

Winner Takes All Chapter 411-420

Chapter 411

A teasing laugh echoed through the living room.

Ye Yuanqiu's face was as normal.

However, Ye Linglong's face turned red and she was speechless.

She, indeed, had never seen anyone who dared to be so cross with her grandfather!

Even those family heads across the ocean who boasted of their centuries-old families were respectful towards grandpa!

Now that she had returned to her homeland, she was described as a street boss by a young man from this corner of the world?

"Linglong, stand down!"

Ye Yuanqiu spoke up to break the dead silence in the living room, "What Mr. Chen said is reasonable."

Ye Linglong glanced at her grandfather incredulously.

Grandpa was amiably over the top today, right?

This was all still reasonable?

However, facing Ye Yuanqiu's gaze, Ye Linglong did not dare to argue any further and simply turned around and walked out of the living room.

In the living room, only Chen Dong and Ye Yuanqiu were left.

Chen Dong said, "Old Mr. Ye had better be straightforward, if we continue to drag on like this, I don't have the patience to wait, I still have to go home to have dinner with my wife."

"Fine, fine, in that case, old man, I will not beat around the bush anymore."

Ye Yuanqiu nodded and said with a smile, "Actually, this time, I am here because I want to invite Mr. Chen, to join the Hong Society."

Join the Hong Society?

Chen Dong sat waxed on the spot.

What was the situation here?

If it wasn't for this sniping of Qin Ye, he wouldn't even know what the Hong Society was.

With no dealings with the Hong Society, the ancestor-level big brother of the Hong Society personally descended and invited himself to join the Society.

Was this a joke?

Ye Yuanqiu saw Chen Dong dumbfounded, as if he had expected it, and with a laugh, he continued.

“Old man knows that Mr. Chen has doubts in his mind, he is wondering why the Hong Society would invite Mr. Chen to join when he has never had any dealings with it?”

Chen Dong returned to his senses and nodded his head.

“It is not appropriate for me to say much about the hidden secrets, but this is the intention of the leader of the Hong Society.”

Ye Yuanqiu smiled gently, his eyebrows were amiable and kind, approachable.

However, Chen Dong had known just a few words about the bottom of the Hong Society from the mouth of Elder Long.

If he really took the old man in front of him as approachable, he would be a real fool.

“As long as Mr. Chen nods, the Hong Society will naturally not treat Mr. Chen with neglect, old man knows Mr. Chen's identity and background, and as the son of the Chen family head's own son, it would be blasphemous to enter the Hong Society and fall short of his seniority.”

Ye Yuanqiu spoke eloquently, and when he said this, he paused for a moment before sinking his voice and saying, “Therefore, I have discussed with the Dragon Head that if Mr. Chen agrees to join the Hong Society, Mr. Chen's seniority will be raised to the ‘Yuan’ generation as an exception, the same generation as the old man, and a generation higher than the Dragon Head. ”

Boom!

Chen Dong was struck by lightning, his eyes full of shock.

The Yuan generation!

From what Ye Linglong had just said, this was an extremely revered generation in the Hong Society!

It was a higher rank than the leader of the Hong Society and equal to Ye Yuanqiu's. This was truly a rank beneath one person and above all others!

Even with Chen Dong's state of mind, his heart was still in turmoil.

Ye Yuanqiu could see this scene with great clarity and certainty in his heart.

Such a huge benefit, not to mention a junior member of the Chen family.

Even in the whole world, no one could resist it.

As an ancestral elder of the Hong Society, he knew how terrifying his generation really was.

Generations of Hong Society leaders have changed, but he has been sitting on a pedestal from the beginning to the end, accepting offerings from successive generations of leaders.

A "Yuan" generation, in the Hong Society, even if it is an order from the leader, if he does not want to, he can refute it at will!

Ye Yuanqiu followed up by saying, "If Mr. Chen joins, then he will be the youngest ancestor in the Hong Society's history!"

However.

"What about the price?" Chen Dong suddenly raised his eyebrows and asked.

Ye Yuanqiu froze instantly, unable to conceal the shock deep within his eyes.

What kind of heart should one have to calm down so quickly?

At this moment, he and Chen Dong had just exchanged the shock and calmness they had just felt.

On Chen Dong's face, there was no longer the shocked and appalled look from earlier, there was only an indescribable calmness, and that pair of deep eyes was also unperturbed.

"What's the price?" Ye Yuanqiu was a little terrified.

"Giving me such a high distinction, putting me above all others under one person, has to come at a price, right?"

Chen Dong shrugged his shoulders and leaned back on the sofa, "My mother taught me since I was a child that there is no free lunch in the world, how much you pay, how much you get, Yuan Zi Generation Ancestors, you Hong would want me to pay a price that is as high as the sky in terror, right?”

Giving a status of Yuan Zi generation was undoubtedly inviting an old ancestor directly into the Hong Society.

Such great treatment, if there was no price to pay, Chen Dong definitely did not believe that the Hong Society could stretch for more than two hundred years.

Ye Yuanqiu’s eyes changed completely when he looked at Chen Dong.

There was shock, surprise and appreciation no longer as amiable and gentle as before.

This scene, if seen by Ye Linglong who had left, would have definitely caused Ye Linglong to cry out in shock.

In the Hong Society, Ye Yuanqiu has not had such a look in his eyes for many years!

And Chen Dong also noticed the change in Ye Yuanqiu’s eyes, and his heart was slightly certain.

The previous Ye Yuanqiu had always given him a sense of uncertainty that he could not see through with a mask on.

And now, he saw a glimpse of it!

Half a day.

Ye Yuanqiu finally returned to his normal self and smiled faintly, “There is no price!”

“You think I’m stupid?” Chen Dong snorted, “If your Hong Society was really that stupid, how could it have prospered and flourished for over two hundred years.”

After saying that.

Chen Dong got up and headed out, “Sorry, it’s almost time, I have to go home to have dinner with my wife.”

“Wait a minute, Mr. Chen!”

Ye Yuanqiu was startled for a moment and hurriedly got up, calling out to Chen Dong.

“If Mr. Chen leaves like this, you will definitely regret it!”

“Regret what?” Chen Dong did not even turn his head back and opened his voice indifferently.

Ye Yuanqiu smiled faintly, “There is no price for joining the Hong Society and being under one person, but if you don’t join, then there will be a price.”

“Over at the finance company?”

With a cold face, Chen Dong turned to look directly at Ye Yuanqiu, his eyes at this moment sharp as if he was a hawk.

The only one he had intercourse with Hong Hui was the financial company on Qin Ye’s side.

The so-called cost is not difficult to guess at all!

Ye Yuanqiu did not deny a smile and sighed: “The old man has wasted his time, fortunately the gods have favored him and he has survived for more than a hundred years, thank you Mr. Chen for giving the old man a glimpse of light at this dying moment.”

“But please also believe in the strength of our Hong Society, if you really want to snipe, ten billion handicap, my Hong Society can still easily swallow it in one bite.”

It was both a compliment and a threat.

One was soft and one was strong.

But it was a point that caused Chen Dong to hesitate and hesitate.

He did not doubt that the Hong Society could swallow Qin Ye’s ten billion dollar bottom card or not.

If before, five powers had sniped at Qin Ye at the same time, he still believed that Qin Ye should be able to save the day.

But now that Ye Yuanqiu had said it all to this place, if the Hong Society were to give their all to snipe Qin Ye, then it would really be the sky falling.

This was the difference between point killing and self-help!

And Ye Yuanqiu’s words were like putting Qin Ye on the “point kill” table.

If he agreed to join the Hong Society, everything would be safe, and even Qin Ye’s crisis could be solved.

But if he didn't, the Hong Society's butcher's knife would immediately fall on Qin Ye's neck.

"Mr. Chen, on the one hand, you are under one person, and on the other hand, you are seeking life with a broken arm, with your heart and wisdom, it should not be difficult to choose, right?"

Ye Yuanqiu looked at Chen Dong with a smirk, but his bright gaze was gradually blazing as he spoke.

It made Chen Dong feel a sense of panic like a mane on his back.

Chapter 412

The living room was depressing to the extreme.

Chen Dong and Ye Yuanqiu stared at each other.

Ye Yuanqiu's stern, knife-like eyes oppressed Chen Dong, as if he might be lynched on the spot by countless lineless sharp knives at any moment.

This was the aura that a true Hong Society Yuanzi Ancestor should have!

The so-called overwhelming aura, in front of Ye Yuanqiu's aura, all seem like child's play.

The aura emanating from Ye Yuanqiu's body is the kind of aura that is not angry and powerful, even if he is smiling, he can make people feel the sense of despair as the great mountain moves across and overturns and presses down.

A long time later.

Chen Dong smiled helplessly, "You have won."

"Good! Those who know the time are handsome, so I will prepare the initiation ceremony."

The aura on Ye Yuanqiu's body disappeared, and his eyes softened as he revealed a smile.

With Ye Yuanqiu and Ye Linglong making the arrangements, the ceremony soon began.

Chen Dong knelt in front of the incense case, while Ye Yuanqiu stood aside, after some lengthy wording.

Chen Dong burned yellow paper and drank yellow wine.

Only then did he receive the Hong Society token in Ye Yuanqiu's hand.

