

WILL OF CHAOS

Chapter 12 Cap 12: Rushing The Training(Chapter Preview)

As soon as I got back to base I found my subordinate lying on my bed sleeping comfortably.

"Wake up" (I)

"GIIGI GI" (Subordinate Goblin)

She was startled by my scream for the visa, as soon as she saw me she was embarrassed for being caught.

"Sorry gi gi iig master" (Subordinate Goblin)

"Smell gii master soothing gig igi sono" (Subordinate Goblin)

"No... problem" (me)

"Do you...know about...monsters?" (me)

"Yes gii master" (Goblin subordinate)

"Many gii gi forest gi strong gi monsters iig gig far away ruins" (Subordinate Goblin)

"Smart Giigig igigii strong gi monsters" (Subordinate Goblin)

"(Do strong and intelligent monsters stay away from the ruins? Why ?)" (me)

"Why?" (me)

"Ruins gigii gi danger gii" (Subordinate Goblin)

"(Are the ruins dangerous? I must speed up my training to evolve as quickly as possible, I must make my subordinate evolve too, so let's move to a base farther away from the ruins.)" (Me)

Hmmm

With that decided I don't have time to waste, I meditate a little and I'll hunt to raise our level as soon as possible.

-----

After a few minutes of meditating to integrate my level, I had my subordinate accompany me on the hunt and bring her rusty sword for her to use.

-----

After hours of hunting in areas I had already hunted, I returned to base along with my subordinate who was completely exhausted.

The day was very productive and I got some good skills and a lot of EXP, I made sure to give the last blow to all the monsters we killed today to be able to evolve soon.

I managed to improve the Horned Rabbit bloodline and managed to acquire the Little Spider bloodline, but I also managed to level up these skills.

I used various skills to be able to increase your levels more efficiently.

But I took a lot of risks today, the two Slimes I found at the same time almost killed me as only one of my skills worked with them, I had to protect my subordinate who wasn't going to be of help in this fight and I ended up taking a blow instead, after that fight we went back to base.

The fights against the spiders were not difficult, as I could trap them with the webs and then kill them with ease, the same as with Horned Rabbits.

I made my subordinate make cuts or hit monsters before killing so she also gets EXP, now both she and I get enough EXP to level up.

When I was injured after the Slimes fight I couldn't move, but my subordinate carried me all the way running to the base which allowed me to rest and use [Weak Recovery: 3 ] to recover some of my more serious injuries.

After being left in my bed she lay down beside me and fell asleep hugging me and crying, I think I worried her a lot.

My language skill leveled up trying to talk to my subordinate between hunts, it made me understand that in her old house she was constantly treated badly by the other Goblins for being weaker physically, so she was glad I wanted her as subordinate, after all, I was the first to extend a hand to her.

I decided not to train [Weak mana sense: 4] tonight and go to bed early.

But first I went to meditate a bit to integrate my new level and check my status and abilities.

My growth in strength is going well, but I must be more cautious with the risks I'm taking, when my subordinate said that other smarter monsters consider the ruins dangerous I lost my temper and despaired which made me take a lot of risks today.

I have to remind myself that this is not a game, this world is my world now, where I was born, and where I will grow up.

The statuses and systems of this world are not giving me power, all beings can see their status according to their subordinate, and all status does is translate in a way that makes one understand their power and the state of theirs. body.

(I have to start planning better for tomorrow, I'm not alone now and my decisions didn't just affect me.) (Me)

I will use [Poor Recovery: 3 ] a few times and go to sleep, tomorrow I will think about what to do, I am full of pain all over my body and mentally exhausted.

ZZZZZ

The next day I woke up early and got up, went to drink some water, and eat some meat.

These monsters won't give me any abilities anymore, I have to start hunting Goblins or wolves.

As I weigh this I turn to my subordinate and see her sleeping peacefully, but I have to wake her up, we don't have time, if the ruins are dangerous we have to get strong and get out of here, but this time I won't despair like yesterday.

"Wake up... wake up" (me)

"Zzzz...hmmhmmmm...master?" (Subordinate Goblin)

"Good morning" (me)

"Master gi well??? No injured gigii?" (Subordinate Goblin)

She started checking my whole body to see if I was still hurt, after calming her down and telling her I was fine she drank water and ate some meat before getting ready for today's hunt.

Her eyes were different, but steady and burning with determination.

I don't know what caused this change in your mindset, maybe what happened yesterday.

That's good now she has the motivation to grow and get stronger, those are the eyes I was hoping to see in her, as time permits I can finally start training her, all I need is for her to be willing to train for herself.

Those determined eyes are the answer I was hoping for to this question.

Now we have to resume the hunt and be careful not to repeat the mistakes we made before, we have to hunt not only using power but using our intelligence so that we are not the prey while we are hunting.

Today is a new day and once again I realize that I am immature and I learn from my mistakes, but those mistakes could cost my life in this world or my subordinate's life.
