After learning about the Two Elements Secret Feather, Jiang Beiran put the silver box into his Cosmos Ring.

He picked up the incense on the table and took a sip. Jiang Beiran looked at Lin

Shiyun again and said, "How's the investigation of the Emperor Venomous Worm going?"

"I've already sent several groups of people to Zeng Country to investigate. In addition, I've also activated all my connections to investigate with all my might, and..."

"You just haven't found it yet, right?" Jiang Beiran asked directly.

"Yes..." Lin Shiyun nodded.

At this moment, Little Seven said, "Brother Wang, I'm good at investigating. Why don't you let me try?"

Jiang Beiran shook his head. "No, I have something else I need you to do for me."

When Little Seven heard this, he immediately became excited. He knew that Big Brother Wang wouldn't ask him to come along for no reason.

'I wonder what mysterious place I'm going to explore this time!'

Little Seven was extremely excited. The first time she saw Big Brother Wang was when he entered the Blessed Sky Cave. The second time was when she found out that she was the reincarnation of the Mystic Thearch on Golden Cauldron Island.

It could be said that every time he saw Big Brother Wang, he had great luck.

'I wonder if these three times...What kind of opportunities will big brother Wang bring me?'

When Little Seven was extremely excited, Jiang BeiRan stood up and said to Lin Shiyun, ""Continue to investigate the matter of the Emperor Venomous Worm. Inform me as soon as you have any news."

"Alright, I understand."

Jiang Beiran then took out a map and handed it to Little Seven.""I'll give you three days to prepare. Come back to Tong Country with me in three days."

"Yes, sir!" Seven answered without hesitation.

"That's it then. I'll take my leave first." Jiang Beiran walked out after he finished speaking.

Following the sound of the wooden door being slammed shut, Little Seven waved her fist forcefully to vent the excitement in her heart.

But after venting, he immediately cupped his hands at Lin Shiyun and said, ""I've made a fool of myself in front of Miss Lin. I..."

"No need to say, I understand."

How could Lin Shiyun not want to take a risk with Grandmaster?

After all, as long as he was around, Lin Shiyun felt that no matter what danger she faced, it would be easily resolved.

Unfortunately, this kind of thing could only be encountered by chance. All he could do was wait for the opportunity, waiting for the day when the master needed her.

After leaving Shangpin Pavilion, Jiang Beiran returned to his own mansion.

Jiang Beiran scanned the surroundings with his Mentality and quickly found Lin Yuyan's location.

After passing through the long corridor, Jiang Beiran arrived at a Spirit Qi spring in the mansion. He saw Lin Yuyan holding the " True Energy Tiangang Technique " and scrutinizing it carefully. However, her eyebrows were still tightly furrowed.

"How's your cultivation?" Jiang Beiran walked up to him and asked.

Hearing her senior brother's voice, Lin Yuyan immediately stood up and replied, "Senior Brother, please give me a few more days. This cultivation method... It's a little difficult to understand."

"Hmm?"

Jiang Beiran was surprised to hear Lin Yuyan's words.

Even Qing Huan, who practiced everything she didn't know, had made rapid progress in the True Energy Heavenly Dipper Technique. There was no reason for Lin Yuyan to find it difficult to understand.

'Could it be...Is it a professional match?

Lin Yuyan's cultivation talent was not bad. At the very least, she was much better than Qing Huan.

Therefore, there was no reason for her to be unable to understand a cultivation technique that Qing Huan could easily master.

The only reason for this was that the True Essence Heavenly Dipper Technique itself was very special. Only a specific group of people could master it.

After all, this cultivation technique was something that his senior brother had painstakingly found for him, who was unable to cultivate. It was very normal for his sword to be a little unconventional.

Nodding, Jiang Beiran said, " Yes, there's no need to force it. Continue practicing.

Jiang Beiran's intuition told him that martial arts were like mathematics. If he could learn it, he could learn it. If he couldn't, he couldn't learn it no matter what. Therefore, he was basically certain that Lin Yuyan couldn't learn this martial art. However, it wouldn't hurt to try more. What if?

Arriving at the spiritual energy spring that he had chosen earlier, Jiang Beiran took out the eight-inch, twelve-gold, twenty-nine-layered Mystical Meteor Disk from his Cosmos Ring.

Although he had already set up a self-defense barrier once, this did not affect the fact that it was still difficult to set up a self-defense barrier.

