Chapter 561: Strange Child and Strange Uncle (2)

"The kowtow society's order, Yang Lei Jun, split into five earth gods, drive the horse... What curse is this?"

The more Shi Jiamu read, the stranger she felt. She looked up and asked Jiang Beiran.

"After chanting the incantation, I can make a paper figurine that belongs to you. Once you break your oath, I can use a needle to prick the small paper figurine and make you unable to speak."

"Tsk, I don't believe you." Shi Jiamu said disdainfully.

"Then you can continue reading."

"I'll read it!"

"When the Horse God drum sounds, send true qi into my body."

"Wherever you call, you can sense it, and you can hear it within a hundred miles. "

"I'm done." Shi Jiamu said as she returned the parchment to Jiang Beiran.

"There's more on the back."

"The back?" Frowning, Shi Jiamu flipped the parchment over and looked at the densely packed words on it. "Why are there so many vows!"

“If you think it’s too much, you can skip it.”

“I have to read it? I want to know what secret you have to hide so well.”

Although it was a dangerous thought, Jiang Beiran did not care. As long as Shi Jiamu finished her oath, she would be completely under his control. It did not matter even if she knew a little of his secrets.

After half an incense stick of time, Shi Jiamu finally finished reciting the oath.

“Can I go in now?” Shi Jiamu handed the parchment back to Jiang Beiran.

“Sure.” Jiang Beiran stepped aside after he finished speaking.

After coming up with a rough idea, he felt that he had the ability to set it up.

However, when he really started operating it, he realized that it was a very dangerous place.

Too much! Difficult! It was over!

Qimen Dunjia had a total of 4,320 games. The calculation method was to divide a year into eight sections according to the number of eight trigrams. Each section had three qi, and each qi had three Hou.

There were seventy-two seasons in a year, and each season had five days.

In this way, there were 360 days in a year and 12 hours in a day. In total, there would be 4,320 situations in a year.

In other words, Qimen Dun Jia was actually a method of algebra.

What was it? He calculated the wonders of the Eight Trigrams and Five Elements.

Take Qian from the Eight Trigrams as an example.

Its five elements were gold, its orientation was northwest, and its earthly branch was Xuhai, which meant heaven. It represented the oldest member of the family, and its body organs represented the head.

The five elements of Zhen were wood, the direction was east, the earthly branch was mao, the meaning was thunder, the family represented the eldest son, and the body organs were limbs and waist.

Just the Eight Trigrams alone had these variables, but this was just the beginning.

Ten days later, new data was added.

For example, Ren is the north, the five elements are yang water, the four seasons are winter, the color is black, the five internal organs are the bladder, the body parts are the shin, the mutual restriction is C, and the combination is the son.

Next, there were the nine stars, eight gates, eight gods, and the twelve earthly branches that contained all the symbols of the fifty-five Qimen Dunjia.

With such a huge amount of data, it was easy for Jiang Beiran to solve the problem by relying on the information he had in his head. However, when he had to calculate it himself, his scalp would go numb.

Jiang Beiran let out a long sigh and got up to take a big gulp of water in his room.

Rubbing his temples, Jiang Beiran felt that he still had to go to the Fei Mansion to study it, or else it would undoubtedly increase the difficulty of the problem by relying on "brain modeling" alone.

"Bang bang bang! Little Bei Ran opened the door! Open the door!"

Speaking of the devil, he was just thinking about Shi Fenglan when she came back.

Putting down the teacup, Jiang Beiran walked over and opened the door.

'Did I open the door wrongly today...'

The moment he opened the door, Jiang Beiran saw a little girl standing in front of her. She looked like she was in her golden years, but she didn't look angry at all. She was sizing him up.

While Jiang Beiran was still in a daze, Shi Fenglan introduced, "Little Beiran, let me introduce you. This is my niece. Her name is Shi Jiamu, and her nickname is Momo. She's very close to me!"

'Playmate...'

Seeing that Jiang Beiran had no reaction, Shi Jiamu said, "Uncle, you're very rude. My aunt introduced me to you. Can't you at least say hello?"

"Oh, hello." Jiang Beiran looked at Shi Jiamu and nodded.

Seeing that Jiang Beiran had really greeted her, Shi Jiamu was a little confused. She had thought that he would be disdainful or scold her, but he had chosen the most unlikely answer.

'Weirdo...'

Shi Jiamu instantly labeled Jiang Beiran with a label in her heart. "Little Beiran, can I bring this kiss in? She's very obedient.'

“Good?”

Jiang Beiran did not notice. Although they had only met briefly, Jiang Beiran already felt that this little girl was quite difficult to deal with.

At the same time, the system options popped up.

[Option 1: ‘No’. [Completion Reward: Exquisite Thunder Scroll (Earth Grade Low-Rank)]

[Option 2: “Yes.” [Completion Reward: Purple Mountain Charm Manual (Mysterious Grade Mid-Rank)]

[Choice 3: “How obedient?” [Completion Reward: Random Basic Attribute Point

“Hmm?”

From the three choices, Jiang Beiran read two pieces of information.

Firstly, this little girl would most likely affect him in the future. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have rejected her offer of a low-level Earth Grade. Secondly, this little girl was indeed very difficult to deal with. He couldn’t agree or disagree. He had to do something fancy to make this little brat behave.

With this realization in mind, Jiang Beiran chose the third option and asked with interest, “How obedient?” [Mission completed. Reward: Luck +1]

“Wuhu!”

Seeing that his luck had increased a little, Jiang Beiran’s mood immediately soared, and his expression when he looked at Shi Jiamu softened a little.

Although there was no evidence, Jiang Beiran felt that this little brat would bring him good luck.

“Sigh...” Shi Fenglan was stunned. She looked at Shi Jiamu and said hesitantly, “How obedient...”

Without waiting for Shi Fenglan to come up with an explanation, Shi Jiamu answered, “I will sit properly after I enter. I will not tell anyone what I have seen or heard. If you are worried, I can swear now.”

“As expected of a strange child.”

However, according to the options given by the system, if he followed her rhythm, he would lose when dealing with this strange child.

Hence, Jiang Beiran nodded his head and took out a piece of parchment from his Interspatial Ring. He handed it to Shi Jiamu and said, “Very good. Read the oath according to the above.”

‘As expected of a strange uncle...’

Shi Jiamu had always thought that she was the only one who could give those people a headache. She did not expect to meet an adult who could give her a headache.

‘The world is indeed big and full of wonders.’

“I’ll read it.”

Snatching the parchment from Jiang Beiran’s hands, Shi Jiamu began to read from it.

“The kowtow society’s order, Yang Lei Jun, split into five earth gods, drive the horse... What curse is this?”

The more Shi Jiamu read, the stranger she felt. She looked up and asked Jiang Beiran.

“After chanting the incantation, I can make a paper figurine that belongs to you. Once you break your oath, I can use a needle to prick the small paper figurine and make you unable to speak.”

