

Worlds Plot 271

Chapter 271: 7.67 Second Violet Star - Gone

The sudden appearance of Eirwen Night had thrown off the balance between the two factions. The light faction never expected that Lord Night would get himself involved with this meeting. After all, despite being a former human he is now a full awakened God. Gods are never the ones to get involved with the problems in the mundane world.

Now that the famous God of Winter has taken a stand before the two factions, neither the humans nor the demons know what he is planning and can only make the whole place fall into silence.

Eirwen Night smirked, "Didn't you call this lord's name? How come no one is speaking right now? Or is it that this women's clothing and without my aura that you couldn't perceive this God of Winter? That's fine. It is truly weird to meet the current sovereign of the Divine Temple in this state~" he said as he changed his human state and unleashed his divinity as the true god of ice and blood.

As soon as Eirwen spreads his Godly aura as a divine being those who couldn't feel and see anything weird from him before had all been forced to kneel down by the pressure his aura is giving them. It was overwhelming for the original residents of the mortal realm and abyss. Now regardless of race, unmindful of the factions, whether they are humans, beastkin, elves or demons they could only prostrate on the ground unable to lift up their heads in Eirwen Night's presence.

Those who were spread can only be counted in one hand as they were also divinity who possess the energy of the world. Sadly, even among the Gods a clear difference in presence and strength cannot be ignored.

Neige and Araysh could bear with it but they still kneeled on one knee to show their greatest respect towards Eirwen Night's real identity.

"Greetings to the Lords! Araysh and Neige give respect."

The God of Light, Lucien, and the God of Darkness, Adrienne were completely unharmed. As the God of Winter and Blood's other half, Eirwen's divinity doesn't cause them harm, instead, it fully complements their auras.

Since their beloved chose to stop pretending, these twin gods had no other choice but to show themselves and stood by their lover's side. On their faces were expressions of disbelief and annoyance as they saw another person before them standing staggeringly in front of them.

Avel's current thoughts were chaotic at this moment. Force to face someone who could overthrow him much more than the former sovereigns could do is now standing before him. Due to his greed and arrogance, he would sometimes ignore or forget things that don't involve him. After seating on that throne, he had thought that with his current standing and authority no one else is stronger than he is. He is the mightiest and unparalleled but this kind of thought had only led him to narrowly see what he is supposed to see.

"No matter how big you get, no matter who you can push around, there's always someone better out there who makes you lower your head."

The current sovereign god, Avel, could barely stand up straight in the presence of the smiling god before him. Eirwen Night in his eyes is someone who is weaker than him not only in body and strength. Someone who couldn't do anything with the help of the twin gods. A little ant he shouldn't even give a glance. Avel had always thought of this ever since he had seated on that highest throne.

I can do anything.

I am the strongest.

Anything in this world is under my control.

Everything in this place should bow down before his authority.

I am the Sovereign and this world is mine.

That's what Avel has always thought after being the sovereign.

But now standing before this supposed newly awakened God of Winter, he suddenly felt powerless and worse, a bug under his gaze. He could barely breathe and stand. But from within his body, a calm yet powerful aura spreads in his body protecting him from that heavy pressure Eirwen Night is emitting.

Except for the Gods, the others had no place in this situation.

"Tsk! Even in just a soul state, Mayim is protecting someone useless as you. Really~ just what it is that you have that the child protects you things way~ Annoying~" said Eirwen Night. "Except for the Gods, sleep..."

Lord Night had put everyone else except those who were involved with divinity to fall into slumber. The moment Eirwen lessens the pressure of his aura, Avel could only gasp for air as if he was freed from being drowned. But for some reason after hearing the name of Mayim being mentioned that all Avel's fear had disappeared.

Cough! Cough...

"M-Mayim? You know where Mayim is? Tell me where he is?!" said Avel with urgency in his voice.

Eirwen responded, "Hm~ aren't you're supposed to be in love with Neige. Look over there your beloved is very near you~," he said teasingly with his eyes full of mirth.

Avel only glances at Neige but returns his gaze on Eirwen and glares at him.

"I know... I already know that you guys aren't the original people of this world. Except for the former twin sovereigns, the three of you aren't from this world. You guys are foreign gods who borrowed those vessels~ that voice told me that!!" bellowed Avel.

Araysh spoke, "Hmp! not bad. At least you know your place."

"Sigh~ Lou, please don't get involved," said Neige. movelusb.com

"Okay, I will not," replied Araysh.

Avel glared at the exchange of the two only to be stopped when he wanted to approach Eirwen as if he wanted to grab him. At this moment even the twins' expression turns into a frown and stands before Eirwen Night. The ones who stopped Avel's tracks were Araysh and Neige before he could even touch the twin lords.

"Tell me where Mayim is!?" shouted Avel as he was blocked by the two.

Araysh, "Stop while you still have your life, kid."

"Do not approach the Lord!" said Neige.

Avel ignored the two in front of him and continued to ask the same question towards Eirwen.

"Move! I am just asking something from him! Tell me where Mayim is. You do know where he is right? He suddenly disappeared! All his traces are gone and his temple... it fell in ruin."

Eirwen made his move and parted the human shield in front of him and stood before Lucien and Adrienne. He crossed his arms and stared at Avel with an icy gaze.

"The temple of the Water God is withdrawn, of course, the God itself is already gone," said Eirwen just based on his tone that he is not willing to tell Avel where Mayim is. "Why are you still asking where he is when... you are the one who had killed him!"

At the end of Eirwen's words, his voice had turned frosty and scary, surely, his mood had turned bad being asked the same question again and again. Avel was shocked by what he heard that he had fallen kneeling on the ground. His eyes were dubiety and empty as he couldn't believe what he was hearing.

"Lie. LIE! You are lying!!!" shouted Avel.

Lucien covered his beloved ears and said, "Stop shouting! Or I will really pull out your fucking tongue!"

Adrienne even grabbed Avel's collar and lifted him up even when he struggled, "You searched the whole divine plane and found nothing. You've even descended into the abyss and didn't find him anywhere. Even after coming to this mundane land you still haven't obtained any of his traces. Do not lie to yourself! The person you are looking for is already gone. Hmp!"

He threw him on the ground coldly. Adrienne's anger is real for him shouting like that at his wife and calling his beloved a liar.

"No... NO! I don't believe it. I do not! Mayim is not dead. He cannot be gone!" screamed Avel. His reaction is a sign of not believing, he truly couldn't accept that the only person who had loved him is forever gone.

An evil smirk appeared on the corner of Eirwen's lips as he approached Avel and squat in front of him, then he got closer until his face is near the latter's ears and whispered,

"By the way... it might not be important to say this at this moment but there is something you should know... You still remember when you've almost died before you become a divinity right? At that time, I heard from Neige that you almost died in Ivern and woke up barely alive.

That time you've thought that the original Neige was the one who saves you but... As you already know~ the original Neige is a cold-hearted man whose feelings of love can only be moved by the original Araysh. There is no way that unfeeling Ice Spirit King would save someone dying in his own land.

The only reason you were able to survive that time is that someone else had made a sacrifice for you. In exchange for his original singing voice as a Siren, Mayim had begged Neige to save you. That's why when you open your eyes and live it because of Mayim.

But what did you do in exchange? Because of obsession, because of your greed, because you envy those who have strength stronger than you, and because of your so-called liking to the original Neige. You... had killed and hurt the only person who loves you the most in this world."

Avel was stunned to the point of speechlessness. The corner of his eyes was reddened due to his chaotic thoughts, his heartbeats had gone beyond control, and an unimaginable pain as if someone had dug out his heart. Then that mellow yet enchanting voice whispered of him the truth that he didn't know.

He had truly wanted to ask himself, 'Am I crazy!?''

The distorted expression on Avel's face was full of sadness, agony, and regret. Tears made of blood stroll down from this former God of Wind's eyes. He couldn't believe what he just heard and flopped feebly on the ground. Then only the sound of muffled cries, a strained scream comes out of his voice. Avel could only kneel on the ground in sorrow and guilt.

He had killed the only person who loved him with his own hands.

But matter what he does now couldn't revert the things he had done in the past.

It was already too late for him to apologize.

After all, that lovely person is gone forever.

AAAAHhhhh~~~!!!!!!

Chapter 272: 7.68 Second Violet Star - This Man is... [End]

The greedy god who had relinquished everything for power and authority. He sacrificed his current relationship with others, his standing as one of the major gods, his only friend, because of his obsession with his love of another.

But who would have expected, his liking for Neige which sprouted from a fragment of his old memories. From a single seed of gratitude which evolves to love. Was nothing but a misunderstanding.

Neige had never liked him whether as a friend or as a lover.

It was never this person who was in his lowest had saved his life.

It was not him.

But the truth hurts more than it is supposed to be.

The only person who had sided with him regardless of whether he did a good thing or a bad thing. The man who would accompany him in his sorrowful or bad days. Someone who possesses the courage to stand by his side no matter what and to the person who loves him the most in this world.

What did he do?

Because of greed, he took away his divinity... no Mayim opened his arms voluntarily and gave him his powers.

Despite knowing his evil plan of slurping the throne while the sovereigns are away, Mayim turned a blind eye to everything even when he hurt their friends. movelusb.com

Even after taking advantage of Mayim's feelings of love for him, he had taken everything he could get.

Including Mayim's life.

"Ah~ I am really... a scum!" uttered Avel in his despair.

But none of the other gods in his presence sympathized with him.

Worse of all, the God of Winter stares at him coldly as if he wanted to punish him more. He wanted to die but surely this God of Winter would never let him go that easily. Obviously, just based on that icy gaze of his, Eirwen Night had some kind of connection with Mayim.

And him as the person who had taken Mayim's life.

There is no way he would be forgiven.

Hahaha~

Avel laughs like a madman despite his face being covered with his own blood tears. Remorse, guilt, and regret were eating up his heart. The name of Mayim was forever engraved within his heart.

This Sovereign God had squandered everything he obtained in all those years when he had just become a divinity. Even losing the only person who could love him, Avel truly didn't want to live anymore. He wanted to end his life as he pulled out a God-slaking sword hanging on his waist. He intended to use this special weapon that could end a divinity's life regardless of whether he is protected by the heavenly wills.

Most of the Gods who originally live in the divine plane knew what kind of sword Avel held within his hands. The twins pulled Eirwen Night behind them, closely protecting him with their life. Araysh and Neige were about to cease Avel's movement when their body suddenly stopped moving with one command from Eirwen Night.

"Halt."

Neige and Araysh's body had followed that one word regardless of their heart's struggles.

Araysh thoughts in disbelief, 'He could control us even if we have our divinity!?'

'...' The calm thoughts of Neige.

Avel noticed what happened just now. He had also witnessed how Eirwen Night took over the control of the vessels originally owned by Neige and Araysh.

"Tsk~ I must be crazy thinking of fighting with this kind of monster," murmured Avel as he glances at Eirwen before positioning the blade of the sword to his neck. He wanted to take his life and never to exist again. "Mayim~, I hope with this, at least you would forgive me," he murmured in the wind.

He was about to slice off his major vein within his neck for instant death after closing his eyes but when he tries to pull down the sword warm hands stop him from moving followed by the scent of the sea that he is familiar with. When Avel opened his eyes, he saw the person he had missed the most to appear before him but only in his soul transparent form. It was Mayim's soul who was protecting all this time from corrosion of that evil voice's influence.

In the beginning, Mayim had no intention of showing himself in front of Avel in this form. First, he is already a dead man. The difference between the living and the dead can never be the same. Second, he was busy protecting Avel's soul from the inside. He had always been with this person ever since that evil existence ate his vessel and divinity. Lastly, he thought that Avel was looking for him to punish him. After all, his situation is no different from suddenly disappearing without saying a word. The only thing that Mayim is afraid of is that Avel would hate him.

"I never blame you! Don't do such a foolish thing!"

Avel's eyes widened in shock, he almost let go of the sword and let the blade directly slash on his neck when Mayim threw it somewhere far away behind him. The sword almost stabbed some unconscious humans behind him.

"Tsk! I knew you would show yourself if that brat tried to take his own life. You're spoiling him too much, Mayim!" said Eirwen and there is obviously a tone of scolding from his voice.

Mayim looked behind him and formally greeted Eirwen Night. After losing his vessel, the free time he had within his hands allowed him to check through his own memories.

"Mayim respectfully greets Lord Hei."

When he first met Eirwen Night at the Spirit Forest, he had seen that the appearance of the soul and the vessel are different. Unlike Eirwen Night's silver hair the soul possesses a black one which is a complete opposite shade of the other. Moreover, the features were completely different.

Even if in this world Eirwen Night's beauty is enough to cause chaos in the city, the real appearance of the soul is a few levels above that. His features were perfect, not a single part of him can be called ugly plus the natural elegance he emits is already ingrained in the soul itself. Plus those phoenix-shaped eyes when looking at his surroundings seem to look down on everything in their world. He openly disdains the world energy and wills of heavens that their world possesses. Only some who hold strength beyond what a world could control would act this way. Someone like this would never be an ordinary being. Not only that, to Mayim, someone who possessed this kind of face would never be a human.

"Mayim is thankful for Lord Hei's compassion."

"Pft! Compassion. Child, I do not have that kind of thing. The only reason I am sparing him is because of you and the merits your parents had accumulated." said Eirwen.

"My... parents?"

Mayim was stunned to hear things about his parents after they had ascended. Ascension in their worlds means they would be able to enter a different kind of realm that is above everything that they knew about. The Gods of Aerd are not omnipotent. That's why Avel could replace the former rulers and sit on the throne. Everything in this world had requirements. In order to become a sovereign, one must be able to enter the divine temple and seize the throne. Only then you would be called a sovereign.

Eirwen says, "Yes... but as of you are now~ I couldn't tell you anything. Telling things about 'that' place to people who haven't ascended yet is against the divine law. I broke the rules once and... it was quite painful."

[Host, it wasn't just quite painful. It is only like that because it is you, host. If it's the others they wouldn't be able to live past the night.]

"Well~ that is also true. That time it wasn't that much painful, but the vessel I'm using at that time broke down faster," said Eirwen. Seeing everyone's curious eyes on him, he couldn't stop himself from wanting to tease them. He smiles at them playfully. "You want to know how painful it is?"

Everyone nods their heads collectively.

"Hm~ it's nothing much. It's just like trying to force a watermelon in your nostrils~ That much~" says Eirwen with an honest smile on his face.

Everyone's thoughts: 'So it's painful as hell!!!'

Eirwen, "Either way since the brat surrendered you guys clean up the mess. I and my..."

Eirwen's voice suddenly halted and everyone saw him grab Lucien and Adrienne who were standing behind him and threw them towards Araysh.

The following scene they witnessed is something they've never expected in their whole life. They saw Angela Evan holding the god-slaying sword stabbing Eirwen directly to his heart.

[H-Host? LORD HEI!!!]

Gold-colored blood stained the silver blade of the sword as if coating it with ingots. When the rest of them tried to come over to Eirwen's side just one glance from Angela or either from the one possessing her body is enough to take over the control of their whole being. They were like ants under this being's power. As is a baby fighting an adult man.

