

Chapter 1405

Killing Kate and Andrius would be a piece of cake.

Swish!

With that, he did not waste time with banter and directly thrust his spear forward.

“You audacious traitor. You’re seeking death!”

A hint of frost covered Kate’s charming face, and she struck without hesitation.

However...

Boom—

The momentum of Tegan’s spear thrust sent Kate flying far away, nearly crashing into the tombstone behind her.

“A mere Martial King dares to be arrogant in front of me. Watch closely! I’m a Martial Emperor now. If you want to capture me, then you should bring your Sect Master instead!”

After gaining the upper hand, Tegan gloated and continued to attack.

The Rainblossom Spear was indeed remarkable. As it danced through the air, it brought forth specks of cold light resembling torrential rain, making it hard for a Martial King like Kate to find her bearings.

Swoosh—

The next moment, the spear tip glinted and stabbed toward Kate's throat. If it struck her, Kate would surely meet her end.

At the critical moment, a hand reached out from the side and firmly grabbed the spear.

It was Andrius.

"Seeking death!" Tegan was confident in his Martial Emperor strength and did not take Andrius seriously at all. He snorted coldly and tried to retract the Rainblossom Spear.

However, the spear in his hand seemed to be welded in place. It was firmly held by Andrius, making it impossible to pull out.

"Hah—"

Tegan did not believe this. His yellow teeth ground as he exerted all his strength, and he finally managed to break free. He almost fell to the ground due to inertia.

“If you’re playing with spears...” Andrius did not care and only smiled meaningfully.

Then, with a wave of his right hand, the Argentum Qilin Spear flew over and landed steadily in his hand.

The fierce and domineering appearance made Tegan’s eyes widen.

“That’s... The Argentum Qilin Spear!” As a former disciple of the Medicine Sect, Tegan naturally recognized the spear.

However, he did not pay it much mind. This spear was known for its heaviness and could only be wielded by those with extraordinary innate strength.

The Andrius in front of him was just a brat and most likely relied on his brute strength. How deep could his cultivation realm be?

Swoosh!

The spear in Tegan’s hand danced with a whistling wind, and he boasted, “Kid, I’ll let you know what it means to play with a spear! A spear is the king of a hundred weapons! You need three months to learn the staff, three years for a sword, but a lifetime for the spear!

“A brat like you daring to play with a spear in front of me is simply asking for humiliation!”

As he spoke, countless glints emanated from his spear, creating an almost unbeatable domain in front of him!

This was Tegan’s first battle after leaving seclusion. Although he did not take Andrius seriously, he still maintained the necessary solemnity.

He said arrogantly, “Listen up! This spear is called the Rainblossom Spear. It’s forged from special iron and tempered in extreme cold springs, possessing incomparable might!

“I started practicing the spear at the age of three, achieved some proficiency at eight, and traveled to foreign lands to seek worthy opponents at twelve.

“Now, with my technique mastered, I’m unrivaled in the world! My spear can summon a flying dragon, sweeping across the world! It can bring heaven and earth to chill, controlling the universe!

“Today, I’ll use your head as a sacrifice to refine my unparalleled spear!”

His words were filled with a dominating aura as if he were a master of spearmanship. He spoke like he was a transcendent figure!

As he spoke, his spear technique reached its climax, and he suddenly turned around and stabbed the ground several meters from Andrius, instantly causing thunderous shockwaves to erupt.

Boom—

With a loud explosion, a trench was created in front of Andrius by the spear tip, deeply gouging the ground.

What an awe-inspiring scene!

Andrius was instantly speechless. He looked at Tegan like he was looking at a fool and said with a mocking smile, “When it comes to playing with spears, I’m your ancestor!”