

Worlds Plot 191

Chapter 191: 6.52 Third Green Star - Calm before the Storm

The bright red sun had finally risen, glowing brightly within the blue sky. The birds singing, beasts roar showing their might echoes within the forest. The trees block the heat and light from the morning sun causing shades under their heads. It is a typical morning for everyone who lives in the forest.

One by one the soldiers started waking up to do their morning exercises. They've also started disassembling the tents and piled it all up properly in one corner. The remaining tents at the campsite are only three. The tent where the host and system pair: Xu Lin and Baize reside. The second tent which Yun Suisen, Shi Moye, and Su Liye sleep into together and the last yet the biggest tent which their general and his family occupied.

In the tent of Baize and Xu Lin.

This is a pair where you have yet to confess each other's feelings. They treat each other better than the rest and would sometimes hug and hold hands but they've never kissed before. The two could sleep and hug in one bed but they did nothing but sleep all night.

The first one to wake up is Baize. He looked at the young man using his left arm as his personal pillow and had his right hand wrapped around his host's thin waist. They've been sleeping like this since he was able to turn into his human form. His eyes landed on that petite figure within his embrace.

Soft forest green hair, fair skin, and delicate features. This is his host's current vessel. But only Baize knew how Liu Yan really looks. He could still remember those almond-shaped eyes enclosing a pair of gold-colored orbs. These people's eyes have always been clear. There is no hint of negative emotions like greed, bloodthirsty, or sadness. He is just an ordinary yet kind soul.

When they first met, Baize had already sent countless of his former hosts to oblivion. It's not like he made them intentionally do all those mistakes. The choices those hosts made are their own, Baize is just doing his job as a host. But this doesn't mean those human souls would listen to him, most systems in the God System were prisoners of the Netherworld. Becoming a system means their sentence is light and it could be exchanged for doing charity work. Becoming a system guide is one. movelusb.com

But most human souls that entered the God System, are ascended beings of their own worlds. They were used to being at the top of their worlds, not knowing that in the God System becoming a deity or a god is a common thing. A lot of them are proud and haughty, they would never listen to another unless necessary. This is the reason why most of the hosts Baize handled before had been punished by the Divine Laws and like him, those souls were thrown to the Nether System for punishment.

Systems like Baize would only be freed by the Main System as long as they were able to help one achieve their goals and that the host that they've helped would exchange their accumulated points to redeem their system's freedom. Only then the system would be cleared of his sin.

Like Liu Yan, Baize's current host, his goal to enter God state. Liu Yan had been able to reach Godhood in the world where he first met Hei Anjing. After his goal is completed, Liu Yan is supposed to finish his world-hopping journey. He had the choice to continue or to stop and return to his own world.

Liu Yan chose the former. The remaining accumulated points he has are not enough to redeem Baize's freedom. They were short by a few million points. If Baize's identity before he becomes a system is just ordinary then the remaining points of Liu Yan would be enough. Unfortunately, Baize's identity is not simple.

Baize's sin is not too heavy for him to become a full pledge prisoner of the Nether System nor his sentence is completely light. This is the reason why even after Liu Yan completed his goal to reach godhood, Baize is unable to revert to his original identity.

Thus the world-hopping journey of Liu Yan and Baize continues.

Looking at the peacefully sleeping figure in his embrace, Baize couldn't be helped but feel helpless. His host isn't unlike the rest of the host in the God System whose goal is to increase their cultivation. It is enough for him to reach godhood and ordinarily live for eternity.

Moreover, his host's luck has always been tremendously extraordinary. It is because of this kind of luck that they were able to meet special authority hosts like Lord Hei and even the current Nether System's Lord God.

Baize watched his host chewing something in his sleep, there's even a blissful expression on his face as if he was dreaming of something extremely delicious. Seeing this Baize couldn't be helped but pinched his host's cheeks.

"Nuu~" Sleep talking of Xu Lin while being pinched.

"If not for me, you would be now enjoying your ordinary life in your own world. Eating whatever you like to eat and sleeping anytime whenever you wanted," murmured Baize. "Fool~" he kissed Xu Lin's forehead reverently.

For a being like Baize whose whole life is to be covered in blood and war, Xu Lin's kindness and affection are like a stray light in the darkness. He is his hope for a new beginning.

At the second tent where Yun Suisen and the other two are sleeping. These three were still in deep sleep as they all stayed up late last night. The snoring in this tent is still ongoing even after the sun has fully risen.

At the tent where the general and his family resided, Ximen Xueya is unexpectedly the first one to wake up. It is better to say that he didn't even close his eyes to sleep the whole night. He just laid next to his son and husband the whole night and stared at them in silence.

After his memories returned last night, the happiness due to his current situation made Ximen Xueya unable to sleep. Only now he could say that his feelings for Cao Junye aren't only due to obsession and affections. It was his true emotions of passionate love. With Ximen Chino included in their life, you could say that except for Cao Junye's incomplete state and they weren't able to come home right now, that everything else is already bliss.

Ximen Xueya murmured, "I've destroyed countless worlds looking for you in the God System. Who would have thought that you were hiding in the Nether System? Thankfully, I made that decision and came over to this side. You don't have to worry about anything. Just focus on getting back all your soul fragments. I will protect you as I have always been doing."

Caressing Cao Junye's cheeks tenderly, one could see how much affection Ximen Xueya has for the former just by seeing his eyes. At this moment, Xueya's eyes were full of endearment and sentiment as if the latter's supreme importance cannot be measured.

On the other hand, back to the Z District Base. Lou Lan had returned last night after he was teleported back by one of the leaders of Hope Base. Ximen Xueya did lots of things last night before he went back to their tent. As for the reason why Xueya brought back Lou Lan in the base, it must be because of the existence of the hidden destroyer whose identity is still unknown until now.

In the office.

Lou Lan is doing paperwork at the leader's office while Uncle Wu, the old butler, stays at the Ximen Mountain to continue the management of the place.

Concentrating on the pile of paperwork placed on the top of the table, Lou Lan held a pen and a stamp in his hands. His scribbling and stamping on the papers like there is no end to it.

Actually, Lou Lan's mind is not on the papers in front of him but in the conversation he had with Ximen Xueya last night. He was told that the current Yun Suisen, Shi Moye, and Su Liye were no longer the same people from the world plot. A couple of days ago, their vessels were overtaken but souls who took over were people they knew. They are the fourth world's Tuzi, Lang, and Xiong.

According to Ximen Xueya, the original plot had been destroyed the moment the protagonist's son, Shi Moye had died. No one knew how he died. All they know is that in a single night important characters like Shi Moye, Su Liye, and Yun Suisen had all died.

Xiong said that the original died under the poisoning from incense sticks gifted by Yun Ren. This incense stick is not an ordinary item. It's a special kind of item made from herbs not found in this world. Only the system mall could provide it in exchange for something.

The death of this world's crucial characters is an orchestrated murder. It seems that the culprit possesses a system that is only available for foreign souls like Ximen Xueya and the rest of the group.

In the beginning, Lou Lan had suspected Yun Ren as the last destroyer whose identity is unknown but according to Ximen Xueya. After checking on Yun Ren that day, when the Noble faction made a ruckus in their home, he is one hundred percent sure that Yun Ren's soul is not a foreign one like theirs.

After all, Xueya only needs one direct touch to check whether the soul and the vessel matched. When the former had held Yun Ren's shoulder that day, he had already known that the child isn't an outsider like them, though at the same time he possesses something that isn't supposed to be with him. It's a system. One with an erased barcode and clearly a stolen one. Now they are sure that the third destroyer is hiding within the base.

A knocking was suddenly heard from outside the room.

Knock. Knock.

Lou Lan asked, "Who is it?"

"It's me. Yun Lu, sir." The one who knocked on the door is none other than the former clan leader of Yun Clan, Yun Lu.

"Enter," responded Lou Lan.

The sound of the door opening was heard followed by a few urgent footsteps made by Yun Lu. Once the latter had ended the office with a few more papers in his hands, Yun Lu did his work and placed the reports with him on the table in front of Lou Lan. But the former Yun Clan's Leader didn't leave right away, he just stood in front of the table fidgeting as if he wanted to say something. Lou Lan noticed it but didn't react right away.

"Sir Lou... May I... talk with you for a moment, please," asked Yun Lu.

Lou Lan stopped his hand which held the pen and paused his actions. He raises his head and stares at the middle-aged man in front of him.

"What is it?" he asked.

There's a clear hesitation in Yun Lu's gestures and Lou Lan indeed scurries him to speak. Instead, he waited and in silence.

"I... I would like... to ask for a day off. My son, Yun Ren, is suffering from fever so I... wanted to look after him for a while." said Yun Lu.

Lou Lan suddenly frowned when he heard this. Getting sick during the apocalypse is uncommon but most humans after passing the trial of the bloody moon possess health beyond norms. Except for suffering from the zombie virus when bitten, ordinary illnesses like fever and coughs rarely occur nowadays.

Now, Yun Lu is saying that Yun Ren is suffering from a fever? This is weird.

Lou Lan kept his thoughts in his mind and didn't ask Yun Lu questions about how his son is suddenly down with a fever.

Even if Lou Lan didn't ask questions about the sudden fever of Yun Ren, Yun Lu had already seen him frown once. A smart person like Yun Lu could already guess the reason for Lou Lan's frown.

"Sir Lou. The others might have not informed you but... a lot of people in our base are suffering from fever. The doctors in the hospital say it's only an ordinary hay fever. I'm only weird about my son because his body has been weak since he was young. I wanted to look after him which is why I've asked for a single day off." explained Yun Lu.

Lou Lan's expression turned slightly serious as he heard the news of hay fever spreading in the base. Moreover, the hospital had already diagnosed it as a normal fever and didn't report it to the higher-ups, which is also strange. After all, Cao Junye had informed all the people under the management to report any changes in the base, no matter how small or big the changes are.

"You can go. Take the day off you wanted. Take two days off if needed. There isn't any urgent work in the office anyway." said Lou Lan.

Yun Lu's face lightens when his day off was approved. This worried old man had left the office with a grin on his face. Just his expressions show how good his mood currently is. By the time the Yun clan's leader left the room, Lou Lan's expression turned grave. Just based on the report Yun Lu had told him regarding the hay fever, there is obviously someone blocking some news about the base from reaching the main office.

"An ordinary Hay fever is it?" murmured Lou Lan in the quiet office.

Chapter 192: 6.53 Third Green Star - The Last Destroyer

It's been three whole days since the group lead by the leaders had left the base to head to the forest. Lou Lan had stayed at the base to be the proxy leader while the two were away.

Evening at the District Z. Hope Base.

At the residential area where most survivors live, rows of apartment buildings stood. This area used to be an empty lot before the world ended. The military and the government had used the borrowed money from the Ximen Family to construct these buildings in preparation for the apocalypse.

Now at the time of the apocalypse, these buildings were put to use. Ability users with their teams live in these buildings with their members. They exchange points or zombie crystals to rent these places. Some teams with the greater numbers even rented a whole floor from themselves. On the other hand, ordinary unawakened ability users or ordinary people could only live in tents provided by the government and military.

The base provides food and necessities for everyone in the base in exchange for labor. The abilities users would complete missions for rewards while ordinary people were able to eat every day in exchange for simple tasks like sweeping, watering plants in greenhouses, or carpentry.

As long as they do some task, they would be rewarded with points which could be exchanged for food and many other things. Life in the base is simple yet stable. Except for the zombies outside the walls, the survivors inside the base live their daily ordinary lives.

Unfortunately, peace didn't last long. Children and the elderly started suffering from fever for an unknown reason. Those who went to the hospital say that it's only an ordinary hay fever and can be cured with antibiotics.

The civilians had calmed down but the fever had spread vigorously within the base. Now even level 1 to 2 ability users started suffering from fever. It didn't take a while for chaos to arise within the base. In the end, the simple hay fever had become rampant.

Now that the leaders, Cao Junye and Ximen Xueya, are not in the base. This commotion had become the proxy leader Lou's responsibility but for some reason, there is no response from Lou Lan at all. It is because of this that the survivors started complaining about the base's current leadership and began to compile some complaints to the main office. But the main office remains silent the whole time.

Some courageous survivors started rioting and putting the entrance of the main office on fire. The ability users whose families were affected by the pandemic joined the uproar causing chaos in front of the main office of the leaders. They were quite fearless knowing that none of the two leaders were at the base and only a proxy remained to supervise. What they didn't know was that this proxy leader, Lou Lan, was given orders not to interfere in this kind of event.

Cao Junye and Ximen Xueya knew that the moment they left the base, someone who had hidden within the crowd would incite disorder in the base. They've expected this and made some plans for this type of situation. But what they are planning to do is to bait the unknown danger hidden among the crowd. The last destroyer.

While the rioting outside continued, some people remained on the sidelines and just watched. They were waiting for the real leaders to return. Only when the general and his lover come home that everything would return to normal. Most of the bystanders in this event are those who were well exposed to political confrontations. They already knew that someone was pulling the strings and incited those civilians to attack the main office of the leaders. They wanted to wane the authority the great general and his wife held.

At the Yun Clan's place, Yun Lu had just put his son, Yun Ren, to sleep. His son had been suffering from the same kind of fever as the rest. After changing the fever patch on Yun Ren's forehead and wrapping him into a thick blanket, Yun Lu finally took a breath of relief seeing his son's complexion slowly turning to normal.

Yun Lu spoke softly, "Son, rest well. Dad is here."