The token was not much different from Ye Linglong's.

The token was made of sandalwood and engraved with the word "Hong", while on the other side, it was engraved with the word "Yuan".

"Mr. Chen, this is the Hong Society's identity token. Those who hold this token can command all 3,600 sects of the Hong Society in the world, and even the Dragon Head has to bow down to you."

When Ye Yuanqiu said this, he unconsciously straightened his back, just like carrying a high and arrogant air.

The moment she saw the word "Yuan" on the token, Ye Linglong's face turned pale and she fell into a daze of disbelief.

The token with the word "Yuan" on it meant that she was of the same generation as her grandfather!

The only person with such a ranking in the Hong Society today is grandfather!

Now would invite an old ancestor in?

As one of the Hong Society's Red Sticks, Ye Linglong knew how important seniority was in the Hong Society!

Because she knew, she was horrified!

Chen Dong played with the token for a while, and after making sure to Ye Yuanqiu that there was nothing else, he left straight away.

Ye Yuanqiu personally walked Chen Dong to the door and handed him the keys to Ye Linglong's car, instructing him to simply park the car underneath the company tomorrow and that Ye Linglong herself would go and pick it up.

Looking at the blue BMW i8 that had gone away, Ye Yuanqiu's eyes were deep, with a vague glint of light, and the smile at the corner of his mouth was even stronger than before.

Even though there was no longer a car in sight.

Ye Yuanqiu also stopped in front of the door and did not turn around.

"Grandpa!"

Ye Linglong's voice finally made Ye Yuanqiu turn around.

"What's wrong?" Ye Yuanqiu asked with a smile.

"Really is the Yuan character generation?" Ye Linglong had a sense of unreality that was like a dream.

Even after witnessing everything just now, she was still in a trance.

"I know your doubts, but he should have the identity of the Yuan Zi generation, this is what I have finalized together with the dragon head, the Hong Society's three thousand six hundred sects, must comply."

Ye Yuanqiu did not explain, but in a deep voice to contain the doubts clumped in Ye Linglong's heart.

"But he, but he is so young, and his achievements are not the best in the world, and he has just joined the Hong Society and given the status of Yuanzi generation, how can these three thousand six hundred sects be convinced?"

Ye Linglong still said reluctantly, "Grandpa has always been impartial and selfless, as your granddaughter, I have not been given the slightest preference in ranking, but still according to the rules of the Hong Society."

"Given?"

Ye Yuanqiu smiled, "That's what he got!"

The difference in meaning between one word and the other was a world of difference!

After saying that, he turned around and eyed Chen Dong in the direction he left.

His eyes were full of appreciation and satisfaction.

He murmured, "Such a young man, with a hundred years of experience, can be called the best in the world!"

Boom!

Ye Linglong's delicate body trembled, as if she had been struck by a big thunderbolt.

Her pupils dilated and her small cherry mouth opened slightly as she looked at Ye Yuanqiu in shock.

This was the first time in her memory that such a comment had come out of her grandfather's mouth!

Not even the generations of leaders she knew of had ever received such a complimentary comment from grandpa!

“Grandfather, he really deserves this comment from you?”

Ye Linglong’s red lips trembled as she let out a voice of disbelief, “But he was so rude to you just now, he is just like a young man, how can he be the number one in the world?”

“What do you call a young man if you’re not angry?”

Ye Yuanqiu flicked the corner of his mouth, his eyes shining, “Those who are young are mad, those who are young and accomplished are mad on top of being mad, if they don’t even have this sharpness, how can they talk about the winner being the king?”

Ye Linglong seemed to understand, thinking of a previous incident, she was busy asking, “Then you clearly told me to test his skills before, why did you blame me instead?”

“Grandpa only told you to test, he didn’t tell you to fight for your life.”

Ye Yuanqiu turned around and gave a reproachful glance, asking in a deep voice, “You are the one who is young and vigorous, but you are the one who is young and vigorous. Now that you are asking this question, I would like to ask you, in a real fight for your life, what are your chances of winning against him?”

Ye Linglong frowned and pondered.

After a few seconds, she smiled grimly, “Great, about one point.”

“One point? You’re going all the way up, right?” Ye Yuanqiu smiled faintly, “He is more than you, blank for more than twenty years, but has such an achievement, you still say he is not the first in the world?”

Ye Linglong sunk bottom silent.

Leaving aside other things, the body alone, twenty years of blank period, after a short hammering, can win her this Hong Hui red stick.

This kind of talent was a terror close to God!

“Linglong, you remember, there is a kind of person, not to sound, but to sound astonishing, you may think he is bumbling and mediocre, but when he rises one day on the wind, rocking straight up ninety thousand miles, the so-called talented genius, is to describe this kind of person, enough to erase the accumulation of time.”

Ye Yuanqiu's voice was low, and after a few seconds of pause, he suddenly guffawed.

He turned around and looked at Ye Linglong with a strange smile.

"However, grandpa has brought you up so much, and although you are extremely displeased with Chen Dong for cursing under your breath, this is the first time grandpa has seen you ruffle someone."

"Ah?!"

Ye Linglong was horrified, and her stunning face was so scarlet that it seemed to be seeping blood.

She lowered her head in shame and snapped, "It's not because you told me to try him, grandpa!"

"Old man didn't ask you to tease him."

"Ah ah, why are you shameless, grandpa?" Ye Linglong squealed.

On the other side.

Chen Dong drove his BMW i8 back to Tianmen Mountain.

Inside the car, there was still a ghostly fragrance left, which was Ye Linglong's fragrance.

However, Chen Dong was mindless.

He was not a pig, nor was he a lecherous man, not so much as to be turned upside down by a wisp of fragrance.

Besides, his first feeling for Ye Linglong was only disgust.

Playing with the Hong Society token in his hand.

Chen Dong's brows were locked, his eyes filled with deep doubts.

Looking ahead at the deep, dark road, he murmured softly.

"Join the Hong Society, one person is under all the others, don't join the Hong Society Qin Ye is defeated like a mountain, is there really such a good thing in the world?"

"Hong Society really idle, lack of ancestral offerings?"

Casually throwing the token onto the passenger seat, Chen Dong smiled to himself, "Which is such a good thing, just what is the purpose of the Hong Society to let me join, in the end?"

Winner Takes All Chapter 413-414

Chapter 413

There is no free lunch in the world.

The Hong Society has flourished for more than 200 years, much less is it likely that people are as stupid as they can be, idly inviting old ancestors into their doors to make offerings.

The price, for sure, is there.

It was just a matter of coming early and coming late, and exactly what the price was.

This was something that Chen Dong knew in his heart.

But with the situation just now, he had to make a choice.

Qin Ye was his brother and the man at the helm of his ten billion dollar family fortune.

With five forces joining forces to snipe, Qin Ye would have had no chance of fighting back if the Hong Society had been allowed to give its all.

This was a matter of Qin Ye and the answer he would give to the Chen family in a year's time.

He did not dare to gamble; if he lost the bet, he would lose everything.

Therefore, he could only choose to join in and seek a chance of survival for Qin Ye.

Without the Hong Society's sniping, Qin Ye's chances of reversing and turning the tide would become even greater.

When he returned to the Tianmen Mountain villa, it was already nine o'clock in the evening.

After parking his car, Chen Dong had just walked through the door when he saw Gu Qingying.

"When did you change your car?"

Gu Qingying's agate nose twitched as she smiled and enquired.

"I borrowed someone else's, something happened just now." Chen Dong was distracted by the Hong Society and casually explained, before calling Long Lao to go up to the rooftop.

Gu Qingying stopped in place with a complicated expression and murmured in a low voice, "A woman's scent is a very delicate natural scent."

While murmuring, she slowly lifted her gaze and looked deeply at the BMW i8 in the garage.

A woman's sensitivity allowed her to distinguish it instantly.

With her family background, she was even more aware of what the lingering fragrance on Chen Dong's body represented.

It was simply impossible for an ordinary perfume to have that kind of fragrance.

Not even a top quality perfume could.

The only thing that could be distinguished was the natural fragrance that had been carefully blended into the

The rooftop.

Snap!

Chen Dong threw the Hong Society token onto the table.

As soon as Elder Long saw the token, his old face instantly revealed a look of shock.

"Young master, this is the Hong Society token! You, how did you get it?"

Chen Dong sat down helplessly in his chair, "They gave it to me."

"The Hong Society gave you a token?" Elder Long was filled with dismay.

Chen Dong nudged his mouth, "Turn over the other side and take a look."

Elder Long took a deep breath, forcibly suppressing the shock in his heart as he slowly picked up the token and flipped it over to take a look.

Boom!

The iron-painted word "Yuan" instantly struck him like a heavy hammer on his eyeballs.

In an instant, Elder Long's expression fluttered and he was frozen on the spot.

“Yuan, the word Yuan token represents the Hong Society’s Yuan generation.”

Long Lao’s entire body was in a state of shock, his lips trembling as he said, “Impossible, the Hong Society would never give this Yuan Zi generation token to the young master, they have a whole system for naming new people, and it’s not voluntary, people simply wouldn’t give it away, much less this Yuan Zi generation.”