Some people like Warden Lou and Yun Ming who were born God felt what it is like to be completely powerless in front of someone. They couldn't move. They couldn't think, even breathing needs permission. Everyone else started gasping for air as if they were being choked by something invisible. Mayim and Avel were unrestrained but... they were instinctively unable to move at all. That's right. They couldn't even enter the eyes of that being.

"Breath! cough... COUGH!"

The sounds of coughing and panting resound in the area.

Eirwen Night used his ability to control others through words and prevent the rest of them from dying. Even System Yue who was in his avatar form was forced to materialize under Angela's gaze. Only when he is sure that his husband is okay that he starts confronting the one possessing Angela.

"Don't you think it's embarrassing for someone of your structure to live in the vessel of the young lady that can be called a baby with your age?" said Eirwen with a smile.

But unlike his usual mischievous smile, his expression at this moment is that of madness. This shows how much Eirwen hates the person in front of him.

A man's familiar voice comes out of Angela's mouth. Those who had heard it before recognized who that voice is. The moment the crown princess spoke, the ones who reacted loudly were Avel and Mayim.

Mayim, "Isn't this voice the one controlling Avel!? How... could he possess Princess Angie!?"

"Possessing? He was controlling me!?" exclaimed Avel.

Despite the loud noises in their surroundings, Eirwen and the one possessing Angela had never removed their attention from each other. One slip can only mean death in encounters between these two. An evil yet aggressive smirk appeared on Angela's face.

"I've never expected you to soften your character in the face of an ant-like this vessel. Ah~ right that is impossible! People of your bloodline can never feel emotions or feelings towards others except for your own family and other half.

A Mo's other half. That's right... That is your only weakness especially if that half is too weak. Vulnerable enough that you have to protect it with your own life. Or else how can this old man even leave a scratch on the youngest monster of the Mo Family. If my target happens to be not those useless twins behind you, then you wouldn't have to suffer like this just to save them.

Thanks to that useless thing, I was able to stab the heart of the most powerful yet youngest disaster divinity of all realms. The God of Destruction. This is the second time I am able to pierce your immortal soul like this and all because you keep protecting that useless thing."

The thing possessing Angela Evan moves his eyes and stares coldly at Lucien and Adrienne. He coolly looks at them as if he is staringly dazed in thin air. He was seeing through their souls and checking on their connection to the original which is Ye Xiajie.

"Heh~ no wonder there is no reaction from him even after he had seen me stab you. Hahaha~ he is sleeping! I wonder how he would react once he had recovered this part of his memories." The man's voice said.

While he is being distracted by his laughing, Eirwen with a face full of anger flick Lady Evan's forehead. In a split of a moment, the owner of that voice was forcefully separated from his host. Angela Evans fell back unconscious on the ground like a kite with broken strings. Then a man holding the sword appeared in front of Eirwen. This man possesses the same pitch-black hair as Ye Xiajie but unlike him, this person's eyes weren't black but instead emerald gold.

Dark red robes are worn not as a righteous immortal but a Demonic Immortal instead. Sharp features and a good figure. But no matter how one tries to hide his structure with those robes, this person couldn't hide the savage and bloodthirsty temperament of his body. His presence is deadly and full of danger.

Murderous intent was used like a cloak encompassing his whole body. No matter which angles to look at. This person not only is similar to Ye Xiajie and even the darkness that surrounds him is the same. The only difference is their eye color and personality.

If Ye Xiajie's aura gives away the feeling of danger but unlike this direct presence from this person, Ye Xiajie is more like a lurking terrifying existence. It was soundless, cautious yet overbearing. Yet this man in front of Eirwen is different. He is openly showing openings. One would be able to hit if one tries to do so. But no matter what the others do. The effect or result it would do, never changes that death would be bestowed to them after.

A direct person. The type that would do anything he wanted regardless of other people's reaction. His existence is absolute and if you wish to defy him there is only one result, death. That's right this person is the embodiment of death itself.

When his face was revealed the ones who reacted greatly this time were Araysh and Zhi Yue. This uncle has an extremely accustomed appearance to both of them. Their eyes were widened in shock and an expression of great astonishment can be seen on their faces, even their mouths were uncovered widely.

"T-This face... Lord God!!?" Araysh and Zhi Yue murmured horrified.

But this man who possessed a similar appearance to Ye Xiajie turned deaf ears to the words of Araysh and Zhi Yue, he took it as mere ramblings.

"Since I've killed your vessel in this little star then this old man is satisfied."

"Oh,~ is that so?"

Eirwen suddenly grabbed that man's wrist. Even though he is only in his soul form, Eirwen is still able to touch his psyche. The man didn't dodge nor ran. His arrogance is notorious and unparalleled in all realms after all. He just raised one of his eyebrows with interest and the smirk on his lips remains the same. His emerald gold eyes interestingly watch ice spread to his wrist towards his arm.

"Little Jing~ ordinary ice essence is unable to harm this uncle~"

"Hmp! Who told you that this is an ordinary ice essence?" said Eirwen.

Only this time that the man's smile had faded and his face turned glacial. He recognized what kind of ice, that could affect even this soul state of his.

"Eternal Ice!? You've even inherited this disgusting thing!?! Hmp! If it's like this then... this soul fragment isn't worthy of retrieving." He pulled out the sword from Eirwen's body with no emotion on his face. With such a force the latter could only free his grasp on his wrist.

As the man said this, his form suddenly faded and turned into a blood mist dissipating until nothing was left. Only a lingering sound of that man's voice lingers for them to hear.

'This is not the end. Young Lord of Mo Family, Hei Anjing! Hahaha~'

Once the blood mist was gone, Eirwen who was staring at the distant horizon started staggering. His vessel is indeed dying. Lucien and Adrienne caught him before he fell to the ground. On their faces were expressions of bitterness, guilt, and anger mixed all together. It was an ugly sight to behold.

"Jing'er~" calls the twins with tears in their eyes.

Zhi Yue, Araysha, and Neige also come over.

"L-Lord Hei... a wound from the god-slating artifact... that even came from the upper realm cannot be held in this world. Only back to the Nether System could the lord heal your... injuries," said Zhi Yue.

Cough! "I know. Just don't let the wills of the heavens in this world pull me out without my permission again!"

"Lord... I promise to stop it!" said Zhi Yue. "But even then... you couldn't stay for more than a few minutes. After all, that vessel... is eroding..."

"Haha~ I know. Yue, after I leave, you pass the merits of his parents to Mayim. Give him those options."

"As you wish, Lord Hei! Yue would fulfill your command perfectly."

Eirwen, "I know. Move away... all of you. Only Lucy and... Rienne to stay."

"Yes!" Araysh, Neige, and Zhi Yue saluted before leaving them to have the lovers to their own privacy.

Eirwen's eyes were already dull. He already couldn't see. His heartbeat had long stopped and his vessel was already dead. The only reason he could still speak and move is that he is forcing his soul to move the broken vessel with his own strength. The twin had not uttered words of nonsense like 'We will heal you.' or 'You are not allowed to die.'

Lucien and Adrienne as the real rulers of this world. The heavenly wills of Aerd are directly connected to them. All they needed to know. The state of Eirwen. His current situation. Why couldn't he linger in this world? And what would be the consequences if he did? The wills of the heavens had all passed the information directly to their minds.

If they wanted for Eirwen Night to live, they must let him go back to where he came from. Even if it means that they have to be separated once he does so. They could only hug their beloved with no words to say.

"Do not cry. This isn't a permanent separation. We would meet again in another world."

"..."

"Before I leave there is something you need to promise me. Can you both accept it?"

Adrienne was the first to respond, "Yes... Anything. Whatever it is. I agree!"

"I promise you as well," said Lucien.

"Good. You've promised. You cannot take it back!"

"We won't!"

"I want you... to promise me. Do not leave this world unless you fulfill the task this world has given you. Only when... you reached the real truth of this world that... you would be freed from here.

You cannot destroy this world or take actions that would accumulate bad karma. I will wait for you outside. Since you told me yourself that... then I can only wait for you... to wake up. Remember.... in all realms. You are... my everything! My only... love..."

After saying these words Eirwen finally closes his eyes. His godly vessel in this world slowly turns into silver sand spreading in the earth giving its last blessing to the world. The twin sovereign silently weeps. Their beloved left no traces of him when he took his leave. Just like when he arrived in this world unpredictively. Even his departure is something beyond their control.

Zhi Yue warily approached the Lord God's soul fragments. Following a seat behind him are Araysh and Neige. They waited until Lucien and Adrienne calmed down. None of them spoke a word and they remained quiet. Once the traces of tears faded from the faces of the twin sovereigns, Lucien and Adrienne's expressions had gradually turned cold... they've become emotionless like machines.

Adrienne was the first one to say, "Yue, had Jing'er returned to that place safely?"

"Yes, Lord Adrienne. Lord Hei had safely returned and entered meditation to heal his injuries," answered Zhi Yue. He kept his head low and his gestures were completely servile.

This is how the people who work in the Nether System treat the Lord God. They were all just mere servants and they weren't allowed to meet the ruler's eyes. Araysh and Neige were acting the same way. No one here is a fool not to notice how the Lord God changes in personality whenever Lord Hei is no longer around. The Lord God they knew is like this. Cold, indifferent, distant, and merciless. Nothing else is important. Orders are absolute.

Lucien said, "Complete what our wife told you to do and then immediately return to his side and serve him well, Yue."

"As you command, Lord Lucien."

The twins' lifeless eyes move to Araysh and Neige. Normal people would tremble under those emotionless eyes. But these two were used to it and reacted naturally.

"How about you two? What do you plan to do?" said Adrienne as his tone is dull and frosty.

Araysh answered, "Araysh will leave this world after the Lords. Neige could only leave once this servant took his leave as well."

Adrienne, "I see. Then pass our decree to the people of this plane."

"As the Sovereigns reigning we will no longer descend in this mortal land," said Lucien.

Adrienne, "Wars are forbidden until the next sovereign seats on our throne."

"Breaking this decree only means death. Not an ordinary death, but the whole being perishing. There will be no chance. Isn't life supposed to be only one?" said Lucien.

Then their eyes move towards Avel's direction. Avel and Mayim tremble, meeting those dull orbs.

"Former God of the Wind. Accept your punishment," said Adrienne.

Avel upon hearing this could only kneel in front of Lucien and Adrienne together with Mayim in his soul form.

Lucien spoke, "You had broken the laws of the world. Steal the throne. Harm the other Gods and get involved with the being of the lower realms. Thus, you shall be punished."

"Your divinity will be stripped away. You will leave as a human with your memories completely intact. You must serve in the name of righteousness. Only when you have accumulated enough good merits can you return to the divine realm. Do you accept this punishment?" said Adrienne as he looks down on Avel with only coldness in his eyes.

Avel kowtowed and responded, "This lowly one accepts the punishment!"

Lucien looks at Mayim, "God of Water you had tolerated his schemes and turned a blind eye to him harming the other Gods. You are to be punished as well but your offense is not heavy."

"You are punished to return to the divine realm with us and... you are forbidden to contact the God of Wind until he successfully re-entered the Divine Plane. You will begin your training and lesson on how to become a sovereign. I and Lou would stay until you are able to sit on the throne on your own. Do you accept?" said Adrienne.

Mayim kowtowed beside Avel and said, "This lowly one... accepts."

Lucien, "Good. Listen to what Yue is going to say. You will return to the divine plane with Araysh and Neige after you say your goodbyes."

"Araysh, you clean up the rest," said Adrienne.

Araysh replies, "Yes, My lord."

Adrienne and Lucien departed and returned to the divine plane. After Avel and Mayim bid their farewell to each other, Araysh removed Avel's divinity as the Lords commanded. Before they're returned to the divine land, Araysh had announced the decree from the sovereigns. All races whether it was the light or dark faction could only accept the decree. Araysh and the rest ascended back to the divine land after cleaning up the mess. Only Avel as a human was behind to serve his punishment.

There are varying reactions from different races. The humans accepted it as truth and declared to accept the decree from the sovereigns without a question. The Elven and Beast race silently accepts as well. This is because some of their seniors had explained the existence of the Sovereigns who descended on their land to observe. They believed that the war between the light and dark factions had angered those two and this was the punishment every race had to receive.

The portal that connects the abyss and the mundane world was removed. Adrienne had closed it up completely after throwing back in the demons that lurk in the land of humans. The existence of Eirwen

Night was removed from the minds of all mortals. This is Lucien's decision as he hated the fact that the human girl whom their beloved had treated as a family would get possessed by that bastard and caused this whole situation. If not because of the promise they've made with their wife, that these two would have obliterated the other planes except the land of Gods.

Days turn to months and the months turn to years, what happened next is the continuation of this world

Chapter 273: 8.0 Prologue - In the System Space before the Eight World

After getting stabbed by a god-slating sword in the heart by Angela Evans, the main vessel of that evil voice. Lady Evans was possessed without her knowing. No one knows when she was possessed and for how long she was no longer herself. Hei Anjing lost his mortal vessel and wasn't able to stay in that star for too long.

After begging the twins not to destroy the world as it was directly connected to themselves, Eirwen was pulled out of the world. Hei Anjing didn't know what happened after he left until his System had told him.

They followed their deceased lover's wish and didn't destroy that world without Eirwen in it. But in the end, they didn't choose to remain in the mortal world as the reason for it is already gone. Lucien and Adrienne who weren't able to prevent the death of their beloved, Eirwen Night's passing, had completely changed afterward. They don't speak nor react to anything around them and were just left dazed as if time stopped for them the moment Eirwen left them. Though once in a while as if receiving orders the twin sovereign would issue some orders and punishment to those who broke their decree. Aside from those times, these two were completely detached from the world outside the divine temple.

In the end, the twin chooses a successor for the position of Sovereign. They wanted to leave that place as soon as possible so they could see their lover who was waiting for them outside of this world.

Before the twin sovereigns decided to abdicate from their position as ruler gods.

The former God of Wind Avel was punished and was stripped of his divinity with his memories as God still intact. He is forbidden to rise as a god again unless he collected enough good karma to redeem himself.

The former God of Water, Mayim, was resurrected by System Yue giving him an immortal body in exchange for the merits his parents had collected when they were still alive. Of course, this was done under his host's inputted command in his database. After a millennium, Mayim is allowed to enter the God System once he finishes his time as the new sovereign of Aerd.

But everyone knew that he only accepted this long duration as sovereign because he is waiting for someone's return.

Nether System

Back to the system space.

Within that vast space of galaxies and stars, Hei Anjing had once again returned. His figure immediately slacked as he covered his mouth when a bad cough was heard from him.

COUGH!!!

Clearly, being stabbed by a god-slaying sword from the high tier world was able to harm him, and the fact that the one who wields that dangerous sword is none other than his other half, the effect on him is obviously not simple.

Followed by the loud cough, a mouthful of blood came out staining his thin lips and hands with crimson color.