Covered in sweat and heat, Yun Ren kept his eyes close to rest. His father took his leave after he closed his eyes pretending to sleep. Once the door of his room had closed after Yun Lu left, Yun Ren's eyes suddenly opened. He looks around in his room with intense vigilance and fear in his eyes.

Yun Ren's ragged breathing echoes within the darkroom. "Pants~ ha~ liar. You weren't speaking the truth when you've said that as long as I kill Shi Moye, Su Liye, and my elder brother that the apocalypse would end. You lied to me, system!?"

He started talking on his own within the empty room. Yun Ren looked agitated as he looked at the empty air in front of him. It would be hard for a normal being to see this thing he calls a system. As if responding to the words Yun Ren had spout a part of the space before him, had twisted in a circle. Then a black butterfly the size of an adult human fist appeared up ahead a meter away from where Yun Ren is. Its wide wings flutter as it hovers around Yun Ren.

"The three of them are dead now! How come the apocalypse has yet to stop!?" grumbled Yun Ren, his eyes were now obviously bloodshot from hatred and guilt.

A female voice was suddenly heard from the black butterfly flying around Yun Ren. The voice is mechanical as usual but the tone had seductive hints on it.

[Heh~ since when did this system tell you that the apocalypse would end when you've killed those three? I only told you that the apocalypse is closely related to those mortals~ and this lady no... this system hasn't said a word of the apocalypse ending after they died~]

"You!!?" With his anger raging, Yun Ren tried to grab the black butterfly only to suffer getting electrified. "AAAH!!~"

[You can continue screaming~ this system has put a barrier around the room. Even if you scream all night no one could hear you~ Hahaha~]

"You... Ah, ~ made me... k-kill... my brother~ Ha~ he is dad's... real... son!! AH~"

[ Snort* I only gave you a choice. You were the one who put things to action. Deep in your heart, you knew that once your dad learned about Yun Suisen's identity that you'd lose your place in this family. What a hypocrite~

Haha~ one more thing. Before you croak, let me tell you something~ those three people you've killed... they were the only mortals who could have ended all this world's sufferings~ but you killed them with your own hands. Now, this apocalypse will continue until all humans~ died!!]

"You bitch!! Liar... LIAR!!! AAHHH!!!"

The black butterfly never intended to let go of Yun Ren as he would lead those people to her real host. Her master had tasked her to make sure those outsiders did not notice his existence.

The clan had tasked her master to kill one target. The target mission is called Ximen Xueya, supposed to be a mere mob character of this world. But who would expect that the Ximen Xueya of this world turned to be a foreign soul like her master? Not only him but a few more foreign souls had entered this star.

Even after hacking this star's world data, the information they've got is pure nonsense. Ximen Xueya's original data had been replaced and it cannot be accessed any matter she does. It was for this reason that her master had decided to keep themselves hidden and found a scapegoat. His master had chosen Yun Ren for that. This hay fever is something they've made as well. They've wanted for the stability of the base to crumble while the tigers are not at home.

After successfully inciting chaos, his master had deemed Yun Ren no longer of use which is why she, the black butterfly, had to eliminate the bootless element. There is no need to cover up the dead body as this base would no longer exist in a while. When she finished her task of elimination, the black butterfly avatar system had returned to her real host's side.

Above grounds within the evening sky, a man's figure can be seen afloat. This man is wearing a military coat accompanied by countless medals which shows his achievements. Despite his old appearance, this man stood straight as a pole as if unhindered by his old age. The appearance of this man is very familiar. He is the retired old general with the surname of Sun. Full name: Sun Yu.

His cold gaze overlooked the chaos and uproar under his feet. There are few humans creating fires while bombing the main office of the authority in this base. This is something he planned to do before leaving this place. He wanted those men to lose a place to return to. In a while, those mortals who were suffering from fever would turn to zombies as he had them infected with a mild zombie virus that would be incubated in the infected body for a while before surging instantly in three days. Today is the third day since the virus has spread.

In the middle of the night, the hope base had fallen into mayhem. Old General Sun watches the scene he made without any emotion on his face. The only difference in his appearance is that his original dark brown eyes had now turned silver. The argent orbs glow within the darkness. It was at this time that a black butterfly had appeared by his side.

[Master. Black Butterfly had returned. The task of eliminating the character Yun Ren had been done.]

Old General Sun touched his face and ripped off his current appearance. After he peeled off the skin, his original appearance was revealed. A young man in his twenties whose appearance had similarities to Hei Jue. But unlike Hei Jue's refined features which emit kindness and gentle temperament, this man's appearance is a bit androgynous. If no one looked closely, they wouldn't know he is a man because of his quite feminine face.

The man said, "Good job, Hudie."

[What should Black Butterfly do next, master?]

"Accelerate the activation of the zombie virus and then we're leaving this star." replied the man.

[How about the mission, master?]

A frown appeared on the man's feminine face, "We are bailing. I've finally recognized whose soul is in that mob character called Ximen Xueya. If he is really whom I thought it was then... this mission is an impossible task."

[What do you mean, master? Who is the soul in Ximen Xueya?]

"Coldness as if touching the unmelting glaciers in both north and south poles. Aloofness and indifference towards strangers as if no one is allowed to enter his line of sight and... overprotectiveness towards his own loved ones.

His endearment can already be called an obsession. He is crazy enough to destroy anything if someone touches a nerve they shouldn't. Even the Clan's Ancestor and elders were fearful of his anger. There is only death when facing him."

[Who is he, master?]

Silence is the only thing given to the system as an answer. The delicate-faced man with argent eyes didn't respond, instead took a single step and left the place without any word. Forgotten, the black butterfly system just hummed as she was used to her master ignoring her. She only left the place after activating the zombie virus.

Another surge of chaos which would equate to the scene of hell had occurred within the base. Those humans who were just suffering from high fever had started convulsing. Their skins instantly turn bloodless with black veins starting to manifest. Instead of screams, low tone growls had come out of their mouth together with uncontrolled drool. Their eyes turned red and inhumanely started biting the other humans around them. Zombies were created and hell on earth had once again begun.

The Hope Base had fallen that night. Leaving only a few survivors who had hid in an underground open area right below the base. This is the only safety measure the military and the government had created in times like this. They've put into consideration what could be done if the base got infected with the zombie virus and thus the underground facility was made.

The one who led the survivors to the underground facilities is Lou Lan. This is something Ximen Xueya had told him to do. Though they've expected the last destroyer to cause turmoil in the base, who would have expected that the bastard would cause a zombie outbreak within the base. Thankfully, Lou Lan is ready for this situation and already sent secret orders to their people.

The survivors stayed within the underground facilities just beside the secret warehouse waiting for Ximen Xueya and Cao Junye to rescue them. They were not afraid of waiting, within the secret warehouse food and necessities were prepared for them. They can eat without problems for months and there is no way that that journey their leaders had taken would take months to complete. Everyone waited for the rescue patiently under Lou Lan's lead.

Chapter 193: 6.54 Third Green Star - Hidden Agendas within the base

These are the events that took place within the base before Ximen Xueya and his husband had returned to the Z District Base. It was the scene when the original Su Liye had just returned from a mission and killed the bastard that used his family members as bait. The ending of that black-hearted policeman and his mercenary group is to become the zombies' meal after Su Liye and his two subordinates took their leave with the seeds from their mission.

Their return had caused a commotion in the base. After all, the whole mercenary lead by Liu Ling never returned and among the mission takers for bringing back the seeds, only three people had returned. Only Su Liye and a married couple, who worked for him. The soldiers guarding the entrance were frightened when they opened the gates to the base and met Su Liye in an extremely bad mood at that moment.

It didn't take an hour for the news about the demise of Liu Ling and his group to spread in the base, especially at the top authorities of the three factions.

"I heard from Liu Ling that the Noble Faction backs had died under the hand of the man named Su Liye."

"They've said that Liu Ling killed the man's family and ended up getting killed himself."

"But they've said none of the mercenaries under Liu Ling had returned. Only the man named Su Liye and his two subordinates did." movelusb.com

"Is that for real? I heard Liu Ling is almost level 3. He really died!?"

"Shit! Does this mean that Su Liye is stronger than Liu Ling!?"

"Fuck! This is so amazing. Except for Boss Shi who is already Level 3, he has a friend who is also at the same level."

"Would the Noble faction turn a blind eye over this!?"

"I don't think so."

"I heard a group of clan leaders is coming over to the leader's office to talk."

"Isn't this bad for Boss Shi?"

"No shit! The boss has Yun Suisen, the butler of the Ximen Family and Old General Sun would him. They won't directly touch them. The real problem is Su Liye."

"Sigh~ what a waste of talent."

"Indeed. This is... quite unexpected."

This kind of daily conversation was exchanged in every corner of the Hope Base. The old leaders of the Noble Faction really wanted to have Su Liye and his group executed but Old General Sun greatly disagreed. With him backing Shi Moye, Su Liye's punishment ended within only a house arrest for one month. This is the same for Su Liye's people. They were all put under arrest.

The military faction had to surrender half of its resources to the Noble Faction just to have Su Liye and his group spared. Shi Moye didn't think twice and did the exchange to save his friend.

The friction between the two factions had continued for months until they got the news that the great general from the central city would be coming over to their base soon. The first one to get the news is the military faction, because of this Shi Moye, Yun Suisen and Su Liye decide to have their own party in Shi Moye and Yun Suisen place. Partying all night without a care for the other factions.

On the same night, Yun Ren at the Yun Clan mansion was watching the joyous event from his house veranda. He looked at them with envy in his eyes. Staring especially at his elder brother Yun Suisen, the biological son of his current father, Yun Lu. Of course, the Yun Clan leader wasn't informed about Yun Suisen's real identity. He only thought that since the child is surnamed Yun, it made him a member of his Yun Clan.

It didn't take a while for Yun Lu to notice that his son Yun Ren was looking at Yun Suisen like he wanted to speak with him. Because of this, the doting old man had made sure to always bring his son whenever he came over to meet Shi Moye. This will allow his son to have more time to spend with Yun Suisen even with the pretense of work. What this old man didn't know is that his adopted son wanted to end the life of his real son.

Those opportunities allowed Yun Ren to be able to enter the personal space of the couple. Yun Ren acted like a friendly little brother towards Yun Suisen and Shi Moye. The couple doesn't want any conflict and they never think that they've possessed something worthy of stealing, thus they allowed the young lad to roam around their territory unhindered.

Things were getting better within the base. Though the authority within the place is split into three factions, there is still minimal stability and coordination between factions.

One evening the factions had decided to have a banquet. This is to check on each other whether they are planning something before the real leaders of the base returns. They were gauging each other's intentions with a smile imprinted on their faces. This is especially true among the elders of each faction. They've started acting like scheming foxes while wearing an intentional smile on their wrinkled face.

Su Liye murmured, "Whoa~ look at their faces~ it's even twitching~ how lame."

"Shss! Our old general isn't that much different," whispered Yun Suisen back.

Shi Moye, who was used as a blockage wall by the two murmuring idiots behind him. "You know that they can still hear you even if you guys whispered your words right?" said the talking human wall.

When Yun Suisen and Su Liye raised their heads and peek from behind Shi Moye, they were given countless eyes from the old men saying that they could leave the place to sleep. Yun Suisen and Su Liye looked at each other before exchanging a nod and grabbed each of Shi Moye's arms.

"Let's go!" said Su Liye.

Yun Suisen spoke, "Come over to the room. Let's play mahjong. Grabbed Yun Ren as well."

"W-Wait... I'm still the leader, I can't just leave..." said Shi Moye.

The two responded at the same time, "Leave it to the old man (Uncle Sun)!"

"You two!"

Before Shi Moye could speak more words Yun Suisen and Su Liye had grabbed him and ran away. Of course, they didn't forget to drag Yun Ren with them on their way out. The adults ignored them as usual but what others didn't notice is that the eyes of Old General Sun turned cold when he watched those young men leave the venue. His eyes flash with hints of silver for a split second before it returns to a normal shade of brown.

Meanwhile, the four young men who ran out of the venue were having a conversation with a relaxed demeanor in some building's hallway. They were on their way to the place where Shi Moye and Yun Suisen live. The three happily walked inside the room and took the things used to play mahjong. Among the group, only Yun Ren stood where he was waiting for these three to assemble a mahjong table.

While waiting at the sideline, Yun Ren remained silent the whole time. But in his mind, Yun Ren is currently having a conversation with a system called black butterfly. This thing called itself a system. It suddenly appeared within Yun Ren's mind one day. It said it feeds through his negative emotions like envy, greed, hatred, and jealousy. After explaining the reason why he had chosen him, Yun Ren heard that there is a way for him to end this cruel world.

A way to cure the ongoing apocalypse. Yun Ren didn't believe it in the beginning. But after completing a few missions provided by the system, he was able to enjoy the rewards of fast level-up opportunities for his ability. He even awakened a second ability after his first ability which is water. The second ability he awakened is wind and this all thanks to completing tasks provided by the system.

Now, he received a new task. This is a mission that involves saving the world and ending the apocalypse. Thanks to the system egging him all the time, Yun Ren had awakened a weird complex. It is called the God Complex.

[Dear host. Please complete your mission as this world's savior. You must end the lives of the three sinners who prevent you from becoming the hero.]

Yun Ren replied in his mind, "I... I need to kill... t-them? No way! I can't become a murderer. I cannot even defeat them. Much less kill them!"

[My host, there is no need to make it bloody. You can do it without seeing blood. Didn't you check on our system mall before? There are lots of items in the mall that will be helpful for you to complete your missions.]

"Is there something like that in the system mall? How come I didn't see it the last time?"

[Your level before is too low. Now that you've become a level 2 dual ability user, that part of the mall has been unlocked for the host to enjoy.]