“The first twenty-four characters of the Hong Society, the last twenty-four characters, a total of forty-eight characters, with their strict rules, as time goes on, only the generations will go backwards, and occasionally exceptions are made to promote a generation, but that is only for those who have done great service to the Hong Society.”

“Of the Yuanzi generation, there is only one person in the Hong Society today, and that is a true Ancestor-level figure to whom even the leader of the Hong Society must bow.”

A series of murmurs showed the uproar in Elder Long’s mind at this moment.

Chen Dong laughed to himself and shrugged, “Then you are lucky, Elder Long, to have now met the second Ancestor of the Hong Society’s Yuanzi generation.”

A “boom” sounded in Elder Long’s mind.

At this moment, he even felt his eardrums being shaken to the point of tingling.

With rounded eyes, as if he had seen a ghost, he looked at Chen Dong in horror.

“Young, young master has not only entered the Hong Society, he has also been ranked by them as a Yuanzi generation?”

Chen Dong nodded, “Isn’t it just like a dream?”

From Ye Yuanqiu and Ye Linglong’s mouth, he already knew how heavy the generation of the Yuanzi generation really was.

Below one, above ten thousand.

One person, and that was just Ye Yuanqiu, the equal generation, was nothing more than the difference in seniority.

And above ten thousand people, that is the Hong Society’s three thousand six hundred sects, all under, even the dragon head is also among them.

Long Lao did not hide his horror, no, he could not hide it at all.

“What the hell is going on? Are those people from the Hong Society crazy?”

“The token of the Yuan Dynasty, the Hong Society will never give it, the Dragon Head will not agree to it, nor will that old immortal of the Yuan Dynasty, nor will the people of the three thousand six hundred sects.”

At this point, what was left of Elder Long’s sanity was just holding back from screaming out and jumping up in place.

“But they just gave it, just now.”

Chen Dong was full of doubt and helplessness, “Moreover, the one who gave me this token is the same old immortal of the Yuan Zi generation that you have been talking about, Elder Long, Ye Yuanqiu.”

Elder Long was confused.

Completely and utterly dumbfounded.

Chen Dong had already expected Elder Long’s reaction.

In fact, this matter, but if it was said to anyone who knew about the Hong Society, the reaction would probably be the same as Long Lao’s current situation.

He continued, “Moreover, do you dare believe that I was let in without letting me pay any price, and that I was worshipped as an old ancestor.”

“Impossible! There must be a demon when things go wrong, this kind of treatment is unparalleled in the world, Hong will act in such a manner, there must be a calculation.”

Elder Long casually threw the token onto the table, “Young master, this is a price we cannot afford, this Hong Society cannot be entered, and the token cannot be taken.”

“I think so too.”

Chen Dong smiled bitterly, “But they are using Qin Ye as a threat, if we don’t enter and receive the token, the Hong Society will give its best to snipe Qin Ye, this immediate price, I can’t afford it either, so I can only put this price, into the future.”

Elder Long’s body shook and he staggered back a step in shock.

Chen Dong’s words gave him a sense of uncertainty that his body had been emptied.

His body went limp and he sat down on the chair.

Under the dim yellow light.

Chen Dong could clearly see that Elder Long’s eyes were red.

The colour of horror gradually transformed into monstrous anger.

Instead of being surprised, he felt that this was normal.

Not to mention Elder Long, even he was holding a ghostly fire in his stomach right now.

Being comprehensively suppressed and forced to join the club, and whether it was the price of Qin Ye being sniped in front of him, or the price that might come later, he could not afford it.

This sense of stifled anger turned into a rage that could burn the sky.

For a long time.

Elder Long suddenly smiled.

Only the smile was full of bitterness, and his reddened eyes were fogged up and turned hazy.

Chen Dong was afraid that Elder Long would not be able to bear it, so he got up and said comfortingly.

“Elder Long, relax a little, perhaps it won’t be as bad as we think? At least Qin Ye’s crisis can be temporarily alleviated, and I can now rely on this token to command the 3,600 sects of the Hong Society as an Ancestral Elder, and be above all people under one person.”

“Old slave understands, old slave understands.”

Long Lao was flooded with tears and shook his head with a bitter smile, “It is my sin to blame Old Slave for his poor assistance, which has led Young Master into such a situation.”

After saying this, Elder Long got up and walked towards the stairs.

His figure was not as straight as before, but slightly stooped, showing the tiredness of an old man.

Chen Dong smiled helplessly.

He looked at the stars and moon in the night sky.

His eyes were filled with resignation.

Murmuring to himself, “Pretend it’s a good thing, right, at least for now it’s good for Qin Ye. I wonder what will happen on Qin Ye’s side when the market opens tomorrow?”

Chapter 414

This night, Chen Dong did not sleep at all.

On the one hand, he was worried about Hong Hui and Qin Ye, and on the other

It was his wife who did not burrow into his arms and let hug him to sleep.

After getting married, Chen Dong had long since gotten used to sleeping with Gu Qingying in his arms.

This was the first time Gu Qingying's back was turned to him.

"Could it be that Xiaoying has misunderstood something?"

Chen Dong frowned in confusion.

When dawn came, Gu Qingying got up early in the morning, just like any other day.

Chen Dong could not help but dispel the doubts in his mind.

After having breakfast, Chen Dong drove his car to the Dingtai Company early.

Today, it was up to Hong Hui to show how he would behave!

Without the pressure of the Hong Society, which was a huge monster, I believed that Qin Ye would also be able to cope better.

However, this was beyond Chen Dong's control. After a few moments, Chen Dong suppressed his anxiety and focused on his work.

In a flash, it was half past nine in the morning.

Chen Dong was reviewing the documents when Qin Ye's phone call came.

"Brother Dong, great joy!"

The first time he picked up the phone, Qin Ye howled in excitement over the phone.

It seemed that Ye Yuanqiu had kept his promise.

Chen Dong smiled gratefully, "How is the situation now?"

"Hahahaha This great joy, even I didn't expect it myself."

Qin Ye's voice couldn't contain his excitement, this out of control performance was hard to come by on him, "As soon as the market opened just now, the Hong Society suddenly turned their guns, not only did they no longer join forces with the remaining five to snipe, they were even lifting us!"

"Helped?"

Chen Dong was a little surprised, Ye Yuanqiu had only said that he would let Qin Ye off the hook once he joined the Hong Society.

Now not only did he let a horse go, but he even turned his gun around to help Qin Ye, this is really an unexpected pleasure!

"Brother Dong, this time we're stable, with the help of the Hong Society, plus our own operation, this time at least I'm 30% sure of flipping the tables."

Hearing Qin Ye's excited and ecstatic voice, Chen Dong couldn't help but reveal a pleased and relaxed smile as well.

Thirty percent chance!

That's really big!

Compared to the previous "death without life", it was already extremely good.

In the past few days, he had also felt extremely depressed because of the sniping of Qin Ye.

In the face of the enormous power of the five powers, even though Qin Ye was still at a standstill, Chen Dong knew clearly that he was already halfway to the ghost gate.

And the tens of billions of dollars in assets under Qin Ye's control was one of the important parts of the answer sheet he would hand over to the Chen family in a year's time!

Once there was a deficit, it meant that the answer sheet he handed in a year later would definitely be crippled.

Tens of billions of assets were easy to say, but it was not easy to manipulate them and make them a "test result"!

"Wait!"

Suddenly, Qin Ye on the phone exclaimed, "Something's wrong!"

Chen Dong's brow furrowed, and the heart he had just put down instantly lifted up again.

Over the phone, a series of sounds of tapping on the keyboard rang out.

"Something's not right, how is this possible?"

"Is this a surprise or a shock?"

"Such a small company, he can still become a demon?"

Listening to Qin Ye's series of shocked cries over the phone.

Chen Dong quickly captured a very crucial piece of information – a small company.

Of the five capital forces, the only one that could be counted as a small company was the King's Landing Group!

"Qin Ye, what happened to the Jun Lin Group?" Chen Dong was busy asking after him, while also trying to calm Qin Ye down.

Financial manipulation like this, one second of heaven and one second of hell, the more critical the situation, the more chaotic it must be.

On the phone, after a few seconds of silence.

Qin Ye suddenly said incredulously, "Brother Dong, the King's Landing Group is also lifting us up, how dare you believe this?"

With a single word, it caused Chen Dong's eyes to instantly bulge with blue veins at the corners.

Hong would help, that was because he had joined the Hong Society and agreed to Ye Yuanqiu's terms.

This Jun Lin Group, what was the situation?

"It's really become a demon!"

Chen Dong murmured, his voice low and powerful: "If he helps you, then let him help, this is something you go control now, I have to investigate this Jun Lin Group now."

A small, unknown company in the north of the desert in the west had temporarily joined the sniping in this "fight of the gods", which was already bizarre.

But now they are helping Qin Ye?

It's impossible to see the wind and the rudder!

From the beginning to the end, the operation of the King's Landing Group had left a strong suspicion in Chen Dong's heart, and the whole thing was weird.

After hanging up the phone.

Chen Dong redialed Elder Long's number.

"Elder Long, please compile all the information from the last investigation into the Jun Lin Group and send it all to my company."

"Young Master, what has happened?" Elder Long was a little stunned.

Chen Dong narrowed his eyes, "This Jun Lin Group is afraid that there is a demon!"

Hanging up the phone.