[Lord Hei!!? Lord Hei, blood! You just cough blood!? Is it because of the god slaying sword? But it's impossible! Even that type of sword couldn't harm the lord at all.]

Hei Anjing stares at the blood on his hands turning to blood mist and faded in thin air. This is one of his specialties aside from the Ice element. He is capable of controlling the rare element of blood. Zhi Yue had to materialize to support his host.

"Blood element. He had lent me something useful," murmured Hei Anjing. These words weren't heard properly by his system.

Zhi Yue asked politely, "Lord Hei, are you really okay? Should Yue inform the Lord An?"

"Don't bother that fool. I'm a doctor myself, I know my state. This lord is fine but I will need to take a rest. I will occupy the training dimension for a bit. If someone visits, tell them I'm busy. Once I've come out of seclusion I will continue my world-hopping." said Hei Anjing as he walked towards the training hall and entered a long state of meditation.

He needs to spend time to heal his injuries and reclaim his cultivation at the same time. Inside the training dimension, a hundred years from that place equates to an hour in this system space. The time in the training hall is 100 times faster than in reality.

The moment his host had left the system space, Zhi Yue's boss, An Liang appeared from behind him.

There's an ugly expression on his boss's face, it wasn't of anger or irritation but worry. Moreover, his target happened to be his host, Hei Anjing. Just one look is enough for An Liang to know that Hei Anjing's current situation isn't good. Thinking of the only thing that could harm this immortal man means one thing.

"Yue, do you have the recording of what happened in the last world you had entered? Show me this instance!" said An Liang.

Zhi Yue was bewildered by his boss's words but still followed his command and passed the usual recording of events of every world his host had entered. This is the content of his usual reports whenever they returned to the Nether System.

"Ah! Yes, boss!" said Zhi Yue as he passed what his boss wanted to him. To his surprise, his boss had watched the report on the spot.

After watching the event recording of the last world, An Liang's expression turned even darker than when he arrived. He stares worriedly at the closed door of the training hall not far from them.

"This Lucien and Adrienne... Are they A'Ye's soul fragments?" asked An Liang.

Zhi Yue answered, "Yes. In the last world, we had found two fragments of the lord god. He was twins in that world. But in that star there is some weird existence, it was able to influence anyone just by ordering them. It is not a simple kotodama like Lord Hei possesses which could be prevented as long as you have a strong will.

It is more like total control. It could possess anyone's vessel and leave imprints to take control of them as long as one is imprinted they were unable to defy that voice. We didn't know how the Lord God's soul fragments got imprinted but they both had fallen under it.

They had both attempted to kill Lord Hei. Both attempts were successful. It was Lord Adrienne at first. He had sent Warden Lou's vessel to assassinate Lord Hei."

"Are you saying this assassination was successful? This is Anjing we are talking about. It is impossible for him to be assassinated unless he allows it too!" retorted An Liang.

"As the boss says, Lord Hei allowed himself to be killed. He was saying something that his soul had no compatibility with the light element," said Zhi Yue.

An Liang nods his head as he knew that because of the Mo Bloodline's immortality light elements made their unease.

"Their bloodline isn't compatible with yang elements like light and fire. As they were born with Yin nature instead. I am more surprised that Warden Lou dared to assassinate Anjing but if he was ordered by A'Ye then it is understandable. The first move wasn't done by A'Ye's soul fragment which is good. But the second attempt was quite bad moreover they've used a God-slaying sword which isn't supposed to exist in that world. No wonder Anjing is in that state." says An Liang.

An Liang's thoughts. 'His soul had already weakened to the point that unique attributed weapons could already harm him.'

Zhi Yue asked, "But isn't Lord Hei supposed to be immortal? I had seen him get stabbed in the heart twice but still got revived with no injuries."

"Even for the Venerable Clan like the Mo Family, they still possess some weakness. I will give you a few days of vacation. Take this time to rest. Just send me a message if Anjing comes out." said An Liang. "So that person finally showed his tail..."

Zhi Yue with slight confusion on his face nodded his head agreeing.

"Sigh~ since their souls aren't completely bound together yet, Anjing will have to suffer a few more times. This is his choice. We've tried to stop him many times but he never changes his mind when it was made up. Look after him for me, Yue." says An Liang with a helpless smile before taking his leave to continue his work.

Zhi Yue murmured while pouting, "You guys keep talking in riddles. I couldn't understand what you guys were talking about at all!?"

This System could only stay at the space and waits for his host to come out from the training hall. Day by day, Zhi Yue had stayed in the Nether System without doing any work. Since he is on vacation Zhi Yue has stayed in his own space binge-watching the romantic interaction between two men in his collection. As a certified fudanshi, he has a wide collection of BL dramas and movies.

He can only spend his days watching and reading. On the 5th day, the doors to the training hall finally opened. Zhi Yue was shocked by his host's current appearance after coming out of seclusion. When his host was pulled into the Nether System, Lord Hei had always been in his human form.

But at this moment his host is using his God Form which he had only heard in the rumors spread in Vearth. Like the rumors say, his appearance had a correlation to both ice and blood elements. His hair is long flowing behind his back like silk with the shade of auburn.

Yes, in his God form his hair had this kind of color as if dyed in reddish-brown leaning more in the crimson shade. They said his original hair color is the same as his uncle before but no one else knew when it turned into such a color. As if it had died in lava and blood.

His phoenix-shaped eyes were lethargic as always, slightly narrowed as if criticizing people most of the time only his irises emit coldness and shade of ice. Argent orb could only be possessed by the bloodline of the Hei Clan.

Now this man who is like the embodiment of both the blood and snow stood before him wearing an immortal robe made for the highest class of divine white silk from the mythical beings like heavenly demon spiders and such. The robe had two-color white and black with the white more dominant than black.

Except for the lazy feeling coming from him, there is this hidden danger behind those icy orbs staring down at anyone he is looking at. A dazed yet overwhelming gaze which is overlooking his surroundings gave everyone the feeling of being pressured plus the elegance crazed within his bones.

Just one look is enough to say that this person possesses strength beyond them and that he is someone with a prestigious background. An immortal being through and throughout.

Zhi Yue's thought while staring at Hei Anjing in his God Form, 'Wow~ He's so beautiful~'

Hei Anjing asked after staring at the scattered snacks and chips around Zhi Yue's slender figure, "Did someone come over to see me?" turning a blind eye to his system's embarrassing potato couch figure.

Zhi Yue replied, "Only my boss, Lord An came over. But the boss didn't say much, gave us a few days of vacation, and just said to send a message before we leave."

"I see. Then add my message to yours. Tell him that he doesn't need to bother himself with my problems and just focus on what he has to do. I will protect my other half myself. Show me the world plots I can choose from, Yue." said Hei Anjing while with just his thoughts a couch appeared in thin air which he occupied waiting for Yue to give him the plots.

Zhi Yue saluted towards him politely and showed his host the remaining plots. After letting his host review the world plots he had to move in a distance to send his boss a message like he was told to do so.

After waiting for a few minutes his host had finally chosen the next world he would enter. This time he had chosen the lowest-ranked world.

"Yue, I chose this star. A D rank one." said his host.

[D Rank Stars World Plots:

1st Blue Star: Guide and Sentinel World

World Plot: War against the Alien Invasion of Zerg. The Transmigrated Shou awakened as a Guide. With his memories as the most powerful Mercenary from his world, he will trample all of those people who bullied him and looked down on him. Under the protection of his Sentinel General they wish to lead the world to the era of peace.]

Zhi Yue captured that blue star his host had fancied and placed on his hands intending to let him start the transfer on his own.

"Lord Hei. I have listed the following skills you can choose from. Please." said Zhi Yue as he showed Hei Anjing the list of skills available before they could enter the next world.

[List of Skills:

Physique Upgrade

Spirit Upgrade

Mecha Control and Techniques novelusb.com

Technical Skills

Logistical Skills

Strategic Skills]

Hei Anjing narrowed his eyes to the list. He looked at his system and asked, "What is this list for? Or are you saying that these are all skills at master levels which couldn't be learned through reading?"

"This... It was the Nether System database that listed it. Everything except the techniques can be learned through books. Moreover, since the Lord came from the highest realm then... These skills truly aren't usable. Should Yue exchange the free skills for redemptive tickets instead?" asked Zhi Yue.

"Sigh~ when this is over, I will have the Nether System undergo debugging. I haven't used many tickets in the last world. How many do I still have?"

"Host had only used one ticket in the last world. There are still four more tickets used."

"Then use my remaining tickets to redeem another skill from the list. I choose the two upgrades for the physique and spirit type. This lord is so sure that the vessel you would provide would definitely have problems. As for the rest of the skills, I don't need to learn them. I already have experience with regard to those things. Let's now enter the star, Yue."

Zhi Yue turned to his avatar form and became a little moon once again then he joined his host and jumped into that world.

Chapter 274: 8.1 First Blue Star - Star Network

The system and host duo had once again left the Nether System to resume their world-hopping journey. This time Hei Anjing had chosen a D ranked World to take a rest. The last world he came out from is a B ranked world which means his and his husband's enemies being there is normal.

Moreover, he had died twice the last time and needed to spend 10,000 years in the training world to stabilize his injuries. He truly almost died in the last world. Thankfully his husband's soul had split in that world and the effects of his bloodline's weakness were halved as well.

It only took an instant for the both of them to enter the next star.

Interstellar World

Oberion Empire

First Military Academy

[Ding! Transfer complete!]

The usual sound of a computer was heard from his head when Hei Anjing opened his eyes. What welcomed him was a grumpy-looking yet captivating man scolding him in his face at this moment.

"What the hell were you thinking Feng Jing!?"

His voice is full of feelings made of annoyance and embarrassment. With clear blame on his tone, there is also an obvious hint of worry hidden.

Hei Anjing spoke to his system in his mind as always, "Yue, who is this man? Give me my plot as well."

[Yes, Host. The person in front of you is Feng Yang. He is a major general of Phoenix Brigade Corps. One of the four major generals of the Empire. He works for one of the three Marshal, the youngest and strongest Sentinel in the Empire, Marshal Altair Sirius.]

The name of the protagonist shou is Bai Yuyan, he is an outsider soul who transmigrated to this world. He used to be the famous mercenary king in his world because of this his combat skills plus a golden finger, a prototype subsystem that accompanied him to this world let him awakened as a guide.

He chooses to hide that he is a guide because he didn't want to believe that as a formerly straight man, he would be in the position to receive on himself. It annoys him and chooses to become an ordinary person until he falls in love with the protagonist gong. The strongest among the four major generals, General Draco Izar of the Dragon Brigade Corps. This person works under a different Marshal. One of the oldest Marshal in the Empire and someone, Marshal Janus.]

"This is unexpected. The Protagonist Gong didn't have the highest influence in the world. Isn't the proud son of heaven supposed to be the strongest among all Sentinels? What's with that youngest Marshal being so OP?" said Hei Anjing.

[This must be because the youngest marshal had said to die due to a mania berserk and since he doesn't have a guide compatible with him he died painfully.]

"Tsk! What a lucky son of a bitch. Continue the report, Yue." said Hei Anjing was talking about the protagonist gong of the world.

[The host vessel is called Feng Jing. The youngest young lord of the Feng Family. You have one older brother, Feng Yang, and one older sister, Feng Yue who married in royalty as Queen Consort. Your Feng Family had a connection to the crown as the other half of your sister is the crown prince of the empire, your highness Zenith Regulus.

According to the plot of the world, Feng Jing was famous for his cruelty and arrogance. Because he came from a well-known family everyone thought he would definitely awaken as a guide only to fail and become a nobody.

Except for being protected by the Feng Family and leading your clan to death and being oppressed by the other marshals' people the original died with the whole Feng Family being condemned.]

"Didn't they originally have connections with the Crown Prince?"

[The Crown Prince was assassinated with his wife on their way to save the Feng Clan. That led to the entire fall of the Feng Clan. Moreover, the original Feng Jing is not really cruel. It was just a play he asked some people because he wanted to break his engagement with the Altair Family.

Those whom he bullied before were all planned right from the beginning. They were all sent to the biggest hospital under the Feng Family provided with the highest purity of healing pod. All were ploys just so the Altair family could break their engagement.

Everything was covered up as people who served the Feng Family were only loyal to Feng. This is the reason no one heard about this plan of the original Feng Jing.]

Hei Anjing asked, "Then the reason the original wants to break the engagement?"

[It is because he is in love with Major General Draco. He wanted to be married to someone he loves instead of being used as a political piece.]

"Hm~ quite a likable soul. What are his wishes?"

[He wishes to stop the demise of his family and spend time with them. The second is that he still wants to still get married to someone he loves himself.]

"Well, I will keep it in mind. At what event are we now?"

[You are being confronted by your elder brother after he learned that you challenged a weak commoner Bai Yuyan into a combat battle. This conversation with your brother was being broadcasted on the Star Network which also caused the downfall of Feng Jing. At this moment, the Feng Family, the Royal Family, and even the Altair Family including everyone was watching your confrontation live.]

"I see... Give me this vessel's memory. I know what to do."

[Affirmative!]

System Yue had done his usual routine every time they have entered a world. He passed the original vessel's memory to his host that will allow the latter to integrate faster to the role his vessel Hei Anjing possesses.

General Feng had been scolding his younger brother for half an hour but the latter just lowered his head and listened to his words without rebuking any of his words which is weird.

"Challenging an ordinary person even if you haven't awakened yourself yet is still not a good idea. A'Jing, are you listening to big brother? You're almost at the age to be engaged, can you please hold back and stop being childish and don't embarrass our Feng Family!?" said Feng Yang.

"..." Feng Jing didn't see his brother's eyes but Feng Yang could still see his younger brother's hands gripping his hand in a tight fist that made it look bloodless. He is clearly restraining his emotions.

When Feng Yang noticed his younger brother gripping his hands until it bleeds made him worry.

Holding his brother's hand carefully Feng Yang had a worried expression on his face, his voice slightly turned soft. "Don't hurt yourself! Can't you just tell big brother why you are doing this? According to your guards, none of those people you bullied before were left unwounded by the end of the day.

I've also spoken to one of them before. He said that you had chosen him as a commoner on purpose so you can help him financially as his mother is sick. You promise that it would only be an act and that you had never given him any fatal injuries. Everything he got is superficial wounds like bruises and scratches. Not only that you've also sent him and his mother to be healed overnight with the highest grade concoction and even used a healing pod.

A'Jing, Big brother knows you are not a cruel person. You don't like bullying others but you suddenly change one day. Can you tell my brother why you are doing this?"

This time Feng Yang decided to ask and no longer scold his younger brother. Their A'Jing was definitely not born spoiled by them, he is clearly someone who knows what is wrong to right. There must definitely be a reason why he is acting this way.

Feng Yan keeps his younger brother's hands open to prevent his wounds from being infected. He covered it with a clean handkerchief at least until they got it treated. He was stunned when he felt warm water droplets falling on his hands. He knew that these were tears.

As an elder brother of Feng Jing, he knew that his younger brother is a bit mature for his age but he rarely cries. He panicked for a moment when he learned that his brother started crying. He immediately yet gently lifted his brother's face and saw it covered in tears.