"Go show me then. I want one that will leave no traces on me. Something that would take their lives but doesn't harm me at all. It's better if they die in their sleep. Painless and fast."

Yun Ren while wallowing in his haughtiness and arrogance didn't even hear the system in his mind snort at him. He is too absorbed in looking through the system mall and didn't notice the strangeness of the system in his head. In the end, the system had suggested an incense that had a forest aroma which had a relaxing effect yet deadly. As long, one is exposed to this smell in 6 hours, one would never wake up and the heart would stop beating when the hours passed.

Yun Ren redeemed the incense. The black butterfly system had suggested this item because Yun Suisen likes this type of thing. After spending time under the roof of the wealthy Ximen Family, buying a special type of incense had been added to his job. The original Ximen Xueya likes the incense aroma spreading in his house, especially one with relaxing and sleep-inducing effects.

The original Yun Suisen thought that this incense from his younger brother to be a simple housewarming gift for them. Who would have thought that it was a gift from hell which took the lives of not only him but also the lives of his lover and his friend.

It was on this day that the three crucial characters of this world had died all at the same time. On the same evening after the souls of the three had left their vessels, someone else had taken over their bodies. Tuzi had entered Yun Suisen's body. Warrior Lang took over Shi Moye's vessel while Su Liye's body had been out under the control of Xiong. They've all woken up at dawn suffering from dizziness and nausea.

"Blergh~ A'Xi that disgusting smell. Throw that incense! It's making me want to puke!" said Yun Suisen as he ran towards the bathroom to puke as he said.

On the other hand, Shi Moye had opened all the windows in the room and used his vessel's ability to control the wind and remove all the smell left behind by the dangerous item that took the lives of the original three. Su Liye on the other hand had poured a glass of wine on the incense and instantly turned it to ashes.

Su Liye spoke, "This aroma is mixed with scentless deadly poison. No wonder the original three died in their sleep."

Shi Moye took a cigarette from the side table and smoked one. "Want some?" he offered a stick to his other lover. Ever since the two of them became mates of Tuzi from the last world, they've treated each other with the same importance as they treated their wife. The two were like twins in the kind.

"Thanks. After our wife finished puking we should take a bath and remove the residual smell just in case. Though I wouldn't affect us, the other people in this world would also die if exposed to this poison." said Su Liye.

Shi Moye agreed and said, "Isn't that kind of item with special use that can only be bought with points through the system mall?"

"Sigh~ Lord Baojun had transferred us into an A rank world directly. Thankfully our souls had 100 percent protection in this star. We'll be safe no matter what happens in this world." said Su Liye.

"I heard there are three destroyers in this place. Thankfully, the boss and his wife are also here. I wonder how big our nephew is right now."

"You're talking about Xiao Jing? We can just ask the system bound to the three of us," said Su Liye as he suddenly calls upon the system the three of them shared.

The system that got bound to them is someone the God of Reincarnation had chosen personally. The system had a lotus avatar as it floats in front of Su Liye who summoned it. The three of them called their system Xiao Hua (Little Lotus).

"Xiao Hua. We would like to know the current situation, our identity, our friends' identity, and Xiao Jing's current vessel."

[Gathering requested information from the world database. The world database had been corrupted. Initiating Reboot. Initiating Restoration. A part of the data in this world is completely corrupted but Host Xiong's requests have been fulfilled.

The hosts' current situation is not bad. You guys all have some authority in this place called the base. This is the world of apocalypse. Undead beings were crawling around the world spreading viruses but the hosts had nothing to worry about. Thanks to the protection the esteemed Ruler God had left in your souls, in this world nothing would be able to harm you at all. You guys are invincible existences inside this star.

Your identities are as follows. Lord Lang's current vessel is called Shi Moye. The former protagonist of this world. You are a soldier with the position of a Major and currently the young leader of this base.

Lord Tuzi's vessel is called Yun Suisen. A butler who used to serve the wealthiest and omnipotent Ximen Family. The original is the lover of the original Shi Moye as well.

Lastly, Lord Xiong's vessel is named Su Liye. One of the few strongest ability users in the base. Your vessel used to possess a level of strength that matches the original Shi Moye. Best friend of the original Shi Moye and Yun Suisen. There are no lovers but you are a big boss of your own mercenary.

Meanwhile, as for the identity of your friends and Young Lord Xiao Jing.

Lord Hei's vessel is called Ximen Xueya, the family leader of the omnipotent family of Ximen. He is also the biological father of Ximen Chino who is artificially made from two genes. One is from Ximen Xueya and the other is from a man named Cao Junye.

Ximen Chino is a three-year-old toddler. This is the vessel of Young Lord Xiao Jing.

As for Lord Ye, his vessel is the great general of this world named Cao Junye, who is also the current lover of Ximen Xueya as well as Young Lord's other biological father.

Report End.]

It was at this right timing that Yun Suisen had finished gurgling after puking everything the body had eaten before. He heard the whole report of Xiao Hua as their minds are connected to the system the three of them shared.

Yun Suisen's reaction to the report.

"Wow, ~ Baobao and Xiao Jing's vessels in this world are badass as usual. The boss is not bad as well~"

Chapter 194: 6.55 Third Green Star - Leaving the Forest

The news about the destruction of Hope Base in Z District had spread in the whole country. The sad news about the Z District Base had sent fear towards the other bases especially when they heard that the cause of its demise was a hidden infection that caused the zombie virus to spread.

There is also news about bases being attacked by a zombie siege made up of millions. Because of this kind of news, lots of small bases split and decided to join with others in preparations for the last day.

Few smart ones took some cars and headed to the other end of the country. Despite the news of Z District falling, some still didn't give up and headed to the north. They wanted to struggle more for their lives to last.

District Z is their last hope of humanity. This is because they heard a floating rumor that in the north there's a hidden paradise that may be able to become the last sanctuary in this apocalypse. The paradise is called the Ximen Mountain.

On the other hand at District N.

The zombies had conquered the lands from districts A to N. Within these districts all humans and living things were considered extinct. They were either turned into undead beings or eaten alive.

The zombie king and queen had reached the level of 10. It is undeniable that they are now at the top of the food chain with half of the current populations of living things having come to an end thanks to their existence.

Reaching the N District, the sounds of screams and agony continue to echo. These are few humans who didn't leave the district with General Cao at that time. They were living peacefully in some warehouses until this siege hit their district. As expected no one was spared and all lives were hunted.

Zombie King, Ye Yan, and Zombie Queen, Hei Suyu, left all the cleaning up tasks to their generals. They were now the strongest among the undead race. Those four zombie generals had to listen to their commands without question.

The king and queen were now at the same seaside villa which Ximen Xueya used to own. It was the same place where Cao Junye and the rest stayed when they came over to this district.

The interior of the villa is covered in dust but the things left inside were still there. The cups and plates, teacups and utensils, pillows and blankets in the bedroom, and even some picture frames with Ximen Xueya and Ximen Chino on it. This villa hasn't been ransacked by other survivors nor ordinary zombies would enter the house as there aren't any living beings in the place.

At this moment, Ye Yan and Hei Suyu had occupied the place. They've even enjoyed the left behind tea leaves by the house cupboard and made some for them. Now that they are high leveled Zombies, human food can be consumed. Except for their strength which is beyond normal beings, their outer appearance had returned to being that of a human.

Their skins were no longer bloodless instead it was pinkish and glowing as if to show their body's healthy state. The black veins had faded leaving only a state of softness and good shape of physical condition, the same thing happened with their black nails. It could be retracted anytime they wanted. At their current state, no one would realize that they were not human beings, mingling with other humans is also possible.

In the villa's living room, the whole place was cleaned up by the zombie generals before the zombie king and queen occupied that place. Now the zombie queen, Hei Suyu, is enjoying a cup of tea while Ye Yan is holding a photo album they found at the master's bedroom.

There is a sound of something being flipped every minute. Ye Yan is looking through the album full of photos. Most of it shows pictures shared by three people: Ximen Xueya, Ximen Chino, and Cao Junye. This is a photo album the old butler Wu had made when the family of three were still living in the capital. The good scene of peace before the world ended had arrived.

Hei Suyu spoke, "A'Yan what are you looking at? Is that a family photo album? Whose?"

"The target and his family," replied Ye Yan.

"Seriously!?! Let me see what the target looks like!" said Hei Suyu who hurriedly occupied the space beside the zombie king.

Within the photo album, Hei Suyu saw many happy pictures of two adult men and a child. In most of the photos, all three of them were smiling, especially the child. It's a photo portraying a perfect and happy family.

Hei Suyu stares at the photo but is unable to point out which of the two adult men is their target for the mission. "So, which of the two?" the zombie queen asked.

Ye Yan didn't reply with words, instead using his index finger he pointed at Ximen Xueya's figure in the photo.

"This one." The zombie king pointed at Xueya's photo who is looking at his son and husband with a small smile on his family, his eyes softening while staring at his loved ones.

The zombie queen slyly hooked up her lips, "He's quite handsome and... has a cold temperament."

Ye Yan appraised their target for the mission. Only to notice the disparity of the original residents of this world to him.

"Not only that. His gestures and poise..."

Hei Suyu immediately noticed the things her lover pointed out. She is someone from a noble clan as well. Someone whose family is from the upper realms which are above the other worlds. She could easily identify the core with just a few words from her lover.

"It's a bit too ingrained into him. As if he is someone who is born in some noble clan. Formality and elegance are already second to his nature. I couldn't even have this kind of presence."

"This is the demeanor of someone not of this kind of era. He is not an original resident and must be a foreign soul like us."

The zombie queen's eyes widened in astonishment. If the words of her lover, Ye Yan are true then this mission target is not an ordinary soul as she thought. Like the zombie king had said before there is something wrong with their prey.

"I had Bee investigate this person ahead of time. If there is no problem, he should be on his way back," said Ye Yan.

Hei Suyu responded worriedly, "What if Bee got caught? If the target is indeed a foreign soul like us, it means that he should possess his own system. A world hopper undergoing a mission in a C rank world like this but didn't panic even after the world had upgraded to an A rank one after we got involved is not an ordinary person. There is no way he wouldn't receive a system prompt of this world's rank being upgraded."

"The heavenly will of this star had blocked the whole world, preventing insiders from leaving and outsiders from entering. He either wasn't able to leave or... he chose to stay. If it is the former then we won't have any problem with this mission. But if it's the latter then... we have to kill him without holding back. Once things get out of hand, we won't be able to leave this place as well.

Let the plans progress faster. Command the zombies to attack all the bases from District M to Y as soon as possible. The target might be staying in the Z District in the north." said Ye Yan.

The zombie queen, Hei Suyu, used her mental ability to order all the zombies. She passes Ye Yan's command through her mind to the mind of the four zombie generals under their control.

{Kill all living things from district M to district Y. Leave nothing alive!}

As soon as the command was passed, the sound of growling zombies could be heard collectively just outside the villa. The four zombie generals had split their groups and started attacking the districts consecutively. It wouldn't take long for the zombies to conquer the whole country at this pace.

---

At the forest.

The group spent a week within the jungle. They had gathered enough materials to elevate the survival of their base. Thanks to Ximen Xueya's help, the group had also tamed a few mutated animals living inside the forest. These mutated animals were like Oreo, they had intelligence but most of them couldn't directly speak. The mutated animals could mostly convey their thoughts with their masters as long the taming is done.

The soldiers were able to tame a wolf pack with the wolf king being tamed by Wang Lei. Baize helped his host tame a white tiger which the two now share as their mount. Shi Moye and Su Liye had grabbed some lions for their wife and took some pythons with them as well. The three rode on the lions while the pythons were told to shrink at the size where they could wrap themselves around Su Liye and Shi Moye's wrists or waist.

The mutated animals can control their size after reaching level 6 and above. Normally it would be impossible to tame beasts of this kind, not only their levels are high paired with some intelligence, they would never attach themselves to human beings. But who made Ximen Xueya too godly, with a little bit of coercion from him, those mutated beasts felt their lives were at stake if they didn't listen to him. Thus the taming of this beast becomes easier with Xueya around.

Cao Junye also tamed some animals but unlike the rest, he didn't choose land-based beasts like lions, tigers, or such. He instead chooses something that is invincible in the air. The mutated animal the general had chosen is the phoenix from before.

Few hours ago. At lunch before leaving the forest.

During the whole process of taming, Xueya didn't help Junye at all. Why would he help? His husband had enough strength to contend even with the old willow if he wanted to. So when Cao Junye jumped off the cliff except for Ximen Xueya and the curious little bun Chino, almost everyone in their group was frightened and shocked.

Wang Lei only frowned while waiting by the cliff together with Ximen Xueya and his young master. Baize remained calm as he knew what kind of man reigned the whole Nether System. Rumors about that Lord God of Nether had never been good especially for prisoners or sinners like him. His host, Xu Lin, was panicking with his face all pale. He couldn't believe someone would jump off a cliff much less meet those mythical beings without a plan.

Yun Suisen on the other hand acted normal. He sat beside Ximen Xueya and enjoyed eating snacks with his nephew. His lovers were not with him as Cao Junye brought them over with him. Wang Lei and Baize were left behind as they were in charge of the overall protection of the group. After all, Junye doesn't expect his wife to protect everyone unless it's necessary. The latter would even watch the group destroyed as long as Chino is safe.

While waiting for their general to arrive, the soldiers were tasked to light some fire once again. It was Xueya's orders. This is in preparation for lunch.

As they waited for the soldiers to make the fire, Yun Suisen while holding a macaroon in his hand looked down as the deep trench under the cliff. He could still remember the feeling of falling from this height in his original world as Tuzi.