Therefore, Jiang Beiran was still very careful this time, without the slightest bit of carelessness.

Three days passed just like that. Jiang Beiran, who had finished setting up the basic structure of his barrier, walked out of the square and headed toward the courtyard where Lin Yuyan was.

“It seems like I really can’t practice it.”

Looking at Lin Yuyan’s furrowed brows, Jiang Beiran knew that she would not be able to comprehend the True Energy Heavenly Dipper Technique. Just as he was about to speak, Lin Yuyan shouted, “Senior Brother! Please give me a few more days...”

However, Jiang Beiran shook his head. “Don’t waste your time on something you’re not good at. You should understand that even if you manage to master it, you won’t be able to unleash the full potential of this technique. Let’s just stop here.”

Although Lin Yuyan was still unwilling, she still nodded when she heard her senior brother’s teachings.

“Yes, I understand.”

Just as Jiang Beiran was about to say something, there was a sudden knock on the door.

Jiang Beiran glanced at the door and said, “Go open the door, it’s Little Seven.”

“Yes.”

Lin Yuyan replied and walked towards the door.

Hearing a creak, Little Seven, who was standing at the door, was preparing her luggage when she realized that it wasn’t Brother Wang.

“Greetings, sister-in-law.” Little Seven lowered her voice and shouted.

This ‘sister-in-law’ instantly swept away Lin Yuyan’s depressed mood. She warmly welcomed her, “Long time no see, Little Seven.”

“Sister-in-law, how have you been?”

“Yes, come in quickly. Senior Brother is waiting for you inside..”

“Yes, sir! Thank you, Sister-in-law.”

She cupped her hands at Lin Yuyan and followed her in.

Arriving at the courtyard, Jiang Beiran habitually scanned Little Seven with his spiritual power before exclaiming in surprise, “You’ve advanced to the peak of the Mystic King Realm?”

Little Seven didn’t think that her cultivation could hide from Big Brother Wang, so she immediately cupped her hands and said, “Yes, I just advanced yesterday.”

‘Is this the protagonist’s halo...’

Jiang Beiran remembered that when he saw Little Seven on Golden Cauldron Island, he had just advanced to the ninth level of the Mystic King realm. Now, he had already broken through to the peak of the Mystic King realm and was only one step away from becoming a Mystic Emperor.

A year ago, he was just an ordinary person. ‘It’s indeed the ridiculous speed of a protagonist.’ “Then it seems that you are already prepared.”

“Please rest assured, Brother Wang!”

“Alright.” Jiang Beiran nodded. After pondering for a moment, he took out an ochre colored book and handed it to Lin Yuyan. “This book is about cultivating baleful aura. See if it will be of any help to you.”

Lin Yuyan almost lost her balance.

'Senior Brother's heart is indeed filled with me...Even though they were separated, he was still so concerned...Who said that the feelings between husband and wife would fade with time? Shixiong's love for me has never lessened!'

"How... Thank you, Senior Martial Brother." Lin Yuyan reached out her trembling hand to receive the book, her face filled with excitement.

"I have something to do, so I'll be going out for a while." Then, he looked at Little Seven and said, "Let's go."

"Yes."

Little Seven greeted Lin Yuyan with a salute before following Jiang Beiran out of the mansion.

As they reached the border of the Qi Kingdom, Jiang Beiran blew out a cloud and brought Little Seven to the direction of Tong Kingdom.

As usual, they took several detours along the way and spent three days before Jiang Beiran returned to Tong Country.

After getting off the cloud, Jiang Beiran looked at Little Seven and said, "Have you been to Tong Country before?"

Seven shook her head, "Never."

"Alright, follow me."

They found a teahouse and sat in a private room. Jiang Beiran took out a black robe from his Cosmos Ring and handed it to Little Seven. "Put it on. From now on, people will know that you are Little Seven."

"Yes, sir." Seven cupped her hands and immediately put on the robe.

After getting Little Seven to stand behind him, Jiang Beiran took out a piece of talisman paper and wrote a few lines of words on it. Then, he dropped it into a paper crane and let it fly.

After a while, Jiang Beiran, who had just finished a pot of tea, heard a knock on the door.

“Enter.”

With a creak, Shen Tianhua pushed the door open and entered.

Stepping into the private room, Shen Tianhua turned around and closed the door behind him. He then cupped his fists at Jiang Beiran and said, “Greetings, Grandmaster.”