Chapter 562: Academic Need Discussion (1)

Cards meet opponents, gambling meets good talent.

It was rare for Jiang Beiran to meet an opponent who played cards with his brain, so he was having a great time.

However, when it was almost noon, Jiang Beiran put down his cards and said, “Let’s stop here.”

At this moment, Shi Jiamu already had three sets of her own cards and was addicted to playing. How could she be willing to do it? She shouted, “That’s not even close. Let’s have another round.”

“You can play with Hall Master Shi.” Jiang Beiran had already stood up.” After saying that, he gave his card set to Shi Fenglan.

Shi Fenglan, who had received the card set, was unusually excited. She had been watching the whole night and was already itching to get it.

“Let me enter the Fei Mansion before playing.”

“Alright, let’s go in together.”

As soon as Shi Fenglan finished speaking, the three of them instantly arrived at her Flying Mansion.

Glancing at Shi Jiamu, Jiang Beiran said, “Stay on the first floor and play. You’re not allowed to come to the study on the second floor.”

"I know, I know." Shi Jiamu nodded.

Seeing how eager he was to sit down at the mahjong table and try to get rid of the two of them, Jiang Beiran turned around and walked towards the second floor. However, just as he was about to step onto the stairs, he suddenly turned his head and used his spiritual power to test Shi Jiamu's cultivation.

'Xuan...King?

Jiang Beiran suddenly felt his head buzzing. Although he had already sensed that the younger generation of the Shi family had all grown up on elixirs, they couldn't possibly be Mystic Kings at such a young age, could they?

Would he let the others live?

Could it be Tong Yan?

However, Jiang Beiran wasn't interested enough to get to the bottom of it. After all, it didn't matter whether she was a teenage Mystic King or a twenty- thirty-year-old Mystic King Tongyan.

Arriving at the study on the second floor, Jiang Beiran sat down cross-legged and heaved a sigh of relief.

'As expected, it's easier to think in the eye of the formation.'

With the experience of his previous failure, Jiang Beiran no longer just tried to understand the construction of these formations on the surface. Instead, he wanted to find a way to grasp the source and understand the principles behind them.

However, it was easier said than done. In this huge and delicate Flying Mansion, finding such a source was no different from finding a needle in a haystack.

'It's definitely not possible to find it by force...He had to sort out some ideas first.'

Soon, the day had passed. Jiang Beiran, who felt his head burning, rubbed his temples and decided to go out and rest for a while.

“Thump, thump, thump...”

Jiang Beiran had just reached the first floor when he heard Shi Jiamu shouting.

“Uncle! You’re finally down.”

Glancing at her, he yawned and said, “What’s the matter?”

“Come and bet on cards. Little Aunt is too weak. Even if you win, she won’t feel anything.”

“You’re the weak one!” Shi Fenglan shouted indignantly.

“How many rounds did you win today?”

“Then...That’s...” Shi Fenglan, who had only won two rounds with her spirit draw, stomped her foot and shouted at Jiang Beiran, “Little Bei Ran! She bullied me!”

Isn’t she the fighter you hired?’

Jiang Beiran didn’t say this out loud. Instead, he walked to Shi Fenglan’s side and said, “Take me out. I have something to do.”

Shi Fenglan could only reply with an “oh” and teleport out of the Fei Residence with Jiang Beiran and Shi Jiamu.

“Uncle, let’s bet two rounds before we leave.” “You two stay here and play. I still have things to do.”

Jiang Beiran pushed the door open and left.

After a whole afternoon of research, Jiang Beiran realized that he still needed to explore the concept of "academics". If he were to think about it alone, it would be easy for him to get into a dead end.

Therefore, after thinking about it, he still decided to find someone to discuss the problem of array formations.

It just so happened that he had finished writing the "Array Book". He could send it to Gao Lanwen and visit the master of the Array Hall in Linglong Lane on the way.

Having made up his mind, Jiang Beiran went to look for Shi Hongfang.

After all, Ling Long Workshop was one of the important places of the Shi family. As an outsider, he definitely could not walk around casually. He had to be led by Shi Hongfang.

"Whoa, what a rare guest."

When he saw Jiang Beiran paying him a visit, Shi Hongfang laughed and shouted.

However, he hesitated when he was about to call out the name 'Beiran'.

The reason why he hadn't gone to look for Jiang Beiran for such a long time was not only because he was helping Gao Lanwen compile books, but also because he was becoming more and more uncertain about Jiang Beiran's identity after the last conversation with the old ancestor.

At the moment, he felt that it was most likely the reincarnation of a Saint.

The so-called reincarnation of a saint was when some powerful cultivators realized that their lifespan was about to end or that they were seriously injured and on the verge of death, they would use a technique to reincarnate their souls.

After successfully reincarnating, he would not immediately recall the events of his previous life. Instead, he would slowly recall them.

Because this process was very long, most Reincarnators would choose to keep a low profile.

Some were afraid of being discovered by their enemies, some understood the dangers of this world, and some simply wanted to make a fortune in silence. It was not easy for them to live again, so they naturally had to be cautious.

Jiang Beiran, on the other hand, was very much in line with the characteristics of the reincarnation of a saint.

He had great abilities but was unusually low-key. He was clearly only a young man with a cultivation of only the fifth level of Qi Refinement, but he was still calm when facing a Mystique Venerable or even a Mystique Sage. It was as if they had already dealt with each other.

In the past, Shi Hongfang had not thought so much about it. But now, he felt that the combination of these conditions was undoubtedly Jiang Beiran.

At the thought of the possibility that Jiang Beiran was the reincarnation of a Saint, Shi Hongfang suddenly felt that his next task would not be so easy..

Chapter 563: Academic Need Discussion (2)

If Jiang Beiran was really the reincarnation of a saint, even the sect master would have to give him some face, let alone him. He could only worship him.”

However, a guess was still a guess, and Shi Hongfang was not frightened by his own guess.

Therefore, after thinking for a moment, Shi Hongfang still laughed and said, "Why are you looking for me today?"

"Hall Master Gao has already finished writing the book on formations. I'll have to trouble Senior to lead the way so that I can enter the Exquisite Workshop."

Chapter 564: You Are the Most Powerful Person I Have Ever Seen

Compared to Heng Ya Zhai, which was filled with gold and jade, Taiyi Pavilion was much more metaphysical. Just from the decoration, one could tell that the owner of this pavilion was a person who was proficient in Feng Shui.

Feng Shui was also known as Geomancy. The former represented the Heavenly Dao, while the latter represented the Dao.

Therefore, in simple terms, Feng Shui was about how people could live in harmony with heaven and earth.

As the saying went, those who obeyed the heavens would prosper, and those who defied the heavens would perish. Of course, the protagonist did not count.

The five elements were the most easily accessible forces of heaven and earth in daily life, so the boundaries of geomancy, metal, wood, water, fire, and earth were moved to the corresponding geographical areas.

