Chapter 598: Attacking the Island (2)

Of course, Jiang Beiran liked this kind of ability to search for materials that were not limited to any specific material. This was something that could be used on all maps.

“What’s wrong?” Jiang Beiran asked.

“I... I miss my mother.”

“Don’t worry, you’ll be able to see your mother in a month.”

“What if I can’t come out...”

“With me around, there are no ifs.”

“Alright...Alright.”

Although they hadn’t spent much time together, the people who had come out of Xuan Workshop had changed their attitude towards Jiang Beiran.

From fear at the beginning, to reverence, and then to admiration.

In their eyes, this man was simply omnipotent. No matter how tricky their questions were, he could get answers. The various abilities he displayed also made them extremely convinced.

It could be said that other than his cultivation being lower than theirs, this man had no shortcomings.

However, the weakness of cultivation was still too fatal in everyone's eyes. After all, the people they would face on the island were all Mystique King Rank experts. A casual wave of their hands could destroy their bodies.

The gap was too big, and it wasn't something that could be made up for with just a lot of knowledge.

Although Jiang Beiran had said, "Do you think the higher-ups of the Shi family would agree to let me bring you there if I'm not confident?" He convinced them.

However, they still instinctively feared the strong.

Glancing at the crowd, he said, "Instead of being afraid at this time, why don't you think about how to find enough precious materials in a short period of time? This way, you won't have risked your lives to come here in vain, right?"

Besides..."

Jiang Beiran suddenly smiled and tapped his forehead. "Anyway, it's already impossible to escape, right?" "Devil! This person is indeed a devil!"

Everyone could not help but shout in their hearts.

After knowing that they had no way out, everyone retreated to their positions. At this point, they had no other choice but to believe in that man.

Following a series of ear-piercing sounds, a huge golden sword tore through the clouds and smashed down on Golden Cauldron Island like Mount Tai.

However, such a powerful move was like a piece of paper in the water to Golden Cauldron Island. It couldn't even cause a ripple.

The defensive formation of Golden Cauldron Island had absorbed the sword like a black hole. Jiang Beiran had not even been able to see how the formation worked.

Is this really a f * cking array?'

Although Jiang Beiran was still unable to understand the connection between the formations in the Fei Mansion, he could at least imagine the principle behind it.

However, the defensive formation of Golden Cauldron Island was ridiculous. Jiang Beiran could not even feel the Celestiaity being activated. This was beyond the knowledge of formations.

[You're going overboard, bastard!]

Because he could not understand it at all, Jiang Beiran had reason to suspect that this thing was not a formation at all. But if it was not a formation, he could not explain what was guarding Golden Cauldron Island.

'The world is indeed big and full of wonders.'

In front of them was the "man-eating" Profound Secrets Island, and behind them was the Golden Cauldron Island, which even Profound Sages could not break through.

Why are these islands so awesome? The great sea route?

Just as Jiang Beiran was thinking about what other destructive moves he would be able to see next, a blinding golden light suddenly exploded right above Golden Cauldron Island.

Shi Yangxi knew that her plan to attack the island had failed again. She stood up and shouted to everyone, "Follow me."

With that, he flew toward Golden Cauldron Island.

As most of Jiang Beiran's team members could not fly, they were still in the Flying Mansion. Jiang Beiran had intended to stay inside, but Shi Hongyun had personally instructed him to come out and observe.

Jiang Beiran understood what he meant. He probably wanted him to see for himself what the island's defensive formation looked like.

Jiang Beiran had no choice but to sit on the shuttle and watch the show with the Shi family.

Driving the shuttle, Jiang Beiran followed the rest of the troops to the side of Golden Cauldron Island.

Seeing that nothing had changed on Golden Tripod Island, Jiang Beiran activated his spiritual power to search the surroundings of the island again. However, he still could not find any traces of a formation.

Not long after, the Profound Sages in the sky landed one by one. At the same time, one could hear their muttering.

"Is this the top-notch move of the Mysterious Cloud Opening Record you mentioned? Even your Earth Grade high-level cultivation method is not good enough."

"Hey! Come, come, come, let's find a piece of land to compete. If you can take my move head-on, my Soaring Heaven Sect will follow your lead in the future!"

"So be it! Let's go!"

"Alright, alright, what's there to compete about? It's almost time to open the door."

The Profound Sage who had said that he wanted to take the Earth Grade high-level move head-on also took advantage of the situation and said, ""Then we'll listen to Duke Green Lotus."

"Alright, let's wait until the Bixiao Conference is over."

'High Earth Grade...'

Hearing that even Profound Sages were not using heaven-grade cultivation techniques to attack the island, Jiang Beiran once again realized how rare heaven-grade cultivation techniques were.

However, he had also heard before that Heaven Rank cultivation techniques were cultivation techniques that only the first generation of cultivators possessed. To learn them was not as simple as finding a cultivation technique book. It required all kinds of favorable conditions and people.

It was obviously prepared for the main character.

Just as Jiang Beiran was listening to the Profound Sages 'rambling, he suddenly heard a voice.

"Rise!"

Then, a huge whirlpool suddenly appeared on the sea beside Golden Cauldron Island. Then, a huge island slowly rose up.

'Good fellow...The might of a Profound Sage...'

"How terrifying!"

Following Shi Hongyun's footsteps, the members of the Shi Family landed on the island that rose from the sea.

Looking at the vast number of heads, Jiang Boran's fear of society suddenly kicked in. He walked up to Shi Yangxi and cupped his hands, "Patriarch Shi, I still have some battle plans to arrange. Please let me enter the Fei Mansion."

Shi Yangxi glanced at Jiang Beiran, then nodded and allowed him to enter his Flying Mansion.

Jiang Beiran heaved a sigh of relief when he entered the Fei Mansion's main hall.

"Jade It's time to touch jade, it's time to touch jade."

Just as Jiang Beiran was thinking of something to do, he saw Liu Weining running towards him.

Jiang Beiran threw the swan jade to Liu Weining in a practiced manner and asked the others who had followed Liu Weining over.

"What's the matter?"

"Jiang... Big Brother Jiang." Wei Guang, who was the tallest, asked carefully.

This Wei Guang was someone Jiang Beiran had asked for from Fu Zhehan's winery. His nose was especially sharp, able to distinguish the jar of wine he was looking for from the countless smells of wine. At the same time, this sense of smell was completely applicable to other things with scents, be it flowers, trees, ores, or tea leaves, he could distinguish them one by one.

Of course, Jiang Beiran liked this kind of ability to search for materials that were not limited to any specific material. This was something that could be used on all maps.

"What's wrong?" Jiang Beiran asked.

"I... I miss my mother." "Don't worry, you'll be able to see your mother in a month."