And when he raised his head, he took the opportunity to size up the black clothed man behind Grandmaster.

While Shen Tianhua was puzzled, Jiang Beiran said, “From today onwards, he will assist you in retrieving all the ancient book fragments. At the same time, he will ensure your safety.”

“Thank you, Master!” Shen Tianhua bowed and said,

Shen Tianhua had actually been suffocating for a long time. He knew that there was a newly opened tomb that he could explore, but he was still trapped in the Shi Manor and could not move. This simply made him extremely depressed.

Now hearing that Grandmaster had finally helped him find a guard, this made him greatly relieved.

Little Seven, who was standing beside Jiang Beiran, was confused.

He had thought that he was going to follow Big Brother Wang to explore the mysterious place, but now it seemed that this was not the case.

But since this ancient book can pique Brother Wang’s interest, it must be something extraordinary.’

When Shen Tianhua was back on his feet, Jiang Beiran suddenly stood up and asked, “Have you thought about the other question? Don’t play dumb. You should know what I’m asking you.”

Shen Tianhua naturally understood what Master Jiang meant.

It was nothing more than whether he wanted to join his camp or become his subordinate.

However, Shen Tianhua was used to being alone. Moreover, up until now, he only knew that this Master Jiang was very mysterious and powerful. However, he still did not know how powerful he was.

And Shen Tianhua, who had already suffered greatly in this matter, did not intend to recognize a mysterious figure that he almost did not understand as his big brother so soon.

Taking a deep breath, Shen Tianhua cupped his hands and replied, "Please give me some time to think it over."

"Alright, you can give me an answer after this matter is completely over. Now, you can go to the hall on the first floor and wait for me."

Shen Tianhua was stunned. He thought that the next segment was to get to know the man in black, but he didn't expect that he would be chased out.

However, Shen Tianhua was in no position to say "no". After agreeing, he pushed open the door and went downstairs.

After Shen Tianhua left, Jiang Beiran looked at Little Seven and said, "Sit down, I'll tell you about your mission."

"Yes."

After Little Seven sat down, Jiang Beiran told him everything about the ancient book.

"Big Brother Wang wants me to accompany that Grandmaster Shen to snatch the remaining pages from the others?"

"That's right."

"I will do my best to complete it."

Although Little Seven had always wanted to show his best side to Big Brother Wang, he didn't plan to say anything that was beyond his ability.

From Brother Wang's description just now, the other owners of the ancient book fragments seemed to have a strong background.

As a cultivator at the peak of the Mystic King realm, although he still had a lot of authority among the younger generation, if he were to face the Mystic Emperor or even the Mystic Sect, it would be a big problem if he could retreat unscathed, let alone hug Master Shen.

Hearing Little Seven's cautious reply, Jiang Beiran knew that this mission had put him in a difficult position.

And that was Jiang Beiran's goal.

Among Jiang Beiran's many underlings, the most special one was actually Little Seven.

Because he was the only underling of the main character's fate.

Jiang Beiran had never treated the two main characters he had met as his underlings, because the system would always jump to the next option whenever he had the thought.

That was why Jiang Beiran didn't dare to make them work for him.

Otherwise, it would not be worth it.

However, Little Seven was different. From the first time he saw Little Seven to the various interactions he had with her, the system did not give him any options. Even when Little Seven expressed her allegiance, there was no option.

This meant that even if he accepted Little Seven, the little brother of the main character's fate, he would not attract any trouble.

With such a lackey, Jiang Beiran's thoughts naturally became lively.

He was a protagonist's underling. Wouldn't it be a waste if he didn't make good use of him?

Therefore, when Jiang Beiran first officially assigned him a mission, he had been prepared to assign someone who was far beyond his own capabilities. This way, he could test out the potential of this main character level underling to the greatest extent.

Secondly, he wanted to see if he could unleash his shocking potential in the face of events or targets beyond his ability.

Of course, Jiang Beiran wouldn't try it without any safety precautions.

Now that Little Seven was a member of the Lin family and had a good relationship with the two young misses, he could be considered a figure with a background. No one would dare to touch him easily.

Moreover, Jiang Beiran was not a hands-off manager. As long as something happened to Little Seven, he would be the first to help.

Otherwise, it would not be worth it.