"Woa~ They've really jumped. Is there a river below?" says Yun Suisen as he peers at the cliff.

Beside him the sound of sound slurping loudly on his drinks can be heard.

Slurps~

It is Ximen Chino sipping on his daddy's cup of strawberry shake. This is a drink his father made for his daddy. He had finished drinking his own cup and took the liberties of drinking his daddy's part. Chino is now sitting on his daddy's lap. move1usb.com

Ximen Xueya wipes the excess juice on the corner of his son's mouth before nonchalantly replying to Yun Suisen's question.

"There's no river. But Moya is a wind ability user, they won't fall to their deaths."

"Hm~ that is also true. Xuexue I want some milkshake too~" said Yun Suisen before teasing his nephew at the same time. "How about sharing some to Shushu Baby Chino?"

The little bun pouted and faced his uncle with his fat butt. "No! This is Chi-chan's~"

"Come on~ that's your daddy's... Not yours!"

"It's Chino's... Mine. Daddy~ this drink is Chino's right? ~" said the little bun while looking up to his daddy who was smiling at him.

Struck by the little baby's adorable big eyes, the adults around him felt their hearts were directly struck with overload cuteness. They were even more speechless when they heard Xueya chuckles out of nowhere.

Kissing his son's forehead with a dotting smile on his beautiful face, "Mm. Daddy gave it to you. So it's baby's drink. Your shushu is just teasing you." replied Xueya.

The little bun happily grinned after hearing his daddy's words especially when he suddenly got a kiss. Lately, his daddy had been giving him lots of kisses and hugs. The same with his father, Cao Junye, they were both given kisses and hugs by Ximen Xueya ever since this morning.

Ximen Xueya said, "Sui, don't tease the child anymore. Here's your drink."

He didn't forget to bring a few pitchers of mango shake for everyone from his space. Yun Suisen joyously took the first cup of it.

"Hmm~ cold and sweet~" said Yun Suisen.

Afterwards a soldier reported that the fire was made. Hearing this Xueya called for Zhi Yue and had him materialized in his human form while out of anyone's sight. He left his son, Chino, to him while he and Yun Suisen began cooking for lunch. Xu Lin also joined the two with cooking.

A feast was prepared under the work of three people. Xueya ordered Yun Suisen and Xu Lin with the whole process of cooking. Seeing how Xueya did all the cooking preparations and procedure, Xu Lin was shocked as this was the first time he had witnessed Xueya's godly skills in cooking.

Yun Suisen is used to this and did his part without any problems. While Xu Lin was left standing, staring in shock and amazement. The feast Xueya made is something that can only be served in luxurious 5 five restaurants. His drool could be held back during the process.

Drooling~

Dazed Xu Lin, "It smells so... Delicious!!"

"Wipe your drool. Be careful not to swallow your tongue as well. I know it smells heavenly but we won't be able to eat it unless the boss returns. If you can't really bear to hold back, cover your nose. Xuexue would definitely not serve the lunch until his husband returns." said Yun Suisen.

Ignoring everyone's eyes on him, Xueya continues cooking. No one dared to steal as they were afraid of angering the cook and losing their own part for lunch. Except for the little bun who was feed full after running towards his daddy, the rest finally experience what is it like to be torture by the scent of heavenly delicacies yet unable to eat.

Only when Cao Junye returned riding on the back to a phoenix followed by Shi Moye and Su Liye who were on the back of two golden eagles that everyone else had been able to eat the lunch feast Xueya had made for everyone.

They were more excited about the lunch than the mythical creature their general had brought back. Everyone enjoyed the lunch peacefully at this moment. Afterwards, everyone else made preparations to leave the forest and return back to the base. Without them knowing what kind of situation would welcome them once they've returned.

Chapter 195: 6.56 Third Green Star - Back to the Base

After leaving the forest with everyone, they've returned to the base only to be welcomed with zombies blocking their paths. The number of zombies isn't much but it easily passes hundreds in counting.

Thankfully, they didn't ride in their car and flew over instead by using the phoenix and two golden eagles as the mount. The rest of their tamed beasts were temporarily put inside Xueya's dimensional space. After mutation, the size of each bird enlarges enough to compete with a small jet plane. This is especially true when it comes to the size of the mythical bird phoenix.

In the beginning, everyone thought they were seeing things, with the difference of height of the sky to the ground all they could only see at the beginning were countless moving black spots. Only when they've lowered the altitude of their mount's flying space that they've seen their base destroyed and zombies roaming all over.

Yun Suisen and Xu Lin's faces turned ashen at such a sight. The former couldn't hold on enough and puke while on air.

Pukes~, "What the hell? Too many zombies. So disgusting!!! Argh~," said Yun Suisen. Su Liye is patting his back gently while Shi Moye is softly rubbing his chest to calm him down.

Su Liye spoke, "Dear, do you want water?" He offered bottled water from his backpack.

Yun Suisen nods and drinks from the uncapped bottled water Su Liye had passed to him. Meanwhile, Shi Moye took out candy from his pocket and gave it to his wife as well.

"T-Thank you, husbands," said Yun Suisen. movelusb.com

Not far from him Xu Lin almost rolled his eyes upon seeing this number of zombies he had only seen in zombies.

"A'Xu, don't faint. Get used to it. Just think of them as scarecrows!" said Baize who supported him behind.

Xu Lin glared at his insensitive system with tears at the corner of his eyes and retorted.

"Scarecrow your ass! Scarecrows don't have rotten skin, bloodied face, or missing body parts. Fuck! I saw one with hanging eyes!" said Xu Lin from stress.

Hahaha~

Baize laughed hearing his host's reaction. Obviously, he is so afraid of zombies but tried to pass things in a joking manner especially scolding him to ease his fear.

Moreover, some of the zombies had high levels ranging from level 2 to 3. Not only that, some of the faces of these high leveled zombies were familiar to some of them. A few were even wearing soldier's uniforms while attacking them. Moreover, the direction these zombies came from is exactly the location where the Hope Base is. From above they could still see some traces of fire and even the thick smoke hasn't completely faded yet.

Wang Lei asked their general, "Sir, what should we do?" but like Yun Suisen and Xu Lin, his calmness remained the same as always.

Cao Junye didn't reply right away, instead of moving his head and looked at his wife within his embrace. His purple eyes were asking Ximen Xueya what he wanted to do next.

"I have bombs and grenades, but don't use them within the base, only outside the gates. There are underground facilities under the place, if there are survivors they must be hiding them with Lou Lan" said Ximen Xueya.

Once Lou Lan's name was mentioned Wang Lei's initial calmness had disappeared.

"Why is A'Lan here?!!" asked Wang Lei.

Ximen Xueya glanced at him expressionlessly yet still answered his question. "I left him back at the base after we left. The last destroyer is hiding in this place. I told him to keep an eye on the suspects," he said.

The Lieutenant could only grip his hands into fists when he heard Ximen Xueya's words. He knew that in every world his prisoner's task is always to listen to the special authority command, in this world Lou Lan's duty is to do whatever Ximen Xueya orders him to.

Prisoners like Lou Lan had no right. As a warden, Wang Lei should know this more than anything, but he had gotten used to the special authority's nonchalant attitude and never expected that Lou Lan would be used as a sacrifice in this world.

Wang Lei keeps all the words and complaints in his heart while trying to calm his surging emotions in silence. Cao Junye's eyes narrowed when he noticed his subordinate's reaction with a frown on his face, he was about to scold him when Xueya who was holding his hands squeezed it to take his attention. He saw the meaning in his wife's eyes, Cao Junye held back his words and didn't reprimand Wang Lei for forgetting his duties as a warden.

Ximen Xueya said, "Do not worry. I never used someone's life from our side to be used as a sacrifice. I had Yue pass a teleportation stone to him as an amulet. It's a divine-level item that would instantly move him to our place in case something happened beyond my calculations. Since he didn't... then that means he's safe and successfully escaped to the underground facilities. If you want to meet Lou Lan then clean up the zombies."

Calming down after hearing Ximen Xueya's words, Wang Lei lowered his head in apology. Just now he had shown his superiors rudeness and showed negative emotions on his face.

"I apologize. Please forgive my rudeness, Lord Hei," said Wang Lei.

"I understand. But you should at least remember what kind of sin he had committed. Unless you can move his heart completely, don't get too attached." said Ximen Xueya. After talking to Wang Lei, he looked at his husband and said, "Focus on the zombies outside. Leave the ones inside to me."

Cao Junye smiled and kissed his wife before letting him free from his embrace.

"Be careful, wife."

Ximen Xueya distributed the bombs and grenades to the soldiers and left most of them to his husband before carrying his excited son in his embrace and jumping off the phoenix back. He let himself fall from the high place and let gravity pull them down.

His composure was still elegant during the freefall as if the wind was cushioning them, letting them fall unhurried and at ease. If someone from below could see Xueya's figure falling, they would have thought that an immortal is descending to earth.

Yun Suisen and Xu Lin watched his figure fall in such a serene way. The breeze had only made his clothes flutter together with his hair but none of it had broken the coldness in his temperament. Opposite of Xueya's collectedness, the little bun in his embrace is giggling the whole time due to thrill. This baby seems to have experienced the excitement of flying for the first time. Though in this case, it's falling instead of floating.

"Wow~ he looks so cool~ Won't it hurt if he fell from this high?" asked Yun Suisen.

Wang Lei looked at Yun Suisen like an idiot even Cao Junye smirked when he heard his words. Baize acted speechless while covering his host's mouth, preventing him from saying foolish words like the one beside him.

"Lord Hei is an immortal. As long as his true qi is present then he would never be a mortal," said Wang Lei. "Do you think an immortal would die from jumping off a building!?"

The newly reborn deity Yun Suisen understood Wang Lei's words but instead of just a simple realization, it made him remember the scene that night when Ximen Xueya revived from the dead.

The scene of his heart renewed on its own, spilled blood retreating as if time had moved backward even the bloodless state of Xueya returning to normal.

"Right~ He didn't even die when his heart was pierced through that night," murmured Yun Suisen.

Xu Lin asked in astonishment and worry, "Heart pierced? Is the Venerable Lord hurt?"

"What are you talking about!?" Cao Junye's unfeeling voice resounds in the area. They could even feel hostility from his tone.

Silence~

What Yun Suisen had forgotten is that Cao Junye is currently together with them. Su Liye and Shi Moye pulled their wife behind their backs carefully hiding them from someone. Meanwhile, there is only silence in the surroundings.

Everyone's eyes were on Yun Suisen and Cao Junye's expression was exceptionally ugly at this moment. They could even feel the pressure he is currently emitting.

"Do your duties. Eliminate the zombies!" commanded Cao Junye as his face is completely cold yet his eyes show emotions of anger.

The general jumps off after those words. a black fog completely covered him from his feet spreading around him. With his face completely apathetic, he scattered grenades from all angles. The sounds of the explosions caused the zombies to move in his direction.

The first one to reach the land is Ximen Xueya and his son, Chino. Before they completely landed Xueya used his Ice ability to freeze all zombies within the base. Those ice statues break into fragments the moment the caster's feet land on the ice floor. The scene inside the base turned still the moment Xueya descended. The ground, even the burning buildings, had been covered by ice in a few minutes. A world of ice was suddenly made as if welcoming the Ice God's return.

Ximen Xueya put his son down on the ground as soon as they landed.

"Daddy~ that's so amazing~ You've turned everything into Ice instantly!! I want to do that too~" said Chino with glowing eyes. The baby is clearly amazed by his daddy's abilities.

Chuckles~

"Our baby... as long as your cultivation increases, your affinity with Ice elements would improve as well. Train well next time," said Xueya.

Looking around Chino knew that he wouldn't be able to join his father and uncles in fighting zombies outside. His daddy wouldn't let him as well as it would definitely dirty his clothes. Thinking about what he should do next, Chino didn't expect his daddy to let out Oreos from his space. The sticky puppy tibetan mastiff had cuddled with his little master as soon as he was let out.

"Kyahaha~ Oreos stop that! Don't lick daddy will get angry~ hahaha" said Chino while playing with his dog.

Xueya was watching his son with a doting gaze as he played with his dog. But his expressions disappeared when he heard what System Yue had informed him just now.

[Host! That stupid rabbit's loose mouth slipped. He told the Lord God about what happened that night when we met the Old Willow Deity!!]

"That blabbermouth. Sigh~ forget it. A'Ye would notice sooner or later that my memories had returned. I will talk to him tonight. Yue, go with Xiao Jing and bring out those survivors from the underground facility." said Xueya.

A young man's figure materialized just beside Xueya and saluted. "As you wish, Lord Hei," said Zhi Yue in his human form. He took his young master with him along with the dog. They've headed towards the other entrance of the underground facility to fetch Lou Lan.

Left behind in an empty frosted place, Xueya looked at the orange sunset at the sky's horizon with a dispassionate gaze. His tanzanite eyes turned silver completely for no reason.

"Would you appear, if I revealed my existence? Uncle Ye~" as a sudden devious yet cold and murderous smile appeared on Ximen Xueya's lips.

---

It took a few hours before Cao Junye and the rest completely cleaned up the zombies outside the base. When they returned to the base they were welcome by a huge number of survivors. Most of them were military soldiers and government officials including their families. Half of them were ability users who used to be the core power of the Hope Base.

Standing beside Ximen Xueya are Lou Lan and Zhi Yue who are playing with Chino and Oreo. Behind them were the survivors who joyously welcomed the general and the group. There are even some who cried thankful that they were able to survive the calamity that evening. Wang Lei walked faster towards Lou Lan and immediately hugged him.

