

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea Novel Online Free - Chapter 981-985

Chapter 981

“The soldiers and I searched downstream for dozens of kilometers, but we couldn't find a trace of anyone. I suspect that Old Hagstorm must have been swept somewhere further by the river.”

Swept away by the river?

“The river...” Andrius was silent for a long time before raising his head at Hugh. “Whether he's alive or dead, I want to see his body. Prepare a set of equipment for me. I'll go down there and look for myself!”

Hugh immediately prepared a set of equipment.

Andrius dressed while instructing, “Hugh, let this batch of soldiers stay here and rest. The soldiers who didn't go down earlier, come with me to the river to search.”

Just as he spoke, his phone rang.

He took out his phone and saw that the caller was Kate.

Kate's voice came from the receiver. “Andrius, something's very wrong with Luna's condition. Come back to the Royal Gardens right away!”

Something was wrong with Luna?

Andrius' thoughts were in turmoil. He did not know his master's fate, and now something was wrong with Luna.

After thinking for a moment, he immediately replied and hung up the phone, "Okay, I'll head back now." Then, he looked at Noir, the Black Hawk, and the others.

"Andy."

"Wolf King."

Noir and the Black Hawk were both much better after a period of rest. They hesitated to step forward, wanting to share Andrius' burden but not knowing how to bring it up.

Noir collected himself and said, "Andy, since Luna is in trouble, you should go back first. We'll take care of things here. We won't make any mistakes."

"Okay," Andrius agreed and did not delay any longer. He quickly descended the mountain.

In the Royal Gardens, Sumeria, Luna was lying in bed in the room. Her complexion was rosy, and she appeared to be in good condition. There was no sign of the issue that Kate had mentioned.

Andrius was puzzled.

When Luna saw him return, she immediately got out of bed and asked anxiously, "Hubby, I heard Ms. Klein say that Master fell off a cliff. It's not true, is it?! They're just joking with me, right?!"

She spoke with such sincerity that it did not seem like she was acting.

"It's true."

Andrius nodded and was just about to say that he saw it happen personally, but he suddenly realized something was off.

Old Hagstorm was known for being elusive. How did Luna know who he was? Logically speaking, they should have never met before!

Chap

At least, from the time he returned from the border and married Luna on Old Hagston's orders, they should have been strangers

"You know my master? Andrius stared at (una with sunpicion,

Luna was momentarily stunned but here the rings a vice came from oukeide

"Andrius, not only does Mc Creeffall Phoa phic martiau tot dha's a genuine Martial Ring, iar i is exceptionally powerful He even string the mar man

As the voice spoke, a graceful figure entered the room it was Kate There a strange cercle on to face

xChapter 982

Andrius only glanced at Luna and instinctively said, "That's impossible!"

He had been intimate with Luna a few days ago. He could be sure that at that time, Luna was still a helpless woman with no inner energy at all.

How could she have transformed into a Martial King in just a few days?

That was simply impossible.

After all, he knew from experience that breaking through to become a Martial Lord was already perilous and arduous.

“Nothing is impossible.” Kate said meaningfully, “After Ms. Crestfall returned, I saw that her aura was steady and her breaths were long and deep. It didn’t seem like she was an ordinary person, so I probed her with inner energy.

“Then, guess what happened?”

Kate’s beautiful eyes looked at Andrius with a mysterious smile.

Andrius frowned and did not respond.

Kate continued, “She pushed me back with a single palm strike, nearly injuring me.”

What...

Andrius’ expression changed. He immediately went up to Luna and checked her wrist.

Sure enough, Luna’s meridians contained inner energy that was incredibly robust and vigorous.

“Luna!” Andrius stared intently at Luna and asked in a low voice, “What’s going on here?”

“Since you already know, I won’t hide it from you.” Luna had already coordinated her story with Old Hagstorm and simply said, “In fact, I’ve known your master for a long time. He was the one who gave me my inner energy.”

Andrius was deeply shocked and began to connect the dots.

Luna continued, “When you led the Lycantroops east to Kiyoto, Master already contacted me.

“At that time, he analyzed the situation and told me that you would be obstructed by the ancient martial families, so he passed me the Dragon Manor Token. He told me to lead the Dragon Manor to provide support from the shadows. When you were in mortal danger, I was to come out and help you.”

The Dragon Manor!

Andrius was struck by realization.

The Dragon Manor was a secret force cultivated by Old Hagstorm. It was no wonder he found the Dragon Manor Lord so familiar.

That was why he found her back familiar. It was because she was Luna.

Then, he connected the dots regarding several other events as well.

Since Luna was the Dragon Manor Lord, it was undoubtedly she who impersonated Kate to contact the three great families, forced the Medicine Sect to get involved, and pressured the Swallow family.