Chen Dong leaned back in his chair and rubbed up the bridge of his swollen nose.

The heart that was originally put down was also raised at this moment.

The operation of the King's Landing Group was really incomprehensible, but it could barely be explained by the phrase "seeing the wind and making the rudder".

But the point is, the current wind, even if Hong will help, is still a headwind for Qin Ye.

How could a small company have the audacity to do that?

An hour later.

The information about the Jun Lin Group was then served to Chen Dong's desk by Elder Long as it was.

"Young master, there is nothing to investigate about this Jun Lin Group, we have already checked the bottom of it last time." Seeing Chen Dong's ugly face, Long Lao could not help but say.

"Heh!"

Chen Dong gave a strange laugh, flipping through the information while saying, "This company temporarily joined the sniping, first helping Qin Ye lift a hand, and then converging with the remaining four to snipe the operation, which was already bizarre, and just now, guess what happened?"

"What?" Elder Long asked, he still didn't know what was going on on Qin Ye's side.

“The Hong Society turned their guns and started lifting Qin Ye, less than ten minutes later, the Jun Lin Group also turned their guns and lifted Qin Ye.”

Chen Dong finished flipping through a book of information and looked at Elder Long with a gaze, “Elder Long, with your experience and sleight of hand, at a time like this, if you were the one controlling this Jun Lin Group, would you dare to do so?”

Elder Long’s pupils tightened to the extreme and he was silent.

But the silence was already an answer.

He dared not!

It was an inertia for capital to seek to maximise capital gains while avoiding risks.

Now Qin Ye’s situation, even if Hong would help, it would still be a situation of nine deaths.

And the “reverse operation” of the King’s Landing Group is not at all a profiteering while avoiding risks, it is more like survival from death!

This is very different from proper capital.

The gods fight, mortals suffer.

The King’s Landing Group, a mortal, has not only joined the battlefield where the gods are fighting, but is now helping the weaker gods to fuck several other powerful gods together!

“Old slave and young master will check together.”

Elder Long returned to his senses, exhaled heavily and flipped through the information together with Chen Dong.

In the office, there was silence.

Regarding the Jun Lin Group, Elder Long had investigated so clearly that the information was stacked in two piles.

What made Chen Dong frown was that every single piece of information showed how mediocre the company was, not the slightest bit special.

Seeing that the information was getting thinner and thinner.

The doubts in Chen Dong’s heart were getting thicker and thicker.

Elder Long's face was also becoming more and more grave.

When Chen Dong picked up the last piece of information and flipped through it.

Suddenly, his gaze froze.

His eyes fixed on a certain extremely simple piece of information between the lines.

Snap!

Chen Dong pressed his palm on the desktop and squeezed out a sentence from between his teeth, "Elder Long, I seem to have found it."

Winner Takes All Chapter 415-416

Chapter 415

Long Lao's obscure eyes burst out with a fierce burst of essence.

He hurriedly went around behind Chen Dong and looked in the direction of Chen Dong's finger.

As for Chen Dong, his eyes also became stern.

The message was brief, and if one did not carefully examine it word by word, sentence by sentence, it would have been difficult to spot.

What's more, the message was extremely ordinary in the first place.

The content was that the Jun Lin Group had once worked with a subsidiary of the Chen family, jointly opening a small mine for a year, and eventually terminated this cooperation due to the scarcity of ore.

"One year, this is just an ordinary piece of cooperation information." Elder Long's brows knitted together.

The implication beyond words was that this piece of information was not important.

Chen Dong smiled evasively and said, "It was indeed an ordinary cooperation message, not even a pleasant cooperation between two happy families, but now that the Jun Lin Group has intervened across the board, don't you think this message has become bizarre, Elder Long?"

Elder Long's face was pensive, still unsure.

"Young master, are you overthinking?"

Chen Dong was not in a hurry and said, "A small company, where would they get the capital to interfere in this matter with Qin Ye? And where would they get the guts to do something that even you, Elder Long, wouldn't dare to do?"

As he said that, he clicked on the piece of information on the file.

"What if we use this cooperation information as the source, a hypothetical situation, and then run through the motives of the Jun Lin Group?"

Elder Long's body shook, and with his experience and reading, he instantly sorted out a line and thought of a possibility under this heavy assumption by Chen Dong.

"Master?!"

Elder Long blurted out.

Chen Dong smiled spontaneously and said with deep eyes, "Perhaps when the dust settles on this matter of Qin Ye, it is time for us to take a trip to Desolate North."

If one assumed the cooperation as a thread, a vein that linked the Jun Lin Group and the Chen Family.

Father was now missing.

With the King's Landing Group alone, Chen Dong did not believe they would dare to do these operations now.

But if his father was added to the mix, with his father's handiwork, the matter would no longer be bizarre.

"Yes, yes, yes, we have to go, we must go!"

The light in Elder Long's eyes grew brighter and brighter, and the look he gave Chen Dong was even more full of astonishment, "This assumption of Young Master does make sense, if it is really Master's handiwork, everything will be taken for granted, even if there is only a one percent chance, we should go on this trip to Desolate North."

"As long as we find the old master, with the old master's shelter, the young master will not have to be constrained in every way, and we will be able to completely get rid of the current situation."

Chen Dong's gaze was deep and the corners of his mouth curled into a smile.

If he found Pa, he might also know what exactly he was afraid of when he kept disappearing.

Meanwhile.

The Chen family.

Inside a small courtyard.

Streams of water gurgled.

Chen Tianyao, Chen Tiansheng and Chen Yufei were gathered together.

“This time, that wild bastard Chen Dong will definitely not be able to turn over a new leaf.”

Chen Tianyang sat on his wheelchair, his face full of smugness, “Why don’t we add more chips to completely make that wild bastard lose everything?”

“Three billion, isn’t that enough?”

Chen Tiansheng raised his eyebrows and said, “Tian Yang, you just know how reckless you are, do you know how many favours it cost us to contact Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment? There’s also the Rothschild side, I’ve used up that only favor this time.”

Money has a price, but favours are priceless.

But between the gentry, favours are also repaid one by one, and anyone can calculate the account clearly.

“Right ah Tian Yang, Brother Tiansheng is right, we want to take down Chen Dong’s financial company, smashed three billion into it, when Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment operate, they still have to inject their own funds, we continue to increase the bet, they should not take it.”

Chen Yu Fei’s pretty face was covered in frost, “Brother Tiansheng also used up the only favor he had with Rothschild, keep raising the bet and they won’t pay attention to us anymore.”

“If it doesn’t work, then it won’t work, anyway, with this kind of operation, even with that father killer of the Qin family sitting for that wild bastard, they definitely won’t be able to top it.”

Chen Tianyang smiled smugly, only his eyes were shadowy and dripping with resentment as his gaze glanced at his feet.

He had been injured for a hundred days, and until now he was still sitting in a wheelchair.

And, for the second time!

“This time is also God’s help, originally there were only three forces sniping at that wild bastard, I didn’t expect that there was also the Hong Society joining in, I guess they also want to share a big piece of the pie, but that Jun Lin Group in the desert north is a bit interesting, the pack of wolves eating meat, they even dare to come in and grab a mouthful of soup.”

Chen Tianyang leaned back in his wheelchair, “That wild bastard Chen Dong is probably so anxious these days, isn’t he? That scumbag Qin Ye is so crushed that he can’t even resist, I didn’t even bother to look at the handicap today.”

“I didn’t look either.”

“Me too.”

Chen Tiansheng and Chen Yufei looked at each other with a smile.

An ending that had already been predetermined, the process would only attract their interest in paying attention during the first two days, but now that the ending had been decided, it had become tedious to watch it again.

“But if we do it, will it cause grandmother and those elders to be unhappy?”

A girl with a delicate mind, Chen Yu Fei gently reminded, “At least he’s also the heir?”

Because of what happened last time, she could now be said to be the most miserable of the three, having lost her base in the entertainment industry, and there was no hope of competing for the position of family head in a year’s time.

If she wasn’t careful, she would even be deprived of what she had now.

“Che, are you scared, Concubine Yu?”

Chen Tianyang shrugged, “Grandma and the others are busy looking for the family head these days, the three of us are doing this so secretly, there’s no way they’ll know about it, even if they did, grandma and the others would probably clap their hands, don’t forget that’s a wild child, if it wasn’t for the family head dying to take shelter, he’d be nothing.”

This time, it was the three of them who were secretly carrying out the matter, and the level of secrecy was such that only the three of them, and the leaders of the three capitalist forces knew about it.

Chen Tiansheng nodded and agreed, "Don't think nonsense, Concubine Yu, this is a competition between our heirs, it's not like it's against the family rules, besides, even that wild bastard can break the family rules, why can't we?"

"My brother is right!"

Chen Tianyang nodded with a smile, followed by a sinister look, gritting his teeth and saying, "Yufei, there is no hope for us to be the head of the family now, my brother has a better chance, let's take down that wild bastard Chen Dong, together we can help my brother take down the other heirs, in the future when my brother becomes the head of the family, you and I will have no meat to eat?"

Chen Yu Fei's eyes shone up.

She nodded in agreement with Chen Tianyang, "Right, anyone in this Chen family can become the head of the family, but only that wild bastard Chen Dong cannot sit on it, bringing down his financial company is breaking his arm, after a year, he will just wait to die."