No one minds them that much because most of them were watching Cao Junye and Ximen Xueya's interactions. There is no expression on Cao Junye's face except coldness. On the other hand, Ximen Xueya who used to wear a deadpan expression is now smiling sweetly at the general. Everyone noticed the rigidity of the atmosphere between the couple.

Xueya said to his husband, "Let's talk later." He didn't wait for the latter's response and spoke to the crowd. "Gather. I will teleport everyone to our new base."

After staying at the underground facilities for days, Lou Lan had to pacify the nervousness and distress of the survivors. In the beginning, these people were starting to lose hope knowing that the base they considered as home no longer exists. They didn't know where they would be living after they were rescued from this darkness.

Many of them attempted suicide only to be stopped by the other people around them. Before the chaos in the facility reached its peak, Lou Lan had to convince them to live. The only way to do that is to give them hope. He told them about the secret paradise owned by Ximen Xueya. Telling them that the place would be their new home once they got out here and met the general and leader Ximen. This is the reason why they weren't that surprised when Ximen Xueya told them to gather and that he would teleport them to someplace. Because they were already informed ahead of time about the last paradise during the end of the world.

Chapter 196: 6.57 Third Green Star - Enraged Chino

It was already evening when Ximen Xueya had everyone teleported to Ximen Mountain. Space distorted for a few minutes before a large group of people were transported to a new location. When everyone had opened their eyes, they were welcomed by a huge open area. It looks like a gymnasium but twice larger than a normal-sized gym.

Everyone was amazed by two things. The first is that the place is spacious enough to accommodate all of them. Lastly, is the space ability of Ximen Xueya. Transporting a large number of people takes lots of strength. But when they've sneaked a peek at leader Ximen just now, it looks like he didn't break a sweat after teleporting them to this place. Before it was an ice ability that can turn land into an ice world and now this teleportation ability falls under the category of space. This shows how godly Ximen Xueya's abilities are.

Upon arriving in the facilities of the Ximen Mountain, the old butler called Wu had welcomed everyone together with Su Wan and Lu Meng. There are few doctors behind to check on the survivors whether they were infected or not for safety purposes. Moreover, they still need to register.

Uncle Wu, the old butler, approached his masters, "Welcome back, Master Xueya. You've finally come over general." He cheerfully greeted but for some reason, the two didn't accept his greetings.

Cao Junye is silent the whole time while staring at Ximen Xueya as if he wanted to possess him. A glint of anger could be seen within those obsidian orbs which are formerly purple in color. Ximen Xueya, on the other hand, wore a helpless yet doting smile on his face as he stared back at the general.

Seeing this weird situation between the two masters, left the old butler dumbfounded. He had been staying at Ximen Mountain the whole time after the group left for the forest. He understood nothing about the current weird situation between his masters.

The bewildered old butler was dragged away from the quarreling couple by Yun Suisen and Lou Lan.

"Uncle Wu leave them alone for a while and give them some privacy. They've been like this the whole time on our way here," whispered Yun Suisen.

Lou Lan is nodding his head. Yun Suisen and the rest had secretly informed him what happened between Cao Junye and Ximen Xueya. The contents were surprising but they weren't that surprised about Ximen Xueya's death and revival. They knew that those with Mo Bloodline were called immortals even in their real world.

"They need to talk. Let's give them some space for tonight. Let's register everyone here for now." said Lou Lan.

Hearing the situation Uncle Wu had sent everyone out of the place and let the rest complete the registration of the other survivors. He had also left to command the soldiers among the group and gave them some duties to complete before dinner.

In the gymnasium. Those who stayed were mostly foreign souls like Ximen Xueya and Cao Junye.

Not far from Cao Junye and Ximen Xueya is standing while carrying a baby Chino, Zhi Yue. He remained still and quiet as if afraid that his Lord would remember his existence and get scolded as well for not reporting to him. The only reason Cao Junye isn't roasting him alive is that the former knew that his host must have told him to keep his mouth shut once again. But this time Zhi Yue received no such orders from his host, instead, he didn't want to inform his boss.

Zhi Yue is more afraid of the current host with all his memories back than a memoryless one. After all, his host identity is completely above him and no one didn't know what kind of person Hei Anjing is. He is an embodiment of frost, blood, and destruction. It's normal to be more afraid of him than the others.

Cao Junye is still staring at Ximen Xueya observing his wife's changes. Since last night, his wife's expressions have been mellow and rich, especially when he is talking to him and their son. He also smiles towards their friends which made the rest feel frightened rather than delighted. Continuing his observation of his wife, Cao Junye couldn't see any more changes than his expression of emotions.

Ximen Xueya had a feeling of being down to earth than before with all those emotions but looking through those silver orbs, one couldn't completely see through him. As if his whole being is covered in fog, he could feel him but could only vaguely see him.

The small creases on Cao Junye's forehead due to his frown made Xueya uncomfortable. He didn't want to lie to his husband but even if he told him anything he wouldn't understand at all. He keeps silent knowing things would change much even if he told him his memories had returned or not. After all, Cao Junye himself had problems with his memories as his soul isn't complete.

He gently reached out his hand and held the general's hand. Then hooked up his lips as he looked at Cao Junye's eyes affectionately.

"Let's talk. I would like to listen to your words, my love," said Xueya.

Cao Junye's thoughts, 'You would listen but would answer my questions?'

As if hearing his thoughts Xueya says, "No. I wouldn't. It is better if you return at the right time. Because knowing it right now wouldn't let you believe it." he said.

"I can meet that Willow Deity as well and have him help me return my memories," said Cao Junye without thinking things through.

The words the general had spoken angered the latter. "No! I would never allow you to do that!" exclaimed Ximen Xueya.

The tone and volume of Xueya's voice had risen which startled everyone in the area. He unconsciously spread the might of his presence silencing the area instantly. In that split second, everyone inside the gym had felt pressure beyond mortals and ordinary gods. An overwhelming presence made them hold back their breath and existence.

Cao Junye was caught off guard. His wife had never shown this kind of emotion before. His face is distorted with feelings of worry and nervousness. They were so used to an emotionless-faced Xueya before that this kind of expression rendered everyone speechless. Not only that, they could even feel his distress just by seeing the rich emotions on his face. It made them uncomfortable.

"I won't allow you! My love, don't make me destroy the willow deity!" said Xueya as he stared at Cao Junye with tears in the corner of his eyes. There's a firm determination within those argent orbs saying that if Junye plans to use the same method he did to get his memories, Xueya won't hesitate to destroy that Celestial Tree just to stop him from doing so.

The general felt distressed seeing tears from the corner of his wife's eyes. It wasn't his first time seeing it but the tears he had seen before weren't caused by sadness but pleasure instead. Even so, the ones right now are made of pure sadness, he could even see fear mixed within.

It made Cao Junye's heart extremely restless. His body moves before he thinks about it. Reaching out to gently wipe those tears, he had the deja vu as if he had done this countless times before but he had no memories of it.

"I'm S..." Before Cao Junye spoke words of apology, he heard his son scolding him.

A small ball made of snow hit his face, cooling him down. Cao Junye and Ximen Xueya were startled. When they've looked at the culprit, they've seen Chino red-eyed with tears pooling in his adorable big eyes. He is glaring at Cao Junye. There's another snowball held in his hands.

"Father is bad. Don't make daddy cry!" yelled Chino. "Daddy rarely cries but father makes daddy cry all the time. Daddy is already not feeling well and father is still bullying daddy. Bad. BAD. Father is bad!"

The enraged little bun started throwing snowballs at his father. Zhi Yue tries to stop him but holding on to his tiny hands but the baby struggles and forces his uncle to let him down. Once again started throwing snow towards the general. Cao Junye dodges as he tries to approach his son.

He tried coaxing the angry little bun, "B-Baby? Father is sorry. He won't do it anymore." said Cao Junye.

The little bun didn't listen and instead yelled, "No! Liar! You always make daddy cry when you're asleep. When you don't remember us, you always... always make daddy sad. Father is bad!"

Hearing that the little bun started saying things that involve things that aren't connected in this world. Things that only a foreign soul could understand, Ximen Xueya had to coax the little bun to stop crying. He carried him into his arms and hugged him while gently patting his back. The baby hugged his daddy's neck and started wailing.

"Shss... Shss... Xiao Jing, calm down. Father didn't make daddy cry. Look at daddy, I'm not crying..." said Xueya.

Little Chino slowly calms down but he's still making some sobbing sounds.

"Wuwuwu~ It's so unfair. We have to wait for father to remember us. What if in the future he doesn't recognize daddy and Xiao Jing anymore. Would father bully us?" said Chino.

Ximen Xueya said, "No. baby. Your father won't bully us. He loves us the most. Even without his memories, he wouldn't hurt our Xiao Jing."

Seeing the little bun finally stopped crying, the words the little boy had said struck Cao Junye's heart with pain. It's not like he didn't know how many times his soul fragments made his wife suffer. Whenever his souls merged, even the memories would combine as well.

He would see himself in those scenes when his soul fragment would make his wife sad, he had never done himself but that soul is still him. Though his soul fragments wouldn't think of harming Hei Anjing, their unrestrained words and gestures would still cause harm. Yes, like how the soul fragment called Cao Junye treated Ximen Xueya like a criminal that one time.

The general could still remember the hurtful words he had spoken to his wife before the arrival of the apocalypse. He called him a criminal. That he couldn't trust his words and that he is not willing to his pleads at all. It wasn't Ye Xiajie who spoke it with his own mouth but... that was still a wisp of his soul, a part of him. It wouldn't change the fact that he had spouted barbed words towards his love.

Once he thought about this, Cao Junye knew he owed his wife too much. It is because of this his son had thoughts of him bullying his daddy. As long as his soul isn't completely healed. These kinds of situations would continue to happen.

Unless he strengthened his soul enough to directly occupy the soul fragment's vessel and dominate the soul fragment. This is not impossible but... he needs to sleep without waking up for a while if he plans to do so. Cao Junye had fallen deeply within his thoughts that he didn't even notice that his wife and son had come over to him.

He had been staying silent the whole time that even Chino felt uncomfortable. The little bun thought he had made his father angry and that he was hated. He started crying once again but this time he didn't bawl or whine. Instead, he stifled his cries trying to stop his crying sounds from being heard.

"Father, Xiao Jing is wrong~," said Chino as he suddenly jumped at Cao Junye the moment his dad walked over to where Cao Junye was.

Startled Cao Junye nervously caught the little bun that jumped on him. Likewise, the general started cajoling the crying baby to calm down for the second time.

The general smiled and said, "Hm~ Our Xiao Jing isn't wrong. It was father who was wrong."

"Sniff~ really?~," asked Chino.

Cao Junye gently wipes the tears and snot off the crying brat with the towel his wife had silently passed to him.

"Yes. Father is sorry."

"Mm~ forgiven but father isn't allowed to bully daddy anymore," said Chino.

Cao Junye kissed the boy's forehead and agreed to the little bun's words. "Father promises."

It was only after Ximen Chino complained that he was hungry that this event had come to an end. What Cao Junye didn't notice is that Ximen Xueya had secretly sighed in relief beside him. As if he is afraid that his husband had heard what their son had spoken about just then. About his state not being good.

Chapter 197: 6.58 Third Green Star - Peaceful Days are ending

At the Ximen Mountain.

Everyone had just finished eating dinner with everyone. The survivors after getting registered were given a place to live. They were told to get used to the place for three days.

After that short vacation, their task would be sent to their home. Everyone was given a residence to stay within the territory of Ximen. Cao Junye carried their asleep son within his embrace while holding his wife's hand on the other. They were taking their time as they walked back to their home.

At the peak of the Ximen mountain, a traditional contemporary mansion stood. The scenery nearing the peak of the landscape is limited but the place was renovated to create a hidden paradise. The mansion at the top creates a modern touch surrounded by trees. There's a courtyard and a garden just outside the house. It's a luxury that could only be seen before the apocalypse.

They've entered the house and made preparations to sleep. It was already close to midnight when the family had reached home. They've placed the sleeping bun, Chino, in his room. Zhi Yue in his system form stayed in the young master's room to look after the boy while the general and his wife stayed in the master's bedroom.

Master's bedroom.

The couple was lying on a king-sized bed, Cao Junye and Ximen Xueya cuddling together as they had always done. They've spent most of their time like this. Serene and tranquil.

It was Xueya who broke the silence, "My love. After this world, I would send our Xiao Jing to the Mo Family home. My uncle and family wanted to see him."

"...I see. I don't mind. I wanted to be the one to bring over Xiao Jing to my in-laws but my state isn't perfect yet." said Cao Junye while hugging his wife tightly within his embrace.

"There is no need to worry. We could go home together after we finished your business," said Xueya, who also spoke about his worries with his other half. "I only worry about Xiao Jing's safety. Thankfully uncle noticed and would send someone to pick up our baby."

Cao Junye stayed silent every time Ximen Xueya mentioned his uncle.

"You don't have to feel pressured. Even though we haven't married officially, we already have Xiao Jing. My family isn't scary like those rumors. I wouldn't say it's a lie either but... since I have chosen you, my family would accept you unconditionally." said Xueya while smiling at Junye.

The general didn't reply with words and only nodded his head in agreement. He buried his face at the creaks of his wife's neck and smelled the familiar aroma of sweetness and peppermint. It was this scent that always accompanies him in his solace. Ximen Xueya indulges his husband's stickiness as always. Always pampering and forever affectionate.

"Baby~ there is something I wanted to say," whispered Cao Junye to his wife's ears.