After handing over all the necessary tasks to Little Seven, Jiang Beiran asked him to go look for Shen Tianhua.

Picking up the teacup, Jiang Beiran walked to the window and pushed it open to look at the busy street below. Not long after, Shen Tianhua and Little Seven, who was dressed in black, walked out of the teahouse and quickly blended into the crowd.

Don't disappoint me, Little Seven. Jiang Beiran muttered in his heart.

After all, his expectations for Little Seven were not limited to this. If Little Seven came to him for help for such a mission, then he would be very disappointed, very, very disappointed.

After leaving the teahouse, Jiang Beiran sat on the auspicious cloud and went to the Shi family home.

Now that he had the identity of the Sage Token, Jiang Beiran could enter and leave the Shi Residence freely.

Under the respectful gazes of the two guards, Jiang Beiran went to the Sage Residence.

Two days ago, he had received a letter from Shi Weiyi, informing him that he had made preliminary arrangements for the disciples of Xuan Workshop.

As the letter did not seem to be in a hurry, Jiang Beiran replied with a letter stating that he had some matters to attend to and could only go later. Shi Weiyi also replied very quickly, telling Jiang Beiran that there was no hurry and that he could take his time.

He learned that the Sage was in his residence today, and Jiang Beiran met Shi Weiyi in a vast courtyard under the guidance of his attendants.

"Are you done with your work?" Shi Weiyi, who was leisurely admiring the flowers, turned around and asked Jiang Beiran.

"Yes, I'm sorry to have kept you waiting, Sage."

"No worries." Waving his hand, Shi Weiyi reached out his hand and stroked the leaves of a blue flower, saying, "Beiran, what do you think of the flowers in my courtyard?"

Jiang Beiran looked around and nodded. "'The flowers are surrounded by colorful purple and red flowers. It can be said that the scenery here is unique.'"

“Hahahaha, good! What a good name, Qi Hua Pieces of Sticky Jade Grass. Bei Ran’s words were indeed pleasant to the ears.” After a few laughs, Shi Weiyi waved at Jiang Beiran and said, “Come, I’ll take you to see some good treasures.”

“It’s my honor.” Jiang Beiran cupped his hands at Shi Weiyi and followed him into the depths of the garden.

From the first time he met Shi Weiyi, Jiang Beiran had realized that the sage was very fond of flowers. His room was filled with rare herbs, and they were obviously carefully cultivated.

Now that he had seen the courtyard, Jiang Beiran was even more certain that this was a flower lover.

Walking along the flowery path to the depths of the courtyard, Jiang Beiran discovered even more rare flowers, some of which were even famous in the rare and exotic books.

In comparison, the ten thousand flowers in the Ten Thousand Flower Valley are simply lonely. In terms of quality, they are completely outclassed by this courtyard.’

Looking around, Jiang Beiran quickly spotted a peculiar black flower. If he was not mistaken, it should be the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid, ranked fifty-two on the Rare Treasures List.

The flower was one of the main ingredients for the ninth-grade pill, the Tiangang Earth Restoration Pill. Jiang Beiran was very envious of it.

However, the roots of the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid that Shi Weiyi had been raising were already showing some problems. It was gradually unable to absorb Spiritual Qi. According to Jiang Beiran’s professional opinion, the flower would begin to wither in less than 30 days.

Jiang Beiran instantly understood why Shi Weiyi had brought him here.

Shi Weiyi was a flower lover, and he had grown so many rare herbs. There was no reason why he could not tell that there was something wrong with his Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid. It was just that he could not “cure” it himself, so he had tried to call Jiang Beiran to take a look.

Even the high-end skills of array formations and alchemy were explained, so there was naturally no need to hide the flowers.

Therefore, Jiang Beiran took the initiative to walk up to the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid and said, "The Sage is indeed remarkable. There are such strange flowers planted in the courtyard. This junior is very envious."

It seems like Bei Ran is also a flower lover." Shi Weiyi smiled and said, "I didn't expect him to recognize this rare flower at a glance."

"Just a little." After saying that, Jiang Beiran suddenly squatted down and pretended to observe the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid carefully. After a while, he said, "Sage, there seems to be something wrong with the roots of your Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid. If it is not treated in time, it might hurt its origin."

Shi Weiyi revealed his signature smile." Hohoho, Bei Ran is indeed Bei Ran. You saw through the problem with my flower at a glance. Then, I'll be frank with you. This time, I brought you here to ask if you have any way to cure it. If you can really cure it, I'll definitely give you a good gift in return."