For example, the living room was metal, the bedroom was earth, the kitchen was fire, the toilet was water, the study was wood, and so on.

The reason why he could tell that the owner of the hall was proficient in Feng Shui was because the hall had a wide view, sufficient lighting, and gorgeous decorations. The furnishings were much more magnificent than other places.

The living room was made of gold, which was gorgeous and eye-catching, so the layout was very fitting.

Not only that, but many details in the living room were also very perfect

As Jiang Beiran looked around the living room on the second floor, Lu Yangyu was also mumbling something.

“Stepping on the Three Aether, Carrying Water, Prosperous Fire, Creating Metal Luck...Hmm, you are indeed someone who knows your stuff.”

Lu Yangyu took off his bamboo hat and said,“Everyone, please take a seat.”

This time, Jiang Beiran did not intend to hide his strength. He sat directly in the center of the array in the living room, making a splendid contrast with Lu Yangyu’s host seat.

As soon as he sat down, Jiang Beiran noticed that Lu Yangyu had opened his tightly shut eyes.

‘Gray...’

That’s right. When Lu Yangyu opened his eyes, there were no eyeballs or whites, only a deep gray color.

Smiling at Jiang Beiran, Lu Yangyu said,“Little friend, you are indeed capable.

No wonder you could get Director Gao to personally bring you to see me.”

Lu Yangyu closed his eyes again after he finished speaking, and his face turned back to that kind uncle.

Although he was curious about why Lu Yangyu had opened his "eyes" to look at him, Jiang Beiran did not ask. Instead, he smiled and replied, "The reason why I asked Director Gao to bring me here this time is because I want to ask you about some array formations."

"I don't dare to ask for advice. Since you can get Director Gao and Estate Master Shi to personally recommend you, you must have extraordinary skills. Perhaps I'll be the one asking for advice in the end."

"You're too polite, Head Lu."

After some small talk, Gao Lanwen saw that Master Jiang and Lu Yangyu had gotten to know each other, so she stood up and said to Jiang Beiran, "Since there's nothing I can help with here, I'll take my leave first."

Hearing Gao Lanwen's tone and content, Lu Yangyu raised his eyebrows.

This Gao Lanwen was famous for her arrogance in Ling Long Workshop. How could she be so humble to this young man?

'Hiss... I have to think of a way to get this kid to teach me.'

Seeing how tactful Gao Lanwen was, Jiang Beiran nodded in satisfaction."

Alright, go ahead."

Seeing Gao Lanwen leave, Shi Hongfang really wanted to follow her. However, he still had the responsibility of "accompanying" Jiang Beiran, so he was caught in a dilemma.

Senior," Jiang Beiran said. "If you have something important to do, you can go ahead. I'll be staying here for a while."

Shi Hongfang hesitated for a moment after listening to Jiang Beiran's words. He thought that Jiang Beiran was already considered a distinguished guest of the Great Ancestor, and it should not be a big deal for him to move freely in the Exquisite Workshop. Even if the Great Ancestor knew about it, he should not blame him.

With this thought in mind, Shi Hongfang nodded at Jiang Beiran and said, "Then I won't disturb your discussion. Just let me know when you're leaving."

"Yes, take care, senior."

Nodding, Shi Hongfang bid farewell to Lu Yangyu and went downstairs.

After Shi Hongfang left, Lu Yangyu suddenly turned to Jiang Beiran and said with a smile, "Impressive, impressive. I've been in Ling Long Workshop for thirty years, and you're the most impressive person I've ever seen. Even I have to admit that I admire you."

"Why do you say that, Head Lu?"

Firstly, you were able to convince Gao Lanwen, which means that you have surpassed her in the art of refining jade. Just this point alone is enough to call you a genius. Secondly, since she brought you to me, it means that you have a very high attainment in the art of formations. Otherwise, you wouldn't have come to me directly to discuss. As for the third..."

Lu Yangyu paused for a moment before continuing, "Linglong Square is an important place of the Shi family. Outsiders are not allowed to set foot in it. I have never seen you before, which means that you have just arrived. If Estate Master Shi had been accompanying you, I would not have treated you as a noble young master from any big family. However, now that Estate Master Shi has left with ease, I am a little confused about your identity. Who exactly are you?"

"Head Lu, you must be joking. I'm just a commoner. What you said just now was all obtained by chance by me."

"Alright, since you like to hide, let's continue chatting like this. Why are you looking for me?"

“Let’s talk about the Eight Trigrams and exchange some insights into formations.” “Is it that simple?”

Following a soft voice, a young girl dressed as a maid walked up..

Chapter 565: You ‘re the Most Powerful Person I’ve Seen (2)

“Go prepare some wine and food.”

“Yes.” Youer gave him a bow, turned around, and walked downstairs.

After Youren left, Lu Yangyu stood up and said, “Where would you like to start,

Master Jiang?”

Jiang Beiran thought for a moment and replied, “How about we start with the formation Lian Jie?”

Lu Yangyu was stunned for a moment before he burst into laughter. “Hahaha, master, you’re really a master. This spell is the supreme spell of spell formation. Even my half-immortal master has only just begun to understand it. If you want to talk to me about this, I’m afraid you’ve found the wrong person.”

” This intertwining array is actually so high-end?’

Jiang Beiran had never come into contact with any high-end array masters. Usually, those array masters would also keep their own ultimate arts hidden and would not reveal them to outsiders.

Therefore, Jiang Beiran had no way to find out how advanced certain spells were.

Judging from Lu Yangyu's reaction, at the very least, this array formation cleaning technique should be a top-notch array formation technique.

'No wonder I don't have enough array points...So it hit the ceiling.'

However, Jiang Beiran was once again interested in the master who had created Shi Fenglan's Flying Mansion. He had top-notch formation techniques and was proficient in the art of the universe, mechanisms, and refining. He was practically an all-rounder in the world.

'Or... This Fei Mansion wasn't created by a single person?'

Feng Shui was also known as Geomancy. The former represented the Heavenly Dao, while the latter represented the Dao.

Therefore, in simple terms, Feng Shui was about how people could live in harmony with heaven and earth.

As the saying went, those who obeyed the heavens would prosper, and those who defied the heavens would perish. Of course, the protagonist did not count.

The five elements were the most easily accessible forces of heaven and earth in daily life, so the boundaries of geomancy, metal, wood, water, fire, and earth were moved to the corresponding geographical areas.

For example, the living room was metal, the bedroom was earth, the kitchen was fire, the toilet was water, the study was wood, and so on.

The reason why he could tell that the owner of the hall was proficient in Feng Shui was because the hall had a wide view, sufficient lighting, and gorgeous decorations. The furnishings were much more magnificent than other places.

The living room was made of gold, which was gorgeous and eye-catching, so the layout was very fitting.

