it's alright, we're all brothers, how can we be so uncomfortable?"

Chen Dong didn't retort, Qin Ye had a clear mind, and didn't think of telling Zhang Yulan the truth.

With that, Qin Ye took a step forward and looked down at Zhang Yulan with softness and affection in his eyes.

His lips lightly opened and he let out a magnetic voice: "What I didn't expect was that Miss Yu Lan was so American looking, which really surprised me."

Feeling Qin Ye's gaze, he listened to words full of praise.

Zhang Yulan was secretly happy.

With her first impression, the next step would be easy.

She had many ways to deal with the prodigal son.

Increasing goodwill was just a handful.

"Mr. Chen is joking, how can this point of Yulan's beauty be worthy of Mr. Chen's praise?"

Zhang Yulan's long, white jade hand gently held Qin Ye's right hand, and after touching it, she clearly felt Qin Ye's hand tremble for a moment, and her confidence instantly multiplied.

After all, it was a polite handshake and the two quickly separated.

However, Qin Ye and Zhang Yulan continued to look at each other, both of them with smiles on their faces.

It would not be an exaggeration to say that they were frowning at each other.

Chen Dong witnessed it with his own eyes, his face rising a little red.

This was a high-end player game within a game, the battle of the Sea Kings?

His eyes cast a sidelong glance at the charming lighting and arrangement in the box.

Chen Dong clearly understood the Zhang family's purpose.

This Zhang family, pulling in favours, didn't even know to ask around about me?

Even if they can't recognize me, can't they find out that I have a fiancée?

"Sit."

After a long time, Qin Ye lightly took Zhang Yulan's hand and invited Zhang Yulan to take a seat as a gentleman.

Zhang Yulan also behaved in a reserved and polite manner, but the charm remained between her eyebrows.

After the two of them took their seats, they chatted enthusiastically.

Chen Dong was left out, sitting alone on the side.

But he didn't care, he didn't like such a scene.

Zhang Yulan had identified the wrong person, so it was just as well to let Qin Ye, a technical player, take the bullet for him.

Whatever technical exchange the two had, as long as it didn't impress him.

"By the way Mr. Chen, the auction tonight is a bit of a spectacle."

Zhang Yulan suddenly said in a delicate voice.

Chen Dong raised his eyebrows and instinctively looked over.

Sensing Chen Dong's gaze, Zhang Yulan frowned slightly before turning to Qin Ye with a delicate smile and said, "The grand finale auction tonight is a piece of jewellery, the Tears of the Blue Sea, which is a whole sapphire, designed and made by the top designers, and will definitely convince every girl.”

Hint!

With Zhang Yulan’s family background, she naturally did not need to have the Tears of the Blue Sea auctioned for her, but this could also serve as a test.

If “Chen Dong” was willing to take it for her, then the relationship would be one step closer.

Chen Dong rubbed his nose, his gaze deep and thoughtful.

“Tears of the Blue Sea? I don’t think I’ve given her many gifts since I got together with Little Shadow.”

Winner Takes All Chapter 197-198

Chapter 197

The time passes slowly.

Inside the auction hall, there were more and more people.

On the first floor, one after another, the lights of the boxes were lit up.

However, because of the special design, it was difficult for outsiders to see who was actually sitting inside the boxes.

Chen Dong paid no attention to Qin Ye and Zhang Yulan, who were in love with each other.

He played with his phone with his head down and sent a WeChat to Gu Qingying, “I want to send you a gift.”

“What kind of gift? (Happy)” Gu Qingying replied in seconds.

Chen Dong sent back a message, “You’ll know when the time comes.”

After sending the message, he put his phone on mute and tucked it into his pocket.

Leaning back in his chair, he looked at the lights that were gradually brightening on the auction stage below.

The auction was about to begin.

Chen Dong was determined to win the last item, the “Tears of the Blue Sea”.

This was his gift to Gu Qingying.

As for the price, he didn't consider it, the city's auction house probably couldn't sell any heavenly treasures, not to mention that he had money now.

“Mr. Chen, the box is a bit hot.”

Zhang Yulan suddenly said daintily, “Can you let this bodyguard of yours out? I want to fix my skirt and cool off a bit.”