Tears fell from his crimson eyes like waterfalls and his lips were slightly bleeding as he was biting his lower lips that prevented him from making any noises. When he saw Feng Jing crying this way Feng Yang thought he had scared his little brother too much.

Sniff~

He was so used to scolding the soldiers in such a tone and forgot that this younger brother of his is not even a soldier and hasn't become a complete adult yet. The one in front of him is an eighteen-year-old young man.

Feng Yang panicked for the first time in his life and kneeled on one knee to lower his stance in front of his crying brother.

"Don't cry, A'Jing. Brother is wrong, okay?" said Feng Yang as he gently wipes his brother's tears with his fingers only when he remembered how rough his skin is that he wanted to pull back his hands, afraid of scaring his brother more. He did not expect his brother to purr at his hand unafraid.

Wuwu~

He even held his hand with trembling two small and soft hands. Then those pairs of crimson irises which had the deepest shade of blood look at him.

Feng Jing spoke, "Gege, I don't want to get married to a stranger. Big Yeye (Grandfather) says that I would have to leave the house soon. He said I will get married to the strongest person in the universe but...

I don't really want to marry him. Not that I hate the person the elders had chosen for me. It is because... Because I don't like to marry for just mere connections. Gege, I want to get married to someone I love and have chosen myself. I want to be with someone whom I will love with everything.

Yes, like the love between Jiejie and Zen-gege."

The heir of Feng was shocked at every word his younger brother was telling him. But he finally understood the reason for his brother's changes lately. His younger brother started to act foolishly the last time their grandfathers had visited home. He could still remember their Grandfather talking to Feng Jing all day that time.

[A/n: Since this world is Futuristic, marriage between the same genders is normal. They could even have a baby through natural birth or through gene synchronization.]

"Gege, I don't want to marry someone I don't love!" said Feng Jing as his tears poured down, even more, this time.

At his current state everyone who can see him could definitely say that this young man is overly beautiful and he looks delicate at this moment. His features had always been above average after crying he looked like a bullied darling which attracted everyone's sympathy.

[Wow~ the host had acted a perfect white lotus this time. So creepy~]

"No one would take you for a mute even if you don't speak! You brat!"

Now that Feng Yang knew what was wrong, he could only coax this little one who had a misunderstanding.

"Don't cry anymore. Don't believe your Big Yeye. You aren't engaged to anyone at all! Moreover, there is no way Father and Mother would agree to an engagement unless you approve it yourself. A'Jing you have the right to choose whom you want to be with." said Feng Yang.

Feng Jing slowly calms down when he hears his brother's words but there is confusion within those red orbs staring at him innocently.

"B-But Big Yeye said..."

BAM! It was the sound of the room being forcefully opened. When the brothers looked at the door they saw two handsome middle-aged uncles. One possesses the same red hair and eyes as the brother's while the other possesses silver hair and silver eyes.

Feng Yang has crimson hair and eyes while Feng Jing possesses silver hair and crimson eyes. Feng Yue instead possessed light brown hair from their mother and red eyes from the Feng Bloodline.

The two men who arrived are obviously from the Feng Clan. The one Feng Jing calls Big Yeye, the patriarch of Feng Clan, Feng Xuan, and his other half, Matriarch Feng, Xue Xia. They were both former Marshals before retiring due to an injury.

Feng Jing calls, "Big Yeye? Xiao Yeye? Why are you in my school?"

"Greetings to Grandfather and Grandad," said Feng Yang.

The culprit that caused misunderstandings Feng Xuan was kicked on the back by his angry wife and fell near Feng Yang.

Xue Xia, "It was this old bastard's fault! Hmp!" Then this silver-haired gentleman approaches Feng Jing with a smile and wipes his grandson's tears. He also didn't forget to pour some healing concoction on Feng Jing's injured hands which immediately healed the wound. "My darling... You don't have to listen to your Big Yeye, Xiao Yeye won't force you to get married to someone you don't like, okay? Don't cry anymore or you'll become as ugly as your Big Yeye~"

Feng Xuan was getting supported by his eldest grandson to stand after being kicked by his wife and once again almost fell flat on the ground for the second time when he heard his wife called ugly.

Feng Xuan murmurs, "I'm not ugly though."

"Grandfather, you shouldn't go against Grandad," said Feng Yang.

Before Feng Xuan could rebuke his eldest grandson's words he felt a piercing glare coming from his fierce wife and decided to become a mute for a moment.

Tsk!

HIC!

"Okay, Xiao Yeye I won't cry anymore~," said Feng Jing as he smiles.

If his crying face makes him look like a fragile easily bullied little flower, his smiling face had a different impact. Because of his phoenix-shaped eyes and exquisite features a simple smile gives away a hint of seduction. As if looking at a heavenly fox hooking up everyone's heart in that instant.

Everyone in the room including those who were watching the live stream of the star network had fallen under this bewitching yet lovely smile. They couldn't stop blushing. Some even suffered nose bleeds.

At the star network.

'Wow~ this innocent little bunny suddenly turned into a seductive fox!'

'Lick. Lick. Lick. This one had covered the screen with saliva because of the beauty.'

'Honey~ look here. If you are looking for a boyfriend. This one had money, average looks but extremely gentle ba~'

'Tsk! You morons. Save your recordings I'm sure that the Feng Family would delete this stream right away to hide their little treasure.'

'Baby look here. I may be an awakened Sentinel but I don't care if you are unawakened or just an ordinary person!'

'Ahh~ I want to kidnap this adorable baby~~'

Back to the school of Feng Jing.

The ones who were stunned by Feng Jing's smile were not only those who were watching live streams but also the three Feng Family members who were with him at this moment.

Xue Xia hugged his youngest grandson and said, "Ah~ my adorable baby doesn't smile like that in public you'll get kidnapped!!"

Chapter 275: 8.2 First Blue Star - First Military Academy

Somewhere in the Empire's Outer Space Territory.

A huge spaceship was currently patrolling at the space checkpoints. These soldiers were all wearing black federal uniforms overlooking the wide horizon of black space before them.

There were holographic screens spread around the interior of the spacecraft recording the whole live feed of the current state of the area.

The soldiers were all trained to be ready for a battle anytime. Just based on their subtle movements their body's strength was above average compared to normal soldiers.

Among them, one is clearly a gem polished to perfection. His figure is perfectly refined by the Gods themselves. The aura around him is elegant and at the same time emits a dangerous and evil vibe. His sharp eyes were a bit downcast while looking at the screen in front of him.

Black hair which looks as soft as satin from the distance, tall nose, sharp jaws, and thin lips. When those obsidian orbs stare at someone, one couldn't be helped by instinctively shivers as they could instantly feel the huge difference they have from this man.

His features were distinguishing down to every small detail. Especially the still military stellar uniform made this person awe-inspiring and inviolable. Coupled with his solemn and unapproachable aura one would dare to directly look at his person.

At this moment this man is video calling with an elegant lady that possesses features similar to his especially the color of their hair. Within the screen in front of him, a small window shows the scene within which the First Military Academy plays. It was the scene of Feng Jing.

Mrs. Altair spoke, "Did you see the fairy-like child? He is supposed to be one of your tentative engagement partners but it seems that the Feng Clan isn't willing to send away their precious baby. What to do? Sirius, are you listening?"

The man who emits perfection is none other than the youngest marshal in the Empire's Federation, Altair Sirius. Mrs. Altair expected his workaholic son to ignore her words as usual and end the call one-sidedly. But she didn't expect her son to fall in a daze even a few seconds after getting to rebuke him.

Mrs. Altair spoke, "Hello? Sirius...?"

Falling out of daze Altair Sirius moves his gaze from the same window to his mother's face. The emotion on his face remains void.

"Mother. Can you stop calling me for this... nonsense? I'm on duty." said Sirius.

The mother of this cold-faced marshal had given her son a meaningful smile. She noticed her son's short, weird state just now.

"Hah~ geez, what is this old lady supposed to do if you grow up alone. So what if you are a Marshal! Son, I want a daughter-in-law to bring me home one!"

Marshal Altair directly ignores his mother's chatterbox mode. His eyes look at the spaceship window but one could see him peeking through the corner of his eyes silently watching someone's figure on the holographic screen.

This is of course noticed by his mother but didn't dare mention it on purpose instead she continues to nag at her son until the marshal's ears suffer from ringing.

"Hah~ Son, let's talk about something else. The truth is your father and this old lady are going out for a honey course for a week. But unfortunately, there is this examination or competition scheduled at the First Military Academy. Your father was tasked to look for new cadets and officers to join the corps. Since the Phoenix Brigade is under our jurisdiction your father is supposed to come over as observer." said Mrs. Altair.

Marshal Altair lightly glanced at his mother's face but didn't say a thing. He was willing to listen but for the rest, he needs to see.

"Someone from Marshal Junas' side is going. It's that Major General Draco. This child is quite popular among the youngsters if you don't come to your father's instead then... We'll lose all the new blood to him."

The Marshal had spoken, "Isn't Feng Yang already there? He should be enough."

"Of course! He would be there. His baby brother is a participant. There is no way that boy would be able to focus on the other cadets with their family's darling being in. This old lady is telling you to watch the others! Especially that one from Old Bastard Janus's side!"

"I'm busy," said the Marshal.

Mrs. Altair declared, "You are going to come over. The royal family and the president would be there as well. As a member of the Altair Family, it is your responsibility to become our representative when we're not there!"

"Just cancel your wedding anniversary trip."

Snorts!

Mrs. Altair snorted and said, "I will have someone come to you and bring you to the event's location. It would be a month from now. Don't forget!" Then she one-sidedly cut off their call from her side. Leaving a black screen for the youngest marshal to see.

His right-hand man, Lieutenant General Xue Ying, approached discretely and asked, "Marshal, what should we do? Are we attending?"

This Lieutenant General Xue is a distant cousin of the Feng descendants from their grandad's side. He works directly under Marshal Altair like Feng Yan but he works with the Marshal's Fallen God Troops which is under the full control of the Altair Family.

Marshal Altair didn't respond right away and took a whole minute before answering.

"There's still a month to think over." said Altair Sirius, "For now tell them I might attend."

"Yes, sir. As you command," said General Xue.

Meanwhile, in Marshal Altair's mindscape, his quantum beast had been causing ruckus ever since he had seen Feng Jing's crying and smiling expressions. No one else knew the turmoil his heart had suffered when he saw him cry and was left dazed when he saw his smiles.

Materializing in thin air is a huge black dragon surprising everyone on board the ship. This quantum beast is the Marshal's other half as a Sentinel. This huge dragon acted like a dog moving his Master's hand towards the hologram screen asking him to play the video where Feng Jing appears.

Sirius asked, "You want to see him, Cielo?"

The black dragon nods his head and focuses his inhuman eyes on the playing video on the screen. His Cielo is obviously interested in Feng Jing alone. This hasn't happened ever since he was born. At some point, the Marshal even believes that he is asexual.

Altair Sirius's eyes also watch the video before him through his eyes and expressions remain void and nonexistent.

Back to First Military Academy

After the misunderstanding made by the original Feng Jing had been cleared, his grandparents and Elder brother pulled him into the Dean's office. The dean is a good friend of Feng Xuan. This is the reason why Feng Jing was almost able to do anything he wanted in the Academy.

A set of tea was served for them to enjoy. The dean was seated with them silently drinking tea with the patriarch and matriarch of Feng Clan. Feng Yang on the other hand asked for black coffee while Feng Jing wanted iced Cafe au lait.

Within that quiet room, only the sound of Feng Jing slurping his drink with a straw can be heard. The dean was sneaking a peek at Feng Jing, this problem child of their family. His usual arrogance is gone and obediently lowers his head as he steals a stare at the dean with a guilty expression on his cute face.

Dean thought, "T-This child... Though I've to watch that video from the star network a few hours ago, it might be a bit hard to believe when just seeing it in the video but... Seeing him like this seems to be the truth." move1usb.com

Xue Xia, this former marshal spoke, "Darling you've been staring at the dean for a while now. Is there something you wish to say, dear?" asked his grandad.

Feng Jing nods his head like a pecking chicken. He looks too adorable acting like a child of his age. Then suddenly they saw him stand up and gesture a salute showing his respect to the elders. With one hand on his chest, Feng Jing lowered his head in front of the elder.

"Feng Jing wants to formally apologize to Big Yeye, Xiao Yeye, the dean and elder brother for all the actions this one had made and the circumstances. Feng Jing is willing to take responsibility for everything that's been done."

The dean's name is Astra Regulus. He is someone from the royal family. The brother of the current emperor.

Astra stared at the polite young man in front of him and nudged his friend with an elbow in his surprise.

"Lao Xuan is that still really your youngest!?" whispered the dean to his friend.

Feng Xuan answered back, "Nonsense! If Xiao Jing is not my grandson, is he yours!?"

"Hehehe~ Xiao Jing. Grandpa Astra had a question for you. Why is it that you've chosen Bai Yuyan as your target for the bully... I mean why to ask the awakened boy for a challenge?" asked Dean Astra.

Feng Jing upon checking his memories according to the original plot. It seems that the original Bai Yuyan before the Soul was replaced by the proud Mercenary King from the other world, did seem to agree to the original Feng Jing's plan of being bullied under the live stream of the star network. In exchange, Feng Jing would pay for the rest of his tuition until he graduated and after the battle, he would be sent to Feng Clan's Hospital and be immediately treated.

But unfortunately, the protagonist shou had transmigrated before the battle. Without steadily digesting the memories of the original Bai Yuyan the Mercenary King had beaten up the original Feng Jing to half dead. Only afterward does the Mercenary King merge his original memories from the former owner of the body he has now.

But at that time it was already too late as he had already offended the Feng Clan for almost killing their youngest descendant. He had no other choice but to grab the power the protagonist gong is being backed up with to protect himself.

Feng Jing's thoughts, "Obviously the protagonist shou of this world didn't stay by the side of the protagonist gong in the name of love instead it's because of the contract he had signed with General Draco." He smiles coldly in response.

On the other hand, in reality, is an expression in contrast to his real one. Wearing an innocent face Feng Jing answered the old dean's question.

"Because he is the one who needs financial help the most among the other common people. There are rumors saying that he had failed to awaken as a guide and the school is about to take back his allowance for living in exchange for his scholarship not being rebuked.

The one who suggests this type of plan is also him. He says for a righteous clan like the Altair Family who sees others for their talents without regards to their origins, they would definitely hate to marry their scion to me who bullies commoners and the Altair Family would definitely break the engagement as long as one saw me bullying the weak.

But I wasn't planning on beating him up. I'm only going to pretend to hit him, that's all." answered Feng Jing.

Almost everyone in the room had their face turned serious.

Feng Xuan spoke, "Astra, since when did this First Military Academy one take away someone's allowance to extend someone's Scholarship. The scholarship is a permanent reward per its duration. How long is that child's scholarship duration?"