Not only that, but many details in the living room were also very perfect. For example, water could drain the energy of metal, so there was nothing related to water in the living room, let alone a narrow, damp corner.

As Jiang Beiran looked around the living room on the second floor, Lu Yangyu was also mumbling something.

“Stepping on the Three Aether, Carrying Water, Prosperous Fire, Creating Metal Luck...Hmm, you are indeed someone who knows your stuff.”

Lu Yangyu took off his bamboo hat and said, ““Everyone, please take a seat.”

This time, Jiang Beiran did not intend to hide his strength. He sat directly in the center of the array in the living room, making a splendid contrast with Lu Yangyu’s host seat.

As soon as he sat down, Jiang Beiran noticed that Lu Yangyu had opened his tightly shut eyes.

‘Gray...’

That's right. When Lu Yangyu opened his eyes, there were no eyeballs or whites, only a deep gray color.

Smiling at Jiang Beiran, Lu Yangyu said, "Little friend, you are indeed capable.

No wonder you could get Director Gao to personally bring you to see me."

Lu Yangyu closed his eyes again after he finished speaking, and his face turned back to that kind uncle.

Although he was curious about why Lu Yangyu had opened his "eyes" to look at him, Jiang Beiran did not ask. Instead, he smiled and replied, "The reason why I asked Director Gao to bring me here this time is because I want to ask you about some array formations."

"I don't dare to ask for advice. Since you can get Director Gao and Estate Master Shi to personally recommend you, you must have extraordinary skills. Perhaps I'll be the one asking for advice in the end."

"You're too polite, Head Lu."

After some small talk, Gao Lanwen saw that Master Jiang and Lu Yangyu had gotten to know each other, so she stood up and said to Jiang Beiran, "Since there's nothing I can help with here, I'll take my leave first."

Hearing Gao Lanwen's tone and content, Lu Yangyu raised his eyebrows.

This Gao Lanwen was famous for her arrogance in Ling Long Workshop. How could she be so humble to this young man?

'Hiss... I have to think of a way to get this kid to teach me.'

Seeing how tactful Gao Lanwen was, Jiang Beiran nodded in satisfaction."

Alright, go ahead.””

Seeing Gao Lanwen leave, Shi Hongfang really wanted to follow her. However, he still had the responsibility of ” accompanying ” Jiang Beiran, so he was caught in a dilemma.

Senior,” Jiang Beiran said.” If you have something important to do, you can go ahead. I’ll be staying here for a while.””

Shi Hongfang hesitated for a moment after listening to Jiang Beiran’s words. He thought that Jiang Beiran was already considered a distinguished guest of the Great Ancestor, and it should not be a big deal for him to move freely in the Exquisite Workshop. Even if the Great Ancestor knew about it, he should not blame him.

With this thought in mind, Shi Hongfang nodded at Jiang Beiran and said, ””Then I won’t disturb your discussion. Just let me know when you’re leaving.”

”Yes, take care, senior.”

Nodding, Shi Hongfang bid farewell to Lu Yangyu and went downstairs.

After Shi Hongfang left, Lu Yangyu suddenly turned to Jiang Beiran and said with a smile, ””Amazing, amazing. I’ve been in Ling Long Square for 30 years, and you’re the most amazing person I’ve ever seen. Even I have to say that I admire you.””

”Why do you say that, Head Lu?”

Firstly, you were able to convince Gao Lanwen, which means that you have surpassed her in the art of refining jade. Just this point alone is enough to call you a genius. Secondly, since she brought you to me, it means that you have a very high attainment in the art of formations. Otherwise, you wouldn’t have come to me directly to discuss. As for the third...”

Lu Yangyu paused for a moment before continuing, “Linglong Square is an important place of the Shi family. Outsiders are not allowed to set foot in it. I have never seen you before, which means that you have just arrived. If Estate Master Shi had been accompanying you, I would not have treated you as a noble young master from any big family. However, now that Estate Master Shi has left with ease, I am a little confused about your identity. Who exactly are you?”

“Head Lu, you must be joking. I’m just a commoner. What you said just now was all obtained by chance by me.”

“Alright, since you like to hide, let’s continue chatting like this. Why are you looking for me?”

“Let’s talk about the Eight Trigrams and exchange some insights into formations.” “Is it that simple?”

Following a soft voice, a young girl dressed as a maid walked up. “Go prepare some wine and food.”

“Yes.” Youer gave him a bow, turned around, and walked downstairs.

After Youren left, Lu Yangyu stood up and said, “Where would you like to start,

Master Jiang?”

Jiang Beiran thought for a moment and replied, “How about we start with the formation Lian Jie?”

Lu Yangyu was stunned for a moment before he burst into laughter. “Hahaha, master, you’re really a master. This spell is the supreme spell of spell formation. Even my half-immortal master has only just begun to understand it. If you want to talk to me about this, I’m afraid you’ve found the wrong person.”

” This intertwining array is actually so high-end?’

Jiang Beiran had never come into contact with any high-end array masters. Usually, those array masters would also keep their own ultimate arts hidden and would not reveal them to outsiders.

Therefore, Jiang Beiran had no way to find out how advanced certain spells were.

Judging from Lu Yangyu’s reaction, at the very least, this array formation cleaning technique should be a top-notch array formation technique.

‘No wonder I don’t have enough array points...So it hit the ceiling.

However, Jiang Beiran was once again interested in the master who had created Shi Fenglan’s Flying Mansion. He had top-notch formation techniques and was proficient in the art of the universe, mechanisms, and refining. He was practically an all-rounder in the world.

‘Or... This Fei Mansion wasn’t created by a single person?’

Chapter 566: So It’s a High-End Operation

With the help of the alcohol, Jiang Beiran chatted with Lu Yangyu for a long time and gained a general understanding of Lu Yangyu’s formation skills.

When it came to defensive formations, Jiang Beiran had learned a lot of useful knowledge, but when it came to other types of formations, his knowledge had dropped significantly.

This made Jiang Beiran realize that not only were there very few masters who mastered multiple Mystical Arts in the 16 Arts of Xuanmen, but even some masters who were only proficient in one Mystical Art would have a tendency to be biased.

Take formations as an example.

There were many types of monitoring formations, defensive formations, offensive formations, and environmental change formations.

Jiang Beiran had thought that he would be able to get through everything, but after a long conversation with Lu Yangyu, he realized that it wasn't the case.

Many array masters were only proficient in one type of array. When setting up an array that they were not proficient in, whether it was the speed of setting up the array or the effect, it would be much worse.

In addition, Jiang Beiran also read a message from it.

Even in the six countries of the Central Plains, Array Masters were extremely rare.

Lu Yangyu had yet to become an Eighth-Grade Array Master and was only good at defensive arrays, but he was already able to oversee the array hall of a top family like the Shi Family.

It was obvious that even the top families of the Shi family could not recruit higher-end array masters, let alone other families or sects.