Sage, what are you saying? It's my job to help you with some trivial matters. The problem of the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid is not difficult to solve. Just give me two days."

"Alright, with your words, I'm relieved. I'll leave this matter to you."

At this point, Shi Weiyi no longer lamented Jiang Beiran's many talents. After all, this young man had already brought him too many surprises. Even if someone told him that Jiang Beiran was proficient in all the 16 Arts of Xuanmen, Shi Weiyi would not be too surprised.

Moreover, Jiang Beiran had already formed an alliance with the Shi family. Naturally, they hoped that he would be as powerful as possible.

Otherwise, wouldn't it be a waste of the Xian Token that they wouldn't easily give away?

After solving a problem, Shi Weiyi pointed to a pavilion not far away and said, "Let's put the matter of the flowers aside for the time being. Let's go and talk about serious matters."

“Yes.”

Sitting in the pavilion, Shi Weiyi took out a booklet and pushed it in front of Jiang Beiran, saying, “This has recorded all the places I’ve arranged for them..”

672

Translator: 549690339

“Since it was chosen by the Sage, there naturally wouldn’t be any problems.”

Shi Wei Yi smiled and said, “Hohoho, I’ve already said that you’re the commander-in-chief for this matter. You can’t possibly not know where they’re going, right?”

“Sage is right. Junior will study it carefully.”

Opening the book, Jiang Beiran read through a few pages carefully and realized that the Sage was indeed reliable when it came to practical matters.

Almost every Xuan Workshop disciple Jiang Beiran had picked out from the list had been sent to different Xuan Arts Clubs in different countries.

Moreover, beside each Mystical Arts Association was the history, reputation, and characteristics of the association, as well as the names of the high-ranked Mystical Artists they had nurtured. It could be said that the details were extremely detailed, allowing Jiang Beiran to gain a lot.

When he flipped to the last page of the register, Jiang Beiran raised his head and cupped his hands at Shi Weiyi. “The Sage truly has a wide range of friends. Junior admires him greatly.”

Shi Weiyi shook his head and smiled. “Hohoho, it’s not that we have a wide range of friends. It’s just a matter of interests. How about it? Do you think this distribution is reasonable?”

Jiang BeiRan had no idea about the Six Nations ‘Mystic Arts Association, but from what was written in the book, Shi Weiyi had indeed arranged for them to go according to Jiang Beiran’s recommendation, and every one of them was just right.

“Extremely reasonable.”

“That’s good. Since that’s the case, I’ll do it. “Shi Weiyi suddenly looked up at Jiang Beiran and said,””This time, the clan leader also heard about this matter and praised you greatly.”

“This is what I should do.”

“In addition, I also informed the patriarch of your specific plan. The patriarch was very happy after hearing it and said that he would personally celebrate for you on the day the plan succeeded.”

‘Good fellow... You’re scaring me.

On the surface, Shi Weiyi was helping Jiang Beiran to claim credit, but what he really meant was that the clan leader already knew about it and was taking it very seriously. If he messed it up, he would be in trouble.

Since things had come to this, what else could Jiang Beiran do?

She had to eat the cake she had painted even if she had to cry.

Besides, his plan was not a complete one, and the cycle was extremely long. No one could tell how it would develop in the future.

Perhaps it would develop better than he had planned. This was not impossible.

Looking at Shi Weiyi’s beaming face, Jiang Beiran responded with an even brighter smile,””Many thanks for the Sage’s help. I will definitely do my best to complete this matter.”

“Alright, alright. Since you picked these people, I think you should personally make these arrangements. What do you think?”

“The Sage makes sense. I’ll go find them later.”

“Alright, since we’re done here, let’s talk about my Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid. How do you plan to treat it?”

Root rot is a common disease, but Sage, your pot of Golden Phoenix Ghost

Orchids is a little strange. It seems to have been contaminated by something. It's not the common rot, but as if it's cursed."

"Bei Ran is indeed knowledgeable. Can you tell what has contaminated my Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid?"

"It's hard for me to say. Logically speaking, if the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid has been staying in this courtyard, it shouldn't be contaminated."

Shi Weiyi pondered for a moment before answering, "Alright, then I'll leave the treatment to you."

"Sage, please rest assured. If it is possible, I can begin to treat it now."