"Hm~ if this old man is not wrong, Bai Yuyan is within the top ten of most outstanding lists in the academy. Even though the child of the common birth he had the intelligence. Physique rank C potential A. Spirit is A. Overall potential S. His scholarship should last until he graduates." says Dean Astra. "Xiao Jing, can you call for Bai Yuyan for Astra Yeye?"

Feng Jing nods his head once to show his agreement.

"Please excuse Xiao Jing for a moment. Grandpas, Gege." said Feng Jing.

"Um. Return as soon as possible. We'll wait for you here. Let's go home together." said Feng Xuan.

Xue Xia said, "My darling don't follow strangers okay?"

"I won't Xiao Yeye," answered Feng Jing while smiling innocently.

[Host please don't smile like that. It is really creepy.]

Though the smile on Feng Jing's on the surface is immovable his smile within his soul is twitching after hearing his system's rude words. He had to bash the kid's head to show his anger. Within the spirit realm of Feng Jing, a small moon is planted like a seed glowing like a night pearl. They had a conversation while walking in the hallway.

BANG!

[Owiee~]

Feng Jing went out of the dean's office and his innocent facade faded similarly as well.

"Stop fooling around Yue. Show me where my dear toy... Cough! The protagonist shou of this world."

[Yue will show the map and location indicator for Bai Yuyan's location to the host mind. He seems to be in the dormitory for commoners. But the host should treat the protagonist of each world as your toys.]

Feng Jing responded, "As long as I can enjoy myself then I don't care for anything else. Moreover, I haven't found my husband in this world yet. Playing around with him should be enough entertainment for now."

[Haven't the host played enough in the last world?]

"Making me wear women's clothing? Is that fun for me?"

[But the Lord God had enjoyed it quite well. Didn't the host have fun too?]

"Hmp! Just a bit. But two is still too much!"

First Military Academy

Dormitory

Only commoners stay at the academy's dormitory as most descendants of the noble and rich clans still have to continue their responsibilities for the clan after school. Things like home school, training, and learning how to handle their family's businesses. Especially those heirs who were busy with things in their clans, this is why it is rare for students with a noble bloodline to stay at the academy after school.

The dormitory for the commoners had a simple setting. In one huge room, two double-decker beds were placed on each side. With a long table in the middle and four wardrobes for students.

The appearance of the young man slumbering is quite good. He has what the others call a cute little brother type. Delicate features, peach blossom eyes, small nose, and kissable lips. Just based on these traits this little is definitely a cute type. This person is Bai Yuyan

Bai Yuyan's pale face is covered with cold sweat. Lying in the bed he is designated with, he was gritting his teeth in his sleep obviously his state is something normal. He had been suffering from a high fever since last night after overworking himself with his part-time jobs.

But no one was in the room as his roommates had gone home as it was the weekend. No one knows that the original Bai Yuyan had died that time and the soul in that body was replaced by someone else.

As he woke up, the throbbing feeling in his head was almost unbearable. Bai Yuyan could only use his hand to rub his temples trying to ease the pain.

"Urgh~ what the hell is this pain? Did I drink too much last night?"

The soul inside the body had already been replaced by someone who was known as the Mercenary King, when he opened his eyes revealing orbs with purple shade, a glint of vigilance and confusion passed through when he saw an unfamiliar surrounding.

The Mercenary King uttered in surprise, "Where the hell am I?"

Chapter 276: 8.3 First Blue Star - The Former Mercenary King

The Mercenary King is a famous individual. He completed his mission with 100 percentage. A perfect mission and widely spread fame. Males and females all adore him. He is a man who could go both ways as long as the counterpart is beautiful.

His combat capabilities were precise yet aggressive with this strength cut above the rest he could almost do anything he wanted. He is also witty enough not to be taken advantage of. He is a male god type but unfortunately, when he transmigrated to the other world, everything had been reversed.

His former six-pack abs refined throughout his adventure had turned into a soft and flat board. His hard muscled arms from years of training had turned to fair and flawless. It was even softer than females.

After digesting the fact that he is no longer in his own room and possesses a different body that the Mercenary King panics for the first time. His heartbeat and mind were both in chaos as he could believe that those things he read from a danmei book before would happen to be the same world he had transmigrated with.

The mercenary scanned the whole room and immediately spotted the location that was most likely to be the bathroom. He runs off to look at his appearance reflected in the mirror.

Seeing the delicate features which almost made him look so fragile. Staring at those pairs of peach blossom eyes and purple irises looking back at him. Similar features in detail explained in the book suddenly appearing in front makes the Mercenary King realize what his transmigration ended us.

"What the fuck!? Of all people, why this one!?" shrieked the Mercenary King while gripping his ordinary chocolate brown hair. "Why the hell did I have to become that pale-faced Bai Yuyan na!?"

[Ding! Mercenary System Activated! Host Bai Yuyan had been completely registered.]

The Mercenary King heard the sound of the system that accompanies him all his life as a Mercenary. It was thanks to this system that he was able to become the king among all mercenaries. This system helps him check on people's capabilities and estimate his death rate.

It would also give away some opinion during the mission which would give which routes would allow him to choose his ending. This system had its own intelligence like an AI.

The Mercenary King would now be called Bai Yuyan.

"Tsk! Who would expect that you would also accompany me even here, Stella."

[A/n: The Mercenary King calls his system Stella which means star. As he treats Stella as the guiding star of his life.]

[You are awake, Host. Stella will now send you the information of the vessel the host is in and knowledge of this world. Plus the memories of that vessel. Please bear the pain, Host.]

As soon as System Stella finished speaking with his host, an electrifying pain spread in Bai Yuyan's body. He could only slouch at the rink of the bathroom writhing in pain. Groans and pants echo with the area as Bai Yuyan clutches his head as his whole body is covered in cold sweats.

Arrgh~ pants~ urgh~

After a minute, Bai Yuyan was given everything he needed to be able to adapt to this world.

"Thank God, this kid is an orphan with few friends. There is no need to pretend too much as I live in this world. According to the knowledge you've passed to me in this world there are unique people called sentinels and guides.

Sentinels were the strongest kind of being in the world and could be considered someone from the demigod race. They possess strength beyond normal and a spirit that could control the energy of this world but they are prone to what they called mania where they would sometimes lose their mind and fall into madness.

And the ones that could save a berserk sentinel are only a guide. A guide had a stronger spirit than most Sentinels this allows them to calm down the mania which causes chaos within the spirit realm of a Sentinel. They were able to soothe the raging spirit of a Sentinel.

The Guides really have it bad huh? They needed to be intimate with a sentinel to save them from mania. Thankfully, it is against the law to force a guide pair with a sentinel against their wishes.

Right~ and I happen to be one of the guides. Arrgh~ I don't want my chrysanthemum to be burst by someone else!!!"

Ignoring his own host who is about to lose his mind after knowing that from a mercenary king which all the females adore, he becomes a guide who had to sell his ass to save someone.

[Host, calm down. As a guide, I have become your quantum beast. The host should think about what appearance Stella would take. You can only transform me into something once. Moreover, there are restrictions. Since the host had no special bloodline mythical creatures like azure dragons, phoenix, black turtle, and white tigers are not accessible.] movelusb.com

Bai Yuyan murmurs, "As expected, by the way, what is the original quantum beast of this body?"

[It's a rabbit.]

"Excuse me. Can you repeat that? I seem to be hearing things and overhear delicious things being mentioned."

[My host you are not hearing things. It is something the host loves to eat whether it is grilled, roasted, fried, or stew. A rabbit. That is Bai Yuyan's quantum beast.]

"Fuck! Where is it now?" asked Bai Yuyan.

[Stella ate it already. Host, please choose what Stella should take.]

Now that the former rabbit quantum beast had already been eaten, the mercenary king completely lost interest in that topic and move on to the next one. "I haven't thought of something yet. This is a school right, let's go to the library."

[Host, you do know in this world there is something called a communication device. It can be connected to a star network which is like the internet in the former world.]

"Oh~ that seems quite used... full."

His purple peach blossom eyes suddenly turned sharp. Bai Yuyan suddenly stops talking and looks at the door of his room as if something extremely frightening is standing just beyond that door.

His enhanced intuition tells him that something dangerous is approaching him but what he didn't expect is that he was only able to notice it when it stops right in front of his door.

Bai Yuyan asks his system, "Stella as my quantum beast, can you fight with me in this world?"

[It will depend on the host's choice for Stella's vessel.]

"Become a variant black leopard. The first form is in normal mode and the second is in flying mode. With special abilities to change your size and stealth."

[Configuration of the vessel in progress. 10%... 30%...60%...90%...100%.

Ding!

First form: Normal Mode integrated. Status: Unlocked Approved!

Second form: Flying Mode integrated. Status: Locked. Reason: Spirit required S rank.

Special Skills

Size (increase/decrease) - locked

Requirement: Physique A

Stealth - locked

Requirement: Spirit A+

Stella's form: Variant Black Leopard. Ding! Configuration Completed!]

Inside the room, within some space suddenly swirls into a distortion. A Black Leopard suddenly appeared and approached Bai Yuyan.

[Master, in this form Stella can't openly speak with you. Quantum beast of this world is not able to speak.]

"It's alright. Just get ready. He is coming..."

Knock. Knock. Knock.

A voice was heard from beyond the door.

"Student Bai. This is Student Feng. Dean Astra had tasked me to bring you to his office. This is because of your problem with scholarship."

The one outside the room is Feng Jing. Bai Yuyan and his quantum beast Stella were rendered speechless by such an unexpected event.

[Student Feng. Full name: Feng Jing. The young lord from the Clan of Phoenix, the Feng Clan. It is a famous family that is made up of high-ranking Sentinels and Guides.

The Patriarch is called Feng Xuan. He is a former Sentinel marshal. His wife, Xue Xia, is a former General who worked under him. He is also his paired guide. They both possess SS potential and are from the same generation as Marshal Janus.

Feng Jing is an unawakened guide. He is also the youngest lord of the Feng Clan. The most precious child of the Phoenix Family.]

Bai Yuyan thought of the things he remembers from the danmei novel he had read before. Where the original Bai Yuyan as the protagonist shou and Feng Jing as a villain. "According to the book this boy was bullied by that brat until he was beaten up half dead."

[Master. That book may be the same world as this one but unlike from that book, the people here are all real. The names of the characters might be similar but it does not mean the plot from the book would be the same as here. Though there might also be some things similar from the book.

For now, let us meet Student Feng and decide what should be done next.]

Bai Yuyan sighed and said, "That's right. There should be no problem. If some parts are similar to that book, that means the possibility of Feng Jing in this world is the same as the book. Stella returns to the spirit domain but don't forget to check on him if he had already awakened as a guide or not. Also, compile his personal data for me."

[Yes Master!]

The black leopard had once again disappeared from thin air. Like the quantum beast, he had become Stella and was able to stay at Bai Yuyan's spirit domain.

Spirit Domain is a special space in the mind of the Sentinels and Guides. This is where their quantum beast lives. These quantum beasts were like the alter ego of the sentinel and guide. They were like their instinct or beastly nature as a special being.

[Master, Stella is ready.]

"Okay. Let's go."

With all the preparations finished, Bai Yuyan finally approached the door and naturally opened it. Once the door had parted, Bai Yuyan was surprised to see a gentle and innocent young man with silky silver long hair loosely tied on his back and those phoenix-shaped eyes paired with crimson-colored irises.

This Feng Jing's appearance is perfectly refined to perfection. Contrasting embodiments of Snow and Fire. His exquisite features plus his innocent gaze. He is like an untainted and unattainable flower growing on a snowy cliff. Beyond other reach but unable to remove your right from such a unique being.

Bai Yuyan's thoughts, 'Wow~ so pretty~'

[Master. Stella finished compiling Feng Jing's Profile.

Name: Feng Jing

Age: 18

Type: Guide (Unawakened)

Special Bloodline: Feng (Phoenix)

Physique: A

Spirit: S

Overall potential: SS]

[A/n: These are the original Feng Jing's profile before Hei Anjing took over.]

Meanwhile, System Yue, who was hovering invisibly around his host, had noticed the presence of another system. But unlike normal system's this one had no origin.

[Host. This one possesses a system but it isn't a special being like the systems from the Main System. It is manmade and has intelligence. It was born without a soul and was reborn with one after becoming this protagonist shou's quantum beast.]

"I see... But why am I smelling the scent of forest and wind?" asked Feng Jing to his system in his mind.

[How's your reaction to the scent, Host?]

"It's disgusting."

[Hahaha~ Host that is pheromones emitted by Bai Yuyan as a guide. Normally between guides, there would be no rejection but... The host has always been sensitive to scent.]

Feng Jing, "No wonder. The only scent I love is my husband's. Thanks to the Feng Bloodline in this body I don't reject the scent coming from this family. So it's bearable. But this is one... It's disgusting."

In reality, Feng Jing's innocent facade is perfect. Even if he felt retching from the inside, with his Master Level skill in acting Feng Jing retains his white lotus appearance.

"Student Bai. Please follow me in the dean's office. Dean Astra had called for you." says Feng Jing with a smile.

Bai Yuyan responded well despite almost being bewitched by Feng Jing's gentle smile.

"Please go ahead, Student Feng. This one shall follow after you," said Bai Yuyan quite politely as he remembered from his memories that the one in front of him is a pureblood noble.

Feng Jing, "This way, Student Bai."

Following behind Student Feng, Bai Yuyan tried to maintain the former image of the original and keep his head lowered in the presence of a noble. As the original Bai Yuyan is a commoner and was used to fear those of noble clans.

Chapter 277: 8.4 First Blue Star - At the Dean's Office.

First Military Academy

Hallway towards the Dean's Office.

Bai Yuyan continues to observe Feng Jing from behind while conversing with his quantum beast, Stella. They were talking about the profile of Feng Jing which Stella had compiled for his master. The potential of double S is not surprising as the Feng Family had always been an SS-ranked family.

Ranks in the Oberion Empire:

The Royal Family and Federation are equal in fame and authority. But since the Federation held more military strength, they would sometimes be a level higher than those of royal blood except for the Emperor.

0 - Emperor/ Marshals [Marshal Janus Stellan, Marshal Altair Sirius, Emperor Regulus Sol]

1 - General [Feng Xuan and Xue Xia (Grandfathers of Feng Jing), Altair Reeva (father of Sirius)]

2 - Lieutenant General (Xue Ying (under Marshal Altair), Regulus Zenith (Under the Emperor), Nova Seren (under Marshal Janus), Feng Tian (Father of Feng Jing (Neutral)))

3 - Major Generals [Feng Yang (Phoenix), Draco Izar (Drakes), Lin Tang (White Tiger), Navi Itri (Black Turtle)]

4 - Colonel

5 - Lieutenant Colonel

6 - Major

7 - Captain

8 - First Lieutenant

9 - Second Lieutenant

Most noble clans had military power. The four great clans are those who had Major General in their Family. The Feng, Draco, Lin, and Navi Clans. Semi-royal Clans are composed of the following families: Altair, Nova, and Janus.

Bai Yuyan is having a conversation with his quantum beast in his mind. They were already connected in spirit.

