Chapter 541: Heavenly Dao Jade

Walking along a street with Shi Hongfang, Jiang Beiran realized that the Shi family's land was ridiculously large. It was even larger than a county in the Sheng Kingdom. Moreover, many places were uninhabited. They only built some fancy buildings or gardens. It could be said that it was quite a waste of land resources.

After walking past another forest garden, Shi Hongfang suddenly said, "Speaking of which, didn't Lord Xiang Ling show you around just now? Why do I feel like you haven't gone anywhere?"

"Oh, speaking of which, I still have to apologize to Lord Xiang Ling. She asked me to wait for her in the dining hall just now, but because I met Hall Master Shi, I forgot about it."

Although he still didn't know what the bell meant, it wasn't wrong to follow suit.

"Forgotten?" She looked at Jiang Beiran suspiciously, but she couldn't figure out why Jiang Beiran would lie about this.

"So Lord Xiang Ling is still looking for you?"

Jiang Beiran slapped his head and this junior's fault. I'll go and explain to Xiangling master now."

Pulling Jiang Beiran, who was about to leave, Shi Hongfang said, "Forget it, I'll help you talk to Lord Xiang Ling later."

Hearing Shi Hongfang's reply, Jiang Beiran realized two things.

Firstly, the Bell Master's status seemed to be quite high, but Shi Hongfang did not take her seriously. Otherwise, he would not have handled her so casually.

Secondly, the Shi family did not seem to have a waist token that could be contacted at any time like the Lin family.

Jiang Beiran had thought that the waist token was a standard item for all the major families and powerful sects in the six dynasties of the Central Plains. Now, it seemed that it was something exclusive to the Lin family. Otherwise, the Shi family would not have been without it.

Combined with the Lin Family's expertise in the Art of the Universe, Jiang Beiran was certain that the Art of the Universe would play an important role in the creation of such a token.

Jiang Beiran followed Shi Hongtang and continued to walk ahead. Looking ahead, Jiang Beiran suddenly saw a large number of buildings with strange shapes. Some were covered in crystals, some were covered with all kinds of plants, and some were set up with multiple formations. In short, every building had its own characteristics.

"Greetings, Estate Master Shi."

In front of the checkpoint of the building complex, two guards bowed to Shi

Hongfang.

Nodding at the two of them, Shi Hongfang led Jiang Beiran inside.

After the two of them walked away, one of the guards whispered, "Hey, do you know the person who followed the Manor Head in just now? A new face seems to be a man of a high status."

Indeed, I've never seen a The other guard shook his head." However, the fact that he was brought here means that he has an extraordinary relationship with the Manor Head. It's better to quickly remember it so that we don't offend anyone in the future.'"

“Of course. Which one of them is simple to be brought here? Moreover, that person looks so young and has an unfamiliar face. This is the first time. In the past, those who could come here were all direct disciples. Hey...Do you think he’s one of the elders...”

“Shut up!” Another guard quickly covered his mouth.” You dare to talk like this?

Do you want to die?!”

The guard seemed to have realized how stupid he was. He broke out in a cold sweat and thanked the other guard.

While the two guards were trying to guess Jiang Beiran’s identity, Jiang Beiran had already followed Shi Hongfang to one of the pavilions that had multiple formations laid out.

When the two guards in front of the pavilion saw Shi Hongfang, they immediately bowed and said, “Welcome, Manor Master Shi. I’ll go and call the director over now.”

“There’s no need. I’ll just bring him around. There’s no need to disturb the director. ”

“Yes, sir!”

After bowing to Shi Hongfang, the two guards looked at Jiang Beiran with a similar expression as the two guards outside. They were both surprised and confused.

“Come in.” Shi Hongfang stepped forward and waved at Jiang Beiran.

Jiang Beiran felt his balls ache as he felt the two guards ‘shocked gazes.

From the fact that this place was specially set up, it was obvious that this place was an important place for the Shi family. She instantly understood that the old man’s sentence of “no need to defend” was probably referring to this place.

Although the other party had allowed him to enter the forbidden grounds because he thought highly of him, Jiang Beiran really did not want this kind of respect. After all, there were some things that he had to pay a price for just looking at them.

From the moment he stepped into this place, he had more or less been marked with the Shi family's seal.

However, since the system did not give him any notifications before he entered, Jiang Beiran did not dare to reject Shi Hongfang's request.

Since he couldn't resist, he would enjoy it to his heart's content.

Jiang Beiran followed Shi Hongfang into the pavilion, which was guarded by three great formations.

Jade...Jade...Jade...

Jiang Beiran saw all kinds of precious jades.

'Damn it...He's really rich.

Serene Illusion Jade, Treasure Sand Jade, Secret Soul Ying Long...

Each piece was a high-grade jade with different uses.

Although the jade slip was very convenient and powerful, it was only a derivative of a type of jade.

The piece of jade Jiang Beiran had given Lin Yuyan previously was like an amulet.

As the saying goes, people raise jade for three years, and jade raises people for a lifetime.

In this world of metaphysics, the spiritual energy contained in jade was of great benefit to cultivators.

Especially the swan jade that Jiang Beiran had previously obtained, which was the best of the best, and was the most suitable to be made into a protective jade.

Here, different colored jade stones naturally had completely different effects.

For example, white jade had the effect of calming the nerves, green jade had the ability to ward off evil spirits, Xiuyan could help people's meridians open up, and so on..