At those words.

All three of them laughed.

Chen Tiansheng was even more red-faced and sprightly.

His scheming and scheming was outstanding among the elite generation of the Chen family, and he had planned this plan.

As Chen Yu Fei had said, anyone in the Chen family could be the head of the family, even if he was not the one who ended up being the head of the family, there was no way he would let a wild child sit on the head of the family.

However.

A phone call suddenly came to Chen Tiansheng's mobile phone.

Chen Tiansheng had just picked up the phone when his face changed dramatically.

There was no longer the complacency he had just felt, all that was left was an endless gloom.

Chapter 416

"Damn! How could this happen?"

Chen Tiansheng rose in anger, his face gloomy to the core.

The sudden burst of shouting caused Chen Tianyang and Chen Yufei to be horrified.

Both of them looked at Chen Tiansheng in horror, completely unaware of what had happened.

But both of them knew Chen Tiansheng, to have such a big change of emotion, it was obvious that things were big!

“I don’t care what you guys do, I want him dead anyway!”

Snap!

Hanging up the phone, Chen Tiansheng’s eyes clouded to the extreme.

“Brother, what the hell is wrong?”

Chen Tianyang asked warily.

“Look at the handicap!”

Chen Tiansheng walked towards the house with big strides.

Chen Tianyang and Chen Yufei’s faces changed drastically at the same time.

Had something gone wrong with the sniping?

The two hurriedly followed Chen Tiansheng into the house.

Chen Tiansheng quickly opened his computer and took a look at the handicap.

Bang!

He slapped his palm on the table, “Damn, just damn!”

Chen Tiansheng and Chen Yufei also hurriedly got closer to take a look, and the two of them froze on the spot.

“How could this happen? It was fine when the market closed yesterday!”

Chen Tianyang was furious and pointed at the computer screen, “What the hell is going on this morning?”

Chen Yu Fei kept her mouth shut and looked at Chen Tiansheng with a slightly pale face.

Chen Tiansheng clenched his cheeks, forcibly suppressing his anger, and squeezed out a sentence from between his teeth.

“As soon as the market opened this morning, the Hong Society struck hard at lifting Qin Ye, following which that little bastard of a group, the Jun Lin Group, also fell back on lifting Qin Ye!”

“Originally five families sniped Qin Ye, now it has become 3 against 3, we, the three capital, were caught off guard and killed by the Hong Society, in just one hour’s time, dropped ten percent!”

Boom!

The sound exploded like a big thunder.

Chen Tianyang and Chen Yufei were completely dumbfounded.

A vicious chill ran from the soles of their feet to the sky.

A ten percent drop?

How much money would that have to be?

The amount of money that had to be spent to snipe Qin Ye’s ten billion dollar family fortune was an absolutely astronomical amount.

And this ten percent was calculated from that sky-high price!

“Damn it, are those people from the Hong Society pigs? Such a good opportunity to eat meat, why do they have to do this?”

Chen Tianyang was so angry that he almost jumped out of his wheelchair, his face was blue and he gritted his teeth, “They suddenly went to help Qin Ye, is this a fucking attempt to fight us to a standstill?”

“The Hong Society was supposed to be the outsiders going in for the meat, now they’re suddenly turning back to Qin Ye, are they

Chen Yu Fei still had some sense, at this point the flowers lost their colour and exclaimed.

Chen Tiansheng and Chen Tianyang, who were in a rage, were startled at the same time.

Chen Tiansheng, who was shadowy as if he was a viper, said in a cold voice, "That wild bastard, where on earth did he get so many connections? Is he a god descending to earth?"

All three of them were not stupid.

At this moment, Hong Hui suddenly turned against them, and with a little thought, they knew that Chen Dong and Hong Hui had reached some kind of cooperation.

In an instant, the three were both shocked and angry.

They had to know that the Hong Society covered the entire realm, with 3,600 sects in the Society and countless disciples.

It was no different from any of the powerful families.

Even if it was not as big as the Chen family, the Chen family had to treat the Hong Society with care and courtesy.

Where in the world did a wild child, a wild child who had just emerged, get the energy to draw the Hong Society to him?

If Chen Daolin had not disappeared, the three of them would not be in such a state of shock as they are now.

With Chen Daolin's status and skills, if he wanted to mobilise the Hong Society, he could indeed do so.

But now, Chen Daolin had disappeared!

In Chen Tiansheng's view, it was simply impossible for Chen Dong to enlist the help of the Hong Society!

Unless the gods came down to earth!

"Brother, think of something, what should we do now?"

Chen Tianyang was so anxious that he couldn't even calm down, "Three billion is a small amount of money for us, but if we can't overturn Chen Dong and lose three billion, I can't swallow this anger, if we let Chen Dong play a hand in this fire, our face will be lost!"

Chen Tiansheng and Chen Yufei looked aghast.

Indeed.

This was a financial confrontation, a fight of life and death.

Between you and me, money flows quickly.

It was already disgusting enough to lose one's wife and one's army.

If Chen Dong also rolled away his wife and soldiers, then what was this scheme?

Doing charity?

Robbing oneself to help the poor?

Just at this moment.

Chen Tiansheng's phone rang again.

Once he saw the number, Chen Tiansheng was stunned.

He was busy picking up the phone.

It lasted for only two seconds before the phone was put back down again.

Chen Tiansheng smiled sadly, "It's from Rothschild."

"What did they say?"

Chen Tiansheng asked impatiently after him.

Pop!

Chen Tiansheng angrily slammed the phone to the ground, shattering it.

Chills surged through his body as he squeezed out a sentence from between his teeth, "The game is over, they've pulled out!"

In an instant.

The room was dead silent.

Chen Tianyang and Chen Yufei were completely dumbfounded.

Rothschild's capital had withdrawn, so wouldn't that make it 2 against 3?

If it was the other two capitals, the three of them could still manoeuvre if they wanted to.

But Rothschild was different, it had entered the market itself on a favour from Chen Tiansheng.

Now that people have backed out, the favour is used up and there is not even a way out!

“Now we’re just going to wait for death?” Chen Tianyang looked at Chen Tiansheng and Chen Yufei with a rueful smile as his expression even became a little dazed, “Wait until Chen Dong and Qin Ye reverse their ways and flaunt their power against us?”

“Then what do you say?”

Chen Tiansheng looked at Chen Tianyang angrily.

The Hong Society’s reversal had shaken him to his core, and now that Rothschild had withdrawn, it had shattered his original plan in its entirety.

The possibility of bringing down Chen Dong had now become slim!

“How about raising the bet?” Chen Yu Fei suddenly suggested.

Chen Tiansheng smiled bitterly: “Do you think that Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment are the sons we raised? You can just say raise? They won’t fight Chen Dong to the death!”

The words had just fallen.

Chen Tianyang glanced at the computer screen inadvertently and suddenly screamed.

“Brother, Yu Fei, there’s been a change! It looks like we won’t lose yet!”

Chen Tiansheng and Chen Yufei got closer to take a look and were instantly overjoyed.

“It should be the two capitals that are adding strength.” Chen Yu Fei instantly reacted, “If Hong Hui doesn’t help too deeply, the two capitals will still have a chance to fight Qin Ye.”

“That saves us the trouble, but since the situation has improved now, it’s just as well to discuss with the two capitals about raising the stakes.”

Chen Tiansheng’s eyes glowed as he said, “How about an increase of two billion?”

“Let’s make it five billion! If you want to play, play bigger! Concubine Yu is right, it doesn’t look like the Hong Club has gone out with much strength, otherwise it wouldn’t have been reversed back by the two capitals so quickly.” Chen Tianyao gave a sardonic laugh.

"I agree." Chen Yufei echoed.

And on the other side.

Din Tai Company.

Chen Dong looked at the WeChat from Gu Qingying and couldn't help but reveal a pleased smile.

He swept a glance at the stock market situation.

The smile on his face grew even bigger.

The phone rang, it was Qin Ye calling.

Chen Dong picked up the phone and Qin Ye said joyfully.

"Brother Dong, the bait has been released."

Chen Dong smiled, his gaze was stern: "Putting out a long line to catch a big fish, if they want to eat me, Chen Dong, I will make them spit out all that they ate and have to pay back a piece of meat!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 417-418

Chapter 417

Nearing the close of business.

Chen Dong turned off his computer.

Waiting quietly for Qin Ye to return.

Sure enough, Qin Ye's call came soon after.

"Brother Dong, we've lost roughly one billion today."

"Very good."

Chen Dong smiled and nodded, at this moment, his face was no longer gloomy and solemn.

Qin Ye followed closely, "The net will be closed tomorrow."

“Well, let’s just close the net tomorrow morning, no need to continue playing for too long, Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment are old demons, I’m afraid they’ll come back.”

Chen Dong carefully admonished.

It was not easy enough to see the light this time.

To be able to save the day and recover the loss at the end was even more hard won.

He still understood the importance of proper satisfaction.

A man’s heart is not enough for a snake to swallow an elephant, and the one who dies in the end will probably be himself.

Hang up the phone.

Chen Dong found Gu Guohua’s WeChat and sent a message over, “Thanks dad.”