"Stella, according to the novel I've read before, this Feng Jing is supposed to be an innocent yet two-faced villain but how could he be so different from what I know."

[Master it might be a coincidence that the names of the characters in that book are the same in this world. By the way, master what was the title of that novel you are referring to?]

"It's Quick Transmigration: Save your Chrysanthemum System is Online! The Bai Yuyan in the story has lots of suitors from generals to princes, even the zerg King, and others more. It's a danmei, comedy, romance which is full of adventure and thrills plus it's a rated 18 novel."

[What insane novels have you been reading master!?!]

"I've only bought it since it was on the recommendation list ba~ after reading it, the novel seems to be not too bad."

It was at this time that Feng Jing suddenly stopped walking in front of him, making his guard.

Feng Jing turned around and looked a bit embarrassed when he was facing Bai Yuyan.

"This... I know you still remembered our promise before. I'm talking about that stage fight in exchange for me helping you with your allowance. Actually, about that my elder brother had scolded me about it so I do think it would be canceled.

But please don't worry Grandpa Astra. I mean the dean had said that your scholarship won't be rebuked and the teachers involved in taking your allowance should be punished. I think the academy would also compensate you for this problem.

With this, Student Bai will no longer have to worry about your allowance as long as you are a student of this academy." said Feng Jing with a shy expression.

Clearly, this adorable innocent boy is worrying that after he stops their plans that he would get angry at him for breaking their promise. He also informs the dean about his situation. The reason he must be called this time to the Dean's office is to talk about his case.

Bai Yuyan smiled and said, "Thank you, Student Feng."

"After your problems are solved, Student Bai should be able to join the end of the month examination. I heard from my brother that lots of high-ranking people would be watching us.

They were choosing future cadets to enter their group. Let's do our best!" said Feng Jing.

Bai Yuyan was once again left dazed by the beauty the man in front of him possessed. It wasn't only his appearance that attracted him but also his presence. He could feel he was there and he knew he could see him but at the same time, he also knew that he could never stand by his side.

The feeling of wanting something burnt by fate itself doesn't allow it. That kind of sensation.
movelus.com

He could only nod his head in agreement with Feng Jing's words. Before they finally resumed their walking and reached the Dean's office. Feng Jing knocks on the door to show politeness to the seniors inside.

Knock. Knock.

A voice from the inside says, "Get in."

Feng Jing took the lead and entered the room with relaxed steps, behind Bai Yuyan keeping his head low imitating the timid personality of Bai Yuyan. But in the corner of his eyes, he was observing the men inside the room.

Looking around he saw a few seniors and a few years older than them, a soldier who had similar features as Feng Jian watching him. Bai Yuyan recognized who this character was.

Bai Yuyan's thoughts, 'That's Feng Yang. The Major General that leads the Phoenix Brigade. I heard that he is supposed to be Feng Jing's older brother.'

"Xiao Jing, come here and seat with big brother," said Feng Yang with a doting expression on his face but when those crimson eyes landed on his being, he felt a sharp yet discerning gaze on him. He felt like a predator was looking at him as prey.

'Tsk! Obviously, everyone in this room is all stronger men but how come they were looking at me like I stole something from them.' Bai Yuyan's thoughts.

Only then did he notice that Feng Jin didn't walk over towards his big brother as he was called inside his sleeves were held and he was pulled over by the innocent Feng Jing towards the dean.

"Grandpa Astra, this Bai Yuyan. He is among the top 5 most outstanding students in the academy." Introduced Feng Jing happily obviously didn't notice the elders' criticizing gaze they've given the child from before.

Their expression instantly turned friendly while looking at Feng Jing. Just seeing this reaction is enough to know how important Feng Jing is to these seniors before him.

But the Mercenary King understood their reactions, 'With an innocent little rabbit-like this its normal for the people of his family to thoroughly check on the people approaching their treasure. Else they wouldn't even know when someone kidnapped this precious little Feng of theirs.'

Bai Yuyan followed the memories he got from the original and saluted towards the senior before him in the way he remembers. He lowered his back and bowed down as he placed a fist above his heart.

"Student Bai greets all the seniors!"

"Un. We heard everything from Xiao Jing. This old man, apologies for getting you involved in our youngest silliness. We hope you don't mind." says Feng Xuan, the patriarch of Feng Clan.

Bai Yuyan respectfully replies, "Please don't worry seniors. Bai Yuya doesn't mind. It was this student who took advantage of Young Lord Feng. Please punish me!"

[You're good, Master. This way they won't think you are really thinking of using Feng Jing for your plans and shows your remorse for being greedily at that point.]

"No! It was me who ordered those things. It was this Feng Jing who was at fault."

Feng Yang frowned seeing his little brother taking the side of a stranger.

"Xiao Jing, come here!" commanded Feng Yang to his stubborn younger brother.

Feng Jing pouted and retorted, "No. Brother, I really am the one wrong. I was the one who asked them to help me!"

"Listen to big brother, Xiao Jing. We are not really going to scold him. Come here and sit with me." said Feng Yang.

Feng Jing glances at Bai Yuyan with a helpless expression, he didn't want him to get scolded.

At least that's how our mc is acting out his innocent facade.

[Wow~ If the Lord God saw this scene that brat would definitely get killed on the spot by that huge vinegar jar.]

Bai Yuyan took his acting seriously. He lightly pats the back of this silly young lord indicating that he should go to his elder brother's side and that he would be okay.

"Go," whispered Bai Yuyan.

Feng Jing reluctantly nods his head towards Bai Yuyan and walks towards Feng Yang as he was told to do so. After sitting on the couch beside his brother Feng Jing can only keep his mouth shut.

The dean who was smiling suddenly gestured for Student Bai to sit at the empty single couch. Once Bai Yuyan is seated the conversation finally restarted. What the Mercenary king didn't know is that the senior had only calmed down when they smelled the scent of the guide on him. As long as this child is a guide, the probability of their little darling being kidnapped in the future is lessened.

"Student Bai, this old man had already heard your situation from Xiao Jing. Please don't worry. Those teachers who extort you of your allowance and those behind them would definitely be punished." said Dean Astra.

Bai Yuyan, "Thank you, Dean, Seniors."

Xue Xia is observing the child in front of him. The more he looks the more he likes him, "Child, did you just awaken as a Guide?"

A startled and vigilant look appeared on Bai Yuyan's face. This time he chooses not to act like the original and showed how fierce his real personality is.

"How did you know?" his voice turned cold as his expression became serious.

A tense atmosphere spreads in the room as the old men exchange stares with the timid child from before becoming keen like this. The three old men suddenly started laughing as they stared at the child with a more friendly gaze than before.

This child is clearly unaffiliated with anyone as he didn't know how to use mist perfume to cover his scent.

[a/n: Mist Perfume is a special tool that could be used by both the Sentinel and Guide to hiding their pheromones. This would allow them to avoid being stared upon by others.]

The Mist Perfume is quite expensive. Only those who have money and fame can buy it. If an Awakened Guide remains unaffiliated with the other faction, they have only three options. Join the military and they would provide it for you. Enter the Guide Tower and sign a contract with them and you'll receive a monthly supply for it in exchange for helping with mania cleansing. Lastly, you could work for the palace or nobles. They would provide you mist perfume as long as you join their faction.

But obviously, this child in front of them had just awakened lately. Since he is still a young man, clearly no one told him about this kind of thing.

Dean Astra spoke, "Child calm down. There is a reason why we knew that you had awakened. There is a scent coming from you. This pheromone can only be smelled by Sentinels and Guides. In this room, everyone here is not an ordinary person. Normally, we could perceive it."

Xue Xia took something from his button space. A perfume.

"You can use this for now. This is a Mist Perfume. It is scentless and can hide the pheromones you possess. But you should still be careful, it can only temporarily hide your pheromones for a day for one spray." said Xue Xia while smiling.

Bai Yuyan received the perfume but he still held a discerning expression on his face. He knew that no one would be this kind to a stranger unless... they need something from him.

Student Bai asked, "What do you wish for me to do?"

Feng Xuan, "Heh~ smart. You are indeed not bad. Our request is simple. Protect Feng Jing when he is far away from us. You know that he is unawakened.

The duration should be until Xiao Jing had awakened at least. It would take that long. He should be awakening within this month or so. You can protect him for at least that long."

"In exchange, we provide you with necessities like that masking perfume and allows you free access in the training rooms and all the facilities in the academy for a month as well. How about it, Student Bai?" asked Feng Yang.

The former mercenary king had observed each and everyone's expression and even asked his quantum beast to check whether they were lying. Among them, only the sleepy Feng Jing seems to be detached from the conversation inside the room.

In his mind space, "How is it, Stella?"

[They are not lying. Moreover, free usage of all facilities in this place would allow the master to at least train his body to stability.

That Mist Perfume is extremely helpful as well. It is more useful for the master right now than the second option.]

"Second Option? There is another way to hide my pheromones?"

[There is but for the master it is not applicable. Since the second option needs a Sentinel to help a guide hide his scent. There is a skill a Sentinel possesses. It is called Blind. It is a skill that makes use of a Sentinel's scent to mask the scent of a Guide.

This can be done between families and between lovers. After all, leaving a scent on someone is like a marking indicating that this person is mine.]

"You are right. This perfume is better for me. By the way, where can I buy this thing?"

[It can be bought but it needs astronomical star coins to do so. It is a product made by Spirit brewers. It is extremely expensive unless you hire a Spirit Brewer to make it for you. The Feng Clan has one. They could provide you enough.

Master demands a bottle each day. A month's worth of perfume is enough to last for at least two years at most.]

Bai Yuyan looks at Feng Yang and waves the bottle of mist perfume in front of him, "A bottle of this daily for a month."

"Agreed. I shall send 30 bottles of mist perfume for your use," said Feng Yang who readily accepted this condition for this child to protect his younger brother while in the academy.

Bai Yuyan nods his head, "I agree to this mission."

With this Bai, Yuyan becomes Feng Jing's secret bodyguard in the academy. As an awakened Guide he should be able to protect Feng Jing against the other student unless the enemy is stronger than him. His overall potential is S for now after all.

Chapter 278: 8.5 First Blue Star - The Phoenix Clan

Once the deal was made, Bai Yuyan was allowed to return to his dormitory. Right after he left, those who were left inside the office resumed their conversation. At this time, Feng Jing had totally fallen asleep using his elder brother's lap as a pillow.

Dean Astra spoke, "How the kid, Dage?" he asked with a sly fox smile.

"Hmp! He is greedy but only at a reasonable level. He uses a timid facade to hide his fierce nature. It was quite a waste that he had awakened as a Guide. But since his potential is at least S, he is considered a good seed to nurture. In the future, he might become another General Guide like my wife, Xia'er." said Feng Xuan.

Xue Xia was smiling sweetly as his husband as he felt his words were sweet. He is indeed a guide and a famous general in the federation. This is because his potential is double S like Feng Xuan. Meanwhile, in the eyes of the Dean, this couple is just showing their love in the world for him to envy. He is an old bachelor at the age of 100. In this interstellar world, an ordinary human can live at most 200 years while special beings like Sentinels and Guides have an even longer lifespan. Based on their strength they would even age slower which is why for this generation of grandpas, their appearance is still in their mid-thirties at most.

Blergh~ "Dage, Dajie, stop showing your love to this old single dog~" complains Dean Astra.

Xue Xia squinted his eyes as he stared at Astra, this little brother of theirs, "If you are willing this old man can arrange some blind date for you. There are still some from our generation who haven't married or already divorced. If Astra is really interested then..."

"No. No. No. No! This old man is too busy managing this school and the Concoction Greenhouse. No free time to waste. Hehehe~" said Dean Astra.

Xue Xia clicked his tongue, "Tsk! Still workaholic as always."

"Well~ I love my job," responded Dean Astra before moving his gaze on the young major general, Feng Yang, his eldest grandnephew. "A'Yang, this grandpa had sent an invitation to the Altair Family for this incoming competition at the end of the month, did they receive it yet?" he asked.

"Grandfather Astra, A'Yang had personally sent it to Mrs. Altair. The invitation should have reached Lieutenant General Altair by now," answered Feng Yang politely.

Dean Astra says, "This is good. After all, this old man had already received a response from the factions' side. The crown side would be sending the crown prince and his princess. As for Marshal Janus's side, he would be sending Major General Draco."

SILENCE~

Once the name Marshal Janus was mentioned, the expression of the others had turned serious yet a bit gloomy. Unlike Feng Xuan who had retired due to an injury, his rival, Janus Stellan, is still in reign blocking the way for the youngsters to be promoted.

Marshal Altair, the youngest among the three leaders was a unique existence that Marshal Janus was unable to prevent. After all, that is the Strongest Sentinel in the whole oberion empire. The only beyond SSS rank potential in the whole stellar world. Some old-timers even considered this young marshal as a monster. Who would believe that someone who is only at the age of 29 is capable of grabbing one of the thrones of Marshal at such young age? Only this young yet monstrous dragon, Altair Sirius is able to do so.

"No one from the side of the Altair said anything? A'Yang if none from the Altair family accepts the invitation for the competition, you should go instead," said Feng Xuan, "We couldn't allow someone to pluck all the good seedlings and leave only the useless ones to pick on."

Feng Yang responded, "I understand, Grandfather."

"There really aren't any problems with someone from the Drake Family attending. I am only worried that Xiao Jing might fall in love at first sight with that slag man!" said Xue Xia.

Feng Yang says, "I do not think Xiao Jing's taste would be that poor."

"I'm just too worried. Look at our darling~ who would think of kidnapping such an adorable child. No! I do not think that Bai Yuyan is enough. Let's look for some more good students to team up with Xiao Jing. Or this old man's heart wouldn't be able to calm down." said Xue Xia.

Dean Astra nodded without any question. After all, he is in total agreement. "This... I would definitely help!"

First Military Academy

At the Dormitory

Bai Yuyan returned to his room as soon as he left the dean's office. He didn't forget to spray the mist perfume on him once after knowing that his pheromone's aroma was spreading for the others to notice.

"How come that Feng Jing didn't notice my pheromone?" murmured Bai Yuyan while sitting crossed legs on his room's floor carpet while staring at the exorbitant fist-size perfume bottle in front of him.

[This is because Feng Jing hasn't completely awakened as a Guide yet.]

Bai Yuyan says, "Well according to the story I've read he had failed to awaken after being beaten up by the people the original Bai Yuyan's secret admirer had hired. Would he be able to awaken as one within a month? Since he had the phoenix bloodline would his quantum beast be a phoenix? What do you think, Stella?"

[With how the Feng Family is overprotective of him, there is no way they would only leave you to guard their little precious baby phoenix. They would definitely send some soldiers from his brother's unit incognito. As for the awakening, this world isn't completely like the novel the master had read. Wasn't the fact that the fixed battle between you two being canceled enough fact?

