Chapter 20

"No! That's not the truth! It's MIA. They talked about this morning that I got into the company by you. MIA spilled all my coffee! Jin Zhengting You believe me

Zhao Tong Xin shakes her head and wants to explain for a moment. But when the word "Jin Zhengting" blurts out, her heart almost trembles.

How can she call him by his name in the company!

Seeing that there was no expression on Jin Zhengting's face, her heart was a little more stable. Only mia, though silent, wanted to break the nail she had just made a few days ago!

Around the men and women are whispering, leaf pistil cold scan, they quickly silence, honest shut up, sit back to their position.

Ye Rui is not stupid, at least she is sharp eyed to see the subtle relationship between Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin.

She just played a round, "Mr. Jin! I didn't do my duty as Secretary General in this matter. Let's just let it go! Mia is an old employee in the company. She has always been conscientious and conscientious. Zhao Tongxin is also a man of his duty. There should be some misunderstanding between them. Just explain it clearly, don't you think? "

Inquisitive, stamens open.

Jin Zhengting looked around, his cold eyes like a dagger, and his tall figure formed a force. In such eyes, people were in danger.

He took a look at the coffee stains on Zhao Tong's heart, and the girl's humble posture of slightly drooping her face. Her cold thin lips opened slightly, but only a cold "um" at last.

Lost one eye to leaf Rui, "this matter left to you to handle!"

He still has something to deal with. He doesn't want to waste too much energy and time on such trifles. After that, he leaves with his legs raised.

Everyone's heart is relaxed.

But after Jin Zhengting walked out a few steps, he suddenly turned around and looked at every corner of the office area fiercely. "As the president of the company, I don't want to hear any gossip during working hours. In the future, Jin won't keep her if it's a troublemaker!"

The last sentence is obviously a warning to MIA.

Jin Zhengting's merciless words are equivalent to slapping MIA in public. Mia's jealous eyes stare at Zhao Tongxin, who shows an innocent expression.

In fact, she did not expect that Jin Zhengting would help her.

"Don't stand here. How can you work if you don't go to the dressing room to change clothes?" Yerui's tone is quite serious.

Zhao Tong's heart slowed for a while before he realized that this was what he said to himself. He ignored Mia and went to the dressing room.

Behind her, Mia stares at Zhao Tongxin's figure all the way, hoping to make a hole. She looks at Ye Rui and says contemptuously, "I don't believe it. You don't want to drive her out of the company!"

Ye Ruichang sighed, a little funny, "why should I drive her out of the company? Don't forget, I'm different from you. What you covet is a person. What I covet is a higher position! "

She took a cool breath, "if she is really the woman that Mr. Jin likes, you'd better put away your thoughts! Of course, if not, I'll just turn a blind eye. "

Good words don't say much. To the end, a smile appeared on yerui's lips. After glancing at mia, she turned leisurely, leaving MIA alone to make a fist.

With a hiss, I felt that my face was still aching.

In the bathroom, Zhao Tongxin couldn't wash the coffee stains after washing for a long time. Instead, he made his chest wet and couldn't go out to see people.

But not long after she started, she didn't bring any spare clothes to the company.

In desperation, Zhao Tongxin can only ask the middle-aged woman who cleaned the bathroom to borrow a loose T-shirt. Fortunately, she has a good figure and just shows her smooth clavicle, which is not cumbersome.

Less than ten minutes after returning to the office and sitting down, the order from the superior department was issued:

because she and Mia quarreled during working hours, the office environment was seriously affected, and half a month's salary was deducted!

When working, far away from several floors of the office area, Zhao Tongxin seems to be able to see Mia's hate like eyes, but she pretends not to see the same, fingers quickly tapping the keyboard, hiring every document sent by the personnel department.

Her Zhao Tong heart is like to calm down, but if they think she is weak, think she is easy to bully, it is a big mistake!

When it's time for lunch, every employee in Jin's office area swipes his card to eat in the canteen, and Zhao Tongxin is no exception. The canteen is on the 14th floor. Because the elevator is full of people, she simply takes the safe passage to go downstairs.

She walked through the back door of the dining hall, raised her hand, pushed open the heavy wooden door, and came to Yang ziye with a plate.

Zhao Tong heart moment some regret why they want to go back door!

"Wow, Secretary Zhao, we are really predestined friends. We can still meet each other after dinner!" From the moment he saw Zhao Tongxin, Yang ziye's eyes were as bright as light, and his voice was ruffian. "Cough, ha ha..." Reluctant to smile, Zhao Tongxin directly bypasses Yang ziye to get the plate.