Chapter 542: Heavenly Dao Jade (2)

It could be said that a piece of good jade was a must-have item for every high-level cultivator. After all, who wouldn't make a mistake while cultivating? If there was a piece of jade beside him when he went out, then the damage to the body caused by the mystic qi could be minimized.

Other than the protective jade, there was also a type of Heavenly Dao Jade.

This kind of jade was even more mysterious. Other than the basic function of blocking evil spirits, it could also increase one's luck.

As for increasing luck, there were too many theories.

On the path of a cultivator to the ultimate, hard power was definitely indispensable, but luck determined how far one could go.

Even if you were a genius in cultivation, if you ran into a mystic spirit right after you became a great mystic cultivator and did not have the luck of a main character, you would definitely be reduced to ashes.

He died young before his talent could be used.

In other words, it was useless to be a genius. You had to ensure that you could survive. Only then could you become a true expert.

Therefore, many cultivators were more superstitious about Heavenly Dao Jade than protective jade. Although metaphysics could not prove it, some people were willing to spend money to buy peace of mind.

Then, all the good things that happened next would be attributed to the Heavenly Dao Jade. Those who were still unlucky would think that they had bought it cheaply, so the Heavenly Dao Jade could not stop this disaster.

With such a positive and negative situation, the Heavenly Dao Jade became the most sought after existence among the jade stones.

Chapter 543: The Women Here Are All Abnormal

“Is he that tough?”

Jiang Beiran was a little surprised when he saw the system’s third option.

Firstly, this was the Shi family and not his home ground. Secondly, Shi Hong and Fang Xin obviously wanted to lick his boots...No, it was obvious that he had a crush on this beautiful person. If they were to argue, there was no way he would help her...

Although he was a little confused, Jiang Beiran still chose the third option. He looked straight at the woman who was trying to intimidate him.

“Are you being unreasonable?”

[Mission completed. Reward: Strength +1]

“Impudent!”

Gao Lanwen was obviously not expecting Jiang Beiran to ask such a question. She was a little angry.

“I’ve never offended or taken advantage of you. How can I talk about being presumptuous?”

“What a sharp-tongued brat! Do you know who you offended?”

After sizing Gao Lanwen up from head to toe, Jiang Beiran replied, “An aggressive female hoodlum who is planning to bully others?”

“I’ll kill you!”

Seeing that Gao Lanwen was beginning to condense her Xuan Qi, Shi Hongfang quickly stood between the two of them and said to Gao Lanwen, “Director Gao, please calm down. It’s his first time here and he doesn’t know the rules.”

Then, he turned to Jiang Beiran and said, “Beiran, no matter what, this is your senior. How can you talk back to him like this?” Hurry up and apologize.”

“Oh.”

Seeing how Shi Hongfang spoke so softly, Jiang Beiran suddenly realized that he was also someone he could not afford to offend.

Otherwise, this kind of dispute would definitely be a good opportunity for him to show off in front of the goddess. But now, it seemed that because he was invited by the ancestor as a guest, he did not know who to speak up for. In the end, he could only be a peacemaker.

Jiang Beiran was relieved to know that.

Without waiting for Jiang Beiran to speak again, Gao Lanwen shouted at Shi

Hongfang, "Move aside! I must teach this kid a lesson today."

"Director Gao, I can usually do as you say, but he's a guest personally invited by our ancestor. If you touch him, even I can't speak for you."

Gao Lanwen's arrogance faded a lot when she heard the words "invited by the ancestor".

In the Shi family, the ancestor's words were holy scriptures. No one could go against them. This kid was a guest invited by the ancestor. If he was hurt, it would be equivalent to slapping the ancestor's face.

And this was a consequence she could not bear.

However, Gao Lanwen was used to being arrogant. She had never been treated like this before.

For a moment, she didn't know what to do.

Seeing that Gao Lanwen's face had turned red, Jiang Beiran didn't intend to continue provoking her. He turned to Shi Hongfang and cupped his fists. "Senior, since the owner of this place doesn't welcome me, let's go to the next place."

"Wait!" Gao Lanwen suddenly called out, then turned to Jiang Beiran and said, "When did I say that I didn't welcome you?"

Initially, Jiang Beiran did not want to bother with this woman anymore. However, when he saw Shi Hongfang's dilemma, he thought that there was no need to make things too difficult for him. After all, he still had to give Shi Hongfang face.

So he cupped his hands at Gao Lanwen and said, "" This is a misunderstanding. Please forgive me.'

Seeing that Jiang Beiran had already given her a way out, Gao Lanwen went along and said, ""It's fine. Perhaps my words just now were a little inappropriate and caused you to misunderstand. I hope you don't take it to heart."

'Yes... He's not stupid to the extreme.'

At first, Jiang Beiran had thought that this woman would continue pestering him, but he had not expected her to know when to stop and not pursue the matter any further.

Seeing that the two of them were willing to take a step back, Shi Hongfang heaved a sigh of relief. At the same time, he could not help but mutter in his heart.

'Where did this Jiang Beiran get his confidence from? There was no one who had no choice but to lower their heads under the eaves.'

Logically speaking, he was just a junior and was in someone else's territory. It was fine to be bullied a little. After all, it was not a matter of principle. However, he was unusually tough. He was completely different from the "afraid" person he had mentioned before.

'I really can't figure out this kid...'