As for his quantum beast after being awakened, being a phoenix is a definite truth. Almost everyone with the direct bloodline of Feng had a phoenix for a quantum beast. The patriarch of the Phoenix Clan can be said to have the purest bloodline. His quantum beast is the Crimson Phoenix from the legends. As for his son, Feng Tian is a mutated one. With Ice bloodline from the Xue Clan, Feng Tian's quantum beast is Ice Phoenix.

As for the youngest generation Eldest young lord, Feng Yang, his quantum beast is also a mutation like his father but unlike his father's ice attribute variation, his is darkness. Feng Yang's quantum beast is a Hell Fire Phoenix, a black-colored phoenix. It possessed fire and poison elements.

The Crown Princess Feng Yue on the other hand had inherited a more mixed bloodline of Feng and Navi. Her quantum beast is kind of special. It possessed Fire and poison elements like Feng Yang. It's a Zmiulan, a flying serpent.]

[A/n: Xue Xia the wife of Feng Xuan is from a family with the purest bloodline of Ice. His quantum beast is a Snow leopard. Feng Tian's wife, Navi Luna, is possessed by the bloodline of darkness from the black turtle clan. Her quantum beast is black mamba.]

Bai Yuyan's expression turned sour after hearing the explanation of his quantum beast about the Feng Clan's bloodline.

"Why is it that the more I learn something about the Feng Clan the more I feel that they are a family full of cheats," murmured Bai Yuyan.

[Master is not totally wrong. But there is still someone even more abnormal than the Feng Clan.]

Bai Yuyan checked through his memories and knew who the person Stella was thinking about.

"Is it Marshal Sirius?"

[Yes! His quantum beast is a fallen god type. A black dragon who possessed the legendary dark and light elements. Moreover, his overall potential is beyond triple S. Though his recorded level is only SSS at the moment.]

Hiss~ "The protagonist gong in the novel only possessed a lesser dragon bloodline. It's only a drake while his is purebred. No wonder he died early from mania in the story."

[Marshal Sirius died in the novel?]

"Because his quantum beast is so heavenly that the backlash of mania is even greater. Moreover, he had no guide to help him and no guide was able to help him as the difference in power is too much. Most guides who tried to help him in the story had imploded to an overdose of his spirit qi. The description is too gore and bloody~ Ah, I puked my dinner that time!" said Bai Yuyan. "I wonder if he would die in this world as well."

[Master that's enough recollection of that madcap novel. Please start meditation to stabilize your spirit. As for the physical training, Stella would design it and give it to the master tomorrow morning. For now, please resume your daily routine training from the other world.]

"Okay~"

The Feng Mansion.

The mansion owned by the Phoenix Family is luxurious. It is huge with courtyards, greenhouses, an orchard, and a vineyard. There is also a river surrounding the mansion which separates half of the land from the others. Near the lake and maple trees were scattered close to the edges of the waterway.

There are few greenhouses, this is where the family grew herbs for concoctions like the healing potion from before. An orchard is made of different kinds of fruit trees. There are apples, oranges, mangoes, and more. As for the vineyard, varying types of grapes used for winemaking are grown here.

The training grounds were hidden underground. There is another area where the whole clan hides their mechas and spaceships. The interior possessed north, south, east, and west wings. With the center building as main and south as the entrance.

The north building is where the elders live. The West Wing is where the 2nd generation lives and the East wing is where the current generation descendants like Feng Yang and Feng Jing live. Meals and family meetings were done at the center building.

After dinner.

East Wing Courtyard.

Feng Jing's room.

Feng Jing was scolded by his father for doing all foolish things due to misunderstanding after eating his meals. It was thanks to his mother and big brother that he was freed from his father's long nagging at some point.

As soon as he entered his room, the area was divided into a few rooms. The first door leads to the living room. On the right, there are two more doors. One kitchen and one guest room. On the left, another two more rooms are located. Master's Bedroom and the study room.

Feng Jing heads to the Master's bedroom and falls straight face on his silk-covered bed. The design of his room is like ancient china mixed with a futuristic design. It seems most of the rooms in the mansion are like this.

"My head is dizzy from a scolding that is not meant for me."

[Host, are you okay? Do you want Yue to massage your head?]

"Not a bad idea. Please do so for a bit. Acting an innocent and adorable personality all day tires me a lot ba~"

Zhi Yue materialized and held his host to ease his aching head. He gently massaged his temples and forehead to soothe the pain.

"Don't worry Lord Hei, this black history Yue had already fully recorded," said Zhi Yue smiling.

Feng Jing, "You brat. Sigh~ press a bit harder." He even closed his eyes to enjoy the massage.

"Lord Hei, is it just me or your cultivation gets lower at every completion of the world?" asked Zhi Yue honestly.

"Hn, I was wondering when are you going to ask that. I've noticed lately that you've been observing me too closely." movelusb.com

"Does the lord not use the accumulated world energy we had gathered in every world?"

"Of course, I use that. But not for me but to repair A'Xia's body. It wasn't only his soul that had a problem after all. My cultivation gets lower because I'm choosing to stabilize my soul instead of full healing. Full restoration needs for me to sleep like A'Xia does." replies Feng Jing. "But if even I go to slumber who would collect A'Xia's soul fragments, it's not like An Liang could leave the Nether System empty or else those old bastards from the Hei Family would completely take over. Tsk! Remembering now makes me want to kill them."

Zhi Yue finally understood the reason why his host would sometimes enter meditation only to finish and feels nothing had changed for himself. He wasn't curing his own ailment but instead is repairing the vessel of the Lord God.

Feng Jing suddenly rose from his bed and said, "Enough of that. Yue give me the upgrade perks for this vessel."

"Lord Hei would need to enter meditation all night for it," said Zhi Yue.

"Hmm~ I don't mind. Go ahead," said Feng Jing who sat on the carpeted floor, crossed his legs into a lotus form, and closed his eyes instantly entering meditation.

Zhi Yue had passed to his lord the Physique and Spirit Upgrade he had chosen before entering the world.

[Name: Feng Jing

Age: 18

Type: Guide (Unawakened)

Special Bloodline: Feng (Phoenix)

Physique: A

Spirit: S

Overall potential: SS]

This is the original profile of Feng Jing.

Chapter 279: 8.6 First Blue Star - Grandad! Mom! Look!

The sun had just risen to the sky illuminating the whole area in light. Once the day had begun, everyone in the Oberion Empire had to wake up from their slumber.

At the First Military School's dormitory.

Bai Yuyan was awakened by his quantum beast, Stella, in the middle of his meditation. A rough tongue licks his face when Bai Yuyan opens his eyes, feline irises that match the same shade of purple as his eyes appear in front of him.

[Master, it's morning. Please take a bath. You need to pick up Young Lord Feng Jing before classes begin. It's one of your tasks as his bodyguard.]

"Fine~," said Bai Yuyan as he stood up from his meditation and headed to the bathroom.

After half an hour of preparations, he heads to the Dean's office as per the message he had received from his communication device. He is to accompany Feng Jing's aide, Feng Wu, to pick him up at the Feng Mansion...

Feng Wu is a student like the rest of them by a year higher. Feng Jing and Bai Yuyan were in their second year while Feng Wu is in their third year. He is someone from the Feng branch. He had been serving Feng Jing since they were children.

Feng Wu possesses red-orange hair and lighter shade brown eyes as he was not a direct bloodline of Feng which means his quantum beast is not a phoenix. He is an awakened and unpaired guide. His quantum beast is a fire fox. His features were ordinary but his temperament is tranquil and calm.

Once you've met his almond-shaped red-orange eyes you would feel that he is observing you too close and down every single detail. Bai Yuyan was a bit startled meeting Feng Wu's eyes.

In his mind, he asked his system and quantum beast to give him this character's profile

[Name: Feng Wu

Age: 20

Type: Guide (Awakened)

Quantum Beast: Fire Fox

Special Bloodline: None

Physique: A+

Spirit: S+

Overall potential: SS+]

Bai Yuyan murmured, "As expected this person is strong."

His thoughts, 'My intuition towards people was still working. How come when looking at the silly young master, Feng Jing yesterday. I could feel he is a lot stronger than this one called Feng Wu but his potential is only SS.'

Dean Astra smiles at Bai Yuyan who just arrived. "Student Bai, you're here. Let me introduce to you Xiao Jing's aide, Feng Wu. Since you were going to work together it's better to get along."

Feng Wu approached Bai Yuyan and reached out his hand, "Feng Wu, third year. I will also be joining you in the competition. Pleased to meet you, Student Bai."

"Pleasure is all mine, Senior Feng," said Bai Yuyan.

Feng Wu spoke, "I hope you take good care of the young lord while in class as I could not accompany him there."

"I promise. I will," said Bai Yuyan.

Dean Astra was smiling at these two outstanding students. With these two around things would be better around his little nephew. Now he only has to find a few sentinel children to protect these three.

It didn't take a while for these two to take a ride prepared by the Feng Clan to bring them over to the Mansion. When their shuttle stopped at the entrance they were blocked by two sentinel guards which at least possessed S rank strength.

Feng Guards blocked their entrance, "Identification checkpoint. Please show us your ID."

Bai Yuyan and Feng Wu raise both temper communication devices near the opened shuttle window and let the guards check their identities.

"Aide Wu and Student Bai, your arrival has been approved."

Only then the guards had allowed their shuttle to pass through the gates of the Feng Household.

Bai Yuyan asked, "Is it always this strict in this place?"

"Yes, the Feng Clan's Mansion is protected land. It is normally impossible to enter without an appointment a day ahead. The only reason your entry had been approved is because the Patriarch had registered your name under Young Lord Feng Jing like mine.

Now you should be able to enter the mansion with just your ID as long as Young Lord Feng is in the mansion." explained Feng Wu.

This is Bai Yuyan's first time seeing a large place and just call it a mansion. From the world, he comes from. A place this big can already be considered as a palace instead.

Bai Yuyan murmured, "This place... Is too big? It's like a palace~"

"The real imperial palace is bigger than this one. Moreover, this place can be considered small as the only ones who live here are the direct bloodline of the Phoenix Family and their aides," said Feng Wu.

Bai Yuyan asked, "You've seen the Imperial Palace?"

"Yes. Whenever Lord Jing comes over to visit his elder sister..." answered Feng Wu.

[Master, Feng Jing's elder sister, Feng Yue, is married to the Crown Prince, Zenith Regulus.]

"Do you live here too?" asked Bai Yuyan.

Feng Wu answered, "Yes, I am after all Young Lord Feng Jing's aide."

Upon their arrival in the mansion, they were welcomed with the other aides of the other members of the Feng Family. There are no servants as the mansion is being cleaned by AI robots 24/7.

Names of the aides.

Feng Xuan: Feng Xu (Sentinels)

Xue Xia: Xue Lan (Guides)

These two are partners as well in real life with Lan as guide and Xu as a Sentinel.

Feng Tian: Feng Ouya (Sentinels)

Navi Luna: Feng Yae (Guides)

Feng Ouya and Yae are siblings. They are sentinel and guide twins. Yae is female.

Feng Yang: Feng Ren (Sentinels)

Feng Yue: Feng Anyi (Guides)[Married to Zenith Regulus and lives in the Imperial Palace.]

Feng Jing: Feng Wu (Guides)

The one at the door is Feng Xu and Xue Lan. They were both looking in their mid-forties. They both smiled at the arrival of Feng Wu and Bai Yuyan.

Feng Xu spoke, "Is this the child that will be Young Master Jing's bodyguard?"

"Yes, Grandpa Xu. Good morning Grandpa Lan," said Feng Wu.

Xue Lan is a man of few words but he still nods at the greeting of the child and pats his head gently. He also didn't forget to greet the guest.

Feng Wu says, "Please don't mind my wife. He hates talking."

At this moment, twin siblings just came down at the right time to inform the kitchen to prepare and serve breakfast when the Elders and Lords are coming down. After coming out of the kitchen they noticed Feng Wu and a new kid appearing at the doorway.

Feng Ouya and Feng Yae look like they've just entered their thirties and still look a bit in their twenties. In short, they have fewer wrinkles than Feng Xu and Xue Lan.

Feng Ouya, "A'Wu, is it time to pick the baby of the family?"

"Please don't call my master, baby, Uncle Ouya," says Feng Wu.

"Brother stop teasing Xiao Wu ba~," says Feng Yae.

Feng Ouya murmured, "It's not like I am wrong Young Master Jing is indeed this Clan's Baobei~"

Feng Wu chose to ignore this childish adult and told Bai Yuyan to follow after him. They walk towards the East Courtyard where the youngest generation lives. With Feng Wu in the lead, they reached Feng Jing's room.

At first, Feng Wu knocked on the door a few times after waiting for 10 minutes and no one still answered Feng Jing had to open the room with his spare key and enter. Bai Yuyan was surprised to see Feng Wu having a key to his Master's room.

Feng Wu says, "Please don't look at me like that. This key is personally given to me by Lord Jing. The reason for this you'll know when you see it. Follow me to the Master's bedroom."

Following Feng Wu, they head to the inner room on the left side. Feng Wu knocked on the door a few times only to sigh and opened the door as if it had been done a few more times in the past and then what happened next shocked the two.

As soon as the door to the Master's bedroom was opened, Feng Wu and Bai Yuyan were assaulted with the sweet yet peppermint scent from the room. The aroma was so overwhelming that those who had smelled it fell into a state of intoxication.

Bai Yuyan fell into a state of charm. "W-What is this fragrance... S-So nice... Want to smell more..."

[Master!!! Get out of the room! The effects of this pheromone are intoxication and worse, its control!!!]

Unfortunately, the former mercenary king had no experience with things with regards to someone's pheromones especially for a special one like this with a unique effect.

Feng Wu, who is an awakened guide, knew too well what this fragrance is. This is the pheromone owned by a guide who is about to awaken but... this is the first time he had experienced a pheromone with an effect of charm.

He slapped himself awake and grabbed Bai Yuyan and ran out of the room forcefully. After closing the door in the bedroom he turned on the humidifier inside the whole quarters, this is to prevent the fragrance of Feng Jing's pheromone from spreading outside of this room.

In just a span of a few short moments this newly awakened guide had fallen in a state of intoxication and his cute face tainted with red blush as if he was drunk.

Feng Wu's state is not that calm as well as the cold feel his body is heating at this moment. The effects of his Master's pheromones are a bit too much for an ordinary guide to bear.

"Thankfully it was me who entered the Young Master's room first. If it's someone else I don't know what would happen to them!" Feng Wu murmured as he glanced at Bai Yuyan who seemingly fell into a drunken state.

After sending the message to the elders and lord, Feng Wu stares coldly at Bai Yuyan as if he wants to kill him. It was at this moment that Stella materialized in reality to protect his master.

With the sudden appearance of a fierce black leopard appearing out of nowhere, Feng Wu's fire fox appeared in thin air as well and took a protective stance in front of Feng Wu.

Feng Wu understood that Bai Yuyan's quantum beast misunderstood him.

"I was only going to get him to take a shower to remove his current drunk state. Since you've appeared yourself, bring him to that room over there. That's the bathroom, wake him up before the elders come up!" said Feng Wu who unbuttoned his collars and crossed his legs to force out the pheromones that entered his body with his spirit.

