

Chapter 1378

Luna praised him when he exposed her identity, "As expected of the Turtle Sage."

The Turtle Sage's eyes narrowed slightly at her answer.

The master of the Shrouded Gate...

The title was quite resounding.

She slaughtered ministers, killed the forebearer of the Swallows, and single-handedly suppressed the Insect Ruler and dragonslayer knight on Praxis Island, demonstrating unparalleled might!

However, the Turtle Sage was not one to be trifled with either.

Throughout the years, he had never truly feared anything. He was just slightly surprised.

The Turtle Sage looked at Luna steadily and asked calmly, "Master of the Shrouded Gate, I have no grudges against you, and our interests don't conflict. Why have you come here to fight?"

"No grudges?" Luna repeated with a sneer, her tone filled with coldness. "A grudge was born the moment you attacked the Wolf King. Furthermore, it's an unresolvable grudge! Defying him is the same as offending me!"

Luna said the last sentence word by word, brimming with a strong killing intent.

"Hahahaha..." The Turtle Sage could not help but laugh coldly.

After sizing Luna up for a moment, he shook his head and said, "No wonder rumors are saying that all the actions of the Master of the Shrouded Gate benefit the Wolf King of Florence. It turns out that it's because you belong to the Wolf King! It seems I need to add another note to my records."

Luna was not surprised to hear that he had it almost figured out and neither confirmed nor denied it. "If that's what you think, that's fine. However, you can make that note later. For now, give the Wolf King the answer to the question he asked!"

After saying that, Luna's body was shrouded in a layer of strange inner energy. It seemed sinister and bloody. It was the concentration of demonic power to its extreme!

"Heh..."

Seeing that the other party intended to fight him, the Turtle Sage could not help but sneer and said indifferently, "You want me to yield? That's absolutely impossible. Let's settle this with our hands!"

With that, his whole body was also enveloped in an extreme cold.

"It seems you insist on being stubborn!" Luna shouted in anger and charged forth like the wind.

Her technique originated from the lamia and was elusive and predictable. Even the Turtle Sage could not guess where her next attack would come from.

The two exchanged blows as they probed the other's strength.

The only thing that Luna learned was that the Turtle Sage was a master of the sixth Divine Step.

The sixth Divine Step...

It was indeed something worthy to be proud of. It was enough for him to do whatever he wanted in Florence.

Luna herself was only at the third Divine Step. Of course, that did not mean she was afraid of the Turtle Sage. Her demonic power was formidable.

Swoosh—

"Demonic Tri-Probe!" Luna shouted, and her speed suddenly increased. It was as if two identical figures appeared and assisted her attacks.

"Hmph!"

The Turtle Sage did not show weakness when he saw her use demonic power. After all, he realized that she was only on the third Divine Step, while he was on the sixth. He had the advantage!

"Thousand Mile Ice!"

With a loud shout, the two figures clashed in the small secret room, their exchanges so fast that they created afterimages.

However, when Luna approached, she changed her move within less than a tenth of a second, making it difficult for the Turtle Sage to defend.

Bam!

In the end, her palm struck his chest.

Chapter 1379

Although the palm was not particularly heavy, it stirred up the internal injuries the Turtle Sage had suffered from Andrius' blood, making it challenging for him to resist.

"The sixth Divine Step is not that great!" Luna had the upper hand and sneered, attacking again.

"Demonic Mayhem!"

"Enki's Protection!"

"Demon King's Resurgence!"

"Spirit Turtle's Radiance!"

...

The two sides exchanged multiple blows within a very short time.

Although the Turtle Sage defended against each one, gathering his inner energy each time caused a surge in his internal injuries, aggravated by Andrius' blood.

"I can't go on like this!"

The Turtle Sage realized the issue and began to use his secret technique after creating some distance from Luna.

"Spirit Turtle's Blessing!"

What the Turtle Sage unleashed was his specialty, a barrier imbued with the energy of a spirit turtle, making it impossible for the opponent to find an opening to attack.

"Demon Snake Devours the Sky!"

Seeing this, the demon snake's aura around her became even more intense. It truly seemed like a demon snake that could devour the heavens and earth had descended.

The demon snake descended!

Who could contend with it?

Rumble—

The next moment, they clashed again.

This time, Luna completely overwhelmed the Turtle Sage.

It was not due to her personal strength, but rather the suppression of their secret techniques—the demon snake countered the spirit turtle!

Luna instantly shattered the protective aura around the Turtle Sage, sending him flying into the wall with a heavy thud. He stood back up and stared at Luna with a look of shock.

"What... Impossible! That's impossible! How could this be?"

The last demon snake had been killed on Mount Valdez. How did the master of the Shrouded Gate have the aura of a demon snake?

That did not make sense!

"What's impossible?" Luna did not pursue her advantage and merely said, "Can you fulfill the proposal I made earlier now?"

"Heh..." The Turtle Sage sneered with disdain, saying indifferently, "No one has ever made me submit on my territory."

"Although the Wolf King is brave, he's far from my match. Since he couldn't pass the third trial, I won't tell him the answer to his question. If you want to use force, then we can go again!"

As he spoke, he adjusted his breath and prepared for another round.

Luna's eyes flashed with a hint of fierceness when she saw him unwilling to back down.

However, she did not attack again but gently clapped her hands thrice.

Clap, clap, clap!

With her claps, another figure arrived outside the secret room. It was the deputy master, Marcellus.

"Master." Marcellus bowed respectfully.

"Tsk..." The Turtle Sage glanced at him, disdain filling his expression. "What? Does the great master of the Shrouded Gate plan to gang up on an old man like me?"

Luna's smile remained calm in the face of his sarcasm.

"You said it yourself. You're just an old man. Naturally, I won't let a decrepit old turtle like you fight two against one.

"I just wanted to tell you that I didn't come alone. We only need to stall you for ten minutes, and my subordinates outside are more than enough to completely wipe out your disciples, leaving none alive."

Luna was exceptionally calm when she said those words full of killing intent.

The Turtle Sage instantly became furious hearing this.

"Don't you dare! If you really do that, I'll..."

"Enough!"