The ticklish feeling left by his husband's breathing and captivating voice made Xueya tremble for a moment. But he didn't forget to reply to his lover, "W-What is it?" he asked.

"In the next two worlds, I won't wake up," answered Cao Junye.

Ximen Xueya was stunned by what he heard. The meaning of his husband's words is clear. It means that in the next two worlds, Ye Xiajie won't wake up.

Bewildered for a second, Ximen Xueya couldn't help but ask, "Why?"

"I need to solidify my soul. To do that I need to concentrate on meditation for two worlds, after which I would be able to accompany the following worlds as Ye Xiajie," explained Cao Junye.

Ximen Xueya, "..."

As the general expected, Xueya didn't talk afterward but Junye persists with this idea. The words their son had spoken this afternoon struck his heart directly. Only when his soul solidifies that he would be able to accompany his wife as Ye Xiajie right at the very beginning.

Cao Junye, "I know that in those two worlds where I won't wake up that my soul fragments might say words that you wouldn't like to hear or take actions that will make you angry but... I can promise you one thing. No matter what happens in that world I will never harm you and will love only you in the end."

"..." Xueya still didn't speak.

"Baby? Just two worlds, okay? I promise after those two worlds it would be me who would find you and do all the work for you. You won't need to do anything. I will do everything for you instead. You can also beat me up if my soul fragments angered you. Baby, please speak. Don't ignore me please~" said Cao Junye.

Suddenly, Ximen Xueya turned around and looked at the general. He held his face within his hands and stared at those pleading eyes expressionlessly. The argent and obsidian orbs looked at each other. The difference is that the argent one remained cold as ice while the obsidian one showed clear emotions of begging. Those puppy eyes staring at him directly melted the coldness those argent eyes possess.

A small sound of someone clicking his tongue was heard. "Tsk! Only two worlds. But if your soul fragments pissed me off then I would never apologize for beating them up." acquiescence Xueya half-heartedly.

Once the answer of Xueya was heard, those puppy eyes suddenly glowed and the general's lips were hooked up joyously. He hugged his loveable and kind wife within his embrace.

"Yes. You can beat them up as you wish. It would definitely be their mistake if my wife punishes them by beating them!" said Cao Junye.

"Stop squeezing me! I can't breathe. You're so heavy~" complained Xueya while being hugged as Junye pressed on him.

After their conversation as a couple finished, the roguish hands of Cao Junye started to become naughty. It started moving all over the body of the man under him.

Cao Junye kissed that soft unpigmented hair of his wife, which seemed to be dyed with the color and scent of the snow, "Baby~ since we won't meet for two worlds, can I?" he asked.

How could Ximen Xueya not understand his husband's words especially when those big hands longed to remove his clothes one by one. He truly wanted to bite this shameless man for still asking.

With blushing on his cheeks coming from his heated body, Ximen Xueya wrapped his hands around the neck of his playful lover and pasted himself on the man. He teasingly nibbles on that exposed jaw near him.

With a seductive voice, he said, "There's still 299 days before this world dies and you enter seclusion. My love~ work hard. I want you too."

A mischievous smirk appeared on Ximen Xueya's face as he boldly spoke those words like a temptress. There's no shyness portrayed on his exquisite face but Cao Junye could feel the undeniable love those silver irises convey. Cao Junye couldn't bear it and covered those playful lips which hooked up even his heart. He kissed him heavily while the movement of his hands could no longer be calm.

The couple enjoyed their night as always.

What they didn't notice is that a few meters above the transparent ice barrier Ximen Xueya, a hovering bee, observed the whole protected area. This huge bee is not a beastly creature but a system avatar.

[Target for the mission, found! Recording the whole place for investigation. Bee had completed his host's order. Exploration complete! Bee can now return to his host side.]

The bee left right away after gathering information about the base and the target mission. No one noticed its arrival and departure.

The daily life in the Ximen Mountain continues. Mercenary teams going down the mountain to gather resources or crystals were common tasks in the mission board of the guild. There are rare missions that fall under taming or rearing animals. They were given tasks to bathe mutated animals which guard the whole mountain against the outsiders. Most of the mutated animals in the mountain were under the control of Ximen Xueya. The king of the beast also resides in the mountain.

King of beasts. It's a mutated beast that grows stronger when the apocalypse begins. No one had seen the appearance of the beast king, but everyone in the Ximen Mountain knew that the beast king would never attack people who live in the mountain and this beast only listened to the orders of the master. The master of Ximen Mountain is Xueya.

The town looks peaceful as always. Days passed and Ximen Mountain remained calm and stable. After Ximen Xueya and the rest had started living in the mountains, everyone had once again enjoyed the calmness and ordinary lives they've been missing. The small-town building within the mountain is especially noisy these days. After all, the young master of the mountain is about to have his fourth birthday this year.

The people in the town began decorating the whole town with balloons and festive decorations. Countless restaurants were planning a feast to be served on the special day of their young master Chino. They were so busy with all the preparations that they've forgotten about the hell that is just outside this mountain.

They could continue this tranquility because of the protection of the Master of the land. No one in this town doesn't worship Master Ximen as their God. But they do it secretly as the Master of the Mountain was rumored to hate noise except for special occasions like the birthday of the young master.

At the town.

"Hey! You've forgotten to put balloons here!"

"Ah right. Wait a minute I'll get some from the warehouse."

"Put some more flowers here~"

"More decorations. We need to finish everything today. Tomorrow is the young master's birthday."

"Tell the chef that they must make any mistake. The Lord would be coming down from the peak to celebrate the birthday of his son."

"They've said that the partner of the Lord had come home as well."

"I've seen him. It's the great general from television."

"I heard the general is extremely handsome."

"But the Lord is the most beautiful we have ever seen."

"They are both good-looking!"

"Stop talking and do your work!"

"Yes~"

Tomorrow is Ximen Chino's fourth birthday in this world. Everyone is doing their preparations for such a special day.

Meanwhile in the District of Q.

The zombies had once again gathered in this land hearing that their King and Queen had finally come over. At the center of the zombies, the zombie king, Ye Yan, and the zombie queen, Hei Suyu, sat on a prepared couch. In front of the four people kneel to show their respect. These four people were called generals. Their strength was not bad, reaching levels within the range of 8 to 10.

Only the sounds of groans from the low leveled zombies could be heard. While the center is completely silent as it could. A hovering bee finally flies over towards the zombie king.

[Master, I have returned. Bee will pass the detailed reports later. I need to report first about my findings.]

Ye Yan finally reacted and said, "Report to me, Bee."

[Yes. District Z had been destroyed. The base called Hope is now empty and no living humans are remaining in that place. Instead, I've found the location of the secret paradise the mortals are talking about.]

"Really~ you've found the location of Ximen Mountain!? Bee that's amazing~" said Hei Suyu as she hugged the huge bee in her embrace.

[Please let go. Bee is not done with the report yet!]

"Suyu. Let him go." said Ye Yan.

The zombie queen pouted but still followed her lover's command and let the huge bee fly away from her.

[Master. The location of Ximen Mountain is complicated. Countless hidden traps are surrounding the whole mountain. Moreover, the whole mountain is a breeding ground for the mutated animals. their levels were within 6 to 8 with the highest having the level of 10 and 11.

There's a small-town within the mountain as well. Walls are surrounding the place. A huge barrier of ice protected it from all angles. The one who created the barrier is your target mission, Ximen Xueya.]

Ye Yan's eyes narrow after hearing the name of the target once again. The uneasiness within his heart spreads once again giving him an endless feeling of restlessness.

"Just to be expected. The target isn't a simple person," murmured Ye Yan as he looked at the vermillion shade sky and at the huge sun setting at the horizon.

Chapter 198: 6.59 Third Green Star - Chino's Birthday Day Wish is World Peace. Daddy and Father's respond is 'As you wish'

A lot of preparations were made for the important day of little bun Chino. The town within the Ximen Mountain was now covered in balloons, flowers, and festive decorations. Most children were running around the plaza with tamed mutated domestic animals like dogs, birds, cats, and such.

Laughter and happiness filled the open area. There were catering arrangements in the area as well. Everyone is free to take anything they want to eat for free.

Kyaahhhahaha

You can't catch me!

Run. The demon (it: someone who is tasked to chase with his playmate. The odd among the rest?) out.

Hahaha~ run. RUN!

You guys! Don't let me catch you!

The children were playing cat and mouse at the plaza. Filling the area with the feeling of a festival. It was at this moment that Ximen Xueya and his family finally went down from the peak to join the party. There are people who were tasked to inform the rest about the arrival of the lord and his family.

"Get ready! The lord and his family are coming!"

"Calm the children down!"

"Prepare the cake!"

"Everyone. Stand in your position!"

The old butler of the Cao Family carried his young master towards the plaza. Beside him, Ximen Xueya and Cao Junye arrived as well with their ten fingers clasped together. Following them are Wang Lei and Lou lan, Yun Suisen and his husbands, Shi Moye and Su Liye. Baize and his host, Xu Lin. Lastly, the whole troop of Unit Alpha under General Cao.

Uncle Wu, the old butler spoke, "Our Dear Young Master. Today is your most special day. Everyone is here to celebrate with you." said the old man with a wide smile on his face.

Chino was confused for a moment. It seems that the little bun didn't remember when his birthday was. The old butler had placed him on the top of a chair and supported him as he stood on it. This allowed him to reach the cake layer with candles placed on it.

"Un~ special day?"

In the end, his Uncle Yue in his system form of a moon informs him. He is like a moon orbiting around Chino like how moons encircled the earth. System Yue is invisible to everyone aside from its host and the other foreign souls involved to his lord.

[Xiao Jing. Today is your vessel's birthday. It might be your real birthday but just enjoy this special day. Our young master. Happy birthday!]

After hearing the explanation of his Uncle Yue in his mind, the little bun finally understood the reason for this event. Before he could react, Chino hears someone singing familiar lyrics.

Happy Birthday to You~

Happy Birthday to You~

Happy Birthday Dear Young Master Chino

Happy Birthday to You.~

From good friends and true,

From old friends and new,

May good luck go with you,

And happiness too.

Everyone started singing the moment Young Master Chino arrived in the plaza. Whether it was children and adults, everyone was singing the lyrics of the birthday song for Ximen Chino.

Only his parents remained silent but there's a smile on their faces while looking at their beloved son. Even though his real birthday is still far ahead, Chino still laughed with happiness at this scene.

Especially when a huge towering layered chocolate cake was pushed towards the celebrant. The cake had many layers. Four layers to be exact and each layer had different flavors. It looks like a rainbow though the color sequence wasn't followed.

The first layer is chocolate cake, followed by strawberry shortcake, the third layer is white chocolate, and lastly is dulce de leche layer. On top of the cake is a chibi version of Chino riding on Oreo.

There are only a few candles on the cake to avoid ruining it. The chef who is pushing the cart stopped in front of the birthday celebrant. They lower their heads then smile when they look at Ximen Chino.

"Our dear young master. Happy birthday. Please make a wish and blow your candles~"

"Young master make a wish."

"Hahaha~ blow out the candles."

Ximen Chino could feel everyone looking at him with a smile. They were waiting for him to say his wish. The little bun was hesitant as he really doesn't have a wish at this moment. He has his daddy and father. Some uncles play with him too. There is also his Oreo who spends time with him.

Everyone waited for him to speak and temporarily filled the plaza with silence. What they didn't expect to happen suddenly did come true. In the middle of their happiness, a sudden calamity had befallen them. The guards who were tasked to stay at the town's entrance came running towards them. Some were injured and the scent of blood spread in the plaza.

"Help. H-Help. We're under attack."

"L-L-Lots of zombies... Surrounding the mountain."

"Millions. There are more than millions of zombies!!!"

"A Zombie King and Zombie Queen!!! They exist!!!"

"Run... Run away. Escape!"

The children cried out in fear when they heard this. The adults started panicking as well while the soldiers had ugly expressions on their faces. At this moment everyone had finally remembered the terror of the apocalypse. No matter what happens until every zombie is killed. There will be no such thing as peace.

Aahhh! Run. Let's run away.

Where should we run? We're surrounded!

Wuwuwu~ mommy~ I'm scared.

At this moment to control the panic in the area, Uncle Wu, Wang Lei, Shi Moye, Su Liye, and Baize started commanding their people.

Don't panic! Control the crowd!

Stop running around. Soldiers stop them!

Spread and stand in formation.

Prepare for battle.

Stay calm and follow the command.

Said the five people who took the lead.

The initial festive atmosphere was instantly broken. Everyone had forgotten the birthday celebrant and during the chaos, the layered cake in front of Chino was pushed out and had already fallen on the ground.

Little bun Chino stared at his wasted cake. Like his daddy, he loves eating sweets and desserts like cakes and such. Seeing his cake fall on the ground and his chibi figure stepped on, the little bun finally could help but cry.

The little bun tried to stifle his sounds of cry but his big yet adorable eyes at this moment are full of tears. He looks like a bullied baby in his current state. Despite his sadness, almost all of the adults around him run past him. No one noticed as if everyone had forgotten his existence.

But before he could cry loudly someone carried him by holding him up, a pair of huge hands were placed under his armpit lifting his small body afloat from the chair he was standing on. When Chino looked back, he saw his father smiling at him beside his father is his daddy who gently wipes his tears with a soft handkerchief.

Among his uncles, Yun Suisen was grinning at him. He even pinched his chubby cheeks and watched as Uncle Lou Lan lightly hit his Uncle Yun's hand which is just squeezing his cheeks just now. There is also Uncle Xu Lin who brought a plate of tarts from nowhere. It was presented to him with a kind gaze.