Taking a deep breath, Gao Lanwen re-examined Jiang Beiran. After thinking for a moment, she asked, ""Since the clan saint sent you here, it means that you must have some achievements in the art of refining jade. Just now, you said that you didn't want to learn here because the jade here didn't catch your eye?"

“What a petty woman.”

Jiang Beiran had long known that this woman had come out to demand an explanation because he had decisively rejected the opportunity to study here and thought that he was looking down on the jades in their dojo.

Now that she had already stepped on him, she was still unwilling to let him go.

Should she say that she had a strong self-esteem? Or was he being unreasonable?

Of course, he was being unreasonable.

Jiang Beiran would usually ignore those who were unreasonable.

Seeing that Jiang Beiran did not say anything, Shi Hongfang knew that the two of them would never get along harmoniously. So, he pulled Jiang Beiran over and said to Gao Lanwen, “I’ll take him somewhere else to take a look. I won’t disturb Director Gao anymore.”

Watching Jiang Beiran follow Shi Hongfang down the stairs without turning back, Gao Lanwen felt like she was suffocating!

She was a dignified Grade Eight Jade Refinement Master. Even the Shi family, the number one aristocratic family in Tong Country, had to treat her politely as a guest. Everyone here was respectful to her..

Chapter 544: The Women Here Are Not Normal (2)

In addition to her strength, she was also very confident in her looks.

Even the sisters-in-law and daughters-in-law of the Shi family had fallen for her and obeyed her every word.

This made her, who had been arrogant since she was young, very satisfied.

But today, a young man who came out of nowhere actually took her beauty seriously. There was even some disdain in his eyes.

'Unforgivable...Unforgivable!

Gao Lanwen, who had grown up with flattery, was very sure of one thing at this moment.

She could not tolerate the existence of such a man!

Just as she was thinking about how to vent her anger, Gao Lanwen suddenly realized that Liu Weining had followed Jiang Beiran down the stairs like a stalker.

"Ning-Ning!"

Gao Lanwen suddenly shouted.

Liu Weining turned her head to look at Gao Lanwen, but her body was still following closely behind Jiang Bei.

"Come back!" Gao Lanwen shouted.

Liu Weining shook her head and pointed at Jiang Beiran." "He has a precious jade on him. It's a very, very good precious jade."

"Bang!" Gao Lanwen slammed the table." Don't tell me the gems in our museum aren't enough for you to see?!" Come back!"

“No, no, no. It’s different.” Liu Weining shook her head again. “His jade smells so good. I want to take a look.””

Gao Lanwen was already in a fit of anger, but her disciple was still disobedient. She even said in front of her that the kid who made her angry just now had a better jade than theirs.

How could she tolerate this?

“Dong! Thump! Dong!”

Gao Lanwen walked down the stairs and reached out to grab Liu Weining, who was about to follow Jiang Beiran out the door.

“Come back here!”

Liu Weining, who was grabbed by the shoulder, became anxious and shouted, “I want to see! I want to see!”

Feeling two pairs of eyes on his back, Jiang Beiran sighed and concluded.

‘The women here are all abnormal.’

On the way to the next building, Shi Hongfang glanced at Jiang Beiran and said, “Didn’t you say you were afraid of death? You didn’t look like it just now.”

Jiang Beiran glanced back at Shi Hongfang and replied, “Sometimes, taking a step back will only make you die faster.”

“Yes.” Shi Hongfang rubbed his chin, feeling that Jiang Beiran’s words had a deeper meaning.

“Then how do you know when to advance and when to retreat?”

Jiang Beiran shook his head.” It depends on the person.”

“Oh?” Shi Hongfang widened his eyes.” You mean, you’ve seen through Director

Chapter 545: Work?

That night, Shi Hongfang brought Jiang Beiran out for a barbecue.

Jiang Beiran couldn't tell what kind of meat it was when he took the first bite. After asking, he realized that it was actually sandalwood.

Although he didn't know what it was, it didn't stop him from thinking that the meat was delicious.

After finishing the roast meat, Shi Hongfang suddenly turned to Jiang Beiran and asked, ""Beiran, are you really able to endure it, or are you really not curious at all?"

“May I know what Senior is saying?”

“Aren’t you curious why I was the one who found you and not Lan ‘er’s father?”

“I believe that I will know when I should know.”

“Hahaha, you will know when you should know. If all the juniors in our clan had your temperament, I wonder how many coffins we could buy less.”

Shi Hongfang nodded in satisfaction and continued walking forward.”In that case, I’ll be a little more at ease handing Lan ‘er over to you.”

“Huh?”

“There’s something wrong with this!”

Although Shi Hongfang had said it casually, Jiang Beiran felt that something was amiss.

” What do you mean leave it to me? Don’t tell me you want me to be Shi Fenglan’s nanny in the future? Don’t do that. Any twenty-year-old among your

Shi family members is already a Mystic Emperor. Why are you looking for a Qi

Refinement like me to be your bodyguard?’

In addition, the question that Shi Hongfang suddenly asked him was also worth considering.

Since her uncle could come into contact with Shi Fenglan, it meant that the Shi family did not have to be so concerned about Shi Fenglan’s evil body now.

If Uncle could come, why couldn't Father?

There must be some key information that he had not told him.

However, Jiang Beiran's life creed was just like what he had said earlier. He would know when he should know, and if he knew when he shouldn't know, it would only lead to disaster.