Glancing at Gu Qingying on the screensaver photo, Chen Dong was filled with tenderness.

Marrying such a wife is really God’s favour to me, Chen Dong!

If it was just the help of the Hong Club and the Jun Lin Group, Chen Dong would not have had the thoughts he had now.

Because he was clear that the matter of the Jun Lin Group was only a guess right now, and remained a variable until it was confirmed.

As for the Hong Society, Ye Yuanqiu had promised to help, but Chen Dong really didn’t expect the Hong Society to sell its dead weight.

But a weibo from Gu Qingying in the afternoon made him as sure of himself, and his plan was deferred to the current one of putting in a long line to catch a big fish.

Because.

The reason is that Gu Qingying told him that she had already contacted her father-in-law for him, and that Qingying International would come in and lift Qin Ye at the necessary moment.

With his father-in-law as the top pillar in place, the play could naturally go a little further.

With Rothschild's capital retreating, CSC Capital and Shihua Investment's are still there, and all the losses will have to be recovered from his two, and even more can be recovered!

Review the situation.

The times are different and so are the vision and ideas.

Chen Dong is not a weak and bullying character. When the situation is not right, he thinks of self-defence, but when the situation is downwind, it is the time to settle the score!

He left the company and just walked downstairs.

Chen Dong saw that Ye Linglong was beating around in front of her car.

He ignored it and walked straight to his own car.

"Hey! Our Hong Society has helped you so much, and you see me and run away without a greeting?"

Chen Dong had just walked to his car when Ye Linglong's voice rang out behind him, "If you don't appreciate this, buy me a meal or something, you should at least give me a greeting for the sake of me lending you my car before you leave?"

He glanced back at Ye Linglong, "Do I have to take the token out and force you to kneel down and call me Ancestor?"

"You"

Ye Linglong's stunningly beautiful face instantly turned red.

When facing Chen Dong, she really had the urge to be ignited to explode in place at any moment.

Because of the short stop just now, with Ye Linglong's stunning beauty, she had already attracted a lot of people to stop and look around.

At this moment, seeing such a stunning beauty actually talking to a man.

The crowd of onlookers could not help but look at Chen Dong with envious and jealous eyes.

Feeling the gaze like a sword, Chen Dong did not bother to pay attention to Ye Linglong and directly got into the car.

As soon as the car was started, a stunning silhouette stopped in front of the car.

Chen Dong's expression turned cold.

This was going too far.

"Chen Dong, come down!"

Ye Linglong slapped the bonnet.

This scene drew a gasp of shock from the surroundings.

"My God, what the hell is going on here?"

"Damn, why do I feel like this plot is a bit like dog blood?"

"The slag abandoned the beautiful woman in anger, and the beautiful woman showed up to demand justice?"

.....

The sound of chatter was like a tidal wave.

The people who are watching are never too concerned about the matter and naturally associate the matter to a "deep" level.

However, Ye Linglong paid no attention to the strange looks and comments of the people around her.

She twisted her waist and walked straight to the passenger side.

She raised her hand to pull the car door, but found that it would not open.

Ye Linglong's eyebrows knitted together in displeasure.

In all her life, no one had ever refused to let her into the car!

This damned Chen Dong!

The car window was down.

Chen Dong coldly said to Ye Linglong, "Get lost!"

"What?"

Ye Linglong was filled with surprise, thinking she had heard wrong: "What did you say?"

“Please mellow out and leave!”

An icy voice came from inside the car.

Almost simultaneously, the car engine let out a roaring roar.

With a kick of the accelerator, Chen Dong directly left in the dust, leaving Ye Linglong standing frozen in place.

Wow!

The people around were long stunned.

There was a flurry of shouts of shock.

“Damn, he doesn’t know how to show mercy to the jade, that guy is too cross, right? Such a pretty girl, how dare he foul-mouthed someone?”

“A flower in a cow dung, why didn’t he put it in a cow dung like me?”

“Cut, you guys are all blind, don’t even look at who that man is just now, that’s Dingtai boss Chen Dong!”

.....

As a voice rang out, all the onlookers’ faces changed drastically.

Because Ye Linglong was too beautiful, so when she was standing in front of the BMW i8 just now, there were already many people quietly raising their mobile phones to take secret photos.

And the scene between Chen Dong and Ye Linglong just now had been captured in all its glory.

Everyone’s minds were set on huge waves.

In this city, Chen Dong had long been a household name.

Chen Dong’s marriage was even a city-wide sensation.

But the scene just now

By the time the crowd came back to their senses, the exasperated Ye Linglong had already driven away.

The onlookers who came back to their senses couldn't help but feel a little lost, such a stunning beauty, it's a pity to see one less glance.

But at the same time, some of those who took the photos could not help but have their minds swarmed with thoughts.

In the age of self-publishing, it is always easy to get attention and become an internet sensation, sometimes all you need is a piece of "news".

Back at Tianmen Mountain Villa.

Gu Qingying was sorting out some documents.

Chen Dong looked a bit distressed and said as he approached, "Wife, you are pregnant now, you should rest more, don't be too tired."

Yingli Building Materials Company had always been managed by Gu Qingying, and all of Dingtai's buildings were now relying on Yingli Building Materials to supply materials.

"My parents are coming over in a couple of days, so I need to sort out the information, so I'll ask them to look it over for me then, right?"

Gu Qingying smiled sweetly: "Such a little thing, it won't tire me out, I am in charge of Yingli, it's easy, it's you who reminded me that it's true that you should take care of your health."

Chen Dong was dumbfounded and lost his smile.

It was not that he was tired, but Gu Qingying's words made him react.

With Gu Qingying's academic ability, managing a Yingli building material was indeed killing the machine with a bull's-eye.

It was also easy for Gu Qingying to sort out all this information in her hands.

Stretching his back, Chen Dong lowered his head and kissed Gu Qingying on his forehead, "I'll go upstairs to take a shower first, and help you sort it out together later."

"Go ahead."

Gu Qingying smiled.

Looking at the back of Chen Dong who went upstairs, her eyes flickered and the smile on her face gradually dimmed.

Waiting for Chen Dong to go upstairs.

Only then did she murmur softly and suspiciously, "It's that natural fragrance again"

Chapter 418

After dinner.

Chen Dong and Gu Qingying accompanied Gu Qingying for a walk as usual.

Only, what made Chen Dong puzzled was.

Gu Qingying had less to say and kept her head down, her heart heavy.

"Something on your mind?" Chen Dong broke the quiet.

"No." Gu Qingying shook her head, still not looking at Chen Dong.

Chen Dong paused.

"When I lie, I never hide it from you, and when you lie, it's all broken."

Gu Qingying took two steps forward and stopped.

She said calmly, "I'm sorry, let's go home, I'm a bit tired."

After saying that, she turned around, swept past Chen Dong and headed in the direction of home.

What the hell had happened?

Chen Dong froze in place, Gu Qingying's reaction was clearly that something was on her mind.

But this reaction was really a first!

"Could it be that I have done something wrong to provoke Little Shadow?"

Chen Dong rubbed his nose and carefully recalled, it seemed that he hadn't done anything wrong anywhere, right?

"The car thing?"

A possibility suddenly occurred to Chen Dong.

Back to the bedroom.

Gu Qingying was already lying on the bed, in the same position as last night, probably planning to sleep back to back again.

Chen Dong was a bit helpless, so he washed up a bit and then lay down on the bed, hugging Gu Qingying from behind.

With this action, he obviously felt Gu Qingying struggle twice.

However, with a slight force of his hands, he suppressed the struggle.

“Wife, are you because of the matter of that car I drove back yesterday?” Chen Dong asked.

Gu Qingying was silent.

That should be it!

Chen Dong instantly understood and explained, “That was someone else’s car that I borrowed, it belonged to a girl, but I promise, it was never what you had in mind.”

When a pregnant woman was pregnant, it was most taboo to sulk.

Chen Dong didn’t want to hurt Gu Qingying because of this one little thing, so he straightforwardly told her the truth.

“Mm, go to sleep.”

Gu Qingying nodded her head and answered like a mosquito.

Chen Dong was instantly confused, this reaction, what was the situation?

He subconsciously let go of Gu Qingying, but Gu Qingying still had her back to him, not moving at all.

Was it not because of the car?

Chen Dong’s heart became even more puzzled.

On the other side.

The Chen family.

Inside the small courtyard, Chen Tiansheng, Chen Tianyang and Chen Yufei gathered together and did not fall asleep.

“Brother, we’ve guessed right, we’ve harvested a billion dollars from that wild bastard Chen Dong in one day today!”

Chen Tianyang held his glass of wine with a smug smile on his face, “Rothschild is also stupid enough to run away when he sees that something is not right.

Chen Tiansheng smiled faintly, obviously agreeing with Chen Tianyang’s statement.

However, he could also understand Rothschild.

After all, that scene during the day had spared him from sitting down and storming out himself.

It made sense, rationally speaking, for Rothschild to pull out.

“Now we’ve smashed another five billion down, once the market opens tomorrow, I reckon we can just make Chen Dong and Qin Ye despair, right?”

Chen Yu Fei shook the red wine glass in her hand, her drunken eyes flushed with laughter.

At this moment, she had the feeling of an evil outlet.