"Of course you can." Shi Weiyi stood up and smiled, "Hohoho, do you mind if I watch from the side?"

"Sage, what are you talking about? Of course there's no problem."

Jiang Beiran walked over to the pot of Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchids, squatted down, took out a shovel, and started digging carefully.

"As expected, it's a thick and dense Yin Qi."

After carefully scanning the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid with his spiritual power, Jiang Beiran was certain that the root was rotting because it was entangled by some kind of extreme Yin energy.

He didn't know if Shi Weiyi had done some kind of experiment on it or if he had brought it to some place with extremely strong Yin Qi.

In any case, it was impossible for this flower to be contaminated with such Yin Qi for no reason.

Although the Yin Qi was the power of the spectral Cultivators, Jiang Beiran did not intend to use the spectral Cultivators' method to deal with it. Instead, he wanted to use the gardener's method to make the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid burst out with astonishing vitality to dispel the Yin Qi.

After taking his time to clean up the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid for the entire afternoon, Jiang Beiran looked at the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid, which was now able to absorb Spiritual Qi again, and said, "Sage, let's stop here for today. I'll come back tomorrow to help it consolidate."

Looking at the Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid, Shi Weiyi nodded with satisfaction."Alright, thank you for your hard work today."

"Sage, you are too polite. Then I will take my leave."

When he heard about this, he praised you greatly."

"This is what I should do."

"In addition, I also informed the patriarch of your specific plan. The patriarch was very happy after hearing it and said that he would personally celebrate for you on the day the plan succeeded."

Jiang Beiran didn't have much to say to the eight talented people who had passed the system's test.

The purpose of keeping them here was to let them get to know each other and understand that they were his "comrades".

"Being in a foreign country, we still have to be careful when doing many things."

Having said that, Jiang Beiran took out several stacks of talisman papers from his Cosmos Ring and distributed them to everyone."If you encounter any difficulties, you can ask the Shi family for help, or you can use this talisman paper to fold into a paper crane and ask me for help."

Jiang Beiran's words carried a few meanings. He could understand it as asking them to choose a side. He could also understand the Shi family for official matters. However, if he didn't want the Shi family to know about his private matters, he could ask him for help.

As for how the eight of them understood it, that would depend on their own abilities.

This was the first question Jiang Beiran had given them.

"Thank you, Brother Jiang!" The eight of them cupped their hands after receiving the talisman.

“Mm, I wish you all a bright future. Go back.”

“Yes, sir!”

Jiang Beiran looked up at the bright starry sky, wondering when his long-term investment would reap the benefits.

‘Let nature take its course, let nature take its course.’

After muttering to himself, Jiang Beiran slowly walked out.

After that, Jiang Beiran spent two days to completely remove the curse on Shi Weiyi’s Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid, allowing it to regain its health.

Shi Weiyi wasn’t stingy at all. He gave Jiang Beiran a Black Grade Dharma treasure as a thank you gift.

“This is truly too precious.” Jiang Beiran said while holding the brocade box.

“You’re welcome. This is also what the ancestor wanted. He said that your cultivation is too low and it would be too dangerous to go out without a good defensive magic tool.”

The treasure Shi Weiyi had given Jiang Beiran this time was a mid-grade Black Grade magic treasure called the White Moon Bracelet. It was used to form a golden light shield formed by willpower. The stronger the willpower of the user, the stronger the defensive power of the golden light shield.

Even if a cultivator with weak willpower used it, the golden light barrier could at least block the attack of a Mystique Venerable Rank expert once. It could be said to be a very powerful defensive magic treasure.

However, Jiang Beiran had never expected Shi Weiyi to give him a Mysterious Grade magic treasure as a gift of thanks.

After staying in the Six Nations for so long, he had gradually come to understand one thing.

Even in the Six Nations, there were very few Earth-rank and Heaven-rank magic treasures.

The reason was very simple. This was because the target of the Heaven-Grade Dharma treasure was the Dharma treasure used by the Mystic Thearch.

However, ever since the Mystic Thearch disappeared from the Black Dragon Continent, Heaven-Grade Dharma treasures had almost become extinct.

The target of the Earth-grade magic treasure was naturally a Profound Sage.

Similarly, it was as rare as a Profound Sage.

Every time something appeared, it would cause a huge uproar.