The mastermind behind all this was none other than Old Hagstorm!

However, Andrius was still filled with questions.

For instance, why did Old Hagstorm want the Medicine Sect to get involved? Why did he arrange everything for Andrius?

Andrius looked at Luna intensely. "Luna, do you know why my master did all this? What was his ultimate goal?"

Luna met his gaze without hesitation and said honestly, "I had the same question and asked him about it.

"He told me that by doing this, he could protect you on one hand. On the other hand, he could ensure your continuous growth and ultimately help you take back what rightfully belongs to you."

What belonged to him?

The Klein family's treasure?

Andrius had even more questions than before. He could not contain his curiosity and asked directly, "Was it my master who stole the Anders' jade pendant?"

"I don't know." Luna shook her head and said, "He only told me to lead the Dragon Manor and assist you when you needed it."

Spin to Claim Your Surprise Reward!

“Unfortunately, I didn’t know that the Seventh Elder would bring his men to block you at the palace gate that day. Otherwise, you wouldn’t have suffered so much...”

Andrius waved his hand, not taking the matter to heart.

The Dragon Manor could not follow him everywhere. The Swallows would have found an opportunity eventually.

However, if it was not Old Hagstorm who had stolen the Anders’ jade pendant, then who was it?

Andrius was still perplexed.

Just as Andrius was confused, Kate suddenly spoke up, “She doesn’t know, but I might.”

Andrius could not help but raise his brow and asked, “What do you know, Kate?”

“Tell me about your master first,” Kate said.

“My master...” Andrius thought for a moment and explained everything about Old Hagstorm.

Kate’s eyes glimmered, and she said with even more conviction, “If my guess is correct, your master is that mysterious prophet of the Kleins over twenty years ago!

A prophet!

Andrius was puzzled by that title.

Kate continued, “The reason he got the Medicine Sect involved in this situation was undoubtedly to instigate a life–and–death struggle between the four great families and the Medicine Sect. His goal is to seize the position of the Ancient Martial Alliance Chief and unify the entire martial world! That would explain everything! It’s a brilliant plan and a cunning strategy.”

Kate had grown to admire Old Hagstorm more, but her words sounded slightly acidic.

“That’s not true,” Luna was the first to disagree. “Ms. Klein, although you’re the Maiden of the Medicine Sect, please don’t defame my master. He’s not that kind of person!”

Andrius added, “Kate, my master has always stayed out of worldly affairs. He only intervened to help me after he saw that I was being targeted by the ancient martial families. Don’t depict him as evil...”

“Andrius, your master is definitely not a simple person!” Before Andrius could finish speaking, a deep voice suddenly sounded from outside.

It was Wade.

Andrius saw him about to criticize Old Hagstorm and said unhappily, “Sect Master Klein, even though you helped me in the past when I was in the Medicine Sect, please don’t tarnish my master’s reputation.”

“Reputation...” Wade sneered and said slowly, “Your master doesn’t have a clean reputation. He’s not only deceitful and cunning but also does things ruthlessly. He’s not a good person!”

Upon hearing those words, Andrius became even more irritated.

“Sect Master Klein, I’ve known my master for many years and know him well. I’m well aware of his character. He’s by no means a ruthless person. Please don’t say such things.”

Andrius was already feeling vexed from what happened to Old Hagstorm and felt even angrier when he listened to the accusations.

“Andrius...” Wade shook his head and said, “One may know a person for a long time without understanding his true nature. Let me tell you, I know what your master is really like, so you have no choice but to accept it!”

Andrius narrowed his eyes but did not respond.

“Back then, my brother and I had an excellent relationship. We cultivated and improved together, earning the nickname the ‘Gemini of the Kleins’.

“It was your master, the Klein family’s prophet, who incited my brother to stray off the path of righteousness and seek out the Klein family’s treasure.

“Afterward, my brother and I had a falling out. I founded the Medicine Sect and took half the Kleins with me, causing a significant decrease in the Klein family’s power. This is all thanks to the prophet’s interference,” Wade spoke in great detail.

xChapter 984

Andrius still wore a skeptical expression. He did not believe that his master was such a person.

After Wade finished speaking, he retorted, “Even if that’s the case, there must be a reason for actions. It definitely isn’t as you say.”

Seeing that Andrius still did not believe him, Wade chose not to say anything more.

my master’s

“Those are the facts. Whether you believe it or not, it won’t change anything. Now, he has fallen off the cliff, but the people behind him will continue to scheme. The whole truth...”

Wade looked at Andrius and said confidently, “You and I will find out on the day of the Ancient Martial Assembly!”