'No wonder that Daoist Master Wu Xiang wanted to take me as his disciple the moment he saw me...It seemed that even in the Six Nations, Array Masters were very popular.'

"Gulp...Gulp... Gulp..." After downing another jar of Qi Yun Qing Dew Wine, Lu Yangyu exhaled a mouthful of alcohol and said,""Brother's background has been emptied by you. Are you going to keep listening?"

He then took out a jar of Qi Yun Qing Dew Wine from his Cosmos Ring and placed it in front of Lu Yangyu."I was just waiting for big brother to talk about the formation connection."

"Nonsense!" Lu Yangyu slammed his palm on the table." Do you really want me to tell you everything? I'm only proficient in defense. The other array formations are half-baked. I don't even understand them. How can I connect them? Burp!"

After burping, Lu Yangyu scratched his messy hair and continued, "What do you think is the difficulty of linking this array formation? The difficulty was that you had to be proficient in all kinds of array formations. When you had that ability, you would naturally be able to study array formations and connections."

After hearing Lu Yangyu's words, Jiang Beiran almost spat out the words "research my ass".

However, Lu Yangyu's words reminded him of something. It turned out that in order to study the connection of arrays, the minimum requirement was to be proficient in all types of arrays. This seemed to be a very high threshold for most array masters.

'Isn't this awkward...

Jiang Beiran had originally intended to find a peer to have an in-depth conversation with, to see if he could get some inspiration. But now, it seemed that it would be very difficult to find a peer who could have an in-depth conversation with him on the formation connection.

Is this the loneliness of being invincible?

Since Lu Yangyu had said so much, Jiang Beiran naturally couldn't continue asking.

However, Jiang Beiran had gained a lot from this conversation. Although he did not find anyone to talk to in depth, he had gained a certain understanding of the "industry ecology" of array masters. In the future, he would be able to find someone to chat with or set up arrays with.

Picking up the wine bowl and toasting Lu Yangyu, Jiang Beiran wiped his mouth and said, "I was just afraid that big brother was just being humble, and I wanted to listen to big brother's teachings."

"I think you want to wear empty gloves..." Lu Yangyu glanced at the Qiyun Clear Dew Wine in his hand and said, "Alright, it's not empty handed. Hey, hey, hey, I've said all I can say now. You should tell me about your method of purification, right?" How on earth could one make wine so mellow and intoxicating?"

“This is actually not difficult. Since big brother wants to hear it, then I’ll tell you in detail.”

In fact, the wine on the Black Dragon Continent had the same problem, which was that the alcohol content was too low. Even if ordinary people drank a thousand glasses of turbid wine, they would not get drunk because the alcohol content was only 1% or 2% at most.

Most of them used the fungi produced by the natural fermentation of leftovers as the yeast, so naturally, they could not produce any high-concentration wine.

Of course, there were so many people who liked to drink alcohol in this world, so naturally, there were many people who had been trying to improve on it. However, Jiang Beiran could only see that the best wine was just so-so.

Take the bottle of Ten Continents Spring Wine that Lu Yangyu had planned to serve him as an example. It was a standard green wine with an alcohol content of five percent at most. However, such a wine could indeed be called good wine in this world. Usually, only rich people or cultivators could drink it.

As for the spirit wine, it did not increase the alcohol content and taste of the wine, but the effect. As for the spirit wine that could balance the taste and effect? Yes, very few.

After all, not many cultivators could be so extravagant as to drink spirit wine to satisfy their cravings.

Jiang Beiran poured some of the Qi Yun Qing Dew wine into a bowl and fanned some of the wine away before he said to Lu Yangyu, “The principle of the so-called retortion is actually very simple. It is to extract the high-concentration wine from the fermented raw materials after many refinements. This refining method is called retortion.”

“Haiyaya! It sounds so tempting. Tell me, tell me, how do you refine it?” Lu

Yangyu wiped his saliva and said.

“Haha, big brother, don’t be anxious. This extraction method is divided into solid extraction and liquid extraction. I prefer liquid extraction, so I’ll focus on this.”

After briefly explaining the extraction method, Jiang Beiran added, “The cooling of the wine vapor and how to collect the distilled wine are the two most important steps.”

Lu Yangyu, who had already heard his saliva flowing, nodded and said, “Don’t worry, I’m the most careful when it comes to good wine. Just tell me, and I promise to do as you say.”

Taking out a pot from his Cosmos Ring, Jiang Beiran handed it to Lu Yangyu and said, “You still haven’t given big brother a meeting gift? Big brother should like this cooler.”

Lu Yangyu took the cooler and observed it for a while before asking, “How should I use it?”

“I have an incantation here. Big brother, remember it well. Every time you steam the water of the Heavenly Lake, you can release two or three drops. It depends on the length of the wine flowing and the temperature of the time.”

“I’m afraid you won’t understand just by saying this. I’ll still distill it on the spot for you to see.”

“Good! I was waiting for you to say that! I’m very familiar with the director of the wine pavilion, so I went there to work. He’s also a drunkard. As long as I help you build a bridge, I guarantee that you’ll be familiar with each other immediately. He has a lot of top-grade spirit wine in his good house.. With your ability, wouldn’t it be easy to cheat a few of them? Go, go, go! I’ll take you to the autumn wind!”

Chapter 567: Giving Two Curators a Chemistry Class (1)

“Suck...”

Just like the last time he had come, the pleasant aroma of alcohol wafted out from the restaurant. The aroma did not mix together at all, as if it was queuing up to enter Jiang Beiran’s nose.

“Ah Zhe! Hurry up and come out! Hurry up and come out! I have something good to tell you! Hurry up and prepare the good wine and dishes!”

Lu Yangyu didn't treat himself as an outsider when he came to the dojo. He shouted at the top of his lungs before he even entered.

“I heard you. I'm coming.”

As a feminine voice came from the second floor, the window decorated with the image of a wine gourd opened with a bang. A man in green clothes floated down and landed steadily in front of Lu Yangyu.

“Pa!” The man opened a folding fan with peach blossoms painted on it to cover half of his face and said with a smile, “Brother Lu, next time, just let the servant come to report. There's no need to trouble yourself to call him.”

He then turned to Jiang Beiran and nodded. “So it's brother Jiang.”

“Greetings, Director Fu.” Jiang Beiran cupped his hands at Fu Zhehan.

On the first day of his visit to the Exquisite Fang, Jiang Beiran had already met with the curator of the Spirit Tavern. The first impression that Fu Zhehan gave people was his feminine beauty. His looks were somewhere between a man and a woman. It was fine to call him a handsome man or a beautiful woman. In addition, her voice was soft and soft, just like what Jiang Beiran had said.

It was gay.

At this moment, Lu Yangyu said, “You've already met, right? Then that's easy.”

Fu Zhehan put down his folding fan and grinned at Jiang Beiran, asking, “It seems that Brother Jiang has come today for some advice?”