In a situation where both heaven and earth magic treasures were extremely rare, black grade and yellow grade magic treasures naturally became the mainstream.

Further down, cultivators below the mystic sect mainly used yellow-grade magic treasures, while cultivators above the mystic sect mainly used black-grade magic treasures.

And of course, this included Profound Sages.

After all, Earth-rank magic treasures were too rare. Even Profound Sages couldn't possibly have Earth-rank magic treasures all over their bodies. Most of the time, they would mainly use Black-rank magic treasures.

Under such circumstances, Shi Wei Yi had actually given him a Black Grade Middle Rank magic treasure. It could be said that he was absolutely generous.

The moment he accepted the magical equipment, Jiang Beiran suddenly realized that Shi Weiyi was a diplomat.

As the " Minister of Foreign Affairs " of the Shi family, the relationship between Shi Weiyi and him could actually be regarded as a negotiation, or even a deal.

From this standpoint, he naturally had to give Jiang Beiran a beating from time to time like he did two days ago, to let him know that the Shi family was not stupid and not always trying to take advantage of him.

However, diplomacy was definitely not just about beating people up. It was also very important to give benefits at the right time.

It seemed that Shi Weiyi didn't take him to see the flowers to test him, but to find an excuse to give him some benefits.

After analyzing the situation, Jiang Beiran bowed and said, "Thank you for your gift, Sage."

"You deserve this. I told you a long time ago that as long as you work hard for the Shi family, you will definitely benefit." Shi Weiyi changed the topic, "In addition, from today onwards, Xuan Workshop will also be fully open to you. You can go anywhere with the Sage Token. This is both an affirmation of your ability and a test of your ability. I hope you won't disappoint our ancestor."

"Junior will definitely do my best."

In the Shi family, Linglong Workshop and Xuan Workshop were actually the same system. One was responsible for production and the other was responsible for sales.

Xuan Workshop was not open to outsiders, and the most valuable place was naturally the warehouse.

In order to increase the influence of the Shi family's Xuan Workshop and attract more people to trade here, there were quite a number of mansion-guarding treasures inside.

Now that Shi Weiyi had opened up the entire storage unit to Jiang Beiran, it meant that the Shi family had completely handed over the Xuan Yi business to him. In the future, if the Xuan Yi business was done well, Jiang Beiran would be one of the greatest heroes. However, if it was not done well...

Look at this pot, it's big and round.

However, since he had already become the Sage Token of the Shi family, and he had no cultivation at all, he naturally had to be able to convince everyone in the aspect of mystic arts. Otherwise, it would be equivalent to slapping the clan saint's face..

“Hohoho.” When Jiang Beiran put the brocade box into his Cosmos Ring, Shi Weiyi patted him on the shoulder and said, “Bei Ran, you’re the junior I think the most highly of. I believe you won’t disappoint me.”

“Junior will naturally work hard.”

“Alright, then I have nothing else to do here. You can go and do your work.”

“Yes, then this junior will take his leave first.” Jiang Beiran left the Saint Residence after he finished speaking.

Even though the responsibility on his shoulders had increased, Jiang Beiran felt much more relaxed.

Because after this conversation, the Shi family’s probing and testing of him had finally come to an end.

In the future, as a guest elder, he just had to manage the mystic arts well. This was actually much better than everyone being curious about him at the beginning and constantly testing him.

Jiang Beiran returned to Ten Thousand Flower Valley for two days after settling the matter. Apart from playing with Shi Fenglan for a while, Jiang Beiran also brought over all sorts of relevant information about Xuan Workshop.

Although his life creed had always been to know as little as possible, he had no choice. Now that Xuan Workshop was bound to him, he could no longer be a hands-off shopkeeper.

Even if he didn’t want Xuan Workshop to reach new heights, he couldn’t let it be worse than before.

On the third day, Jiang Beiran left Tong Country early in the morning and flew to Qi Country.

Then, he called Lin Yuyan to bring him into the Qi Empire and back to his mansion.

“Senior Brother! The cultivation technique you gave me is really too powerful.

NOW, not only can I control the Daletlll aura better, but I also have a way to make it stronger.”

Lin Yuyan said excitedly to Jiang Beiran as soon as she entered the room.

Hearing Lin Yuyan say that the cultivation method was useful, Jiang Beiran nodded in satisfaction.

This meant that Tang Jingran didn't cheat him, so he could continue to trade for a longer period of time.