When they returned to the residence Shi Fenglan had arranged for Jiang Beiran in the morning, Shi Hongfang smiled at Shi Fenglan, who had fallen asleep on the table.

"It seems that this girl has really waited for you for an entire day." Jiang Beiran was just about to speak when he felt another sharp pain on his back.

"Hiss..."

However, when he thought of the system's choice, Jiang Beiran did not turn around to look for the direction of the gaze.

"Hahaha! I got SSR! I'm invincible!"

Just as the two of them were about to sneak into a room further in, they heard Shi Fenglan suddenly shout in her sleep.

"Ace, Ace? What's that?" Shi Hongfang looked at Jiang Beiran with a frown.

Jiang Jiangran coughed lightly and replied, "Yes, it's a gambling method in our country."

"Bet?" Shi Hongfang frowned again. "Why is this child still learning these things? When she came back, the tattoo on her body suddenly disappeared. Her father was happy for a long time. Why did she fall in love with gambling again?"

Hearing Shi Hongfang talk about her, Jiang Beiran recalled that when he had first met Shi Fenglan, she had been known to have all kinds of drugs, smoking, drinking, and tattooing.

Now that he thought about it, she was probably like those rebellious girls, hoping to attract their parents' attention through this method.

Seeing Shi Hongfang's worried expression, Jiang Beiran explained, "It's called a gamble, but it's actually just a game."

Glancing at Jiang Beiran, Shi Hongfang seemed to have understood something and said, "Although I guessed it was you before, it seems like it was indeed you now. Originally, every time Lan 'er came back, she would carry a pipe in her mouth and a pot of hard liquor in her hand, swaggering around the city."

"However, one day, when she returned, she suddenly stopped smoking and drinking. Although she was still not very obedient, I felt much better in my heart. From the looks of it now..." "So?" Shi Hongfang smiled at Jiang Bei. "So you're the one who made Lan 'er change?"

"I don't deserve this praise. After all, I don't dare to lecture our sect's hall master. She should have suddenly learned it herself."

Shi Hongfang shook his head with a smile. "Since you say so, I'll believe you."

Come. let's talk in the inner room."

Jiang Beiran followed Shi Hongfang into the inner room. On the way, Jiang Beiran pondered over what Shi Hongfang had just said.

He had originally thought that his every move, or rather, all his interactions with Shi Fenglan, had been secretly recorded by someone. But now, it seemed that the Shi family really did not have anyone secretly protecting Shi Fenglan. Otherwise, Shi Hongfang would not have needed to rely on guessing.

Of course, it was also possible that he was lying to her.

But if it was true, then...

Was it also ordered by Gu Liang?

When they reached the inner room, Jiang Beiran took out a tea set and made Shi Hongfang a cup of black tea.

He had already said everything he needed to say throughout the day. How could Jiang Beiran not understand why Shi Hongfang had insisted on sending him back personally? He just wanted to have a sip of tea.

Shi Hongfang sat at the table with a smile. He took the teacup and said, "From tomorrow onwards, you must wait for me outside the valley at 7 AM every day.

I will bring you to Ling Long Lane."

'Daily? Isn't this like going to work?

However, when he thought about the treasures he had seen in the various pavilions today, Jiang Beiran was rather excited.

After pouring Shi Hongfang a cup of tea, Jiang Beiran said, ""Thank you for your care, Senior."

"No problem, no problem. I'm the first person to receive you, so it's only right for me to take care of you."

"There's just one thing that I need to tell Senior in advance."

Seeing how serious Jiang Beiran was, Shi Hongfang also said with a serious expression, "Speak."

“That is, once I have inspiration, I like to lock myself up and think about problems. Inspiration usually comes more suddenly, so I hope that Senior can grant me leave..”

Chapter 546: Work?(2)

“Hahaha!” Shi Hongfang laughed out loud.” I thought it was a problem. It’s easy. You’re free anyway. You don’t have to report to me even if you want to go back.”

“Thank you, Senior.” Jiang Beiran poured another cup of tea for Shi Hongfang.

Shi Hongfang took a sip from the teacup. He shook his head and was about to comment when the door was suddenly pushed open.

“Little Bei Ran, why didn’t you call me when you came back?” Shi Fenglan rubbed her eyes and said unhappily.

Turning around to look at Shi Fenglan, Jiang Beiran replied, ““I didn’t wake you up when I saw you sleeping so well.”

“Of course not. You guys continue chatting. I’ll go wash my face.” With that, he turned around and left.

After drinking another cup of tea, Shi Hongfang stood up and said, ““Let’s call it a day. Don’t forget about tomorrow at 7:00.”

“Senior, don’t worry. I’ll definitely be there on time.”

“Okay, then I’ll leave first.”

“Yes, it should be.” Jiang Beiran, who was cleaning the table, replied.

“That’s great! Let’s bet! What are we betting today?”

Seeing Shi Fenglan sitting down at the table in high spirits, Jiang Beiran didn’t dampen her spirits. After putting the tea set into his Cosmos Ring, he said, “I still have things to do tomorrow, so don’t gamble too late.”

Seeing that Little Bei Ran had agreed, Shi Fenglan naturally agreed. “Okay, okay, okay. What shall we play then?” A simulation of immortal cultivation? But wouldn’t the two of them be too bored? If he had known earlier, he would have brought Little Duo along.”

“It doesn’t matter. Two people naturally have their own way of gambling.”

Shi Fenglan’s eyes lit up as she watched Little Bei Ran take out a stack of cards with different colors. “This... Is this a new gambling method?”