“I don’t dare to say that I’m here to teach you. Instead, I should say that it’s Hall

Master Lu who brought me here to see the world.”

Brother Jiang, you’re too kind. I have a little in this small place...”

“Haiya! Alright, alright, stop being so formal. Hurry up and bring us to your winery. There’s a good treasure for you to see.”

Lu Yangyu put his arms around their shoulders and walked forward.

Jiang Beiran followed Lu Yangyu and strode forward. He almost forgot that Lu Yangyu was blind.

In any case, he wasn’t as cautious as a blind man.

Soon, the three of them arrived in front of a winery. Lu Yangyu released his grip and said to Jiang Beiran, “How about it? Are the tools here enough for you to show off your method of purification?”

Jiang Beiran scanned the interior of the winery and nodded. “Enough.”

Hearing the word “distilled”, Fu Zhehan revealed a curious expression. “Brother Jiang, may I know the meaning of this method of purification?”

“Actually, it’s to extract the high-concentration wine from the raw materials for brewing wine. This extraction method is called sublimation.”

“High concentration wine...”

Fu Zhehan nodded thoughtfully after hearing this, then smiled and said, “Since Brother Lu is so greedy, it seems like Brother Jiang has a finished product here?”

Jiang Beiran naturally understood Fu Zhehan's meaning. He immediately took out a jar of Qiyun Clear Dew Wine from his Qian Kun Ring and said, "Sorry for embarrassing myself."

"Thank you, brother Jiang."

Nodding at Jiang Beiran, Fu Zhehan took the wine jar.

Opening the lid, Fu Zhehan first took a whiff.

"Mm Fu Zhehan's peach blossom eyes immediately lit up." "You're indeed different."

Lu Yangyu laughed and said, "You'll only know what's truly different after drinking a mouthful."

"Then I won't stand on ceremony." Fu Zhehan nodded at Jiang Beiran after he finished speaking, then picked up the wine jar and poured it into his mouth.

How should one put it? Even though they were both bragging about the wine jar, Lu Yangyu had displayed his boldness. However, Fu Zhehan was clearly drinking from a wine jar that was even bigger than his face, yet it made people feel that his actions and expression were extremely elegant.

"This is probably temperament."

After tasting two large mouthfuls, Fu Zhehan put down the wine jar and exhaled comfortably. He took out a handkerchief and wiped his mouth. Fu Zhehan said, "No wonder brother Jiang was personally led by the manor master, you really have extraordinary abilities, Zhe Han admires you." "Dojo Master Fu, you flatter me." Jiang BeiBeiran cupped his fists.

Lifting the wine jar and smelling it, Fu Zhehan asked, "The reason why this wine is so fragrant and intoxicating is probably related to the method of purification that Brother Lu mentioned just now, right?"

“That’s right.” Jiang Beiran then walked into the wine shop.” Dojo Master Fu, do you mind if I borrow your wine vessel?”“

“Go ahead.” Fu Zhehan smiled and nodded.

“Then I won’t stand on ceremony.”

After a while, Jiang Beiran finally made a huge retort.

“That’s strange. Why do we have to make such a big pot to steam it?” Lu Yangyu walked around the retort and sighed.

‘Are you f * cking blind??’

Jiang Beiran could hardly believe that Lu Yangyu was staring at the pot with such a look.

Jiang Beiran didn’t continue paying attention to Lu Yangyu. Instead, he turned to Fu Zhehan and said,“Hall Master Fu, this...”

“Since brother Jiang treats us brothers so openly, then calling me head is too distant. Why don’t you call me Ah Zhe like brother Lu?”

“Hiss...”

Listening to Fu Zhehan’s soft and gentle tone, Jiang Beiran felt that his ‘Zhe’ was a little strange.

Scratching the goosebumps on the back of his hand, Jiang BeiRan cupped his fists and said,“Director Fu is a senior. I don’t dare to overstep my boundaries. Let’s just call him Director Fu.”“

Just as Fu Zhehan was about to say something, Lu Yangyu, who had walked around the retort, came back and said,“Are you ready?”

Chapter 568: Giving the Two Curators a Chemistry Class (2)

“That’s about it.” Jiang Beiran nodded immediately.”

“Then let’s begin! The Liquor worm in my stomach is about to crawl out.”

“Big brother, don’t be anxious. Since you want to teach, you naturally have to understand and explain the principle of this method of purification.”

“Hahaha, you’re indeed a good brother!” Lu Yangyu patted Jiang Beiran’s shoulder happily.” Although you’re a little secretive when it comes to the formation, you’re pretty straightforward when it comes to the brewing method. You didn’t let me down at all. Come, come, come. Tell me what’s going on here.”

Nodding, Jiang Beiran turned to Fu Zhehan and said, “Dojo Master Fu is proficient in the art of brewing wine, so he should know which ingredients are most suitable for fermentation.”

“Brother Jiang, are you testing me?” Fu Zhehan grinned and replied, “Naturally, it’s rice, flour, and fruits. Both are easy to ferment.”

“That’s right.” Jiang Beiran nodded.” Actually, there are two key points in fermentation. One is that the raw material contains a large amount of sugar, and the other is that it has starch that can be easily converted into sugar.”

“Transform?” Fu Zhehan asked curiously, “What is conversion?”

Jiang Beiran didn’t intend to hide it either. After giving Fu Zhehan a lively chemistry lesson, he let Fu Zhehan understand what the transformation method was.

“I see. Is this the meaning of life?”

Jiang Beiran was taken aback. He nodded in surprise and said, "Dojo Master Fu is a man of wisdom, so it's not wrong to understand it this way."

"I understand. Thank you for your advice, brother Jiang." Fu Zhehan bowed to Chaoran.

Returning Fu Zhehan's bow, Jiang Beiran smiled and said, "Director Fu, you're too polite. Let's continue."

"To make the wine mellow and intoxicating, the proportion of alcohol in it is naturally the most important. The alcohol must be extracted from the raw materials that are rich in sugar, just like the fruits and rice noodles that Hall Master Fu mentioned just now. Among the two, I recommend two of them the most. One is kaoliang, and the other is sugar cane." Jiang Beiran took them out of his Cosmos Ring.

"Gan...Cane?" Tavern Master Fu took the black and thick object from Jiang

Beiran and examined it before asking, "Is this a fruit?" "You haven't seen this item before, Chief Fu?"

"Indeed, I've never seen him before."

Looks like there are regional specialties in this world.'

It was only in the 21st century where technology was developed that resources could be shared. As long as one had money, they could easily buy the specialties of any country.

In this fantasy world, although transportation was very convenient for cultivators, it was definitely too embarrassing for cultivators to sell these ordinary things. Therefore, many people had never eaten the specialties of other countries in their entire lives.

The sugar cane was found by Luo Wenzhou when Jiang Beiran asked him to look for potatoes. According to the instructions of "bring back anything you haven't seen in Shengguo", Luo Wenzhou also brought the sugar cane back to his master.