Qin Ye's eyes lit up, but he immediately showed a difficult look again.

Zhang Yulan had mistakenly identified the wrong person, he wouldn't dare to really throw Chen Dong out yet.

A smile emerged at the corner of Chen Dong's mouth.

The Zhang family in Kyoto was worthy of being in the entertainment industry, and the luxurious daughter of the family was actually all in such a posture.

“That, Yu Lan, a brother of your own family, don't mind.”

Qin Ye suddenly stifled a sentence.

Zhang Yulan's expression was choked.

This can still be a self brother, don't care?

Chen Dong was caught off guard, his face turned violently red and he coughed violently.

He fiercely glared at Qin Ye, this bastard, so righteous to his own brother?

Qin Ye knew that he had said the wrong thing and blushed as he pointed to the auction stage below, “That, look at the auction, it will start soon.”

Zhang Yulan gave Chen Dong a sidelong glance, slightly annoyed.

With this light bulb in front of her, she simply could not continue to exert her charms.

The Zhang family was not considered prominent in Kyoto, even if the film and entertainment in the hands of the Zhang family had almost become an industry oligarchy nowadays.

But compared to the real giants of Kyoto, they are still a long way behind.

If she could get the Chen family's attention, even if Chen Dong was only the successor, as long as the Chen family had not yet established a real new family head, this name alone would be enough for the Zhang family to operate.

For the sake of the family, she would do anything.

Not to mention that the "Chen Dong" in front of her was quite to her liking.

Suddenly.

The light on the auction stage shone brightly.

At the same time, the few scattered lights in the venue also went out.

All the lights were focused on the auction stage.

A middle-aged man in a suit, with a strong figure, smiled as he walked onto the stage.

The auction, officially started!

Chen Dong attended the auction for the first time and watched with great excitement as the auction proceeded.

But after looking at a few items, he lost interest because, as he had expected, the items up for auction were indeed valuable to ordinary people, but to him, they were insignificant.

There were no bids for the entire first floor box.

Those who competed for bids were all those in the ground floor venue.

He cast a sidelong glance at Qin Ye and Zhang Yulan.

The two were almost embracing each other, eyebrows raised.

With what Chen Dong knew about Qin Ye these days, he reckoned that if he hadn't been present, these two would have really become dry fire.

"Mr. Chen"

Sensing Chen Dong's gaze, Zhang Yulan let out a wink.

Qin Ye was a little embarrassed: "Brother of my own family, it's nothing."

Zhang Yulan: "....."

She was about to explode with anger.

I'm already like this with you, and you're still talking about brotherhood?

What the hell do you think I am?

However, thinking of the purpose of this trip, Zhang Yulan could only suppress her anger and cling to Qin Ye's embrace as a bird.

Chen Dong could not help but laugh as he watched.

Not wanting to spoil Qin Ye's fun, he forced himself to focus on the slightly tedious auction on the auction stage.

Inside the auction hall, the atmosphere became more and more heated with each round of bidding.

When the atmosphere reached a climax, the last three rounds of the auction finally began.

And at that moment, there were finally people in the boxes on the first floor who started to raise their bids.

Chen Dong watched quietly.

He was waiting for the finale, the "Tears of the Blue Sea".

"Mr. Chen, the Tears of the Blue Sea will be up soon." Zhang Yulan tried in a delicate voice.

Qin Ye smiled wickedly at the right time, "You like it? Then I'll buy it for you."

With his personality and financial resources, spending a thousand or so million on picking up a girl was a routine operation.

What's more, the beauty in his arms was a genuine white rich beauty, so it was not a loss at all to spend a thousand or so million.

"Yu Lan likes everything that Mr. Chen gives her."

Zhang Yulan's beautiful eyes lit up, and at once her entire body was about to rub into Qin Ye's arms.

This was what she was waiting for.

As long as “Mr. Chen” was willing to give it to her, it meant that there was a possibility of further development.

But Zhang Yulan didn't notice that Chen Dong, who was at the side, quietly gave Qin Ye a warning look and shook his head.

Qin Ye was instantly dumbfounded.

