

Chapter 1409

They got kidnapped while he was dealing with Louis?

Andrius' expression instantly darkened. "Tell me carefully exactly what happened, Kate!"

He had already calculated all of Louis' forces.

Nothing should have gone wrong!

Kate calmed her breath and quickly said, "Just a moment ago, when you came to suppress Louis, I followed your instructions to find a large villa in Jurith for Scott and Liliana to settle in.

"However, a masked person suddenly broke in. His strength was very strong. He's at least a Martial God or even higher! With just one attack, I passed out."

Andrius frowned.

Kate was a powerful late-stage Martial King. Being taken down in one strike indicated the opponent's strength but also their extraordinary speed!

"When I woke up..."

Kate continued, "The masked person and the siblings were already gone without a trace. Only a note was left behind."

Then, she took out the note and handed it to Andrius.

Andrius opened it and read it.

"Wolf King, I heard that you're a top expert in the world, rarely matched. I'm itching for a challenge and want to spar with you.

"I'll be waiting for you at Withers Cliff in three days. Remember, it'll be a one-on-one duel. I hope you'll abide by the rules.

"If you win, I'll release the hostages and let you do what you want. If I win, I'll kill them without mercy!"

Seeing this, Andrius' expression darkened significantly.

It was not just about winning or losing. It was about life and death!

In theory, he should not have any enemies in Jurith apart from the Conway family.

If this person was an ally of the Conways, they would not have stood by and let him kill Louis, only to target Scott and Liliana.

Andrius could not figure it out, but he did not dwell much on it.

Looking at the map, he went straight to Withers Cliff.

Although the note said three days, Andrius would not wait that long. Who knew what would happen in three days?

“Andrius!” Kate stopped him and asked worriedly, “What if it’s the Insect Ruler’s trap?”

The Insect Ruler?

Andrius was stunned for a moment and shook his head. “I don’t think so. You go back and heal first. I’ll be back soon.”

Now, he was already a Martial Saint. Even if that person was the Insect Ruler, Andrius was not afraid and had to make this trip!

“Okay, then be careful.” Kate hesitated to speak and ultimately did not say anything else.

Andrius soon arrived at Withers Cliff.

“Wolf King, you really kept your word.”

With a voice, a masked figure appeared in front of his sight.

Andrius’ eyes widened when he saw that person. It was the man who had ambushed him in the Northern Desert that day!

“Who exactly are you? You tracked me from the Northern Desert all the way to Argos and then kidnapped Scott and Liliana. What do you want? Hurry up and release the siblings!” Andrius stared at the person coldly, his voice stern.

“Talk is useless!” The masked person’s tone was very relaxed as if he was not an enemy. “As long as you defeat me, I naturally won’t break my promise. They’ll both return to your hands safely. However...”

The masked man looked at the Argentum Qilin Spear in Andrius' hand and grinned. "I have a small condition."

A condition?

Andrius was at a disadvantage here and could only go along with the other party. "What is it?"

"It's simple. You cannot use a spear when we spar."

He could not use a spear...

For Andrius, this greatly reduced his strength. However, he was in a difficult position and had no choice but to agree.

Clang!

Andrius gripped the spear and thrust it forcefully into the ground.

"Bring it on."

His face was stern.