Jiang Beiran took a bite of two of them with a nostalgic look on his face, and then he had the idea of using them to brew wine.

After explaining how to eat and use sugar cane, Jiang Beiran continued to teach the two chemistry lessons.

For example, the boiling point of alcohol was different from that of water. Therefore, the original fermented broth had to be heated to a temperature between the boiling points of the two. Only then could the alcohol and aroma substances be evaporated and collected.

Next, he used Jiang Beiran's special retort to heat up the liquor, the fermented liquor, or the fermented grains.

During the heating and retorting process, due to the different contents of various substances in the wine, the most volatile one was the most volatile one.

Therefore, during the heating process, the alcohol concentration in the wine would gradually decrease, while the alcohol concentration in the steam would increase sharply.

Finally, as long as he collected the alcohol-rich steam and cooled it, he could obtain a completely transparent wine.

After a busy day, Jiang Beiran's first batch of liquor was finally ready.

"Suck

Lu Yangyu only took a whiff, but he could already feel the intense spiciness of the wine!

'Good boy! If I take a bite, I'm afraid I'll have to lie under the table too.'

Chapter 569: Three Great Strange Jades

After copying “‘ The Fishing Old Man in Smoke ” with his mental power, Jiang Beiran returned the book to Lu Yangyu with a pained expression.

“Hahaha, don’t make that expression. Only you have good wine. You can read this book anytime.”

“Thank you, big brother.” Jiang Beiran cupped his hands and looked outside. “I’ve been here for a long time. I have to go back to Senior Shi.”

Fu Zhehan, who was still studying the distilled liquor, turned to Jiang Beiran and said, “I have benefited a lot today. Although Brother Jiang is here for Brother Lu, I can’t accept such a great gift.”

Fu Zhehan took out a blue crystal from his Interspatial Ring and handed it to Jiang Bei. “This stone is called the Sky Crane Soul. When it is fermented, you can add this thing into it. After that, you only need to...”

Without needing to listen to Fu Zhehan’s explanation, Jiang Beiran recognized the treasure the moment he took out the Sky Crane Soul. It was one of the top 200 precious materials on the Rare Treasures List.

If it was in the past, Jiang Beiran would definitely be tempted when he saw such a treasure. But recently, he had seen many precious materials in the top 100 or even the top 50, let alone the top 200. So, he had calmed down a lot.

However, even though he was calm, it did not mean that Jiang Beiran did not like it. The function of the Sky Crane Soul was simple, which was to help ferment the raw materials of the wine. With the help of the Sky Crane Soul, the wine brewed would have the effect of protecting the spirit.

The so-called spirit protection was actually to protect one’s spirit. In the cultivation world, the more powerful a battle was, the more moves that would attack the other party’s soul would be used.

This kind of move was formless and lightless, and it was usually impossible to guard against.

In a battle between experts, a moment of shock meant that one would be severely injured.

Therefore, elixirs or spirit wines that had the effect of protecting the spirit had always been very popular. Some of the best ones could even be sold for a sky-high price.

“Director Fu is too polite.” Jiang Beiran said as he took the Sky Crane Soul.” I’ll definitely treasure such a treasure.”

Seeing that Jiang Beiran didn’t refuse, Fu Zhehan, who had thought that he would have to push him back and forth a few times, was stunned for a moment before he smiled and said,“A treasure is worthy of a good man. Brother Jiang has such great achievements in brewing wine. He will definitely not let the Sky Crane Soul be covered in dust. In addition...” Fu Zhehan hesitated for a moment before saying,“Since Brother Jiang was able to research such an excellent method, I’m sure you must have a lot of experience in spirit wine brewing. I hope Brother Wangjiang can come to my place next time when you’re free and discuss this brewing method together. ”“

Sensing Fu Zhehan’s passionate gaze on him as he spoke, Jiang Beiran could not help but take a step back. He thought that if he came again next time, he would definitely bring Lu Yangyu along. Otherwise, he would feel a little insecure.

After bidding farewell to the two directors, Jiang Beiran returned to Heng Ya Zhai.

“Jade! Jade! Master! Show me the jade! Please!”

Jiang Beiran had just stepped through the door when he saw Liu Weining dashing over.

“Sigh...” After a long sigh, Jiang Beiran said,“Since you can sense this jade, it means that you have an affinity with it. Since you are so persistent in seeing this jade, it means that you are sincere. Forget it, I’ll let you take a look.”

Hearing Jiang Beiran's answer, Liu Weining was stunned for a moment. Then, her eyes that were like dead fish eyes gradually widened, and finally, they burst out with a shocking light.

"Thank you, Master! Thank you, Master!" Liu Weining bowed to Jiang Beiran.

Seeing that there was no one around, Jiang Beiran took out a piece of unfinished swan jade from his Cosmos Ring and handed it to Liu Weining.

Finally seeing the precious jade that she had been longing for, Liu Weining's mouth opened wider and wider. This was indeed a piece of good jade that she had never seen before. The Righteousness Qi contained in it was simply unbelievably dense.

"Gulp..." Swallowing her saliva, Liu Weining said with a dazed expression, "Alright...Awesome..."

As he spoke, he reached out to grab the piece of swan jade that was just inches away from him.

Then, just as her hand was about to touch the swan's jade, Jiang Beiran suddenly lifted it up.

"We agreed to just look at it, not let you touch it." Jiang Beiran then stuffed the swan jade back into his Cosmos Ring.

"Ah!" Liu Weining called out anxiously, then grabbed Jiang Beiran's arm and shouted, "'Master! I want to touch it! I want to touch it! Please!" "Can jade be touched casually? What if it affected the Jade Qi?"

"I..." Liu Weining pondered for a moment before she took out the Holy Gem Soul Jade from her pocket again. "Master, I'll exchange it with you. I'll let you touch mine, and you can let me touch yours too, okay?"

Looking at the Saint Crystal Soul Jade that was emitting waves of overbearing aura, Jiang Beiran still felt guilty like he had cheated a little girl out of a lollipop. However, for the sake of jade refinement, it was not a big deal to overlook such a small detail occasionally.

Looking at the Master's thoughtful expression, Liu Weining raised the Saint Crystal Soul Jade high in the air and placed it in front of Jiang Beiran.

"Master, exchange with me, exchange with me, please."

"Sigh..."

After letting out a long sigh, Jiang Beiran picked up the Saint Crystal Soul Jade from Liu Weining's hand and took out the Swan Jade from his Cosmos Ring and placed it in Liu Weining's hand.

"Thank you, Master."

Liu Weining shouted happily as she held the swan jade with both hands and began to observe it.

At the same time, Jiang Beiran was also studying the Saint Crystal Soul Jade in his hand..

Chapter 570: Three Great Strange Jades (2)

'It's actually the aura of the king path...No wonder the effect is so strong.