Chen Dong had taken a fancy to it?

Immediately afterwards, he reacted that Chen Dong was going to give the Tears of the Blue Sea to Gu Qingying.

Qin Ye was a little melancholy and looked down at the delicate Zhang Yulan in his arms, he could not bear it in his heart.

“Everyone, the next item is the grand finale of this auction, the Tears of the Blue Sea.”

Accompanied by the auctioneer's voice, two cheongsam beauties walked onto the auction stage holding trays.

Everyone was staring intently at the tray covered with a silk cloth.

When the auctioneer uncovered the silk cloth.

Instantly.

An azure light shone out under the strong light, beautiful and glorious.

Wow!

The entire auction hall was immediately filled with astonishment.

Even Chen Dong could not help but be surprised, attracted by the light of the Blue Sea Tear.

Zhang Yulan, on the other hand, was also stunned in his heart.

This place, there was really such a top quality jewel being auctioned?

“This auction house, it's a bit of a thing.” Qin Ye also could not help but exclaim in admiration.

As the light gradually diminished.

Everyone got a good look at the real Tears of the Blue Sea.

It was a piece of jewellery that was extremely artistic in its carving, no, it should just be called a work of art.

The blue sapphire still shone brightly, a radiant blue that was intimidating.

It was so dazzling that even the diamonds on the necklace became an accent.

The whole necklace was extremely glorious, so beautiful that it was flawless.

Once again, the auction room was filled with shouts of astonishment.

Some even took a glance at their female companions who were full of desire around them, and could not help but scratch their purses and sigh helplessly.

“This piece is called Tears of the Blue Sea, the owner of this auction house obtained a top quality sapphire by chance and specially invited the top international Italian designer to design and make it, you can call it a piece of jewellery or a piece of art, but I think I prefer to describe it as the dream of all women.”

An introduction.

The auctioneer announced loudly, “The reserve price is fifty million dollars, with bids of ten million dollars per round, the bidding will now begin!”

Boom!

“Fifty million? Still the reserve price? Holy shit, I can’t afford it, I can’t afford it!”

“Oh my God, I don’t think I’ll be able to make as much money as this Tear of the Blue Sea in my lifetime, right?”

“Such a beautiful work of art, it’s really worth a fortune, if someone was willing to give it to me, it would be worth my life.”

.....

Inside the auction room on the ground floor, there was an uproar.

And just at that moment.

A calm voice suddenly came out from the box in the middle of the first floor.

“One hundred million!”

Chapter 198

The voice is calm.

But it was like a big thunderclap.

In an instant, everyone looked at the box from which the voice came.

“One hundred million, this guest in the box upstairs, bid one hundred million!”

The auctioneer shouted excitedly.

Immediately afterwards, everyone in the venue finally came back to their senses.

There was a mountain of shouts of shock.

“Oh my God! Who is that sitting upstairs? A bid of just 100 million?”

“It’s doubled straight away, it seems that this big man is determined to win!”

“It’s too ruthless, the trench is unbeatable, that box couldn’t be Zhou Yanqiu, could it?”

.....

Inside the box.

Chen Dong blandly put down the microphone and leaned back in his chair, quietly waiting.

This was his first time attending an auction.

However, he had figured out some tricks from the few rounds he had just watched.

Under the premise that the highest bidder would win, one round of bidding would only make some people get hot under the collar and keep bidding.

The end result is that the price far exceeds the original price of the lot.

A heavy-handed approach is the fastest way to settle an auction.

It would also allow those who were interested in competing to keep their cool and not get carried away by the heat of the moment.

“One hundred million?!”

Qin Ye blurted out.

Zhang Yulan even furrowed her eyebrows and looked sullen, "Mr. Chen, is this bodyguard of yours shouting the price for you? This is too much to overstep the bounds of your authority!"

As a master and servant, how could a servant take the law into his own hands without being told to do so by his master?

As a member of the Zhang family's direct lineage, she was a proper rich white girl.

Zhang Yulan had participated in countless auctions and had brought along her bodyguards to let them help shout the bids, but those bodyguards had all shouted at the master's command.

She had even asked her bodyguards to help with the bidding.