“That’s right, this is called the Legend of the Mysterious Dragon.”

That night, Shi Hongfang brought Jiang Beiran out for a barbecue.

Jiang Beiran couldn't tell what kind of meat it was when he took the first bite. After asking, he realized that it was actually sandalwood.

Although he didn't know what it was, it didn't stop him from thinking that the meat was delicious.

After finishing the roast meat, Shi Hongfang suddenly turned to Jiang Beiran and asked, "Beiran, are you really able to endure it, or are you really not curious at all?"

"May I know what Senior is saying?"

"Aren't you curious why I was the one who found you and not Lan 'er's father?" "I believe that I will know when I should know."

"Hahaha, you will know when you should know. If all the juniors in our clan had your temperament, I wonder how many coffins we could buy less."

Shi Hongfang nodded in satisfaction and continued walking forward. "In that case, I'll be a little more at ease handing Lan 'er over to you."

"Huh?"

"There's something wrong with this!"

Although Shi Hongfang had said it casually, Jiang Beiran felt that something was amiss.

"What do you mean leave it to me? Don't tell me you want me to be Shi

Fenglan's nanny in the future? Don't do that. Any twenty-year-old among your

Shi family members is already a Mystic Emperor. Why are you looking for a Qi

Refinement like me to be your bodyguard?’

In addition, the question that Shi Hongfang suddenly asked him was also worth considering.

Since her uncle could come into contact with Shi Fenglan, it meant that the Shi family did not have to be so concerned about Shi Fenglan’s evil body now.

If Uncle could come, why couldn’t Father?

There must be some key information that he had not told him.

However, Jiang Beiran’s life creed was just like what he had said earlier. He would know when he should know, and if he knew when he shouldn’t know, it would only lead to disaster.

When they returned to the residence Shi Fenglan had arranged for Jiang Beiran in the morning, Shi Hongfang smiled at Shi Fenglan, who had fallen asleep on the table.

“It seems that this girl has really waited for you for an entire day.”

Jiang Beiran was just about to speak when he felt another sharp pain on his back.

“Hiss...”

However, when he thought of the system’s choice, Jiang Beiran did not turn around to look for the direction of the gaze.

“Hahaha! I got SSR! I’m invincible!”

Just as the two of them were about to sneak into a room further in, they heard Shi Fenglan suddenly shout in her sleep.

“Ace, Ace? What’s that?” Shi Hongfang looked at Jiang Beiran with a frown.

Jiang Jiangran coughed lightly and replied, “Yes, it’s a gambling method in our country.”

“Bet?” Shi Hongfang frowned again. “Why is this child still learning these things? When she came back, the tattoo on her body suddenly disappeared. Her father was happy for a long time. Why did she fall in love with gambling again?”

Hearing Shi Hongfang talk about her, Jiang Beiran recalled that when he had first met Shi Fenglan, she had been known to have all kinds of drugs, smoking, drinking, and tattooing.

Now that he thought about it, she was probably like those rebellious girls, hoping to attract their parents’ attention through this method.

Seeing Shi Hongfang’s worried expression, Jiang Beiran explained, “It’s called a gamble, but it’s actually just a game.”

Glancing at Jiang Beiran, Shi Hongfang seemed to have understood something and said, “Although I guessed it was you before, it seems like it was indeed you now. Originally, every time Lan ‘er came back, she would carry a pipe in her mouth and a pot of hard liquor in her hand, swaggering around the city.”

Chapter 547:

I’ve used up five points of Xuan Qi. I’ve played a card of Duan Zhengchun. He’s talented and elegant, and I can gain control of one of the opponent’s cards.

Your Li Mochou is mine.”

Shi Fenglan let out a scream. She had only managed to accumulate seven points of Celestial Chi with great difficulty before she managed to use the seven fee card of the world saving level. Just as she was thinking of using her innate talent to exchange for Jiang Beiran’s Xie Xun in the next round, she was snatched away by Jiang Beiran’s five fee Seven Apertures Card before she could even move.

“What? What kind of talent was this?”

Shi Fenglan shouted as she picked up Duan Zhengchun's card and looked at it.

"This skill is too useless!" Shi Fenglan slammed the table and shouted, "You actually kept such a good card for yourself!"

Picking up Duan Zhengchun from the table, Jiang Beiran replied, "" This card requires five points of Celestial Chi, but it only has one point in martial strength and one point in Vitality. If you don't use a strong female card, he'll always be stuck in my hands. Or I'll spend five points of Celestial Chi to summon a card with only one point in Vitality and martial strength. That'll be a loss."

Jiang Beiran placed Duan Zhengchun back on the table and concluded, "Therefore, great talent is often accompanied by great risks. You need to remember this."

"Oh..." After listening to Jiang Beiran's explanation, Shi Fenglan felt a little relieved. However, her heart still ached when she saw Tie Xinlan running to the opposite side.

In the end, Jiang Beiran managed to defeat Shi Fenglan's 30 HP in just two rounds despite having such a huge advantage, securing victory.

"I want that Duan Zhengchun too!"

Shi Fenglan shouted as soon as the match ended.

It was simply too difficult for her. The Iron Heart Orchid that was supposed to be killing everyone in her hands had actually helped Little Bei Ran kill two of her six-fee cards in a row. She was simply depressed to death.

"Sure." Jiang Beiran pulled out Duan Zhengchun from the deck and handed him to Shi Fenglan.

