

Chapter 4 The power of silen

Witches lust

Episode 4

#christen

The next day, I woke up early got dressed, and took my bag and my headphone and teleported to school, i could fly since I could control the wind but I didn't... Teleporting is more easier, I arrived at the campus earlier than anyone, I went to the lecture halls to read my book.

Later, as the hours went by the campus was full, with annoying students.. They were too noisy and so full of themselves... Humans are so annoying.. They feel all high and mighty, thinking they're better and superior to everyone, they're lucky that, there's a law about harming humans if not they would have been wiped out by the likes of my sister Rose..

Though I minded my business, it didn't take long before the students in the campus took notice of me.. Some tried to talk to me or try to be friends with me but I gave no reply, I always kept a blank face to let them know i wasn't interested in anything else..

Everywhere I went, I would hear whispers about me, I could even hear what they said in their minds... We witches have the ability to see or read someone's thought.... It's not right to see through some one but it comes in handy in case of any danger...

That day after lecture, I went into the Cafeteria to get something to eat, as I entered, everyone inside turned towards my direction.. What's with this people can't they leave me alone... I wish Altros could come and suck the life out of them... Some of you may be wondering what the Altros are.. They're creatures or rather death rippers that take away souls when humans are at the end of their journey in life... If a human sees one physically .. Its automatic instant death.. But for us.. We don't die.. We see them clearly as we see humans.. Believe me, they're very ugly and horrifying.

As I ordered for my snack, I heard the whispers of the people inside... I paid them no attention, it's their problem not mine... As I was about to leave, I felt a strong presence of my necklace... Could it be the person that saw me last night was here? Impossible.. I didn't wait to see his face, I just took my snack and went out with haste...

I kept wondering about the necklace, Whoever that person is, he's going to give me back the necklace or else.. I'll brutalize him in more ways than one..

As I sat at a corridor to eat my snack, I heard moans coming from a nearby storage room, and from the sound of it, whoever that was in there was having sex.. I minded my business and ate my snack in peace... As soon as I was done, The sex maniacs came out both sweating... And I recognized them both.. They were from my department...

Tina "Jesus where you hear the whole time? Did you hear anything else?"

Christen "....."

Khalid "Can't you talk?"

Tina "Hello! We're talking to you..."

Khalid "Let's just leave maybe she's deaf.."

Tina "Yes I can see that.."

They both left looking back at me.... I didn't give them a reply, besides what's the point of even replying them? I didn't sneak on them to check what they were doing, if they had just walked on without even paying attention to me, it would have been better.

After I sat there for a while, I decided to head back to the lecture hall, as I was on my way, Some guys whistled as I passed by calling me names.. Like baby, darling, sweet heart... Hmm this guys are fools, they're even lucky I wasn't as vicious as my sister Rose if not eh... But before I could get into the hall one of the guys started following me, he was determined to approach me or rather t oast me as the humans would say..

Lionel "Fine babe, how far?"

Christen "....."

Lionel "Come on baby... Let me show you a good time.. You'll love it.."

Christen "....."

Lionel "Come on.. Talk to me nah.."

He tried everything human possible to get my attention but I ignored him... I didn't even know he was still following me, after a while, he gave up and went back... What a dick..

Hours later, school was over and I decided to go home... and relax.. Spending hours with these human can be a burden.. As I was about to vanish, I noticed a girl who was being bullied by some guys.. And if care is not taken, they might actually do something terrible to her, and I couldn't just walk away leaving her standing... So I looked around to see if nobody was around and then quickly whispered some words casting a paralyzing spell on the guys.. Immediately after that, all of them fell on the ground, crying in pain that they couldn't move.. I quickly left the place so I wouldn't be seen by anyone..

Soon I reached home and went straight into my room, Rose was inside the house trying on her dresses, as for Oliver, he was tending to his wounds..

Rose "My dear little sister is back.. So any luck bringing bad luck to someone..."

Christen "No but I casted a paralyzing spell on some guys who were assaulting a girl.."

Rose "You helped the girl? For what?"

Christen "But she was in trouble.."

Rose "Shut up! We witches don't help humans , we don't do for them... We do to them.. You get me.. Do to them.."

Knowing Rose, she'll keep talking about this all day so I went into my room and locked the door.. By Hades throne, I wished my mom was alive, she's the only one who understood me and encouraged me when I did something like this and speaking of Mom... I remembered the necklace which she had given me... I could still its presence... I must get it back.

So later in the evening, I went to the Iroko tree and placed my hands on the ground letting my magic surge through, this technique of mine allows me to find anything or anyone around the world..

Even if they hide hundreds of miles into the ground.. Within seconds I discovered the place where the necklace was, so I casted a spell on where I stood and the place rose up floating into the air and transported myself to where the necklace was... As I arrived I discovered there was a house there and everywhere was quiet...

This time I felt the presence of the necklace getting stronger and stronger so I waved my hand summoning a heavy gust of wind into the vicinity, Within seconds, the winds came like a wave passing through with a monstrous howl.. I didn't care if the house fell apart just as long as I got my necklace.. The windows of the house began to open wildly as the wind became strong...

And in that moment.. I saw the guy with the necklace in hand staring at me.. I wanted to kill him right there and then but I couldn't.. He just kept staring at me with an innocent stare and there was no panic within him.. Then something else followed, a smile.. Yes.. I saw a smile on his face and as I got a clear loom of his face, I recognized him...

He was the top student in our department... So it was him who came to the tree last night... So to avoid any raising any alarm, I disappeared away into the night...

Was this coincidence or was he expecting me?

Note: " Here are some words to take notice.