And just now, "Mr. Chen" hadn't said a word!

"I bought it myself." Chen Dong said calmly, "This Tear of the Blue Sea is for my fiancée."

Zhang Yulan's mind went "boom" and her eyes were filled with disbelief.

Immediately afterwards, she suddenly snorted with laughter, "What a big mouth! You're just a bodyguard of Mr. Chen, you have so much money?"

As she said this, Zhang Yulan did not hide her contempt and disdain for Chen Dong.

A mere bodyguard, shouting out a hundred million dollars with his mouth open?

Don't even take a piss and look at yourself!

"One hundred million, is that a lot?"

Chen Dong gave Zhang Yulan a sidelong glance.

Zhang Yulan smiled, "Not much, indeed not much, but don't blame me for not being kind enough to remind you, this is an official auction, if you are unable to pay after bidding, you will be sanctioned by the law."

Chen Dong smiled disdainfully and paid no more attention.

But it was such a look that instantly seemed to have stirred a certain nerve in Zhang Yulan.

She was almost exploding.

The titled Miss Zhang Family was being scorned by a bodyguard?

She turned her head to look at Qin Ye: "Mr. Chen, this is your bodyguard?"

Qin Ye was embarrassed for a moment.

Glancing at Chen Dong, Qin Ye said helplessly, "A brother of my own family, never mind."

"But you clearly said earlier that you were going to buy it for me."

Zhang Yulan pouted and took Qin Ye's arm, saying pitifully, "Mr. Chen, you have promised me, are you going to be a man of your word?"

If it was at the beginning, Zhang Yulan would never have acted like this.

But now, she was sure that the "Mr. Chen" in front of her was interested in him.

If a man has a love for a concubine, there is no harm in being petulant.

Qin Ye shrugged helplessly: "As you heard, my brother wants to give it to her fiancée, isn't it good to be an adult? He offered 100 million, he's determined to get it, so just give it to him, and I'll just send you another one later."

"But does he have the money to give it?"

Zhang Yulan was indignant, she had not taken the Tears of the Blue Sea seriously before, she was just using it as a medium for her to get closer to Chen Dong.

But when she really saw the Tears of the Blue Sea, even with her knowledge, she was moved.

What girl doesn't like pearlescent jade?

What's more, it's this kind of top quality art!

This kind of top quality jewellery can only be found at the top auctions like Sotheby's.

"Ugh if you like it, just auction it yourself."

Qin Ye stretched his hands in annoyance, intending to leave this matter alone.

With his dangling and cynical personality, simply identifying the wrong person and spending some money to pick up a girl, he was happy to do it.

But if Zhang Yulan screwed with him, it would be no fun.

Zhang Yulan was confused.

He looked at Qin Ye in disbelief.

The auction stage.

The auctioneer shouted.

“One hundred million, for the first time!”

This shout touched Zhang Yulan.

Growing up pampered and spoiled, and even more so, soaking in the entertainment industry, a place of fame and fortune, she was fed, clothed and dressed with the best.

With an indignant grit of her teeth, Zhang Yulan picked up the microphone, “One hundred and fifty million dollars!”

Boom!

The sound came out and the entire venue exploded in shock.

People’s voices boiled.

The shouts were ear-splitting.

Because the bids were all from the same box.

This was a bid from one of our own?

The auctioneer was also confused: “That, hello customer, the same box, in principle, can only be a single bid.”

The words had just fallen.

Inside the box, Chen Dong’s voice came out again.

“Two hundred million!”

Boom!

Everyone once again exclaimed in shock, their faces changing drastically.

At this moment, even the people in the other boxes on the first floor were not calm, even if they knew that they could not see anyone, they all got up and looked this way.

“Insane, simply insane!”

“Two people in the same box are bidding for $50 million at a time, how can you be so rich?”

“A reserve price of 50 million, two bids and it’s up to 200 million, my god, this news is so explosive!”

.....

The auction hall was filled with exclams.

The atmosphere was instantly pushed to a full-blown firestorm.

Inside the box, however, it was as cold as an ice cellar.

Zhang Yulan’s shell teeth clenched her red lips as her beautiful eyes glared at Chen Dong with resentment.