Moreover, despite his other uncles being busy they still looked at him and even waved their hands when their eyes met. Then he looked at his father who is now carrying his safety in his arms and his daddy who suddenly kissed his forehead.

"Our dear baby~ daddy and the rest still haven't heard your wish," said Xueya.

Cai Junye also spoke, "Tell it to us. Daddy and father would definitely listen to your wishes."

"Anything you wish for. Daddy will grant it for you. Xiao Jing, what is your wish?" asked Xueya with a doting gaze.

Ximen Chino didn't reply right away. First, he looked at his surroundings. The scene of children crying, adults running around wearing expressions full of fear and agony. Then the sounds of zombies and fighting just beyond the gates not far from them.

Sounds of guns echoing.

The explosions linger on the battlefield.

Cries of the injured and death of their loved ones.

Ximen Chino saw it all. At first, he had chosen this world because he wanted to practice his fighting abilities. During his journey, this little bun had never seen this kind of scene as he was protected all the time by his daddy and the rest of their family.

Cao Junye and his team were strong and could one-sidedly defeat hundreds of zombies. But right now the numbers of the enemies are overwhelming. The zombie population is enough to surround the whole Ximen Mountain to prevent their escape.

At this moment, a single wish appeared within his heart.

Chino murmured, "I want all zombies to disappear. For everything to return to normal. So that everyone will not get hurt anymore.

That's right. Chino's... My wish is World Peace!" he exclaimed.

Those who heard the childish voice of claiming world peace stunned everyone including those who were running away just now. They've looked at the source of such an ambitious wish. Only now did they remember the lord and his family's existence. Especially looking at the young master who exclaimed his wish for the peace of their world.

Just hearing this wish from the small child made them realize the selfishness that made them forget the existence of such a pure child. They felt that they were so thankless for ignoring such a kind-hearted boy. In this era of apocalypse, such a clear and non-materialistic soul is very rare.

But what happened next stunned everyone even more. Cao Junye passed little bun Chino to Yun Suisen's arms. Following it, Cao Junye and Ximen Xueya lightly lowered their heads.

They both said at the same time, "As you wish, our baby."

---

On the other hand, outside the mountain, millions of zombies with ranging levels surrounded the whole mountain. The four zombie generals had split the commands and covered the four sides of the mountain preventing everyone from escaping.

The zombie king, Ye Yan, and zombie queen, Hei Suyu, stood by the entrance of the mountain behind them with a great number of lackeys whom they could command at any time.

The first wave of zombies was only made of 100,000 zombies. The ability users and awakened soldiers from the town had hardly blocked the first wave. The reinforcement from inside hadn't come out yet and they already lost a lot of comrades.

The zombie king Ye Yan watched the clear scene of the happenings in the mountain with the use of his system surveillance but for some reason, the scenes within the town were blocked by an unknown power.

[Forgive me, master. Bee is unable to pull out the surveillance within the town. A high-level system is blocking the authority bee has.]

Hei Suyu frowned and said, "Another system?! Is it the system of our target?"

[Replying to Second Host question. No, it wasn't. There are few more foreign souls inside the mountain. Bee could feel the existence of three systems. One in hibernation mode. One is ignoring me while the other is fighting back. The last one had a level control of 2 grade. It's the type of tier S system which could be bounded to more than two hosts.]

"The system owned by our target mission is ignoring you?" asked Ye Yan.

[Yes, Master. The level of that system. Even bee couldn't see through. I'm sorry Master. Bee is still useless.]

The zombie king gently petted the huge bee sitting on his shoulder. The former was still seated at the throne the zombie generals had prepared for them.

"It's not bee's fault. Don't get too close to the other system and put up firewalls layers of it on you. I don't want you to be snatched." said Ye Yan. The small pair of wings behind Bee fluttered with his host's words.

[Yes, Master!]

"Suyu. Send my next command to all the zombies," said Ye Yan.

Hei Suyu asked, "What's your command?"

"Attack all at the same time!" ordered Ye Yan.

A lascivious smile appeared on Hei Suyu's face as she spread the command to the minds of every zombie in the area. The zombie king had ordered a boxing maneuver. A strategy used to "box in" and force an attack on all sides at once.

A telepathic message was sent all at the same time by the zombie queen. All zombies including the zombie generals had started the attacks from all angles. Millions of zombies squirmed and ran towards the mountain intending for a four-corner zombie siege.

Chapter 199: 6.60 Third Green Star - Wish Granted [End]

The order from the zombie king had been shared with every zombie by the zombie queen in their minds. Zombies are undead types who gain intelligence only by reaching a higher level.

With the single command from the zombie king: 'Attack all at the same time!'

Every zombie in the vicinity, regardless of their levels, had followed the command. Like a huge wave made of zombies, the Ximen Mountain was besieged from all sides. With zombie generals in the lead, the zombies advanced towards the center.

The zombie king, Ye Yan, was looking at the whole scene from a bird's eye view perspective. A view from a high angle as if seen by a bird in flight. The system's authority allowed him to watch the events live and at this angle.

With his head leaning on his palm, Ye Yan observed the scene unconcerned. Though he didn't expect the target to get killed in this siege, at least he anticipates the latter's escape through the means of the system's items. He continues to watch until an unforeseen situation unfolds before him. Numerous mutated animals in their bulky form had spread out in herds halting the siege of the zombies.

The waves of zombies were stopped at a certain distance from the center of the mountain. From outside the mountain, they could hear the loud sound of a huge beast roaring. The thunderous roar of the beast echoes within the whole mountain. They Ye Yan and Hei Suyu suddenly felt an indubitable coldness on their skin coming from the mountain itself.

[Master! Sky to the fly. Humongous energy surge of ice is spreading!!!]

The prompt of warning rang in Ye Yan's head. His body moves instinctively and uses his wind element to fly towards the sky with Hei Suyu. In a mere one minute, except for the center point of the mountain where the town is located, it had been all covered in ice. The whole Z District no... the whole country had been frozen. A genuine world of ice had descended on the land. The territories of land, the wide waterscapes, the ruined buildings and roads, every infrastructure in the world, the trees, the stones, even the blade of grass turned to ice.

All the zombies including the general leveled ones had instantly turned to an ice statue. Except for the mutated animals who defended the mountain and the living beings on the unfrozen land, almost everything had been covered in frost.

Ye Yan and Hei Suyu's faces were painted with bewilderment. The scenery of ice and falling snow above their heads reminds them of that terror from their memories. There is no way that an original resident of this star could do such a heavenly defying scene. Even in the SSS world, they've come from those who could do such a thing can only be counted in one hand. Freezing a whole country, even the whole world, only two people like that exist and both of them possess the glacial bloodline whose affinity with Ice attribute is supreme.

One is the Ruler God of Life and Death, Mo Baojun and the other one is the greatest notoriety of all realms. The God of Destruction, Hei Anjing.

There is no way a ruler god would enter a lower-tier world which means that the one who turned the whole country into ice could only be that man. Comprehending this truth, the dread in their hearts had long filled up their whole body. The chills climbing up on their spines were like thorns piercing their skin, the trembling of their bodies was instinctive and chaotic trepidation within their souls almost shook their whole existence.

The God of Destruction is not an ordinary deity. He is a born god with a special bloodline. The disreputable rumors about him are all true. The cold-hearted god who loves cleanliness, blood, and excitement. No one could escape his grasp as long as he knew your existence. There are no choices and everything is decided by him. If he doesn't want you to die not even the king of hell would accept you and if he wanted you dead not even the gods could save you. An immortal god whose existence is equal to those evil demon gods in the abyss.

Ye Yan and Hei Suyu's current state lacks calmness and there is only fear within their eyes. They wanted to escape but were unable to. Escaping means angering the black star of calamity. Now even this world prevents the departure of those inside the star. Even in death, the two could never leave.

Hei Suyu hugs her boyfriend and her trembling affects even her speaking, "Y-Ye Y-Yan... What should we do?" she stuttered at almost every word.

The outside whose vessel is that of the zombie king didn't utter a word. His eyes keep wandering towards the entrance of the mountain. Concentrating at the pair of shadows walking unhurriedly downwards the mountain.

A cold tone of voice can be heard from the mountain. The voice is commanding plainly; it had the effect of an ability being used.

"Descend."

The couple who was floating using wind as a platform fell directly on the ice-covered earth. Ye Yan tried to cushion themselves with the wind before reaching the land only for a bolt of huge lightning from the sky directly come down on them.

THUNDERCLAP!

The zombie king and queen were instantly roasted by the lightning. They both fell helplessly on the ground.

"Bee. BEE! Use all points to redeem an item that will bring me out of this world directly!" he yelled but the usual sound from his system had been gone.

Thud!

Breaks~

A block of ice with the shape of a bee had directly fallen on his head to the ground, breaking into countless pieces. His precious system turned into fragments before his eyes.

A gut-wrenching scream of despair arose out of his mouth.

"NOO!!!" yelled Ye Yan as he kneeled on the ground grabbing the ice with the shattered body of System Bee.

The sounds of footsteps can be heard going closer towards their direction from the mountain. When the owners of those footsteps reveal themselves, the sunlight illuminates the two figures. One with pure white hair and the other with pitch-black hair. Both possess contrasting shades as if the light and dark embodied themselves as humans.

The two men possess figures which match each other. One is petite yet his figure is refined to perfection, the other had good proportions of a hunky male god. Appearances that could rival even the gods. Anyone who saw them can say that they match each other well.

A sly smirk appeared on the beautiful man with a petite build. His slender hands were held by the other man's hand but his hand was wrapped around the waist of the former. His gesture is clearly showing his possessiveness towards the other man.

"Baby~ are these two the destroyers? I thought there were three of them?" asked Cao Junye.

Xueya replies, "There are there, but I left the last one to Jue-ge. After all, that one seems to be under his responsibility."

"Someone from Hei Clan again?"

"Yes. The lady in front is from Hei as well but... the man is someone from your race. Do you wish to interrogate him?" asked Xueya. He is looking at his husband without any thoughts of stopping his man from knowing something from his memories. He had no intention of keeping him in the dark regardless of whatever their past holds.

Cao Junye isn't a fool. Despite his lost memories, he could vaguely think of things through especially about the recollection of the past events. The possibility of his wife being his enemy in the past had long been envisaged by him. He is not doubting his wife's feelings for him but he doesn't trust himself who had no full memories.

His wife is currently hinting at him for an opportunity to learn about their past. Something that Ximen Xueya would never tell him using his own mouth. If he was the one who caught the man who is in front of him right now, as long not in the presence of his wife, he would definitely question the man about the vague things that gave him a headache. But in front of his wife, he would never attempt such a thing.

Cao Junye responded, "No need. Just kill him if you want to, wife."

The couple converse as if there is no one around them. They've both intentionally ignored the existence of the two in front of them. They never cared about their enemies. Whether it is their feelings or face, nothing really matters when it comes to strangers and enemies.

Xueya suddenly pouted, "Um~ I gave you the opportunity. You are wasting it for no reason!"

Abruptly, Ximen Xueya pulled out both of his hands from the general clutches and prepared to return to the mountain on his own. Now that Xueya had frozen everything in the country, the zombies were all annihilated by him. He already achieved their son's wish and is no longer interested in the toys that suddenly dropped from the sky.

Besides he is giving his husband a second opportunity to know things about their past from that man from Ye. Since his husband wanted to know things about their past, he would let him learn things and let him decide for himself. Sooner or later, Ye Xiajie's memories would return. Letting his husband learn a few things about their past from another person's perspective wouldn't really change the end they would have and thus he decided to leave him there.

Ximen Xueya spoke. "Since I've completed our son's wish, there are no more things for me to do. I'm going back. You clean those two up. By the way, I suggest you keep that lady alive. Jue-ge would owe you one if you do." he was walking back to the mountain as his words continued to be spoken.

Cao Junye weakly complains, "Baby~ are you going to leave me here alone?"

"Yes. It's almost time for dinner. I need to cook." replied Xueya.

Walking away from the other three people behind him, Ximen Xueya had never looked back at them even once. Every decision he made could never be changed easily. Cao Junye watched the back figure of his wife until he disappeared from within the depths of the mountain.

Only when he could no longer see his wife's figure did he move his eyes towards the two outsiders who dared to target his wife. His eyes turned completely black and are now glinting with fury and cruelty.

Those pitch-black eyes looked down on the two-person of zombie race without any emotion on his captivating face. Darkness surrounds his whole being and the scene of demons ascending appeared in front of the two. There's also a crackling sound of thunder coming from above his right palm. The light violet streaks release the sounds of thunderclaps.

Cao Junye spoke, "I have no time to waste on you both." there is only coldness and indifference from his tone

Ximen Xueya who was marching on the unmanned roads of Ximen Mountain heard the sounds of lightning followed by screams from behind him. He paused for a moment and looked back for a second. There's a smile lingering at the corner of his mouth when he suddenly coughs a bit of blood dyeing his bloodless lips with scarlet color.

Coughs!

"Freezing a whole country causes me to cough a small mouthful of blood. A'Xia, you need to complete your soul soon. This lord is already running out of time." murmured Xueya who instantly froze the blood on his palm and the traces in the corner of his lips. It turned into a blood mist removing all traces. He resumes his walking as nothing happens at all.

Back at the foot of the mountain, Cao Junye had roasted the two destroyed into human figure charcoal. There's still a wisp of life on them as his wife suggested. Then he looked at a random empty space with impatience written all over his handsome face.

"God of Space. Come out and pick up the trash. I still need to spend more time with my wife and son!" said Cao Junye.