"Hehe! Let's see how I'll make you cry!"

A moment later...

“Ah! Bei Ran! Hurry up and get the female character card!” Shi Fenglan, who was holding the only card in her hand, shouted.

“Activate your talent, Lion’s Roar. In the next round, all characters with a strength value of 3 points and below will not be able to move.”

Looking at Jiang Beiran’s empty field of female characters, and then looking at the only one left in her hands, Duan Zhengchun, Shi Fenglan felt like crying.

In the end, Shi Fenglan, who had been blocked by Duan Zhengchun twice in a row, was once again drained of her Vitality and fell on the table.

After putting away the cards on the table, Jiang Beiran smiled and said, “What do you know now?”

“Again! This time, I want to make my own card!” Shi Fenglan stood up abruptly and shouted.

“Sure, but you have to take it back to the group. I just said that I have to sleep early today.”

“Ah, it’s still early. I’ll form a group faster and have another round!”

“No.” Jiang Beiran handed all the cards to Shi Fenglan. “Take them back. We’ll play again tomorrow.”

“1...”

“Humph... Stingy!” Shi Fenglan snatched the card from Jiang Beiran’s hand and ran out. Before she left, she did not forget to make a face at Jiang Beiran.

Jiang Beiran shook his head and prepared to organize the things that might be needed tomorrow.

“Little Bei Ran!”

At this moment, Shi Fenglan’s voice suddenly came from the door.

“What’s wrong?” Jiang Beiran raised his head and asked.

“You have to be here tomorrow too. Don’t run away secretly.” “That’s only if your family is willing to let me go.”

“What are you talking about? It’s as if my family kidnapped you.”

‘Is there a difference...’

Jiang Beiran cursed in his heart, then waved his hands and said, “Go back quickly.”

“Good night!”

Waving goodbye to Jiang Beiran, Shi Fenglan skipped back to her own home.

The next morning, Shi Hongfang slowly arrived at the entrance of the Ten Thousand Flower Valley in a luxurious carriage pulled by two hoes.

Opening the window, Shi Hongfang glanced at Jiang Beiran, who was already waiting for him. He waved at him and said, “Come on up.”

‘Big families really have their cards...He actually used a pike to pull the carriage.’

It was dressed like a white horse, with a single horn on its head and a fiery red mane on its back. It was an extremely fast mutated beast.

The most special thing about Huanhuan was that it was born with the ability to avoid fire. When riding it through a sea of fire, not only was it unharmed, but the bigger the fire, the faster it ran.

Noticing that Jiang Beiran was sizing them up, the two birds raised their necks and snorted, muttering, "Where did this little brat come from? He doesn't have any mystic qi on him at all. Let's see how this grandpa scares him later."

After hearing that, the other one laughed and said, "Alright, how can such a weak human be worthy of sitting in a carriage pulled by us? He won't die from fright!"

Looking at the two scornful eyes, Jiang Beiran adjusted his expression and looked at Shi Hongfang with an exaggerated look of surprise. "Senior, is this the Fire-repelling Divine Beast, Huanhuan?"

Having stayed in the Shi family for a hundred years, the two pythons could already understand human language. When they heard Jiang Beiran praising them, they could not help but feel proud.

"Tsk tsk. look at how inexperienced he is."

"Yeah, I don't know where this country bumpkin came from."

Shi Hongfang nodded and smiled. "That's right. It's Huanhuan. It's a seventh-grade Huanhuan. My grandfather brought it back."

A seventh-tier exotic beast's strength was about the same as a Mystic

Emperor's. It could be said to be quite extravagant to use it as a mount. However, it was still a top-notch aristocratic family after all. This bit of prestige was still needed..

Chapter 548: Soulsqn

Looking at the two furry birds 'increasingly smug expressions, Jiang Beiran walked around them and said,""Incredible, incredible. This should be the legendary Purple -Eyed Flying Dragon."

"Oh?" Shi Hongfang looked at Jiang Beiran in surprise." I didn't know you had such knowledge.""

Even in Tong Country, Huanhuan was not a common exotic beast, let alone in a small country like Sheng Country.

'To be able to gain such insight and knowledge, As expected, he was not an ordinary person from the country of Cheng.'

He nodded in satisfaction. Since Jiang Beiran was willing to reveal this, it meant that he was no longer hiding anything and was willing to cooperate obediently.

"Rumor has it that grinding the horn of the Purple-Eyed Flying Dragon into powder and swallowing it can prolong one's life, and one's perception of the spiritual energy between heaven and earth will also become stronger."

Shi Hongfang frowned." Where did you hear that from?"

"My master said so."

"Your master?" To be able to teach a strange talent like Jiang Beiran and to keep a low profile, Shi Hongfang had long imagined this man to be a highly achieved person. Hence, since he was the one who said it, Shi Hongfang more or less believed him.

Meanwhile, the two Huanhuan who could understand Jiang Beiran's words had already started cursing.

"What nonsense is this brat spouting! Who said our horns could be ground into powder and eaten!"

“That’s right! Big brother, use your horn to poke him and make him talk nonsense.”

“Why don’t you go and take over?”

“You’re the one who’s close.”

While the two birds were discussing who would be the next one to take over, Jiang Beiran cupped his fists and said, “It’s my master. My master has done a lot of research on these fire-repelling divine beasts and taught me how to completely remove their horns.”