Bastard!

What a bastard!

This stinking bodyguard, did he think this was a game?

“You opened your mouth and shouted for 200 million, where on earth did you get the courage to do that as a bodyguard?” Zhang Yulan coldly scolded and asked.

“You don’t need to care, this Tear of the Blue Sea belongs to my fiancée anyway.”

Chen Dong indifferently swept a glance at Zhang Yulan.

“I well, if you want to fight, then I will see what kind of divinity you really are!”

Zhang Yulan is not stupid, although the person in front of him seems to be “Chen Dong’s” bodyguard, but “Chen Dong” said “his own brother”, obviously the two of them have a very shallow relationship.

However, she was not in the habit of swallowing her anger when the matter had come to this stage.

She finished.

Zhang Yulan picked up the microphone again.

In the face of the roar of excitement within the venue, her red lips opened lightly and she was about to raise her bid.

Suddenly, Qin Ye raised his hand and wrapped his arm around her waist.

“Baby, let me remind you, be calm!”

Zhang Yulan froze for a moment.

She didn't wait for her to regain her senses.

Qin Ye smiled awkwardly and said to Chen Dong, “Chen Dong, are you really not going to tell her? It's your own money that you'll lose if you keep making a scene like this.”

Boom!

Zhang Yulan's delicate body shook as if she had been struck by lightning.

Her beautiful eyes were round and shocked as she looked at Chen Dong who was sitting indifferently, her brain buzzing.

Winner Takes All Chapter 199-200

Chapter 199

Zhang Yulan was dumbfounded, her brain buzzing as her beautiful eyes stared round at Chen Dong.

She felt that the sky was spinning.

The man in front of her was Chen Dong, so whose arms was she snuggling in just now?

Chen Dong cast a sidelong glance at Qin Ye, somewhat helpless.

The auctioneer at the bottom had already shouted.

When the “third” time came out, the auctioneer said.

Dang!

The auction hammer fell.

The hammer was set and no one else followed.

In the auction hall, as the 200 million dollar bid fell, deafening shouts rang out.

Both the people on the ground floor and those in the boxes on the first floor turned their attention to the box in the middle.

Everyone was curious as to who had made such an astronomical bid!

The Tear of the Blue Sea was indeed rare, otherwise it wouldn't have caused Zhang Yulan to go crazy.

But with the specifications of this city's auction house, whether it was the Tear of the Blue Sea or the $200 million sky-high price, it was enough to blow up the whole place.

Inside the box.

"Let's go."

Chen Dong got up, swept past Zhang Yulan and headed outside.

From the beginning to the end, he did not even glance at Zhang Yulan.

What he wanted had already been obtained, and the Zhang family's purpose was clear.

If it was a serious solicitation, Chen Dong would not mind getting closer to the Zhang family, but coming up with a beauty ploy was not something he could accept.

Zhang Yulan's delicate body trembled as she finally woke up with a start.

Looking at Chen Dong's back, Zhang Yulan's red lips mumbled, "Mr. Chen"

The words reached her mouth, but she did not know what to say.

When she thought of how she had treated Chen Dong just now, she felt a sense of shame that was difficult to even apologize.

"Baby"

Qin Ye was somewhat fond of Zhang Yulan's posture, among all the girls he had ever seen, she was definitely ranked in the top three of stunning beauty.

What's more, Zhang Yulan had a layer of family background that hardened her to rank number one in Qin Ye's heart.

"Get lost!"

Zhang Yulan was furious and scolded at Qin Ye angrily.

Qin Ye was stunned and shrugged, "Actually, I'm not that bad, I'm at least a former member of the Western Shu Qin family, didn't I just kill a dad and then ask for my own expulsion from the family tree."

Boom!

Zhang Yulan was struck by lightning, and her beautiful face turned white.

As the first daughter of the Zhang family, what happened to the Qin family in Xishu back then had caused a storm in the gentry and was known to everyone.

She did not know Qin Ye, but she had also heard of this incident.

When she thought that she had just snuggled into the arms of a man who had killed her father, Zhang Yulan's heart raced and her nausea and fear reached the extreme.

