

Won't Play 575

Chapter 575: Praise (3)

"Good." Jiang Beiran nodded and said, "It's difficult to master the art of array formation in one go. Your talent is not bad. Thank you for your patience. One day, you'll definitely be able to achieve something in this art. Continue." "He...Praise me?"

Gao Lanwen looked at Jiang Beiran and blinked twice. She found it hard to imagine that this man could actually praise someone.

"Read a book, don't look at me."

"Oh." Gao Lanwen quickly lowered her head. However, she felt a little restless in her chest. Some kind of happy emotion seemed to be unable to be suppressed and wanted to rush out.

This made Gao Lanwen feel a little strange. In the past, so many people had praised her with countless flowery words, but her heart was still calm.

Now, the person in front of her had only praised her for being not bad, but she was so...They wanted to cheer.

"Brother Beiran! Brother Beiran!"

Just as Gao Lanwen was suppressing her emotions, a hurried voice came from downstairs.

Gao Lanwen frowned. She had told Lu Yangyu not to disturb her at this time. Why was he here again?

Knowing that Lu Yangyu would keep shouting if he didn't, Jiang Beiran pushed open the window and looked down. "Big brother, why are you looking for me?"

"Good news! I have an old friend who has returned from his travels and obtained some good things. With these good things, I naturally won't forget you, so I came to call you."

“Thank you, big brother. I’ll be there in a while.”

“Alright! I’ll wait for you!”

Lu Yangyu turned his head around after he finished speaking, and then accurately crashed into the chest of a maid.

“Aiyoyo, I’m sorry. I couldn’t see the road and bumped into you.” Lu Yangyu rubbed his face against the maid’s chest before he raised his head and apologized profusely.

Jiang Beiran shook his head with a bitter smile and closed the window.

Seeing that Jiang Beiran did not leave immediately, Gao Lanwen was inexplicably happy. She picked up her book and continued reading.

After the time it took for an incense stick to burn, Jiang Beiran, who had finished answering Gao Lanwen’s question, said, “Let’s call it a day. Take a look at the Yin Escape Game’s layout and remember not to memorize it. The Qimen Dunjia has its own rules. As long as you understand these rules, you can truly use them.”

“I understand.” Gao Lanwen nodded.

Nodding, Jiang Beiran headed downstairs.

“It’s over?” Shi Hongfang asked Jiang Beiran as he looked up from the stairs.

“Well, today’s lesson is over.” Jiang Beiran then added softly, “Today, we will be teaching a square formation. I believe that Senior Shi has already memorized the solution.”

“Don’t worry, don’t worry.” Shi Hongfang laughed and nodded.

“Then this junior will take his leave first.” Jiang Beiran cupped his hands and prepared to leave.

“Wait a minute.” Shi Hongfang suddenly shouted.

“Is there anything else, Senior?” Jiang Beiran turned around and asked.

“This is for you.” Shi Hongfang said as he handed a box to Jiang Beiran.

Jiang Beiran was extremely familiar with the box as soon as he saw it, because he had seen it before in the Returning Heart Sect. It was the one used to store the Earth Bodhisattva Vital Crystal.

Seeing that Jiang Beiran did not reach out to take it, Shi Hongfang said, “I told you, as long as you perform well, I won’t mistreat you. Take it.”

After waiting for a moment, Jiang Beiran took the box from the system after confirming that there was no option.

“Thank you, Senior Shi.”

“You’re welcome. The ancestor is also very satisfied with your performance. You deserve it. Alright, I’ll go up first. “After Shi Hongfang finished speaking, he slowly walked to the second floor.

Linglong Square, Heng Ya Zhai, second floor.

“On the third day of the third Yin game, the straight talisman is chanting in the Dui Palace. This is the initial situation. “Jiang Beiran asked Gao Lanwen as he stood before a table..
