Chapter 9 We Mee

#WITCHES_LUST

#Episode 9

#Riley.

You all know everything in life has consequences... Whether good or bad, in my case there was a lot of consequences but I didn't bother to care.. I just kept moving on with the flow.

Ever since that day in the forest Christen and I had became so close and in love.. not a day goes by in school that we don't get to be together, At first she didn't want people to know we were together but that didn't last long...

Everyone in school knew about our relationship.. Every guy began seeing me as a champion because I was the only guy to get through Christen, I had gotten more respect and admiration from everyone but little did they know.. I had went through hell to get to this point..

Those that were more surprised about our relationship was Khalid, Tina and my brother Lionel.. He couldn't believe that I his crazy brother could get together with a goddess like Christen..

Lionel "Riley, how you take toast this babe? (Riley how did you manage to wao her)

Riley "I really don't know.. I just introduced myself that's all.

Lionel "Introduce ni? Abeg no tell me lie.. (which type of introduction is that, please don't lie to me)

Riley "I swear.. That's all I did.

Lionel "Well, who knows maybe she's as crazy as you.. Na fate bring una together. (well, it's fate that brought you two together)

Not only Lionel was curious to know about how I got to Christen, my friends Tina and Khalid too were hellbent on knowing, so I told them what I told Lionel.

Khalid "Introduction only? Guy there must be something else.. Did you fuck her?

Tina "Khalid what's wrong with you? Do you think everyone is like you?

Khalid "What? He can't just expect us to believe, they fell in love just like that...

Riley "Look, I'm serious.. No jokes..

Tina "Riley, are you sure you didn't use any of your Yoruba charms to catch her attention.

Riley "Do I look like someone that uses charm!?

Khalid "Well you have to, after all you're the one talking about witches and supernatural nonsense.. I'm sure you know a thing or two about charms.

Riley "You two must be out of your minds.. I don't have time of this shit..

These friends of mine are a weird bunch, They thought I used charm on Christen, besides who in his right made would use charm against a witch? Just imagine.. That's like throwing a stone from the earth to the moon, because it will never work, impossible.

Later that day, I went home as soon as Lectures was over... As soon as I got home.. My mom had already made lunch.. It was a perfect timing cause I was very hungry..

As we were eating, We began to talk about some issues...

Sara "Have you boys heard the news going around?

Lionel "No.. What is it?

Sara "Shrunken and mutilated bodies are been found in local areas, especially the ones with forestries.. This is getting out of hand.. And not to mention the massive vibrations hitting the ground..

Riley "Maybe the bodies are being mutilated by serial killers... Who knows..

Sara "Teeth marks are being found on them as if they're being eaten..

Lionel "Mama! Stop this talk abeg... I'm eating.. Besides there's no cannibals in Ibadan.. Maybe they're being eaten by wild beasts..

Sara "Anyway.. May God bless their poor souls.. This world is filled with horrors..

Riley "Absolutely.. But there's still some good parts of it..

Sara "Why are you smiling?

Riley "Nothing I'm just in a good mood..

Lionel "Good mood ko? Tell her already..

Sara "What?

Lionel "He's gotten a new girlfriend.

Sara "Ehen! I thought Rukky was your chick..

Riley "Not anymore... We broke up..

Sara "Really? So who's the new girl?

Riley "Her name is Christen.. A real beauty and a very peculiar girl..

Sara "Well, I hope she's an improvement over Rukky because I've never liked all the girls you've dated.. They all dress like prostitutes.. Girls nowadays don't have self-respect.

Riley " Mama... Christen isn't like that.. She's different.

Sara "That's what you said about the previous ones..

Riley "No, I mean it.. She's different..

Sara "Okay if you say so... I hope you stick with this one.. I would like you to bring her so I can see her...

Riley "Well.. I'll have to talk to her about it..

After the lunch, I went about my usual business. I did my assignments.. Went out to the library and played some football. All those times as I was doing those things I kept wondering what Christen was doing. I wonder what do witches do to relax themselves...

Later in the evening after I had returned home.. I was in my bed, staring at the ceiling when I saw the necklace glow....

I quickly covered it so my brother wouldn't see it... Christen was definitely here.. So I went out of bed and went out to meet her..

As i was about to leave, My mom asked where I was going.

Sara "Riley!

Riley "Yes ma!?

Sara "Where are you going?

Riley "I'm just going out to get some air..

Sara "No, no... Not tonight.. I sense evil spirits in the air tonight and remember what I told you about people being eaten? No.. You can't go out..

Riley "But mama....

Sara "No.. Go back to your room, instead of wasting your time outside.. You should be praying by now..

I couldn't believe this.. Of all the times to be staying at home.. God why did this happen? I went back to my room, annoyed.. Christen is definitely out there.. Probably waiting for me and now I have to stay here.. Because of some news.. I can't have this.. I went upstairs back to my room.

I laid down on my bed figuring a way to sneak out of the house.. Just then, the window opened and Lionel entered the room, from the smell coming from him.. He must have smoked or taken something else..

This wasn't the first time Lionel did this.. He always uses the window to sneak out of the house, when he's been restricted..

Lionel staggered in and fell on the bed,... In that instant.. An idea popped into my head...

I went to the window to see the distance from our room to the ground.. It wasn't that far but one has to be careful cause one small miscalculation, and you could end up with a broken leg.