“Oh? You still have the ability?”

Chapter 549:

“Director Gao, I’ll have to trouble you to put in a lot of effort for this Spirit

Stone Exhibition. My father values this exchange very much. At that time, he should be inviting many celebrities. Director Gao, Director Gao?”

Following Gao Lanwen’s gaze, Shi Hongfang realized that she was staring at Jiang Beiran.

“Director Gao.” Shi Hongfang waved his hand in front of Gao Lanwen’s eyes and shouted.

Only then did Gao Lanwen react. She turned her head and asked,“”What is it?”

“I said...” Shi Hongfang thought about it and decided not to say anything.” Is Director Gao still angry at Jiang Beiran?”

“Him? He’s not qualified enough to make me angry.” Gao Lanwen said disdainfully.

“Alright, then I hope that you won’t hold a grudge against him. You two will have a lot of things to work together in the future.”

“Him? Cooperation?” Gao Lanwen was stunned.” What’s there to work with him

“The ancestor wants him to perform more in the Ling Long Workshop, and isn’t it up to you, Hall Master Gao, to decide? Therefore, he will inevitably come to trouble you in the future.”

“Show off here?” Gao Lanwen frowned.

Jiang Beiran looked like a kid in his early twenties. What could he possibly do in Ling Long Workshop, which was filled with masters? To show how insignificant he was?

As she was thinking, Gao Lanwen, who had her eyes fixed on Jiang Beiran, suddenly noticed him shaking his head with a piece of protective jade.

Gao Lanwen stood up abruptly and shouted at Jiang Beiran, “Hey, why are you shaking your head? Are you looking down on my Heng Ya Zhai’s jade?” However, Jiang Beiran ignored her and continued to look at the jade.

Gao Lanwen, who was ignored, became even angrier. She rushed to Jiang

Beiran’s back and grabbed his shoulder. “I’m asking you a question. Can’t you hear me?”

Jiang Beiran glanced at her and replied, “First of all, I don’t call you hello. Second, why do I have to answer you when you call me?”

“You... You... You!”

Gao Lanwen, who had been living a smooth life all her life, was a little angry.

For a moment, she didn't know how to retort.

Ignoring Gao Lanwen's flushed face, Jiang Beiran picked up another piece of Heavenly Dao Jade and examined it. A moment later, he shook his head and put it down again.

Picking up the piece of Heavenly Dao Jade that Jiang Beiran had put down, Gao Lanwen looked straight at Jiang Beiran and asked, "Come! Tell me, what's wrong with this Heavenly Dao Jade?"

"No problem." Jiang Beiran answered casually.

"Then why did you shake your head?"

"I'm just used to it."

"Heh, I think you're just dissatisfied with the jade of my Heng Ya Zhai.

Looking at the pestering Gao Lanwen, Jiang Beiran also felt that this woman's brain was a little bit dirty. It was not just because she was used to being flattered or licked, she really couldn't go against her words.

"I'm spoiled!"

"If Director Gao doesn't want me to go out, just leave me an extra portion of food."

"Who...Who doesn't want you to leave? Why are you so thick-skinned?"

Seeing that the two of them were quarreling again, Shi Hongfang hurriedly ran over to smooth things over and said, "Alright, alright, there's no need to get angry over such a small matter." "Beiran," he said, looking at Jiang Beiran. "Since the director asked why you shook your head, just tell her the reason.

[Option 1: Muddle through. [Completion Reward: Crane Cry Gu Scroll (Earth Grade Low-Rank)]

[Option 2: Tell me the real reason. [Completion Reward: Random Basic

Attribute Point +1]

'Tsk, you're going to show off so soon.'

Seeing the two options that popped up in the system, Jiang Beiran knew that he had to throw out some "useful information". Otherwise, it would be difficult to end the situation.

After choosing the second option, Jiang Beiran picked up the protective jade and said, "If I'm not mistaken, is this Dragon Stream Jade?"

"Yes, it's the Dragon Stream Jade." Gao Lanwen nodded.

"Longxi Jade is a type of green jade. It has the effect of making people energetic and driving away evil. It's very good to be used as a protective jade. However, if you let me do it, I will use the double-hook grinding method to carve it. This way, the jade carved can release more calming power."

[Mission completed. Reward: Spirit +1]

"Double Hook Crushing Technique?" Gao Lanwen frowned again. "What are you talking about?" Since you know that Longxi Jade is a type of green jade, you should know that green jade is hard. You need to soften it first with the nephrite method, then cut it into shape with a chisel. I've never heard of your double-hook grinding method."

Jiang Beiran was surprised to hear that Gao Lanwen had never heard of the double-hook grinding method.

After all, although this woman had some problems with her brain, her strength was definitely that of an Eighth Grade Jade Refinement Master. Otherwise, she would not have been invited by the Shi family.

In order to become a Grade Eight Jade Refinement Master, one would undoubtedly have to be proficient in all kinds of jade refinement techniques. There was no reason why he had never heard of the Double Hook Grinding

Technique.

'Could it be...'

"Director Gao, I'll have to trouble you to put in a lot of effort for this Spirit Stone Exhibition. My father values this exchange very much. At that time, he should be inviting many celebrities. Director Gao, Director Gao?"

Chapter 550: Don't Become Handsome Again!_I

'The Dragon Stream Jade carved like this actually has the effect of suppressing spirits... It's far stronger than the Dragon Stream Jade made using the nephrite method. It's really a rare and ingenious technique. Where did he learn it from...'