From the other's perspective, they would think that Cao Junye is talking in the empty air before him like a lunatic. But in a mere second, the space in front of him crack revealing a thin wrist and dark green colored sleeves. The hand made a grabbing motion and the two charcoaled beings floated towards the space crack. An annoyed yet gentle voice can be heard from the crack.

"You bastard! They are almost dead!" spoke the hidden Hei Jue from within the space crack.

Cao Junye rolled his eyes over the man and answered back, "There's still a pulse. They are deities and won't die from being electrified. Don't forget to threaten the heavenly will on your way out. Don't forget you owe me one!"

"Shut up! I know you damn brute!" The space crack shut closed after the last sentence was spoken.

As soon as Cao Junye was left alone, his face suddenly turned ghastly and stony. He could hear the words that Ye Yan had shouted at him.

"Jing'er killed my mother and me? Absurd!" whispered Cao Junye, there's a clear tone of questioning and suspicion.

He took a deep breath before walking away. The general walks back towards the mountain where his family is, ignoring every nonsense those destroyers had spoken. He turned his ears deaf for those words.

After the zombies were all eliminated that day. The ice that covered the whole country melted overnight. The left-behind water traces from melted ice had also faded with time.

Humans have once again gained the freedom they've lost. It took a year before the other came out of their shell called fear and once again started gaining a foothold on earth. It took three years before earth returned to normal. Except for the fact that the abilities of awakened humans as well as the existence of mutated animals, no one would believe that the apocalypse had happened a few years ago.

The daily life of every mortal on earth resumes but as Ximen Xueya had predicted before. The life of this star only has 300 years left.

Three hundred years later all life inside this star had perished and become nutrients for the celestial willow tree deity. The accumulated energy of the world had been split into two. The first half was sucked in by the willow deity while the other half was taken by Ye Xiajie.

After spending three centuries in that world, the time to separate had come once again. Ye Xiajie cuddled his son, Ye Jingxia, and exchanged a long kiss with his wife, Hei Anjing. This time the first one to leave is Hei Anjing and his son, Zhi Yue had once again pulled them inside his system space together with the other world hoppers who had business with Hei Anjing. Ye Xiajie, Lou Ye, and Yun Ming watched the larger group disappear in front of them.

"My Lord, is there a problem?" asked Warden Lou warily.

Cao Junye glanced coldly at his subordinate. He didn't answer and just faded from the horizons of galaxies and stars.

Warden Lou murmured, "Did I say something wrong, A'Ming?" he asked the prisoner under his jurisdiction.

"You're overstepping your boundaries. He is still your boss," answered Yun Ming as he decided to return to the Nether System Prison space on his own. The warden followed closely after him, not letting themselves get separated.

Chapter 200: 7.0.1 Prologue - In the System Space before the Seventh World I

The troop had spent three hundred years in the last world. It took that long for the energy of the world to be completely depleted. During those times, the group had enjoyed their lives. They've bidden one's time until the star's lifespan is used up. Everyone had also watched the Willow Deity ascend towards the upper worlds.

After Ye Xiajie, Lou Ye and Yun Ming had seen them off, Hei Anjing and his son, followed by Yun Suisen and his husbands as well as the duo, Baize and Liu Yan, had returned to System Yue's Space.

System Space.

Surrounded by galaxies and stars of all kinds. But the place is empty of anything aside from countless world portals scattered within the space. Everyone was passively following Hei Anjing within such a separate dimension.

With a single snapped from Hei Anjing's fingers, the space around them distorted. Couches and a table full of desserts appeared out of nowhere. Zhi Yue, who is supposed to have authority over the space, was stunned by this event. Only he the owner of the dimension is supposed to be able to do such a thing, but how could his host do so.

Lucas and his two husbands took a seat on the open couch. Baize pulled his shocked host with him in the other. Hei Anjing took over one couch on his own as well. Zhi Yue stood behind him with confusion on his face. No one dared to speak first and all of their eyes were on the one with the highest standing among them. They saw him looking at his son who was currently sitting on his lap with a smile.

Ye Jingxia is staring at his daddy's face, "Daddy, are you sick?" his small hands touching his daddy's face.

Hei Anjing gently smiled at his baby boy, "No~ daddy is only a bit sleepy. Xiao Jing grandpa and granduncles wanted to see you? Do you wish to see them?" he asked.

"Grandpa? Granduncles? Xiao Jing have?" asked the little bun.

"Of course! They are here. To pick you up. Play with Grandpa and Grand Uncles." said Hei Anjing as he made the little bun look at Lucas and the two who were sitting with them.

Their former demeanors of playfulness and naivety are gone. This is especially true about the one who sat at the center who wears the face of Lucas Evergreen. He sat on the couch with his back straight and his legs crossed elegantly with an aloof temperament.

On the other hand, the one who is wearing Su Liye's face stares excitedly at the little bun on Hei Anjing's lap. His eyes were full of love and doting. Obviously, he wanted to grab the little bun on the latter's lap but still held back his eagerness.

Shi Moye, who bears a wild aura from before, has changed as well. He continues to serve his wife beside him but the aura around him changes from wilderness to extreme detachment. As if the man beside him is the only one within his world.

The man who calls himself Shi Moye served a cup of cafe au lait and offered it to one who wears the face of Lucas.

"Wifey, Here's your cafe au lait," said Shi Moye.

Lucas looked at his silly husband and kissed him on his lips.

"You're rewarded, hubby." said the man who wears Lucas's appearance.

Receiving the kiss, Shi Moye happily carried his wife to his lap and bear-hugged him. Su Liye gave out a long sigh at this scene while Hei Anjing watched them with an unconcerned gaze like he is used to it. On the other hand, Ye Jingxia, Zhi Yue, Baize, and Liu Yan were rendered speechless with the scene that was happening before them.

Sigh~

"Can you two stop spreading dog food in front of the children? Jing'er might be used to it but the others aren't!" Lightly reprimands by the man who wears Su Liye's face.

Now Zhi Yue, Baize, and Liu Yan were completely confused.

Liu Yan whispered to his system, "X-Xiaobai~ what is happening here?"

Baize frowned for a moment before replying, "This must mean that Brother Lang and the other two weren't them? Instead, it was someone else who was wearing their appearance. Anyway it is better not to get involved." he whispered back to his curious host.

Zhi Yue who overheard the two at the corner decides to do the same thing as well.

In contrast to the noise in the area, Ye Jingxia stayed silently seated at his daddy's lap. He keeps observing the three people sitting in front of him. Those adorable big eyes were especially looking at Lucas who gave him a smile when their eyes met. movelusb.com

Ye Jingxia went down from his daddy's lap and ran towards the opposite couch. He continues to move his head and stare at Lucas and Su Liye alternately. Everyone waited for him to speak and watch him with a kind, doting gaze the elders of the family give to their young offspring.

Then the little bun suddenly exclaimed, "The blessing of snow! Like mine and daddy!!!" yelled Xiao Jing this time he is staring at the two with an adorable smile on his face.

Lucas hooked up his lips a bit and asked the boy, "How about this uncle here?" Then he pointed at Shi Moye who was hugging him.

Shi Moye moves his head from his wife's shoulder and lets the little bun look at him openly.

"Hm~ smells a bit like father, but... But it feels different. Un! It's different but feels a little like father!" answered Ye Jingxia.

Shi Moye raised his eyebrows for a bit to show his surprise. He placed down his wife beside him and carried up the little bun to his lap and asked, "How little? Give granduncle a sample."

"Un~ the size of a grain!" answered Ye Jingxia. Then he looked at himself and said, "Xiao Jing used to have the same thing but... after cultivating the ice elements in my body froze it then it completely disappeared!"

When these words had been said by the little bun the man wearing Su Liye's face showed the greatest reaction. He took the little bun from Shi Moye and observed the little bun's body with his true qi. This time his appearance as Su Liye slowly fades.

A face that looks half similar to Hei Anjing's human form has appeared. The hair flowing behind his back had the same color of obsidian. With similar phoenix-shaped eyes like Anjing, only his irises gleam with the color of cerulean that wouldn't lose compared to the shade of the sea. This man's appearance is closely the same as the Hei Anjing before them. Obviously, this person is related to Hei Anjing by blood. This is Hei Anjing's biological dad, Mo Yue.

"My dear grandson let grandpa check something. Don't worry it won't hurt~" said Mo Yue while smiling at Jingxia.

Ye Jingxia nodded his little head while staring at the man who suddenly changed appearance before him. He could see that this man holding him looked so much like his daddy.

Baby Xiao Jing's thoughts: 'Wow~ looks so much like daddy~ Is he my grandpa then?'

Suddenly everyone saw Xiao Jing smiling when he looked at Mo Yue then moved his head to look at Lucas beside his grandpa.

Lucas and Shi Moye chuckle at his cuteness and remove their disguises as well. An appearance closer to Mo Yue was exchanged from Lucas Evergreen's young face. The formerly pitch-black hair turns into a color that of snow. His features are more refined than his daddy and grandpa. Handsome yet extremely beautiful.

Silvery and almost white. His emerald eyes fade and become cerulean like what his grandpa has and an appearance that looks a bit like his. Especially those phoenix-shaped eyes which are a trademark of their bloodline.

On the other hand, the man beside him changes greatly as well. His ordinary appearance turned captivating and holy. An irrefutable presence was exchanged from the former wildness. His hair turned from inky to a darker shade of mahogany. His features were godly and gentle. A smile is imprinted on his face but unlike his daddy's playfulness, this person's smile has a hidden feeling of danger. Ye Jingxia was almost bewitched by those pairs of golden orbs with hints of viridescence in them.

The couple is none other than Mo Baojun and Shen Siwang.

When the appearance of these two was revealed, Zhi Yue, Baize, and Liu Yan immediately kneeled on the ground. They respectfully saluted towards the three. This time they were trembling and didn't dare to raise their heads.

"We bow to the Ruler Gods and the God of Judgement!"

Mo Baojun looked at the three kneeling before them. His expression remained cold and nonexistent. Only when looking at his family did his deadpan face change but towards strangers, not only his expressions are cold even his whole temperament had become icy.

The God of Life and Death didn't even return the greetings from the three and they've only heard a light humming before they've felt the space around them distorted. They were instantly thrown somewhere. They all felt on the ground but thankfully that the area then had fallen onto is covered in carpet. Their fall didn't hurt much.

Zhi Yue was the first one to recognize where they were thrown to. This is especially true when he saw a familiar face on his knee beside him looking at him with wide eyes. Even his single-lens eye wasn't able to hide his shocked expression.

"B-Boss?" called Zhi Yue lightly to the man on his knee beside him.

The boss Zhi Yue calls is An Liang. The current yet temporary Lord God of Nether System.

"Shss! Shss! Quiet." whispered An Liang.

Then they've heard a man's voice seated at the throne from the far center where they currently are. Zhi Yue, Baize, and Liu Yan were teleported to the Nether System throne room. This is the place where the Lord God of the Nether System meets the newly brought prisoners and bestows their punishment.

The man sitting at the throne spoke, "Hm~ if you are here then my wife and brothers-in-law have returned."

Now at the throne, a man with long coal-black hair wearing a robe sat on it indifferently. Those piercing argent eyes were something that looked familiar to Zhi Yue. Those were the same silver eyes his host becomes when his anger is at its peak. Now looking closely at this immortal yet demon-like person seated at the throne, Zhi Yue felt that his host was looking at him.

The God of Punishment. He is one of the real owners of the Nether System. The other half of the God of Judgement. He is infamous on all battlefields in all realms. With the title of the general in all realms, he is considered undefeatable and feared by almost all warriors. Hei Sian, Hei Anjing's father.

This time the trembling and fear the three had suffered from meeting the Ruler Gods haven't completely dissipated and yet here they are meeting one of the Sovereigns of the Underworld. Zhi Yue took the lead and kneel beside his boss. Followed by Baize and Liu Yan who had yet to calm down.

"Greetings to the God of Punishment!"

Hei Sian stares at the four, kneeling in front of him. The longer he stares the more Liu Yan trembles. Liu Yan almost fainted from the trepidation of his heart inside his chest. The soul is almost shaking from fright. This is the first time he met the origin gods of their worlds.

Hei Sian lightly responded to their greeting. "Mm~ you can calm down for now. Liang, I've visited A'Ye just now. For now, he is stable thanks to the bloodstone A'Jing left for him but because of this he... sigh~ forget it!

Since A'Jing is busy collecting A'Ye's soul fragments I will give you the full authority in the Nether System which means your authority equals A'Ye's original standing. You can ignore those elders; they were all useless anyway!

Now that my wife has returned I will end my visit. It will take a while before they finish their reunion. Just wait for you to be summoned. I heard from my wife that A'Jing's memories had fully returned."

An Liang was stunned by the sudden news of Hei Anjing's memories returning. His tears couldn't be helped but fell unconsciously in happiness and sadness.

"Please leave these things here to me, Sovereign Lord Hei." said An Liang as he wipes his tears.

Hei Sian nodded at him before casually disappearing from the throne. Obviously, he went to a separate dimension where his wife and the rest of the family are. Based on the current result, it seems that Mo Baojun, Mo Yue, and Shen Siwang played a role in the last world. They pretended to be Yun Suisen, Shi Moye, and Su Liye while at the same time used the identities of Lucas Evergreen and his husbands.

Hei Sian was left in the Nether System to check on the situation of Ye Xiajie. This is why he didn't enter the same world as his wife and brothers-in-law. Well, it's more accurate to say that his wife and brothers-in-law left him to do all the work while they've spent time with their descendants.