He meditates for a while until his reddish face slowly fades and only sweats can be found on his body. His state completely returned to normal when the door to this room was forcefully opened.

The ones who entered the room were all guides. Xue Xia, Navi Luna, and their aides.

Navi Luna looks around the place worriedly when she hears that her baby had started his awakening as a guide and his pheromones had a special effect that could cause those who smell it to fall into a state of intoxication.

"Xiao Wu. Where's my baby?!" asked Navi Luna.

Feng Wu weakly answered, "Bedroom. I've turned on the humidifier so the scent should be lessened."

Xue Xia pats his head gently and says, "Good work child, leave the rest to us!" Then he entered the Master's bedroom with only Navi Luna.

The other aides, Xue Lan and Feng Yae stayed in the living room to guard the door. Feng Yae helped the weakened Feng Wu who was sitting on the floor to sit on the nearby couch.

Xue Lan noticed someone was missing, "Where is the other kid?" he asked.

"Grandpa Lan, I've asked his quantum beast to drag him into the bathroom to cool his head. To our surprise, we were both directly assaulted by Lord Jing's pheromones. I am okay as I've been awakened for a year at least but Student Bai just awakened recently. He still does not know how to guide his spirit to force out the pheromones in his body." explained Feng Wu.

An obvious frown appeared on Xue Lan's face. As one of the oldest aides serving the Feng Family, their priorities were their Master's first and the Master's family as second and only their lives as third.

Xue Lan, "Teach him how to do it as soon as possible. If this happens again I will have to tell the master to replace him."

"Come on, the boy would only work with us for a month. Don't be too strict Uncle Lan~ Moreover, the boy had just awakened and was a commoner, it is normal for his knowledge about some things to be lacking," said Feng Yae.

Xue Lan said, "It would be too late if something happens. Still teach him how to properly control his spirit qi, Xiao Wu."

"Understood, Grandpa Lan."

Meanwhile, inside the Master's bedroom, Xue Lan and Navi Luna immediately frowned as soon as they entered the room. The humidifier had indeed lessened the effect on them but this doesn't mean it had no effect. They had to coat their whole body with spirit qi and prevent the pheromones from affecting them.

Xue Xia murmurs, "It really has an effect on intoxication and charm. If Xiao Jing learns to control his own pheromones he would be able to control someone with it."

Navi Luna walked towards her peacefully sleeping son. She was smiling so sweetly when she noticed the round thing his baby was hugging in his arms.

"Dad! Look at this!?" exclaimed Navi Luna as she pointed at the object her son was hugging.

Xue Lan was also shocked by what he saw. He was not shocked by what that thing was, but by how large it was. It had the size of half the child's height. Looking at how Feng Jing is hugging it to sleep curling around it made it look funny.

Pfft! Clicked!

He took a few pictures of his grandson's sleeping figure before putting on a live stream of what is happening in the room to those Sentinels who couldn't enter inside the room.

"Dad~" calls Navi Luna after noticing her dad-in-law forgetting their purpose here.

Cough! "Okay, wake Xiao Jing up for now," says Xue Xia.

Navi Luna, the mother of Feng Jing, walks towards her youngest and gently wakes him up.

"Darling~ darling~ wake up for mommy okay?" says Navi Luna.

Feng Jing languidly murmurs, "Mommy?"

The beautiful young man on the bed groggily opens his phoenix-shaped revealing a pair of deep crimson irises. The few drops of tears in the corner of his eyes make him look adorable yet seductive. Thankfully, the child hasn't fully matured yet.

Xue Xia muttered, "Thankfully this child hasn't fully matured yet. With these natural seductive gestures and pheromones with charming effects, I wonder how many men would fall under my grandson's foot."

"Grandad? Mom? Why are you in my room?" asked Feng Jing as he sat up from his bed only to slip on the smooth surface of the thing beside him. He even hit his nose on it. "Ouchiiie~ what is this?"

With a red nose, Feng Jing confusedly hugs the huge round thing in his arms. Then his gaze alternates on his family and the huge round thing in his hand. After recognizing what the thing is in his arms, Feng Jing happily announced.

"Grandad, Mom look! Xiao Jing had laid an egg!!!" said Feng Jing.

What followed afterward were loud waves of laughter from within the Feng Mansion.

Chapter 280: 8.7 First Blue Star - What is inside the Egg?

Peals of laughter resound within the whole mansion of the Feng Family. This is after their youngest had happily announced that he had laid such a huge egg out.

HAHAHAHAHA~~

It took a while for everyone to calm down after laughing at Feng Jing. Before Xue Xia and Navi Luna allowed the Sentinels of their family to meet the youngest, they sprayed a high purity mist perfume on Feng Jing.

Moreover, with the sudden awakening of Feng Jing, Feng Wu and Bai Yuyan were tasked to report to the dean about the situation. The Patriarch of the Feng Clan had asked for 3 days' leave for his newly awakened grandson. This stabilized his awakening as a guide.

With this, the youngest of the phoenix family had no other choice but to stay at home.

After everyone had enough of laughing, they had to stop themselves from continuing doing so as the youngest had already started pouting. If they tease him more they would most likely end up getting ignored by this silly child.

Feng Xuan, "Okay, okay... Xiao Jing Grandpa is no longer laughing. Look!"

Xue Xia, "Xiao Yeye is wrong. Won't laugh anymore,"

"Dad didn't laugh, darling~," said Feng Tian.

"Mommy didn't mean to laugh darling. Mommy is sorry," said Navi Luna.

Cough! Cough!

"Gege is wrong~ Xiao Jing, gege is at fault." said Feng Yang.

The others also started coaxing Feng Jing who hugged his egg and faced his back on them. They had to say a few more words before the child turned around to look at them. His mouth was closed like a duck and obviously pouting still.

Cough!

"Xiao Jing, can Grandpa see your egg?" asked Feng Xuan.

Xue Xia spoke, "Darling, grandpas have to check what kind of quantum beast would hatch from your egg. Can you let us see the egg?"

Feng Jing wanders his eyes on them for a bit then nods his head. He carried the big egg like it was weightless and placed it on the carpet near his family. But he still sat near his egg as if guarding it.

Meanwhile, in his mind System, Yue had been laughing too much since before that he is now hyperventilating. He never expected his cold-hearted host would act so silly like that for the sake of his mission this time.

[Hahaha....heheheh...hihihihi...cough. Cough. Hah~ pfft! Hahaha...]

"Tsk! Just die!" said Feng Jing in his head. He almost materialized in that system space and kicked this bastard who was laughing his ass out and buried it alive.

"Enough." An icy voice echoes in the system space.

[Yes! I'm sorry!]

"Tsk! Go look for my husband and the other two."

[Okay, Host. I haven't found the Lord God and Warden Lou but Prisoner Yun had already appeared. He is your aide in this world, Feng Wu.]

"No wonder that Feng Wu reacted like that. Send him a message to meet me."

[Yes, Host.]

Back to reality,

Almost all of the adults were circling the egg of Feng Jing. The round egg is not ordinary. Its color is a gradient of red-orange and deep crimson with black and white snowflakes pattern. There's also a golden crown on the top of the egg signifying its king bloodline.

"Hmm~ this shade of color is definitely the same as this old man's egg from before. I'm sure that the one inside definitely has a strong phoenix bloodline seeing that the overall color of the egg is a shade of red," murmured Feng Xuan.

Xue Xia happily exclaims when he sees the snowflakes pattern on the egg, "Snowflakes!? My bloodline is obvious as well. Is this a flame and ice?"

"Dad, some of the snowflakes are pitch black in color, don't tell me?" said Feng Tian as he pointed out the side of an egg with black-colored snowflakes.

Navi Luna grasps her hand in joy seeing that her youngest had also taken in her bloodline.

"It is my bloodline!" she exclaims as Navi Luna looks excitedly at her husband.

Feng Tian nodded his head with a small smile on his face when his wife was looking at him.

Feng Yang, "But it's this egg too big for a phoenix? When mine and Father's egg were awakened the size was only half of this one. Not only that, this crown on the top is familiar as well. I think I've seen it on a book before~"

Everyone also felt that the crown on the egg is familiar as well. While they were thinking about it, they heard the sounds of flipping paper and saw Feng Jing checking a quantum beast encyclopedia to check the similarities of his eggs to the others that it's already well known.

This special book is from the Royal Library and was sent to Feng Jing by his sister and brother-in-law after knowing that he would be awakening.

Feng Jing murmurs, "Crowned egg. Crowned egg. Found it! Eh, what is this? A fallen god bloodline. The purest and noblest bloodline of dragons. It is rare and can only be seen once in a millennium.

Dragon? But Xiao Jing is a phoenix though?"

While there is confusion on Feng Jing's face after reading the book his family had a different reaction. They borrowed the book his brother Zenith had sent to him and observed the description of the book and the egg like a crazy madman.

Feng Xuan even started trembling in excitement and amazement.

"T-This... How can this be possible!?" exclaimed Feng Xuan.

Xue Xia acted differently and remembered his daughter-in-law's bloodline rumors that they also had dragon blood on them but none of Navi's generation has fully awakened this bloodline. Most of their quantum beasts were all snakes that didn't even trigger the hidden dragon bloodline in Navi's genes.

"Luna, didn't your Navi clan is said to possess a dragon bloodline?" asked Xue Xia.

Navi Luna suddenly received countless pairs of eyes on her.

"Y-Yes there is. It's just that it's been a long time since someone triggered the dragon bloodline and because of it our quantum beast all remained as snake type instead," said Navi Luna.

Feng Tian, "Did our son trigger that old bloodline as well? Is this why his egg is this big?"

Feng Yang murmurs, "A unique Phoenix Dragon Hybrid?"

Gasped!

Everyone gasped when they learned about this and watched their innocent youngest walking around in a circle rubbing his egg with his cheeks. Feng Jing placed his ears near the egg as if listening to something. To everyone's eyes, he looks so excited as a child that could wait for his playmate to be born.

Feng Yang, "I can't be correct right?"

Silence~

Now everyone thinks that their youngest quantum beast when its hatch will be one of the most unique quantum beasts in the whole Oberion Empire.

A Phoenix with a dragon King's bloodline.

Because of this, the Feng Clan decided to hide this news about their youngest quantum beast and decided to spread a piece of false news that Feng Jing fails to awaken as a guide and become an ordinary person instead.

Feng Xuan spoke, "Inform those who are in this mansion today to keep Xiao Jing's awakening a secret. Let those from outside the family sign a sealing order!"

"Yes, Patriarch!"

The next day the phoenix family had once again called Bai Yuyan to come to the Feng Mansion and he was told to sign a sealing order and give an oath of promise.

Quantum Beast, Stella, and Bai Yuyan's conversation in their mind.

[Master just agrees. If you don't... I'm afraid that the Feng Clan is going to kill you.]

"Tsk! I know that. I was just wondering why there is acting like this? Did that silky Feng Jing's awakening have some scruples?" asked Bai Yuyan.

[I've checked. There is no problem with Feng Jing's awakening but... His egg hasn't hatched yet.]

"So there is no problem?"

[There is no problem with the egg. It's just that its size is way too big to be just a mere phoenix.]

"Now I see what is wrong," murmured Bai Yuyan.

In reality, he signed the sealing order and spoke the words of oath to promise not to say a thing about Feng Jing's awakening being successful. In exchange, the Feng Clan was willing to sponsor the child until he had chosen a brigade to join with.

Seeing that this young man called Bai Yuyan is accepting all the selfishness the Feng Clan is forcing on him. Feng Yang decided to accept this child into his brigade if the child wanted to.

Feng Yang, "Thank you for your acceptance of our circumstances, Student Bai."

"There is no problem at all, Major General Feng. This Bai Yuyan had nothing against Student Feng and wouldn't do anything to harm him at all." said Bai Yuyan.

"Your words are enough. If there are problems you couldn't solve in the future our Feng Clan is willing to help you at that time. At least this Feng Yang promised to do so.

If you wanted to join my Phoenix Brigade in the future. This Feng Yang is welcoming you."

"This... Let me think about it. I promise to keep the word on my side. I should get going and return to the academy."

Feng Yang asked, "Do you not wish to visit Xiao Jing?"

"I can... visit him."

"Of course! We are only forbidding you from telling others of his awakening but as his friend, it's normal for you to visit Xiao Jing any time you want," said Feng Yang with a friendly smile.

Bai Yuyan unconsciously blushes at this sight and immediately averted his eyes, no longer meeting Feng Yang's eyes.

[Master your heart is beating fast. Are you sick?]

"N-No. Just shut up," replied Bai Yuyan in his mind.

Bai Yuyan with Feng Yang leading him had reached Feng Jing's room unhindered but unlike with Feng Wu who needs a key to enter the room, Feng Yang just needs his fingerprints to be recognized at the door and it would unlock on its own.

Feng Yang entered the room followed by Bai Yuyan.

"Xiao Jing, Student Bai came over for a visit."

"Gege? A'Yu came over!?" Feng Jing runs over and grabs Bai Yuyan's hand and pulls him over. "A'Yu, good timing I will show you my egg. A'Wu says my egg is quite beautiful."

Bai Yuyan was surprised by a huge egg towering over him. It seems that with just a night's sleep the size of the egg had increased.

"Why is it so big!? Are you sure this is an egg!?" said Bai Yuyan in shock.

Feng Jing spoke, "Wasn't this big yesterday? It was only half my size before. When I woke up this morning it was like this."

Suddenly the egg started wiggling bit by bit which scared Bai Yuyan and at the same time made him think it's interesting.

His eyes glow interestedly, "Wow~ it's moving," murmurs Bai Yuyan.

Feng Jing, "A'Yu can visit me any time but... I won't be able to join the training until my egg hatches..." his head is lowered in regret.

"Don't worry about it. The news about you not failing to awaken had spread already but I and Senior Wu don't mind. Though the first three sentinel students who were supposed to join us had declined, Senior Wu and I promised to look for some members before the competition." said Bai Yuyan with a smile.

"Then since I cannot join the training yet I will give you this instead," said Feng Jing as he opened his communication device to send a small program he made last night. "Train with this program I made. It had three modes: Mapping, Synchronisation Link, and Pinpoint weakness.

The mapping would automatically load the searched data for the terrains within 100 kilometers radius. At each new location, it would collect and auto upgrade itself as long as you keep it activated.

Pinpoint Weakness is useful at any being. It would calculate the overall information of the target/s as long it is on sight. It can be filtered by at least 5 and at most 10 all at the same time.

The first two-mode I've mentioned. Only used star network as a source. I've already made a domain within it and there would definitely be no traffic when used

As for the last mode, you should try it when you're riding a mecha. With both your and A'Wu's physique, there should be no problem controlling a mecha right? You would be surprised to see its usefulness when you try it yourself." says Feng Jing as if he hadn't made a master level and gave it away like that.

His innocent smile is in contrast to how heavenly defying the program he introduces just now. Clearly, these kinds of high-level programs are restricted within the military only. But this silly one in front of them just made one like simply digging a cabbage in his own garden as if it's a common thing.