In a fit of rage, Zhang Yulan grabbed the cup and smashed it directly at Qin Ye.

"You get lost!"

"Just get lost, here, this is my contact information."

Qin Ye put down a business card with a face full of indifference, turned around and left.

In the box, Zhang Yulan's pretty face was white and her chest was heaving violently.

The scene just now replayed in her mind as if it was a nightmare.

Shame, hatred, self-blame, panic and other emotions haunted her mind.

She was at a loss for words.

After leaving the box, Chen Dong and Qin Ye did not leave the auction hall directly, but were led by a special person to the backstage of the auction hall to go through various formalities.

The formalities were quickly completed and the jewellery box containing the "Tears of the Blue Sea" was handed to Chen Dong.

"Mr. Chen, congratulations, this is a treasure that my boss has kept for many years, and when he learnt of the arrival of your guest, he specially brought it out for the finale of the auction."

"Who is your boss?" Chen Dong asked curiously.

Since it was brought out because of a valuable guest, it was nine times out of ten because of the Zhang Yulan family.

The Zhang family of Kyoto, in Kyoto where dragons and tigers were hidden, was indeed not strong enough to be at the top.

However, in this city, it was a true dragon descending.

“Zhou Yanqiu.” The staff did not conceal it, there was no need to conceal it from such a big client.

Chen Dong was stunned, looked at the jewellery box in his hand and smiled faintly, “Thank you then.”

After saying that, he left together with Qin Ye.

Also just as the two left, the staff member who was responsible for delivering the Tears of the Blue Sea to Chen Dong gradually furrowed his brows.

He hurriedly walked to an unoccupied corner.

Dialing a phone number.

“Boss, things have taken a turn for the worse, the Tears of the Blue Sea did not fall into Miss Zhang’s hands.”

“Hmm, it was a gentleman named Chen Dong who bought it?”

Over the phone, Zhou Yanqiu’s surprisingly calm voice caused the staff member to frown.

But he still responded, “Yes, it’s called Chen Dong.”

“Very well, the flower has fallen to its rightful owner.”

Pop!

The phone hung up.

The staff member was dumbfounded.

Tears of the Blue Sea, it wasn’t the boss trying to please Miss Zhang?

Rather, the boss had taken it out especially for Chen Dong?

Before, was the auction house guessing wrong?

At the same time.

Zhang Yulan walked out of the auction house, his eyes hollow as he walked towards a BMW x7.

As soon as he got into the car, a hoarse voice rang out.

“Yu Lan, how was it?”

Zhang Yulan’s torso trembled, and her empty eyes quickly focused, then flushed red with tears.

A strong sense of aggression swept over her.

She flung herself directly into the old man’s arms and sobbed, “Grandpa, I’m sorry, I, I recognized the wrong person.”

Boom!

The old man’s body shook and his face changed drastically.

He had brought Zhang Yulan here from Kyoto and prepared all this in order to gain proximity to Chen Dong, using it in the hope of getting on the Chen family’s line.

After all, the Chen family was above the rest, high up in the clouds overlooking all life.

Even the Zhang family is a member of the masses.

It is difficult to make friends with the Chen family.

Not to mention the Chen family heirs, even the elite generation would find it difficult to make friends.

This also proved how important and scarce Chen Dong, the “wild” heir apparent, was.

“I... Didn’t I tell you not to mistake anyone?” The old man’s voice trembled a little.

He was clear about the special status of Chen Dong’s successor, but he was still willing to gamble for the sake of the Zhang family’s future, which was why he had rushed here without stopping.

But now, after preparing so much, and even being ready to give his own granddaughter to Chen Dong, he actually recognized the wrong person!

“Grandpa, you did see it, those two people just now, who looks more like Chen Dong, you can tell with one glance.”

Zhang Yulan cried out in aggravation, "At least Chen Dong is the heir of the Chen family, who would have thought that on such an occasion, he would show his restrained attitude?"

The old man's body shook and his face turned red as he clenched his teeth.

Looking at the teary-eyed Zhang Yulan, the old man sighed helplessly, "It's just that, it's not your fault, even grandpa has just admitted his mistake, this matter can only be discussed in the long run."

