

Chapter 1408

"Sorry, but since you've met me today, there's only death awaiting you! Go on and say your last words. I'll listen," Todd spoke calmly.

Killing someone meant nothing to him at all.

An army?

Andrius laughed.

He already knew that Louis had a protector from the military, so he naturally made preparations.

Rumble...

Thud, thud...

Clack, clack, clack...

Almost simultaneously, countless soldiers emerged from all directions.

The golden wolves on their shoulder badges gleamed brightly, resembling a badge of honor, proclaiming their identity as elite soldiers of the Lycantroops!

Among them, there were armored vehicles that caused the earth to shake and helicopters hovering in the sky.

On the opposite side, rocket launchers were already loaded with explosives.

“Wolf King!”

This time, it was not Noir who came, but the female general who had delivered the money to him last time. She immediately saluted Andrius as soon as she arrived.

“Wolf King!”

The tens of thousands of soldiers immediately shouted from the depths of their souls, expressing their respect and admiration for their supreme leader.

Wolf King!

Wolf King!

...

The soldiers only shouted once, but their voices echoed incessantly throughout the cemetery.

At that moment, startled birds flew, and the mountains fell silent.

There was only one Wolf King in the world!

“W-Wolf King...”

Hearing those two words, Louis' soul seemed to fly away. His legs went weak, and he knelt on the ground, looking ashen.

“Wolf... You're the Wolf King...”

Todd was not much better and slumped down on the grass. At that moment, he was no longer as composed as before.

Damn it.

The person Louis told him to mobilize his forces to surround and suppress turned out to be Florence's military god, the Wolf King!

There were many ways to die. Why did Louis choose such a cruel one?

He even swore to him earlier that he investigated that the other party had no background at all.

Yes!

The Wolf King had no background, but that was because he was the biggest background!

At that moment, Todd wished he could beat Louis to death. However, he did not dare to. He had to wait for the Wolf King's decision.

"W-Wolf King..." Louis crawled to Andrius like a dog. "W-Wolf King, I-I... I was wrong... I was really wrong. I-I didn't know it was you... I'm guilty... Please have mercy..."

Andrius looked down at him from above, watching him groveling on the ground miserably. His tone was cold and indifferent.

"It's too late for that now."

Bam—

Then, his spear pierced Louis' head.

Louis Conway, the richest man in Jurith and the chairman of Conway Corporation, was dead!

"W-Wolf King..."

Seeing Louis die like this, his protector, Todd, was also terrified.

"Wolf King..."

Todd had a mournful face and was also ready to beg for mercy.

"Oh, no!" Just then, Kate ran over, her face pale as she panted, "Scott and Liliana have been kidnapped!"