When they arrived at the backyard, Jiang Beiran checked the self-protection barrier that had already formed its basic structure. He found that it had already begun to absorb the Spiritual Qi between heaven and earth. All that was left was to wait for it to become more solid before continuing to spread it out.

Seeing that the self-protection barrier was working, Jiang Beiran went out to inform Lin Yuyan that he had something to attend to and left without waiting for her to say anything.

As she watched her senior brother leave in a hurry, Lin Yuyan suddenly felt a flash of white light in her mind. She felt that something was wrong. 'I wonder which little fox is clinging onto my husband again. If I find out...'

As Lin Yuyan thought about it, an ochre colored murderous aura slowly emitted from her body, and it became denser and denser...

After leaving the mansion, Jiang Beiran boarded a flying shuttle and arrived at the village that had suffered from the plague. He then went to find Xia Lingdang's family.

"Thump. Dong!"

Jiang Beiran walked up and knocked on the door twice.

After a while, she heard hurried footsteps coming from inside the door. Ice pulled the door open.

"Benefactor!" Xia Lingdang called out in delight the moment she saw Jiang Beiran.

"I was delayed on the way and came a few days late. However, I have already looked at the date. Today is the perfect day for the burial."

"It's all very well arranged by benefactor," Xia Lingdang said hurriedly after listening."

“Alright, then I’ll go find someone now.”

Jiang Beiran didn’t have much to say to these eight gifted talents who had passed the system’s test.

The purpose of keeping them here was to let them get to know each other and understand that they were his “comrades”.

“Being in a foreign country, we still have to be careful when doing many things.”

Having said that, Jiang Beiran took out several stacks of talisman papers from his Cosmos Ring and distributed them to everyone.”“If you encounter any difficulties, you can ask the Shi family for help, or you can use this talisman paper to fold into a paper crane and ask me for help.”

Jiang Beiran’s words carried a few meanings. He could understand it as asking them to choose a side. He could also understand the Shi family for official matters. However, if he didn’t want the Shi family to know about his private matters, he could ask him for help.

As for how the eight of them understood it, that would depend on their own abilities.

This was the first question Jiang Beiran had given them.

“Thank you, Brother Jiang!” The eight of them cupped their hands after receiving the talisman.

“Mm, I wish you all a bright future. Go back.”

“Yes, sir!”

After answering in unison, the eight of them dispersed, and the square returned to silence.

Jiang Beiran looked up at the bright starry sky, wondering when his long-term investment would reap the benefits.

‘Let nature take its course, let nature take its course.’

After muttering to himself, Jiang Beiran slowly walked out.

After that, Jiang Beiran spent two days to completely remove the curse on Shi Weiyi's Golden Phoenix Ghost Orchid, allowing it to regain its health.

Shi Weiyi wasn't stingy at all. He gave Jiang Beiran a Black Grade Dharma treasure as a thank you gift.

"This is truly too precious." Jiang Beiran said while holding the brocade box.

"You're welcome. This is also what the ancestor wanted. He said that your cultivation is too low and it would be too dangerous to go out without a good defensive magic tool."

The treasure Shi Weiyi had given Jiang Beiran this time was a mid-grade Black Grade magic treasure called the White Moon Bracelet. It was used to form a golden light shield formed by willpower. The stronger the willpower of the user, the stronger the defensive power of the golden light shield.

Even if a cultivator with weak willpower used it, the golden light barrier could at least block the attack of a Mystique Venerable Rank expert once. It could be said to be a very powerful defensive magic treasure.

However, Jiang Beiran had never expected Shi Weiyi to give him a Mysterious Grade magic treasure as a gift of thanks.

After staying in the Six Nations for so long, he had gradually come to understand one thing.

Even in the Six Nations, there were very few Earth-rank and Heaven-rank magic treasures.

The reason was very simple. This was because the target of the Heaven-Grade Dharma treasure was the Dharma treasure used by the Mystic Thearch.

However, ever since the Mystic Thearch disappeared from the Black Dragon Continent, Heaven-Grade Dharma treasures had almost become extinct.

The target of the Earth-grade magic treasure was naturally a Profound Sage. Similarly, it was as rare as a Profound Sage.

Every time something appeared, it would cause a huge uproar.

In a situation where both heaven and earth magic treasures were extremely rare, black grade and yellow grade magic treasures naturally became the mainstream.