"Grandpa, I really could have done something for the Zhang family, I'm really not to blame this time." Zhang Yulan cried out in aggravation, her delicate body trembling.

The old man was heartbroken for a while, patting his back to soothe him while frowning and asking, "Who is that cynical man? Since he can walk with Chen Dong, he should not be an ordinary person, right?"

At those words.

Zhang Yulan looked abruptly frightened, "It's the father-slayer of the Qin family in Xishu."

Boom!

The old man thundered in a clear sky and was dumbfounded, "How could a brute who killed his father walk with Chen Dong?"

.....

On the other side.

After Zhou Yanqiu hung up the phone, a smug smile appeared on his face.

"Such a precious treasure is handed over to you, you should be able to appreciate this kindness of mine, right?"

Chapter 200

As a local snake, Zhou Yanqiu was the first to learn of the Zhang family's arrival.

The sudden arrival of the Zhang family in Kyoto in this corner of the world made him suspicious, but at the same time, he quickly investigated clearly.

The Zhang family had come for Chen Dong.

So when the Zhang family decided to meet Chen Dong at the auction house, he knew that the opportunity had come.

He knew that when the Zhang family decided to meet Chen Dong at the auction house, he knew that the opportunity had come.

The arrival of the Zhang family is an opportunity for him to show his goodwill to Chen Dong.

This is why Zhou Yanqiu generously brought out the "Tears of the Blue Sea".

It seemed to be for Zhang Yulan, but in fact it was for Chen Dong.

Such a piece of jewellery was a work of art, and Zhou Yanqiu was sure that Chen Dong would auction it off for Gu Qingying.

After all, a show of love and a proposal of marriage were both earth-shattering.

It was enough to prove that Chen Dong was unstinting towards Gu Qingying.

"A good hand has been played to shreds, and now I can only make up for my relationship with Chen Dong a little."

Zhou Yanqiu was filled with despondency and shook his head helplessly, "It's just the Zhang family, they should be able to make some friends as well."

.....

On the way home, Qin Ye drove the Koenigsegg as fast as he could.

Chen Dong helplessly glanced at Qin Ye: "You poked yourself, you can't blame me for this."

Zhang Yulan was indeed stunning, and it was normal for Qin Ye to have thoughts.

What's more, just now, the two of them were in love with each other, as if it was a matter of time.

It was just that the fire Qin Ye was holding in his heart right now, Chen Dong had some egg on his face.

"Blame me?"

Qin Ye gave Chen Dong a sidelong glance, "If I didn't call a halt, maybe this Tear of the Blue Sea would have been bid up to some sky-high price."

Chen Dong shrugged, "Then you don't have to be so impatient now."

"The best of the best, brother! It's so hard to have one foot in my arms wooing and the next making me roll." Qin Ye said.

Chen Dong deflated and paid no further attention.

The Koenigsegg roared all the way into the Tianmen Mountain villa area, and after getting out of the car, Qin Ye drove towards the outside of the Tianmen Mountain villa area with a tail drift.

Chen Dong was puzzled for a moment, and ignored it, and entered the villa.

"Young Master, back, how did things go?"

Elder Long took the lead and asked.

"The Zhang family in Kyoto is trying to pull me in, it's just that the tactics are a bit unacceptable to me." Chen Dong shook the jewellery box in his hand, "Instead, I bought a piece of jewellery for Little Shadow."

"What tactics?" Elder Long asked.

Chen Dong did not hide anything and recounted what had happened.

After hearing this, Elder Long Kunlun was all confused.

"Qin Ye ran out again all the way in a blaze of glory, and now he should be looking for Zhang Yulan." Chen Dong added.

Long Lao chuckled, "That brat touched a nose, he won't immediately go to be a licking dog again, he might go somewhere to exchange techniques."

Chen Dong looked at Elder Long strangely.

The image was falling apart more and more.

Sensing the looks from Chen Dong and Kun Lun, Elder Long smiled awkwardly and looked solemn.

"But it makes sense that that boy Qin Ye is fond of Zhang Yulan, Zhang Yulan's beauty is notorious in the entertainment capital circle, and countless capital giants in the entertainment world are eager to have a kiss."