Because of Chen Dong, she had lost her hard-earned base in the entertainment industry and lost her bottom line to compete for the position of family head.

As long as she could bring down Chen Dong, she could only have a little balance in her heart.

“Hahahaha Yu Fei you are talking a little too lightly, I guess tomorrow Chen Dong and Qin Ye will want to jump to their deaths?”

Chen Tianyang was full of smugness, winked and laughed strangely, “That wild bastard Chen Dong, probably couldn’t even dream that it was the three of us who single-handedly facilitated this sniping against him, probably he will only think until his death that it was Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment who teamed up to short them, right?”

At these words.

The smiles on Chen Tiansheng and Chen Yufei’s faces grew even bigger, revealing an overwhelming sense of confidence.

This was the confidence that came from relying on the Chen family!

Ten billion in assets was all that Chen Dong and Qin Ye’s financial company had.

And to the three of them, they were the heirs of the Chen family, relying on the Chen family's family fortune, ten billion was nothing more than pocket money in their eyes!

They could "kill" Chen Dong with a little pocket money, so how much more superiority could they feel?

"That wild bastard, he can never see the situation, and what he thinks is a very strong base is just pocket money in our eyes."

Chen Tiansheng revealed his thoughts in a rare moment, his words filled with condescension, "This is the difference between us elites and that wild bastard, that wild bastard won't be able to catch up even in his lifetime!"

Chen Tianyang and Chen Yufei burst out laughing at the same time.

The sound of laughter echoed through the small courtyard, incomparably happy.

All three of them had suffered losses at the hands of Chen Dong, and now that they had joined forces, they were finally raising their eyebrows.

Even more, the three of them had already envisioned the image of Chen Dong's big disaster tomorrow, which made them laugh even louder.

.....

The sky was white with the belly of a fish.

Chen Dong woke up early and went to Dingtai Company.

Today, it was the time for Qin Ye to reap the rewards in a big way.

When he arrived at the company.

Chen Dong did not deal with the company's affairs, but made a cup of tea and sat quietly by the window, watching the clouds roll in and out.

After several days of trepidation and repression, he was now finally able to relax.

Not only that, but also because of this incident, he had spied a clue to his father's whereabouts.

Chen Dong had already decided to make a trip to the north of the desert as soon as the matter with Qin Ye was over.

If it was as he had speculated, then he would be able to find his father and subsequently solve all the doubts in his mind.

Why had his father disappeared?

And what was he so afraid of that he had been struggling to hide his whereabouts?

Nine o'clock in the morning.

Chen Dong picked up his tea and took a light sip.

His calm expression, too, gradually turned cold and stern, and killing intent erupted in his eyes, "Now, the hunting moment begins!"

He did not turn on the computer.

This was because he was clear about how powerful Qin Ye, the Hong Society and Clear Shadow International would really be when they joined forces.

What's more, there was a "variable" in the mix – the King's Landing Group.

Rothschild's capital has already been withdrawn.

The rest of CSC and SWC could not hold back the momentum, just as he had feared a few days ago, and CSC and SWC would be damned if they would.

The only worry now is how much of this harvest can be harvested?

Also thinking the same as Chen Dong were the three Chen Tiansheng at the Chen family.

Early in the morning.

Chen Tiansheng, Chen Tianyang and Chen Yufei woke up early.

After a night of heavy drinking and a short sleep, the three of them did not feel the least bit tired and sleepy.

To them, it was extremely uplifting to sit in the dark and watch Chen Dong on the verge of despair.

Early in the morning, the impulsive Chen Tianyang turned on his computer.

As soon as it was nine o'clock, the stock market opened.

Chen Tiansheng and Chen Yufei also sat around the computer.

Chen Tianyang couldn't help but rub his hands together: "Brother, Yufei, are you excited? Are you surprised? We'll soon be able to witness the scene of Chen Dong's broken arm."

"I've already booked a place for the celebration." Chen Tiansheng smiled faintly, a shining light in his eyes.

Chen Yufei also smiled sweetly, "As long as we bring down Qin Ye's financial company, I want to see if this wild bastard Chen Dong can still jump up and down? The more miserable his death is, the happier I will be!"

Winner Takes All Chapter 419-420

Chapter 419

In the office of Din Tai.

Chen Dong is as silent as ever, sitting in front of the window as if he were a statue, looking out at the clouds rolling in and out.

Every now and then, he picks up his tea and takes a sip.

He is calm and relaxed.

The hunt is on!

He was waiting, waiting for good news from Qin Ye's side.

The capital tussle, the loss of Rothschild, the behemoth, Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment, he did not put in his eyes.

The hanging sword had quietly fallen on the heads of those two capitals.

Outside the office.

Xiao Ma and Lone Wolf and the others were all a bit stunned.

"Brother Lone Wolf, what is going on with Brother Dong today?"

Xiao Ma was Chen Dong's right-hand man in the company, and at this moment, he also looked confused: "He came to the company early in the morning and has been sitting in front of the window, not doing any business at all."

"Is it possible that our company is in big trouble? I remember when the shantytown renovation project in the west of the city was first carried out, Mr Chen had such a situation?" Someone guessed.

“How could that be, our company is now operating at a much higher quality, if it wasn’t for Mr Chen’s low profile, our company would have been number one in the city long ago.” Some employees immediately denied it.

A trail of gazes all fell on Lone Wolf.

Like Xiao Ma’s thoughts, in their eyes, Lone Wolf was closer to Chen Dong.

Xiao Ma was only in charge of Din Tai’s affairs.

Lone Wolf, on the other hand, was able to get involved in some of Chen Dong’s personal matters.

“I’m actually not sure.”

Lone Wolf rubbed his nose in embarrassment, “I just went in to help Chen pour tea, and only heard him mention something about a hunting moment, saying that he might give us a bonus.”

A bonus?!

Everyone, including Xiao Ma, was dumbfounded.

There was nothing on that was worth a bonus recently, huh?

Doubtful as it was, the crowd couldn’t help but snicker in their hearts.

At the beginning, when Dingtai was at its most dangerous, they resolutely stayed and followed Chen Dong, just because they believed in Chen Dong.

At the same time, they were also looking forward to drinking and eating meat.

The shantytown renovation project in the western part of the city had indeed made everyone in the company eat with their mouths full.

Chen Dong has never shortchanged any of his employees in terms of treatment!

Every employee of Dingtai knew clearly in their hearts that they had followed Chen Dong in the right way!

It was close to noon.

Chen Dong’s mobile phone finally rang.

Looking at the caller ID, he saw Qin Ye.

Chen Dong smiled faintly and picked up the call.

“Brother Dong, the harvest has been successful!”

Over the phone, Qin Ye deliberately suppressed his excitement and joy, but still vaguely revealed his mood.

“How much?” Chen Dong asked curiously.

Qin Ye laughed harshly, “I won’t tell you for now, there’s still the second half in the afternoon, I didn’t let ClearShadow International in this morning, if things go well this afternoon, we’ll have a big win this time, and we’ll have our mouths full of oil.”

Pop!

The phone hung up.

Chen Dong laughed helplessly, “This kid, still selling me off?”

However, what Qin Ye said about not letting ClearShadow International in was quite surprising to him.

Just by relying on his own family’s money and Hong Hui and Jun Lin Group had completed a wave of harvesting, if Clear Shadow International entered again when the market opened in the afternoon then it would really be a titanic situation!

Thinking of this, Chen Dong smiled proudly: “If you want to eat me Chen Dong, then let’s see who has a bigger appetite!”

On the other side.

The Chen Family.

In the room, there was dead silence.

Chen Tiansheng, Chen Tianyang and Chen Yufei all sat with pale faces, dumbfounded.

The short two hours just now had left them with a feeling as if they were dreaming.

Harvesting!

Nakedly harvested!

Pure crushing!

The excitement and surprise that they had felt at first as they sat and watched Chen Dong being knocked into the abyss, now the excitement had also turned sour and the surprise had turned into a shock.

“To, what the hell is going on?”

Chen Tianyao was the first to break the dead silence, “For, why are we being reaped back? Am I dreaming?”

The sense of unreality caused Chen Tianyao’s eyes to drift, completely unable to find focus.

As soon as the market opened just now, Qin Ye’s side had displayed a thunderous momentum, reaping madly.

Such a terrifying momentum was a world away from the declining trend presented yesterday!

Chen Yufei’s dull and pretty face gradually surfaced in panic, her red lips noodling, “Are we, are we too happy too soon?”

Chen Tiansheng was the only one, sitting on his chair like a poisonous snake, radiating a bone-chilling aura.

Even with his mind, the only thing he could do at this point was to let his reason control him from storming out.

“Brother, say something!”

When Chen Tianyang saw Chen Tiansheng’s silence, he became anxious: “We’ve already lost a lot in the morning’s harvest, ah, it was clearly not like this yesterday!”

Bang!

Chen Tianyang slapped his hand on the table and suddenly said, “Could it be that we’ve been set up by Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment?”

Chen Yu Fei froze for a moment, and then the look in Chen Tianyang’s eyes became strange.

“Stupid!”

Chen Tiansheng rubbed his face fiercely and gave Chen Tianyang a shady glare, “Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment know that we are from the Chen family, they don’t have the guts to set us up yet!”