Andrius was silent. Too much had happened in the past few days and had a profound impact on him.

First, his master fell off a cliff to save Luna, then he learned that Luna had the strength of a Martial King.

Finally, Wade said that Old Hagstorm had always been scheming in the background with the goal of seizing the position of the Ancient Martial Alliance Chief.

The revelations were unbelievable.

“Forget it.” Wade did not say much and sighed, changing the topic. “Your top priority should be your strength. You need to quickly recover to the peak of the Martial Emperor realm.”

That was true.

No matter what Old Hagstorm’s future plans were or what kind of game he was setting up, having strength would provide the courage to face anything.

After all, one must be competent to do a good job!

However, Andrius was not optimistic and said wryly, “The Ancient Martial Assembly is just a few days away. It won’t be easy to fully recover to my peak in such a short time.”

“Don’t be disheartened.” Wade’s lips curled up, and he told Andrius something surprising, “I know someone who can help you regain your peak strength in a very short time!”

Was that true?

Andrius was surprised and quickly asked, “Who?”

Wade said, “Halle Fullberry.” z

Halle Fullberry?

Andrius was stunned when he heard the words. She was just an ordinary girl and completely powerless. She had never practiced cultivation before. Could she really help him return to his peak?

Seeing Andrius’ bewildered expression, Wade said, “She has an extremely special physique, much like Ms. Crestfall. If she had been cultivating since she was young, she would have achieved great results.

“Furthermore, she has been accumulating energy for more than twenty years. It’s like a hidden treasure.

“Ms. Crestfall unlocked her two decades of energy reserves under the guidance of your master, leading to her rapid increase in power and breaking through to Martial King in a short time.

“Ms. Fullberry’s situation is similar. We can use the same method to help her become a martial realm expert.

12/2

Andrius finally understood.

Then, he felt amazed. To think there were such fortunate opportunities in the world. Just their special physique could propel them to heights that others could only dream of.

How envious.

Suddenly, a thought crossed Andrius’ mind.

His blood could detoxify poisons. Was that considered a special physique?

He did not know.

At that point, Wade continued, “Based on my years of experience, the fruit that Ms. Fullberry consumed likely contained extremely pure frigid energy.”

Chapter 985

“It’s the kind that I previously suggested you use for regaining your inner energy.

“However, if you want to directly absorb the fruit’s power, you need to suppress the frigid energy to absorb the healing properties. Otherwise, you’ll face severe consequences.

“Fortunately, Ms. Fullberry’s physique can naturally suppress frigid energy, making it much easier for you to absorb the healing properties.”

Upon hearing this, Andrius’ thoughts ran wild. That meant he could recover his inner energy to the peak of Martial Emperor without any drawbacks.

He quickly asked, "Sect Master Klein, what should I do?"

Wade said solemnly, "Guide all of the frigid energy inside Ms. Fullberry's body using a special technique, then absorb and cultivate with it, converting it into your own inner energy."

That was like stealing Halle's natural gifts.

Andrius hesitated.

Wade saw his worries and explained, "Don't worry. The power of that fruit is exceptionally strong. Pure frigid energy will disrupt the balance of her body, so guiding the energy out is the only option. Furthermore, her body has already undergone changes due to the influence of the frigid energy. If she enters the martial realm, she'll definitely be able to cultivate inner energy with a frigid attribute.

"That's killing two birds with one stone."

With that, Andrius was relieved and asked eagerly, "How do we guide the frigid energy out of Halle's body?"

"Well..." Wade stroked his white beard and said, "It's simple; by performing dual cultivation."

Dual cultivation!

The two words caused the room to become abnormally silent.

They were all shocked by the words. Everyone present knew what it implied.

Kate thought of the scene between her and Andrius in front of the mural and instantly blushed.

Andrius was stunned, not knowing what to say.

"Don't feel burdened psychologically." Wade continued, "When I checked up on Ms. Fullberry earlier and discovered the situation, I've already asked her. She agreed to dual-cultivate with you."

Halle...

There was likely no way she would refuse.

After all, she had been lusting after him for a long time.

Andrius still felt burdened.

Noelle and Kate were still in the room.

Furthermore, just a few days ago, he shared an intimate night with Luna, which made him feel guilty. Although he was not a warm and emotional man, he could not just play with people's feelings so casually!

That was not right!

2/2

It was wrong!

It was very, very wrong!

Just then, Luna suddenly walked out of the room.

Andrius immediately followed her.

The two arrived at the large balcony together.

“Luna...”

Since the final barrier between the two had been removed, Andrius knew that he had to take responsibility for the situation. He prepared to explain his current predicament to her and see if he could gain her consent.

Spin to Claim Your Surprise Reward!