"Then you have to have that strength too, the Zhang family's oligarch status is no joke." Chen Dong replied, then went upstairs and entered his room.

Taking out the “Tears of the Blue Sea” again, Chen Dong took a closer look at it.

Even though the light in the room was not as bright as that in the auction hall.

But the “Blue Sea Tears” still reflected an intimidating blue light, like a dream.

It had to be said that the item that Zhou Yanqiu had deliberately brought out to show her favour was indeed of extraordinary value.

Putting the “Tears of the Blue Sea” back into the jewellery box, Chen Dong smiled lightly, “This small gesture of goodwill is not enough to bring you back to the past.”

If it wasn't for the fact that the sword was at his throat, Chen Dong would have let Zhou Yanqiu off the hook because of the kindness he had given him in the past.

The fact that Zhou Yanqiu's backbone is broken is also for the sake of future insurance.

He has everything in the city, and Zhou Yanqiu is a local snake, so where can he sleep?

If he wanted to sleep, he would have to sleep at his feet!

Taking out his mobile phone, Chen Dong sent a WeChat to Gu Qingying.

“The gift has been bought.”

Gu Qingying's WeChat returned in almost seconds.

“Really, show it to me quickly!”

Chen Dong smiled spontaneously, “Little fool, this gift won't be a surprise if I show it to you this moment.”

“Che whether I can be surprised or not is still up for debate (arrogant).”

“Then wait, rest early.”

After replying to WeChat, Chen Dong glanced at the “Tears of the Blue Sea” jewellery box and smiled confidently.

The family of Gu Qingying is very deep, it is true that ordinary jewellery and jewellery cannot surprise her, but what about the one worth 200 million?

.....

The next two days were uneventful.

The first thing that surprised Chen Dong slightly was that the Zhang family had no more backhanders.

This was obviously somewhat out of the ordinary.

Having come all the way here from thousands of miles, the purpose was to pull him in.

To give up completely after only the first failure?

You're kidding.

The truth was also just as Chen Dong had guessed.

The Zhang family had not given up and had remained in the city.

It was only because of the misadventure that Zhang Yulan had not been able to let go of his feelings in the past two days.

That was why the plan was put on hold.

Even the old man of the Zhang family was at a loss.

The perfect situation of being one step ahead of the others was now at an impasse.

One step ahead of the others, but now they are lagging behind instead.

At least the first impression in Chen Dong's mind has changed for the worse.

It would be difficult to redeem the situation later.

Early this morning.

Inside the Taishan Hotel.

Zhang Yulan was still sleeping when she was woken up by a phone call.

It was Grandpa calling.

"Yu Lan, tonight at the latest, you must meet Chen Dong immediately, someone from Kyoto is rushing over."

A single sentence instantly made Zhang Yulan wake up.

"Who?"

"The Chu family!"

Zhang Yulan's willow brows furrowed, "Is it that slutty hoof of the Chu family?"

"Yes! You know that girl's hand well, if we can't take care of Chen Dong before she does, think about it, what chance does our Zhang family have?"

Grandpa's words caused Zhang Yulan's face to turn white.

The slutty hoof she was talking about was none other than her arch rival.

Ever since she was young, she had always been, no matter in terms of looks or ability.

Apart from her looks, she was really ashamed of herself.

A look of determination flashed across her beautiful eyes.

Zhang Yulan said in a deep voice: "Grandpa, don't worry, it will definitely work out tonight! Chen Dong, it has to be mine, there is no way I will let that slut have her way!"

"Then Grandpa will invite Chen Dong immediately."

Meanwhile.

Inside Din Tai's office.

Chen Dong, however, looked at the post on the table with some playfulness.

"I made some trouble with the Li family, is it such a big stir?"

The post was delivered by Lone Wolf, and after handing it over to Chen Dong, Lone Wolf did not leave.

"Young master, the Li family is the richest in Kyoto, so when young master makes a scene, the stirring cannot be small." Although Lone Wolf did not follow Chen Dong to Kyoto, he knew something about it.

Chen Dong smiled helplessly.

Picking up the post, he unwrapped it and took a look.

He then froze.