The eyes gradually moved to the computer screen, "We should have been calculated by Chen Dong and Qin Ye."

A shocking statement.

Chen Tianyang and Chen Yufei's faces swooshed and changed drastically.

Thinking back to yesterday's scene, a bad chill immediately ran from the soles of their feet to the sky.

Chen Yu Fei's red lips trembled a little: "Brother Tiansheng reminded me, I, why do I feel that the billion they lost yesterday, like, like a deliberate sweetener for us?"

"Damn it, that wild bastard is nothing but these sinister mind tricks!"

Chen Tianyang let out an angry curse.

Chen Tiansheng and Chen Yufei gave Chen Tianyang an odd look, somewhat astonished.

Isn't being scheming and scheming a quality that a family head should possess?

However, the two did not say much.

Chen Yu Fei looked at Chen Tiansheng gruffly, "Brother Tiansheng, why don't we call it a day?"

Although they had been harvested in the morning, they were able to curb the amount of loss if they stopped in time.

However.

Chen Tiansheng smiled bitterly and said with an obscure expression, "Is it still possible to close? It's all started, who can stop the avalanche?"

With a single sentence, it rendered Chen Yufei speechless.

On the other hand, Chen Tianyang at the side was blue in the face and gritting his teeth.

All three knew what the financial situation was like; billions of dollars of capital coming in, could it not be easily drawn out in just two hours in the afternoon?

The room was silent enough to listen to a needle.

The air had become frozen.

At that very moment.

Chen Tiansheng's mobile phone rang.

The irritated and sulking Chen Tiansheng didn't even look at it, he directly placed it on the desktop and pressed the answer button.

"Hello sir, the banquet hall you have reserved is ready and waiting for you."

This was the phone number of the place Chen Tiansheng had booked in advance for the celebration.

A simple sentence, but like a burning red sharp knife, it stabbed viciously into the heart of Chen Tiansheng's trio.

The next second.

The corners of Chen Tiansheng's eyes bulged with veins, his face was fierce, and his raging anger instantly erupted.

"Greetings my ass, all of you fucking get out!"

Snap!

With a roar that almost broke the sound of his voice, Chen Tiansheng viciously shattered his mobile phone to the ground.

Chapter 420

1pm.

Opening time.

As Qin Ye gave the order, ClearShadow International entered directly.

The monstrous momentum instantly created an even more gruesome harvest.

Chen Dong sat quietly in front of the window, silently gazing at the clouds rolling in and out in a soothing mood.

Before he knew it, the blue sky and white clouds were replaced by dark clouds.

Chen Dong rubbed his nose and laughed softly, "The stock market should have been stirred up by Qin Ye by now just like this weather, a rainstorm is coming, right?"

Chen Family.

Chen Tiansheng's face was iron blue, his eyes shadowy as if he was a viper, staring deadly at the computer screen.

Chen Tianyang gritted his teeth, his face turning blue and red, and the veins on the back of his hands were even more prominent.

Chen Yufei sank back into her chair, a sad smile on her white face.

The trend on the computer screen.

It was like a sharp knife, slashing at the three of them.

As Chen Tiansheng said, it was too late to pull out!

What's more, the entry of Qing Ying International was like the last straw to crush the camel, forming a four-sided siege on Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment.

Who could have predicted that their designed sniping of Chen Dong and Qin Ye would eventually turn out to be a counter-sniping?

Shame, anger, resignation and shock surrounded the three hearts.

At this moment, the temperature in the room became bone-chilling.

The money didn't matter to Chen Tiansheng, it was just a figure.

What really frustrated them was the fact that they had lost their wives and lost their troops, and that Chen Dong had profited from it.

The sniping of Chen Dong had completely turned into a robbery of Chen Dong!

All three of them had failed at the hands of Chen Dong before.

It was because of this hatred that the three successors had joined forces.

But now, having joined forces, they had still failed!

"I'm not willing, I'm not willing, we are all from the elite generation of the Chen family, why would we lose to that wild bastard?"

Chen Tianyang gritted his teeth, his eyes were red and he said as if he was mad, "Why don't we continue to raise the stakes? Let's throw in a few billion more, we can definitely turn the tide!"

Slap!

Chen Tiansheng backhanded a slap on Chen Tianyang's face.

"You, are you this stupid?"

The voice was cold and chilling.

Chen Tianyang was dumbfounded for a second and then burst out in a raging fury, "Chen Tiansheng, you are my elder brother, but you can't just hit me, can you? You came up with the plan, and now you're dragging me and Chen Yufei into disgrace and doing Chen Dong's dirty work for him? How can you make me resent this?"

The smell of gunpowder immediately intensified.

Chen Yufei sat down in her chair in despair and did not try to dissuade her.

Chen Tiansheng slowly got up, pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose and smiled coldly: "A reckless man like you, I have ten thousand ways to kill you if I want to!"

"How fucking dare you!"

Chen Tianyang was on fire, and at this point, his irritation and anger, coupled with Chen Tiansheng's slap, had caused his entire being to be on the verge of losing control.

"What do I dare not?"

Chen Tiansheng gave a cold laugh, "The same brothers, who provoke me, will also be killed as usual."

With a single word, it caused Chen Tianyang's heart to tremble fiercely.

Staring at Chen Tiansheng, it gave him the panicked feeling of being locked by a poisonous snake.

The knot in his throat surged a few times, Chen Tianyang finally curbed his impulse and sat down in his chair in dismay.

Chen Tiansheng turned to look at the computer screen and said coldly.

"Defeat is defeat! A few billion, it's nothing to us yet, as long as the one-year deadline hasn't arrived, we still have countless chances to get him killed!"

Bang!

The words had just fallen.

Chen Tiansheng gave a blatant punch and smashed the computer.

.....

Five o'clock in the afternoon.

Chen Dong received a call from Qin Ye on time.

As soon as he got through, the phone was filled with Qin Ye's cheerful laughter.

Chen Dong did not stop it, nor did he rush it, but just listened patiently.

He knew that Qin Ye was under no less pressure than he was these days.

Being sniped by the five powers together, if it were an ordinary person, he would probably have fallen apart mentally.

Now that the big picture had been decided, Qin Ye laughed openly, also as a catharsis after repression.

"Brother Dong, we've won, we've won completely this time!"

It lasted for a full half minute before Qin Ye suppressed his laughter and said aloud.

Chen Dong raised his eyebrows, "Are you brat going to continue to sell me short?"

"Three billion! We have made a whole three billion!"

Qin Ye said excitedly.

That much?

Chen Dong was greatly shocked.

You know, this is only Qin Ye's company, there is also Hong Hui, Jun Lin Group and Qing Ying International!

Four sniping two capital forces, if all the earnings were added up

The first thing you need to do is think about it.

The four capital forces sniped two capital forces, if all the earnings were added up, at least ten billion dollars would be lost!"

Boom!

Chen Dong's pupils clenched for a moment.

Tens of billions, in a day's time!

Wasn't the Qin Family Finance Company, which Qin Ye now controlled, a ten billion dollar family?

In other words, in one day, a loss of one of the pillar industries of the former richest family head!

"Hahahaha Dong, this time Zhongke Capital and Shihua Investment are probably vomiting blood, they shouldn't have the guts to snipe us again in the future!"

Qin Ye was very happy, and his words showed an air of pride: "Back then I swept tens of billions for the Qin family, many of them said I was just lucky, relying on my reputation and letting off cold shots, this time I have sniped them face to face, squarely, now those people should always know what it means to have real strength!"

"You didn't allow ClearShadow International to enter in the morning, in fact, just for this thunderous strike in the afternoon, to completely defeat the two capital's courage?"

Chen Dong suddenly realized that Qin Ye's current tactics were the same as when he had dealt with Zhou Yanqiu.

Only by truly breaking the other party's guts could he truly have no worries!

"Right!"

Qin Ye harrumphed, "But this time, it was thanks to your connections, Brother Dong, that we were able to turn defeat into victory, without the reversal of the Hong Society and the Jun Lin Group, even with the entry of Clear Shadows International, we wouldn't have been able to stop it!"

Chen Dong could not help but look stunned.

In a trance, he hooked up the corners of his mouth and gave a quirky smile, "This small company, the Jun Lin Group, has really froze up and eaten with a mouth full of oil in a group of gods this time around."

"There must be someone high up in that small company." Qin Ye's voice suddenly sank.

High-ranking people?

There were indeed high achievers!

Chen Dong gave an odd smile, now that things were over, it was time to make a trip to Desolate North.

After chatting with Qin Ye for a few minutes and agreeing to celebrate together in the evening, Chen Dong hung up the phone.

Immediately after, he called Xiao Ma and Lone Wolf in and directly allocated 50 million out to give bonuses to everyone in the company.

As soon as the news was implemented.

Instantly, the staff of the entire company shouted with joy, and everyone was as if they had been hit by chicken blood.

Fifty million dollars was a lot of money, and the number of employees in Dingtai was not large, so if it was spread to everyone, it was at least a million.

What's more, to all of them, it was like a fortune from heaven!

After Chen Dong explained that Xiao Ma and Lone Wolf were responsible for the distribution, he left the company.

Only, he had just arrived at the downstairs of the company.

All of Chen Dong's good moods were instantly turned into a bubble.