Gao Lanwen studied the Longxi Jade in her hand carefully, marveling at its exquisiteness in her heart.

Although Gao Lanwen wanted to ask for advice on the gorgeous skills that she had never seen before... No, he had asked Jiang Beiran about it, but the pride in her heart had rejected such a thought.

Shi Hongfang, who was sitting next to Gao Lanwen, felt that his chance to show off had come!

Standing up and walking to Jiang Beiran's side, Shi Hongfang said in a low voice that was loud enough to reach Gao Lanwen's ears,""Bei Ran, the old ancestor was right about you. Not only did you set up a formation that even the old man praised, but you also displayed a skill that even Director Gao has never seen before."

"Senior, you flatter me. I only know some techniques that are rarely known."

"You don't have to be humble in front of me. How about I make a deal with you?"

"Senior, if you have anything to say, you can just give the order."

"Heh." Shi Hongfang snorted with his nose." Don't. Do you think I don't know you? If I don't give you some benefits, I'm afraid you won't give it your all." "Then Senior has really misjudged me."

"There's no need to say more." Stopping Jiang Beiran from continuing, Shi

Hongfang leaned in and whispered,""You want the K itigarbha True Crystal?"

“You already know about this?”

However, Jiang Beiran had previously made a guess that the Shi family was not monitoring him, and the possibility was very high. As for how Shi Hongfang knew that he needed the Earth Bodhisattva Vital Crystal...

‘It probably guessed it when Shi Fenglan stole it from home.’

[Option 1: “Absolutely not.” [Completion Reward: White Phoenix Divine Seal (Earth Grade Low-Rank)]]

[Choice 2: “Senior, how did you know?” [Completion Reward: Elixir Heart Technique (Mysterious Grade Mid-Rank)]]

[Choice 3: “Senior, you’re really good at predicting things. I really need the K $ itigarbha True Crystal.” [Completion Reward: Random Basic Attribute Point +1]]

After looking through the three options, Jiang Beiran chose the bottom three and replied, “Senior, you are truly wise. This junior really needs the K itigarbha True Crystal.”

[Mission completed. Reward: Agility +1]

“Hmm?”

Shi Hongfang had not expected Jiang Beiran to agree so readily. He had thought that even if Jiang Beiran did not pretend to be dumb, he would at least hide something.

Initially, Shi Hongfang had thought that if Jiang Beiran continued to hide, he would give him some difficult questions to let him know that if he wanted to obtain the treasure in the Shi family, he had to build a good relationship with him first.

To build a good relationship, sincerity was of course the most important.

However, he did not expect Jiang Beiran to not hide anything this time. He did not even have the intention to refuse. He directly expressed his strong desire.

'Is this what he meant by retreating when it's time to retreat and advancing when it's time to advance? There's indeed some skill...

But no matter what, this was a sign of Jiang Beiran's goodwill towards him.

Shi Hongfang nodded in satisfaction and said, "Alright, since you want it, I'll use it as a bargaining chip to make this deal with you."

Although he already knew what Shi Hongfang wanted to do, Jiang Beiran still pretended not to know and asked, "May I know what Senior needs my help with?" "Go and talk to Director Gao about the Double Hook Grinding Method."

'Good fellow...'

Although Jiang Beiran had already guessed what Shi Hongfang was up to, he still felt a little emotional when he thought about how this man was really going to use a precious treasure from the List of Rare Treasures to pick up girls.

"You people from big families really spend a lot of money to pick up girls!"

Jiang Beiran, who was complaining in his heart, cupped his hands at Shi Hongfang and said, "This is just a small matter. It really isn't worth a K itigarbha True Crystal, so I really don't dare to accept it."

"If I say you can take it, then you can. Besides, the deal doesn't end here. There are other things for you to do next." "In that case...Junior understands."

"Alright, then go quickly."

Shi Hongfang had indeed controlled his voice very well. Gao Lanwen had indeed heard their conversation very clearly, word for word.

Therefore, when Jiang Beiran walked towards her, Gao Lanwen immediately pretended to be looking at the jade seriously, as if she had not heard their conversation.

“Director Gao.” Jiang Beiran walked up to Gao Lanwen and cupped his hands.

“What is it?” Gao Lanwen slowly raised her head and asked.

“You seem to be very interested in this Double Hook Grinding Method. Why don’t you...”

“Who said I was interested in your technique?” Without waiting for Jiang Beiran to finish, Gao Lanwen replied disdainfully, “Your technique is indeed quite outstanding at first sight, but if you think about it carefully, it’s actually not much different from the Scythe Technique. It’s just that the way you perform it is different.”

Gao Lanwen replied with a hint of satisfaction. Although she had not figured out the essence of Jiang Beiran’s technique, she was a dignified Grade Eight Jade Refinement Master. How could she ask for advice from an unknown kid?

If word got out, she would lose all her face.

As soon as Gao Lanwen finished speaking, three options popped up in front of Jiang Beiran.

[Choice 1: Debate with Gao Lanwen about the difference between the two techniques. [Completion Reward: Water Cloud Ghost Scroll (Mysterious Grade Mid-Rank)]

[Option 2: “Since Director Gao is not interested, I will take my leave. “[Completion Reward: Random Basic Attribute Point +1]

Jiang Beiran comfortably chose the second option and replied, ""Since Director Gao is not interested, I will take my leave..""