Each jade had its own unique aura. Some of them were reassuring, some were nourishing, and some were nourishing.

Among all the jade, there were three types of Qi that were recognized as the most powerful.

One was the Qi of Heavenly Dao.

This kind of Qi was extremely mysterious. Some people could form a powerful move from it, some people could encounter various fortuitous encounters because of this Qi, and some people could directly comprehend the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth because of this Qi and ascend in a day.

Hence, on this Mysterious Dragon Continent, there was also a gambling activity called "stone gambling", and the degree of craziness was even greater.

Ordinary jade gambling for money, at most, they would be poor, rich, and poor.

However, if he were to bet on a jade stone that even a high-grade jade refiner could not sense the aura within, he would have to rely on it.

For example, if a piece of Heavenly Dao Jade was won, whether the stone gambling house was willing to give it to you would depend on your ability most of the time.

It couldn't be helped. It was too tempting.

Below the Heavenly Dao Qi, the second type was the King Dao Qi.

Unlike the mysteries of the Heavenly Dao Energy, the King Dao Energy was very comprehensive. It would enhance all the abilities of the wearer in all aspects, giving people a feeling of omnipotent.

In addition, the reason why it was called the aura of the king was because wearing this jade for a long time would cultivate a kind of aura of dominance. Those with slightly weaker cultivation would basically bow their heads when they encountered this kind of aura of dominance, and they would not have any intention of resisting at all.

Opposite the King Path Qi was the third type of Devil Path Qi.

Generally speaking, most jades were used to nourish people and would provide various beneficial effects to the wearer.

However, the third type of Demonic Dao Jade was a little more strange.

This kind of jade would constantly absorb the mystic qi of the wearer, and it would continuously absorb it like a bottomless pit.

However, if this demonic jade only had this effect, then it was not worthy of being as famous as the previous two kinds of jade.

Although this kind of demonic jade would continuously extract the mystic qi of the wearer, when the wearer encountered danger or difficulties, the demonic jade would instantly control the wearer and allow him to erupt with power that far exceeded his current cultivation.

In Jiang Beiran's words.

He was cheating.

Moreover, the more desperate the situation, the more powerful the power that erupted from the Demon Dao Jade.

Many Jade Refiners suspected that the Devil Dao Jade was actually attached to the soul of a strong person and then used the power of the "host" to continue cultivating.

However, this was only a guess. No one could say clearly what the essence of the Demon Dao Jade was until now.

'So this is the King Path Energy. It's indeed powerful. No wonder it can allow cultivators to fight above their level.'

Jiang Beiran's interest in it grew after he read it over and over again.

'I've really never made such a jade artifact before. If I use the Four-Dragon Square Crystal to fuse with it, I wonder if there will be some wonderful metaphysical reaction...Perhaps the White Tiger Soul is not bad?

After " copying "" The Fishing Old Man in Smoke " with his mental power, Jiang Beiran returned the book to Lu Yangyu with a pained expression.

"Hahaha, don't make that expression. Only you have good wine. You can read this book anytime."

"Thank you, big brother." Jiang Beiran cupped his hands and looked outside. "I've been here for a long time. I have to go back to Senior Shi."

Fu Zhehan, who was still studying the distilled liquor, turned to Jiang Beiran and said,""I have benefited a lot today. Although Brother Jiang is here for Brother Lu, I can't accept such a great gift."

Fu Zhehan took out a blue crystal from his Interspatial Ring and handed it to Jiang Bei.""This stone is called the Sky Crane Soul. When it is fermented, you can add this thing into it. After that, you only need to..."

Without needing to listen to Fu Zhehan's explanation, Jiang Beiran recognized the treasure the moment he took out the Sky Crane Soul. It was one of the top 200 precious materials on the Rare Treasures List.

If it was in the past, Jiang Beiran would definitely be tempted when he saw such a treasure. But recently, he had seen many precious materials in the top 100 or even the top 50, let alone the top 200. So, he had calmed down a lot.

However, even though he was calm, it did not mean that Jiang Beiran did not like it. The function of the Sky Crane Soul was simple, which was to help ferment the raw materials of the wine. With the help of the Sky Crane Soul, the wine brewed would have the effect of protecting the spirit.

The so-called spirit protection was actually to protect one's spirit. In the cultivation world, the more powerful a battle was, the more moves that would attack the other party's soul would be used.

This kind of move was formless and lightless, and it was usually impossible to guard against.

In a battle between experts, a moment of shock meant that one would be severely injured.

Therefore, elixirs or spirit wines that had the effect of protecting the spirit had always been very popular. Some of the best ones could even be sold for a sky-high price.

“Director Fu is too polite.” Jiang Beiran said as he took the Sky Crane Soul.” I’ll definitely treasure such a treasure.”

Seeing that Jiang Beiran didn’t refuse, Fu Zhehan, who had thought that he would have to push him back and forth a few times, was stunned for a moment before he smiled and said,“A treasure is worthy of a good man. Brother Jiang has such great achievements in brewing wine. He will definitely not let the Sky Crane Soul be covered in dust. In addition...” Fu Zhehan hesitated for a moment before saying, “Since Brother Jiang was able to research such an excellent method, I’m sure you must have a lot of experience in spirit wine brewing. I hope Brother Wangjiang can come to my place next time when you’re free and discuss this brewing method together. ”“

Sensing Fu Zhehan’s passionate gaze on him as he spoke, Jiang Beiran could not help but take a step back. He thought that if he came again next time, he would definitely bring Lu Yangyu along. Otherwise, he would feel a little insecure.

After bidding farewell to the two directors, Jiang Beiran returned to Heng Ya Zhai.

“Jade! Jade! Master! Show me the jade! Please!”

Jiang Beiran had just stepped through the door when he saw Liu Weining dashing over.

Although she really wanted to ignore it as usual, the Holy Crystal Soul Jade in her pocket was too tempting.

“Sigh...” After a long sigh, Jiang Beiran said, “Since you can sense this jade, it means that you have an affinity with it. Since you are so persistent in seeing this jade, it means that you are sincere. Forget it, I’ll let you take a look.”

Hearing Jiang Beiran’s answer, Liu Weining was stunned for a moment. Then, her eyes that were like dead fish eyes gradually widened, and finally, they burst out with a shocking light.

“Thank you, Master! Thank you, Master!” Liu Weining bowed to Jiang Beiran.

Seeing that there was no one around, Jiang Beiran took out a piece of unfinished swan jade from his Cosmos Ring and handed it to Liu Weining.

Finally seeing the precious jade that she had been longing for, Liu Weining’s mouth opened wider and wider. This was indeed a piece of good jade that she had never seen before. The Righteousness Qi contained in it was simply unbelievably dense.

“Ah!” Liu Weining called out anxiously, then grabbed Jiang Beiran’s arm and shouted, “Master! I want to touch it! I want to touch it! Please!”
